SEC. 2. Abolition of agencies. (a) The offices and agencies listed in section 1 hereof, including the offices of the heads of such agencies, are abolished. The provisions of the foregoing sentence with respect to any such office or agency shall become effective at such time as the Board of Commissioners shall specify, but in no event later than June 30, 1953.

(b) The Office of People's Counsel established by section 3 of the act of December 15, 1926 (D. C. Code, 1940 edition, sec. 43–205) and its functions are abolished.

(c) The Board of Commissioners shall make such provisions as the said Board may deem necessary with respect to winding up the affairs of any office or agency abolished by the provisions of this section.

SEC. 3. Performance of functions of Board. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the Board of Commissioners is hereby authorized to make from time to time such provisions as it deems appropriate to authorize the performance of any of its functions, including any function transferred to or otherwise vested in the Board of Commissioners by this reorganization plan, by any member of the Board of Commissioners, or by any other officer, employee, or agency of the Government of the District of Columbia, except the courts thereof.

(b) The Board of Commissioners shall not provide for the performance by any member of the Board of Commissioners, or by any other officer, employee, or agency of: (1) any function vested in the said Board by Act of Congress with respect to making and adopting regulations except those pertaining to the administration of or procedure before any agency of the Government of the District of Columbia; (2) the function of approving any contract in excess of $25,000; (3) the function of appointing or removing the head of any agency responsible directly to the Board of Commissioners; or (4) the function of approving the budget for the District of Columbia.

SEC. 4. Establishment of new offices. (a) There are hereby established in the Government of the District of Columbia so many agencies and offices, and with such names or titles, as the Board of Commissioners shall from time to time determine. The said offices shall be filled by appointment by, or under the authority of, the Board of Commissioners. Each officer so appointed shall perform the functions delegated to him in accordance with this reorganization plan and shall receive compensation to be fixed in accordance with the classification laws, as now or hereafter amended, except that the compensation for not to exceed fifteen such offices at any one time may be fixed without regard to the numerical limitations on positions set forth in section 505 of the Classification Act of 1949 (5 U. S. C. 1105).

(b) There are hereby established in the Government of the District of Columbia two new offices one of which shall have the title of "Chief of Police" and the other the title of "Fire Chief." The Chief of Police and the Fire Chief shall each be appointed by the Board of Commissioners and shall each receive compensation fixed by the said Board at a rate of not in excess of $12,800 per annum.

SEC. 5. Transfer of personnel, property, records, and funds. With respect to personnel, property, records, and unexpended balances of appropriations, allocations, and other funds, available or to be made available, relating to functions transferred, or authorized to be delegated, by the provisions hereof, the Board of Commissioners from time to time may effect such transfers between agencies of the Government of the District of Columbia (including transfers between the Board of Commissioners and any other agency of the Government of the District of Columbia) as the Board may deem necessary in order to carry out the provisions of this reorganization plan.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

TITLE 6—AGRICULTURAL CREDIT

Chapter III—Farmers Home Administration, Department of Agriculture

Subchapter B—Farm Ownership Loans

[Administration Letter 283 (400)]

PART 311—BASIC REGULATIONS

TEMPORARY CREDIT RESTRICTIONS

Section 311.8, Title 6, Code of Federal Regulations (16 F. R. 10305), is amended to (a) revise the maximum dwelling loan limits on Farm Housing and Farm Ownership loans, (b) remove section 503 Farm Housing loans from the maximum amortization period requirements, (c) permit the maximum amortization period requirements for Farm Housing and Farm Ownership loans to be waived in favor of veterans on ground of hardship, and (d) make minor clarifying or incidental changes of language. The section is amended so that paragraphs (a), (c), (d), and (g) read as follows:

§ 311.8 Farm Housing and Farm Ownership temporary credit restrictions—(a) General. (1) Farm Housing and Farm Ownership loans in the continental United States (not including Alaska) approved by the State Field Representative on or after June 11, 1952, must comply with the applicable credit restrictions set forth in this section.

(2) The credit restrictions established by this section apply only to Farm Housing and Farm Ownership funds advanced for dwelling construction as defined in paragraph (b) (1) of this section, and do not apply to amounts loaned for other purposes.

(3) These restrictions do not apply to any case in which the amount of Farm Housing or Farm Ownership funds to be used for dwelling construction is $2,500 or less.

(b) Definitions. • • •

(c) Maximum dwelling loan. The maximum amount of Farm Housing or Farm Ownership funds that may be loaned to a qualified applicant for dwelling construction purposes depends upon the transaction price group within which the planned dwelling construction falls and whether or not the applicant has veteran preference.

(1) The maximum loans for dwelling construction purposes are set forth in the following tables:

Transaction price of dwelling (as defined in par. (b) (3) of this section):	Maximum dwelling loan (veteran preference)
More than $2,500 but not more than $7,000	100 percent of cost of dwelling construction.
More than $7,000 but not more than $10,000	$6,720 plus 90 percent of excess of transaction price over $7,000.
More than $10,000 but not more than $12,000	$9,420 plus 84 percent of excess of transaction price over $10,000.
More than $12,000 but not more than $16,000	$11,100 plus 45 percent of excess of transaction price over $12,000.
More than $16,000 but not more than $21,000	$12,900 plus 43 percent of excess of transaction price over $16,000.
More than $21,000 but not more than $25,000	$15,050 plus 30 percent of excess of transaction price over $21,000.
Over $25,000	65 percent of transaction price.

Transaction price of dwelling (as defined in par. (b) (3) of this section):	Maximum dwelling loan (no veteran preference)
More than $2,500 but not more than $7,000	95 percent of transaction price.
More than $7,000 but not more than $10,000	$6,300 plus 75 percent of excess of transaction price over $7,000.
More than $10,000 but not more than $15,000	$8,550 plus 55 percent of excess of transaction price over $10,000.
More than $15,000 but not more than $21,000	$11,300 plus 45 percent of excess of transaction price over $15,000.
More than $21,000 but not more than $25,000	$14,000 plus 25 percent of excess of transaction price over $21,000.
Over $25,000	60 percent of transaction price.

NOTE: The complete schedule of maximum dwelling loans as issued by other Federal agencies is included in paragraph (c) (1) of this section even though Farm Ownership and Farm Housing loans will not include sufficient funds for dwelling construction to fall within the upper brackets.

(d) Maximum amortization period—(1) Farm housing. The maximum amortization periods established by this section apply to each section 502 Farm Housing loan which includes more than $2,500 for dwelling construction purposes.

(i) The maximum period over which a section 502 Farm Housing loan which includes more than $2,500 but not more than $12,000 for dwelling construction purposes may be amortized is 25 years.

(ii) The maximum period over which a section 502 Farm Housing loan which includes more than $12,000 for dwelling construction purposes may be amortized is 20 years.

(iii) Section 503 Farm Housing loans are not subject to the maximum amortization period requirements.

(2) Farm Ownership. The maximum amortization periods established by this section apply to each direct and insured Farm Ownership loan where more than $2,500, for dwelling construction purposes is included, and the funds to be advanced for dwelling construction purposes exceed 75 percent of the total loan for all purposes.

(i) When that portion of the Farm Ownership loan to be advanced for dwelling construction purposes is more than $2,500 and not more than $12,000, and if the amount to be advanced for dwelling construction purposes exceeds 75 percent of the total loan for all purposes, the maximum amortization period of the total loan is 25 years.

(ii) When that portion of the Farm Ownership loan to be advanced for dwelling construction purposes is more than $12,000, and if the amount to be advanced for dwelling construction purposes exceeds 75 percent of the total loan for all purposes, the maximum amortization period of the total loan is 20 years.

(iii) Loans which either include not more than $2,500 for dwelling construction purposes, or include for dwelling construction purposes not more than 75 percent of the total loan for all purposes may be amortized for not more than 40 years in accordance with present procedure.

(e) Application of credit restrictions to subsequent Farm Housing loans. • • •

(f) Application of credit restrictions to subsequent Farm Ownership loans. • • •

(g) Waiver of credit restrictions. (1) The Administrator may waive the credit restrictions established by this section when it is necessary to make further advances to protect the Government's security for outstanding loans.

(2) The State Director may waive the credit restrictions established by this section when the Farm Housing or Farm Ownership loan includes funds for the replacement, reconstruction, or repair of a farm dwelling destroyed or substantially damaged by flood, fire, or similar casualty, upon written certification by the applicant that he experienced such loss or damage to the dwelling on his farm and that the loan funds will be used to reconstruct or repair the dwelling, or, in case of unusually severe damage or a total loss, provide a new dwelling. The applicant's certification should be obtained at the time he applies for Farm Housing or Farm Ownership assistance. This certification should be in the following form:

I certify that the dwelling(s) on my farm has (have) been damaged by _____ (Insert type of _____ and that the requested loan funds casualty) will be used to reconstruct, repair, or replace the damaged dwelling(s).

(Date)

(3) The State Director is authorized to waive the maximum amortization period requirements in the case of a veteran for whom repayment of a Farm Ownership or a section 502 Farm Housing loan within the applicable maximum amortization period would constitute a hardship.

This section is promulgated in compliance with a determination of the Housing and Home Finance Administrator acting pursuant to E. O. 10161, September 9, 1950 (3 CFR, 1950 Supp., p. 123), that such promulgation is necessary to carry out the purposes of Title VI of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended (Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong., Pub. Law 69, 82d Cong., Pub. Law 96, 82d Cong., Pub. Law 139, 82d Cong.). It shall be applicable notwithstanding any other provisions of this subchapter or Subchapter A and shall terminate upon the termination of E. O. 10161 unless terminated earlier by proper authority.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter VIII—Production and Marketing Administration (Sugar Branch), Department of Agriculture

Subchapter E—Determination of Sugar Commercially Recoverable

[Sugar Determination 831.2, Amdt. 1]

PART 831—BEET SUGAR AREA

1949 AND SUBSEQUENT YEARS

Pursuant to the provisions of section 302 (a) of the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended, the Determination of Sugar Commercially Recoverable in the Beet Sugar Area from the 1949 and Subsequent Crops of Sugar Beets, issued September 30, 1949 (14 F. R. 6057), is hereby amended by (1) inserting the word "and" at the end of paragraph (a), and (2) deleting paragraphs (b) and (c) and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

§ 831.2 Determination of sugar commercially recoverable from sugar beets. • • •

(b) In the case of sugar beets marketed in a settlement area under any type of agreement other than an "individual test" contract, 95.23 percent of the amount of sugar calculated by applying to the net weight of the sugar beets, at the time of delivery to a processor, the weighted average percentage of sugar content of all the sugar beets of the next proceeding 7 crops marketed in such settlement area, according to cossette tests made by the processor. For the purpose of this determination "settlement area" means an area in which the marketing agreements between the processor and producers for each crop of sugar beets contain a common pricing formula.

• • • • •

This amendment shall be effective with respect to the 1952 and subsequent crops of sugar beets.

STATEMENT OF BASES AND CONSIDERATIONS

The determinations of sugar commercially recoverable from sugar beets, effective for the 1948 and subsequent crops, have provided that Sugar Act payments on sugar beets marketed under any type of agreement other than an "individual test" contract in the district of a beet sugar factory located in Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, Utah, Washington or Wyoming would be based on the weighted average percentage of sugar content of all the sugar beets of the next preceding seven crops marketed in the local settlement area. The payments on the 1947 and prior crops in these districts and on all crops in the districts of factories located in other States where beets are marketed under similar contracts have been based on the percentage of sugar content of each crop marketed in the local settlement area. The change to the 7-year weighted average basis was limited to the States listed above primarily because processing campaigns in those States are relatively long and consequently the plan could be particularly effective there in accelerating payments to producers. The change in basis apparently met with general satisfaction. When interest in this plan on the part of growers in several other areas developed during recent months, the reactions of growers, processors, and local committees of the Production and Marketing Administration in making this basis effective in all districts in which beets are marketed under other than "individual test" contracts were solicited through State PMA offices. The responses indicated favorable reactions on the part of most of the interested parties and no serious objections were registered. Consequently, this amendment makes this basis effective in all such districts beginning with the 1952 crop.

Under this basis the completion of payment applications need not be delayed until all the beets produced in an area are processed. The marketings of all growers in the area can be reported by the processor at the end of harvest and periodic reports may be submitted during the harvesting season to facilitate payments to those producers who complete their marketings relatively early. It is believed that over a period of years there will be little difference in total payments made to individual growers, particularly those who produce beets quite regularly. The use of weighted averages rather than simple averages will tend to equalize total payments. The average basis will result in less variation in amounts of payment per ton of beets from year to year. Slightly larger Sugar Act payments on crops of low sugar content and smaller payments on crops of high content will result, representing a reverse effect as compared with processor payments. Moreover, subject to correction for any revision of the determination of rates of sugar commercially recoverable, the conditional payment per ton on any crop can be computed as soon as the data for the previous crop in the area are available.

Except for the modifications shown herein concerning the extension of the 7-year weighted average basis to all areas in which beets are marketed under any type of agreement other than an "individual test" contract, the provisions of the original determination as issued September 30, 1949, are unchanged.

Accordingly, I hereby find and conclude that the foregoing amendment will effectuate the purposes of section 302 (a) of the Sugar Act of 1948.

(Sec. 403, 61 Stat. 932; 7 U. S. C. Sup. 1153. Interprets or applies sec. 302, 61 Stat. 930; 7 U. S. C. Sup. 1132)

Issued this 26th day of June 1952.

[Sugar Determination 863.5]

PART 863—SUGARCANE; FLORIDA

FAIR AND REASONABLE WAGE RATES DURING THE PERIOD JULY 1, 1952, THROUGH JUNE 30, 1953

Pursuant to the provisions of section 301 (c) (1) of the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended (herein referred to as "act"), after investigation, and consideration of the evidence obtained at the public hearing held in Clewiston, Florida, on April 25, 1952, the following determination is hereby issued:

§ 863.5 Fair and reasonable wage rates for persons employed in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of sugarcane in Florida during the period July 1, 1952, through June 30, 1953—(a) Requirements. The requirements of section 301 (c) (1) of the act shall be deemed to have been met with respect to the production, cultivation, or harvesting of sugarcane in Florida during the period July 1, 1952 through June 30, 1953, if the producer complies with the following:

(1) Wage rates. All persons employed on the farm shall have been paid in full for all such work and shall have been paid wages in cash therefor at rates as agreed upon between the producer and the worker, but after July 1, 1952, or the date of issuance of this determination, whichever is later, not less than the following:

(i) For work performed on a time basis.

	Cents per hour
(a) All workers except as otherwise specified	55.0
(b) Tractor drivers and operators of mechanical harvesting or loading equipment	65.0
(c) Workers between 14 and 16 years of age (maximum employment per day for such workers, without deduction from payments under the act to the producer, is 8 hours)	48.0

(ii) For work performed on a piecework basis. The piecework rate for any operation shall be as agreed upon between the producer and the worker: Provided, That the hourly rate of earnings of each worker employed on piecework during each pay period (such pay period not to be in excess of two weeks) shall average for the time involved not less than the applicable hourly rate prescribed in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph.

(2) Perquisites. In addition to the foregoing, the producer shall furnish to the worker, without charge, the perquisites customarily furnished by him such as a habitable house, garden plot, medical attention, and similar items.

(b) Subterfuge. The producer shall not reduce the wage rates to workers below those determined in this section through any subterfuge or device whatsoever.

(c) Claim for unpaid wages. Any person who believes he has not been paid in accordance with this determination may file a wage claim with the local County Production and Marketing Administration Committee against the producer on whose farm the work was performed. Such claim must be filed within two years from the date the work with respect to which the claim is made was performed. Detailed instructions and wage claim forms are available at the office of the local County PMA Committee. Upon receipt of a wage claim the County PMA Committee shall thereupon notify the producer against whom the claim is made concerning the representation made by the worker, and, after making such investigation as it deems necessary, notify the producer and worker in writing of its recommendation for settlement of the claim. If either party is not satisfied with the recommended settlement, an appeal may be made to the State PMA Committee, Cheops Buildings, Gainesville, Fla., which shall likewise consider the facts and notify the producer and worker in writing of its recommendation for settlement of the claim. If the recommendation of the State PMA Committee is not acceptable, either party may file an appeal with the Director of the Sugar Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. All such appeals shall be filed within 15 days after receipt of the recommended settlement from the respective committee, otherwise such recommended settlements will be applied in making payments under the act. If a claim is appealed to the Director of the Sugar Branch, his decision shall be binding on all parties insofar as payments under the act are concerned.

STATEMENT OF BASES AND CONSIDERATIONS

(a) General. The foregoing determination provides fair and reasonable wage rates which a producer must pay, as a minimum, for work performed by persons employed on the farm in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of sugarcane in Florida during the period from July 1, 1952 through June 30, 1953, as one of the conditions for payment under the act.

(b) Requirements of the act and standards employed. In determining fair and reasonable wage rates it is required under the act that a public hearing be held, that investigations be made and that consideration be given to (1) the standards formerly established by the Secretary under the Agricultural Adjustment Act, as amended, and (2), the differences in condition among various sugar producing areas.

A public hearing was held in Clewiston, Florida, on April 25, 1952, at which interested persons presented testimony with respect to fair and reasonable wage rates for sugarcane work during the period from July 1, 1952 through June 30, 1953. In addition, investigations have been made of conditions affecting such wage rates. In this determination consideration has been given to the testimony presented at the hearing and to information resulting from investigations. The primary factors which have been considered are (1) prices of sugar and by-products; (2) income from sugarcane; (3) costs of production; (4) cost of living; (5) relationship of labor cost to total cost. Other economic influences also have been considered.

(c) 1952–53 Wage Determination. In this wage determination, minimum wage rates for all classes of workers are increased 5 cents per hour above the corresponding rates provided in the 1951–52 wage determination. Other provisions of the prior wage determination remain unchanged.

At the public hearing, producer representatives recommended that there be no increase of minimum wage rates in the 1952–53 wage determination. A labor union representative recommended that a minimum wage of 75 cents per hour be provided, among other reasons, to attract more domestic workers to sugarcane work. Other testimony was presented to the effect that most of the unskilled workers engaged in the cultivation and harvesting of sugarcane are British West Indians employed on a piecework or task basis; that during 1951–52 earnings of these workers ranged between 50 and 65 cents per hour for hoeing sugarcane and between 75 cents and $1.00 per hour for cutting sugarcane; that in most cases semi-skilled and skilled workers are nationals employed on an hourly basis at rates which ranged from 5 to 15 cents above the minimum rate of 60 cents per hour specified in the wage determination last year; and that in addition to wages, producers furnish workers without charge the customary perquisites such as housing, water, garden plots and medical attention.

In this determination, consideration has been given to the testimony and recommendations presented at the public hearing, to the standards customarily considered in wage determinations and to the returns, costs and profits of sugarcane producers obtained by restating survey information for prior years in terms of production and crop conditions and prices for sugar and molasses expected to prevail for the 1952–53 crop. During recent years, sugarcane returns to producers and farm labor productivity have improved substantially. Although non-labor items of cost have increased, the net effect of all changes has been an improvement in the producers' situation. Higher living costs, on the other hand, have absorbed past increases in the earnings of workers during this period. After consideration of all factors, the wage rates provided in this determination are deemed to be fair and reasonable.

Accordingly, I hereby find and conclude that the foregoing wage determination will effectuate the wage provisions of the Sugar Act.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter XVI—Selective Service System

[Amdt. 41]

PART 1622—CLASSIFICATION RULES AND PRINCIPLES

STANDARDS AND REQUIREMENTS FOR APPRENTICE TRAINING PROGRAMS

The Selective Service Regulations are hereby amended by adding the following new section to Part 1622, Classification Rules and Principles, immediately following § 1622.23:

1622.23a Standards and requirements for apprentice training programs and acceptance of such programs for deferment purposes under paragraph (b) of § 1622.23. (a) Under the provisions of subparagraph (1) of paragraph (b) of § 1622.23 an apprentice training program must meet all of the standards and requirements prescribed in paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) of this section.

(b) The apprentice training program must be an organized plan, written or implied, embodying the terms and conditions of employment, training, and supervision of one or more apprentices in one or more apprenticeable occupations, as defined in paragraph (c) of this section, and subscribed to by a sponsor who has undertaken to carry out the apprentice training program. The sponsor may be an employer of labor, a joint apprenticeship committee, a trade union, a group of employers of labor, or an association of journeymen.

(c) The apprentice training program must offer apprentice training in an occupation which—

(1) Customarily has been learned in a practical way through training on-the-job;

(2) Requires 4,000 or more hours of work experience to learn;

(3) Is clearly identified and commonly recognized throughout the industry;

(4) Requires during each year of apprenticeship the completion of 144 hours or more of organized and systematic related trade instruction designed to provide the apprentice with learning in theoretical and technical subjects related to the occupation;

(5) Is not merely a part of an occupation normally learned through apprenticeship;

(6) Involves a development of skill sufficiently broad to be applicable in like occupations throughout an industry rather than of restricted application to the products of one employer; and

(7) Does not fall within any of the following categories:

(i) Selling, retailing or similar occupations in the distributive field;

(ii) Managerial occupations;

(iii) Clerical occupations;

(iv) Professional or semi-professional occupations including occupations for which entrance requirements customarily include education of college level; or

(v) Agricultural occupations which include occupations such as the growing of crops, fruits or nuts, and the raising of livestock or poultry.

(d) The apprentice training program must have been in operation with apprentices actually being trained therein for a period of at least one year.

(e) Each State Director of Selective Service is authorized to accept for deferment purposes apprentice training programs within his State which are submitted to him by the sponsors of the programs when the programs meet the standards and requirements prescribed in paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) of this section. Any program so submitted to the State Director of Selective Service which is not so accepted by him may be submitted to the Director of Selective Service for his consideration for such acceptance. In making requests to the State Director of Selective Service for such acceptance of apprentice training programs, sponsors shall comply with the following procedures:

(1) If the apprentice training program has been registered with a State apprenticeship agency the certificate of such agency stating that the program meets all the standards and requirements prescribed in paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) of this section shall accompany the request for acceptance when it is submitted to the State Director of Selective Service by the sponsor for consideration.

(2) If the apprentice training program is registered with the Bureau of Apprenticeship of the United States Department of Labor the certificate of that agency stating that the program meets all the standards and requirements prescribed in paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) of this section shall accompany the request for acceptance when it is submitted to the State Director of Selective Service by the sponsor for consideration.

(3) If the apprentice training program has not been registered with either a State apprenticeship agency or the Bureau of Apprenticeship of the United States Department of Labor, the certificate of the sponsor stating that the program meets the standards and requirements prescribed in paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) of this section shall accompany his request for acceptance when it is submitted to the State Director of Selective Service.

(f) Under the provisions of subparagraphs (3) and (4) of paragraph (b) of § 1622.23 a registrant's activity as an apprentice in an apprentice training program may be considered to be necessary to the maintenance of the national health, safety or interest when all of the following conditions exist:

(1) The program sponsor has submitted to the local board a request for the occupational deferment of the registrant accompanied by the certificate of the sponsor that (i) the apprentice training program has been accepted for the purpose of deferment by the State Director of Selective Service for the State within which the program is being operated or by the Director of Selective Service, and (ii) the registrant is meeting the conditions prescribed in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(2) The registrant (i) currently is meeting all the standards and requirements of the apprentice training program and is satisfactorily performing and progressing in his on-the-job training and related trade instruction, and (ii) either is engaged in and has completed not less than 2,000 hours of apprentice training in an activity necessary to the maintenance of the national health, safety or interest, or is engaged in and has completed not less than 1,000 hours of apprentice training in an occupation listed as critical by the Secretary of Labor on the current list of critical occupations.

(Sec. 10, 62 Stat. 618, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. 460, E. O. 10366, June 26, 1952, 17 F. R. 5749)

This order shall become effective upon the filing thereof with the Division of the Federal Register, National Archives and Records Service, General Services Administration.

[SEAL] LEWIS B. HERSHEY,
Director of Selective Service.

TITLE 32A—NATIONAL DEFENSE, APPENDIX

Chapter III—Office of Price Stabilization, Economic Stabilization Agency

[Ceiling Price Regulation 152]

CPR 152—WESTERN PINE AND ASSOCIATED SPECIES OF LUMBER

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Ceiling Price Regulation 152 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This regulation establishes dollars-and-cents ceiling prices for manufacturers' sales of western pine and associated species of lumber and railroad ties produced in twelve western states. The species covered are Ponderosa Pine, Sugar Pine, Idaho White Pine, Lodgepole Pine, Engelman Spruce, Inland Red Cedar, Incense Cedar, Inland Larch and Douglas Fir, and White Fir.

Description of the industry. The production area covered by this regulation contains more than one-fourth of the country's standing sawtimber, and more than one-third of the total softwood stands. In 1951, the mills in this area produced over 7½ billion board feet of lumber, about one-fifth of the nation's total lumber production and about one-fourth of the total softwood production. Ponderosa pine is the major species, accounting in 1951, for more than half of the lumber production that is covered in this regulation.

Western pine lumber is consumed in wide areas of the United States, with large quantities moving into the midwest and eastern states. It is a basic material of prime importance in the civilian and defense sectors of the national economy. This lumber is widely used in residential, military, and industrial construction; for industrial purposes such as the manufacture of furniture, doors and window frames, and boxes; and by the armed forces for crating. The higher grades are in heavy demand by the building trades for interior finishing. In addition to its general uses, Idaho White Pine is a specialty wood particularly suitable for interior panelling. Sugar Pine is widely used in pattern making.

The industry also produces a large number of railroad ties that are used, for the most part, by Western railroads. For railroad ties, the regulation adopts as standard the Specifications of the American Railway Engineering Association.

Nature of this regulation. This regulation covers a production area that includes the States of Oregon, Washington, California, Idaho, Montana, South Dakota, Wyoming, Colorado, Utah, Nevada, Arizona and New Mexico. Insofar as the regulation covers Douglas Fir and White Fir lumber produced in California and in the Cascade Mountains of Oregon and Washington, this regulation overlaps geographically with Ceiling Price Regulation 128, covering Pacific Northwest Douglas Fir, True Fir, and West Coast Hemlock lumber. However, as the coverage of this regulation is limited to lumber that is sold either ungraded or graded in accordance with the rules of the Western Pine Association, and as CPR 128 is limited in scope to lumber that is graded under the rules of the West Coast Bureau of Lumber Grades and Inspection, the overlap is more apparent than real. Thus, so far as Douglas Fir and White Fir lumber is concerned, the two regulations together provide a basis whereby normal geographical and qualitative differences are reflected in different ceiling price schedules.

This regulation establishes manufacturers' ceiling prices, and does not deal with ceiling prices at the various distribution levels. The ceiling prices apply to all manufacturers' sales of lumber covered by the regulation, whether sold to a wholesaler, retailer, industrial user, or any other reseller or consumer, and whether sold directly or through a lumber commission man.

Practically all of the hundreds of basic items produced by the industry have specific ceiling prices set forth in the price tables of the regulation. Following industry custom, footnote references provide for non-standard items. For special items, which require special workings, specifications, services, etc., application must be made by the producers to the Office of Price Stabilization.

To assure uniform grade and measurement standards, the regulation adopts the grade and size standards set forth in the most recently issued "Standard Grading Rules" of the Western Pine Association, the standards that are used by the lumber manufacturers located in the production area covered by this regulation.

The basic ceiling prices set forth in the regulation are on an f. o. b. mill basis. For sales made on a delivered basis provisions are included for the addition of appropriate transportation charges. In conformance with established practice in the industry, and upon the recommendation of the Industry Advisory Committee, the regulation authorizes the use of basing points for the determination of transportation charges on certain delivered sales.

The provision in the regulation permitting an addition for commission-type sales is similar to provisions contained in several other lumber regulations already issued by OPS. However, some question has been raised as to the justification for this provision. OPS is giving the matter further study and will consult further with industry representatives regarding it. If any changes are found to be necessary they will be made simultaneously with respect to all lumber regulations.

Prices of Western Pine lumber items generally increased between June 1950 and January 1951. These increases, however, varied substantially between individual items and between firms in the industry. A distorted price pattern resulted, which was frozen by the General Ceiling Price Regulation. This regulation restores the generally prevailing price pattern in the industry by establishing schedules of dollars-and-cents ceiling prices that reflect the price differentials that customarily exist among the items covered. The historic relationship between the prices of Ponderosa Pine and other species of lumber covered by this regulation has been maintained in the schedules of ceiling prices.

The level of ceiling prices as established by the regulation is well within the range of the GCPR ceiling prices as submitted to OPS by the industry.

FINDINGS OF THE DIRECTOR OF PRICE STABILIZATION

In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization the ceiling prices established by this regulation are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to effectuate the purpose of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

So far as practical in the formulation of this regulation, the Director of Price Stabilization has given due consideration to the national effort to achieve maximum production in furtherance of the objectives of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended; to prices prevailing during the period from May 24, 1950, to June 24, 1950, inclusive; to those prevailing during the period January 25 through February 24, 1951, as well as to the level of prices prevailing just before the issuance of this regulation; and to all relevant factors of general applicability.

In formulating this regulation, there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations. This included three meetings with the Western Pine Industry Advisory Committee and three meetings with a subcommittee of the latter Committee.

Every effort has been made to conform this regulation to business practices existing with respect to the production, sale and distribution of the western pine and associated species of lumber covered by this regulation. Insofar as any provisions of this regulation may operate to compel changes in those business practices, such provisions are found by the Director of Price Stabilization to be necessary to prevent circumvention or evasion of this regulation.

COVERAGE

SECTION 1. What this regulation does. This regulation establishes dollars and cents ceiling prices for manufacturers' sales of Western Pine and associated species of lumber and railroad ties. (Note: Unless otherwise clearly required by the context, the term "lumber" as used in this regulation includes railroad ties.)

SEC. 2. What regulation is superseded. This regulation supersedes the General Ceiling Price Regulation insofar as it pertains to the transactions covered by this regulation.

SEC. 3. What products are covered—(a) Lumber. This regulation covers lumber of the following species, when produced in the indicated areas, and when sold either ungraded, or graded in accordance with Standard Grading Rules of the Western Pine Association (adopted April 15, 1949, and supplemented October 1, 1949, April 1, 1950, and October 1, 1951:

(1) Ponderosa pine (pinus ponderosa), Sugar pine (pinus lambertiana), Idaho White pine (pinus monticola), Lodgepole pine (pinus contorta) Inland larch (larix occidentalis), Engelmann spruce (picea engelmanni), Incense cedar (libocedrus decurrens), and Inland red cedar (thuja plicata), produced in a plant or mill located in Oregon, Washington, California, Idaho, Montana, South Dakota, Wyoming, Colorado, Utah, Nevada, Arizona, or New Mexico.

(2) Douglas fir (pseudotsuga taxifolia) and White fir (abies concolor) produced in a plant or mill located in California, Idaho, Montana, South Dakota, Wyoming, Colorado, Utah, Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico, or in the parts of Washington and Oregon that include the Cascade Mountains and extend eastward from the Cascade Mountains.

(b) Railroad ties. This regulation also covers: (1) All railroad ties of the species listed in paragraph (a) (1) of this section, produced in a plant or mill located in the states enumerated in that paragraph.

(3) All Douglas fir (pseudotsuga taxifolia) and White fir (abies concolor) railroad ties produced in a plant or mill located in Idaho, Montana, South Dakota, Wyoming, Colorado, Utah, Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico, or in the parts of Washington and Oregon that extend eastward from, but not including the Cascade Mountains.

SEC. 4. What transactions are covered. This regulation applies to all manufacturers' sales of lumber covered by this regulation. It thus applies when a manufacturer sells his lumber to a wholesaler, retailer, industrial user, or to any other reseller or consumer, whether or not the sale is made directly or through a lumber commission man. (Section 18 of this regulation provides an addition to cover the services of a lumber commission man. Supplementary Regulation 87 to the General Ceiling Price Regulation establishes a formula for determining wholesalers' and other resellers' mark-ups which may be added to manufacturers' selling prices).

SEC. 5. Geographical applicability. Every manufacturer's sale for delivery (f. o. b. or on a delivered basis) in the 48 states of the United States or in the District of Columbia, is subject to this regulation, whether or not the sale of the lumber is made in the United States.

BASIC CEILING PRICES, ADDITIONS, COMMISSION-TYPE SALES, AND PRICING RULES

SEC. 10. General explanation of ceiling prices. (a) The basic ceiling prices established by this regulation are f. o. b. prices. They apply to sales made: f. o. b. mill, f. o. b. car at mill, f. o. b. car at mill's customary rail shipping point in the case of an off-rail mill, or f. o. b. truck at mill. These basic f. o. b. ceiling prices are set forth in sections 45 through 55.

(b) Sections 11 through 19 explain how the basic f. o. b. ceiling prices are modified under certain circumstances, as, for example, when you sell your lumber on a delivered basis, when you make a mixed car or truck shipment, or when you sell your lumber through a lumber commission man.

SEC. 11. Delivered sales; general. (a) This regulation permits you to sell your lumber on a delivered basis, as well as on an f. o. b. basis. On sales on a delivered basis, you may add to the f. o. b. ceiling (or lower) price an appropriate transportation addition as explained in sections 12, 13, and 14.

(b) A sale described in an order, invoice, or otherwise, as "ceiling delivered" or "f. o. b. mill with freight paid, allowed, or included, to a given destination" will be considered, for the purpose of this regulation, a sale on a delivered basis.

SEC. 12. Delivered sales; shipment by common or contract carrier. When you sell on a delivered basis and you ship your lumber by common or contract carrier, the delivered ceiling prices are the f. o. b. prices set forth in sections 45 through 55 plus an addition for transportation. The transportation addition is computed by multiplying the appropriate established weight shown in section 56 by the applicable common or contract carrier freight rate in effect at the time of shipment. Where trucking to a yard or job site after a rail haul is required, the transportation addition may also include an appropriate charge for making the truck delivery as well as a charge for transferring the lumber from rail car to truck. You should note that when you sell on a delivered basis, the delivered price need not thereafter be revised or adjusted even if the amount actually charged by the common or contract carrier for carrying your lumber is different from the addition for transportation included in your delivered price.

NOTE: The provisions of this section do not apply to retail sales of the kind described in section 17.

SEC. 13. Delivered sales; shipment by private truck. (a) When you sell on a delivered basis, shipping your lumber in a truck which you own or hire, the delivered ceiling prices are the f. o. b. prices set forth in sections 45 through 55, plus an addition determined as follows:

(1) For distances of 10 miles or less, as much as $3.00 per M'BM.

(2) For a distance greater than 10 miles and as far as 20 miles, as much as $4.00 per M'BM.

(3) For a distance greater than 20 miles and as far as 30 miles, as much as $5.00 per M'BM.

(4) When the distance is greater than 30 miles, as much as an addition computed in the manner set forth in section 12, using applicable common or contract carrier truck rates.

(b) "Distance" defined. As used in this section, the term "distance" refers to the actual mileage from your mill or plant to the point of destination as measured by truck speedometer. It does not include the return mileage from the point of destination to your mill or plant. The term "point of destination" includes a yard or job site.

NOTE: The provisions of this section do not apply to retail sales of the kind described in section 17.

SEC. 14. Delivered sales; basing point rates. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 12 and 13, when you sell on a delivered basis and you ship your lumber by common or contract carrier or by private truck, you may compute an addition for transportation, which may be added to the f. o. b. prices set forth in sections 45 through 55, by multiplying the appropriate established weight by the applicable rail freight rate in effect at time of shipment from one of the basing points shown below to the point of final destination, provided that the indicated conditions are satisfied:

(a) When a shipment of lumber covered by this regulation, except Douglas Fir and White Fir lumber, to a point of final destination in California originates at a mill or plant in California from which the rail freight rate to the California point of final destination is less than the rail freight rate from Klamath Falls, Oregon, and Susanville, California, to the same destination, you may use either the applicable rail freight rate from Klamath Falls, Oregon, or Susanville, California, to the point of final destination; but in choosing between the Klamath Falls and Susanville rates, you must use the rate which produces the smaller transportation addition to the point of final destination.

(b) When a shipment of Douglas Fir or White Fir lumber covered by this regulation, to a point of final destination in California, originates at a mill or plant in California, Oregon, Washington, or Nevada from which the rail freight rate to the California point of final destination is less than the rail freight rate from Portland, Oregon, to the same destination, you may use the applicable rail freight rate from Portland, Oregon, to the point of final destination.

(c) When a shipment of lumber covered by this regulation originates at a plant or mill in South Dakota, Wyoming, Colorado, Utah, Arizona, or New Mexico from which the rail freight rate to the point of final destination is less than the rail freight rate from Spokane, Washington, Klamath Falls, Oregon, and Susanville, California, to the same destination, you may use the applicable rail freight rate from Spokane, Klamath Falls, or Susanville to the point of final destination; but in choosing between the Spokane, Klamath Falls, and Susanville rates, you must use the rate which produces the smallest transportation addition to the point of final destination.

NOTE: The provisions of this section do not apply to retail sales of the kind described in section 17.

SEC. 15. Mixed car or mixed truck shipments—(a) Addition to f. o. b. ceiling prices. When you make a mixed car or mixed truck shipment as defined in paragraph (b) of this section, the otherwise applicable ceiling prices are increased $3.50 per M'BM.

(b) Meaning of terms—(a) Mixed car shipment. A mixed car shipment consists of four or more of the items shown in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, each of which contains at least one thousand board feet of lumber.

(2) Mixed truck shipment. A mixed truck shipment consists of four or more of the items shown in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, each of which contains at least 250 board feet of lumber.

(3) Item. Each of the following-numbered groups of lumber products constitutes a separate item for the purposes of a mixed car or a mixed truck shipment under this section. In this connection, there are no requirements that the lumber products involved be derived from a single species covered by this regulation, or that all the lumber products listed within a numbered group be involved in a particular shipment:

(i) Dimension.
(ii) Plank and timbers.
(iii) Commons and box.
(iv) Selects.
(v) Pattern stock.
(vi) Siding.
(vii) Lath.
(viii) Casing, base and moldings.

SEC. 16. Stop-over car loadings—(a) Addition to f. o. b. ceiling prices. If you do not charge for making a mixed car or mixed truck shipment (see section 15), you may add as much as $2.00 per M'BM to the f. o. b. ceiling prices set forth in sections 45 through 55 whenever you load lumber on a railroad car partially loaded with another seller's lumber which has been stopped in transit to enable you to load your lumber.

SEC. 17. Retail sales; (a) Increased ceiling prices. You may determine your ceiling prices on retail sales as defined in paragraph (b) of this section by adding $9.00 per M'BM to the basic prices set forth in sections 45 through 55. If you determine your ceiling price for a retail sale under this section, you may not make any of the additions provided in sections 11 through 16.

(b) Definitions and limitations. As used in this section, a retail sale is a sale of less than 20,000 feet BM delivered by truck to a buyer who is contractor or ultimate consumer and who will use the lumber for construction or maintenance; it is not a sale to a commercial or industrial user for use in manufacturing; nor is it a sale to a buyer who purchases the lumber for resale. The total quantity of lumber involved in a single transaction or sale, between you and a retail buyer, without regard to the quantities involved in single deliveries, shall determine whether or not a sale qualifies as a retail sale within the meaning of this section.

If you determine your ceiling price for a retail sale as allowed in paragraph (a) of this section, you must:

(1) Deliver the lumber to a job site at such time and in such manner as the buyer specifies;

(2) Give the buyer the privilege of exchanging and returning unused lumber; and

(3) Rectify promptly any short deliveries from stocks you keep on hand for this purpose.

SEC. 18. Commission-type sales. When a sale of your lumber is brought about by the efforts of a lumber commission man, your ceiling price is the otherwise applicable ceiling price on the lumber sold plus four percent of the f. o. b. ceiling price. However, the amount which you may charge the buyer, pursuant to this section, over and above the otherwise applicable ceiling price, may not exceed the actual commission which you pay the lumber commission man. The term "lumber commission man" is defined in section 40.

SEC. 19. Pricing rules. You must apply the following rules in determining ceiling prices under this regulation;

(a) When an order does not specify a particular grade of lumber, you may not ship, or charge for, lumber graded higher than No. 2 common, and your charge shall be only for the grade or grades actually shipped.

(b) When a shipment is made which contains a greater percentage of short lengths than that permitted by this regulation for random lengths, you must price the excess short lengths separately at no more than their appropriate ceiling prices in order to sell the balance as random lengths.

(c) In all random length shipments, you may not charge more than the appropriate ceiling prices for the average length shipped.

(d) When a buyer waives moisture content requirements, you may not charge more than the appropriate ceiling price for green lumber; but in that case, when lumber is sold on a delivered basis, you may use the appropriate established weights for green lumber in computing transportation charges.

SEC. 20. Discount for cash. If the buyer pays cash, your ceiling prices determined under other provisions of this regulation are reduced by the amount of the discount which, during the period from January 25, 1951, through February 24, 1951, you allowed a purchaser of the same class for the payment of cash within the same period of time. If you were not in business between January 25, 1951, and February 24, 1951, your ceiling prices determined under other provisions of this regulation are reduced by 2 percent for cash payment within 10 days from date of invoice or date of bill of lading, whichever is later.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

SEC. 30. Ceiling prices for special transactions—(a) Application. If you cannot ascertain a ceiling price for lumber subject to this regulation under any other provision of this regulation, as, for example, should you wish to sell lumber with special workings, specifications, services, or other extras not specifically mentioned in this regulation, you must file an application with the Office of Price Stabilization, Forest Products Division, Washington 25, D. C., for approval of a special ceiling price. Your application must be made by registered letter, return receipt requested, and must set forth the relevant facts, including the following:

(1) As complete a description as possible of the lumber for which the application is filed. This should include the species, grade, condition, measurements, and quantity of the lumber, together with a detailed description of the workings, specifications, services, or other extras involved.

(2) Your proposed ceiling price, together with a statement indicating why you believe it is in line with the level of prices established under this regulation.

(3) Your ceiling prices to your largest buying class of purchaser, under the General Ceiling Price Regulation, both for the item in your application and for the most comparable item priced in this regulation.

(4) The proposed use to which the buyer will put the lumber for which you are proposing a special ceiling price.

(b) Quotation of proposed prices. After an application has been filed under this section, and before action by the Director of Price Stabilization, you may sell your lumber at the ceiling price proposed in your application: Provided, That you agree to, and later, refund to the buyer, the amount, if any, by which your proposed price exceeds the ceiling price established by the Director of Price Stabilization.

(c) Action by the Director of Price Stabilization. (1) After receipt of an application made under this section, the Director of Price Stabilization will approve or disapprove your proposed ceiling price, will request additional information about it, or will establish a different ceiling price for the item that is the subject of your application.

(2) If the Director does not notify you to the contrary or request additional information from you within 20 days after the receipt of your application, or within 15 days after the receipt of requested additional information, your proposed ceiling price shall be deemed to have been approved, subject to nonretroactive disapproval or modification at a later time.

(3) Approval of applications by the Director under this section are subject to a satisfactory showing that proposed prices are in line with the level of prices otherwise established by this regulation.

(d) Effect on other transactions. A special ceiling price approved pursuant to application made under this section shall be the ceiling price for all like future transactions between the same seller and buyer, unless a specific ceiling price for similar lumber shall be established by changes in this regulation, or unless the approval is subsequently revoked or modified by the Director of Price Stabilization.

SEC. 31. Modification of proposed ceiling prices by Director of Price Stabilization. The Director of Price Stabilization may at any time disapprove or reduce ceiling prices established under section 30 of this regulation so as to bring them into line with the level of ceiling prices otherwise established by this regulation.

SEC. 32. Exports. The ceiling prices for export sales and sales for export of lumber covered by this regulation are controlled by Ceiling Price Regulation 61 issued by the Office of Price Stabilization.

SEC. 33. Petitions for amendment. If you wish to have this regulation amended, you may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Price Procedural Regulation 1, revised.

SEC. 34. Adjustable pricing. Nothing in this regulation prohibits you from making a contract or offer to sell lumber subject to this regulation at (a) the ceiling price in effect at the time of delivery, or (b) the lower of a fixed price or the ceiling price in effect at the time of delivery. You may not, however, deliver or agree to deliver at a price to be adjusted upward in accordance with any increase in ceiling prices after delivery.

SEC. 35. Records—(a) Current records. On and after the effective date of this regulation, every person who sells and every person who in the regular course of business buys products covered by this regulation, shall make and keep for inspection by the Director of Price Stabilization, for a period of two years, accurate records or invoices of each sale or purchase made in any month in which the seller sold, or the buyer bought 20,000 board feet or more of lumber subject to this regulation. The records must show:

(1) The dates of sales or purchases;

(2) The names and addresses of the sellers and buyers;

(3) The kind of sales involved, i. e., delivered or f. o. b.;

(4) A description (i. e., the grade, condition, dressing, quantity, etc.), of the lumber sold or bought;

(5) The prices charged or paid, including all additions, extras, and discounts;

(6) The point of origin and point of destination of the shipment, the means of transportation used, the amount of any additions for transportation, and the basing point, if any, upon which the transportation addition may have been computed.

The retention by a buyer of an invoice furnished by a seller, which includes the factual information required to be made a matter of record by this paragraph, shall be considered as compliance with the provisions of this paragraph.

(b) Existing records. You shall also continue to preserve, for the applicable periods indicated in section 16 of the General Ceiling Price Regulation, all records which you made and kept under the provisions of section 16 of the General Ceiling Price Regulation.

SEC. 36. Invoices. (a) On all sales of lumber covered by this regulation, you must submit an invoice to the buyer which includes a description of the lumber. Any working, specification, extras, or services which bear upon the price charged for your lumber must be separately set forth on the invoice, but the invoice need not separately show the charge for such items.

(b) For sales made on an f. o. b. basis, in addition to the information required by paragraph (a), your invoice must show the f. o. b. price.

(c) For sales made on a delivered basis, in addition to the information required by paragraph (a), your invoice must show:

(1) The delivered price;

(2) The destination of the shipment; and

(3) The applicable rail or truck freight rate.

SEC. 37. Interpretations. If you want an official interpretation of this regulation, you should write to the District Counsel of the local OPS District Office. Any action taken by you in reliance upon and in conformity with a written official interpretation will constitute action in good faith pursuant to this regulation. Further information on obtaining official interpretations is contained in Price Procedural Regulation 1, revised.

SEC. 38. Prohibitions and violations. (a) You shall not do any act prohibited or omit to do any act required by this regulation, nor shall you offer, solicit, attempt, or agree to do or omit to do any such acts. Specifically, but not in limitation of the above, you shall not, regardless of any contract or other obligation, sell and no person in the regular course of trade or business shall buy from you at a price higher than the ceiling prices established by this regulation, and you and buyers from you shall keep, make, and preserve true and accurate records and reports required by this regulation.

(b) If you violate any provisions of this regulation, you are subject to criminal penalties, enforcement action, and actions for damages. Prices lower than the ceiling prices may be charged, paid, or offered.

(c) If any person subject to this regulation fails to prepare or keep any record or file any report required by this regulation in connection with the establishment of his ceiling price, or if any person subject to this regulation fails to establish a ceiling price or apply to the Office of Price Stabilization for the establishment of a ceiling price, if he is required to do so, the Director of Price Stabilization may issue an order fixing his ceiling prices. Any ceiling price fixed in this manner will be in line with ceiling prices generally established by this regulation. The order fixing the ceiling prices may apply to all deliveries or transfers completed prior to the date of issuance of the order. The issuance of such an order will not relieve the seller of his obligation to comply with the requirements of this regulation or of the various penalties for failure to do so.

SEC. 39. Evasions. Any means or device which results in obtaining indirectly a higher price than is permitted by this regulation or in concealing or falsely representing information as to which this regulation requires records to be kept is a violation of this regulation. This prohibition includes, but is not limited to, means or devices making use of commissions, services, cross sales, transportation arrangements, premiums, discounts, special privileges, up-grading, tie-in agreements and trade understandings, as well as the omission from records of true data and the inclusion in records of false data.

SEC. 40. Definitions. (a) This regulation and the terms which appear in it shall be construed in the following manner:

(1) Director of Price Stabilization. This term extends to any official (including officials of Regional or District Offices) to whom the Director of Price Stabilization, by order, delegates a function, power, or authority, referred to in this regulation.

(2) Lumber commission man. This term means a person who customarily sells lumber in carload quantities for two or more manufacturers, who receives his compensation from the manufacturer in the form of a commission based on the amount of lumber sold, and who operates independently of both buyer and seller.

(3) Manufacturer. This term means any person who produces or concentrates lumber subject to this regulation. The verb "manufacture" shall be construed accordingly. A lumber concentrator receives rough green lumber from small producers, and prepares it for commercial shipment.

(4) Person. This term includes any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or the legal successor or representative of the foregoing, and the United States and any other Government on their political subdivisions or agencies.

(5) Records. This term includes books of account, sales lists, sales slips, orders, vouchers, contracts, receipts, invoices, bills of lading, and other papers and documents.

(6) Sell. This term includes sell, supply, dispose, barter, trade, exchange, lease, transfer, deliver, and contracts and offers to do any of the foregoing. The term "buy" and "purchase" shall be construed accordingly.

(7) You. The pronoun "you" indicates any person who manufactures lumber subject to this regulation. The term "your" and "yours" shall be construed accordingly.

SEC. 45. F. O. B. Ceiling prices; Ponderosa pine lumber—(a) Nomenclature. All grade and size terms appearing in this section refer to, and have the meanings given in, Standard Grading Rules of the Western Pine Association (adopted April 15, 1949, and supplemented October 1, 1949, April 1, 1950, and October 1, 1951).

(b) Ceiling price tables. The following are the f. o. b. ceiling prices per one thousand feet board measure, or other measure where indicated, of Ponderosa pine lumber covered by this regulation:

SEC. 53. Ceiling price differentials and rules. (a) The following differentials and rules set forth in this section are applicable to the ceiling price tables shown in sections 45 through 52.

(b) The following additions for special provisions may be made to the applicable ceiling prices when the special provisions are specifically requested by the buyer:

(1) Ordinary resawing—Add $4.00 per M.

(2) Resawing and S2S, all grades—Add $7.50 per M.

(3) Ripping, per rip—Add $3.00 per M.

(4) Novelty saw ripping—Add $4.00 per M.

(5) Ripping and S4S—Add $7.50 per M.

(6) Cross cutting, per cut—Add $2.50 per M.

(7) Cleating (ordinary)—Add $5.00 per M.

(8) Bundling (ordinary)—Add $3.00 per M.

(9) Bundling (export)—Add $10.00 per M.

(10) Stock S4S wider than standard widths (hit or miss) as shown in Standard Grading Rules of the Western Pine Association—Add $2.50 per M.

(11) Cutting to specified exact length—Add $2.50 per M.

(c) Stock surfaced thicker than standard: When buyer orders lumber surfaced thicker than the standard thickness sizes, (hit or miss), shown in Standard Grading Rules of the Western Pine Association, the following additions may be made to the applicable ceiling prices:

For 1/32"—Add $2.50 per M.
For 1/16"—Add $5.00 per M.
For 3/32"—Add $7.50 per M.

(d) Standard Patterns: (1) For standard patterns of Casing and Base, Jambs, Sill Stock, Pulley Stiles, Log Cabin Siding, Dolly Varden Siding, 8" or 10" Bevel Siding, Corn Cribbing, and Knotty Pine Panelling patterns (not moulding grade), run from any grade desired and shipped machine run, $12.50 per M may be added to the applicable ceiling prices of the size and grade ordered.

(2) For standard patterns, other than S2S and S4S, which are not listed in subparagraph (1) above, $5.00 per M may be added to the applicable ceiling prices of the size and grade ordered.

(e) Open car loading: When requested by buyer and when material is of a type ordinarily loaded in box cars, a charge of $3.50 per M may be made. This charge includes the cost of stakes and all material required to secure the load firmly.

(f) Any ceiling price based on a percentage addition or deduction must be rounded to the nearest 25 cents.

(g) Random lengths are 6' and longer unless otherwise provided in the ceiling price tables.

(h) Log cabin siding. (1) All grades one inch and two inches—you may add $15.00 per M to the ceiling price of the same grade, size, and seasoning.

(2) All grades three inches—you may add $18.00 per M to the ceiling price of the same grade, size, and seasoning.

(3) Machine droppings—you may include up to 15 percent at $10.00 per M less than the ceiling price for the grade ordered.

(4) For less than 3 MBM—you may add a flat set-up charge of $15.00 to the applicable ceiling prices.

SEC. 54. F. O. B. prices; all species ungraded lumber. The following are the f. o. b. ceiling prices per one thousand feet board measure of ungraded lumber covered by this regulation:

[Ceiling Price Regulation 17, Supplementary Regulation 9]

CPR 17—GASOLINES, NAPHTHAS, FUEL OILS AND LIQUEFIED PETROLEUM GASES, NATURAL GAS, PETROLEUM GAS, CASINGHEAD GAS AND REFINERY GAS

SR 9—TANK WAGON AND RACK CEILING PRICES IN CERTAIN WEST COAST REFINERY AND TERMINAL PRICE AREAS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Supplementary Regulation 9 to Ceiling Price Regulation 17 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This supplementary regulation to Ceiling Price Regulation 17 establishes specific dollars-and-cents ceiling prices for tank wagon and "rack" sales of automotive gasoline in certain West Coast refinery and terminal price areas. The prices normally charged by wholesalers of motor gasoline in these areas for tank wagon sales were approximately uniform in each area for several years antedating the issuance of Ceiling Price Regulation 17. For "rack gasoline", however, which was sold in substantial volume at the refineries or refinery facilities and at certain bulk storage plants, sales were made to a special class of purchasers at a customary differential below the prevailing tank wagon price for the area. This type of discount transaction is customarily referred to as the sale of "rack gasoline" or "rack price gasoline." This gasoline is sold either f. o. b. the refinery or bulk plant, with transportation provided by the ultimate consumer or buyer, or is sold on a delivered-at-destination basis which consists of the "rack price" plus customary transportation charges.

In establishing specific dollars-and-cents ceiling prices in the areas designated, consideration has been given to the correction of price inequities which existed to a minor degree in some instances. Such inequities were caused mainly by price wars which were in effect immediately prior to and during the base period. Failure to adjust these ceiling prices would prolong existing price inequities among sellers and retain price inequities which would have been eliminated had the market been free to adjust itself.

Examination of prices on "rack gasoline" shows that the customary differential off tank wagon is predominantly 3 cents per gallon, as established in this regulation. In a few instances the discount is slightly less than 3 cents, while in others it is higher as a result of price war conditions which existed during the latter part of 1950 and continued through the base period.

It is also the purpose of this supplementary regulation to restore and establish the customary differential between the tank wagon ceiling price and the "rack" ceiling price to give relief to those sellers whose ceilings were frozen at abnormally low levels.

The determination of ceiling prices, as effected by this supplementary regulation, is regarded as essential to the maintenance of gasoline supplies through customary channels of distribution. Depletion of gasoline inventories has resulted in a tight supply situation and a dislocation of supply channels threatens within the areas unless the price inequities are removed.

The customary pricing practice on the Pacific Coast is to quote wholesale prices for deliveries other than by tank wagon in terms of discounts under or premiums over the tank wagon price. It is, therefore, essential to establish, coincident with the restoration of the normal differential for "rack" transactions, the prevailing tank wagon prices as the ceiling prices. Evidence is on file to show that the posted tank wagon prices of sellers in the areas covered by this supplementary regulation were, as of September 1, 1951, and have continued to be the prevailing tank wagon prices. No change in general price levels is being affected. Because of the existence of reasonably uniform prices, the establishment of dollars-and-cents prices is facilitated. The specific tank wagon prices which are spelled out by this regulation were in effect in the latter part of 1950; they became the ceilings during the base period; and have been maintained to date. They are regarded by the West Coast Petroleum Wholesale Industry Advisory Committee as fair and equitable. Moreover, the establishment of dollars-and-cents ceiling prices for tank wagon deliveries is in accordance with the announced policy of this Agency to establish specific ceiling prices, which situation is desirable from the standpoint of the consuming public, the sellers and the Government.

In the preparation of this supplementary regulation the Director has consulted with industry representatives including the West Coast Petroleum Wholesale Industry Advisory Committee and trade association representatives, to the extent practicable and has given consideration to their recommendations.

In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization, the provisions of this supplementary regulation are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to effectuate the purposes of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

REGULATORY PROVISIONS

1. Applicability of supplementary regulation.
2. Definitions.
3. Ceiling prices for tank wagon deliveries.
4. Rack gasoline.
5. Transportation.
6. Applicability of Ceiling Price Regulation 17.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 6 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply Title IV, 64 Stat. 803, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2101-2110, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105, 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.

SECTION 1. Applicability of supplementary regulation. This supplementary regulation sets specific ceiling prices for tank wagon sales of regular automotive and marine gasoline, sets a specific discount of 3 cents per gallon for sales of "rack gasoline" and sets quantity differentials in the areas of San Francisco Bay, Hanford, Bakersfield, Stockton, and Sacramento, California; Portland, Oregon; Tacoma and Seattle, Washington. This regulation is not applicable, nor does it refer to cargo sales of gasoline.

SEC. 2. Definitions. When used in this supplementary regulation the term:

(a) San Francisco Bay area includes Richmond, Oleum, Martinez, Avon Refinery and Terminal Price Area, including Parr Terminals in Cities of Oakland and Alameda and is that area bounded by a line commencing at a point on the easterly shoreline of San Francisco Bay immediately south of Mulford Landing (approximately West Avenue 144 if said avenue were projected to San Francisco Bay); thence, running due east to East

14th Street; thence, running northwesterly along Skyline Boulevard to the common boundary line of Contra Costa and Alameda Counties; thence, running northwesterly along Lake Chabot Road, Skyline Boulevard and Grizzly Peak Boulevard, approximately following the common boundary line of Contra Costa and Alameda Counties to a point at the northeast corner of the University of California Campus; thence, running due north to Pinole Valley Road; thence, running in an easterly direction along Pinole Valley Road to its junction with Bear Creek Road and Alhambra Valley Road; thence, running in a straight line to the southern and eastern city limits of Clayton; thence, running due north to a point on the south shoreline of Suisun Bay east of McAvoy; thence, running generally in a western direction along the south shoreline at Suisun Bay, Carquinez Straights and San Pablo Bay, embracing the cities of Port Chicago, Avon, Martinez, Port Costa, Crockett, Oleun, Rodeo, Pinole, and Richmond; thence, running southeasterly along the shoreline of San Francisco Bay to the point of commencement.

(b) Hanford area includes Hanford Refinery and Terminal Price Area, and is that area bounded by a line commencing at a point at the southerly limits of Traver on Highway 99, thence, due west to the northerly limits of Laton, thence, southwest to the westerly limits of Hardwick, thence, due south to Kansas Road, thence, east along Kansas Road to a point due south of point of commencement, thence, due north to point of commencement.

(c) Bakersfield area includes Bakersfield Refinery and Terminal Price Area and is that area bounded by a line commencing at the northwest part of the town of Lerdo, thence, southwesterly to intersection of Enos Lane and Fraser Road, thence, southerly on Enos Lane to its intersection with U. S. Highway 399 (Taft-Bakersfield Highway), thence, east through and including towns of Old River and Panama to and including Greenfield, thence, northeasterly to Town of Edison, thence, north to and including Granite Station, thence, southwesterly to point of commencement.

(d) Stockton, California, includes Stockton Terminal Price Area and is that area bounded by a line commencing at the intersection of U. S. Highway 99 and Eight Mile Road, thence, west to intersection with Thornton Road, thence, westerly to confluence of San Joaquin and Old River, thence, southerly along Old River to and including Woodward Island, thence, east to Middle River, thence, southeasterly along Middle River to a point where Highway 120 crosses Middle River, thence, east along Highway 120 to and including Simms, thence, north to and including Town of Linden to Waterloo Road, thence, west to Jack Tone Road, thence, north to Eight Mile Road, thence, west to point of commencement.

(e) Sacramento, California, includes Sacramento Terminal Price Area and is that area bounded by a line commencing at the intersection of Sankey Road with Sacramento River, thence, east to Sutter County line, thence, south to Sacramento County line, thence, easterly along county line to a point due north of Town of Antelope, thence, south on a line to include Antelope, Carmichael, Mills, and Mather Air Force Base to Highway 16, thence, southwest to and including Florin, thence, due west to a point two miles west of Sacramento River, thence, northerly along a line two miles west of the Sacramento River including West Sacramento, Broderick and Bryte to a point two miles due west of point of commencement, thence, due east to point of commencement.

(f) Portland, Oregon, includes Portland Terminal Price Area and is that area bounded by a line commencing at Columbia River, thence, southerly and east along the west bank of said river to a point due north of 122nd Avenue, thence, south through Gilbert to Multnomah County Line, thence, southwest through Battin and Milwaukee to and including Oswego, thence, north to the Multnomah County-Washington County line following same northwesterly to point of commencement, including the towns of Hillsdale, Willbridge, and Burlington.

(g) Tacoma, Washington, includes Tacoma Terminal Price Area and is that area bounded by a line commencing at the northern section of Pierce County line to Puget Sound, thence, east and southeast along County line to and including Milton, thence, south on a line west of Puyallup to Kirby, thence, west through Loveland and below Fort Lewis to the Nisqually River, thence, north through Dupont to Puget Sound and northward along east shortline thereof to point of commencement.

(h) Seattle, Washington, includes Seattle Terminal Price Area, and is that area bounded by a line commencing at Meadowdale on east shore of Puget Sound, thence, due east to U. S. Highway 99, thence, southeast to and including Kenmore at the north end of Lake Washington, thence, southerly along west shore of Lake Washington to and including Renton, thence, southwest on a line including Tukwila and Sunnydale to Three Tree Point on the east shore of Puget Sound, thence, northerly along east shore of Puget Sound to point of commencement.

SEC. 3. Ceiling prices for tank wagon deliveries. (a) Ceiling prices per gallon for tank wagon deliveries of regular gasoline in the enumerated areas and for the respective quantity differentials set forth shall be as follows:

	Regular grade gasoline, excluding all taxes
	400 gallons and over	200–399 gallons	40–199 gallons	Under 40 gallons
San Francisco Bay	14.5	15.0	15.5	18.5
Hanford	15.7	16.2	16.7	19.7
Bakersfield	14.5	15.0	15.5	18.5
Stockton	15.7	16.2	16.7	19.7
Sacramento	15.7	16.2	16.7	19.7
Portland	15.0	15.5	16.0	19.0
Seattle	15.0	15.5	16.0	19.0
Tacoma	15.0	15.5	16.0	19.0

(b) Ceiling prices for premium grade gasoline in the aforementioned areas for each seller shall be his price for regular gasoline as listed in paragraph (a) of this section for that area, to which he shall apply his customary differential between regular and premium grades of gasoline delivered by tank wagon.

(c) Ceiling prices for third grade gasoline in the aforementioned areas for each seller shall be his price for regular grade gasoline as listed in paragraph (a) of this section for that area, to which he shall apply his customary differential between regular and third grade gasoline delivered by tank wagon.

SEC. 4. Rack gasoline. (a) The ceiling price for "rack gasoline" of regular grade, f. o. b. refineries or refinery facilities or bulk plant facilities to that class of purchaser buying "rack gasoline" in the areas covered by this regulation shall be 3 cents per gallon below the specified tank wagon ceiling prices for quantities as established in section 3 (a) of this supplementary regulation.

(b) The ceiling price of a refiner for "delivered-at-destination" sales of "rack price gasoline" originating in the areas set forth in Section 1 shall be the f. o. b. ceiling price for such gasoline as established by paragraph (a) of this section, plus the refiner's customary transportation charge.

(c) The ceiling price of resellers of "rack price gasoline" which originates in any of the areas covered by this regulation shall be increased by the amount of increased cost of product to the reseller resulting from increases in ceiling prices permitted their suppliers by this supplementary regulation, irrespective of the location of the sale within or without the areas covered by this regulation.

(d) To determine ceiling prices for premium grades of rack gasoline, each seller shall apply his customary wholesale differential between regular and premium grades. To determine ceiling prices for third grade rack gasoline each seller shall apply his customary wholesale differential between regular and third grade gasoline.

SEC. 5. Transportation. The ceiling prices established under this regulation may be adjusted to reflect increases in transportation costs, occurring since September 1, 1951, in accordance with section 25 of Ceiling Price Regulation 17.

SEC. 6. Applicability of Ceiling Price Regulation 17. Sellers subject to this supplementary regulation shall be subject to all provisions of Ceiling Price Regulation 17 not inconsistent with the provisions of this supplementary regulation.

Effective date. This supplementary regulation shall become effective June 30, 1952.

SR 7—MODIFICATIONS AND ALTERNATIVE PROVISIONS FOR MANUFACTURERS OF CHEMICALS

ALUMINUM FLUORIDE AND SYNTHETIC CRYOLITE

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Amendment to Supplementary Regulation 7 to Ceiling Price Regulation 22 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This amendment to Supplementary Regulation 7 establishes ceiling prices for sales of aluminum fluoride and fluxing grades of synthetic cryolite by a manufacturer of those chemicals to replace the ceiling prices which the manufacturer has otherwise calculated under Ceiling Price Regulation 22. Aluminum fluoride and synthetic cryolite are now produced by two producers, the Aluminum Ore Company and the Reynolds Metal Company. Reynolds consumes all that it produces; the Aluminum Ore Company sells most of its production to its parent company, the Aluminum Company of America, but also sells a large portion of its production of aluminum fluoride to others. The largest purchaser of aluminum fluoride from the Aluminum Ore Company, other than the Ore Company's parent, is the Kaiser Aluminum and Chemical Corporation. Smaller amounts are, however, sold to other purchasers. Fluxing grades of synthetic cryolite produced by the Aluminum Ore Company are sold entirely to its parent company, the Aluminum Company of America.

Aluminum fluoride and synthetic cryolite are essential in the production of aluminum and have been certified by the Defense Production Administration as being in short supply. The expansion of the aluminum production program has required a corresponding expansion in the production of aluminum fluoride and synthetic cryolite. In order to increase its production of these chemicals from existing facilities, the Aluminum Ore Company has found it increasingly necessary to go outside of its normal sources of supply to obtain the raw materials required in their production, resulting in higher material costs to it. Higher material costs have also resulted from the fact that the Ore Company has been compelled to bring into operation less efficient facilities, which were hitherto in standby condition, and from the rise in the price of fluorspar. These higher material costs, according to data submitted to the Office of Price Stabilization by the Ore Company, have caused this producer to suffer a loss on all of its sales of aluminum fluoride and synthetic cryolite made since November 1, 1951, at the ceiling prices established by Ceiling Price Regulation 22. The essential nature of the commodities to the defense program requires that impediments to their production be removed, and this supplementary regulation therefore adjusts the ceiling prices established under Ceiling Price Regulation 22 to a level which permits the producer to sell the commodities on a break-even basis.

The study made by OPS shows that the producer has suffered a loss on its sales of aluminum fluoride since November 1, 1951, which is about the time that it applied to OPS for a ceiling price adjustment. Because these sales were made principally to a single purchaser, who will also be the principal purchaser of the commodity in the future, it is not deemed inconsistent with the stabilization program to provide in this case that ceiling prices be established for a short period which will permit the seller to recover both its present costs, and the losses which it sustained since November 1, 1951, in its sales to that purchaser. At the end of the short period, the ceiling prices are reduced to a level that will permit recovery of present costs only. Thus, for the period June 1, 1952 to August 31, 1952, the ceiling prices established are somewhat higher than those established for the period on and after September 1, 1952.

The expansion of the aluminum program will require the entry into the market of other producers of aluminum fluoride and synthetic cryolite. This enlargement of the market may make necessary a reexamination of the ceiling prices established by this regulation. On the basis of the information now available, however, it is the opinion of the Director that the ceiling prices established by this amendment are generally fair and equitable and meet the requirements of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended. It is further his opinion that the increases reflected by these ceiling prices are necessary to avoid an impairment of production necessary for the defense effort.

In the formulation of this amendment there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, to the extent practicable, and consideration has been given to their recommendations.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Supplementary Regulation 7 to Ceiling Price Regulation 22 is amended by adding a new section 9 to read as follows:

SEC. 9. Aluminum fluoride and synthetic cryolite. (a) This section applies to you if you manufacture aluminum fluoride and synthetic cryolite. It establishes ceiling prices for these commodities which replace those which you have calculated under Ceiling Price Regulation 22.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of Ceiling Price Regulation 22, the ceiling prices for sales of aluminum fluoride and synthetic cryolite (fluxing grade) produced by you are as follows:

(1) Aluminum fluoride.

For bulk sales in carload lots:
During period June 1, 1952, to August 31, 1952, inclusive, $0.1229 per pound.
During period on and after September 1, 1952, $0.1104 per pound.

F. o. b. production point. The foregoing ceiling prices are for 80 percent grade aluminum fluoride. Your ceiling prices for bulk sales in carload lots of aluminum fluoride of higher than 80 percent grade are the foregoing ceiling prices plus $0.0012 per pound for each one percent above 80 percent aluminum fluoride content.

For sale in bags or drums in carload lots of aluminum fluoride (82 percent aluminum fluoride content or more, crushed to pass through a four mesh screen):

During period June 1, 1952, to August 31, 1952 (per pound):
Sales in bags $0.1232
Sales in drums ..... .1327
During period on and after September 1, 1952 (per pound):
Sales in bags $0.1176
Sales in drums ..... .1211

F. o. b. production point. Drums and bags included.

(2) Synthetic cryolite (fluxing grades).

For bulk sales in carload lots: $0.1098 per pound, f. o. b. production point.

(3) For sales of aluminum fluoride in amounts, grades or sizes other than those included in (1) above, and for sales of fluxing grades of synthetic cryolite in amounts other than those specified in (2) above, your ceiling prices are those determined by applying to the appropriate ceiling price in (1) or (2) the differentials required or permitted by Ceiling Price Regulation 22.

(Sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup., 2154)

Effective date. This amendment is effective as of June 1, 1952.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 68, Amdt. 1]

CPR 68—PRODUCERS OF BRASS MILL PRODUCTS

ADJUSTMENTS IN CEILING PRICES

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this amendment to Ceiling Price Regulation 68 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This amendment to Ceiling Price Regulation 68 increases the ceiling prices for brass mill products to reflect increases in the cost of imported copper in accord with a directive issued by the Acting Director of the Office of Defense Mobilization.

Under the terms of an agreement between the United States and Chile, at the time CPR 68 was issued the price of Chilean copper being sold to the United States was set at 27½ cents per pound. On May 8, 1952, Chile terminated this agreement. Henceforth, all Chilean copper will be offered through ordinary commercial channels for sales at the best prices procurable.

Since the supply of domestic copper is insufficient to meet defense and essential civilian requirements, the Acting Director of the Office of Defense Mobilization on May 21, 1952, established and announced the policy which would be followed by the United States Government in order to meet the changed situation. The text of this announcement follows:

The agreement between the United States Government and the Chilean Government allocated 80 percent of the production of companies in Chile controlled by United States interests for purchase and import into the United States by U. S. private firms at 27½ cents a pound. It left the remainder of the production of copper in Chile to sell at much higher prices on the world market. This agreement was terminated by Chile as of May 8, 1952. The termination of this agreement and the copper strike in Chile, together with the Chilean stoppage of copper shipments since May 8 have produced shortages of copper for essential uses of the mobilization program in the United States.

It is necessary to meet the difficulties raised by these shortages and to permit the resumption of imports from Chile. It is also desirable to encourage an increase in the imports of copper from foreign countries, including Chile, over those previously prevailing. Consequently, the Government of the United States has adopted the following policies to meet the emergency:

1. In order to encourage importation of adequate supplies of foreign copper by private buyers under existing conditions, the United States Government is acting through the Office of Price Stabilization to permit brass mills and copper wire mills to add to their ceiling prices an amount representing 80 percent of any increase in cost of foreign copper above the 27½-cent level contained in the Chilean agreement which has just been terminated. The Office of Price Stabilization will periodically announce the permitted increases in ceiling prices which will be adjusted to reflect variation in foreign prices of copper and in the ratio of foreign copper used. The initial adjustments will become effective on June 16, 1952.

Comparable treatment will be provided for other primary users of refined foreign copper, including copper produced in this country from foreign ores and concentrates. The impact of any changes in the ceiling prices of primary copper products at subsequent levels of production and distribution will be treated in accordance with the existing pricing standards of the Office of Price Stabilization.

2. It is the policy of the United States Government not to make now and to avoid in the future changes in the existing price ceilings on domestically refined copper, brass mill scrap, or copper, or copper alloy scrap.

3. In order to maintain a uniform price policy on brass mill and copper wire mill products, taking into account the changes in the price of foreign copper, the National Production Authority will allocate foreign and domestic supplies as equitably as practicable among United States users. Allocation will be used to equalize the impact of any higher foreign prices for copper and to permit in this way the import of more copper for the total use of the United States defense program.

Subsequently, industry representatives raised very strong objections to the policy embodied in this Directive. One of the principal objections was based upon the fact that a large proportion of brass mills had previously used little or no foreign copper and that consequently, their prices and costs were based on 24½ cents rather than 27½ cents metal. Consequently, it was agreed that any pass-through must be computed from the 24½ cents level in order to avoid serious injustice to these mills. On the basis of these representations, the directive from the Acting Director of the Office of Defense Mobilization was revised subsequently to the extent that the adjustment in brass mill ceiling prices be related to the 24½ cents rather than the 27½ cents level.

Industry representatives have also suggested that ceiling price increases allowed by this amendment become effective July 1, 1952 rather than on June 16, and that the first period extend for 90 days before any possible adjustment be made. Because of the time involved in making price adjustments and the many variable factors entering into this change the later date appears preferable. It will also coincide with the proposed date to be used by the NPA in their plan of allocation. Accordingly, July 1, 1952 is the effective date of this amendment.

On and after July 1, 1952, the ceiling prices for brass mill products set forth in CPR 68 are adjusted as required by the ODM Directive. The amount of the increase is different for different products and is arrived at on the following basis:

The price currently quoted by the Bank of Chile is the equivalent of 36½ cents per pound delivered Connecticut Valley basis. The difference between this figure and the 24½ cents domestic price is 12 cents. 80 percent of this figure is 9.6 cents. In the absence of any actual experience in the operation of this program, it is anticipated that the ratio of consumption of foreign copper to domestic refined copper used in the production of brass mill products will be 40 percent foreign copper and 60 percent domestic copper, as provided in the National Production Authority plan of allocation. Applying the 40% foreign ratio to the 9.6 cents previously computed, yields an average increase in cost of 3.84 cents per pound of total primary copper purchased. The increase in ceiling price of all products except free-cutting brass rod due to the increased cost of copper is 3.84 cents per pound of copper content. In the production of free cutting brass rod, copper scrap constitutes about 20 percent of the raw materials used. Since this product contains about 62½ percent copper, the increase due to increased cost of foreign copper, after allowing for the price decline in zinc, is 1.22 cents per pound of product.

At the time of issuance of CPR 68, the price of zinc was 17½ cents per pound, East St. Louis, and the ceiling prices established in this regulation reflected this value of zinc. At the present time, this price of zinc has dropped to 15 cents per pound. This amendment requires that the ceiling prices of brass mill products containing any zinc be reduced to reflect the decreased cost of zinc in the same manner as they have been increased to reflect the increased cost of copper. Eighty percent of the 2½-cent decrease is 2.0 cents per pound. Therefore, the ceiling price of copper base alloy brass mill products containing zinc must be reduced 2 cents per pound of contained zinc.

It is anticipated that the adjustments in the ceiling prices made by this amendment will be modified from time to time to conform with changes in the price of imported copper and in the ratio of imported copper to total copper used in the production of brass mill products. It is presently contemplated, however, that the price adjustments provided for in this amendment will be effective for a period of 90 days from July 1, 1952, and that a recalculation will be made as of September 15, 1952, to be effective October 1, 1952.

So far as practicable, the Director has given due consideration to the national effort to achieve maximum production in furtherance of the objectives of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, and to relevant facts of general applicability. In the judgment of the Director, the provisions of this amendment comply with the applicable provisions of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

In formulating this amendment, the Director consulted with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, to the extent practicable, and has given full consideration to their recommendations.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Ceiling Price Regulation 68 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 3 (e) is added to read as follows:

(e) Adjustments—(1) Free-cutting brass rod. You may add to the ceiling price as otherwise determined in this section, 1.22 cents per pound of product.

(2) All other products covered by Section 3. You may add to the ceiling price as otherwise determined in this section, 3.84 cents per pound of copper contained in the product you are pricing. In the case of any product containing zinc, you must deduct from the ceiling price as otherwise determined in this section, 2.00 cents per pound of contained zinc.

2. Section 4 (e) is added to read as follows:

(e) Adjustments. You may add to the ceiling price as otherwise determined in this section, 3.84 cents per pound of copper contained in the product you are pricing. In the case of any product containing zinc, you must deduct from the ceiling price as otherwise determined in this section 2.00 cents per pound of contained zinc.

3. Section 6 (c) is added to read as follows:

(c) Adjustments. You may add to the ceiling price as otherwise established in any letter order issued pursuant to this section, 3.84 cents per pound of copper contained in the product you are pricing. In the case of any product containing zinc, you must deduct from the ceiling price as otherwise established in any letter order issued pursuant to this section, 2.00 cents per pound of contained zinc.

Effective date. This amendment to Ceiling Price Regulation 68 shall become effective July 1, 1952.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 105, Revision 1]

CPR 105—USED INDUSTRIAL AND CONSTRUCTION MACHINERY AND RELATED EQUIPMENT

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2 (16 F. R. 738), this Revision of Ceiling Price Regulation 105 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

Ceiling Price Regulation 105, issued originally on December 12, 1951, has fulfilled its purpose in a generally acceptable way. The pricing method used consisted of applying stated percentages based upon the age or condition of the used machinery, and multiplying the current price of a new machine of the same model by that percentage. The statement of considerations issued at that time applies also to this revised regulation.

A number of modifications and clarifications have been incorporated in this revision. One of the more important changes is the inclusion in the base price of freight charges from the factory to the location of the used machine. Originally this part of the delivered cost was not included, but it has been found that the delivered cost, including freight, customarily has been a factor in establishing the value of used machinery. With this exception, this revision leaves unchanged the basic pricing provisions of the regulation.

Special provision is now made for "factory rebuilt and guaranteed" commodities so that under specified circumstances prices higher than those for reconditioned and guaranteed machines may be established. To qualify, the factory must have performed certain operations, and also must give the buyer a new machine guarantee.

The provisions and form of the guarantee, which must be given with reconditioned and guaranteed machines, have been revised to make them conform as closely as possible with regular practices of the industry and still give the buyer reasonable assurances that the machine is in good condition.

The revised regulation also covers the sale of unused commodities which were purchased for use but never used. The price obtainable is dependent upon whether the commodity is in new condition or has deteriorated.

The requirement that a used machine must be in condition to be restored to use in order that it may be priced under this regulation has been amplified by requiring each sale under this regulation to a steel mill, foundry or other consumer of scrap to be supported by a statement given to the seller by the purchaser stating that the machine is being purchased for use. Otherwise sales of old machines to consumers of scrap are priced under CPR 5, Iron and Steel Scrap. Ceiling prices for demolition projects such as refineries, mills and factories are established under Section 7 of the General Ceiling Price Regulation.

The revision, in addition, changes the provisions affecting dismantling and loading charges to make them more consistent with industry practices; modifies the coverage of the regulation as outlined in Appendix A to insure against conflicts with other regulations; makes clear that a higher than ceiling price trade-in allowance for a used machine is not prohibited since it in effect results in a reduction in the price of the other item being purchased; and makes other minor modifications and clarifications of the original regulation.

In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization, the provisions of this revised regulation are fair and equitable to buyers and sellers alike and are necessary to effectuate the purpose of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

In the formulation of this regulation, there has been consultation with industry representatives, including the Construction Machinery Sales, Service and Rental Industry Advisory Committee and trade association representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations.

Every effort has been made to conform this regulation to existing business practices, cost practices or methods, or means or aids to distribution. Insofar as any provisions of this regulation may operate to compel changes in the business practices, cost practices or methods, or means or aids to distribution, such provisions are found by the Director of Price Stabilization to be necessary to prevent circumvention or evasion of the regulation.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 23 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply Title IV, 64 Stat. 803, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2101–2110, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.

SECTION 1. Sellers and sales covered by this regulation—(a) Applicability. This regulation applies to the sale of any used commodity as listed in Appendix A, and to used parts, accessories, subassemblies, components, and attachments of such commodities. It also applies, under certain conditions, to the resale of an unused commodity listed in Appendix A. Section 2 tells you how to determine your ceiling price for the commodities listed in Appendix A. This revision supersedes any regulation previously issued by the OPS, insofar as transactions covered by this regulation are concerned.

(b) Geographic coverage. This regulation is applicable to transactions in the United States, its territories and possessions, and the District of Columbia.

(c) Description. This section is intended only as a general description to aid in understanding this revised regulation; the following sections are controlling.

SEC. 2. Ceiling prices of used commodities—(a) Reconditioned and guaranteed commodities. Your ceiling price for a reconditioned and guaranteed used commodity listed in Appendix A is either (1) 85 percent of its base price or (2) the price determined under the "depreciation method" set forth in paragraph (d). An explanation of the term "base price" is found in paragraph (c).

(b) Commodities that do not qualify as reconditioned and guaranteed. Your ceiling price for a used commodity that does not qualify as reconditioned and guaranteed is either (1) 55 percent of its base price (see paragraph (c)) or (2) the price determined under the depreciation method set forth in paragraph (d). If you sell a used commodity which is not "reconditioned and guaranteed", you shall deduct from the base price of such commodity the current cost of any missing parts or components before determining your ceiling price.

(c) Base price.—The "base price" that you must use in fixing the ceiling price of a used commodity shall be the first applicable of the following prices:

(1) The price f. o. b. factory for the same commodity, when new, stated either as the current published net price of the manufacturer to users, or as the current published list price of the manufacturer less the manufacturer's smallest discount, if any, to users in effect at the time the used commodity is sold, or if published prices are not available the currently quoted net price to users for the commodity, when new, at the time of the sale of the used commodity, plus freight at current carload freight rate from the factory where the item was manufactured to the freight station nearest the location of the used commodity being sold (except where the manufacturer's current price includes such freight costs).

(2) The current price f. o. b. factory of the nearest equivalent currently manufactured commodity of the same class, type and function, with the same rating or capacity as stated by the manufacturer of such commodity, less the manufacturer's smallest discount, if any, to users, plus freight at current carload freight rate from the factory where the item was manufactured to the freight station nearest the location of the used commodity being sold (except where the manufacturer's current price includes such freight costs). In determining the rating, the following shall be used as guides: H. P., B. H. P., K. V. A., K. W., drawbar H. P., gallons per minute, lifting capacity, bucket or dipper size, foot pounds, pounds per square inch, weight or other industry standards.

(3) The current price f. o. b. factory of a commodity of the same class, type and function with the nearest equivalent rating, as stated by its manufacturer, less the manufacturer's smallest discount, if any, to users, plus freight at current carload freight rate from the factory where the item was manufactured to the freight station nearest the location of the used commodity being sold (except where the manufacturer's current price includes such freight costs). In determining the "nearest equivalent rating", the following shall be used as guides: H. P., B. H. P., K. V. A., K. W., drawbar H. P., gallons per minute, lifting capacity, bucket or dipper size, foot pounds, pounds per square inch, weight or other industry standards.

(4) Where it is impossible to determine, under paragraphs (2) or (3), the "base price" of a used commodity which is no longer being manufactured or is a discontinued model, your "base price" for such used commodity is the manufacturer's last price f. o. b. factory for the same commodity when new, stated in his last applicable price list, less his smallest discount, if any, to users at the time the model was discontinued, plus the freight at current carload freight rate from the factory where the item was manufactured to the freight station nearest the location of the used commodity being sold (except where the manufacturer's price to the user included such freight costs).

(5) Where a particular used commodity was not manufactured in the United States, the last price to a user for the commodity when new, landed in the United States, plus freight at current carload freight rate from point of entry to the freight station nearest the location of the used commodity being sold.

(6) At the option of the seller and as an alternative to any of the above methods, the base price may be the acquisition cost to the user of the commodity when new, exclusive of transportation charges, plus freight at current carload freight rate from the factory where the item was manufactured to the freight station nearest the location of the commodity being sold (except where the manufacturer's price to the user included such freight costs).

(7) Where a used commodity has been modified, the specifications of the machine as it currently exists shall be used in determining the base price, using the first applicable method of paragraphs (1) through (6) inclusive.

(d) Depreciation method. You may, at your option, use the depreciation method outlined below in determining ceiling prices for only those categories, types, or classes of used commodities listed in Appendix B of this regulation.

You determine your ceiling price of any such used commodity under the depreciation method as follows:

(1) Determine the base price of the used commodity under paragraph (c).

(2) Determine the period of time from the date of acquisition of the commodity for first use, when new, to the date of sale of the used commodity. You figure this period of time in years and fractions of a year. In measuring this period of time you regard a fractional period of a month consisting of sixteen days or more as a full month, and you disregard a fractional period of a month consisting of fifteen days or less.

(3) Determine the depreciation percentage rate for the used commodity from the table in Appendix B.

(4) Multiply the depreciation percentage rate found under (3) by the years and fractions of a year determined under (2).

(5) Multiply the base price of a used commodity by the percentage found under (4).

(6) Deduct the amount found under (5) from the base price of the commodity. The result is the ceiling price of a used commodity. However, a ceiling price exceeding 80 percent of the base price may not be used unless you give a warranty identical to that specified in Appendix C for reconditioned and guaranteed commodities.

(e) Sales by dealers in the territory of Alaska. If you are a dealer with a place of business in Alaska, and bring in any item of used equipment covered by this regulation from other points in the United States or its territories and possessions for resale in Alaska, you may arrive at your ceiling price by first computing the ceiling price of such item at Seattle, Wash., including in the "base price" of the item, as determined under paragraph (c) of this section, the current charge for normal transportation of such item from point of production to Seattle. You may then add to the ceiling price at Seattle thus computed, the amount of separately stated freight charges, for normal methods of shipping, actually incurred by you in shipping such item from Seattle to the point of delivery in Alaska. This new figure then becomes your ceiling price for sales in Alaska.

SEC. 3. Export sales. The ceiling price at which a used commodity covered by this regulation may be exported must be determined in accordance with the methods provided in Ceiling Price Regulation 61 (Exports), issued by the Office of Price Stabilization.

SEC. 4. Used commodities, the ceiling price of which cannot be determined under section 2. If you are unable to determine your ceiling price for a used commodity under section 2, you apply to the Office of Price Stabilization to approve a ceiling price in line with the level of ceiling prices established by this regulation. In order to apply for this approval, you file a report, by registered mail, return receipt requested, with the Industrial Materials and Manufactured Goods Division, Machinery Branch, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C. This report must contain the following information:

(a) Your business name and address.

(b) A description of the used commodity for which you propose a ceiling price. This description shall include the manufacturer's name, type, model, size, serial number, condition (rebuilt and guaranteed, or as is), age, cost to you, the date of purchase, and whether you purchased the commodity new.

(c) A statement by you as to why you cannot determine your ceiling price under section 2 of this regulation.

(d) Your proposed ceiling price.

(e) A statement, in detail, of the method by which you determined your proposed ceiling price. If your proposed ceiling price was determined on the basis of bids or offers to purchase, state the name and address of the person making the bid or offer and the price offered.

(f) A statement of the reasons why you believe that your proposed ceiling price is in line with the level of ceiling prices established by this regulation.

After receipt of this report, the Office of Price Stabilization may approve the proposed ceiling price, disapprove the proposed ceiling price, establish by order a different ceiling price, or request further information. If thirty days after receipt of the required report by the OPS, as evidenced by your return registry receipt, none of the actions just listed has been taken, you may sell at your proposed ceiling price.

SEC. 5. Factory rebuilt and guaranteed commodities. (a) This section applies to you only if you are a manufacturer and you rebuild a used commodity or commodities of your own make of a class, type or kind listed in Appendix A of this regulation, and are reselling such commodity or commodities as "factory rebuilt and guaranteed" with your customary new machine guarantee; and if during the period July 1, 1949, to June 24, 1950, you sold such "factory rebuilt and guaranteed" commodities of the same type and of your own make at more than 85 percent of your then current selling price of such commodities. An explanation of the term "factory rebuilt and guaranteed" is found in section 23 (Definitions).

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 2 (a) of this regulation, if you meet the conditions of paragraph (a) of this section, and if you desire to determine your ceiling prices for "factory rebuilt and guaranteed" commodities in accordance with this section, you shall file a report, by registered mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the Industrial Materials and Maufactured Goods Division, Machinery Branch, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C., requesting approval of your proposed ceiling price or method of determining your ceiling prices for factory rebuilt and guaranteed commodities of your own make which comply with the requirements of paragraph (a). Ceiling prices established under this section shall not exceed prices computed by applying to the "base price" (as defined in section 2) the percentage referred to in paragraph (a) which you applied to your then current sales prices of new commodities of the same type during the period from July 1, 1949, to June 24, 1950, in order to derive the sales price of "factory rebuilt and guaranteed" commodities of your own make.

(c) Your report shall contain the following information:

(1) Your business name and address.

(2) A list of the commodities which you rebuild and guarantee, and the brand name or trademark and identity of the product line under which the commodities fall. Your catalogue or published price list will be sufficient for this purpose.

(3) The percentage of the current price of the new machine which you used during the period July 1, 1949, to June 24, 1950, and which you propose to use in establishing your ceiling price for your "factory rebuilt and guaranteed" commodity or commodities.

(4) The form of guarantee or warranty which you issued and propose to issue to the buyer with each sale of a "factory rebuilt and guaranteed" commodity priced under the provisions of this section.

After receipt of this report, the Office of Price Stabilization may approve your proposed method of determining your ceiling prices, disapprove your proposed method of determining your ceiling prices, establish by order a different method of determining your ceiling prices, or request further information. If thirty days after receipt of the required report by the Office of Price Stabilization, as evidenced by your return registry receipt, none of the actions just listed has been taken, you may determine your ceiling prices by your proposed method.

SEC. 6. Government sales. (a) The Government may, at its option, use the provisions of either subsections (b) or (c) of this section to determine the ceiling price for its sale of a used commodity, or it may use the applicable portions of the other sections of this regulation for such purpose. This section applies only to sales by the United States, its agencies and departments, referred to in this section as the "Government".

(b) First optional method. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other section of this regulation, the ceiling price for sales by the Government of a used commodity may be either 65 percent of the "Government's acquisition cost" of the commodity (see paragraph (b) (2) of this section) or the price determined under the depreciation method set forth in paragraph (b) (3), not in excess of 80 percent of the Government's acquisition cost of the commodity. The "acquisition cost" of a commodity which the Government uses in fixing ceiling prices under this section is the net invoice price at which the Government originally acquired the commodity when it was new.

(2) Depreciation method. The Government may use the depreciation method set out in section 2 (d) in figuring the ceiling price of commodities listed in Appendix B. In using that method, however, the Government substitutes "Government acquisition cost" (paragraph (b) (2) of this section) for "base price" (section 2 (c)). The Government may not determine the ceiling price of a used commodity under the depreciation method unless it gives the purchaser a statement, signed on its behalf by an official duly authorized thereto, before, or at the time of the purchase or delivery of any used commodity priced under the depreciation method. This statement shall contain (1) a description of the used commodity which is sufficient to permit its identification, and (2) the date of acquisition of the commodity by the Government.

(c) Second optional method. Notwithstanding any other provision of this regulation the Government may determine a ceiling price for its sale of an unclassified lot of used commodities, whether or not salvage or other surplus items are also included, on the basis of the entire lot, provided that the ceiling price so determined may not exceed 65 percent of the Government's acquisition cost, actual or estimated, of the items included in such lot. However, and in lieu of any other invoicing or record keeping provision of this regulation, the Government shall prepare a record, signed by its selling officer and filed in the selling office of the sale, showing the method by which the ceiling price was determined.

(d) Conditions of government sales. The special provisions of this section apply to the sale of a Government-owned commodity on an "as is", "where is" basis. On such sales, the Government is not required to deduct from the "base price" the cost to the purchaser for any missing parts or components. In any sale of a commodity at a ceiling price determined under this regulation, the Government is not obliged to dismantle, load or package the commodity.

SEC. 7. Resale of an unused commodity. (a) This section applies to you only if you are reselling a new and unused, or a shelf-worn and unused commodity listed in Appendix A, which you originally purchased for use, and you are not the manufacturer, wholesaler, distributor or dealer handling such commodities.

(b) For the purpose of this section, such commodities are divided into two groups, as follows:

(1) Group 1: A new and unused or a shelf-worn and unused commodity which, since manufacture, has been so protected from damage, corrosion or deterioration that it is in condition to render performance equivalent to that of the same commodity when new.

(2) Group 2: A new and unused or a shelf-worn and unused commodity which, since manufacture, has been damaged, corroded or deteriorated to the extent that it is not in condition for use without repairs or reconditioning before it can render performance substantially equivalent to that of the same commodity when new.

(c) Your ceiling price for a Group 1 commodity as described in paragraph (b) is your acquisition cost for that commodity.

(d) A Group 2 commodity as described in paragraph (b) is to be considered a "used commodity", and its ceiling price is to be determined by the applicable provisions of this regulation for used commodities.

SEC. 8. Trade-in allowances. This regulation does not limit the amount allowed for a used machine as a trade-in credit on the price of another machine, either used or new, except that the sum allowed may not be greater than the ceiling price of the new or used machine for which it is being traded in.

SEC. 9. Sales to consumers of scrap metals. Used commodities listed in Appendix A, when sold to a consumer of scrap metals, shall not be priced under the provisions of this regulation except when such consumer of scrap metals, at the time of purchase, gives the seller a signed statement that the commodity will be used in purchaser's operations, and that it is not to be reduced to scrap metal.

SEC. 10. Terms and conditions of sale.—(a) Normal services for dismantling, preparation or loading. Ceiling prices established by this regulation are for used commodities at the point of shipment and include only such dismantling, preparation or loading services as the seller normally performed without extra charge, when selling the same type of used commodity during the period July 1, 1949, to June 24, 1950. Such services are referred to herein as "normal services."

(b) Special services for dismantling, preparation or loading. In the event the buyer requests the seller, in writing, to perform special dismantling, preparation or loading services differing from his "normal services", referred to in paragraph (a) of this section, which cost the seller either more or less than such "normal services", the "ceiling price" determined under section 2 of this regulation shall be either increased or decreased, as the case may be, by the difference between the direct materials and labor costs for seller's "normal services" and such costs for the "special services" requested in writing by the buyer. Any charges for increasing "normal services" or credits for decreasing "normal services" shall be stated separately on the invoice covering the sale of the commodity.

(c) Credit charges. You may add to the ceiling prices established by this regulation charges for the extension of credit, but only if (1) during the period July 1, 1949, to June 24, 1950, you required the payment of a separately stated additional charge for the extension of credit to purchasers of the same class on sales of the same or similar types of commodities, (2) the amount you charge for the extension of credit is not in excess of the charge you last had in effect during the period July 1, 1949, to June 24, 1950, for the extension of credit involving the same amount and term, and (3) you bill or invoice any credit charges separately.

(d) Sales of rented or leased commodities. In case the lessee of a commodity listed in Appendix A of this regulation desires to purchase, and the lessor agrees to sell, such commodity during or at the end of, the term of the lease, and part or all of the rental paid during such term of lease is to be credited against the selling price, then the "ceiling price" of the commodity against which such rental payments are to be credited shall be the "ceiling price" determined by the applicable regulation immediately prior to the beginning of the rental. Examples—If the commodity were a used commodity immediately prior to the beginning of the rental period, its ceiling price is to be determined by this regulation as of the beginning of the rental.

If the commodity was new immediately prior to the beginning of the rental period, its ceiling price is to be determined by Ceiling Price Regulation 30 or other applicable regulation as of the beginning of the rental.

SEC. 11. Taxes. Any tax levied upon the sale of a used commodity by any statute of the United States or any statute or ordinance of any State or political subdivision thereof, which does not prohibit the payment of such tax by the purchaser, may be collected by you in addition to the ceiling price, if you bill or invoice the tax separately.

SEC. 12. Petition for amendment. If you wish to have this regulation amended, you may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Price Procedural Regulation 1, Revised.

SEC. 13. Supplementary regulations or orders. The Director of Price Stabilization may issue supplementary regulations or orders modifying or implementing this regulation as he deems necessary.

SEC. 14. Modification of proposed ceiling prices by Director of Price Stabilization. The Director of Price Stabilization may at any time disapprove or reduce ceiling prices reported or proposed under this regulation so as to bring them into line with the level of ceiling prices otherwise established by this regulation.

SEC. 15. Invoicing. On and after the effective date of this regulation, you shall furnish each purchaser of a commodity covered by this regulation which sells for $50.00 or more with an invoice which contains the following information:

(a) Your name and address.

(b) The purchaser's name and address.

(c) The date of sale.

(d) A description of each used commodity sold. This description shall include the manufacturer's name, the commodity type, model, serial number if available, and size or capacity.

(e) The selling price of each used commodity sold.

(f) A separate statement of any charges made for taxes under section 11 and any charges or credits made for special services under section 10 as charges for services in excess of normal services or as credits for normal service not performed.

(g) If the depreciation method is used, so state, and give the age of the used commodity; otherwise "age" is not required.

(h) A statement that the commodity is sold "as is", or "reconditioned and guaranteed", or as "factory rebuilt and guaranteed", or as a "new and unused" commodity, as the case may be.

SEC. 16. Records—(a) Invoices. You shall preserve for a period of two years a copy of each invoice required by section 15.

(b) Purchases and sales. If you purchase or receive in trade used commodities for the purpose of resale you shall keep, for a period of two years, records containing the following information with respect to each used commodity which you purchase or receive in trade:

To the extent that your invoice contains any of the information which is required below, such invoice is acceptable as a record.

(1) Your acquisition cost or the trade-in allowance given by you.

(2) A description of the used commodity, including the type, make, model, serial number if available, and size or capacity.

(3) The name and address of the person from whom the used commodity was purchased or acquired.

(4) The date the used commodity was purchased or acquired.

(5) The disposition which you made of the used commodity and the date of that disposition.

(6) Where you dispose of the used commodity by sale, the total price you receive for that sale and a copy of your invoice for that sale.

(7) A statement as to whether the used commodity was sold "as is", "reconditioned and guaranteed", or "factory rebuilt and guaranteed".

(8) Where a sale is made to a consumer of scrap metals for use in his operations, other than for scrap, a copy of the required statement in section 9 must be kept by both the buyer and seller.

(9) The "base price" and "ceiling price" determined at the time of sale, and the method by which it was determined regardless of whether the commodity was sold below or at ceiling price.

(10) For any commodity which you sell on the basis of the depreciation method, your records must also contain the following information:

(i) A description of the used commodity sold, sufficient to permit its identification for the purpose of determining its "base price", and

(ii) The date upon which it was acquired by its original user, as evidenced either by the original bill of sale, or by a statement from the manufacturer including the date of sale to the original user, and the name and address of that user.

(c) Costs of reconditioning. Where you sell any used commodity as "reconditioned and guaranteed" or as "factory rebuilt and guaranteed", you must keep records of the following for a period of two years:

(1) Your customary accounting records showing the quantity and cost of materials and labor involved in rebuilding or reconditioning.

(2) The month and year in which the used commodity was "reconditioned" or "factory rebuilt".

SEC. 17. Notice of auction sales. Each auctioneer shall file with the Office of Price Stabilization a written notice of every public or private auction sale of used commodities subject to this regulation at least six days before the sale. This notice shall be filed with the District Office of the Office of Price Stabilization in the District where the sale is to be conducted, and shall include the place, date, and time of the auction sale, the categories of used commodities to be sold, and a copy of any announcement of this sale.

SEC. 18. Interpretations. If you want an official interpretation of this regulation, you should write to the District Counsel of the appropriate OPS District Office. Any action taken by you in reliance upon and in conformity with a written official interpretation will constitute action in good faith pursuant to this regulation. Further information on obtaining official interpretations is contained in Price Procedural Regulation 1, Revised.

SEC. 19. Prohibitions. On and after the effective date of this regulation, regardless of any contract or other obligation:

(a) No person shall sell or deliver, offer to sell or deliver, or negotiate the sale or delivery of a used commodity at a price in excess of the ceiling price established by this regulation.

(b) No person, in the course of trade or business, shall buy or receive any used commodity at a price in excess of the ceiling price established by this regulation.

(c) No person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the acts prohibited by paragraphs (a) and (b).

SEC. 20. Evasion—(a) In general. The price limitations set forth in this regulation shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase, lease of, or relating to, used commodities, along or in conjunction with any other commodity or service, or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tie-in agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

(b) Specific practices. The following practices are specifically, but not exclusively, among the practices prohibited by paragraph (a) and are itemized here only to lessen the frequency of interpretative inquiries which experience indicates are likely to be raised under the general evasion provision:

(1) Paying, or requiring the payment of, a purchase commission, if the sum of the commission and the purchase price exceeds the ceiling price.

(2) Requiring a purchaser to rent or lease as a condition of, or an inducement to the sale of a used commodity.

(3) Entering into a joint venture with any other person subject to this regulation for cross-selling or cross-purchasing.

(4) Requiring a purchaser to buy at auction or other sale, any other commodity or any service, whether controlled or not, as the condition of or inducement to the sale of a used commodity. This specifically includes the practices commonly known as "package-sales" and "loading".

(5) Granting less than a reasonable allowance for commodities received in trade, or requiring that the buyer trade in a commodity as a condition of the sale.

(6) Selling a commodity not subject to price control with either an option to purchase a used commodity or with the understanding that a used commodity will be given to the purchaser.

(7) Directly or indirectly requiring the purchaser of a used commodity to finance the purchase of a used commodity with any particular person, including the seller.

(8) The payment of finders fees where the sum of the finders fees and the purchase price exceeds the ceiling price.

SEC. 21. Charges lower than ceiling prices. Lower prices than those established by this regulation may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

SEC. 22. Violation—(a) Civil and criminal action. Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and actions for damages.

(b) Violations of record-keeping and reporting requirements. If any person subject to this regulation fails to keep the records or file the reports required by this regulation, or if any person subject to this regulation fails to establish a ceiling price, the Director of Price Stabilization may issue an order fixing ceiling prices for the used commodities such person sells. Any ceiling price fixed in this manner will be in line with ceiling prices established by this regulation. The order fixing the ceiling price may apply to all deliveries or transfers for which a ceiling price was not established in accordance with the provisions of this regulation, including deliveries or transfers completed prior to the date of the issuance of the order. The issuance of such an order will not relieve the seller of this obligation to comply with the requirements of this regulation or of the various penalties for failure to do so.

SEC. 23. Definitions—(a) As is. An "as is" commodity is a used commodity that does not qualify as reconditioned and guaranteed or "factory rebuilt and guaranteed".

(b) Delivered. A commodity shall be deemed to have been delivered if it was received by the purchaser or by any carrier, including a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to the purchaser.

(c) Factory rebuilt and guaranteed. A "factory rebuilt and guaranteed" commodity is one for which you give the buyer, in writing at the time of sale, your customary new machine guarantee, provided such new machine guarantee does not require less performance in any respect than the Standard Guarantee in Appendix C. In addition to such written new machine guarantee, the factory must have performed the following operations upon the used commodity:

(1) The used commodity must have been disassembled, and all surfaces of all parts and subassemblies must have been thoroughly cleaned to reveal any defects in parts and all worn surfaces.

(2) The used commodity must have been inspected to determine the need for replacement or repair of parts.

(3) All worn, broken or missing parts and components which are necessary for proper operation must have been replaced or repaired.

(4) After the commodity has been reassembled, all of its working parts must have been adjusted and must have been given sufficient tests of a mechanical, electrical, or thermal nature, or other tests customarily given similar types of machinery or equipment to assure proper operation and performance substantially equivalent to that of the commodity when new.

(d) Person. This term includes any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successors or representatives of the foregoing, and the United States or any other government or their political subdivisions or agencies.

(e) Reconditioned and guaranteed. A "reconditioned and guaranteed" commodity is one for which you give the buyer, in writing at the time of sale, the "Standard Guarantee" as set forth in Appendix C. However, if during the period July 1, 1949, to June 24, 1950, you gave a guarantee which required more performance than the Standard Guarantee, you must continue to use your own guarantee, provided it contains at least all of the provisions of the Standard Guarantee in Appendix C. In addition to the written guarantee, the following operations must have been performed upon the used commodity since its last use:

(1) The used commodity must have been inspected to determine the need for replacement or repair of parts.

(2) All worn, broken or missing parts and components which are necessary for proper operation must have been replaced or repaired.

(3) The commodity must have been given sufficient tests of a mechanical, electrical or thermal nature, or other tests customarily given similar types of used machinery, or equipment to assure proper operation and performance substantially equivalent to that of the commodity when new.

(f) Records. This term means books or accounts, sales lists, sales slips, orders, vouchers, contracts, receipts, invoices, bills of lading, and other papers and documents.

(g) Resale of an unused commodity. This term, as used in this regulation, means the resale by an owner, other than the manufacturer, wholesaler, distributor or dealer, of a new and unused or a "shelf-worn" and unused commodity, part or subassembly listed in Appendix A.

(h) Sell. This term includes supply, dispose, barter, exchange, transfer, deliver, or contracts or offers to do any of the foregoing. The terms "buy" and "purchase" shall be construed accordingly.

(i) Used commodity. This term means a commodity listed in Appendix A which has been used for any period of time, other than for the purpose of initial testing or demonstrating, and is in condition to be restored to use. This term includes machines, parts or subassemblies listed in Appendix A which may have been removed from plants, or machines, and are in condition to be restored to use. This term does not include a used commodity sold to a consumer of scrap metal unless it is a machine to be used by such consumer of scrap metal for operational purposes, and is not to be reduced to scrap metal, as evidenced by the statement required under section 9 of this regulation.

(j) Worn part. This term means a part in such a condition that unless it is replaced or repaired, the used commodity of which it is a part will not have a substantially equivalent performance to that of the used commodity when new.

(k) You. "You" means the person subject to this regulation. "Your" and "yours" are to be construed accordingly.

(l) Director of Price Stabilization. The term also applies to any official (including officials of Regional or District Offices) to whom the Director of Price Stabilization by order delegates a function, power, or authority referred to in this regulation.

(m) OPS. This means the Office of Price Stabilization.

Effective date. This revised regulation shall become effective June 30, 1952.

NOTE: The record-keeping and reporting requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

ELLIS ARNALL,
Director of Price Stabilization.

JUNE 30, 1952.

APPENDIX A—COMMODITIES COVERED BY THIS REGULATION

The commodities covered by this regulation are listed below:

Anvils, except jewelers' anvils.
Asphalt mixing plants and attendant plants.
Asphalt pavers.
Attachments and accessories for machinery, except for machine tools and farm machinery.
Augers, earth.
Automotive testing and maintenance equipment, mechanical and electrical.
Batteries, storage, when sold as "reconditioned and guaranteed" or when sold as an intrical part of a used machine. Other sales of used storage batteries are not covered by this regulation.
Battery chargers.
Belting, leather and textile (for industrial uses).
Bins, batchers and cement silos for concrete plants, portable or stationary.
Blocks and tackle.
Boilers, power, industrial and marine, 100 p. s. i. and higher working pressure, except boiler tubes unattached or in detached clusters.
Broom-making machinery.
Brushes, industrial, power-driven.
Brush-making machinery.
Can-making and can-closing machinery and equipment.
Capacitors, electrical, other than capacitors for radios, television receivers and home electronic devices.
Carriers, lumber, steel, etc., specifically designed for industrial or commercial use.
Cars, freight, including all types of flanged wheel mining and industrial cars.
Cars, passenger, for surface, subway or elevated lines.
Casters.
Cement-making machinery.
Ceramics machinery.
Chain, power transmission, including chain fittings and assemblies.
Chemical processing machinery.
Circuit breakers, electrical.
Clamps of the C and bar type, except those used for medical or dental purposes.
Clevises.
Clockwork systems, industrial, used in connection with mechanical instruments.

Coal mining machinery.
Coal preparation equipment.
Coke oven doors and jams.
Compressors, except those used with condensing units.
Concrete products machinery and equipment.
Condensers, synchronous, electrical.
Construction machinery, all types.
Control equipment, electrical, industrial.
Converters, synchronous, electrical.
Conveyors and conveying systems, industrial.
Core drilling machines and core bits.
Core-making machinery.
Cotton-ginning machinery.
Cranes and shovels, power, revolving, crawler, truck or wheel-mounted, and others:
- Clam shells.
- Cranes.
- Draglines.
- Hoes.
- Pile drivers.
- Shovels.

Cranes, locomotive.
Cranes, overhead bridge, gantry and portal.
Crushers, rolls, swing-hammer and all other types of rock and ore crushing and reduction equipment.
Crushing and screening plants, portable.
Cylinders, power, hydraulic, pneumatic and hydropneumatic.
Dairy and milk processing machinery, other than farm dairy machinery and equipment.
Derricks.
Diamond tools: core bits, dies .002" and larger, dressing tools, shaped tools, wheels, etc.
Die-casting machinery.
Distribution boards, electrical.
Dollies, industrial.
Dozers, angle, bull and push.
Dredging machinery.
Dry-cleaning and clothes-pressing machinery, except domestic.
Dust-collecting equipment, industrial, portable and stationary, including industrial vacuum cleaners.
Economizers, steam, industrial and marine.
Electrical wire and cable insulating and tubing machinery.
Electroplating and hot-dip metal coating equipment, including preparatory and finishing equipment used in connection with metal coating process.
Electro-therapeutic apparatus and supplies.
Electronic devices, equipment and parts (other than radio and television receivers and components used in radio and television receivers and other electronic devices for the home).
Elevators, passenger and freight.
Engines, diesel and oil.
Engines, gas.
Engines, gasoline and kerosene, except aircraft, automobile, toy and portable outboard motors.
Engines, steam, except toy.
Engine-generator sets.
Escalators (moving inclined stairways for raising or lowering passengers).
Excavating and earth-moving machinery, including power shovels, draglines, clam shells, hoes, ditchers, trenchers, and scrapers, self-powered or tractor-drawn.
Fans and blowers, industrial, including pressure fans and blowers and industrial built-in fans, but excluding unit heaters, or unit ventilators, hand blowers and desk, pedestal, portable, ceiling, wall bracket type fans, warm-air furnace fans, and attic ventilating fans.
Feed-water heaters, industrial and marine.
Fire-fighting equipment, truck or trailer mounted.
Floor surfacing and floor maintenance machinery, industrial.
Food and beverage machinery, (industrial), including, but not confined to, baking, bottling, brewing, canning, confectionery, grain milling, meat packing, edible oil, sugar and dairy machinery and equipment, other than farm dairy equipment.
Foundry machinery, excluding ladles.
Furnaces and ovens, industrial and laboratory, except space heating equipment, warm-air furnaces, bessemer converters, soaking pits and coke ovens.
Fuses, power.
Galvanometer and pyrometer movements.
Gas burners designed for use with products covered by this regulation.
Gauges, specifically designed for industrial or commercial use.
Gears, pinions, sprockets and speed reducers, including gear motors, motorized speed reducers and variable speed and other machine drives.
Generators, electrical.
Generators, gas.
Generator sets, diesel-electric, gas engine, electric and motor or engine driven.
Glass-making machinery.
Glove-making machinery, except for rubber gloves.
Governors, engine.
Gyroscopes.
Hat-making and repairing machinery.
Heat exchanger equipment (when designed for use with products covered by this regulation).
Heaters, sand or bitumen.
Heating, melting, burning and thawing equipment, portable, for industrial and transportation purposes, except mechanics' fire pots and blow torches.
Heating units and devices, electrical, industrial.
Hoists, power operated, air, electric, mechanical or other power, single or multiple drum.
Hydraulic machinery and equipment.
Instruments, electrically or mechanically operated for measuring, testing, indicating or recording electrical quantities.
Instruments, mechanical, for indicating, measuring, recording and testing, including aircraft, laboratory, marine, precision and scientific mechanical instruments, but excluding tire gauges, carpenters' tools, clinical, dental, household, optical and surgical instruments, low pressure heating controls (such as thermostatic traps, blast traps and strainers), water level controls (all types), air temperature and humidity controls (all types), coin-operated devices and household refrigeration controls.
Jacks and jack screws.
Jacks, mud.
Kilns (except brick), coolers and dryers, specifically designed for industrial or commercial use.
Laundry machinery, except domestic.
Leather-working machinery.
Lighting equipment, electrical, for airway, commercial, flood-lighting, industrial, marine, seadrome, and street and highway uses.
Lighting generators, engine or electric driven, portable.
Lighting fixtures, not portable.
Line material, transmission or trolley.
Loading and unloading equipment, specifically designed for industrial or commercial use or for handling construction materials.
Lock and dam machinery, which is designed exclusively for the control of water flow in locks, dams and structures when such locks, dams, and structures are designed for flood control, irrigation, power generation or transportation purposes.
Locomotives and tenders, steam, diesel, or other power, except boiler tubes, unattached or in detached clusters.
Locomotives, mining and industrial.
Logging and lumbering machinery and equipment.
Lubricating systems and devices, industrial, stationary.
Machinery, industrial, not listed elsewhere in this Appendix. The term "industrial machinery" means any machinery or equipment, not specifically excluded from the coverage of this regulation, which is used in the extraction, production or processing of commodities.
Machines, tools, devices and appliances designed specifically for the installation, operation, maintenance and protection of tracks, yards, signals, rolling stock and motive power of surface, subway or elevated rail lines.
Magnetos.
Magnets, lifting, industrial.
Mining equipment, including:
- Coal cutters and continuous mining equipment.
- Drills.
- Fans and ventilating equipment.
- Hoists and cages.
- Loading equipment.
- Locomotives and cars.
- Mine doors, safety and all other mining equipment not excluded from this Appendix.
- Underground coal and soft mining equipment.

Motors, electrical.
Neon indicator attachments.
Numbering and marking machines for use on metal, except office machines.
Oil burners, industrial and marine, burning No. 5 oil or heavier, except horizontal, rotary, and gun type burners.
Oil mill machinery and equipment.
Oil well and oil field machinery and equipment required in the drilling, logging, producing, controlling and treatment of oil and gas ready for the pipeline, but excluding oil country tubular goods.
Optical processing machinery.
Ore-crushing and concentrating machinery.
Ovens, industrial and laboratory, except coke ovens.
Packaging, wrapping, filling and labeling machinery.
Paint and varnish-making and ink-making machinery.
Panelboards, electrical.
Parts and subassemblies of any item listed in this Appendix, except mechanical rubber goods.
Pavement markers.
Pavers, concrete and asphalt.
Petroleum refining machinery, except oil country tubular goods.
Pharmaceutical machinery.
Pile drivers, drop-hammer, steam, air, diesel, etc.
Pipe wrapping and coating machinery.
Plants, stationary, for railroad use in handling cinders, fuel, sand or water.
Plastics fabricating, extrusion and molding machinery.
Pole-line hardware and line construction specialties.
Power transmission equipment, industrial, including belt-tighteners, blocks and bearing housings, brackets, clutches, collars, couplings, hangers, motor bases, pillow blocks, pulleys, sheaves, shifters, universal joints and variable speed and other machine drives.
Presses, specifically designed for industrial or commercial use, other than that classified as agricultural machinery and metal-working equipment.
Printing trades machinery and equipment.
Public address apparatus.
Pulp, paper mill and paper products machinery.
Pulverized fuel burners.
Pumps, power operated, with or without power.
Pumps, hand-operated, except store fixtures.
Quarrying, crushing, pulverizing and classifying machinery.
Railroad car and locomotive parts, and specialties for elevated, subway or surface lines, including:
- Axles for railway passenger and freight cars; locomotive axles, all types and capacities; and axles for all other railway rolling equipment.
- Bearings, truck side.
- Boilers, fire boxes, front ends and cabs, fittings, fixtures, devices or appliance mounted thereon, except detached boiler tubes.

Railroad car and locomotive parts, etc.—Con.
- Brakes and brake gears.
- Coupler devices or attachments.
- Devices and appliances mounted on locomotives for treatment, distribution or control of water, fuel, steam, sand or electricity.
- Doors and fixtures.
- Draft gears, buffers, and attachments.
- Driving foundation, or running gear.
- Grain control apparatus.
- Journal boxes, assembled.
- Heating, lighting, ventilation, and air-conditioning equipment.
- Lubricating devices.
- Miscellaneous fittings, fixtures, specialties, devices or appliances designed specifically for use on railroad cars or locomotives, except artillery or other exclusively military or naval equipment.
- Safety appliances and warning devices.
- Sides, roofs, ends, running boards, and brake steps.
- Spring rigging, snubbers and shock absorbers.
- Tires, steel.
- Trucks, complete.
- Underframes.
- Wheels, iron and steel.
- (Detached tubular goods not included.)

Rectifiers, power, industrial.
Regulators, feeder voltage.
Regulators and dampers, power operated, except those designed for domestic heating systems.
Reproduction machinery, architectural and engineering, such as blueprinting, black and white printing, and brown printing machinery.
Road, street and airport building and maintenance machinery and equipment, including graders, pavers, rollers, sprayers, snow plows, mechanical road cleaning equipment, etc.
Rock-crushers and plants.
Rod, wire and tube-working machinery and equipment.
Rolling mill machinery and auxiliary equipment.
Rubber and allied products machinery.
Rubber tire and tube machinery and equipment, including tire recapping and retreading molds and necessary parts (full circle and sectional molds and matrices, etc.), tire buffers and spot vulcanizers for tubes.
Sawmill machinery and equipment.
Saws, power operated, specifically designed for industrial or commercial use, except metal cutting saws.
Scaffolds and towers.
Scales, weighing, industrial and laboratory, except coin operated, counter, household, office and store types.
Searchlights.
Separators, steam, industrial and marine.
Sewing machines, industrial, including tables and stands designed exclusively for use with such machinery.
Shoe manufacturing and repairing machinery.
Shovels and draglines, crawler mounted or walking type. (Also see Cranes) Signal equipment, railroad, including highway crossing signals.
Signalling apparatus.
Siren blowers.
Skid platforms and pallets, all metal.
Snow plows.
Soot blowers and tube cleaners, power operated, industrial and marine.
Sound recording and reproducing equipment and parts, including portable recorders and recording and transcription turntables, except home or office recording or reproducing equipment.
Special industry machinery not elsewhere classified.
Spraying devices, industrial, power operated, for the application of any material, other than that classified as agricultural machinery.
Spreaders for construction and road-building use.
Sprockets, power transmission.
Stackers, industrial.
Steam cleaning and degreasing equipment and parts, washing and cleaning equipment, except commercial and domestic dish and utensil washing and cleaning equipment.
Steam specialties, for power plant work.
Stokers, industrial and marine, with a capacity of 1,200 pounds per hour or more.
Stone working machinery.
Sub-stations, unit (power distribution).
Superheaters, industrial and marine.
Surveying instruments, such as alidades, levels and transits.
Switchboxes.
Switches, electrical, knife and enclosed.
Switchgear and switchgear accessories.
Tanks and vessels, metal, ferrous and nonferrous, pressure or non-pressure, including field erected tanks or vessels, but not including farm equipment tanks or vessels.
Telegraph apparatus.
Telephone apparatus, including sound and powered telephone and nonelectronic intercommunicating equipment.
Testing sets for electronic equipment.
Textile machinery, including equipment and accessories of wood and/or metal designed exclusively for use with such machinery.
Tobacco working machinery.
Tools, pipe and tube, manually operated, including beading, belling, banding, cleaning, cutting, expanding, and flaring and wrenches for operating.
Tools, power-driven, portable or non-portable, other than those which are defined as Machine Tools under CPR 30.
Tractor attachments and tractor allied equipment, except for farm tractors.
Tractors, crawler and wheel, except farm tractors.
Transformers, including specialty transformers, other than transformers used in radios, television receivers, radio phonographs, home recorders and other electronic devices for the home.
Trucks, industrial, hand.
Trucks, off-highway, for construction, mining, quarrying, oil field, logging, and heavy industrial hauling.
Trucks, power operated, lift, platform, towing, and straddle.
Turbine generator sets.
Turbines and governors, gas, hydraulic and steam.
Turnbuckles.
Vises, all types, vise mounts, stands and supports.
Water conditioning and purifying equipment, industrial, except detached pipe.
Water power equipment, except detached pipe.
Welding apparatus.
Welding and cutting apparatus, including generators.
Well drilling equipment, oil, gas, and water, except detached tubular goods.
Well-drilling equipment.
Winches and windlasses, manually or power operated.
Wire machinery.
Wiring devices, electrical.
Woodworking machinery.
X-ray and electro-therapeutic apparatus and supplies.

APPENDIX C—GUARANTEE TO BE FURNISHED TO BUYERS OF RECONDITIONED AND GUARANTEED COMMODITIES

The seller of a "reconditioned and guaranteed" commodity, under this regulation, must furnish to the buyer a guarantee which is no less in any respect than, or which is identical with the "Standard Guarantee Form" below.

STANDARD GUARANTEE FORM

The seller hereby warrants that the used machine or equipment described below has been thoroughly inspected and reconditioned, and that all parts which should have been replaced, repaired, adjusted, or aligned for proper operation have been replaced, repaired, adjusted or aligned.

The seller guarantees that the used machine or equipment described below is in good operating condition at the time of delivery.* The seller agrees to repair or furnish, free of charge, f. o. b. factory or f. o. b. his place of business, any parts which are proven to be defective in material or workmanship under normal use and service within forty-five calendar days after delivery* of the used machine or equipment.

This guarantee does not extend to tires and tubes, or to any repairs or replacements made necessary by misuse, negligence, accidents or collusion.

CPR 110—MANUFACTURERS OF COPPER WIRE MILL PRODUCTS

ADJUSTMENTS IN CEILING PRICES

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this amendment to Ceiling Price Regulation 110 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This amendment to Ceiling Price Regulation 110 increases the ceiling prices for copper wire mill products to reflect increases in the cost of imported copper in accord with a directive issued by the Acting Director of the Office of Defense Mobilization.

Under the terms of an agreement between the United States and Chile, at the time CPR 110 was issued the price of Chilean copper being sold to the United States was set at 27½ cents per pound. On May 8, 1952, Chile terminated its agreement to sell a portion of its copper output to the United States at 27½ cents per pound. Henceforth, all Chilean copper will be offered through ordinary commercial channels for sales at the best prices procurable.

Since the supply of domestic copper is insufficient to meet defense and essential civilian requirements, the Acting Director of the Office of Defense Mobilization on May 21, 1952, established and announced the policy which would be followed by the United States Government in order to meet the changed situation. The text of this announcement follows:

The agreement between the United States Government and the Chilean Government allocated 80% of the production of companies in Chile controlled by United States interest for purchase and import into the United States by U. S. private firms at 27½¢ a pound. It left the remainder of the production of copper in Chile to sell at much higher prices on the world market. This agreement was terminated by Chile as of May 8, 1952. The termination of this agreement and the copper strike in Chile, together with the Chilean stoppage of copper shipments since May 8 have produced shortages of copper for essential uses of the mobilization program in the United States.

It is necessary to meet the difficulties raised by these shortages and to permit the resumption of imports from Chile. It is also desirable to encourage an increase in the imports of copper from foreign countries, including Chile, over those previously prevailing. Consequently, the Government of the United States has adopted the following policies to meet the emergency:

1. In order to encourage importation of adequate supplies of foreign copper by private buyers under existing conditions, the United States Government is acting through the Office of Price Stabilization to permit brass mills and copper wire mills to add to their ceiling prices an amount representing 80 percent of any increase in cost of foreign copper above the 27½ cents level contained in the Chilean agreement which has just been terminated. The Office of Price Stabilization will periodically announce the permitted increases in ceiling prices which will be adjusted to reflect variations in foreign prices of copper and in the ratio of foreign copper used. The initial adjustments will become effective on June 16, 1952.

Comparable treatment will be provided for other primary users of refined foreign copper, including copper produced in this country from foreign ores and concentrates. The impact of any changes in the ceiling prices of primary copper products at subsequent levels of production and distribution will be treated in accordance with the existing pricing standards of the Office of Price Stabilization.

2. It is the policy of the United States Government not to make now and to avoid in the future changes in the existing price ceilings on domestically refined copper, brass mill scrap, or copper, or copper alloy scrap.

3. In order to maintain a uniform price policy on brass mill and copper wire mill products, taking into account the changes in the price of foreign copper, the National Production Authority will allocate foreign and domestic supplies as equitably as practicable among United States users. Allocation will be used to equalize the impact of any higher foreign price for copper and to permit in this way the import of more copper for the total use of the United States defense program.

Subsequently, industry representatives raised very strong objections to the policy embodied in this Directive. One of the principal objections was based upon the fact that a large proportion of copper wire mills had previously used little or no foreign copper and that consequently their prices and costs were based on 24½¢ rather than 27½¢ metal. Consequently, it was argued that any pass-through must be computed from the 24½¢ level in order to avoid serious injustice to these mills. On the basis of these representations, the directive from the Acting Director of the Office of Defense Mobilization was revised subsequently to the extent that the adjustment in copper wire mill prices be related to the 24½¢ rather than the 27½¢ level.

Industry representatives have also suggested that price increases allowed by this amendment, become effective July 1, 1952, rather than on June 16, and that the first period extend for 90 days before any further adjustment be made. Because of the time involved in making price adjustments and the many variable factors entering into this change the later date appears preferable. It will also coincide with the proposed dates to be used by the NPA in their plan of allocation. Accordingly, July 1, 1952, is the effective date.

On and after July 1, 1952, the ceiling prices for copper wire mill products set forth in CPR 110 are increased as required by the ODM Directive. The amount of the increase is different for different products and is arrived at on the following basis:

The price currently quoted by the Bank of Chile is the equivalent of 36½ cents per pound delivered Connecticut Valley basis. The difference between this figure and the 24½ cents domestic price is 12 cents; 80 percent of this figure is 9.6 cents. In the absence of any actual experience in the operation of this program, it is anticipated that the ratio of consumption of foreign copper to domestic refined copper used in the production of copper wire mill products will be 40 percent foreign copper and 60 percent domestic copper in conformity with the allocations issued by the NPA for the months of July, August, and September. Applying the 40 percent foreign ratio to the 9.6 cents previously computed, yields an average increase in recoverable cost of 3.84 cents per pound of total primary copper purchased. In the manufacture of the products covered by this regulation, there is a certain percentage of scrap generated in the manufacturing process. For the amount of such scrap generated the difference in the price of foreign copper over domestic copper is an added cost, since no increase in price has been provided for scrap even though generated from foreign copper. Consequently, this increased cost is recognized by multiplying 3.84 cents by 1.10 to give an increased recoverable cost of 4.25 cents per pound of copper content. In the manufacture of copper weatherproof wire and cables, part of the finished product is covering. The average ratio of the weight of primary copper to total weight of this finished product is 85 percent, which applied to the figure of 3.84 cents results in an increased cost of 3.25 cents per pound for copper weatherproof wire and cable.

At the time of issuance of CPR 110 the ceiling prices for copper wire mill products containing lead were based on the price of lead at 17 cents per pound. The price of lead has fluctuated from a high of 19 cents to a low of 14 cents, and at the time of issuance of this amendment was being quoted at about 16¼ cents per pound. The manufacturers of these products have indicated that they have voluntarily reduced the prices of their products containing lead when the price of lead was below 17 cents per pound, to reflect the decreased cost. In view of this action by the industry, no further action is deemed necessary at this time with respect to adjusting the price for the lead factor as set forth in this regulation.

A new Appendix B is added for the purposes of determining the copper content of products as required by this amendment.

Some manufacturers of copper wire mill products buy electrolytic copper wire bars and produce finished copper wire mill products in an integrated operation. Other manufacturers, commonly known as redrawers or insulators, purchase wire rods, or bare or tinned wire or cable known as intermediate products, and further fabricate this material into finished products which are then sold at the same prices at which these products are sold by integrated manufacturers. There is a much smaller margin realized in the sale of these intermediate products to redrawers or insulators than in the sale of finished products. It has been represented to this agency that this margin is not sufficient to absorb the increase in the cost of foreign copper. This amendment permits sales of wire rods, bare or tinned wire or cable to redrawers or insulators to be made on the basis of the cost of the electrolytic wire bars from which these intermediate products are made. The ceiling price of the finished product sold by the redrawer or insulator however, remains the same as that of the integrated manufacturer.

Since the ceiling price of copper rods, and bare or tinned wire or cable, sold to redrawers or insulators is based on the cost of the electrolytic wire bars from which these products are made, it is necessary for the proper administration of this regulation, to distinguish between these intermediate products made from domestic copper and those made from imported copper. Accordingly the record-keeping provisions have been amended to require persons making such sales to redrawers or insulators to indicate the cost of the copper wire bars from which these intermediate products are made.

It is anticipated that the adjustments in the ceiling prices made by this amendment will be modified from time to time to conform with changes in the price of imported copper and in the ratio of imported copper to total copper used in the production of copper wire mill products and any other relevant factors. It is presently contemplated, however, that the price adjustments provided for in this amendment will be effective for a period of 90 days from July 1, 1952, and that a recalculation will be made as of September 15, 1952, to be effective on October 1, 1952.

So far as practicable, the Director has given due consideration to the national effort to achieve maximum production in furtherance of the objectives of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, and to relevant facts of general applicability. In the judgment of the Director, the provisions of this regulation comply with all the requirements with respect to the establishment of ceiling prices set forth in the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

In formulating this amendment, the Director consulted with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, to the extent practicable under existing conditions, and has given full consideration to their recommendations.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Ceiling Price Regulation 110 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 2 (a) (6) is added to read as follows:

(6) Where this regulation provides for an adjustment in ceiling prices on the basis of the weight of copper contained in a product, the weights set forth in Appendix B of this regulation must be used in computing the amount of such adjustment.

2. Section 2 (b) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) You must use the applicable base price or list price, extras and deductions, quantity differentials, trade or class of purchaser discounts, and other pricing factors specified thereon and you may make the adjustments provided for in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph; and

3. Section 2 (b) (4) is added to read as follows:

(4) You may increase the ceiling price as otherwise determined in accordance with this paragraph (b) by adding 4.25 cents per pound of copper contained in the product you are pricing.

4. Section 2 (c) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) You must use the applicable base or list price extras and deductions, quantity differentials, trade or class of purchaser discounts, and other pricing factors set forth therein. In the case of a sale of wire rod, bare or tinned wire or cable to redrawers or insulators, you may use as a base price the cost delivered Connecticut Valley basis for the electrolytic copper wire bars from which the product is made.

5. Section 2 (c) (6) is added to read as follows:

(6) You may increase the ceiling prices as otherwise determined in accordance with this paragraph by adding the applicable amount set forth herein.

(i) Bare copper and copper alloy wires and cables, $4.25 per 100 pounds.

(ii) Copper weatherproof wire and cables, if sold by the pound, $3.25 per 100 pounds. If sold by the foot, 4.25 cents per pound of copper content.

(iii) Copper magnet wire, $4.25 per 100 pounds.

6. Section 2 (d) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) You must use a price of 28¾ cents (Correction Factor of Plus 58) for copper, a price of 17 cents (Correction Factor of Minus 5) for lead and a price of $1.10 (Correction Factor of Plus 4) for varnished cambric; and

7. Section 2 (e) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) You must use a price of 28¾ cents (Correction Factor of Plus 7.25) for copper and 17 cents (Correction Factor of Minus .50) for lead; and

8. Section 3 (c) is added to read as follows:

(c) You may add to the ceiling price determined in accordance with paragraph (b) 4.25 cents per pound of copper contained in the product you are pricing.

9. Section 11 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Current records. You must prepare and keep for inspection by the Director of Price Stabilization for a period of two years records of each sale of the products and services covered by this regulation showing: The date of sale; the name and address of the seller and buyer; a description of the product or service sold; the shipping point and destination; and quantity sold; the price charged; the terms of sale; the amount of any extras or deductions; the amount of any differentials, discounts, or freight allowances; the amount of any other factor pertinent to a determination of your ceiling price; and in a sale of wire rods, or bare or tinned wire or cable to a redrawer or an insulator, the cost of the electrolytic copper wire bars from which the intermediate products are made.

10. Section 16 (o) is added to read as follows:

(o) "Redrawers or Insulators" means manufacturers under this regulation who buy wire rods, bare or tinned wire or cable for further fabrication into a copper wire mill product.

Effective date. This amendment to Ceiling Price Regulation 110 shall become effective July 1, 1952.

(Sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154)

NOTE: The record-keeping requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

ELLIS ARNALL,
Director of Price Stabilization.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 153]

CPR 153—SOFTWOOD PLYWOOD, HARDWOOD FACED

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Ceiling Price Regulation is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This regulation establishes ceiling prices for direct mill sales of most grades and sizes of softwood plywood, faced with hardwood veneer, manufactured in the section of the United States west of the 105th Meridian.

The hardwood faced plywood industry covered by this regulation consists of eight major producers. In 1950, the industry produced approximately 70,000,000 square feet of plywood, including 28,000,000 square feet of Philippine mahogany faced plywood. Production was more than 60,000,000 square feet during the first nine months of 1951, and included more than 26,000,000 square feet of the Philippine mahogany faced plywood.

This product is used in the manufacture of furniture, radio cabinets, wall paneling, doors, airplanes and boats.

This regulation establishes mill level ceiling prices, and does not deal with pricing at the various distribution levels. The transactions covered are described as "direct-mill sales." Such a sale exists when a shipment originating at a mill reaches its ultimate destination with the shipment intact, regardless of who actually effected the sale and whether or not the title passes to an intermediate buyer. Thus the term direct-mill sale does not include a transaction where a shipment passes through a yard or warehouse and is actually unloaded before being resold.

As carload sales constitute the great majority of plywood sales, and as industry pricing customarily reflects this factor, the basic prices appearing in this regulation are carload prices. Appropriate provision is made to cover less-than-carload sales.

The regulation provides specific dollar and cent ceiling prices for softwood plywood faced with birch, maple, white oak, walnut and African mahogany. These products constitute 57 percent of the total covered by the regulation. The level of ceiling prices established by this regulation is approximately the level which prevailed during the period January 25 to February 24, 1951, and is not lower than the level existing immediately preceding the issuance of this regulation.

The regulation also provides a formula by which ceiling prices may be determined for softwood plywood faced with Philippine Mahogany, which constitutes the remaining 43 percent of the industry's production. The adoption of a formula was necessary because wide variations in quality and grades of this commodity among producing companies render the establishment of uniform dollar and cent prices unfeasible. Under the formula sellers may determine their ceiling prices by multiplying the highest price they received for each item during the period May 24, 1950 to June 24, 1950, by 1.14. This factor will result in a level of ceiling prices approximately 6 percent higher than the level which has prevailed under the General Ceiling Price Regulation.

Producers of these commodities have pointed out the substantial increases which occurred in 1951 in the cost to them of the imported mahogany logs and veneer which they use. These cost increases, several have asserted, have resulted in their total costs being in excess of their ceiling prices for this product line. Normally, this situation would call for a cost-price study by OPS, and the application of the product standard. However, total annual sales of this product line amount to less than six million dollars. In view of this fact the Director has determined that the administrative burden involved in making a study to determine the precise amount of adjustment required under the standard is not warranted by the relative insignificance of the product in the economy.

Instead, therefore, he has accepted cost data showing material and labor cost increases submitted by the industry and has concluded that a 6% adjustment over General Ceiling Price Regulation prices will satisfy the product standard.

FINDINGS OF THE DIRECTOR OF PRICE STABILIZATION

In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization the ceiling prices established by this regulation are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to effectuate the purpose of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

In the formulation of this regulation, the Director of Price Stabilization has given due consideration to the national effort to achieve maximum production in furtherance of the objectives of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended; to prices prevailing during the period from May 24, 1950, to June 24, 1950, inclusive; to those prevailing during the period January 25 through February 24, 1951, as well as to the level of prices prevailing just before the issuance of this regulation; and to all relevant factors of general applicability.

In formulating this regulation, there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations. This consultation included a meeting with the Industry Advisory Committee for this industry.

Every effort has been made to conform this regulation to existing business practices, especially those existing west of the 105th meridian, with respect to the production, sale, and distribution of softwood plywood and veneer. Insofar as any provisions of this regulation may operate to compel changes in these practices, such provisions are found by the Director of Price Stabilization to be necessary to prevent circumvention or evasion of this regulation.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 20 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply Title IV, 64 Stat. 803, as amended, 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2101-2110, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.

SECTION 1. What this regulation does. (a) This regulation establishes ceiling prices on direct mill sales of softwood plywood, hardwood faced manufactured in the United States west of the 105th meridian.

(b) This regulation supersedes the General Ceiling Price Regulation with respect to the products and transactions covered.

(c) This regulation applies to the 48 States of the United States and the District of Columbia.

SEC. 2. Coverages—(a) Products covered. This regulation covers all species of softwood plywood, faced with any species of hardwood veneer, manufactured in the United States west of the 105th meridian.

(b) Transactions covered. (1) This regulation covers all direct mill sales of the products covered by this regulation. A direct mill sale is a sale in which the shipment of any of the products covered in this regulation originates at a producer's mill, no matter who the seller is, and no matter whether he usually is known as a mill operator, wholesaler, direct mill shipping wholesaler, retailer, distributor, or by any other name.

(2) A direct mill shipping wholesaler is a person who does not maintain or operate a warehouse or yard for the stocking of plywood and other products covered in this regulation and who either purchases these products for resale, or handles them on a commission basis, without warehousing or stocking them in the regular course of business.

SEC. 3. Ceiling prices for direct mill sales—(a) Ceiling prices f. o. b. mill for carload direct mill sales. The ceiling prices f. o. b. mill for carload direct mill sales of softwood plywood, hardwood faced, are listed in Section 5 (tables 1 through 5) of this regulation. (If millwork or softwood plywood, or both, are included in a car with one or more grades or sizes of products covered in section 2 of this regulation, they must be included in computing the total weight of the shipment.) For the purpose of this regulation, the term "carload" means:

(1) When shipment is by rail, the minimum weight required by the Interstate Commerce Commission in its Revised Service Order No. 876, as presently amended, or as it may be amended in the future.

(2) When shipment is by truck, the minimum weight which is considered a truck carload quantity at the point of origin of shipment according to applicable State or Federal legislation.

(b) Ceiling prices f. o. b. mill for less-than-carload direct mill sales. When a less-than-carload freight rate applies at the manufacturer's point of origin of shipment, the ceiling prices f. o. b. mill for less-than-carload direct mill sales of softwood plywood, hardwood faced, not mixed with other commodities other than lumber as set forth in section 7 (h), shall be 10 percent over the prices set forth in the ceiling price tables in this regulation.

(c) Delivered ceiling prices.—The delivered ceiling prices for carload direct mill sales are the ceiling prices f. o. b. mill plus a charge for delivery to the purchaser figured as follows:

(1) Common or contract carrier. When delivery is made by common or contract carrier, no higher than the established weights set forth in section 8 of this regulation may be applied to the applicable freight rate in effect at the time of shipment.

(2) Private truck. When delivery is by truck owned by the seller, an amount not in excess of the common carrier truck rate, exclusive of any transportation tax.

(3) Rounding out to the nearest nickel. The charge for delivery may be evened out to the nearest nickel per 1,000 square feet.

(d) Discount for cash. If the buyer pays cash, your ceiling prices determined under other provisions of this regulation are reduced by the amount of the discount which, during the period from January 25, 1951, through February 24, 1951, you allowed a purchaser of the same class for the payment of cash within the same period of time. If you were not in business between January 25, 1951, and February 24, 1951, your ceiling prices determined under other provisions of this regulation are reduced by 2 percent for cash payment within 10 days from date of invoice or date of bill of lading whichever is later.

SEC. 4. Ceiling prices for rejects. Plywood of any grade which has been rejected by grading process is referred to as "rejects". The ceiling prices for rejects are 10 percent below the ceiling price for the grade from which the plywood products covered by this regulation are rejected.

SEC. 5. Ceiling prices of softwood plywood, hardwood faced. The ceiling prices f. o. b. mill for carload direct mill sales per 1,000 square feet of softwood plywood, hardwood faced, shall be as follows:

1. For exterior glue bond (water proof)

Add for 3 ply, $15 per 1,000 square feet.
Add for 5 ply, $25 per 1,000 square feet.
Add for 7 ply, $35 per 1,000 square feet.
Add for 9 ply, $45 per 1,000 square feet.

2. For sanding (other than drum sanding)

Add $20 per 1,000 square feet.

SEC. 6. Ceiling prices of softwood plywood, Philippine mahogany faced. The ceiling prices for carload direct mill sales of softwood plywood, Philippine mahogany faced, shall be 10 percent above the sellers' highest f. o. b. mill carload prices during the period May 24, 1950 to June 24, 1950 inclusive, as set out in the seller's published carload price lists.

NOTE: If you cannot ascertain your ceiling prices for softwood plywood, Philippine mahogany faced, under this section, you should apply for ceiling prices under section 10 of this regulation.

SEC. 7. Differentials, net extras, and special sales—(a) Extra thicknesses. For panels thicker than 13/16" unsanded:

Interior—Add $17.00 per 1,000 square feet to the 13/16" price for each 1/16" of unsanded thickness over 13/16" unsanded.

Exterior—Add $22.00 per 1,000 square feet to the 13/16" price for each 1/16" of unsanded thickness over 13/16" unsanded.

(b) Non-standard sizes—cut to size specifications. For cut-to-size panels (other than standard sizes listed) figure base size at nearest larger standard size or multiple and add $2.50 per 1,000 square feet if one cut is required and $2.50 per 1,000 square feet for each additional cut required.

(c) Solid core. For selected sound cores and cross bands add:

3 ply—$5.00 per 1,000 square feet.
5 ply—$15.00 per 1,000 square feet.
7 ply—$25.00 per 1,000 square feet.

(d) Toxic glue lines. For treating panels to provide toxic glue lines add:

3 ply—$5.00 per 1,000 square feet.
5 ply—$10.00 per 1,000 square feet.
7 ply—$15.00 per 1,000 square feet.

(e) Marine grade. For special marine grade specifications to conform to Mil-P-66A add to exterior ceiling prices for the required size and thickness, the net extra cost for solid core and cross bands shown under section 7 (c) plus $2.00 per 1,000 square feet for jointed core.

(f) Bundling. For bundling in heavy kraft paper packing add 85 cents per 1/16" in thickness per 1,000 square feet.

(g) Lotting. For segregating or lot marking on car of two or more lots add $10.00 for each lot over one.

(h) Carload shipments mixed with lumber. Where plywood is mixed with lumber in carload shipments an addition may be made to the plywood carload ceiling prices as follows: If the plywood is less than 20,000 pounds, add 10 percent to the plywood carload ceiling price. If the plywood is 20,000 pounds to 38,000 pounds, add 5 percent to the plywood carload ceiling price.

(i) Plywood with additional plies. For plywood manufactured with additional plies over the number required by standard practice as shown in the price tables, add for each two additional plies:

For interior—$14.50 per 1,000 square feet.
For exterior—$17.50 per 1,000 square feet.
Examples: ¾" sanded requiring 7 plies instead of the standard 5 plies; ⅜" sanded requiring 5 plies instead of the standard 3 plies.

SEC. 8. Established weights of plywood. Established weights no higher than the following may be used in figuring delivery charges of plywood under this regulation.

Thickness (in inches):	Pounds per 1,000 square feet
1/8	490
3/16	640
1/4	790
5/16	950
3/8	1,125
7/16	1,300
1/2	1,525
9/16	1,675
5/8	1,825
11/16	2,000
3/4	2,225
13/16	2,375
7/8	2,600
15/16	2,800
1	3,000
1 1/16	3,175

For thicknesses greater than 1 1/8" use 1" weight plus weight of other thicknesses necessary.

NOTE: The seller must apply, under section 10 of this regulation, to the Lumber and Wood Products Branch, Forest Products Division, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C., for established weights for other softwood species and other products covered by this regulation not shown in above table.

SEC. 9. Exports. The ceiling prices for export sales of softwood plywood, hardwood faced are governed by Ceiling Price Regulation 61, issued by the Office of Price Stabilization.

SEC. 10. Ceiling prices for products not otherwise covered—(a) Application. If you cannot ascertain a ceiling price for plywood subject to this regulation under any other provisions of this regulation, as, for example, should you wish to sell plywood with special faces, grades, specifications, thicknesses, services, or weights other than those covered in section 8 or other extras not specifically provided for in this regulation, you must file an application with the Office of Price Stabilization, Forest Products Division, Washington 25, D. C., for approval of a special ceiling price. Your application must be made by registered letter, return receipt requested, and must set forth all the relevant facts, including the following:

(1) As complete a description as possible of the plywood for which the application is filed. This should include the species, grade, thickness, condition and measurements, of the plywood, together with a detailed description of the workings, specifications, services, or other extras involved.

(2) Your proposed ceiling price, together with a statement indicating why you believe it is in line with the level of ceiling prices established under this regulation.

(3) The differential between your proposed ceiling price and the ceiling price of the most nearly comparable item under this regulation; or, if that differential cannot be ascertained, a statement of the reasons therefor.

(b) Quotation of proposed prices. After an application has been filed under this section, and before action by the Director of Price Stabilization, you may sell your plywood at the ceiling price proposed in your application, provided that you agree to, and later, refund to the buyer, the amount, if any, by which your proposed price exceeds the ceiling price established by the Director of Price Stabilization.

(c) Action by the Director of Price Stabilization. (1) After receipt of an application made under this section, the Director of Price Stabilization will approve or disapprove your proposed ceiling price, will request additional information about it, or will establish a different ceiling price for the item that is the subject of your application.

(2) If the Director does not notify you to the contrary or request additional information from you within 30 days after the receipt of your application, or within 15 days after the receipt of requested additional information, your proposed ceiling price shall be deemed to have been approved, subject to modification at a later time.

(3) Approval of applications by the Director under this section is subject to a satisfactory showing that proposed prices are in line with the level of ceiling prices otherwise established by this regulation.

SEC. 11. Modification of proposed ceiling prices by Director of Price Stabilization. The Director of Price Stabilization may at any time disapprove or reduce ceiling prices determined under this regulation so as to bring them in line with the level of ceiling prices otherwise established by this regulation.

SEC. 12. Petitions for amendment. If you wish to have this regulation amended, you may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Price Procedural Regulation 1, Revision 2.

SEC. 13. Adjustable pricing. Nothing in this regulation prohibits you from making a contract or offer to sell at (a) the ceiling price in effect at the time of delivery, or (b) the lower of a fixed price or the ceiling price in effect at the time of delivery. You may not, however, deliver or agree to deliver at a price to be adjusted upward in accordance with any increase in a ceiling price after delivery.

SEC. 14. Records. This section applies to you if you sell, or if you buy, in the regular course of trade or business, any product covered by this regulation.

(a) If you sell, you shall make and keep, or if you buy, you shall keep for inspection by the Director of Price Stabilization, in addition to the base period records required by section 16 (a) of the General Ceiling Price Regulation, for a period of two years, accurate records of each sale or purchase made after the effective date of this regulation. The records, which may be in the form of invoices, must show:

(1) The date of the purchase or sale.

(2) The name and address of the buyer and seller.

(3) The quantity, grade and size of the product or products covered by this regulation which are sold or bought.

(4) Prices charged or paid and terms of sale.

(5) All pertinent information which affects the ceiling price, such as any specification or extra, whether each purchase or sale is made on an f. o. b. mill or on a delivered basis; in the case of a sale on a delivered basis, your records must also show all the transportation charges, together with the rates applied, and the origin and destination of shipment. Records must also show all premiums, discounts and allowances.

(b) Persons required to keep records by paragraph (a) of this section shall keep such other records and shall submit such reports as the Director of Price Stabilization may, from time to time require, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

SEC. 15. Transfers of business or stock in trade. If the business, assets or stock in trade of any business are sold or otherwise transferred after the effective date of this regulation, and the transferee carries on the business, or continues to deal in the same products, in an establishment separate from any other establishment previously owned or operated by him, the ceiling prices of the transferee shall be the same as those to which his transferor would have been subject, if no such transfer had taken place, and his obligations to keep records sufficient to verify such prices shall be the same. The transferor shall either preserve and make available, or turn over to the transferee, all records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the provisions of this regulation.

SEC. 16. Excise, sales and similar taxes. Any person may collect, in addition to the ceiling price established by this regulation, any excise, sales or similar tax imposed upon him by reason of his sale of a product covered by this regulation if he is not prohibited by law from making such collection and if he states separately from his ceiling price the amount of the tax collected.

SEC. 17. Interpretations. If you wish an official interpretation of this regulation, you should write to the District Counsel of your district office of the Office of Price Stabilization. Any action taken by you in reliance upon, and in conformity with a written official interpretation, will constitute action in good faith pursuant to this regulation. Further information on obtaining official interpretations is contained in Price Procedural Regulation 1, Revision 2.

SEC. 18. Prohibitions and violations. (a) You shall not do any act prohibited or omit to do any act required by this regulation, nor shall you offer, solicit, attempt, or agree to do or omit to do any such acts. Specifically, but not in limitation of the above, you shall not, regardless of any contract or other obligation, sell and no person in the regular course of trade or business shall buy from you at a price higher than the ceiling prices established by this regulation, and you and buyers from you shall keep, make, and preserve true and accurate records and reports required by this regulation.

(b) If you violate any provisions of this regulation, you are subject to criminal penalties, enforcement action, and action for damages. Prices lower than the ceiling prices may be charged, paid or offered.

(c) If any person subject to this regulation fails to prepare or keep any record or file any report required by this regulation in connection with the establishment of his ceiling price, or if any person subject to this regulation fails to establish a ceiling price or apply to the Office of Price Stabilization for the establishment of a ceiling price, if he is required to do so, the Director of Price Stabilization may issue an order fixing his ceiling prices. Any ceiling price fixed in this manner will be in line with ceiling prices generally established by this regulation. The order fixing the ceiling price may apply to all deliveries or transfers completed prior to the date of issuance of the order. The issuance of such an order will not relieve the seller of his obligation to comply with the requirements of this regulation or of the various penalties for failure to do so.

SEC. 19. Evasions. Any means or device which results in obtaining indirectly a higher price than is permitted by this regulation or in concealing or falsely representing information as to which this regulation requires records to be kept is a violation of this regulation. This prohibition includes, but is not limited to, means or devices making use of commissions, services, cross sales, transportation arrangements, premiums, discounts, special privileges, up-grading, tie-in agreements, trade understandings, unnecessarily routing through commonly owned or controlled warehouses or yards in order to avoid customary functional discounts or to obtain distribution plant markups and the like, as well as the omission from records of true data and the inclusion in records of false data.

SEC. 20. Definitions. (a) This regulation and the terms which appear in it shall be construed in the following manner unless otherwise clearly required by the context:

(1) Carload. This term is defined in section 3 of this regulation.

(2) Direct Mill Sale. This term is defined in section 2 (b) of this regulation.

(3) Director of Price Stabilization. This term extends to any official (including officials of Regional or local offices) to whom the Director of Price Stabilization, by order, delegates a function, power, or authority referred to in this regulation.

(4) Established weights. This term means the weights per 1,000 square feet of various thicknesses of plywood set forth in section 8 of this regulation.

(5) Manufacturer. This term means any person who produces plywood covered by this regulation.

(6) Most nearly comparable item. This term means the plywood product most nearly like an item for which an application is filed under section 10. That product is the closest one of a group of related products which are normally classed together for pricing purposes, even though they differ in respect to size, grade, name or trade-mark.

(7) Person. This term includes any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or the legal successor or representative of the foregoing, and the United States and any other Government or their political subdivision or agencies.

(8) Records. This term includes books of account, sales lists, sales slips, orders, vouchers, contracts, receipts, invoices, bills of lading, and other papers and documents.

(9) Sell. This term includes sell, supply, dispose, barter, trade, exchange, transfer, deliver, and contracts and offers to do any of the foregoing. The terms buy and purchase shall be construed accordingly.

(10) You. This term means the person subject to this regulation. Your and yours are construed accordingly.

Effective date. This regulation shall become effective June 30, 1952.

NOTE: The record-keeping and reporting requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

[General Ceiling Price Regulation, Supplementary Regulation 110]

GCPR, SR 110—TRUE MAHOGANY LOGS AND LUMBER

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Supplementary Regulation 110 to the General Ceiling Price Regulation is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This supplementary regulation suspends sales and purchases of true mahogany logs and lumber from the provisions of the General Ceiling Price Regulation.

True mahogany does not grow in the United States; therefore, all logs from which mahogany lumber is produced are imported. Some lumber, especially in the form of flitches, is also imported.

The principal growing areas of true mahogany are Africa, Mexico, Central and South America. True mahogany is derived from trees classified botanically as belonging to the Meliaceae family. Tropical American mahogany is derived primarily from Swietenia Macrophylla, very minor quantities are derived from Swietenia Humilis; African mahogany is derived from various species of the genus Khaya.

"Philippine mahogany" is not true mahogany and is not in any way subject to the provisions of this supplementary regulation. It is derived from a group of Philippine woods; primarily, Red Lauan, White Lauan, Tanguile, Almon, and Bagtikan.

The entire operation of bringing true mahogany from the forest to the United States is usually financed by the American purchasers who normally are converters as well as importers. This financing is usually done under irrevocable letters of credit and may also include the loan of heavy and expensive logging and hauling equipment to the foreign producers as well as loans to meet payrolls.

Generally speaking, it is customary for contracts to be placed with local log producers in the summer or fall of one year for logs to be brought out in the following spring and summer. Contracts of several years duration are not, however, uncommon. Prior to entering such contracts the prospective importer must undertake negotiations with local producers, and sometimes political entities and must conduct cruising operations which are often expensive. The usual practice is for advances which have been made to foreign producers to be repaid by credits against the logs delivered in the United States. For many reasons, the foreign producer not infrequently falls short of the production expected in one season and credits which were expected to be of a year's duration often take much longer to be settled. Sometimes they never are settled and become merely unpredictable expenses which must be charged against the cost of the logs actually delivered. This further complicates a difficult cost and sales problem developing from the fact that normally the first shipments of logs are converted into lumber and sold before the contract is completed. It is therefore impossible to prorate such unpredictable expenses.

True mahogany does not grow in pure stands, but rather trees suitable for logging are found in isolated positions or in groups of two or three. It is therefore impossible to confine logging operations to areas close to streams which will at the flood season be capable of carrying the logs to navigable waters. Overland hauls of 40 to 60 miles are not uncommon. Once trees are felled they are subject to the attack of the ambrosia beetle and may be seriously damaged before they reach the water. After they have been floated to the brackish water of the river mouths they are subject to the attack of marine borers. As a result of such factors it is impossible for an American importer of these logs to know the value of the lumber or veneer which can be produced from any given log until the log has actually been opened up at his saw mill. Frequently high priced logs are found unsuitable for veneer and must be cut into lumber at a loss. Not infrequently importers are billed for veneer logs and receive low grade sawlogs. When mahogany lumber is imported it is often necessary to regrade it. For these reasons, and for others, including political conditions and uncertainty of tax impositions in the producing areas, it is difficult for the importer to know the landed cost of mahogany logs and lumber. Thus, it is not practicable to put these products under the imports regulation, and in view of increased foreign costs, continuation of GCPR ceilings is likely to be an impediment to continued importation. Because the existing supply of mahogany logs and lumber is adequate to meet demand under existing market conditions, any increases which may result from suspension of ceilings should be nominal, and they will be carefully reviewed by OPS on the basis of the quarterly reports which the industry must file under this supplementary regulation.

The anticipated increase in prices of mahogany logs and lumber will not have a substantial impact upon the economy. In 1950, mahogany lumber imports totaled 27,917 M board feet, valued at $4,783,113. In addition, 56,500 M board feet of mahogany logs, valued at $7,998,068, were imported. During 1950, 28,196 M board feet of lumber was produced from imported logs, indicating that 28,304 M board feet of logs were available for inventory and for the production of veneer. In its usual peacetime uses mahogany reaches the ultimate consumer almost exclusively as a component of furniture, cabinets and plywood. These end products as well as mahogany veneer, will remain under price control. Suspension of ceilings on mahogany logs and lumber will therefore not raise the cost of living.

In the formulation of this regulation there has been consultation within industry representatives, including trade association representatives and consideration has been given to their recommendations. In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization, the provisions of this supplementary regulation are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to effectuate the purposes of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

REGULATORY PROVISIONS

Sec.
1. What this supplementary regulation does.
2. Geographical applicability.
3. Suspension.
4. Records.
5. Reports.
6. Definitions.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 6 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply Title IV, 64 Stat. 803, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup., 2101-2110, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105, 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.

SECTION 1. What this supplementary regulation does. The purpose of this supplementary regulation is to suspend all sales and purchases of true mahogany logs and lumber from the provisions of the General Ceiling Price Regulation.

SEC. 2. Geographical applicability. The provisions of this supplementary regulation are applicable in the 48 States of the United States and the District of Columbia.

SEC. 3. Suspension. On and after the effective date of this supplementary regulation, and until such time as the Director of Price Stabilization takes further action, the provisions of the General Ceiling Price Regulation shall not apply to any sale and purchase of true mahogany logs and lumber.

SEC. 4. Records—(a) Current records. On and after the effective date of this supplementary regulation, you shall make and keep, in the manner provided in the first sentence of section 16 (b) of the General Ceiling Price Regulation, all records of sales and purchases of true mahogany logs and lumber covered by this supplementary regulation as you are required to keep by section 16 (b) of the GCPR.

(b) Existing records. You shall also continue to preserve for the applicable periods indicated in section 16 of the GCPR all records which, prior to the effective date of this supplementary regulation, you made and kept under the provisions of section 16 of the GCPR.

SEC. 5. Reports—(a) Initial reports. Within 30 days after the effective date of this supplementary regulation, you shall file with the Forest Products Division, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C., a report showing the following information with respect to:

(1) Logs. (i) Your ceiling prices for true mahogany logs established under the provisions of the General Ceiling Price Regulation with respect to each class of purchaser.

(ii) Your actual selling price to each class of purchaser, and date of sales, of true mahogany logs for your last sale made prior to the effective date of this regulation.

(2) Lumber. (i) Your carload ceiling prices for true mahogany lumber, established under the provisions of the General Ceiling Price Regulation with respect to each class of purchaser, for one inch and for two inch thicknesses in each of the following grades: FAS, Selects, No. 1 Common, No. 2 Common, and N. O., and FAS (A) Wormy.

(ii) Your actual carload selling price to each class of purchaser, and date of sales for your last sales made prior to the effective date of this regulation of true mahogany lumber in the thicknesses and grades listed in subparagraph (2) (i) above.

(b) Quarterly reports. Within 20 days after each of the calendar periods ending March 31, June 30, September 30, and December 31 of each year during which this supplementary regulation remains effective, you shall file with the Forest Products Division, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C., a report for the respective calendar period on OPS Public Form No. 141 showing the following information with respect to:

(1) Logs. (i) The principal class of purchaser to which you sold true mahogany logs.

(ii) The highest price at which you delivered true mahogany logs ($ per MFBM) to the above.

(iii) The total board feet delivered at highest price (MFBM).

(iv) The total board feet of all deliveries (MFBM).

(2) Lumber. (i) The highest price at which you delivered true mahogany lumber in carload lots in one inch and in two-inch thicknesses in each of the following grades: FAS, Selects, No. 1 Common, No. 2 Common, N. O. and FAS (A) Wormy.

(ii) The total board feet delivered at highest carload price (MFBM).

(iii) The total board feet of all deliveries of true mahogany lumber (MFBM) in one inch and in two inch thicknesses in each of the following grades: FAS, Selects, No. 1 Common, No. 2 Common, N. O. and FAS (A) Wormy.

NOTE: In reporting your lumber sales, you must report separately your sales of one inch and two inch items. You must use OPS Public Form No. 141 in providing the above required information.

(c) Reports made under this section shall contain your company name and address and be signed by you if an individual; if a partnership, by a partner, or if a corporation, by a duly authorized officer.

SECTION 6. Definition—(a) Class of purchaser. Class of purchaser is determined by reference to your own practice of setting different prices for sales to different purchasers or groups of purchasers. The practice may (but need not) be based on the characteristics or distributive level of the buyer (for instance, manufacturer, wholesaler, individual retail store, retail chain, or yard, government agency). It may (but need not) be based on the location of the purchaser or the quantity purchased by him.

If you have followed the practice of giving an individual customer a price differing from that charged others, that customer is a separate class of purchaser.

(b) True mahogany logs and lumber. The term "true mahogany logs and lumber" means logs and lumber derived from trees belonging to the Meliaceae family of the species Swietenia Macrophylla, Swietenia Humilis and various species of the genus Khaya.

The term "true mahogany logs and lumber" does not include logs or lumber sold under the trade name "Philippine mahogany" derived from woods belonging to the Dipterocarpaceae family.

(c) You. The pronoun "you" as used in this supplementary regulation means any person who sells true mahogany logs and lumber subject to this supplementary regulation.

Effective date. The effective date of this supplementary regulation is June 30, 1952.

NOTE: The reporting and record-keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Chapter IV—Salary and Wage Stabilization, Economic Stabilization Agency

Subchapter A—Salary Stabilization Board

[General Salary Stabilization Regulation 8, Revised]

GSSR 8—HEALTH AND WELFARE PLANS

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

Health and welfare plans providing for prepayment on a group basis of the cost of hospitalization, surgical and medical care, accident, sickness and disability insurance, and life insurance have grown greatly during the last decade.

On January 30, 1952, the Salary Stabilization Board issued General Salary Order No. 11 to permit the establishment of health and welfare plans in certain instances, pending the development of a broader policy. The Board gave further consideration to stabilization problems involved in such health and welfare plans and accordingly, on May 15, 1952, promulgated General Salary Stabilization Regulation 8.

Thereafter the Wage Stabilization Board unanimously revised its regulation to permit health and welfare plans to go into effect without regard to certain limitations previously imposed, subject to the procedures set forth in the revised regulation. To the extent that the self-administering provisions of General Salary Stabilization Regulation 8 were based on standards established by the Wage Stabilization Board, substitution of a new standard is required for putting certain health and welfare plans into effect without the prior approval of the Office of Salary Stabilization. Accordingly, the Salary Stabilization Board has adopted General Salary Stabilization Regulation 8, Revised.

In the formulation of the provisions of this regulation, due consideration has been given to the standards and procedures set forth in Title IV and Title VII of the Defense Production Act, as amended; there has been consultation with industry representatives and consideration has been given to their recommendations.

REGULATORY PROVISIONS

Sec.
1. Health and welfare plans which may be put into effect or continued without approval of the Office of Salary Stabilization.
2. Approval of other health and welfare plans.
3. Charge-off of employer contributions to, and benefits paid under, health and welfare plans authorized by this regulation.
4. Cost of health and welfare plans shall not justify price increases.
5. Record-keeping required.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 5 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply Title IV, 64 Stat. 803, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2101–2110, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105, 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.

SECTION 1. Health and welfare plans which may be put into effect or continued without approval of the Office of Salary Stabilization. A plan providing for hospital expense, surgical expense, or in-hospital medical expense (including any of the foregoing benefits for employee dependent), temporary disability, sick leave, permanent and total disability, accidental death and dismemberment benefits, or group life insurance (covering a group of at least 25 employees), may be put into effect or continued without approval of the Office of Salary Stabilization under any one of the following conditions:

(a) If it covers employees subject to the jurisdiction of both the Wage Stabilization Board and the Salary Stabilization Board upon the same or similar terms and (1) meets the requirements of General Wage Regulation No. 19, Revised, or (2) is approved by the Wage Stabilization Board for employees under its jurisdiction; or

(b) If it covers only employees subject to the jurisdiction of the Salary Stabilization Board; and

(1) Covers under a group plan at least a majority of such employees; and

(2) Does not discriminate in favor of employees who are officers, shareholders, persons whose principal duties consist of supervising the work of other employees, or highly compensated employees; and

(3) The benefits under the plan are not inconsistent with prevailing practice with respect to such plans; and

(4) No payment or distribution of any life insurance benefit contributed by the employer, or loan based on such benefit, shall be made to any participating employee or his beneficiaries except in the event of:

(i) The death of the employee; or

(ii) His total and permanent disability; or

(iii) His retirement or the termination of his employment; or

(c) If the employees covered by the plan and subject to the jurisdiction of the Salary Stabilization Board pay at least 40 per cent of the premium payment; or

(d) If it is an extension of an existing plan to additional employees within the same plant or establishment, or from a group of employees in one geographical unit of a multiplant employer to a similar group of employees in another geographical unit of the same employer; or

(e) If it is an extension, renewal or continuation of a plan in effect on January 25, 1951, or approved by the Wage Stabilization Board prior to May 10, 1951, or by the Office of Salary Stabilization thereafter; or

(f) If it is a new or amended plan required by law.

SEC. 2. Approval of other health and welfare plans. The Office of Salary Stabilization is authorized, upon application, to approve health and welfare plans which may not be put into effect without prior approval under section 1 of this regulation. Such approval shall not be given to a plan which is discriminatory, or the terms of which are excessive as compared with the terms of plans which may be put into effect without approval.

SEC. 3. Charge-off of employer contributions to, and benefits paid under, health and welfare plans authorized by this regulation. (a) An employer is not required to charge, against any increases in salary or other compensation authorized under any salary stabilization regulations or orders, any contribution which is made to, or any benefit paid under, a health and welfare plan which is put into effect under the provisions of this regulation.

(b) An employer who since January 25, 1951, has established or modified a health and welfare plan under the provisions of any General Wage or General Salary Stabilization Regulation or General Salary Order, may eliminate the cost of such benefit from the amount chargeable against any increases in salary or other compensation authorized by General Wage Regulation 6, section 8 of General Salary Stabilization Regulation 1, or General Salary Order 6 to the extent that the cost of such benefit was so charged.

SEC. 4. Cost of health and welfare plans shall not justify price increases. The cost of a health and welfare plan put into effect under the provisions of this regulation shall not, except as otherwise provided by the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, furnish a basis either to increase price ceilings or to resist otherwise justifiable reductions in price ceilings.

SEC. 5. Record-keeping required. (a) No report is required to be filed with the Office of Salary Stabilization in respect of any health and welfare plan put into effect under section 1 of this regulation.

(b) An employer putting into effect a health and welfare plan authorized by this regulation shall keep available for inspection by appropriate authority a copy of such plan and a record of the contributions to the plan, whether in the form of premium payments or otherwise, and whether made by the employer or by an employee.[1]

NOTE: The record-keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Adopted by the Salary Stabilization Board this 17th day of June 1952.

JUSTIN MILLER,
Chairman.

[Interpretation 11]

INT. 11—NEW PLANTS (SECTION 11 OF GENERAL SALARY STABILIZATION REGULATION 1, AS AMENDED

This interpretation is intended to cover primarily the question of when a business enterprise is classified as a new plant under salary stabilization. The interpretation also deals with certain aspects of fixing the compensation of employees of a new plant.

1. Q. A corporation during 1951 was engaged in the manufacture of passenger cars and automotive parts. In the last part of 1951 it obtained contracts for the manufacture of automotive and aviation military equipment, and early in 1952 began using a substantial part of its plant and equipment for the manufacture of such military equipment. With very few exceptions, the same personnel was retained and very little new machinery was necessary in order to accomplish the partial shift to the manufacture of the new product. Has a new plant been established within the meaning of section 11 of General Salary Stabilization Regulation 1, as amended?

A. No. The shift in the product manufactured does not constitute the establishment of a new plant or the conversion of an existing plant into a new plant within the meaning of section 11 (a) of General Salary Stabilization Regulation 1, as amended. There has been no substantial change in personnel or in the equipment or machinery of the plant. Any new positions which are necessary because of a partial shift in products would be established pursuant to section 8 of General Salary Stabilization Regulation 3, as amended.

2. Q. A corporation on February 15, 1951 began to manufacture a product not previously manufactured by it. For this purpose, it converted one of its existing plants and installed a large quantity of new machinery. The manufacture of the new product required the hiring of new personnel for a considerable number of key positions. Does the converted plant constitute a new plant within the meaning of section 11 of General Salary Stabilization Regulation 1, as amended?

A. Yes. On January 25, 1951 the converted plant had not commenced the manufacture of the new product and there was a substantial shift to new kinds of machinery and production processes which had not been employed previously. Therefore, the operation of the converted plant required employment of a different type of personnel and the establishment of a different salary structure from that previously in effect in the plant.

For example, if a manufacturer of glass bottles were to convert some of his plant facilities to the manufacture of metal containers, the portion of the plant which is engaged in the manufacture of such metal containers would constitute a new plant.

3. Q. How are the salaries of persons employed in a plant converted to a new product, which constitutes a new plant, determined?

A. The salaries of such employees must be determined in accordance with the provisions of section 11 of General Salary Stabilization Regulation 1, as amended.

4. Q. X, the president of a corporation, forms a general partnership with Y, one of his employees, on April 1, 1951, as a separate business to distribute a line of merchandise not heretofore handled by the corporation. Certain of the employees of the corporation became employees of the partnership. How are their salaries to be determined?

A. In accordance with the provisions of section 11 of General Salary Stabilization Regulation 1, as amended. Since the new partnership was not on January 25, 1951, engaged in the business for which it was formed, it is a new plant.

5. Q. A, B, and C formed a partnership in December 1950 for the purpose of rendering services as engineering consultants. They did not have any clients until March 1951 and did not hire any employees until that time. Under which salary stabilization regulation must the salaries of their employees be determined?

A. Section 11 of General Salary Stabilization Regulation 1, as amended. Although the partnership was formed prior to January 25, 1951, it had not commenced to render services until after that date and, therefore, constitutes a new plant under section 11.

6. Q. Assume that, prior to January 25, 1951, the partnership referred to in question 5 had hired several employees subject to the jurisdiction of the Wage Stabilization Board and rendered services to clients before January 25, 1951. Subsequent to January 25, 1951, employees subject to the jurisdiction of the Salary Stabilization Board are hired. How are the salaries of these employees determined?

A. In accordance with section 8 of General Salary Stabilization Regulation 3, as amended. In this case the partnership had commenced operations before January 25, 1951 and is not a new plant under section 11 of General Salary Stabilization Regulation 1, as amended. To the extent that in this situation the setting of salaries for employees requires the establishment of a salary plan, an application may be required to be filed under section 2 (e) of General Salary Stabilization Regulation 3, as amended.

7. Q. A, B and C form a corporation for the manufacture of a particular product. The corporation establishes salaries for A, B and C as officers and for all other employees in accordance with the criteria for the determination of such salaries contained in section 11 of General Salary Stabilization Regulation 1, as amended. The corporation wishes to include a profit sharing bonus plan as part of the compensation to be paid to its employees. May this be done under section 11 of General Salary Stabilization Regulation 1, as amended?

A. Not without prior approval. Section 11 (b) of General Salary Stabilization Regulation 1, as amended, permits the employer to establish schedules of salary rates for employees in a new plant which may be put into effect, in accordance with the provisions of section 11 (c), 20 days after filing with the Office of Salary Stabilization unless disapproved within that period. Other compensation for employees in a new plant may be paid only upon actual prior approval of the Office of Salary Stabilization in accordance with the provisions of section 11 (d) of General Salary Stabilization Regulation 1, as amended, and may not be put into effect under the provisions of section 11 (c). However, for purposes of section 11 (c), schedules of salary rates may include commission rates for sales employees covered by General Salary Stabilization Regulation 5.

8. Q. A new corporation was formed in October 1951 and the salaries of its employees were determined in accordance with the provisions of section 11 of General Salary Stabilization Regulation 1, as amended. May such employees receive any of the ten percent increase authorized under section 8 of General Salary Stabilization Regulation 1, as amended?

A. No. "New plants" are always plants which have come into existence since January 25, 1951. Therefore, it is presumed that the salary schedule of a new plant, being based on current rates in the local labor market, always takes into account the ten percent increase authorized under section 8 of General Salary Stabilization Regulation 1, as amended.

9. Q. On June 1, 1951, an employer filed with the Office of Salary Stabilization a schedule of salary rates for a new plant, which he put into effect after three weeks in accordance with the provisions of section 11 (c) of General Salary Stabilization Regulation 1, as amended. May the employer thereafter disregard the schedule filed by him and file a substitute schedule of salary rates which he may put into effect, in accordance with the conditions of section 11 (c) (2), three weeks after the date of filing with the Office of Salary Stabilization, if the Office has failed to act in the interim?

A. No. Since the employer filed a schedule of salary rates which has gone into effect under section 11 (c), he is bound by such schedule and may not modify it except in accordance with applicable salary stabilization regulations or orders or with the prior approval of the Office of Salary Stabilization.

10. Q. A survey made by an employer who commenced operations in March 1951, indicates that the salaries currently paid by him in accordance with salary schedules originally established and approved under section 11 of General Salary Stabilization Regulation 1, as amended, are below the salary levels of other employers in the same industry or area. What kind of relief is available to the employer?

A. The employer may apply for relief under General Salary Order 5, if he can show that an interplant inequity has been created since he established his salary schedules in October 1951.

11. Q. An employer opened a new plant on January 1, 1952 and three weeks after the date of filing his schedule of salary rates under section 11 of General Salary Stabilization Regulation 1, as amended, put the schedule into effect. Upon review by the Office of Salary Stabilization the schedule of salary rates was disapproved in part. Is the employer required to reduce his salary rates to the approved level?

A. Yes. Salary rates put into effect pursuant to section 11 are subject to disapproval and any employer putting into effect salary rates under section 11 without the specific approval of the Office of Salary Stabilization must advise his employees that such salary rates are interim rates which are subject to approval and adjustment by the Office of Salary Stabilization for all payroll periods subsequent to the date of the employer's receipt of the ruling of partial disapproval.

CMP REG. 1—BASIC RULES OF THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

DIR. 1—PROCEDURES FOR OBTAINING MINIMUM QUANTITIES OF MATERIALS BY PRODUCERS OF CLASS B PRODUCTS

This amendment is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended. In the formulation of this amendment, consultation with industry representatives has been rendered impracticable due to the need for immediate action and because the amendment affects many different industries.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Direction 1, as last amended June 18, 1952, to CMP Regulation No. 1 is hereby amended by adding to section 3, new paragraphs (h) and (i) to read as follows:

(h) Except as provided in paragraph (e) of this section or as otherwise provided by NPA, a producer of a Class B product must obtain his requirements of all kinds of controlled materials in a particular calendar quarter for a particular product class either pursuant to this direction or pursuant to application submitted on Form CMP-4B, and may not self-authorize for one or more kinds of controlled materials and submit a Form CMP-4B for one or more other kinds of controlled materials.

(i) A producer of a Class B product who is entitled to operate under the provisions of this direction, may calculate his maximum self-authorization quantity for each kind of controlled material separately pursuant to paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) or paragraph (c) of this section (subject to the base period use provisions of such paragraphs), and need not calculate his maximum self-authorization quantities of all kinds of controlled materials pursuant to a single paragraph.

(Sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, Pub. Law 96, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154)

This amendment shall take effect June 30, 1952.

O. 10261, Aug. 26, 1951, 16 F. R. 8789; 3 CFR, 1951 Supp.

SECTION 1. What this direction does. This direction grants to manufacturers of Class B products additional advance allotments for a period of seven calendar quarters to cover their requirements and those of their secondary consumers for carbon steel (including low-alloy) castings weighing 10,000 pounds or over. It is designed to permit and encourage placement of authorized controlled material orders for such castings in sufficient time prior to requested delivery dates so that NPA can take the necessary action to insure, so far as practicable, that requirements for this type of controlled material will be met.

SEC. 2. Additional advance allotments. A manufacturer of a Class B product who has received an authorized production schedule, related allotment and advance allotments of carbon steel from an industry division or a claimant agency is hereby granted additional advance allotments of carbon steel for each of the seven calendar quarters immediately subsequent to the latest calendar quarter for which he received an advance allotment of carbon steel from such industry division or claimant agency, equal to the carbon steel allotment for such latest quarter: Provided, however, That such additional advance allotments may be used only (a) to place authorized controlled material orders for no more than his actual requirements of individual carbon steel (including low-alloy) castings weighing 10,000 pounds or over each, and (b) to make advance allotments to secondary consumers producing Class A products for him to cover no more than their actual requirements of individual carbon steel (including low-alloy) castings weighing 10,000 pounds or over each, in which event the allotments shall specify such limitation.

This direction shall take effect June 30, 1952.

[CMP Regulation No. 2, Direction 1 of June 30, 1952]

CMP REG. 2—INVENTORIES OF CONTROLLED MATERIALS

DIR. 1—TEMPORARY SUSPENSION OF INVENTORY LIMITATIONS ON COPPER AND ALUMINUM

This direction under CMP Regulation No. 2 is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended. In the formulation of this direction, consultation with industry representatives has been rendered impracticable due to the need for immediate action and because the direction affects many different industries.

REGULATORY PROVISIONS

Sec.
1. What this direction does.
2. Suspension of inventory limitations.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 and 2 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, Pub. Law 96, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply sec. 101, 64 Stat. 799, Pub. Law 96, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2071; sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.; sec. 2, E. O. 10200, Jan. 3, 1951, 16 F. R. 61; 3 CFR, 1951 Supp.; secs. 402, 405, E. O. 10281, Aug. 28, 1951, 16 F. R. 8789; 3 CFR, 1951 Supp.

SECTION 1. What this direction does. In view of the work stoppage in the steel industry and consequent interruption in meeting authorized production and construction schedules, this direction temporarily accords users of copper and aluminum the privilege of exceeding inventory restrictions upon such materials.

SEC. 2. Suspension of inventory limitations. (a) A user of controlled material may accept delivery of any item of copper controlled material and any item of aluminum controlled material without regard to the inventory limitations of CMP Regulation No. 2.

(b) Nothing in this section shall be construed to permit a user of controlled material to obtain any controlled material or to make allotments in excess of the related allotment received by him, or in excess of the quantities for which he is permitted to self-authorize delivery orders.

This direction shall take effect June 30, 1952.

[NPA Order M-25, Direction 4 of June 30, 1952]

M-25—CANS

DIR. 4—EMERGENCY PACKING OF PERISHABLE FOOD PRODUCTS

This direction to NPA Order M-25 is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended. In the formulation of this direction there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations.

REGULATORY PROVISIONS

Sec.
1. What this direction does.
2. Definition.
3. Suspension of can material specifications for perishable food products.
4. Direction to can manufacturers.
5. Duration of this direction.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 5 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, Pub. Law 96, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply sec. 101, 64 Stat. 799, Pub. Law 96, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2071; sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.; sec. 2, E. O. 10200, Jan. 3, 1951, 16 F. R. 61; 3 CFR, 1951 Supp.; secs. 402, 405, E. O. 10281, Aug. 28, 1951, 16 F. R. 8789; 3 CFR, 1951 Supp.

SECTION 1. What this direction does. For the purpose of applying, so far as practicable, all stocks of tin plate currently available or to become available to the packing of perishable food products, this direction suspends can material specifications for packing such products and requires can manufacturers to give perference (subject to direct defense requirements) to orders for cans for packing such products.

SEC. 2. Definition. "Perishable food product" means any food product for human consumption which by trade custom and to prevent spoilage is canned quickly after its first separation from its natural source.

SEC. 3. Suspension of can material specification for perishable food products. Any packer may pack any perishable food product listed in Schedule I of NPA Order M-25 without regard to the can material specifications prescribed for that product by that schedule.

SEC. 4. Direction to can manufacturers. Subject to the provisions of section 8 of NPA Order M-25, every can manufacturer shall schedule his operations (including the use of all tin plate in his possession, and his ordering of any such plate) so as to insure, so far as practicable, preference in the filling of orders for cans for packing perishable food products.

SEC. 5. Duration of this direction. This direction shall continue in effect until the National Production Authority shall by order, by direction, or by revocation of this direction, otherwise provide.

This direction shall take effect June 30, 1952.

[NPA Reg. 1, Amendment 2 of June 30, 1952]

NPA REG. 1—INVENTORY CONTROL

REMOVAL OF SLAB ZINC FROM INVENTORY LIMITATION

This amendment to NPA Reg. 1 is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued under the authority granted by the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended. Consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, in advance of the issuance of this amendment has been rendered impracticable by the fact that this amendment applies to all trades and industries.

NPA Reg. 1 as amended by Amendment 1 of May 16, 1952, is hereby further amended as follows:

1. The following is to be deleted from Table IB of NPA Reg. 1 under the column headings indicated:

Materials:	Inventory limitation (calendar days)
Zinc, slab (all grades)	[1] 60

[1] The practicable minimum working inventory limitation provision does not apply.

(Sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, Pub. Law 96, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154)

This amendment shall take effect June 30, 1952.

[Defense Food Order 3 and Import Determination]

DFO 3—AGRICULTURE IMPORTS

NOTICE OF CONTINUATION OF DETERMINATION RELATING TO IMPORTS UNDER DEFENSE PRODUCTION ACT AND OF DEFENSE FOOD ORDER 3, AS AMENDED

In view of the uncertainty as to the extention, beyond June 30, 1952, of authority for import controls under the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended (64 Stat. 798, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Supp. 2061 et seq.), in order to avoid confusion among importers and other interested persons, notice is hereby given pursuant to sections 104 and 704 of said act that the determination under said section 104 made on August 9, 1951 (16 F. R. 7937), and Defense Food Order 3, as amended, (16 F. R. 7934, 8272; 17 F. R. 4490) issued to implement such determination, will be effective after June 30, 1952 if section 104 is extended or comparable legislation is enacted unless and until they are revoked or amended or the authority therefor expires.

During the effective period of such determination and order no person shall import, purchase for import, receive or offer to receive on consignment for import, or make any contract or other arrangement including any financing arrangement, for the importing of, any commodity listed in said determination and order except in accordance with said order, as amended.

(Sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, 65 Stat. 139; 50 U. S. C. App. Supp. 2154. Interprets or applies secs. 101 and 104, 64 Stat. 799, 65 Stat. 131, 132; 50 U. S. C. App. Supp. 2071, 2074)

SUBPART A—GENERAL REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO ALL RIGHTS-OF-WAY PROVIDED FOR IN THIS PART [1]

AUTHORITY: §§ 244.1 to 244.20 issued under R. S. 161, 453, 2478; 5 U. S. C. 22, 43 U. S. C. 2, 1201.

DEFINITIONS

§ 244.1 Definitions. As used in §§ 244.1 to 244.69:

(a) "Secretary" means the Secretary of the Interior.

(b) "Director" means the Director, Bureau of Land Management.

(c) "Regional Administrator" means regional administrator of the Bureau of Land Management.

(d) "Manager" means manager of the land office for the district in which the lands applied for are situated. For areas not included in a land district, "manager" means the regional administrator for the region of the Bureau of Land Management in which the land is situated.

(e) "Project" means the physical structures in connection with which the right-of-way is approved.

(f) "Construction work" means any and all work, whether of a temporary or permanent nature, done in the construction of the project.

(g) "Superintendent in charge" means the officer of the United States having supervision of the land under authority of the agency having jurisdiction and control over the land involved.

(h) "Reservation lands" includes national parks and monuments, or any other reservations of the United States for the use of or administration by the National Park Service, the Fish and Wildlife Service, the Bureau of Reclamation, or any agency outside the Department of the Interior.

(i) "Right-of-way" includes license, permit, or easement, as the case may be, and, where applicable, includes "site".

[1] This part does not apply to the obtaining of rights-of-way by Federal agencies over unreserved, or withdrawn, or reserved public domain lands. Such rights-of-way may be appropriated under the principles of the instructions of January 13, 1916 (44 L. D. 513), with the consent of the agency having jurisdiction or control over the land.

INDIAN LANDS

§ 244.2 Indian lands. The Bureau of Indian Affairs has jurisdiction over applications for rights-of-way over and upon Indian lands. All applications for the use and occupancy of Indian lands for right-of-way purposes should, therefore, be filed with the Superintendent of the Indian Agency or other superintendent in charge of the reservation on which the lands involved are situated, in accordance with the regulations contained in 25 CFR Part 256.

APPLICATIONS [2]

§ 244.3 Application. [2] No special form of application is required. The application should be in typewritten form or legible handwriting. It must specify that it is made pursuant to the regulations in Part 244 and that the applicant agrees that the right-of-way if approved, will be subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable regulations contained in Part 244. It should also cite the act to be invoked and state the primary purpose for which the right-of-way is to be used. The application must be filed in duplicate at the land office for the district in which the land is situated, or if there is no land office, it shall be filed with the Director, Bureau of Land Management, Washington, D. C. If the right-of-way has been utilized without authority prior to the time the application is made, the application must state the date such utilization commenced and by whom, and the date the applicant alleges he obtained control of the improvements.

§ 244.4 Showing as to organization required of corporation. (a) An application by a private corporation must be accompanied by a copy of its charter or articles of incorporation, duly certified by the proper State official of the State where the corporation was organized.

(b) A corporation other than a private corporation should file a copy of the law under which it was formed and due proof of organization under the same.

(c) When a corporation is operating in a State other than that in which it was incorporated, it must submit a certificate of the Secretary of State or other proper official of the State that it has complied with the laws of that State governing foreign corporations to the extent required to entitle the company to operate in such State.

(d) A copy of the resolution or by-laws of the corporation authorizing the filing of the application must also be filed.

(e) If the corporation shall have previously filed with the Bureau the papers required by this section, the requirements shall be held to be met if, in making subsequent applications, specific reference is made to such previous filing by date, place, and case number.

[2] In addition to the material contained under this heading, the subpart relating to the particular type of right-of-way involved should be consulted. See Subparts B through L of this part.

[2] 18 U. S. C. 1001 makes it a crime for any person knowingly and willfully to make to any department or agency of the United States any false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement or representation as to any matter within its jurisdiction.

§ 244.5 Showing as to citizenship required of individuals; showing by associations of individuals. (a) An individual applicant applying for a right-of-way under any right-of-way act, except the act of March 3, 1891 (26 Stat. 1101; 43 U. S. C. 946 et seq.), and the act of January 13, 1897 (29 Stat. 484; 43 U. S. C. 952-955), as amended, must state whether he is native born or naturalized, and, if naturalized, the date of naturalization, the court in which naturalized, and the number of the certificate, if known. If citizenship is claimed by virtue of naturalization of the father, evidence of his naturalization, and that the applicant resided in the United States thereafter while a minor, should be furnished. Where the husband and the wife are native born and a statement to that effect is made, additional information as to the marital status is not required. In other cases, a married woman or widow must show the date of her marriage; a widow must show, in addition, the date of the death of her husband.

(b) An application by an association, including a partnership, must be accompanied by a certified copy of the articles of association, if any; if there be none, the application must be made over the signature of each member of the association. Each member must furnish evidence of citizenship where it would be required if he were applying individually.

§ 244.6 Documents which must accompany application—(a) Maps. Each application, other than a reservoir declaratory statement under § 244.30, must be accompanied by a map prepared on tracing linen and three or, in the case of electric transmission lines, five print copies thereof, showing the survey of the right-of-way, properly located with respect to the public land surveys so that said right-of-way may be accurately located on the ground by any competent engineer or land surveyor. The map should comply with the following requirements:

(1) The scale should be 2,000 feet to the inch for rights-of-way for such structures as canals, ditches, pipe lines, and transmission lines and 1,000 feet to the inch for rights-of-way for reservoirs, except where a larger scale is required to represent properly the details of the proposed developments, in which case the scales should be 1,000 feet to the inch and 500 feet to the inch, respectively.

(2) Courses and distances of the center line of the right-of-way or traverse line of the reservoir should be given; the courses referred to the true meridian either by deflection from a line of known bearing or by independent observation, and the distances in feet and decimals thereof. Station numbers with plus distances at deflection points on the traverse line should be shown.

(3) The initial and terminal points of the survey should be accurately connected by course and distance to the nearest corner of the public-land surveys, unless that corner is more than 6 miles distant, in which case the connection will be made to some prominent natural object or permanent monument, which can be readily recognized and recovered. The station number and plus distance to the point of intersection with a line of the public-land surveys should be ascertained and noted, together with the course and distance along the section line to the nearest existing corner, at a sufficient number of points throughout the township to permit accurate platting of the relative position of the right-of-way to the public-land survey.

(4) If the right-of-way is across or within reservation lands which are not covered by the public-land surveys, the map shall be made in terms of the boundary survey of the reservation to the extent it would be required above to be made in terms of the public-land surveys.

(5) All subdivisions of the public-land surveys within the limits of the survey should be shown in their entirety, based upon the official subsisting plats, with the subdivisions, section, township, and range clearly marked.

(6) The width of the canal, ditch, or lateral at high-water line should be given and the width of all other rights-of-way shall be given. If the width is not uniform, the location and amount of the change in width must be definitely shown. In the case of a pipeline, the diameter of the line should be given. For reservoirs, the capacity in acre-feet, the area within the high-water line, the source of the water supply, and the location and height of the dam must be shown. The total distance of the right-of-way on the Federal lands shall be stated. In the case of a reservoir or other site, the total acreage shall be stated.

(7) Each copy of the map should bear upon its face a statement of the engineer who made the survey and the certificate of the applicant. The statement and certificate referred to are embodied in Forms 1 and 2, which are made a part hereof and which should be modified so as to be appropriate to the act invoked and the nature of the project.[4]

(8) Whenever it is found that a public-land survey monument or reservation boundary monument will be destroyed or rendered inaccessible by reason of the proposed development, at least two permanent marked witness monuments should be established at suitable points, preferably on the surveyed lines. A brief description of the witness monuments and the connecting courses and distances to the original corners should be shown.

(b) Evidence of water right. If the project involves the storage, diversion, or conveyance of water, the applicant must file a statement of the proper State official, or other evidence, showing that he has a right to the use of the water.

GENERAL PROVISIONS[5]

§ 244.7 Nature of the interest granted; settlement on right-of-way. (a) No interest granted by the regulations in this part shall give the holder thereof any estate of any kind in fee in the lands. The interest granted shall consist of an easement, license, or permit in accordance with the terms of the applicable statute; no interest shall be greater than a permit revocable at the discretion of the regional administrator unless the applicable statute provides otherwise. Unless a specific statute or regulation provides otherwise, no interest granted shall give the grantee any right whatever to take from the public lands or reservations any material, earth, or stone for construction or other purpose, but stone and earth necessarily removed from the right-of-way in the construction of a project may be used elsewhere along the same right-of-way in the construction of the same project.

(b) All persons entering or otherwise appropriating a tract of public land, to part of which a right-of-way has attached under the regulations in this part, take the land subject to such right-of-way and without deduction of the area included in the right-of-way.

§ 244.8 Commencement of construction work in advance of approval of right-of-way; trespass. (a) Permission to commence construction work over and through lands under the jurisdiction of the Department of the Interior or of its agencies in advance of the approval of a right-of-way may be granted by the manager upon a satisfactory showing of the necessity for such action and upon a determination, after the request for permission has been cleared by all interested agencies of the Department, that such action is compatible with the public interest. Requests for such advance authority need not meet the formal requirements of §§ 244.3–244.5 and may be filed with the agency having supervision of the land involved, in which case a duplicate request must be filed in the office specified in § 244.3.

(b) Any grant of advance permission is solely for the convenience of the applicant and is not a commitment by the Department that a right-of-way will be approved. The Department's authority in acting on a right-of-way application is not restricted in any way by the grant of advance permission or any requirements laid down in such grant of permission and the Department, without limitation, may impose additional or different requirements as conditions precedent to the approval of the right-of-way. A grant of advance permission is revocable at will, and the grantee assumes all the risk of operating under such permission.

(c) Any occupancy or use of the lands of the United States without authority will subject the person occupying or using the land to prosecution and liability for trespass.

§ 244.9 Terms and conditions. An applicant, by accepting a right-of-way, agrees and consents to comply with and be bound by the following terms and conditions, excepting those which the Secretary may waive in a particular case:

(a) To comply with existing and future regulations and State and Federal laws applicable to the project for which the right-of-way is approved, and to the lands which are included in the right-of-way.

(b) To clear and keep clear the lands within the right-of-way to the extent and in the manner directed by the superintendent in charge; and to dispose of all vegetative and other material cut, uprooted, or otherwise accumulated during the construction and maintenance of the project in such manner as to decrease the fire hazard and also in accordance with such instructions as the superintendent in charge may specify.

(c) To take such soil and resource conservation and protection measures, including weed control, on the land covered by the right-of-way as the superintendent in charge of such lands may request.

(d) To do everything reasonably within his power, both independently and on request of any duly authorized representative of the United States, to prevent and suppress fires on or near the lands to be occupied under the right-of-way, including making available such construction and maintenance forces as may be reasonably obtainable for the suppression of such fires.

(e) To build and repair such roads, fences, and trails as may be destroyed or injured by construction work and to build and maintain necessary and suitable crossings for all roads and trails that intersect the works constructed, maintained, or operated under the right-of-way.

(f) To pay the United States the full value for all damage to the lands or other property of the United States caused by him or by his employees, contractors, or employees of the contractors, and to indemnify the United States against any liability for damages to life, person, or property arising from the occupancy or use of the lands under the right-of-way.

(g) To notify promptly the superintendent in charge of the amount of merchantable timber, if any, which will be cut, removed, or destroyed in the construction and maintenance of the project, and to pay the United States through such superintendent in advance of construction such sum of money as such superintendent may determine to be the full stumpage value of the timber to be so cut, removed, or destroyed.

(h) To comply with such other specified conditions with respect to the occupancy and use of the lands as may be found by the agency having supervision of the lands to be necessary as a condition to the approval of the right-of-way in order to render its use compatible with the public interest.

(i) That upon revocation or termination of the right-of-way, unless the requirement is waived in writing, he shall, so far as it is reasonably possible to do so, restore the land to its original condition to the entire satisfaction of the superintendent in charge.

(j) That he shall at all times keep the manager informed of his address, and, in case of corporations, of the address of its principal place of business and of the names and addresses of its principal officers.

(k) That in the construction, operation, and maintenance of the project, he shall not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, creed, color, or national origin and shall require an identical provision to be included in all subcontracts.

(l) That the allowance of the right-of-way shall be subject to the express condition that the exercise thereof will not interfere in any way with the management, administration, or disposal by the United States of the lands affected thereby, and that he agrees and consents to the occupancy and use by the United States, its grantees, permitees, or lessees of any part of the right-of-way not actually occupied by the project, for necessary operations incident to such management, administration, or disposal.

(m) That there are reserved rights-of-way for reservoirs, dams, and other works which may thereafter be constructed for the development of hydroelectric power or irrigation, under authority of the United States, and that the use of the right-of-way for the purpose authorized shall be discontinued without liability or expense to the United States when found by the Secretary to be in conflict with such power or irrigation works.

(n) That there is reserved for the use of the United States pursuant to the provisions of the act of August 1, 1946 (60 Stat. 755; 42 U. S. C. 1801 et seq.), all uranium, thorium, or other materials which have been or may hereafter be determined by the Atomic Energy Commission to be peculiarly essential to the production of fissionable materials contained in whatever concentration in the lands covered by the right-of-way, together with the right of the United States through its authorized agents or representatives at any time to enter upon the land and prospect for, mine, and remove the same, making just compensation for any damage or injury occasioned thereby.

§ 244.10 Proposed or existing national forest. Whenever a right-of-way is sought through or in national forest lands, or any area withdrawn for inclusion within a national forest, the applicant must enter into such stipulations and execute such bond as the Forest Service may require for the protection of such existing or proposed national forest.

§ 244.11 National parks and monuments. (a) The act of March 3, 1921 (41 Stat. 1353, 16 U. S. C. 797), provides that no right-of-way for dams, conduits, reservoirs, power houses, transmission lines, or other works for storage or carriage of water, or for the development, transmission, or utilization of power within the limits as then constituted of any national park or monument, shall be approved without specific authority of Congress.

(b) Whenever a right-of-way is desired through any national park or monument for purposes other than those excepted by the act of March 3, 1921, or not otherwise expressly prohibited by law, the applicant must show to the satisfaction of the Director, National Park Service, that the location and use of the right-of-way for the purposes contemplated will not interfere with the uses and purposes for which the park or monument was originally dedicated, and will not result in damage or injury to the natural conditions of property or scenery existing therein. The applicant must also file such stipulations and bond as may be required by the Director, National Park Service. Ordinarily, such a right-of-way may be allowed only on a showing of absolute necessity.

§ 242.12 Oregon and California Railroad and Coos Bay Wagon Road grant lands. All applications for rights-of-way for the construction and operation of any project over Oregon and California Railroad lands, title to which was revested in the United States by the act of June 9, 1916 (39 Stat. 218), and reconveyed Coos Bay Wagon Road lands, act of February 26, 1919 (40 Stat. 1179), must also be accompanied by a statement showing the amount of merchantable timber, if any, to be cut, removed, or destroyed in the construction of the project works, and agreeing to deposit with the regional administrator, in advance of construction, such sum of money as may be determined by him to be the full stumpage value of the timber to be so cut, removed, or destroyed, and an affirmative showing that favorable action on the application will not adversely affect or impair watershed protection, streamflow regulation, and other conservation features enumerated in the act of August 28, 1937 (50 Stat. 874).[6]

§ 244.13 Alaska. All general right-of-way laws, and the regulations thereunder contained in this part, are applicable to Alaska.[7]

§ 244.14 Approval of right-of-way. (a) Where an application is complete and in conformity with the law and regulations and all required reports have been obtained and it is determined that the approval of the right-of-way will not be contrary to the public interest, including that of the Government, the manager will approve the right-of-way.[8]

(b) An application which does not conform with the law or regulations under which filed or the approval of which would be inconsistent with the public or Government interest, will be rejected.

§ 244.15 Use of right-of-way—(a) Proof of construction. A period of 5 years from the date of the approval of the right-of-way is usually allowed for construction unless a different period is provided by statute. Upon completion of construction, proof thereof should be submitted to the manager, consisting of a statement and certificate furnished by the holder of the right-of-way. The statement and certificate are embodied in Forms 5 and 6, which should be modified so as to be appropriate to the act and to the nature of the project.[9] If, in construction, a substantial deviation from the location shown on the original map is planned or made, the party in interest must file a duly executed relinquishment of the unused portion of the right-of-way accompanied by a map of amended location of the right-of-way for the project as actually constructed. The map of amended location must be prepared in accordance with § 244.6 (a) and must be filed before or as soon as possible after the deviation is made. The relinquishment may be prepared so as to become effective upon approval of the amended location. Any deviation made prior to such approval will be at the risk of the applicant.

(b) Nonconstruction, abandonment, or nonuse. Unless otherwise provided by law, rights-of-way are subject to cancellation by the Director for failure to construct within the period allowed and for abandonment or nonuse.

§ 244.16 Revocation for violation of regulations or terms or conditions. All rights-of-way approved pursuant to this part, except those granted for pipe lines pursuant to section 28 of the act of February 25, 1920, as amended August 21, 1935 (49 Stat. 678; 30 U. S. C. 185), shall be subject to cancellation by the Director for the violation of any of the provisions of this part applicable thereto or for the violation of the terms or conditions of the right-of-way. No right-of-way shall be deemed to be canceled except on the issuance by the Director of a specific order of cancellation.

§ 244.17 Change in jurisdiction over or disposal of lands. (a) A change of jurisdiction over the lands from one Federal agency to another will not cancel a right-of-way involving such lands. It will, however, change the administrative jurisdiction over the right-of-way.

(b) The final disposal by the United States of any tract traversed by a right-of-way shall not be construed to be a revocation of the right-of-way in whole or part, but such final disposition shall be deemed and taken to be subject to such right-of-way until it is specifically canceled.

§ 244.18 Transfer of right-of-way. Any proposed transfer, by assignment, lease, operating agreement or otherwise, of a right-of-way acquired under any of the acts, except the act of March 3, 1891 (26 Stat. 1101; 43 U. S. C. 946–949), must be filed in triplicate in accordance with § 244.3 for approval; must be accompanied by the same showing of qualifications of the assignee as is required of applicants; and must be supported by a stipulation that the assignee agrees to comply with and be bound by the terms and conditions of the right-of-way. No assignment will be recognized unless and until approved.

§ 244.19 Disposal of property on termination of right-of-way. Upon the termination of a right-of-way by expiration or by prior cancellation, in the absence of any agreement to the contrary, if all moneys due the Government thereunder have been paid, the holder of the right-of-way will be allowed six months or such additional time as may be granted in which to remove from the right-of-way all property or improvements of any kind, other than a road and usable improvements to a road, placed thereon by him; but if not removed within the time allowed, all such property and improvements shall become the property of the United States.

[5] In addition to the material contained under this heading, the subpart relating to the particular type of right-of-way involved should be consulted. See Subparts B through L of this part.

[6] The general right-of-way statutes were extended to these lands by sec. 2 of the act of June 9, 1916 (39 Stat. 218), and sec. 3 of the act of February 26, 1919 (40 Stat. 1179).

[7] See sec. 3 of the act of August 24, 1912 (37 Stat. 512; 48 U. S. C. 23), and 30 Op. Atty. Gen. 387 (1915).

§ 244.20 Appeals. An appeal pursuant to the rules of practice (43 CFR Part 221) may be taken from any decision of the manager to the Director, and from the Director to the Secretary.

RENTAL CHARGES

§ 244.21 Payment required; exceptions; default; revision of charges. (a) Unless a higher rate is prescribed in the approval of the right-of-way, the charge for use and occupancy of public and reservation lands for rights-of-way for telephone, telegraph, and power transmission lines, water-pipe lines, ditches or canals under the act of February 15, 1901 (31 Stat. 790; 43 U. S. C. 959); telephone, telegraph, and power transmission lines under the act of March 4, 1911 (36 Stat. 1253; 43 U. S. C. 961); tramroads under the act of January 21, 1895 (28 Stat. 635; 43 U. S. C. 956); oil and gas pipe lines under section 28 of the Mineral Leasing Act of February 25, 1920 (41 Stat. 449), as amended August 21, 1935 (49 Stat. 678; 30 U. S. C. 185); and water-pipe lines, ditches, flumes, tunnels, or canals under section 4 of the act of February 1, 1905 (33 Stat. 628; 16 U. S. C. 524), shall be at the rate of five dollars ($5) per mile or fraction thereof per calendar year or fraction thereof for rights-of-way not over 100 feet in width and one dollar ($1) per mile or fraction thereof for each additional 20 feet or fraction thereof in width.

(b) The charge for use and occupancy of public and reservation lands for reservoirs, dams, water plant and powerplant sites, well sites, and similar purposes under the act of February 15, 1901; sites for pumping stations or other structures authorized under section 28 of the Mineral Leasing Act, as amended; and dams, reservoirs, and water-plant sites under section 4 of the act of February 1, 1905, shall be based on the value of the land and the use to which it is to be put, but in no case will the minimum charge be less than five dollars ($5) per calendar year or fraction there of. The charge for micro wave relay and communication sites other than radio and television broadcast sites shall be based upon the value of the land, but in no case will the annual charge be less than fifty dollars ($50) per site. The charge for radio and television broadcast sites shall be based on the value of the land but in no case will the annual charge be less than the following:

Stations not over:
1,000 watts input power	$75.00
2,500 watts input power	100.00
5,000 watts input power	200.00
10,000 watts input power	250.00
20,000 watts input power	300.00
All others	450.00

(c) No rental charge will be required for the use and occupancy of public or reservation lands under a right-of-way authorizing such use and occupancy exclusively for irrigation projects, non-profit or REA cooperative projects, or when the use is by a Government agency.

(d) (1) There shall be remitted with the application the amount provided as the rental for a calendar year or fraction thereof.

(2) Where the application is for a reservoir, dam, well, or plant sites, etc., the sum of five dollars ($5), the minimum charge specified for such cases, shall be remitted with the application.

(e) The holder of the right-of-way thereafter shall pay, on or before the first day of each calendar year, the rental charges for that calendar year in accordance with paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section. If the rental charge is not paid when due, and such default shall continue for thirty days after the first day of January, action may be taken to cancel the right-of-way. After default has occurred, no structures, buildings, or other equipment may be removed from the right-of-way except upon written permission first obtained from the regional administrator.

(f) At any time not less than five years after either the approval of the right-of-way or the last revision of rental charges thereunder, the regional administrator may review such charges and impose such new charges as he may decide to be reasonable and proper commencing with the ensuing calendar year.

(g) The provisions of this section shall not have the effect of changing, modifying, or amending the rental rates or charges imposed for existing water power projects under rights-of-way previously approved by this Department. (31 Stat. 790, 36 Stat. 1253, 28 Stat. 635, Sec. 4, 33 Stat. 628, Sec. 28, 49 Stat. 678; 43 U. S. C. 959, 961, 956, 16 U. S. C. 524, 30 U. S. C. 185)

SUBPART B—RIGHTS-OF-WAY THROUGH PUBLIC LANDS AND RESERVATIONS FOR CANALS, DITCHES, AND RESERVOIRS UNDER THE ACT OF MARCH 3, 1891, AS AMENDED [10] [11]

AUTHORITY: §§ 244.22 to 244.28 issued under R. S. 161, 453, 2478; 5 U. S. C. 22, 43 U. S. C. 2, 1201.

§ 244.22 Statutory authority. (a) Section 18 of the act of March 3, 1891 (26 Stat. 1101), as amended by the acts of March 4, 1917 (39 Stat. 1197), and May 28, 1926 (44 Stat. 668; 43 U. S. C. 946) authorizes the Secretary to grant rights-of-way for irrigation and drainage purposes over public lands and reservation to the extent of the ground occupied by the water of any reservoirs and any canals and laterals and 50 feet on each side of the marginal limits thereof and such additional right-of-way as may be deemed necessary for the proper operation and maintenance of said reservoirs, canals, and laterals.

(b) Section 19 of the act of March 3, 1891 (26 Stat. 1102; 43 U. S. C. 947), provides that a map of the canal or ditch and reservoir must be filed within twelve months after the location of ten miles of a canal if the same be upon surveyed lands, and if upon unsurveyed lands, within twelve months after the survey thereof by the United States; that upon the approval thereof by the Secretary, the same shall be noted upon the records and thereafter all lands affected by such right-of-way shall be disposed of subject to such right-of-way.

(c) Section 20 of the act of March 3, 1891 (26 Stat. 1102; 43 U. S. C. 948), provides that this act shall apply to all canals, ditches, or reservoirs theretofore or thereafter constructed, whether by corporations, individuals, or association of individuals, on the filing of the certificates and maps as therein provided; that if any section of the project is not completed within 5 years after location, the right-of-way shall be forfeited as to the uncompleted canal, ditch, or reservoir, to the extent that the same is not completed at the date of forfeiture.

(d) Section 21 of the act of March 3, 1891 (26 Stat. 1102; 43 U. S. C. 949), provides that nothing in this act shall authorize the occupancy of such right-of-way except for the purpose for which it was approved, and then only so far as may be necessary for the construction, maintenance, and care of the project.

§ 244.23 Pipelines, flumes, and conduits included; use of materials on adjacent lands. (a) The act of March 3, 1891, as amended, is applicable to rights-of-way for pipelines, flumes, or other conduits, although they are not specifically mentioned in the act, if water is conveyed primarily for irrigation or drainage purposes.

(b) Material on adjacent lands: The word "adjacent", as used in section 18 of the act, in connection with the right to take material for construction from the public lands, must be construed according to the conditions of each case (28 L. D. 439). The right extends only to construction, and no public timber or material may be taken or used for repair or improvements (14 L. D. 566). These decisions were rendered under the Railroad Right-of-Way Act of March 3, 1875 (18 Stat. 482; 43 U. S. C. 934), and are applied to the act of March 3, 1891, since the wording with respect to the use of material is the same.

§ 244.24 Use subsidiary to main purpose of irrigation. Section 2 of the act of May 11, 1898 (30 Stat. 404; 43 U. S. C. 951), authorizes the use of rights-of-way approved under the act of March 3, 1891, for purposes subsidiary to the main purpose of irrigation.

§ 244.25 Caretaker's building sites. The act of March 1, 1921 (41 Stat. 1194; 43 U. S. C. 950), authorizes the Secretary, except as to lands within national forests, to grant permits or easements for not to exceed 5 acres of ground adjoining the right-of-way at each of the locations, to be determined by the Secretary, to be used for the erection thereon of dwellings or other buildings or corrals for the convenience of those engaged in the care and management of the works provided for by the act of March 3, 1891, as amended.

[10] See Solicitor's opinion of July 16, 1942 (58 L. D. 29) for a discussion of the applicability of various acts relating to rights-of-way for canals, ditches, and reservoirs.

[11] In addition to the material under this heading, the general regulations under Subpart A of this part should be consulted.

§ 244.26 Showing required for additional right-of-way. The act of May 28, 1926 (44 Stat. 668; 43 U. S. C. 946), amended section 18 of the act of March 3, 1891, so as to authorize, if needed, a right-of-way additional to the 50 feet allowed by the section for operation and maintenance of reservoirs, canals, ditches, and laterals. To obtain such additional right-of-way, an explanatory showing must accompany the application. This should consist of a statement by the applicant's engineer or surveyor setting forth succinctly the extent of the additional right-of-way required and the necessity therefor. The additional right-of-way should also be shown graphically by lateral limit lines on the map filed in connection with the application. If additional right-of-way is wanted only for portions or sections of the reservoirs, canals, ditches, or laterals, the termini thereof should be fixed by engineer's survey stations in addition to the lateral limit lines.

§ 244.27 Procedure when unsurveyed land is involved. (a) Maps filed under the said act, as amended, showing canals, ditches, laterals, and reservoirs lying partly upon unsurveyed land can be approved if the application and accompanying maps conform to these regulations, but the approval will only relate to that portion of the right-of-way traversing the surveyed land.[12]

(b) Maps showing canals, ditches, laterals, and reservoirs lying wholly on unsurveyed lands may be received and placed on file in the Bureau of Land Management and the proper land office for general information. The date of filing will be noted thereon; but the maps will not be approved as the act makes no provision for the approval of any but maps showing locations on surveyed lands. The filing of such maps will not dispense with the filing of maps after the survey of the lands and within the time specified in the act, and if the maps are regular in all respects they will receive the manager's approval.

§ 244.28 Segregated reservoir sites. The act of February 26, 1897 (29 Stat. 599; 43 U. S. C. 664), permits the approval of applications under the act of March 3, 1891, for rights-of-way upon reservoir sites reserved under authority of the act of October 2, 1888 (25 Stat. 526; 43 U. S. C. 662), and August 30, 1890 (26 Stat. 371, 391; 43 U. S. C. 662).

SUBPART C—RESERVATION OF PUBLIC LANDS FOR RESERVOIRS FOR WATERING LIVESTOCK [13]

AUTHORITY: §§ 244.29 to 244.37 issued under 29 Stat. 484, 42 Stat. 1437; 43 U. S. C. 952-955.

§ 244.29 Statutory authority. (a) By the act of January 13, 1897 (29 Stat. 484; 43 U. S. C. 952-955), it is provided that any person, livestock company, or transportation corporation engaged in breeding, grazing, driving, or transporting livestock may construct reservoirs upon unoccupied public lands of the United States, not mineral or otherwise reserved, for the purpose of furnishing water to such livestock, and shall have control of such reservoir, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, and the lands upon which the same is constructed, not exceeding 160 acres, so long as such reservoir is maintained and water kept therein for such purpose. The act does not apply to lands in grazing districts, and applications for stock-watering reservoirs on such lands should be filed under section 4 of the Taylor Grazing Act (48 Stat. 1271; 43 U. S. C. sec. 315c) and 43 CFR Part 161.

(b) Section 1 of the act of January 13, 1897, as amended by the act of March 3, 1923 (42 Stat. 1437; 43 U. S. C. 952), authorizes the Secretary of the Interior, in his discretion, under such rules, regulations, and conditions as he may prescribe, upon application by such person, company, or corporation, to grant permission to fence reservoirs constructed under the act of January 13, 1897, in order to protect livestock, to conserve water, and to preserve its quality and conditions, provided, that such reservoir shall be kept open to the free use of any persons desiring to water animals of any kind.

§ 244.30 Declaratory statement. To apply for a reservoir site under §§ 244.29 to 244.38, the applicant must file with the manager a declaratory statement drawn in accordance with Form 7.[14] No other application is necessary.

§ 244.31 Action on declaratory statements; size, location, and number of reservoir sites. For the filing of the reservoir declaratory statement a fee of $1 will be charged (R. S. 2238; 43 U. S. C. 82). In acting upon these statements the following general rules will be applied:

(a) No reservation will be made for a reservoir of less than 250,000 gallons capacity, and for a reservoir of less than 500,000 gallons capacity, not more than 40 acres can be reserved. For a reservoir of 500,000 gallons and less than 1,000,000 gallons capacity, not more than 80 acres can be reserved. For reservoir of 1,000,000 gallons and less than 1,500,000 gallons capacity, not more than 120 acres can be reserved. For a reservoir of 1,500,000 gallons capacity or more, 160 acres may be reserved. In the case where the water is furnished the livestock by artificial means, such as by windmill, pump, tanks, and troughs, the regulations requiring a minimum capacity of 250,000 gallons may be waived upon the claimant's submitting a satisfactory showing that by such artificial means he will be able to furnish sufficient water and provide proper troughs and facilities to properly accommodate all cattle likely to water at the place in question.

(b) Not more than 160 acres shall be reserved for this purpose in any section.

(c) Not more than 160 acres shall be reserved for this purpose in one group of tracts adjoining or cornering upon each other.

(d) A distance of one-half mile must be left between any two groups of tracts which aggregate more than 160 acres.

(e) Lands so reserved shall be kept open to the free use of any person desiring to water animals of any kind. If the lands so reserved are not kept open to the free use of any person desiring to water animals of any kind, or if the reservoir applicant attempts to use them for any other purpose, or if the reservation is not obtained for the bona fide and exclusive purpose of constructing and maintaining a reservoir thereon according to law, the declaratory statement, upon any such matter being made to appear, will be canceled and all rights thereunder be declared at an end.

(f) Notwithstanding his action in accepting any such declaratory statement, the manager will reject the same if upon considering the matters set forth therein it appears that the declaratory statement is not filed in good faith for the sole purpose of accomplishing what the law authorizes to be done.

§ 244.32 Time for construction. The reservoir must be constructed and completed within 2 years after the filing of the declaratory statement; otherwise the right-of-way will be subject to cancellation.

§ 244.33 Map of constructed reservoir. After the construction and completion of the reservoir the applicant shall have the same accurately surveyed and mapped showing its location with relation to the public land surveys. The map must be prepared in accordance with the requirements of § 244.6 and be filed with the manager and must bear Forms 8 and 9.[15]

§ 244.34 Approval of constructed project. The map and papers will be examined to determine whether they comply with the law and the regulations, and whether the amount of land desired is warranted by the showing made in the application. If found satisfactory, they will be approved, and the lands shown to be necessary for the proper use and enjoyment of the reservoir will be reserved from other disposition so long as the reservoir is maintained and water kept therein for the purposes named in the act. When such reservation is made the manager will make the proper notations on his records and report the making thereof promptly to the Director.

§ 244.35 Annual proof of maintenance. In order that this reservation shall be continued, it is necessary that the reservoir "shall be kept in repair and water kept therein." For this reason the owner of the reservoir will be required, during the month of January of each year, to file with the manager a statement to the effect that the reservoir has been kept in repair and water kept therein during the preceding year, and that all the provisions of the act have [12] By letter of August 21, 1937, approved by the Department in the case of the Twin Lakes Reservoir and Canal Company (Denver 045465), it was held that a right-of-way may be acquired under the 1891 act, by actual construction of a project in advance of the filing of an application and approval of the right-of-way over unsurveyed lands, upon the same principle applied to railroads under the act of March 3, 1875 (18 Stat. 482; 43 U. S. C. 934-939).

[13] In addition to the material under this heading, the general regulations under Subpart A of this part should be consulted.

[14] See appendix for forms.

been complied with. Form 10 [16] will be used for this statement. Upon failure to file such statement, steps will be taken looking to the revocation of the reservation of the lands.

§ 244.36 Procedure when unsurveyed land is involved. (a) In any case where the proposed reservoir is to be located upon unsurveyed public land, the declaratory statement may be filed, the land being therein described by metes and bounds and, as well, by the description which it is believed it will bare when officially surveyed. Proof of construction must be submitted at the end of the same period of time and in the same manner as is prescribed and required in cases where the lands have been previously surveyed. Such proof should embrace the field notes and a plat of survey such as is required in cases of reservoirs on surveyed lands, with such modifications as are necessary (§ 244.33).

(b) Any reservation made pursuant to the act of Jauary 13, 1897, secures only a license to use and occupy the reserved land with and for a reservoir, and this license may endure permanently or may be of transient duration. No estate in the land is granted. For this reason it is administratively undesirable that private surveys made pursuant to the statute and §§ 244.29 to 244.38 shall be preserved and established by subsequent public-land surveys and approved plats thereof. Therefore, when the public-land surveys have been extended over land covered by a reservoir declaratory statement affecting unsurveyed lands, the declarant shall adjust his survey to the line of the official survey, showing the location of the reservoir with respect to said lines by means of properly established tie lines. Any subsequent reservation which may be ordered will be of those subdivisions or aliquot parts of subdivisions thus shown to be occupied by or necessary for the proper use of the reservoir.

(c) An annual statement of maintenance must be submitted the same as though the reservoir had been constructed on surveyed lands. Nothing in §§ 244.29 to 244.38 shall preclude the Bureau of Land Management from requiring additional information in any case where that information is deemed proper or necessary.

§ 244.37 Application to fence reservoir; plat required. Any person, company, or corporation desiring to secure the benefits of the act of March 3, 1923, should file in accordance with § 244.3 an application, duly corroborated by at least two disinterested witnesses, setting forth such facts as would show that it is necessary to fence such reservoir in order to protect the livestock, to conserve water, and to preserve its quality and conditions. There should be filed with such application, and as a part thereof, a plat showing the land embraced in the reservoir as near as may be, the location of the proposed fence with respect to such reservoir, together with all gates or other openings and roadways leading to the same. In no instance will an application be considered unless said plat shows the location of at least two gates. Said gates shall be so constructed and maintained that they may be, at all times, readily opened and closed by any person desiring to water animals of any kind, and such gates shall be so placed as to be readily accessible from the road or roads nearest the reservoir, which roads shall be the ones usually traveled and, where there are no such roads to govern the location of such gates, they shall be so situated as to make the reservoir readily available from the adjacent public or other range. There shall be posted on the gates, and elsewhere if necessary, a notice stating that the reservoir is for stock-watering purposes, located on public lands, and that the same is open to the free use of any person desiring to water animals of any kind.

SUBPART D—RIGHTS-OF-WAY THROUGH PUBLIC LANDS AND RESERVATIONS FOR TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH LINES, TRANSMISSION LINES, RADIO AND TELEVISION SITES, AND FOR PIPE LINES, CANALS, DITCHES, AND WATER PLANTS UNDER THE ACTS OF FEBRUARY 15, 1901 AND MARCH 4, 1911 [17]

AUTHORITY: §§ 244.39 to 244.47 issued under 31 Stat. 790, 36 Stat. 1253; 43 U. S. C. 959, 961.

§ 244.39 Statutory authority. (a) The act of February 15, 1901 (31 Stat. 790; 43 U. S. C. 959), authorizes the Secretary, under such regulations as he may fix, to permit the use of rights-of-way through public lands and certain reservations of the United States, for electrical plants, poles, and lines for the generation and distribution of electrical power, and for telephone and telegraph purposes, and for pipe lines, canals, ditches, water plants, and other purposes to the extent of the ground occupied by such canals, ditches, water plants, or other works permitted thereunder and not to exceed 50 feet on each side of the marginal limits thereof, or not to exceed 50 feet on each side of the center line of such pipe lines, telephone and telegraph lines, and transmission lines, by any citizen, association, or corporation of the United States, where it is intended by such to exercise the use permitted under the act.

(b) The act of March 4, 1911 (36 Stat. 1253; 43 U. S. C. 961), as amended, authorizes the head of the department having jurisdiction over the lands, under general regulations fixed by him, to grant an easement for rights-of-way for a period not exceeding 50 years, over and across public lands and reservations of the United States, for poles and lines for the transmission and distribution of electrical power, and for poles and lines for communication purposes and for radio, television and other forms of communication transmitting, relay and receiving structures and facilities to the extent of 200 feet on each side of the center line of such lines and poles and not to exceed four hundred feet by four hundred feet for superstructures and facilities to any citizen, association, or corporation of the United States, where it is intended by such to exercise the use permitted under the act.[18]

(c) The applicability of the acts of February 15, 1901, and March 4, 1911, to rights-of-way for power purposes over public lands, was superseded by the Federal Power Act of June 10, 1920 (41 Stat. 1063), as amended by sections 201 to 213 inclusive, of the act of August 26, 1935 (49 Stat. 838; 16 U. S. C. 791–825r), as to power projects for the generation and transmission of hydroelectric power, defined in section 3 (11) of the act, excepting distribution lines. Applications for hydroelectric power plant sites or rights-of-way for main or primary hydroelectric power transmission lines must be made to the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D. C., under the act of June 10, 1920, as amended. Rights-of-way for transmission lines which are not primary lines must be secured under the act of February 15, 1901, or the act of March 4, 1911. See 18 CFR 2.2.

§ 244.40 Applications for lands in national forests, and other reservations. (a) Applications under the act of February 15, 1901,[19] for rights-of-way across national forests should be prepared in accordance with the regulations issued by the Department of Agriculture and submitted to the proper officer thereof. In case a right-of-way is desired upon public lands partly within and partly without a national forest, separate applications must be prepared, and the one affecting lands within the national forest filed with the forest officer, and the other filed in accordance with § 244.3.

(b) Applications for a right-of-way under the act of March 4, 1911, involving lands under the control of a department or agency other than the Department of the Interior should be prepared in accordance with the regulations issued by such department or agency and submitted to the proper officer thereof.[20]

§ 244.41 Applications which may be submitted under the acts of February 15, 1901, and March 4, 1911. (a) All applications for rights-of-way for purposes specified in the act of February 15, 1901, must be submitted thereunder, except that where it is sought to acquire a right-of-way for the main purpose of irrigation, as contemplated by sections 18 to 21 of the act of March 3, 1891 (26 Stat. 1101; 43 U. S. C. 946–949), and section 2 of the act of May 11, 1898 (30 Stat. 404; 43 U. S. C. 951), the application must be submitted under the 1891 and 1898 acts, in accordance with the applicable regulations in this part.

(b) An application may be filed under the act of February 15, 1901, for a stock-watering reservoir site. Rights-of-way will not be approved for stock-watering reservoirs on wildlife refuges. An application under the act for a "water plant" site or for a pipeline right-of-way may include an area for a well to supply the water; but if, because the lands affected are within a grazing district established under the Taylor Grazing Act of June 28, 1934 (48 Stat. 1269; 43 U. S. C. 315 et seq.), as amended, or for any other reason, the granting of a right-of-way for a stock-watering reservoir site, or for a water plant site or for a pipeline would adversely affect the interest of the Government, the application therefor will not be allowed. If the lands affected are within a grazing district, an application for a stock-watering reservoir or water well site should be filed under section 4 of said act of June 28, 1934, if the applicant is qualified under the section and if the reservoir or well is necessary to the care and management of the permitted livestock and primarily for that purpose. Regulations under the said section 4 are contained in 43 CFR 161.14.

(c) Applications for rights-of-way for telephone, telegraph, and power transmission lines may also be submitted under either the act of February 15, 1901, or the act of March 4, 1911, in accordance with the applicable regulations contained in this part. Applications for radio, television and other forms of communication transmitting, relay and receiving structures and facilities should be submitted under the act of March 4, 1911, as amended.

(d) Any application under the act of March 4, 1911 for a line right-of-way in excess of 100 feet in width or for a structure or facility right-of-way of over 10,000 square feet must state the reasons why the larger right-of-way is required. Rights-of-way will not be issued in excess of such sizes in the absence of a satisfactory showing of the need therefor.

§ 244.42 Plant sites; buildings to be platted on maps. (a) When an application is made for a right-of-way for a site for a water plant or for a communication structure or facility, the location and extent of ground proposed to be occupied by buildings or other structures necessary to be used in connection therewith must be clearly designated on the map and described on Forms 3 and 4 [21] by reference to course and distance from a corner of the public survey. In addition to being shown in connection with the main drawing, the buildings or other structures must be platted on the map in a separate drawing on a scale sufficiently large to show clearly their dimensions and relative positions. When two or more such proposed structures are to be located near each other, it will be sufficient to give the reference to a corner of the public survey for one of them, provided all the others are connected therewith by course and distance shown on the map. The application must also state the proposed use of each structure, and must show definitely that each one is necessary for a proper use of the right-of-way for the purpose contemplated in the act of February 15, 1901. If the right-of-way is within reservation lands which are not covered by the public land surveys, the map shall be made in terms of the boundary survey of the reservation to the extent it would be required above to be made in terms of the public land surveys.

(b) If the application is for a power plant site it must also contain a statement giving a description of the proposed power plant including the number and capacity of prime movers and generators proposed to be installed, initially and ultimately, together with similar pertinent information about any substations included in the project and whether the power plant is to be interconnected with other generating facilities owned by the applicant or others; and whether the power generated is to be sold to others at wholesale or retail or used by the applicant for its own domestic, agricultural, or industrial purposes.

§ 244.43 Transmission lines. When an application is made for a right-of-way for a transmission line, it must also contain the following:

(a) A description of the plant or connecting generating plants which generate or will generate the power to be transmitted over such line, such description to be in sufficient detail to show, to the satisfaction of the Director, the character, capacity, and location of such plants.

(b) A description of the transmission line of which the line for which a right-of-way is requested forms a part, giving in reasonable detail the points between which it will extend, its characteristics and purpose. There must also be included a statement as to the voltage for which the line is designed and at which it is to be operated initially, and a statement as to whether it is to serve a single customer, or a number of customers, or is intended to transmit power solely for the applicant's use. If the line is to serve a single customer or is for the applicant's own use, the nature of such use must be given (such as airway beacon, coal mine, and irrigation pumps). If the line is to have a nominal voltage of 33 kv or over, the application should include a one-line diagram of the proposed line and the immediate interconnecting facilities including power plants and substations, a power flow diagram for proposed line and connecting major lines showing conditions under normal use, and typical structure drawings of proposed line showing construction dimensions and list of materials.

(c) A statement as to the distance from the nearest transmission or distribution lines of any other person, corporation, association, municipality, or other agency engaged in the sale of power, or a statement that there are no such lines existing or contemplated within 10 miles of any part of the transmission line of which the line for which a right-of-way is requested forms a part.

§ 244.44 Terms and conditions. By accepting a right-of-way for a power transmission line, the applicant thereby agrees and consents to comply with and be bound by the following terms and conditions, excepting those which the Secretary may waive in a particular case, in addition to those specified in § 244.9:

(a) To protect in a workmanlike manner, at crossings and at places in proximity to his transmission lines on the right-of-way authorized, in accordance with the rules prescribed in the National Electric Safety Code, all Government and other telephone, telegraph, and power transmission lines from contact, and all highways and railroads from obstruction, and to maintain his transmission lines in such manner as not to menace life or property.

(b) To make provision, or bear the reasonable cost (as may be determined by the Secretary) of making provision for avoiding inductive interference between any project transmission line or other project works constructed, operated, or maintained by him on the approved right-of-way, and any radio installation, telephone line, or other communication facilities existing when the right-of-way is authorized, or any such installation, line, or facility thereafter constructed and operated by the United States or any agency thereof. This provision shall not relieve him from any responsibility or requirement which may be imposed by other lawful authority for avoiding or eliminating inductive interference.

(c) That the transmission line for which the right-of-way is authorized shall not be used for the transmission of any power generated otherwise than by and at the connecting generating plant until the regional administrator shall have given written authority for such use and then only on the terms and conditions expressed in such written authority.

(d) To allow the Department of the Interior, in the case of a right-of-way applied for on or after October 14, 1948, and covering a right-of-way for an electrical transmission line having a nominal voltage of 33 kv or more, to utilize for the transmission of electrical power any surplus capacity of the line in excess of the capacity needed by the holder of the right-of-way (subsequently referred to in this paragraph as "holder") for the transmission of electrical power in connection with the holder's operations, or to increase the capacity of the line at the Department's expense and to utilize the increased capacity for the transmission of electrical power. Utilization by the Department of surplus or increased capacity shall be subject to the following terms and conditions:

(1) When the Department desires to utilize surplus capacity thought to exist in a line, notification will be given to the holder, and the holder shall furnish to the Department within 30 days a certificate stating whether the line has any surplus capacity not needed by the holder for the transmission of electrical power in connection with the holder's operations, and, if so, the extent of such surplus capacity.

(2) In order to utilize any surplus capacity certified by the holder to be available, or any increased capacity provided by the Department at its own expense, the Department may interconnect its transmission facilities with the holder's line in a manner conformable to approved standards of practice for the interconnection of transmission circuits. However, for the purpose of diminishing line losses and for other reasons, the Department shall have the option, in lieu of requiring the holder to transmit power, to require that the holder deliver power to customers of the Department from the holder's own generating facilities in exchange for a like amount of power to be delivered by the Department to the holder at points on the holder's line or on his transmission system, to the extent of the unused capacity of the line for which a right-of-way is granted.

[18] The opinion of the Solicitor of the Department of the Interior of November 1, 1940 (M. 30846), held that lands acquired by the United States, by purchase or otherwise, were reservation lands within the meaning of the acts of February 15, 1901, and March 4, 1911.

[19] See section 1 of the act of February 1, 1905 (33 Stat. 628; 16 U. S. C. 472).

(3) The expense of interconnection will be borne by the Department, and the Department will at all times provide and maintain adequate switching, relaying, and protective equipment so as to insure that the normal and efficient operation of the holder's line will not be impaired.

(4) After any interconnection is completed, the holder shall operate and maintain his line in good condition; and, except in emergencies, shall maintain in a closed position all connections under the holder's control between the holder's line and the interconnecting facilities provided by the Department.

(5) The interconnected power systems of the Department and the holder will be operated in parallel.

(6) The transmission of electrical power by the Department over the holder's line will be effected in such manner and quantity as will not interfere unreasonably with the holder's use and operation of the line in accordance with the holder's normal operating standards, except that the Department shall have the exclusive right to utilize any increased capacity of the line which has been provided at the Department's expense.

(7) The holder will not be obligated to allow the transmission over his line by the Department of electrical power to any person receiving service from the holder on the date of the filing of the application for a right-of-way, other than persons entitled to statutory preference in connection with the distribution and sale of electrical power by the Department.

(8) The Department will pay to the holder an equitable share of the total monthly cost of maintaining and operating the part of the holder's line utilized by the Department for the transmission of electrical power, the payment to be an amount in dollars representing the same proportion of the total monthly operation and maintenance cost of such part of the line as the maximum amount in kilowatts of the power transmitted on a scheduled basis by the Department over the holder's line during the month bears to the total capacity in kilowatts of that part of the line. The total monthly cost may include interest and amortization, in accordance with the system of accounts prescribed by the Federal Power Commission, on the holder's net total investment (exclusive of any investment by the Department) in the part of the line utilized by the Department.

(9) If, at any time subsequent to a certification by the holder that surplus capacity is available for utilization by the Department, the holder needs for the transmission of electrical power in connection with its operations the whole or any part of the capacity of the line theretofore certified as being surplus to its needs, the holder may modify or revoke the previous certification by giving the Secretary of the Interior 30 months' notice, in advance, of the holder's intention in this respect. After the revocation of a certificate, the Department's utilization of the particular line will be limited to the increased capacity, if any, provided by the Department at its expense.

(10) If, during the existence of the right-of-way, the holder desires reciprocal accomodations for the transmission of electrical power over the interconnecting system of the Department to its line, such reciprocal accomodations will be accorded under terms and conditions similar to those prescribed in this paragraph with respect to the transmission by the Department of electrical power over the holder's line.

(11) The terms and conditions prescribed in this paragraph may be modified at any time by means of a supplemental agreement negotiated between the holder and the Secretary of the Interior or his designee.

§ 244.45 No rights acquired prior to filing and approval of application. Application under the act of February 15, 1901, or the act of March 4, 1911, for permission to use the desired right-of-way through the public lands and reservations must be filed and approved before any rights can be claimed thereunder.

§ 244.46 Unsurveyed lands. Permission may be given under the act of February 15, 1901, and the act of March 4, 1911, for a right-of-way over unsurveyed lands as well as surveyed lands.

§ 244.47 Expiration and renewal of right-of-way. Unless otherwise specified in a right-of-way granted under the act of March 4, 1911, and unless sooner canceled, the right-of-way shall expire 50 years from the date thereof. If, however, within the period of 1 year prior to the expiration date, the grantee shall file, in accordance with § 244.3, a written application to renew the right-of-way, and shall agree to comply with all the laws and regulations existing at such expiration date governing the occupancy and use of the lands of the United States for the purpose desired, the right-of-way may be renewed for a period of not to exceed 50 years. If such application is filed, the existing right-of-way will be extended subject to then existing and future rules and regulations, pending consideration of the application.

SUBPART E—RIGHTS-OF-WAY THROUGH NATIONAL FORESTS FOR DAMS, RESERVOIRS, WATER PLANTS, DITCHES, FLUMES, PIPES, TUNNELS, AND CANALS FOR MUNICIPAL OR MINING PURPOSES, UNDER THE ACT OF FEBRUARY 1, 1905 [22]

AUTHORITY: §§ 244.48 to 244.51 issued under sec. 4, 33 Stat. 628; 16 U. S. C. 524.

§ 244.48 Statutory authority. Section 4 of the act of February 1, 1905 (33 Stat. 628; 16 U. S. C. 524), grants rights-of-way through national forests to citizens and corporations of the United States, for the construction and maintenance of dams, reservoirs, water plants, ditches, flumes, pipes, tunnels, and canals, for municipal or mining purposes, and for the purpose of the milling and reduction of ores, during the period of the beneficial use, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, and subject to the laws of the State or Territory in which said forests are respectively situated.

§ 244.49 When construction may commence. No construction will be allowed in national forests until an application for right-of-way has been regularly filed in accordance with §§ 244.1 to 244.20, 244.48 to 244.51, and has been approved, or unless permission for construction in advance of the right-of-way grant has been specifically given.

§ 244.50 Water plant structures. When application is made for a right-of-way for water plants, § 244.42 should be followed, with appropriate changes in the prescribed forms.

§ 244.51 Procedure when unsurveyed land is involved. Maps showing reservoirs, canals, water plants, and other structures wholly upon unsurveyed lands will be received and acted upon in the manner prescribed for surveyed lands.

SUBPART F—RIGHTS-OF-WAY UNDER THE ACT OF JANUARY 21, 1895, OVER PUBLIC LANDS FOR TRAMROADS AND OTHER ROADS FOR LOGGING AND MINING PURPOSES, [23] EXCEPT LOGGING ROADS OVER REVESTED AND RECONVEYED AND INTERMINGLED PUBLIC LANDS IN OREGON [24]

AUTHORITY: Secs. 244.52 and 244.53 issued under 28 Stat. 635; 43 U. S. C. 956.

§ 244.52 Statutory authority. The act of January 21, 1895 (28 Stat. 635; 43 U. S. C. 956), authorizes the Secretary under such general regulations as may be fixed by him to permit the use of rights-of-way over the public lands of the United States, for tramroads to the extent of 50 feet on each side of the center line of the tramroad, by any citizen or association of citizens of the United States, engaged in the business of mining, quarrying, or of cutting timber and manufacturing lumber. The act does not authorize the use of rights-of-way within the limits of any park or military reservation. The act is made applicable to national forests and reservoir sites by the act of March 3, 1899 (30 Stat. 1233; 16 U. S. C. 525, 43 U. S. C. 665, 958). Before a right-of-way is issued under this section, the officer authorized to issue it must obtain the clearance of the regional administrator. Where the regional administrator determines it to be in the public interest, he will require applicants under this section to execute the same type of right-of-way and road use agreements for the connecting road system as may be required under 43 CFR, Part 115 with appropriate modifications to meet local conditions: Provided, That where the land over which the right-of-way is requested is under the jurisdiction of an agency other than the Bureau of Land Management, the regional administrator shall make such requirement only with the concurrence of the authorized officer of such agency. The regional administrator may require an applicant for or holder of a tramroad right-of-way to execute a bond on Form 4–414, modified to refer to the applicable sections of this part, in an amount, not less than $500 per mile or fraction thereof, to be determined by the regional administrator conditioned on compliance with §§ 244.1 to 244.21 and 244.52 and 244.53. The arbitration procedures involved in the stipulations shall be in accordance with State law, if any is applicable. In the absence of applicable State law, controversies involving arbitration shall be arbitrated in accordance with the rules then obtaining of the American Arbitration Association.

§ 244.53 Tramroads defined. Tramroads are considered as including tramways, railroads, and motor-truck roads to be used in connection with mining, quarrying, logging, and the manufacturing of lumber.

CROSS REFERENCE: Applications for logging road permits over revested Oregon and California Railroad and reconveyed Coos Bay Wagon Road grant lands and intermingled public lands administered by the Bureau of Land Management which are in and west of Range 8 East, Willamette Meridian, Oregon, must be made under 43 CFR, Part 115.

SUBPART G—TRANSFERS OF PUBLIC LANDS AND RESERVATIONS FOR HIGHWAYS, ROAD BUILDING MATERIAL AND MAINTENANCE SITES, ROADSIDE AND LANDSCAPE DEVELOPMENT AREAS AND FLIGHT STRIPS, UNDER THE FEDERAL AID HIGHWAY ACT [25]

AUTHORITY: §§ 244.54 to 244.56 issued under R. S. 161, 453, 2478; 5 U. S. C. 22, 43 U. S. C. 2, 1201.

§ 244.54 Statutory authority.—(a) Highways and material sites. (1) Section 17 of the Federal Aid Highway Act of November 9, 1921 (42 Stat. 216; 23 U. S. C. 18), authorizes the transfer of public lands and reservations of the United States to the State highway departments on determination by the Secretary of Commerce [26] that such lands are necessary for the right-of-way for any highway or forest road or as a source of materials for the construction and maintenance of such roads and highways, and after his request for such transfer with a map showing the portions of such lands which it is desired to appropriate.[27] The section does not authorize transfers to Territories.

(2) This statute provides that if within a period of 4 months after such filing the Secretary of the department supervising the administration of such land or reservation shall not have certified to the Secretary of Commerce that the proposed transfer of such lands is contrary to public interest or inconsistent with the purposes for which such land or materials have been reserved, or shall have agreed to the appropriation and transfer under conditions which he deems necessary for the adequate protection and utilization of the reserve, then such land or materials may be appropriated and transferred to the State highway departments for such purposes.[28] If and when the need for any such land or materials shall no longer exist, notice of that fact must be given by the State highway department to the Secretary of Commerce, and such lands or materials will immediately revert to the control of the Secretary of the Department from which they had been appropriated.[29]

(b) Roadside and landscape development areas. The act of June 8, 1938 (52 Stat. 633; 23 U. S. C. 10b), authorizes right-of-way for roadside and landscape development under section 17 of the Federal Aid Highway Act.

(c) Flight strips. Section 8 of the act of November 19, 1941 (55 Stat. 767; 23 U. S. C. 108), authorizes rights-of-way under the Federal Aid Highway Act for flight strips adjacent to public highways or roadside-development areas along such highways.

(d) Extent of grant. Rights-of-way granted pursuant to the Federal Aid Highway Act, as supplemented and amended, do not include rights-of-way for facilities with respect to which any other provision of law specifically requires the filing of an application for a right-of-way. Where the holder of the highway right-of-way determines that such facility will not seriously impair the scenic and recreational values of an area and its consent is obtained, the Department waives the requirement of an application for a right-of-way for all facilities usual to a highway along a highway right-of-way granted pursuant to the Federal Aid Highway Act, as supplemented and amended, except for electric transmission facilities, designed for operation at a nominal voltage of 33 kv or above, or designed for conversion to such operation, or for oil or gas pipe lines which are more than two miles long and are not part of any other pipe line crossing public lands. Applications shall be made under §§ 244.39 to 244.47, inclusive, with respect to any right-of-way for an electric transmission facility subject to this exception, and under §§ 244.60 to 244.66, inclusive, for pipe line facilities subject to this exception. Where the holder of the right-of-way consents to the construction of usual highway facilities, as stated above, such holder shall be responsible for compliance with § 244.9 in connection with the construction and maintenance of such facilities.

§ 244.55 Filing of application. Where a right-of-way is desired under the provisions of section 17 of the act of November 9, 1921, and the amendment or supplements thereto, for any of the purposes mentioned in § 244.54, an application and maps should be filed in the manner prescribed by §§ 244.3 and 244.6 (a). Such application should be filed by the State highway department of the particular State and not by any political subdivision of the State. No application will be received by the Bureau for rights-of-way affecting lands entirely within a national forest or an Indian reservation.

§ 244.56 Action on application. Upon receipt of an application filed under section 17 of the act of November 9, 1921, or acts supplemental thereto, which affects unpatented lands or patented lands, acquired by the United States, under the jurisdiction of this Department, Bureau procedure relating to rights-of-way will be followed, and in addition the manager will return a duplicate map or maps to the State highway department which will forward them to the Secretary of Commerce for his determination that the lands are necessary for the purposes desired, as required by the act. Upon the receipt of such determination, if all else be regular, the right-of-way will be approved.

SUBPART H—RIGHTS-OF-WAY FOR THE CONSTRUCTION OF HIGHWAYS OVER PUBLIC LANDS UNDER R. S. 2477

§ 244.57 Statutory authority. R. S. 2477 (43 U. S. C. 932), grants rights-of-way for the construction of highways over public lands, not reserved for public uses.

§ 244.58 Effective date and extent of grant. (a) Grants of rights-of-way referred to in the preceding section become effective upon the construction or establishment of highways, in accordance with the State laws, over public lands, not reserved for public uses. No application should be filed under R. S. 2477, as no action on the part of the Government is necessary. Rights-of-way granted by R. S. 2477 do not include rights-of-way for facilities with respect to which any other provision of law specifically requires the filing of an application for a right-of-way. Where the holder of the highway right-of-way determines that such facility will not seriously impair the scenic and recreational values of an area and its consent is obtained, the Department waives the requirement of an application for a right-of-way for all facilities usual to a highway along a highway right-of-way

[22] In addition to the material under this heading, the general regulations under Subpart A of this part should be consulted.

[23] In an opinion of July 16, 1942 (58 I. D. 29), the Solicitor of the Department of the Interior held that the act of February 15, 1901 (31 Stat. 790; 43 U. S. C. 959), superseded the part of the 1895 act authorizing rights-of-way for canals and reservoirs.

[24] In addition to the material under this heading, the general regulations under Subpart A of this part should be consulted.

[25] In addition to the material under this heading, the general regulations under Subpart A of this part should be consulted.

[26] Originally the Federal Aid Highway Act provided that various functions should be administered by the Secretary of Agriculture. Through a series of transfers, the latest of which is 1949 Reorganization Plan No. 7, effective August 19, 1949 (14 F. R. 5228, 63 Stat. 1070), these functions have vested in the Secretary of Commerce.

[27] Considered as including maintenance and stock-pile sites.

[28] By decision of the Secretary, Nevada Department of Highways, A-24151, September 17, 1945, it was held that the language of the act imports discretion and indicates no intent to vest in the State a right at the end of the four months' period without further action by the Department having jurisdiction. It was held further that the interest transferred under the statute is merely a right-of-way or right to take materials and that the Government may reserve the right to dispose of leasable minerals.

[29] Notice by the State highway departments, that the need for the land or material no longer exists may be given directly to the Bureau of Land Management.

granted by R. S. 2477, except for electric transmission facilities, designed for operation at a nominal voltage of 33 kv or above, or designed for conversion to such operation, or for oil or gas pipe lines which are more than two miles long and are not part of any other pipe line crossing public lands. Applications shall be made under §§ 244.39 to 244.47, inclusive, with respect to any right-of-way for an electric transmission facility subject to this exception, and under §§ 244.60 to 244.66, inclusive, for pipe line facilities subject to this exception.

(b) Holders of grants under R. S. 2477 shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the following paragraphs of § 244.9 (b), (c), (d), (e), (i), (k), (n). Where the holder of the highway consents to the construction of usual highway facilities, as provided above, such holder shall be responsible for compliance with the designated paragraphs of § 244.9 in connection with the construction and maintenance of such facilities.

§ 244.59 Procedure when reserved land is involved. When a right-of-way is desired for the construction of a highway under R. S. 2477, over public land reserved for public uses, and such reserved land is under the jurisdiction of the Department of the Interior, an application should be made in accordance with § 244.3 for consideration of the revocation or modification of the reserve so as to permit the operation of the statute and construction or establishment of the highway. Such application should be accompanied by a map, drawn on tracing linen, with two print copies thereof, showing the location of the proposed highway with relation to the smallest legal subdivisions of the lands affected. In such case a serial number will not be assigned to the application but it will be transmitted together with the map and print copies to the Bureau of Land Management immediately. Unless and until the reservation shall have been revoked or modified so as to permit the construction of the highway, subject to such terms and conditions, if any, as may be deemed reasonable and necessary for the adequate protection and utilization of the reserve, no rights to establish or construct the highway will be acquired by reason of the filing of such application.

SUBPART I—RIGHTS-OF-WAY THROUGH PUBLIC LANDS AND RESERVATIONS FOR OIL AND NATURAL GAS PIPELINES AND PUMPING PLANT SITES UNDER THE MINERAL LEASING ACT [30]

AUTHORITY: §§ 244.60 to 244.66 issued under sec. 28, 49 Stat. 678; 30 U. S. C. 185.

§ 244.60 Statutory authority. Section 28 of the act of February 25, 1920 (41 Stat. 449), as amended by the act of August 21, 1935 (49 Stat. 678; 30 U. S. C. 185), authorizes the Secretary to grant rights-of-way through public lands, including the forest reserves of the United States, for pipeline purposes for the transportation of oil or natural gas to any applicant possessing the qualifications provided in section 1 of the act (41 Stat. 437; 30 U. S. C. 22, 48, 181) to the extent of the ground occupied by the said pipeline and 25 feet on each side of the same under such regulations and conditions as to survey, location, application, and use as may be prescribed by him, and upon the express conditions that such pipeline shall be constructed, operated and maintained as a common carrier and that the pipeline holder shall accept, convey, transport, or purchase without discrimination oil or natural gas produced from Government lands in the vicinity of the pipeline in such proportionate amount as the Secretary of the Interior may, after a full hearing, with due notice thereof to the interested parties, and a proper finding of facts, determine to be reasonable.[31]

§ 244.61 Who may file application. Application may be filed by citizens of the United States, associations of such persons, any corporation organized under the laws of the United States, or of any State or Territory, and municipalities.

§ 244.62 Common carrier stipulation; oil pipelines. Each application for an oil pipeline right-of-way must include the following stipulation:

The applicant agrees to operate the pipeline as a common carrier in accordance with the provisions of the Mineral Leasing Act, and, within 30 days after the request of the Secretary of the Interior, to file rate schedule and tariff for the transportation of oil as such common carrier with any regulatory agency having jurisdiction over such transportation, as the Secretary may prescribe.

§ 244.63 Common carrier stipulation; natural gas pipelines. Each application for a natural gas pipeline right-of-way must include the following stipulation:

(a) The applicant agrees that it will operate the pipeline as a common carrier in accordance with the provisions of the Mineral Leasing Act as now or hereafter amended and pertinent regulations heretofore or hereafter adopted thereunder and that it will transport natural gas for others, whether such gas is produced from Government lands or not, at reasonable rates and subject to conditions to be allowed or determined by the regulatory agency having jurisdiction over such transportation: Provided, That no condition shall be imposed by the applicant which is inconsistent with the applicant's obligation to operate its pipeline as a common carrier. The applicant agrees to provide common carrier transportation service requested, including firm service, as follows:

(1) When any request for the transportation of natural gas is made and there is unused capacity in the applicant's pipeline, the applicant agrees promptly, or within such time as may be fixed by the Secretary, (i) to file with the regulatory agency having jurisdiction over such matter an application for issuance of authority to the applicant to transport such gas, to the extent of the unused capacity of the pipeline, if an application for such authority is required by the law applicable to such agency or by the rules or regulations of such agency, and, upon the issuance of such authority, to commence to render service to the extent of the unused capacity of the pipeline pursuant to the terms and conditions of such authority, or (ii) where no such authority need be obtained in advance of transportation, to file a rate schedule or tariff with such regulatory agency and to commence to render transportation service at the rates and subject to the conditions allowed or determined by such agency. Nothing in this subparagraph shall be construed to prevent any right of appeal which the applicant may have under applicable law from the issuance of authority under clause (i) or from any determination of rates or conditions under clause (ii) of the preceding sentence, but no appeal taken by the applicant shall delay the commencement of transportation service by the applicant as provided in that sentence.

(2) If there is no unused capacity or insufficient unused capacity in the applicant's pipeline at the time when the request for transportation is made, the applicant agrees promptly, or within such time as may be fixed by the Secretary, to file with any regulatory agency having jurisdiction over such matter an application for issuance of authority to the applicant to increase the capacity of its pipeline sufficiently to enable the applicant to provide for the transportation of the natural gas proposed for shipment, but the applicant shall not be required to apply for the issuance of authority to increase the capacity of its pipeline to such an extent that such increased capacity, when added to any increased capacity theretofore provided pursuant to this stipulation, will exceed that capacity of the pipeline not devoted to common carrier transportation at the time the request for common carrier transportation is made. The applicant shall be required to file an application for authority to increase the capacity of its pipeline only if the prospective shipper joins in such application and only if the prospective shipper advises the applicant in writing that at any hearing upon such application the shipper shall have the burden of showing an adequate gas supply, markets, and other relevant facts necessary to establish, consistent with applicable law, the economic feasibility of the facilities and investment required to provide necessary added capacity and to justify the issuance of authority for the construction of such facilities, and that the shipper agrees to offer natural gas for transportation through the applicant's pipeline, upon completion of the construction of the increased capacity within a reasonable time, in such amounts and for such period of time as will be sufficient to pay the construction and operation costs allocable to his shipments plus a reasonable return on the investment allocable to such shipments. Applicant further agrees to proceed diligently to provide the increased capacity for common carrier transportation, the construction of which is authorized by any final order of any regulatory agency having jurisdiction over such transportation, provided the applicant will not be required to construct such additional facilities until it is able to obtain necessary outside funds, if any are needed, on terms submitted to and sanctioned by the regulatory agency in connection with the application to obtain such authority, but nothing herein contained shall be construed as a waiver of any right which the applicant may have under applicable law to appeal from such final order.

Upon completion of construction under such authorization, applicant will take all steps necessary, including the filing of rate schedules or tariffs where required, to commence service pursuant to the terms and conditions of the authorization and at the rates and subject to the conditions allowed or determined by the agency. Nothing in the preceding sentence shall be construed to prevent any right of appeal which the applicant may have under applicable law from any determination of rates or conditions by the regulatory agency, but no such appeal taken by the applicant after the completion of construction, shall delay the commencement of transportation service by the applicant as provided in that sentence.

(b) Any rate schedule or tariff filed under paragraph (a) shall include the provisions set forth in paragraph (a) of this stipulation and no change shall be made in paragraph (a) without first obtaining the approval of the Secretary of the Interior. A copy of such rate schedule or tariff and of any amendment to, or revision of, a rate schedule or tariff shall be furnished to the Secretary of the Interior when the original is filed with the regulatory agency.

(c) None of the specific provisions of this stipulation shall be construed to limit in any way the obligation of the applicant to operate its pipeline as a common carrier in accordance with the provisions of the Mineral Leasing Act as now or hereafter amended and pertinent regulations heretofore or hereafter adopted under that act or any other obligations imposed on the applicant by such act or regulations, and any violation of such obligation shall be ground for the cancellation of the right-of-way, as provided in the Mineral Leasing Act.

Every applicant for a natural gas pipeline right-of-way whose application is pending before the Department on July 27, 1951, without final action thereon having been taken by the Department, shall be required to execute and file the stipulation prescribed in this section within 30 days after that date.

§ 244.64 Use of pipeline. The applicant shall state in the application the specific use, within the purview of the act, to which the pipeline is to be put, and any approval of the right-of-way shall be limited to such use, unless otherwise stated in the approval. No change in the use of the pipeline from that authorized by the approval of the right-of-way shall be allowed except as follows:

(a) In the case of pipelines engaged in interstate transportation, a change may be made only with approval first obtained from the regional administrator, and upon such terms and conditions as he may prescribe as a prerequisite to the approval of the change of use. If the regional administrator does not disapprove or otherwise act upon an application for a change in use by the end of the forty-fifth day after the application is filed, he shall be deemed to have approved it without conditions other than those previously existing.

(b) In case of pipelines engaged solely in intrastate transportation, a change may be made by the grantee in the use of the pipeline for the transportation of products within the purview of the act, from that specified in the approval of the right-of-way, provided, written notice of such change is filed with the manager not less than 15 days in advance of the actual change of use. Such notice must be accompanied by a showing as to whether the change in use is to be temporary or permanent, and a statement that such change will not result in any hardship or injustice to persons operating under Federal leases who may be dependent on the pipeline as the means of transportation of their products to existing markets, and must be accompanied by the consent in writing of such lessees to the change of use.

§ 244.65 Approval of right-of-way. The approval of such rights-of-way shall be subject to the express condition that the use of the pipeline for the transportation of oil, gas, or other similar natural products, shall be limited to such products produced in conformity with State and Federal laws, including laws prohibiting waste.

§ 244.66 Pumping plant site. A site for a pumping station or other structures reasonably necessary to the operation of a pipeline on a right-of-way approved under section 28 of the act of February 25, 1920, or as amended by the act of August 21, 1935, may be granted under the same section (36 Op. Atty. Gen. 480). When an application is made for a right-of-way for a site, the location and extent of ground proposed to be occupied by buildings or other structures necessary to be used in connection therewith must be clearly designated on the map and described on Forms 3 and 4 [32] by reference to course and distance from a corner of the public survey. In addition to being shown in connection with the main drawing, the buildings or other structures must be platted on the map in a separate drawing on a scale sufficiently large to show clearly their dimensions and relative positions. When two or more such proposed structures are to be located near each other, it will be sufficient to give the reference to a corner of the public survey for one of them, provided all the others are connected therewith by course and distance shown on the map. The application must also state the proposed use of each structure, and must show definitely that each one is necessary for a proper use of the right-of-way for the purpose contemplated in the act.

SUBPART J—RIGHTS-OF-WAY OVER LANDS SUBJECT TO A MINERAL LEASE [30]

§ 244.67 Statutory authority; applications. (a) Section 29 of the act of February 25, 1920 (41 Stat. 449, 30 U. S. C. 186), provides in part:

That any permit, lease, occupation, or use permitted under this act shall reserve to the Secretary of the Interior the right to permit upon such terms as he may determine to be just, for joint or several use, such easements or rights-of-way, including easements in tunnels upon, through, or in the lands leased, occupied, or used as may be necessary or appropriate to the working of the same, or of other lands containing the deposits described in this act, and the treatment and shipment of the products thereof by or under authority of the Government, its lessees, or permittees, and for other public purposes.

(b) Where another statutory provision covers the type of right-of-way desired, applications shall be made in accordance with such statute and the applicable regulations.

(c) Where there is no other statutory provision covering the type of right-of-way desired, applications shall be filed in accordance with §§ 244.1 to 244.21, inclusive (41 Stat. 449; 30 U. S. C. 186).

SUBPART K—RIGHTS-OF-WAY FOR FEDERAL IRRIGATION PURPOSES UNDER THE ACT OF DECEMBER 5, 1924

§ 244.68 Statutory authority. Section 4, subsection P, of the act of December 5, 1924 (43 Stat. 704; 43 U. S. C. 417), provides that where, in the opinion of the Secretary, a right-of-way over public land is required in connection with a reclamation project, the Secretary may reserve the same to the United States by filing in the Bureau of Land Management and in the appropriate land office copies of an instrument giving a description of the right-of-way and notice that the same is reserved to the United States for Federal irrigation purposes under this section, in which event entry for such land and the patent issued therefor shall be subject to the right-of-way so described in such instrument; and reference to each such instrument shall be made in the appropriate tract books and also in the patent (43 Stat. 704; 43 U. S. C. 417).

SUBPART L—RIGHTS-OF-WAY FOR TRANSMISSION LINES IN CONNECTION WITH BOULDER CANYON PROJECT UNDER THE BOULDER CANYON PROJECT ACT

§ 244.69 Statutory authority. Section 5 (d) of the Boulder Canyon Project Act of December 21, 1928 (45 Stat. 1057; 43 U. S. C. 617d), authorizes the use by any agency receiving a contract for the purchase of electrical energy from Boulder Canyon Project of such public and reserved lands of the United States as may be necessary or convenient for the construction, operation, and maintenance of main transmission lines to transmit said electrical energy (45 Stat. 1057; 43 U. S. C. 617d).

Regulations superseded. Sections 244.1 to 244.69, inclusive, supersede §§ 244.1 to 244.53, inclusive, §§ 245.1 to 245.28, inclusive, and §§ 292.27 to 292.38, inclusive, of this chapter (Circ. 1237b, May 31, 1943; Circ. 1461a, December 14, 1942; Circ. 1619, August 16, 1946; Circ. 1682, May 25, 1948; Circ. 1701, October 14, 1948; and Circ. 1559, May 31, 1943).[33]

R. D. SEARLES,
Acting Secretary of the Interior.

JUNE 24, 1952.

APPENDIX

FORMS [1]

Forms 1 and 2 to be placed on maps. See section 244.6 (a) (7).

[30] In addition to the material under this heading, the general regulations under Subpart A of this part should be consulted.

[31] By opinion of the Attorney General of January 3, 1941 (40 Op. Atty. Gen. 9), and departmental decision, Chiles P. Plummer, A. 23988, February 24, 1945, this statute was construed as not applying to purchased or acquired lands as they are not considered public lands within the meaning of the act.

[32] See appendix for forms.

[33] The record keeping or reporting requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

[1] Where necessary, these forms should be modified so as to be appropriate to the applicant (corporation, association, or individual), to the act invoked, and to the nature of the project.

Reference should be made to the appropriate section of the regulations to determine when each of the forms is required.

Forms Nos. 2, 4, 6, 7, 9, and 10 may be signed by any officer or employee of the company who is authorized to sign them. However, if they are executed by a person other than the President, they must be accompanied by a certified copy of the minutes of the Board of Directors meeting or other document authorizing such signature unless such certified copy has already been filed in the case.

Appendix—Public Land Orders

[Public Land Order 845]

CALIFORNIA

RESERVING PUBLIC LAND FOR USE OF UNITED STATES ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION

By virtue of the authority vested in the President and pursuant to Executive Order No. 10355 of May 26, 1952 (17 F. R. 4831), it is ordered as follows:

Subject to valid existing rights, including a right-of-way for a material site granted to the California State Highway Department, the following-described public land in California is hereby withdrawn from all forms of appropriation under the public-land laws, including the mining but not the mineral-leasing laws, and reserved for the use of the United States Atomic Energy Commission:

SAN BERNARDINO MERIDIAN

T. 10 S., R. 9 E.,
Sec. 24, NE¼ SW¼.

The area described contains 40 acres.

It is intended that the above-described land shall be returned to the administration of the Department of the Interior when it is no longer needed for the purpose for which it is reserved.

R. D. SEARLES,
Acting Secretary of the Interior.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Bureau of Internal Revenue

[26 CFR Parts 29, 40]

INCOME AND EXCESS PROFITS TAX

TAXATION OF MUTUAL SAVINGS BANKS, BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS, AND COOPERATIVE BANKS

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing in duplicate to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. C., within the period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in section 62 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(53 Stat. 32; 26 U. S. C. 62)

[SEAL] JOHN B. DUNLAP,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

In order to conform Regulations 111 (26 CFR Part 29) to sections 313 and 346 of the Revenue Act of 1951, approved October 20, 1951, and in order to conform Regulations 130 (26 CFR Part 40) to section 313 of the Revenue Act of 1951, such regulations are hereby amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.101 (2)-1 the following:

SEC. 313. MUTUAL SAVINGS BANKS, BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS, COOPERATIVE BANKS (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

(a) Mutual savings banks. Section 101 (2) (relating to exemption from tax of mutual savings banks) is hereby repealed.

* * * * *

(j) Effective date. The amendments made by this section shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1951.

PAR. 2. Section 29.101 (2)-1 is amended as follows:

(A) By changing the headnote thereof to read as follows:

§ 29.101 (2)-1 Mutual savings banks; taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1952. * * *

(B) By inserting immediately preceding the first sentence thereof the following new sentence: "The provisions of this section shall be applicable only to taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1952.

[1] Description should be in terms of smallest legal subdivisions (40-acre tract or lot).

For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1951, see § 29.101 (2)–2." • • •

PAR. 3. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.101 (3)–1 the following new section:

§ 29.101 (2)–2. Mutual savings banks; taxable years beginning after December 31, 1951. (a) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1951, a mutual savings bank not having capital stock represented by shares is subject to both normal tax and surtax as in the case of other corporations. Such a bank is, however, not subject to excess profits tax. For special rules governing the taxation of a mutual savings bank conducting a life insurance business, see section 110 and the regulations prescribed thereunder.

(b) While the general principles for determining the net income of a corporation are applicable to a mutual savings bank not having capital stock represented by shares, there are certain exceptions and special rules governing the computation in the case of such a bank. See § 29.23 (k) (1)–5 for special rules concerning additions to reserves for bad debts. See also § 29.23 (r)–1, relating to dividends paid by banking corporations, for special rules concerning deductions for amounts paid to, or credited to the accounts of, depositors as dividends on deposits. Furthermore, in determining the normal tax net income of such a mutual savings bank, the credit for dividends received provided in section 26 (b) shall not be applicable to dividends which were deductible from the net income of the distributing corporation under section 23 (r).

(c) The taxable year (fiscal year or calendar year, as the case may be) of a mutual savings bank not having capital stock represented by shares shall be determined without regard to the fact that the taxpayer may have been exempt from tax during any prior period. See sections 41 and 48 and the regulations thereunder. Similarly, in computing net income, the determination of the taxable year for which an item of income or expense is taken into account shall be made under the provisions of sections 41, 42, and 43, and the regulations thereunder, whether or not the item arose during a taxable year beginning before, on, or after December 31, 1951. For the purpose of computing, under section 122, the net operating loss deduction provided in section 23 (r), the terms "preceding taxable year" and "preceding taxable years", as used in section 122, shall not include any taxable year for which the mutual savings bank was exempt from tax. Thus, if the mutual savings bank was exempt from tax for the immediately preceding taxable year, the net operating loss is not a carry-back to any preceding taxable year, and the net operating loss carry-over to succeeding taxable years is not reduced by the net income for any preceding taxable year. No net operating loss carry-back or carry-over shall be allowed from a taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1952.

PAR. 4. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.101 (4)–1 the following:

SEC. 313. MUTUAL SAVINGS BANKS, BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS, COOPERATIVE BANKS (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

• • • • •

(b) Building and loan associations and cooperative banks. Section 101 (4) relating to exemption from tax of building and loan associations and cooperative banks) is hereby amended to read as follows:

(4) Credit unions without capital stock organized and operated for mutual purposes and without profit; and corporations or associations without capital stock organized prior to September 1, 1951, and operated for mutual purposes and without profit for the purpose of providing reserve funds for, and insurance of, shares or deposits in—

(A) Domestic building and loan associations,

(B) Cooperative banks without capital stock organized and operated for mutual purposes and without profit, or

(C) Mutual savings banks not having capital stock represented by shares:.

• • • • •

(j) Effective date. The amendments made by this section shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1951.

PAR. 5. Section 29.101 (4)–1 is amended as follows:

(A) By changing the headnote thereof to read as follows:

§ 29.101 (4)–1 Building and loan associations and cooperative banks; taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1952. • • •

(B) By inserting immediately preceding the first sentence thereof the following: "The provisions of this section shall be applicable only to taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1952. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1951, see § 29.101 (4)–2." • • •

PAR. 6. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.101 (5)–1 the following new sections:

§ 29.101 (4)–2. Building and loan associations and cooperative banks; taxable years beginning after December 31, 1951. (a) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1951, a building and loan association and a cooperative bank not having capital stock represented by shares are subject to both normal tax and surtax as in the case of other corporations. Such institutions are, however, not subject to excess profits tax.

(b) While the general principles for determining the net income of a corporation are applicable to a building and loan association and a cooperative bank not having capital stock represented by shares, there are certain exceptions and special rules governing the computation in the case of such institutions. See § 29.23 (k) (1)–5 for special rules concerning additions to reserves for bad debts. See also § 29.23 (r)–1, relating to dividends paid by banking corporations, for special rules concerning deductions for amounts paid to, or credited to the accounts of, depositors as dividends on deposits. Furthermore, in determining the normal tax net income of a building and loan association and a cooperative bank, the credit for dividends received provided in section 26 (b) shall not be applicable to dividends which were deductible from the net income of the distributing corporation under section 23 (r).

(c) The taxable year (fiscal year or calendar year, as the case may be) of a building and loan association and a cooperative bank not having capital stock represented by shares shall be determined without regard to the fact that the taxpayer may have been exempt from tax during any prior period. See sections 41 and 48 and the regulations thereunder. Similarly, in computing net income, the determination of the taxable year for which an item of income or expense is taken into account shall be made under the provisions of sections 41, 42, and 43, and the regulations thereunder, whether or not the item arose during a taxable year beginning before, on, or after December 31, 1951. For the purpose of computing, under section 122, the net operating loss deduction provided in section 23 (r), the terms "preceding taxable year" and "preceding taxable years", as used in section 122, shall not include any taxable year for which the building and loan association and cooperative bank were exempt from tax. Thus, if the building and loan association and cooperative bank were exempt from tax for the immediately preceding taxable year, the net operating loss is not a carry-back to any preceding taxable year, and the net operating loss carry-over to succeeding taxable years is not reduced by the net income for any preceding taxable year. No net operating loss carry-back or carry-over shall be allowed from a taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1952.

§ 29.101 (4)–3 Credit unions and mutual insurance funds. Credit unions (other than Federal credit unions which are exempt under section 101 (15)) without capital stock organized and operated for mutual purposes and without profit are exempt from tax under section 101 (4). Corporations or associations without capital stock organized prior to September 1, 1951, and operated for mutual purposes and without profit for the purpose of providing reserve funds for and insurance of shares or deposits in

(a) Domestic building and loan associations as defined in section 3797 (a) (19),

(b) Cooperative banks without capital stock organized and operated for mutual purposes and without profit, or

(c) Mutual savings banks not having capital stock represented by shares, are exempt from tax under section 101 (4).

PAR. 7. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.23 (k) (1)–1 the following:

SEC. 313. MUTUAL SAVINGS BANKS, BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS, COOPERATIVE BANKS (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

• • • • •

(e) Bad debt reserves. Section 23 (k) (1) (relating to deduction from gross income of bad debts) is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following: "In the case of a mutual savings bank not having capital stock represented by shares, a domestic building and loan association, and a cooperative bank without capital stock organized and operated for mutual purposes and without profit, the reasonable addition to a reserve for bad debts shall be determined with due regard to the amount of the taxpayer's surplus or bad debt reserves existing at the close of December 31, 1951. In the case of a taxpayer described in the preceding sentence, the reasonable addition to a reserve for bad debts for any taxable year shall in no case be less than the amount determined by the taxpayer as the reasonable addition for such year; except that the amount determined by the taxpayer under this sentence shall not be greater than the lesser of (A) the amount of its net income for the taxable year, computed without regard to this subsection, or (B) the amount by which 12 per centum of the total deposits or withdrawable accounts of its depositors at the close of such year exceeds the sum of its surplus, undivided profits, and reserves at the beginning of the taxable year."

• • • • •

(j) Effective date. The amendments made by this section shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1951.

PAR. 8. Section 29.23 (k)–5 is amended as follows:

(A) By changing the headnote thereof to read as follows:

§ 29.23 (k)–5 Reserve for bad debts—(a) Taxpayers other than mutual savings banks, building and loan associations and cooperative banks. • • •

(B) By redesignating paragraphs (a) and (b) as subparagraphs (1) and (2) of paragraph (a).

(C) By inserting at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

(b) Mutual savings banks, building and loan associations, and cooperative banks—(1) In general. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1951, a mutual savings bank not having capital stock represented by shares, a domestic building and loan association, and a cooperative bank without capital stock organized and operated for mutual purposes and without profit may, as an alternative to a deduction from gross income for specific debts which become worthless in whole or in part deduct amounts credited to a reserve for bad debts in the manner and under the circumstances prescribed in this section. In the case of such an institution the selection of either of the alternative methods for treating bad debts may be made by the taxpayer in the return for its first taxable year beginning after December 31, 1951. The method selected shall be subject to the approval of the Commissioner upon examination of the return. Any change in the method so selected and approved may be made only if permission is granted as provided in § 29.23 (k)–1 (a).

(2) Definitions. When used in this paragraph:

(i) The term "institution" means either a mutual savings bank not having capital stock represented by shares, a domestic building and loan association as defined in section 3797 (a) (19), or a cooperative bank without capital stock organized and operated for mutual purposes and without profit.

(ii) "Surplus, undivided profits, and reserves" means the amount by which the total assets of an institution exceed the amount of the total liabilities of such an institution. For this purpose the term "total assets" means the sum of money, plus the aggregate of the adjusted basis of the property other than money held by an institution. Such adjusted basis for any asset is its adjusted basis for determining gain upon sale or exchange for Federal income tax purposes. (See, in general, section 113 and the regulations prescribed thereunder. For special rules with respect to adjustments to basis for prior taxable years during which the institution was exempt from tax, see § 29.113 (b) (1)–4.) The determination of the total assets of any taxpayer shall conform to the method of accounting employed by such taxpayer in determining net income and to the rules applicable in determining its earnings and profits. The term "total liabilities" means all liabilities of the taxpayer, which are fixed and determined, absolute and not contingent, and includes those items which constitute liabilities in the sense of debts or obligations. The obligation of an institution with respect to its deposits or withdrawable accounts is a liability. In the case of a building and loan association having permanent nonwithdrawable capital stock represented by shares, the value of such stock shall not be considered a liability. Reserves for contingencies and other reserves which are mere appropriations of surplus are not liabilities.

(iii) The term "surplus or bad debt reserves existing at the close of December 31, 1951" means the amount of surplus, undivided profits, and reserves accumulated by the institution prior to January 1, 1952, and in existence at the close of December 31, 1951.

(iv) The term "total deposits or withdrawable accounts" means the aggregate of (a) amounts placed with an institution for deposit or investment which are withdrawable on demand subject only to customary notice of intention to withdraw, and (b) earnings outstanding on the books of account of the institution at the close of the taxable year which have been credited as dividends or interest upon such accounts prior to the close of the taxable year, which are withdrawable on demand subject only to customary notice of intention to withdraw.

(3) Institutions with surplus, reserves, and undivided profits in an amount less than 12 percent of total deposits or withdrawable accounts. Where 12 percent of the total deposits or withdrawable accounts of an institution at the close of the taxable year exceeds the sum of its surplus, undivided profits, and reserves at the beginning of the taxable year, there is allowable as a deduction from gross income as an addition to a reserve for bad debts any amount determined by the taxpayer not exceeding the lesser of:

(i) The amount of the net income of such institution for the taxable year computed without regard to section 23 (k) (1) or,

(ii) The amount by which 12 percent of the total deposits or withdrawable accounts at the close of the taxable year exceeds the sum of the institution's surplus, undivided profits, and reserves at the beginning of the taxable year.

Recoveries of debts charged off during a prior taxable year (whether or not the institution was exempt from tax for such year) shall be credited to the bad debt reserve. Bad debt losses sustained during the taxable year shall be charged against the bad debt reserve. The establishment of such reserve and all adjustments made thereto must be reflected on the regular books of account of the institution. For the purpose of this paragraph minimum amounts credited in compliance with mandatory Federal or State statutes or regulations to reserve or similar accounts against which charges may be made for the sole purpose of absorbing losses sustained by an institution will be deemed to have been credited to the bad debt reserve authorized under this paragraph.

Example. On December 31, 1952, Institution A, which keeps its books on the basis of the calendar year, has withdrawable accounts of $10,000,000, all of which amount is insured by an agency of the Federal Government. The surplus, reserves, and undivided profits of Institution A at the opening of business on January 1, 1952, total $800,000. A regulation of a Federal agency requires that at the close of the taxable year an amount equal to 0.3 percent of the value of the insured accounts be credited by Institution A to a Federal insurance reserve for the sole purpose of absorbing losses. A statute of the State in which Institution A is located requires that not less than 5 percent and not more than 25 percent of the net profits of Institution A be credited at the close of the taxable year to a "reserve fund" for the sole purpose of absorbing losses. It is assumed for the purpose of determining the amount to be credited to the State reserve fund that "not less than 5 percent of the net profits" of Institution A for the taxable year 1952 amounts to $5,000.

Prior to the taxable year Institution A did not maintain a reserve for bad debts. During 1952 Institution A sustained bad debt losses of $5,000 and recovered $10,000 from bad debts charged off in prior years. The net income of Institution A for the taxable year 1952 (computed under chapter 1 without regard to section 23 (k) (1)) is $200,000.

The books of account of Institution A show credits for the taxable year 1952 to the following reserves:

State reserve fund	$10,000
Federal insurance reserve	30,000
Bad debt reserves	65,000
Miscellaneous reserves	15,000

There is allowable as a deduction from the gross income of Institution A for the taxable year 1952 $100,000 ($65,000 credited to the bad debt reserve, $30,000 credited to the Federal insurance reserve, and $5,000 representing the minimum amount required by the State statute, credited to the State reserve fund).

Assuming that Federal taxes for 1952 amount to $52,000 on net income of $100,000, the amount credited to the surplus account for 1952 will be $28,000, that is $48,000 less the sum of the $15,000 credited to miscellaneous reserves and $5,000 credited to State reserves for which no bad debt deduction was allowable. Consequently, the surplus, undivided profits, and reserves of Institution A, amounting to $800,000 at the close of December 31, 1951, as increased by amounts credited to these accounts for 1952, will total $953,000 at the close of December 31, 1952, computed as follows:

Surplus, reserves, and undivided profits at close of Dec. 31, 1951	$800,000
Amount credited to miscellaneous reserve accounts for 1952	15,000
Amount credited to State reserve fund for 1952	10,000

Amount credited to Federal insurance reserve for 1952	$30,000
Amount credited to surplus for 1952	28,000
Bad debt reserve at close of Dec. 31, 1951	0
Amount credited to reserve for bad debt for 1952	65,000
Recoveries made during 1952 of bad debts previously charged off	10,000
	75,000
Less: Bad debt losses sustained during 1952	5,000
Bad debt reserve at close of Dec. 31, 1952	70,000
Surplus, undivided profits and reserves existing at close of Dec. 31, 1952	953,000

(4) Institutions with surplus, reserves, and undivided profits equal to or in excess of 12 percent of deposits or withdrawable accounts. Where 12 percent of the total deposits or withdrawable accounts of an institution at the close of the taxable year is equal to or less than the sum of such institution's surplus, undivided profits and reserves at the beginning of the taxable year, there may be allowable as a deduction from gross income a reasonable addition to the reserve for bad debts determined under the general provisions of paragraph (a) of this section. In making such determination there will be taken into account (i) surplus, or bad debt reserves existing at the close of December 31, 1951, and (ii) accretions to the surplus, undivided profits, and reserves of the institution from December 31, 1951, until the beginning of the taxable year. Deductions for additions to the reserve for bad debts, in addition to the deductions allowed, if any, under subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, will be authorized in those cases where the institution proves to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the bad debt experience of the institution warrants the maintenance of a bad debt reserve in excess of that provided in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph.

PAR. 9. There is inserted immediately after § 29.113 (b) (1)–3 the following new section:

§ 29.113 (b) (1)–4 Adjusted basis: Mutual savings banks, building and loan associations, and cooperative banks. (a) The adjustments to the cost or other basis of property provided in section 113 (b) and § 29.113 (b) (1)–1 to § 29.113 (b) (1)–3, inclusive, are applicable in the case of a mutual savings bank not having capital stock represented by shares, a domestic building and loan association, and a cooperative bank without capital stock organized and operated for mutual purposes and without profit, although such institutions were exempt from tax for taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1952. Proper adjustment must be made under section 113 (b) for the entire period since the acquisition of property. Thus, adjustment to basis must be made for depreciation allowable for all prior taxable years although such institution may have been exempt from tax during such period. Similarly, in the case of tax exempt and partially taxable bonds purchased at a premium and subject to amortization under section 125, proper adjustment to basis must be made to reflect amortization with respect to such premium from the date of acquisition of the bond.

Example. On January 1, 1952, Z a mutual savings bank, which keeps its books on a calendar year basis, owns a tax-exempt $1,000 noncallable bond maturing on January 1, 1962. Such bond was acquired by Z on January 1, 1932, for $1,300. It was sold by Z on December 31, 1952, for $1,250. The yearly rate of amortization of the premium, determined by dividing the total premium of $300 by the life of the bond (30 years) is $10. Z realizes a gain of $60 from such sale computed as follows:

(1) Cost of bond	$1,300
(2) Amount of bond premium attributable to years 1942 through 1951, during which Z was exempt from tax ($10 times 10 years)	100
(3) Amount of bond premium amortized from Jan. 1, 1952 through Dec. 31, 1952 ($10 times 1 year)	10
(4) Total amount of adjustments to basis (aggregate of (2) and (3))	110
(5) Adjusted basis of bond at close of 1952 ((1) reduced by (4))	1,190
(6) Gain realized upon sale. Excess of sale price over adjusted basis ($1,250 minus $1,190)	60

The basis of a fully taxable bond purchased at a premium shall be adjusted from the date of the election to amortize such premium in accordance with the provisions of section 125 in the same manner as if the institution were subject to tax from the date of acquisition of the bond.

(b) In the case of a mortgage purchased at a premium where the principal of such mortgage is payable in installments, adjustments to the basis of the premium must be made for all taxable years (whether or not the institution was exempt from tax during such years) in which installment payments are received. Such adjustment shall be an amount which is equal to the proportion of the premium which each installment payment on principal bears to the face value of the mortgage loan. For the purpose of this adjustment, the term "premium" includes the amount of cash paid in excess of the face amount of the loan, attorneys' fees, brokerage commissions, and all other costs directly attributable to the acquisition of the mortgage.

PAR. 10. There is inserted immediately preceding section 23 (s) the following:

SEC. 313. MUTUAL SAVINGS BANKS, BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS, COOPERATIVE BANKS (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

* * * * *

(f) Dividends paid to depositors. Section 23 (r) (relating to the deduction from gross income of certain dividends paid by banking corporations) is hereby amended to read as follows:

(r) Dividends paid by banking corporations. (1) In the case of mutual savings banks, cooperative banks, and domestic building and loan associations, amounts paid to, or credited to the accounts of, depositors or holders of accounts as dividends on their deposits or withdrawable accounts, if such amounts paid or credited are withdrawable on demand subject only to customary notice of intention to withdraw.

(2) For deduction of dividends paid by certain other banking corporations, see section 121.

* * * * *

(j) Effective date. The amendments made by this section shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1951.

§ 29.23 (r)–1 Dividends paid by mutual savings banks, building and loan associations, and cooperative banks—(a) In general. (1) A mutual savings bank not having capital stock represented by shares, a domestic building and loan association, and a cooperative bank without capital stock organized and operated for mutual purposes and without profit may deduct from gross income amounts which during the taxable year are paid to or credited to the accounts of depositors or holders of accounts, as dividends on their deposits or withdrawable accounts, if such amounts paid or credited are withdrawable on demand subject only to customary notice of intention to withdraw. If such an institution has the right to receive 30 days notice prior to the withdrawal of a deposit or of any amounts paid or credited to the account thereof, the amounts credited will nevertheless be considered as withdrawable on demand subject only to customary notice of intention to withdraw.

(2) The deduction provided in section 23 (r) (1) is applicable to the taxable year in which amounts credited as dividends become withdrawable by the depositor or holder of account subject only to customary notice of intention to withdraw. Thus, amounts credited as dividends as of the last day of the taxable year which are not withdrawable by depositors or holders of accounts until the business day next succeeding are deductible under this section in the year subsequent to the taxable year in which they were credited. Similarly, amounts credited as dividends, otherwise deductible under this section, which are subject to the terms of an agreement whereby the dividend is pledged to secure the payment of a mortgage made by the depositor or holder of account with the institution are deductible under section 23 (r) (1) in the year in which such amounts become released from the terms of the pledge agreement. In the case of a building and loan association having nonwithdrawable capital stock represented by shares, no deduction is allowable under this section for amounts paid or credited as dividends on such shares.

(b) Serial associations, bonus plans, etc. (1) In the case of a building and loan association which operates in whole or in part as a serial association, which maintains bonus plans, which issues shares subject to fines, penalties, or forfeitures, or which operates in any other manner whereby the dividend rate payable is dependent upon investment in the institution of specified sums for a stipulated period, no portion of any amount credited as dividends upon such shares, in excess of amounts withdrawable during the taxable years subject only to customary notice of intention to withdraw is deductible under section 23 (r) (1).

(2) The application of this paragraph may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. Building and Loan Association B, which operates as a serial association, maintains a "Divided Profits Account" amounting to $100,000 at the close of the taxable year. Of this amount, $70,000 represents earnings accumulated in prior years upon such series shares which are withdrawable on demand subject only to customary notice of intention to withdraw, and $30,000 of such amount represents earnings which may accrue to serial shares during succeeding taxable years as the shares, if not earlier withdrawn, approach maturity. There is deductible from the gross income of B under section 23 (r) $70,000 for the taxable year. As to the remaining $30,000, so much of it is deductible as becomes withdrawable in the taxable year on demand subject only to customary notice of intention to withdraw.

§ 29.23 (r)–2 Dividends paid by certain banking corporations other than mutual savings banks, building and loan associations, and cooperative banks. For deduction of dividends paid by certain banking corporations other than mutual savings banks, building and loan associations, and cooperative banks, see section 121.

PAR. 11. There is inserted immediately after § 29.23 (bb)–1, as added by Treasury Decision 5873, approved December 7, 1951, the following:

SEC. 313. MUTUAL SAVINGS BANKS, BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS, COOPERATIVE BANKS (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

(g) Deduction for repayment of certain loans. Section 23 (relating to deductions from gross income) is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

(dd) Repayment by mutual savings banks, etc., of certain loans. In the case of a mutual savings bank not having capital stock represented by shares, a domestic building and loan association, or a cooperative bank without capital stock organized and operated for mutual purposes and without profit, amounts paid by the taxpayer during the taxable year in repayment of loans made prior to September 1, 1951, by (1) the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof which is wholly owned by the United States, or (2) any mutual fund established under the authority of the laws of any State.

* * * * *

(j) Effective date. The amendments made by this section shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1951.

§ 29.23 (dd)–1 Repayment of certain loans by mutual savings banks, building and loan associations, and cooperative banks. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1951, there shall be deductible under section 23 (dd) from the gross income of a mutual savings bank not having capital stock represented by shares, a domestic building and loan association, or a cooperative bank without capital stock organized and operated for mutual purposes and without profit, amounts paid to the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof which is owned by the United States, and amounts paid to a mutual fund established under the authority of the laws of any State in repayment of loans made prior to September 1, 1951. For example, amounts paid by such institutions to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation in repayment of a loan made prior to September 1, 1951, are deductible under this section.

PAR. 12. There is inserted immediately preceding section 111 the following:

SEC. 346. LIFE INSURANCE DEPARTMENTS OF MUTUAL SAVINGS BANKS (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

(a) Computation of tax. Supplement A of chapter 1 is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

SEC. 110. MUTUAL SAVINGS BANKS CONDUCTING LIFE INSURANCE BUSINESS.

(a) Alternative tax. In the case of a mutual savings bank not having capital stock represented by shares, authorized under State law to engage in the business of issuing life insurance contracts, and which conducts a life insurance business in a separate department the accounts of which are maintained separately from the other accounts of the mutual savings bank, there shall be levied, collected, and paid, in lieu of the taxes imposed by sections 13 and 15, or section 117 (c) (1), a tax consisting of the sum of the partial taxes determined under paragraphs (1) and (2):

(1) A partial tax computed upon the net income determined without regard to any items of gross income or deductions properly allocable to the business of the life insurance department, at the rates and in the manner as if this section has not been enacted; and

(2) A partial tax computed upon the net income (as defined in section 201 (c) (7)) of the life insurance department determined without regard to any items of gross income or deductions not properly allocable to such department, at the rates and in the manner provided in Supplement G with respect to life insurance companies.

(b) Limitations of section. The provisions of subsection (a) shall be applicable only if the life insurance department would, if it were treated as a separate corporation, qualify as a life insurance company under section 201 (b).

* * * * *

(c) Effective date. The amendments made by this section shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1951.

§ 29.110–1 Mutual savings bank conducting life insurance business—(a) Scope of application. Section 110 is applicable in the case of a mutual savings bank not having capital stock represented by shares which conducts a life insurance business, if

(1) The conduct of such business is authorized under State law,

(2) The life insurance business is carried on in a separate department of the bank,

(3) The books of account of the life insurance business are maintained separately from other departments of the bank, and

(4) The life insurance department of the bank, were it separately incorporated, would qualify as a life insurance company under section 201 (b).

(b) Computation of tax. In the case of a mutual savings bank conducting a life insurance business to which section 110 is applicable, the tax upon such bank consists of the sum of the following:

(1) A partial tax computed under sections 13 and 15 upon the net income of the bank determined without regard to any items of income or deduction properly allocable to the life insurance department.

(2) A partial tax upon the net income of the life insurance department determined without regard to any items of income or deduction not properly allocable to such department at the rates and in the manner provided in Supplement G with respect to life insurance companies.

PAR. 13. There is inserted immediately preceding § 40.454–1 the following:

SEC. 313. MUTUAL SAVINGS BANKS, BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS, COOPERATIVE BANKS (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

* * * * *

(c) Exemptions from excess profits tax. Section 454 (corporations exempt from the excess profits tax) is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

(h) Any mutual savings bank not having capital stock represented by shares, any domestic building and loan association (as defined in section 3797 (a) (19)), and any cooperative bank without capital stock organized and operated for mutual purposes and without profit.

* * * * *

(j) Effective date. The amendments made by this section shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1951.

PAR. 14. Section 40.454–1 is amended by striking from the first sentence of paragraph (e) thereof the words "or (g)" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "(g), or (h)."

Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine

[7 CFR Part 301]

GYPSY MOTH AND BROWN-TAIL MOTH

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003) that the Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to section 8 of the Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 161), is considering amending §§ 301.45, 301.45–1 (e), 301.45–2, 301.45–3 (b), 301.45–4 (c), 301.45–5, 301.45–7, and 301.45–8 of Notice of Gypsy Moth Quarantine No. 45 and regulations supplemental thereto (7 CFR 301.45 et seq.), in the following respects:

1. Amend § 301.45 by deleting therefrom the articles designated in paragraphs (b) and (c), and substituting therefor the following: "(b) timber and timber products; (c) plants having persistent woody stems and parts thereof, including Christmas trees."

2. Amend § 301.45–1 (e) by deleting the words "on the western periphery," placing a period after the word "infestations," and deleting the words "in this area."

3. Amend § 301.45–2 as follows:

a. Delete the present language of the paragraph designating certain counties and towns in Connecticut as regulated area, and substitute therefor the following:

Connecticut. Counties of Hartford, Middlesex, New London, Tolland and Windham; towns of Barkhamsted, Bethlehem, Canaan, Colebrook, Cornwall, Goshen, Harwinton, Kent, Litchfield, Morris, New Hartford, Norfolk, North Canaan, Plymouth, Roxbury, Salisbury, Sharon, Thomaston, Torrington, Washington, Warren, Watertown, Winchester, Woodbury, in Litchfield County; towns of Ansonia, Beacon Falls, Bethany, Branford, Cheshire, Derby, East Haven, Guilford, Hamden, Madison, Meriden, Middlebury, Naugatuck, New Haven, North Branford, North Haven, Orange, Prospect, Seymour, Wallingford, Waterbury, West Haven, Wolcott, and Woodbridge, in New Haven County.

b. Delete the present language of the paragraph designating certain towns in Connecticut as suppressive area, and substitute the following:

(a) The suppressive area:

Connecticut. Towns of Bethlehem, Canaan, Cornwall, Goshen, Kent, Litchfield, Morris, Norfolk, North Canaan, Roxbury, Salisbury, Sharon, Washington, Warren, and Woodbury, in Litchfield County; towns of Ansonia, Beacon Falls, Bethany, Derby, East Haven, Hamden, Middlebury, Naugatuck, New Haven, Orange, Prospect, Seymour, West Haven, and Woodbridge, in New Haven County.

4. Amend § 301.45–3 by deleting the present language of § 301.45–3 (b) (1) and § 301.45–3 (b) (2), and substituting therefor the following:

(1) Timber and timber products, including lumber, planks, poles, logs, cordwood, pulpwood, and similar materials.

(2) Plants having persistent woody stems and parts thereof, including Christmas trees.

5. Amend § 301.45–4 (c) by deleting the present language of this section and substituting therefor the following:

(c) Contingent restrictions on movement between points within the suppressive area. Whenever it is determined by the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine that control or eradication of the gypsy moth in any section of the suppressive area is being hampered or jeopardized through movement of regulated articles into such sections, the Chief of the Bureau may, after appropriate notice, require inspection and certification, as provided in § 301.45–5 (a), for any or all regulated articles moving into such designated sections from other parts of the suppressive area.

6. Amend § 301.45–5 by deleting the present language of this section, and substituting therefor the following:

§ 301.45–5 Conditions governing the issuance of certificates and permits—(a) Certificates. Certificates may be issued for the interstate movement of regulated articles under one or more of the following conditions: (1) When, in the judgment of the inspector, they have not been exposed to infestation; (2) when they have been inspected and found apparently free from infestation; (3) when they have been treated by approved methods under the observation of an inspector; and (4) when they have been grown, produced, manufactured, stored or handled in such a manner that, in the judgment of the inspector, no infestation could be transmitted thereby: Provided, That subsequent to certification, the regulated articles must be safeguarded against reinfestation as required by the inspector.

(b) Limited permits. Limited permits may be issued for the movement of noncertified, regulated articles to specified destinations for specified processing, handling, or utilization. Persons shipping, transporting or receiving such articles may be required to enter into written agreements to maintain such safeguards against the establishment and spread of infestation as may be required by the inspector.

(c) Cancellation of certificates or limited permits. Certificates or limited permits issued under these regulations may be withdrawn or canceled by the inspector and further certificates or limited permits refused whenever, in his judgment, the further use of such certificates or permits might result in the dissemination of infestation.

7. Amend § 301.45–7 by deleting the present language of this section, and substituting therefor the following:

§ 301.45–7 Assembly of regulated articles for inspection. Persons intending to move interstate any of the articles covered by these regulations shall make application for certification as far in advance as possible and may be required to prepare and assemble materials at such points and times and in such manner as the inspector shall designate, so that thorough inspection may be made, or approved treatments applied. Articles to be inspected as a basis for certification must be in such condition as permits adequate inspection. The United States Department of Agriculture will not be responsible for any cost incident to inspection, treatment, or certification other than the services of the inspector and will be responsible for no injury incident thereto.

8. Amend § 301.45–8 by deleting the present language of this section, and substituting therefor the following:

§ 301.45–8 Marking. Every regulated article or container of regulated articles intended for interstate movement shall be plainly marked with the name and address of the consignor and the name and address of the consignee, when offered for shipment, and shall have securely attached to the outside thereof a valid certificate or limited permit issued in compliance with these regulations: Provided, That for lot shipments one certificate or limited permit may be attached to one article or container of each shipment and another to the accompanying waybill, and for carlot freight or express shipments, either in containers or in bulk, a certificate or limited permit need be attached to the waybill only. For movement by road vehicle, a certificate or limited permit shall accompany the vehicle and, except when transportation is by common carrier, it shall be surrendered to consignee upon delivery of shipment.

The purpose of the proposed amendment of § 301.45 is to rephrase and simplify the items that are subject to quarantine.

The proposed amendment of § 301.45–2 would add to the regulated area in Connecticut the towns of Bethlehem, Roxbury, Washington, Watertown, and Woodbury, in Litchfield County, and the towns of Ansonia, Beacon Falls, Bethany, Cheshire, Derby, East Haven, Hamden, Middlebury, Naugatuck, New Haven, Orange, Prospect, Seymour, Wallingford, West Haven, and Woodbridge, in New Haven County. This amendment also adds to the suppressive area in Connecticut all of the above-mentioned towns with the exception of Watertown, in Litchfield County, and Cheshire and Wallingford, in New Haven County. These three towns would be added to the generally infested area.

It is further proposed to amend § 301.45–3 in conformity with changes proposed in the notice of quarantine, and to rephrase §§ 301.45–1 to 301.45–5, inclusive, 301.45–7, and 301.45–8, in a number of minor respects in the interest of clarity and improved efficiency of quarantine operation.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 26th day of June 1952.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Forest Service

CONECUH, DESOTO, BIENVILLE, KISATCHIE, ANGELINA, AND SABINE NATIONAL FORESTS

REMOVAL OF TRESPASSING HOGS

Whereas a number of hogs are trespassing and grazing on lands fenced for reforestation purposes on the Conecuh National Forest in Alabama, the DeSoto and Bienville National Forests in Mississippi, the Kisatchie National Forest in Louisiana, and the Angelina and Sabine National Forests in Texas; and

Whereas these hogs are injuring and causing mortality to pine trees on these fenced national-forest lands;

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the act of June 4, 1897 (30 Stat. 35; 16 U. S. C. 551), and the act of February 1, 1905 (33 Stat. 628; 16 U. S. C. 472), the following order is issued for the occupancy, use, protection, and administration of the Conecuh National Forest in Alabama; the DeSoto and Bienville National Forests in Mississippi; the Kisatchie National Forest in Louisiana; and the Angelina and Sabine National Forests in Texas:

Temporary closure from livestock grazing. (a) The fenced areas on the Conecuh, DeSoto, Bienville, Kisatchie, Angelina, and Sabine National Forests are hereby closed to the grazing of hogs for the period beginning January 1, 1953, and ending December 31, 1962.

(b) Officers of the United States Forest Service are hereby authorized to dispose of, in the most humane manner, all hogs found trespassing or grazing in violation of this order.

(c) Public notice of intention to dispose of such hogs shall be given by posting notices in public places or advertising in a newspaper of general circulation in the localities in which the Conecuh, DeSoto, Bienville, Kisatchie, Angelina, and Sabine National Forests are located.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 26th day of June 1952. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[Docket No. 5067 et al.; Order Serial No. E–6548]

RATES AND FARES BETWEEN VICINITIES OF PORTLAND, OREG., AND SEATTLE, WASH., AND FAIRBANKS AND ANCHORAGE, ALASKA

ORDER OF INVESTIGATION AND CONSOLIDATION

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 25th day of June 1952.

The Board is investigating certain rates and fares relating to air transportation between the vicinities of Portland, Oregon, and Seattle, Washington, on the one hand, and Fairbanks and Anchorage, Alaska, on the other, in Docket No. 5067. (Orders Serial Nos. E–5591, E–5752, E–5801, E–6215, E–5845, E–6140, E–6152, E–6263, E–6457, E–6464, and E–6489.)

Alaska Airlines, Inc., having moved to expand the scope of the investigation herein to include all passenger fares on file or to be filed at the time final order is entered herein by all air carriers between the vicinities of Portland, Oreg. and Seattle, Wash., on the one hand, and Anchorage and Fairbanks, Alaska, on the other, and all Large Irregular Air Carriers and parties to the proceeding having been given an opportunity to interpose objections but no person having so objected; the Board finds that:

(a) Prescription of a passenger fare order binding upon all air carriers presently having on file with the Board tariffs affecting air transportation of passengers between the vicinities of Portland, Oreg., and Seattle, Wash., on the one hand, and Anchorage and Fairbanks, Alaska, on the other, may be necessary to insure economic stability in air transportation between these points;

(b) That so much of Alaska's motion as pertains to tariffs not yet on file with the Board does not present a proper subject for investigation at this time;

(c) The rates, fares, and other provisions contained in the tariffs described in Appendix A set forth below may be unlawful for the reason, among others, that they may not show a proper balance between the cost of service, value of service and developmental factors required for a proper growth of air transportation between the points in issue herein; and

(d) The proper disposition of Docket No. 5067 requires consideration of the issues presented by the tariffs described in Appendix A.

Therefore, acting pursuant to the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, and particularly sections 205 (a); 403, 404, and 1002 thereof; It is ordered, That:

(a) An investigation be instituted to determine whether the rates, fares, and other provisions which apply from, to, or between the vicinities of Portland, Oregon, and Seattle, Washington, on the one hand, and Fairbanks and Anchorage, Alaska, on the other, contained in Appendix A may be unjust or unreasonable, unjustly discriminatory, or unduly preferential, or unduly prejudicial, or otherwise unlawful, and if found to be unlawful to determine and prescribe the lawful rates, fares, and other provisions;

(b) This investigation be assigned Docket No. 5619 and be consolidated into Docket No. 5067;

(c) A copy of this order be served on all parties to Docket No. 5067, on those persons named in Appendix A and be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER; and

(d) That to the extent not previously granted herein the motion of Alaska Airlines, Inc., be and it hereby is denied.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

[SEAL] M. C. MULLIGAN,
Secretary.

TRANS-TEXAS RENEWAL CASE, SEGMENTS 2 AND 6

NOTICE OF HEARING

In the matter of the application of Trans-Texas Airways, for renewal of Segments 2 and 6 of its route No. 82.

Notice is hereby given that a hearing in the above-entitled proceeding is assigned to be held on July 22, 1952, at 10:00 a. m., in the Chamber of Commerce Building, Corpus Christi, Tex., before Examiner Walter W. Bryan.

Without limiting the scope of the issues presented by the applications consolidated and the Board's orders entered in the proceeding, particular attention will be directed to the following matters:

1. Do the public convenience and necessity require and should the Board order:

(a) Renewal, in whole or in part, of the temporary certificate of public convenience and necessity of Trans-Texas Airways, for Segments 2 and 6 of its route No. 82, with or without modifications, for additional period of 5 years from March 31, 1952, or for such other period of time as the Board may determine (Docket No. 5233);

(b) Suspension of the certificate of public convenience and necessity of Braniff Airways, Inc., for route No. 9, insofar as such certificate authorizes service to Brownsville, Corpus Christi, and Laredo, Tex., for such period of time as the Board may determine (Docket No. 5259);

(c) Suspension of the certificate of Eastern Air Lines, Inc., for route No. 5, insofar as such certificate authorizes service to Brownsville and Corpus Christi, for such period of time as the Board may determine (Docket No. 5259);

(d) Amendment of Trans-Texas certificate to designate Laredo, Tex., as a co-terminal point with the existing terminal point Mission/McAllen/Edinburg, Tex., on segment 6 of its route No. 82. (Docket No. 4951.)

(e) Amendment of Trans-Texas certificate to redesignate the intermediate point Harlingen, Tex., on segment 2 of its route No. 82, as Harlingen San Benito, Tex. (Docket No. 4414);

(f) Amendment of Trans-Texas certificate, segment 1 of its route No. 82, so as to authorize air transportation to Crystal City, Tex., as an intermediate point on said route (Crystal City Application, Docket No. 5085);

2. Is Trans-Texas a citizen of the United States within the provisions of the act, and is it fit, willing, and able to perform the service under the amended certificate of public convenience and necessity as proposed?

For further details of the issues involved in this proceeding, interested persons are referred to the applications and amendments thereto, the prehearing conference report, petitions, motions, and orders entered in the proceeding, all of which are on file with the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Notice is further given that any person other than parties of record desiring to be heard in this proceeding should file with the Board, on or before July 22, 1952, a statement setting forth such relevant propositions of fact or law on which he desires to be heard.

Dated at Washington, D. C., June 26, 1952.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

DEFENSE PRODUCTION ADMINISTRATION

[D. P. A. Request No. 49—DPAV-38]

REQUEST TO METAL PRODUCTS COMPANY PRODUCTION POOL TO OPERATE AS SMALL BUSINESS ENTERPRISE PRODUCTION POOL AND REQUEST TO CERTAIN COMPANIES TO PARTICIPATE IN OPERATIONS OF SUCH POOL

Pursuant to section 708 of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, the request to Metal Products Company Production Pool to operate as a small business enterprise production pool and the request to the companies hereinafter listed to participate in the operations of such pool, set forth below, were approved by the Attorney General after consultations with respect thereto between the Attorney General, the Chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, and the Administrator of the Defense Production Administration. The voluntary program in accordance with which the pool shall operate has been approved by the Administrator of the Defense Production Administration and found to be in the public interest as contributing to the national defense.

REQUEST TO METAL PRODUCTS COMPANY PRODUCTION POOL

You are requested to operate as a small business enterprise production pool in accordance with the voluntary program as set forth in the papers submitted to the Administrator, Small Defense Plants Administration, Washington, D. C.

In my opinion, the operations of your association as a small business enterprise production pool will assist in the accomplishment of our national defense program.

The Attorney General has approved this request after consultations with respect thereto between his representatives, representatives of the Chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, and my representatives, pursuant to section 708 of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

I approve the voluntary program and find it to be in the public interest as contributing to the national defense. You may commence your operations thereunder as a small business enterprise production pool upon notifying me in writing of your acceptance of this request. Immunity from prosecution under the Federal antitrust laws and the Federal Trade Commission Act will be given upon such acceptance, provided that your operations are within the limits set forth in the approved voluntary program.

Your cooperation in this matter will be appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

HENRY H. FOWLER,
Administrator.

REQUEST TO COMPANIES

You are requested to participate in the operations of Metal Products Company Production Pool, Nashville, Tennessee, which will operate as a small business enterprise production pool in accordance with the voluntary program as set forth in the papers submitted by it to the Administrator, Small Defense Plants Administration, Washington, D. C.

In my opinion, your participation in the operations of this small business enterprise production pool will assist in the accomplishment of our national defense program.

The Attorney General has approved this request after consultations with respect thereto between his representatives, representatives of the Chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, and my representatives, pursuant to section 708 of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

I approve the voluntary program and find it to be in the public interest as contributing to the national defense. You will become a participant therein upon notifying me in writing of your acceptance of this request. Immunity from prosecution under the Federal antitrust laws and the Federal Trade Commission Act will be given upon such acceptance, providing that the operations of this production pool and your participation therein are within the limits set forth in the approved voluntary program.

Your cooperation in this matter will be appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

HENRY H. FOWLER,
Administrator.

Metal Products Company Production Pool accepted the request set forth above to operate as a small business enterprise production pool.

JEFFERSON COUNTY RADIO AND TELEVISION CO. (KJCF)

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of Amos Anthony Govero, Donald Meinrad Donze, and Clifton Matthews Poindexter, doing business as Jefferson County Radio & Television Company (KJCF), Festus, Missouri, Docket No. 10223, File No. BP-8231; Cecil W. Roberts, Chester, Illinois, for construction permits, Docket No. 10224, File No. BP-8477.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 19th day of June 1952:

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled applications requesting construction permits for the use of 1450 kc, with 250 w power, unlimited time, at Festus, Missouri and Chester, Illinois respectively.

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding at a time and place to be specified by subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the technical, financial and other qualifications of the applicant and the applicant partnership and its partners.

2. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the operation of the proposed station and Station KJCF as proposed.

3. To determine the type and character of program services proposed to be rendered and whether they would meet the requirements of the populations and areas proposed to be served.

4. To determine whether the operation of the proposed station and Station KJCF as proposed would involve objectionable interference with Station WPAD, Paducah, Kentucky and WIL, St. Louis, Missouri or with any other existing broadcast stations, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

5. To determine whether the operation of the proposed station and Station KJCF as proposed would involve objectionable interference, each with the other, or with the services proposed in any other pending applications for broadcast facilities, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

6. To determine whether the installation and operation of the proposed station and Station KJCF as proposed would be in compliance with the Commission's rules and Standards of Good Engineering Practice Concerning Standard Broadcast Stations.

7. To determine the overlap, if any, which would exist between the service areas of the proposed station at Chester, Illinois and of Station KREI, Farmington, Missouri, the nature and extent thereof, and whether such overlap, if any, is in contravention of § 3.35 of the Commission's rules.

8. To determine the overlap, if any, which would exist between the service areas of Station KJCF as proposed and Station KSGM, St. Genevieve, Missouri, the nature and extent thereof, and whether such overlap, if any, is in contravention of § 3.35 of the Commission's rules.

9. To determine on a comparative basis which, if either, of the applications in this consolidated proceeding should be granted.

It is further ordered, That, Paducah Broadcasting Company, Inc., licensee of Station WPAD, Paducah, Kentucky, is made a party to this proceeding with respect to the Chester, Illinois, application only and Missouri Broadcasting Corporation, licensee of Station WIL, St. Louis, Missouri is made a party to this proceeding with respect to the Festus, Missouri application only.

[Project No. 2106]

PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR PRELIMINARY PERMIT

JUNE 25, 1952.

Public notice is hereby given that Pacific Gas and Electric Company of San Francisco, California, has made application for preliminary permit pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Power Act (16 U. S. C. 791-825r) for a proposed hydroelectric development, designated as Project No. 2106 and known as the McCloud Nos. 1, 2, 3, and 4, on Angel Creek, Squaw Valley Creek and McCloud River in Shasta and Siskiyou Counties, California, and affecting lands of the United States within the Shasta National Forest. The proposed comprehensive scheme for development of the water power resources of the McCloud River and its tributaries would comprise four successive units of development having a total installed capacity of 374,000 horsepower, and is described as follows: (a) McCloud No. 1 would consist of: the Angel Creek Division, comprising a diversion dam on Angel Creek and a tunnel to convey the flow to McCloud No. 1 Diversion; McCloud No. 1 Diversion, comprising a diversion dam on McCloud River and a tunnel extending to a junction with the Squaw Valley tunnel; a dam about 150 feet high on Squaw Valley Creek, a reservoir of about 110,000 acre-feet capacity and a tunnel to the junction with McCloud No. 1 Diversion tunnel; a tunnel from this junction to the head of the penstock; a penstock; and a power plant located on McCloud River above the mouth of Star City Creek. The total length of tunnels would be about 5 miles. The plant would have an installed capacity of about 29,000 horsepower and the static head would be about 230 feet; (b) McCloud No. 2 would consist of a diversion dam, a tunnel about 3½ miles long, a penstock, and a power plant located on McCloud River below the mouth of Ladybug Creek. The plant would have an installed capacity of about 123,000 horsepower and the static head would be about 640 feet; (c) McCloud No. 3 would consist of a diversion dam, about 2½ miles of tunnel, a penstock, and a power plant located on McCloud River above the mouth of Squaw Valley Creek. The plant would have an installed capacity of about 100,000 horsepower and the static head would be about 470 feet; (d) McCloud No. 4 would consist of a diversion dam, about four miles of tunnel, a penstock, and a power plant located on McCloud River at the head of Shasta Reservoir. The plant would have an installed capacity of about 122,000 horsepower and the static head would be about 495 feet. The energy would be used for public utility purposes and distributed through the applicant's system to customers in the central and northern parts of California.

Any protest against this application or request for any action thereon, with reason for such protest or request, and the name and address of the party or parties so protesting or requesting, should be submitted on or before August 14, 1952, to the Federal Power Commission at Washington 25, D. C.

GENERAL SERVICES ADMINISTRATION

SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY WITH RESPECT TO PROCUREMENT OF WATER SERVICE AT BUREAU OF MINES FACILITY AT MORGANTOWN, W. VA.

1. Pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, as amended (63 Stat. 377, 64 Stat. 578, 65 Stat. 700), and having determined that such action is advantageous to the Government in terms of economy and efficiency, I hereby delegate to the Secretary of the Interior authority to negotiate a contract with the city of Morgantown, West Virginia, through the Morgantown Water Commission, for the provision of public utility water service, including the construction of necessary main extensions, under the following conditions:

a. Pursuant to section 201 (a) (3) of the said act, the contract may be for a period of not to exceed ten years.

b. Such contract may provide for a refundable advance of the cost of main extension necessary to provide such service if the Secretary of the Interior makes an appropriate finding under section 305 (a) of the aforesaid act.

c. Such contract may be negotiated only pursuant to section 302 (c) (9) of the aforesaid act.

2. The authority contained herein, except that referred to in paragraph 1.b. hereof, may be delegated and redelegated in accordance with section 307 (a).

3. The authority conferred herein shall be exercised in accordance with the policies, procedures and controls prescribed by the General Services Administration and shall further be exercised in cooperation with the responsible officers, officials and employees of such Administration.

4. This delegation of authority shall be effective as of June 19, 1952.

[File No. 31-591]

WASHINGTON OIL CO.

NOTICE OF FILING OF APPLICATION FOR EXEMPTION

JUNE 25, 1952.

Notice is hereby given that the Washington Oil Company ("Washington") has filed an application with this Commission requesting exemption on behalf of itself and its public-utility subsidiary, Taylorstown Natural Gas Company ("Taylorstown"), from the provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 pursuant to section 3 (a) (1) thereof.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than July 16, 1952, at 5:30 p. m., e. d. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reason for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law raised by said application proposed to be controverted, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. Said application may be granted at any time after July 16, 1952.

All interested persons are referred to said application which is on file in the office of this Commission for a statement of the facts contained therein, which are summarized as follows:

Washington is organized under the laws of Pennsylvania and is engaged in the production of crude petroleum, substantially all of its operations being carried on in Pennsylvania. Taylorstown is organized under the laws of Pennsylvania and is engaged in the production and distribution of natural gas wholly within that state.

As of December 31, 1951, Washington owned all of the outstanding securities of Taylorstown. Neither Washington nor Taylorstown had any long-term indebtedness and each company had a single class of capital stock outstanding. As of the same date, the consolidated current assets of the system amounted to $152,396.

By the Commission.

NIAGARA MOHAWK POWER CORP. AND OSWEGO CANAL CO.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION AND PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MERGER OF NON-UTILITY SUBSIDIARY INTO PARENT COMPANY

JUNE 25, 1952.

Niagara Mohawk Power Corporation ("Niagara Mohawk"), a public utility company and an exempt holding company, of which The United Corporation, a registered holding company, owned 9.58 per cent of the outstanding voting securities as of May 12, 1952, and Oswego Canal Company ("Oswego"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Niagara Mohawk, having filed a joint application-declaration pursuant to sections 9, 10 and 12 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") with respect to the following proposed transaction:

It is proposed to merge Oswego into Niagara Mohawk. Oswego owns certain rights to the use for hydraulic development of the surplus water available on the east bank of the Oswego River in New York State on a point now designated as Dam No. 7 of the State Barge Canal System. Such water rights are presently leased to Niagara Mohawk which uses the water at its Varick hydroelectric plant located on the river at Dam No. 7.

The Public Service Commission of the State of New York approved the proposed merger by Order dated June 16, 1952.

Due notice having been given of the filing of the said application-declaration, and a hearing not having been requested of or ordered by the Commission; and, to the extent that the provisions of sections 9, 10, and 12 of the act are applicable to the proposed transaction, the Commission finding that such provisions are satisfied and that no adverse findings are necessary, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that the said application-declaration be granted and permitted to become effective forthwith:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that the application-declaration be, and it hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

By the Commission.

UNITED CORP.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE WITH RESPECT TO SALE OF COMMON STOCK OF SUBSIDIARY COMPANY

JUNE 24, 1952.

The United Corporation ("United") has filed a declaration pursuant to section 12 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") and Rule U-44 promulgated thereunder with respect to the proposed sale by it of all of its holdings of the common stock of South Jersey Gas Company ("South Jersey") consisting of 154,231.8 shares representing 28.25 percent of the voting securities of that company. United proposes to make a public offering of 154,230 shares of such stock in accordance with the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50, the remaining 1.8 shares to be sold promptly thereafter in the open market. United proposes to reinvest the proceeds from the sale of such holdings in other securities in accordance with the investment program approved by the Commission by Order dated May 2, 1952.[2]

The sale of United's holdings of South Jersey stock was originally considered by us in approving United's plan for its transformation into an investment company which plan provided, among other things, for a reduction of its holdings of voting stock of Niagara Mohawk Power Corporation ("Niagara Mohawk") to an amount equal to no more than 4.9 percent of the total outstanding voting stock of such company and the sale of its entire holdings of the common stock of South Jersey, the Commission exempting such sale from the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50.[3] The plan also provided for the cancellation of outstanding option warrants to purchase common stock of United, and for certain amendments to United's charter.

In August, 1951, a petition to review the Commission's order of June 26, 1951 approving the plan, together with a motion for a stay of that order, was filed in the Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia by Edward R. Downing, a common stockholder and by Randolph Phillips on his own behalf and in the behalf of certain other stockholders.[4] By order dated November 15, 1951 the Court directed the Commission's order be stayed pending review insofar as the order provides for the disposition by United of its shares of Niagara Mohawk's common stock. Such stay order did not affect consummation of the balance of the plan, certain portions of which have already been consummated.

United was unable to dispose of the South Jersey common stock by private sale in January, 1952 and now proposes to make a public offering of such stock. At the time of the issuance of our order approving United's plan, United owned 11.9 per cent of the voting securities of Niagara Mohawk. As a result of certain sales by United of its holdings of Class A Stock of Niagara Mohawk and the issuance by Niagara Mohawk of additional common stock to the public, the holdings by United of voting securities of Niagara Mohawk have been reduced to 9.62 per cent, as of March 31, 1952. Consequently, in the event of consummation of the proposed sale of South Jersey, United will cease to hold as much as ten per cent of the voting securities of any public utility company.

Notice of the filing of the declaration with respect to the public sale by competitive bidding instead of the private sale as proposed in the plan was given to all the participants in the review proceedings and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Randolph Phillips and Edward R. Downing have advised the Commission that they have no objection to the proposed sale of the South Jersey common stock, but do object to the investment of the proceeds of such sale in other securities in accordance with our order of May 2, 1952, and request that the Commission require distribution of the proceeds to the stockholders of United. In our findings and opinion dated May 2, 1952 approving an investment program for United during the period until it shall have ceased to be a holding company, we found that in the light of the restrictions to be imposed by us upon United's investment program, there was no basis for Phillips' contentions therein that any investment authorization might interfere with United's taking such future action as may be required in the event the pending petition for review should be decided in favor of petitioners. We still are of the same opinion and therefore deny such request.

Phillips and Downing also request that the United Corporation be required to "correct its declaration so as to reveal the original cost of all securities now held in its portfolio. * * *" In that connection they repeat objections heretofore made to statements contained in prior annual reports and proxy solicitation material of United, argue that United improperly describes itself as "engaged in the business of an investment company," and allege that its accounts do not comply with Regulation S–X applicable to the accounts of investment companies registered as such pursuant to the Investment Company Act of 1940.[1]

United's declaration is a sworn document, and in any event subject to statutory sanctions if misleading. However, such a document necessarily differs in purpose from a prospectus intended to inform public security holders of the relevant facts which will help them decide whether or not to purchase securities, or from a proxy statement designed to aid them (along with opposition material) in deciding whether or not to respond to an appeal for support in a proxy contest. The declaration is addressed primarily to the Commission for aid in the exercise of its regulatory jurisdiction. For purposes of our decision whether to permit the instant declaration to become effective, there is not the slightest relevance to reviewing the history of the United management and the conflicting inferences which management and opposition have attempted to draw from the history of its investments.

Viewing the declaration in the light of its purpose, we regard it as adequately informative as to the transaction presently proposed, and in no way misleading. We see nothing to be gained in now deciding whether the declaration as a whole, or any part thereof, might require qualification if used as selling literature or as a campaign document in connection with the solicitation of proxies.

Nor do we see any merit to the objections to the manner in which United now records its investments. Irrespective of any statements to the contrary United is still a registered holding company and therefore is not subject to the provisions of the Investment Company Act of 1940 or the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. In any event, the basis used by United for carrying its investments in its accounts conforms to the accounting requirements of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and is not inconsistent with the accounting regulations applicable to investment companies registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940. Accordingly, we perceive that no useful purpose would be served by granting the request made in respect of amending United's declaration and the holding of a hearing thereon and therefore such requests are denied.

In our findings and opinion approving United's plan we reserved for future determination whether upon consummation of the transactions proposed by the plan United would be entitled to an order pursuant to section 5 (d) of the act declaring that it has "ceased to be a holding company," and upon what terms and conditions, necessary for the protection of investors, its registration as a holding company shall cease to be in effect.

We are of the opinion that consummation of the proposed sale of South Jersey will not affect our jurisdiction to require United, as a condition precedent to its registration ceasing to be in effect, to consummate the transactions proposed in the plan as approved by the Commission, or any modification thereof which may be found necessary to comply with the views of the reviewing court, or of any District Court to which application may be made for enforcement of the plan, irrespective of whether or not it may be determined as a matter of fact that United has ceased to be a holding company with respect to each of its other former subsidiary companies. Nevertheless, since the proposed transaction with respect to South Jersey is of relatively minor consequence as compared to the other issues presented by the plan, we have concluded that it would be inappropriate to go forward with the transaction at the present time if there were any danger that its consummation would serve as an excuse for future resistance on the part of United to whatever action may be necessary to completely effectuate the purposes of section 11 (b) of the act. Accordingly, we deem it necessary and appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and to prevent the circumvention of the provisions of the act and the rules, regulations and orders thereunder, to require United, to stipulate in a manner satisfactory to the Commission that it will not contest the jurisdiction of the Commission by reason of the sale of the South Jersey common stock. An appropriate stipulation has been filed by United and made a part of this record.

Fees and expenses to be incurred by United in connection with the proposed transaction are estimated at $22,777.66, including the amounts of $4,000 payable to Stone & Webster Service Corporation for engineering services, $3,500 to Niles & Niles for accounting services, $8,500 for printing, $5,000 payable to Whitman, Ransom, Coulson & Goetz for legal services and $1,000 payable to Cole & Cole for legal services. The fee of independent counsel for the underwriters is stated to be in the amount of $5,000 payable to Simpson, Thacher & Bartlett, and will be paid by the successful bidder.

We find with respect to the proposed sale of the common stock of South Jersey that the applicable provisions of the act and rules promulgated thereunder are satisfied and that no adverse findings are necessary and deem it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that said declaration be permitted to become effective:

It is therefore ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of said act, that the said declaration be, and hereby is, permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24 and subject to the further condition that the proposed sale of common stock of South Jersey shall not be consummated until the results of competitive bidding shall have been made a matter of record in this proceeding and a further order shall have been entered by this Commission in the light of the record so completed, which order may contain such further terms and conditions as may then be deemed appropriate.

By the Commission.

KITTERY ELECTRIC LIGHT CO.

ORDER AUTHORIZING SALE BY SUBSIDIARY OF REGISTERED HOLDING COMPANY OF PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF UNSECURED NOTES

JUNE 25, 1952.

Kittery Electric Light Company ("Kittery Electric"), a subsidiary company of New England Gas and Electric Association, a registered holding company, having filed an application pursuant to section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and Rule U-50 thereunder with respect to the following proposed transaction:

Kittery Electric, all of whose outstanding capital stocks are owned by one of NEGEA's subsidiary companies, New Hampshire Electric Company, which has been granted an exemption as a holding company pursuant to section 3 (a) (1) of the act, proposes to issue and sell privately $150,000 principal amount of unsecured notes to be dated June 1, 1952, bearing interest at the rate of 4 percent per annum and to mature June 1, 1977. The notes are to be sold in equal principal amounts of $75,000 each, to Union Mutual Life Insurance Company, and Maine Savings Bank, both of Portland, Maine, at a price of 101 percent of principal amount, plus accrued interest.

The notes provide, among other things, for the issuance of additional long-term debt, subject to the limitation that aggregate long-term debt shall not exceed $250,000 plus 60 percent of the cost or fair value (whichever is less) of net property additions made subsequent to April 30, 1952, provided net earnings of the company, as defined in the notes, for the period specified therein, are at least 2½ times the annual interest charges on all long-term indebtedness to be outstanding. The notes also provide that the company will not mortgage, pledge, or create any lien on any of its property (except for purchase-money mortgages or liens and for pledges in the usual course of business as security for loans maturing in less than one year) without securing the notes equally and ratably with all other obligations secured thereby.

In addition, the notes provide for an annual cash sinking fund payment, commencing April 15, 1953, sufficient to redeem 1½ percent of the aggregate principal amount of the issue. The notes also provide that the company will not, except with the consent of the holders thereof, declare any dividends from earned surplus existing at December 31, 1951.

The application states that Kittery Electric will use the proceeds from the sale of the notes to reimburse its treasury for expenditures therefrom for construction and to finance future construction; and that total expenses in connection with the proposed transactions are estimated at $2,500, including a commission of $1,500 to H. M. Payson & Co., investment bankers, for arranging the sale, and legal fees of $250 payable to Verrill Dana Walker Philbrick & Whitehouse, counsel for the company.

An order has been issued by the Maine Public Utilities Commission authorizing the issuance and sale of the notes.

Kittery Electric requests that the Commission's order herein become effective forthwith upon issuance.

The Commission finding that said application, as amended, satisfies the requirements of the applicable provisions of the act and the rules and regulations thereunder, that it is not necessary to impose any terms and conditions other than as set forth below, and that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that the amended application be granted effective forthwith:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that said application as amended be, and it hereby is, granted effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

WISCONSIN SOUTHERN GAS CO.

ORDER AUTHORIZING ISSUANCE AND SALE OF NOTES

JUNE 25, 1952.

Wisconsin Southern Gas Company ("Gas Company"), a public-utility subsidiary of Wisconsin Southern Gas and Appliance Corporation, a registered holding company, having filed an application pursuant to section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") with respect to the following transactions:

Gas Company proposes to issue and sell to the State of Wisconsin Investment Board $150,000 principal amount of 10-Year 4½ Percent Serial Notes at the principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest; and

The application having been filed June 9, 1952 and notice of the filing thereof having been given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated under the act, and the Commission not having received a request for or ordered a hearing with respect to said application within the time specified in said notice, or otherwise; and

The Commission finding that the requirements of the applicable provisions of the act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder are satisfied, that no adverse findings are necessary, that no basis appears for imposing any terms or conditions other than those specified in Rule U-24, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers to grant the application and to grant applicant's request for acceleration of the effectiveness of this order; and

It appearing that the estimated fees and expenses, including counsel fees of $1,500, payable to Aberg, Bell, Blake & Conrad, accountants' fee of $250, payable to Haskins & Sells, and miscellaneous expenses of $250 are not unreasonable and should be approved:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, that said application be, and it hereby is, granted, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed by Rule U-24, and that this order shall become effective upon its issuance.

GENERAL PUBLIC UTILITIES CORP. ET AL.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED CAPITAL CONTRIBUTION, ISSUANCE, SALE, ACQUISITION OF SECURITIES, AND ORDER AUTHORIZING PROXY SOLICITATION

JUNE 25, 1952.

In the matter of General Public Utilities Corporation, Associated Electric Company, Pennsylvania Electric Company, File No. 70-2894; Pennsylvania Electric Company, File No. 68-157.

Notice is hereby given that a joint application-declaration (File No. 70-2894) has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("the act") by General Public Utilities Corporation ("GPU"), a registered holding company, by Associated Electric Company ("Aelec"), subsidiary of GPU and likewise a registered holding company, and by Pennsylvania Electric Company ("Penelec"), subsidiary of Aelec and an operating utility company. Applicants have designated sections 6 (a), 6 (b), 7, 9 (a), 10 and 12 of the act, and Rules U-23, U-45, and U-50 thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions, which are summarized as follows:

GPU proposes to make cash capital contributions to Aelec in the aggregate amount of $5,000,000. Penelec proposes to issue and sell to Aelec, and Aelec proposes to purchase from Penelec (utilizing for this purpose the cash contributions from GPU aforesaid) an aggregate of 250,000 additional shares of Common Stock ("Additional Common Stock") of Penelec for a purchase price equal to the par value thereof, namely, $20 per share, or an aggregate of $5,000,000.

Subject to obtaining the consent of the holders of a majority of the shares of its outstanding Preferred Stock, Penelec proposes to increase the number of shares of its authorized Preferred Stock from 300,000 to 370,000 shares of the par value of $100 per share. Penelec has filed a declaration (File No. 68–157) with respect to the proposed solicitation of proxies from the holders of its outstanding Preferred Stock.

Penelec proposes publicly to invite bids for the purchase from it of $9,500,000 principal amount of additional First Mortgage Bonds ("New Bonds") and 45,000 additional shares of Cumulative Preferred Stock, par value $100 per share ("New Preferred Stock"), the price to Penelec to be specified in such bids and to be not less than 100 percent nor more than 102¾ percent of the principal amount or par value.

Penelec proposes to utilize the net proceeds of the New Bonds, New Preferred Stock, and Additional Common Stock, estimated at not less than $19,000,000, as follows:

(1) $7,000,000 will be used to partially reimburse Penelec's treasury for construction expenditures therefrom during the period June 30, 1951–April 30, 1952. Out of its treasury funds Penelec will pay its bank loans maturing in September 1952 in the aggregate principal amount of $2,875,000.

(2) The balance of approximately $12,000,000 will be used to meet a part of Penelec's construction expenditures subsequent to April 30, 1952, or to partially reimburse its treasury for such expenditures, or to repay bank loans incurred subsequent to April 30, 1952 (including $3,625,000 borrowed in May and June 1952), the proceeds of which have been or will be applied to such purposes.

Penelec estimates that approximately $19,000,000 will be required during the eight months ending December 31, 1952 in furthering its general construction program.

Penelec anticipates that the issue and sale by it of the New Bonds, New Preferred Stock, and Additional Common Stock will be expressly authorized by the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission, the regulatory commission of the State in which it is organized and doing business.

Penelec estimates that, in addition to its ordinary expenditures for printing and mailing, it will expend not over $1,000 in its proxy solicitation. Its expenses in connection with the issuance and sale of the proposed securities will be supplied by amendment. The other companies will incur no special legal expenses in the matter.

[1] United's investments are carried on its books at values based on those restated as at June 30, 1938, with subsequent additions at cost. In the reorganization of Public Service Corporation of New Jersey United received securities of Public Service Electric and Gas Company and of South Jersey. The carrying value of the South Jersey common stock on United's books ($641,393) represents an allocation of the carrying value of the Public Service Corporation of New Jersey common stock which allocation was made with the approval of this Commission. As of June 19, 1952, United's holdings of South Jersey common stock had an indicated market value of approximately $2,500,000.

Penelec requests that its declaration as to proxy solicitation be permitted to become effective forthwith, pursuant to Rule U-65 (b). Deeming it to be in the interest of the stockholders and in the public interest that the proxy solicitation should proceed forthwith as proposed:

It is ordered, That the aforesaid declaration of Penelec in File No. 68–157 with respect to proxy solicitation be, and the same hereby is, permitted to become effective forthwith.

With respect to the matters covered by the joint application-declaration of GPU, Aelec, and Penelec in File No. 70–2894:

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than July 15, 1952, at 5:30 p. m., e. d. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reason for such request, and the issues, if any, of law or fact proposed to be controverted; or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date said application-declaration, as filed or as amended, may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof.

By the Commission.

BALDWIN SECURITIES CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

JUNE 25, 1952.

Notice is hereby given that Baldwin Securities Corporation (Applicant), a registered investment company, has filed an application pursuant to subdivision (c) of Rule N-23C-1 and section 23 (c) (3) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 for an order of the Commission permitting Applicant to purchase all of the stock of its stockholders (not affiliated persons) holding not more than 49 shares of Applicant's common stock, par value 1 cent per share, to a maximum of 125,000 shares, at the mean of the high and low market prices on day of purchase but no purchase to be made if such market value exceeds $4.3125 a share or 35 cents a share in excess of net asset value, whichever is lower, under an offer to commence July 15 and to terminate July 31, 1952, subject to extension at Applicant's discretion.

Applicant is a closed-end, non-diversified investment company organized November 8, 1950, to take over certain assets of the Baldwin Locomotive Works (now Baldwin-Lima-Hamilton Corporation) and all of Applicant's stock was distributed to the stockholders of the Baldwin Locomotive Works. As at March 10, 1952, Applicant had outstanding 2,375,298 shares held by 15,129 shareholders. Of such shareholders 8,055 persons, or 53.2 percent, held of record only 125,037 shares or 5.27 percent of the total shares outstanding. Annual savings are estimated at $8,600 if all of the 125,000 shares are purchased plus an additional $37,305 in the event of subsequent dissolution.

If all of the 125,000 shares are tendered the cost to Applicant would aggregate $468,750, computed at the recent market price of $3.75 a share, or $539,062.50, computed at the maximum price of $4.3125 a share, plus estimated expenses of $13,615. If the spread between market and net asset values equals the maximum of 35 cents a share, remaining stockholders will suffer a dilution of $43,750 by virtue thereof.

For the period January through May, 1952 the price of Applicant's stock on the New York Curb Exchange ranged from a high of 4½ to a low of 3¼ and on June 13, 1952 was $3.75. The net asset value per share at June 13, 1952, was computed at $3.75. Subparagraph (6) of paragraph (a) of Rule N–23C–1 requires that the purchase be made at a price not above the market value, if any, or the asset value, whichever is lower, at the time of purchase. Although the market value is currently equal to the asset value, exemption is nevertheless requested from this requirement in view of the possibility that market value may exceed asset value during the tender period.

All interested persons are referred to said application which is on file in the offices of the Commission in Washington, D. C. for a more detailed statement of the proposed transaction and the matters of fact and law asserted.

Notice is further given that an order granting the application may be issued by the Commission on or at any time after July 9, 1952, upon such conditions as the Commission may deem necessary or appropriate unless prior thereto a hearing upon the application is ordered by this Commission, as provided in Rule N-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act.

Any interested person may submit to the Commission, in writing, not later than July 7, 1952, at 5:30 p. m., his views or any additional facts bearing upon the application or the desirability of a hearing thereon, or a request to the Commission that a hearing be held thereon. Any such communication or request should state briefly the nature of the interest of the person submitting such information or requesting a hearing, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by the application which he desires to controvert. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C.

By the Commission.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 10368

AMENDMENT OF EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 10300,[1] ENTITLED "PROVIDING FOR THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE MUTUAL SECURITY ACT OF 1951 AND RELATED STATUTES"

Executive Order No. 10300 of November 1, 1951, entitled "Providing for the Administration of the Mutual Security Act of 1951 and Related Statutes", is hereby amended to read as follows:

"By virtue of the authority vested in me by the laws referred to in section 1 of this order and by sections 301 to 303, inclusive, of title 3 of the United States Code, and as President of the United States, it is ordered as follows:

"SECTION 1. Delegation to the Director for Mutual Security of functions of the President. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this order, the functions conferred upon the President by the following-designated laws are hereby delegated to the Director for Mutual Security: the Mutual Security Act of 1951, 65 Stat. 373, as amended; the Mutual Defense Assistance Act of 1949, 63 Stat. 714, as amended (22 U. S. C. 1571-1604); the act of May 22, 1947, 61 Stat. 103, as amended (22 U. S. C. 1401-1408); and those provisions of the Economic Cooperation Act of 1948, as amended (22 U. S. C. 1501 et seq.), which are continued in effect by section 503 of the Mutual Security Act of 1951, as amended.

"(b) There are hereby excluded from the functions delegated by section 1 (a) of this order:

"(1) The functions conferred upon the President by the laws referred to in section 1 (a) of this order with respect to the appointment of officers required to be appointed by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, the transmittal of periodic or special reports to the Congress, and the termination or withdrawal of assistance.

"(2) The functions conferred upon the President with respect to findings, determinations, certification, agreements, transfers of funds, or directives, as the case may be, by sections 101 (a) (1), 101 (b), 202, 302 (a), 303 (a) (last sentence), 401, 503 (a) (3), 507 (except as provided in Executive Order No. 10338 of April 5, 1952), 511, 513 (a), 513 (b), 530, and 532 of the Mutual Security Act of 1951, as amended; sections 303, 402, 407 (b) (2), 408 (f), and 411 (b) of the Mutual Defense Assistance Act of 1949, as amended; sections 105 (c), 111 (b) (2) (first clause), and 119 of the Economic Cooperation Act of 1948, as amended; and so much of the functions conferred by section 5 of the act of May 22, 1947, as amended, as relates to regulations providing for coordination among representatives of the United States Government in each foreign country concerned.

"(c) Funds which have been or may be appropriated or otherwise made available to the President to carry out the laws referred to in section 1 (a) hereof, and section 12 of the Mutual Security Act of 1952 (Public Law 400, approved June 20, 1952), shall be deemed to be allocated to

The Director for Mutual Security shall, consistent with applicable law, allocate to the Department of State such amounts of funds now or hereafter available as the Director shall determine to be required for carrying out the purposes of the said sections 117 (c), as amended, and 535, including the liquidation of obligations incurred prior to July 1, 1952, under the said section 117 (c), as amended.

"(b) The Department of State is hereby designated as the department of the Government which shall after June 30, 1952, exercise the authority to make informational media guaranties under section 111 (b) (3) of the Economic Cooperation Act of 1948, as amended (22 U. S. C. 1509 (b) (3)), and section 536 of the Mutual Security Act of 1951, as amended, and to administer such guaranties made prior to July 1, 1952. The Director for Mutual Security, after consultation with the Secretary of State, shall fix (and may from time to time revise) an amount representing that portion of the limitation prescribed by section 111 (b) (3) (v) of the Economic Cooperation Act of 1948, as amended, which may be utilized by the Secretary of State for informational media guaranties, including the liquidation of obligations outstanding under such guaranties as of the close of business on June 30, 1952.

"(c) There shall be transferred to the Department of State so much of the personnel, records, and property of the Mutual Security Agency relating to the functions referred to in sections 2 (a) and 2 (b) of this order as the Director for Mutual Security shall determine to be necessary for use in connection with such functions.

"SEC. 3. Delegation of functions relating to movement of migrants and to United Nations Children's Fund. (a) The function conferred upon the President by section 534 of the Mutual Security Act of 1951, as amended, of contributing to the Provisional Intergovernmental Committee for the Movement of Migrants from Europe is hereby delegated to the Secretary of State.

"(b) The function conferred upon the President by section 12 of the Mutual Security Act of 1952 of contributing to the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund is hereby delegated to the Secretary of State.

"(c) The Director for Mutual Security shall allocate to the Department of State funds which have been or may be appropriated or otherwise made available to carry out the functions referred to in sections 3 (a) and 3 (b) of this order.

"SEC. 4. International development. The administration of programs under the Act for International Development (Title IV of the act of June 5, 1950, 64 Stat. 204, as amended (22 U. S. C. 1557 et seq.)), in accordance with Executive Order No. 10159 of September 8, 1950, shall be subject to coordination, direction, and supervision by the Director for Mutual Security in accordance with section 501 (a) of the Mutual Security Act of 1951, as amended; and the said Executive Order No. 10159 is amended accordingly.

"SEC. 5. Coordination with foreign policy. The Secretary of State and the Director for Mutual Security shall establish and maintain arrangements which will insure that the programs included in the Mutual Security Act of 1951, as amended, shall be carried out in conformity with the established foreign policy of the United States.

"SEC. 6. Interrelationship of Director and Secretary of Defense. (a) Consonant with section 501 (a) of the Mutual Security Act of 1951, as amended, the Secretary of Defense shall exercise the responsibility and authority vested in him by section 506 (a) of the said Act, as amended, subject to coordination, direction, and supervision by the Director for Mutual Security.

"(b) The Secretary of Defense shall keep the Director for Mutual Security fully and currently informed of all matters, including prospective action, relating to the establishment of priorities under section 506 (b) and the furnishing of military items under section 506 (c) of the Mutual Security Act of 1951, as amended.

"SEC. 7. Economic cooperation. (a) December 30, 1951, is hereby fixed as the date on which sections 502 (a), 502 (b) (2), and 504 (b) of the Mutual Security Act of 1951 shall take effect.

"(b) The Mutual Security Agency is hereby designated as the agency responsible for liquidating any outstanding affairs of the Economic Cooperation Administration which are now or hereafter required to be discontinued by law; and the said Agency shall be deemed to be the successor of the said Administration in all respects, subject to the provisions of the Mutual Security Act of 1951, as amended.

"SEC. 8. Transfer of personnel, property, records, and funds. So much of the personnel, records, property, and unexpended balances of appropriations, allocations, and other funds of the Department of State as the Director of the Bureau of the Budget determines to relate to functions under the Mutual Defense Assistance Act of 1949, as amended, and the said act of May 22, 1947, and to be required by the Director for Mutual Security for the performance of his functions hereunder shall be transferred to the Director for Mutual Security.

"SEC. 9. Prior orders. (a) Effective as of the date fixed in section 7 (a) hereof, with respect to provisions then in force, and except as may be inappropriate, references in prior Executive orders to the Economic Cooperation Administration, the Administrator for Economic Cooperation, and the United States Special Representative for (or in) Europe, shall be considered as references to the Mutual Security Agency, the Director for Mutual Security, and the Special Representative in Europe (provided for in section 504 (a) of the Mutual Security Act of 1951, as amended), respectively.

"(b) To the extent that any provision of any prior Executive order is inconsistent with the provisions of this order, the latter shall control and such prior provision is amended accordingly.

"(c) All orders, regulations, rulings, certificates, directives, agreements, contracts, delegations, determinations, and other actions of any department, agency, or other establishment or officer of the Government relating to any function or under any authority continued in effect by the Mutual Security Act of 1951, as amended, shall remain in effect except as they are inconsistent herewith or are hereafter amended or revoked under proper authority.

"(d) Executive Order No. 10099 of January 27, 1950, is hereby revoked. The International Security Affairs Committee (approved by the President December 19, 1950) is hereby terminated. The provisions of the identical letters of the President transmitted to the Secretary of State and the Administrator for Economic Cooperation on April 5, 1951, are hereby revoked.

"SEC. 10. Definitions. As used in this order the term 'functions' embraces duties, powers, responsibilities, authority, and discretion."

EXECUTIVE ORDER 10369

FURTHER DESIGNATION PURSUANT TO SECTION 103 (a) OF THE RENEGOTIATION ACT OF 1951

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Renegotiation Act of 1951, 65 Stat. 7, hereinafter referred to as the Act, and as President of the United States, it is ordered as follows:

SECTION 1. The Bureau of Reclamation, which exercises functions having a direct and immediate connection with the national defense, is hereby designated, pursuant to section 103 (a) of the Act, as an agency of the Government included within the definition of the term "Department" for the purposes of Title I of the Act.

SEC. 2. In accordance with section 102 of the Act, the provisions of Title I of the Act shall be applicable to all contracts with the Bureau of Reclamation, and related subcontracts, to the extent of the amounts received or accrued on or after the first day of July, 1952, whether such contracts or subcontracts were made on, before, or after that date.

Chapter IX—Production and Marketing Administration (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Fresh Pea Order 1—1952]

PART 910—FRESH PEAS AND CAULIFLOWER GROWN IN ALAMOSA, RIO GRANDE, CONEJOS, COSTILLA, AND SAGUACHE COUNTIES IN COLORADO.

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 910.316 Fresh Pea Order 1—1952—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 67 and Order No. 10, as amended (7 CFR Part 910), regulating the handling of fresh peas and cauliflower grown in Alamosa, Rio Grande, Conejos, Costilla, and Saguache Counties in Colorado, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Administrative Committee, established pursuant to said marketing agreement and amended order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that (i) the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, (ii) more orderly marketing in the public interest, than would otherwise prevail, will be promoted by regulating the shipment of fresh peas, in the manner set forth in this section, on and after the effective date of this section, (iii) compliance with this section will not require any preparation on the part of handlers which cannot be completed by the effective date, (iv) a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for such preparation, and (v) information regarding the committee's recommendation has been made available to producers and handlers in the production area.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning 12:01 a. m., m. s. t., July 7, 1952 and ending at 12:01 a. m., m. s. t., September 12, 1952, no handler shall handle any fresh peas unless such peas grade at least U. S. No. 1 and are of a minimum pod length of three (3) inches.

(2) The terms used in this section shall have the same meaning as when used in Order No. 10, as amended (7 CFR Part 910), and the grades and sizes used in the section shall have the same meaning assigned to these terms in the U. S. Standards for Fresh Peas (14 F. R. 564), including the tolerances set forth therein.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup. 608c)

PART 926—FRESH PRUNES GROWN IN UMATILLA COUNTY, OREG., AND WALLA WALLA AND COLUMBIA COUNTIES, WASH.

ORDER TERMINATING PROVISIONS OF MARKETING AGREEMENT NO. 77 AND ORDER NO. 26

Notice was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER issue (16 F. R. 13001) of December 27, 1951, that the Department was giving consideration to the proposed termination of Marketing Agreement No. 77 and Order No. 26 (7 CFR Part 926) regulating the handling of fresh prunes grown in Umatilla County, Oregon, and Walla Walla and Columbia Counties, Washington, effective under the applicable provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

After consideration of all relevant matters presented including the proposal set forth in the aforesaid notice which was submitted by the Control Committee (established pursuant to said marketing agreement and order as the agency to administer the provisions thereof), it is hereby found and determined that the provisions of said marketing agreement and order do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

It is, therefore, ordered, That the said marketing agreement and order regulating the handling of fresh prunes grown in Umatilla County, Oregon, and Walla Walla and Columbia Counties, Washington, be, and they are hereby terminated, effective at 11:59 p. m., e. s. t., June 30, 1952, pursuant to section 8c (16) (A) of the aforementioned act and the applicable provisions of the aforesaid marketing agreement and order.

It is, therefore, further ordered, That the members of the aforesaid Control Committee be, and they hereby are, discharged from any obligation to serve as joint trustees pursuant to section 3 of Article X of the said marketing agreement and § 926.11 (c) of the said order and from any and all further obligations under the said marketing agreement and order, since the said committee has liquidated its affairs and has, upon instructions of the Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, delivered its books and records to a representative of said Branch. Such discharge and release is to become effective at the time of the termination of the said marketing agreement and order.

It is further found and determined that good cause exists for making this order effective less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER for the reason that this order relieves restrictions.

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter I—Bureau of Internal Revenue, Department of the Treasury

Subchapter A—Income and Excess Profits Taxes

[T. D. 5915; Regs. 129]

PART 24—CONSOLIDATED INCOME AND EXCESS PROFITS TAX RETURNS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

On May 14, 1952, notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (17 F. R. 4383) to conform Regulations 129 (26 CFR Part 24) to the Revenue Act of 1951, approved October 20, 1951. After consideration of all relevant matter presented by interested persons regarding the proposed rules, the amendments to Regulations 129 set forth below are hereby adopted.

PARAGRAPH 1. Section 24.12 (b) is amended by striking the period at the end of subparagraph (4) and inserting in lieu thereof the following: ", except as otherwise provided in section 613 of the Revenue Act of 1951. Section 613 of that act relates to the withdrawal within 90 days after October 20, 1951 (the date of the enactment of the act), of consents for the first taxable year ending after June 30, 1950, with respect to corporations described in section 454 (f)."

PAR. 2. Section 24.30 (a) is amended by inserting immediately after "the consolidated adjusted normal-tax net income and the consolidated adjusted corporation surtax net income" the following: "(or, for taxable years beginning in 1951, the consolidated 1951 adjusted normal-tax net income)".

PAR. 3. Section 24.30 (b) is amended by adding immediately after subparagraph (4) the following:

(5) In case of mutual savings bank conducting life insurance business. If the affiliated group for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1951, includes a mutual savings bank which, if a separate return were filed, would be subject to the alternative tax of section 110 (a) (relating to a mutual savings bank conducting a life insurance business), the provisions of section 110 (a) shall apply to each member of the group and the alternative tax of each corporation under section 110 (a) shall be computed with reference to the consolidated net income of the group determined without regard to any items of gross income or deductions properly allocable to the business of the life insurance department of the mutual savings bank, and with reference to the net income of such life insurance department determined under the provisions of section 110 (a) (2).

PAR. 4. Section 24.30 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) Limitations on excess profits tax. The consolidated excess profits tax liability under section 430 (a) shall be whichever of the following amounts is the lesser:

(1) An amount equal to 30 percent of the consolidated adjusted excess profits net income.

(2) Whichever of the following is applicable to the taxable year:

(i) In the case of a taxable year ending before April 1, 1951, an amount equal to the excess of 62 percent of the consolidated section 433 (a) excess profits net income for the taxable year over the tax which would be imposed for the taxable year under sections 13, 14, and 15, and supplement G, whichever are applicable to the affiliated group, computed (subject to section 108, if applicable, and to section 141 (c)) as if the amount of the consolidated normal-tax net income and the amount of the consolidated corporation surtax net income (or the amount subject to the rate of tax in such supplement) were equal to the amount of the consolidated section 433 (a) excess profits net income for such year.

(ii) In the case of the calendar year 1951, an amount equal to the excess of 17¼ percent of the consolidated section 433 (a) excess profits net income for the taxable year over an amount which bears the same ratio (but not in excess of 100 percent) to the amount of the increase of 2 percent provided in section 141 (c) in the surtax liability as the amount of the consolidated section 433 (a) excess profits net income bears to the amount of the consolidated corporation surtax net income.

(iii) In the case of a taxable year beginning after March 31, 1951, an amount equal to the excess of 18 percent of the consolidated section 433 (a) excess profits net income for the taxable year over an amount which bears the same ratio (but not in excess of 100 percent) to the increase of 2 percent provided in section 141 (c) in the surtax liability as the amount of the consolidated section 433 (a) excess profits net income bears to the amount of the consolidated corporation surtax net income.

(3) If the affiliated group commenced business after July 1, 1945, and if the taxable year is the first, second, third, fourth, or fifth taxable year of the group, the amount determined under section 430 (e) for such taxable year with reference to the consolidated section 433 (a) excess profits net income. The following rules shall apply for the purpose of this subparagraph:

(i) The group shall be deemed to have commenced business on the earliest date on which any member commenced business, and the first, second, third, fourth, and fifth taxable year of the group shall be determined under section 430 (e) (2) (A) with reference to the taxable year in which the group is deemed to have commenced business and by applying the rules prescribed in § 24.2 (f) for determining the taxable years of the group.

(ii) In determining when any member commenced business, and in applying the rules of § 24.2 (f), the existence and commencement of business of each member of the group shall be determined under the provisions of section 430 (e) (2) (B).

(iii) The limitation of section 430 (e) (3) (relating to income from contracts subject to a renegotiation act) shall be determined with reference to the aggregate of the gross income of the several members of the group and with reference to the aggregate of the gross income of the several members from the contracts and subcontracts described in such section. For the purpose of section 430 (e) (3), the gross income of the several members shall be determined without regard to dividends, without regard to gains from the sale or exchange of capital assets (not including gains of the character described in section 117 (j)), and without regard to gains of the character described in section 117 (j) if the group has a consolidated section 117 (j) net gain, and such gross income shall be properly adjusted to avoid duplication by reason of transactions between members of the group.

PAR. 5. Section 24.31 (a) (3) is amended as follows:

(A) By changing the parenthetical expression "(not including as a third, fourth, or fifth preceding taxable year any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1950)" in subdivision (i) to read as follows: "(not including as a third preceding taxable year any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1948, unless such preceding taxable year began after December 31, 1946, and unless all members of the group for such preceding taxable year commenced business after December 31, 1945, and not including as a fourth or fifth preceding taxable year any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1950)".

(B) By changing the parenthetical expression "(not including as a third, fourth, or fifth preceding taxable year any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1950)" in subdivision (ii) to read as follows: "(not including as a third preceding taxable year any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1948, unless such preceding taxable year began after December 31, 1946, and unless the corporation commenced business after December 31, 1945, and not including as a fourth or fifth preceding taxable year any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1950)."

PAR. 6. Section 24.31 (a) (14) is amended to read as follows:

(14) Consolidated section 26 (b) credit. The consolidated section 26 (b) credit, relating to dividends received, shall be the sum of:

(i) An amount equal to 85 percent of the aggregate dividends, of the class with respect to which credit is allowed by section 26 (b), received by the several affiliated corporations, not including dividends on the preferred stock of a public utility subject to the provisions of subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph, and not including dividends from foreign corporations,

(ii) For any taxable year for which a percentage is specified in section 26 (b) (2), an amount determined by applying the percentage specified for the taxable year to the aggregate dividends received in such year by the several affiliated corporations on the preferred stock of a public utility described in section 26 (h) (including only those dividends with respect to which the credit provided in section 26 (h) for dividends paid is allowable), and

(iii) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1950, the aggregate of the amounts computed under section 26 (b) (3) (relating to credit for dividends received from certain foreign corporations) for the several members of the group, but in an amount not greater than 85 percent of the consolidated adjusted net income computed without regard to the consolidated net operating loss deduction.

PAR. 7. Section 24.31 (a) (15) is amended by striking out that part of subdivision (i) which precedes (a) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

(i) With respect to a taxable year beginning after June 30, 1950, and the calendar year 1950, an amount determined by applying the percentage specified for the taxable year in section 26 (h) (1) to the lesser of—

PAR 8. Section 24.31 (a) (16) is amended to read as follows:

(16) Consolidated section 26 (i) credit. For taxable years beginning after June 30, 1950, and the calendar year 1950, the consolidated section 26 (i) credit shall be an amount determined by applying the percentage specified for the taxable year in section 26 (i) to the portion of the consolidated normal-tax net income, computed without regard to this credit, attributable to those members of the affiliated group which are Western Hemisphere trade corporations.

PAR. 9. Section 24.31 (a) (20) is amended as follows:

(A) By striking the word "and" at the end of subdivision (ii);

(B) By striking the period at the end of subdivision (iii) and inserting in lieu thereof ", and"; and

(C) By inserting immediately after subdivision (iii) the following:

(iv) The excess of the consolidated net long-term capital gain over the consolidated net short-term capital loss (computed without regard to any capital loss carry-over), but such excess shall be reduced by an amount equal to the excess of the taxes (determined without regard to section 102 and without regard to subchapter A of chapter 2) on the consolidated net income over the taxes so determined without including such excess in the consolidated net income.

PAR. 10. Section 24.31 (a) (23) is amended as follows:

(A) By striking "and" at the end of subdivision (ii);

(B) By striking the period at the end of subdivision (iii) and inserting in lieu thereof ", and"; and

(C) By adding immediately after subdivision (iii) the following:

(iv) The aggregate of the amounts allowable under section 504 (e) for the several members of the group.

PAR. 11. Section 24.31 (a) (36) is amended as follows:

(A) By striking "and (Q)" from that part of such section preceding (i) and inserting in lieu thereof "(Q), (R), and (S)"; and

(B) By inserting immediately after "the figure determined and proclaimed under section 202 (b)" wherever appearing in subdivision (iv) the following: "(except that the figure 0.87 shall be used for taxable years beginning in 1951)".

PAR. 12. Section 24.31 (a) (38) (i) is amended to read as follows:

(i) The amount of $25,000 (but no amount shall be allowed if, by reason of section 15 (c), no member of the group is entitled to a minimum excess profits credit), or

PAR. 13. Section 24.31 (a) (43) (vi) is amended by inserting immediately after "the consolidated net new capital addition" the following: "(or, if the affiliated group is subject to section 438 (g), the consolidated net new capital addition or the consolidated net new bank capital addition, whichever is greater)".

PAR. 13a. Section 24.31 (a) (58) is amended as follows:

(A) By inserting immediately after "the consolidated net new capital addition for the taxable year" in that part of such section preceding (i) the following: "(or, if the affiliated group is subject to section 438 (g), the consolidated net new capital addition or the consolidated net new bank capital addition for the taxable year, whichever is greater)".

(B) By inserting immediately after "the consolidated net new capital addition" in subdivision (i) the following: "or the consolidated net new bank capital addition, whichever is applicable."

PAR. 14. Section 24.31 (a) (59) is amended to read as follows:

(59) Consolidated excess profits credit based on income. The consolidated excess profits credit based on income for any taxable year shall be the sum of:

(i) An amount computed under section 435 (a) with respect to the consolidated average base period net income for the taxable year of the group as if such consolidated average base period net income were the average base period net income of a single corporation,

(ii) Twelve percent of the amount of the consolidated base period capital addition, and

(iii) Twelve percent of the consolidated net capital addition for the taxable year (or, if the affiliated group is subject to section 435 (g) (8), the consolidated net capital addition or the consolidated net bank capital addition for the taxable year, whichever is greater), minus 12 percent of the consolidated net capital reduction for the taxable year (or, if the affiliated group is subject to section 435 (g) (8), the consolidated net capital reduction or the consolidated net bank capital reduction for the taxable year, whichever is greater).

PAR. 15. Section 24.31 (a) (60) is amended by inserting immediately after "or 446," the following: "or any subsection of section 459,".

PAR. 16. Section 24.31 (a) (62) is amended by striking the period at the end thereof and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "; but, for this purpose, in case the group had a taxable year beginning in 1949 and ending after March 31, 1950, there shall be substituted for the consolidated base period the period of 48 consecutive months ending March 31, 1950, if such substitution results in a lower excess profits tax for the taxable year for which the tax is being computed."

PAR. 17. Section 24.31 (a) (67) is amended by striking "consolidated yearly base period capital for the second preceding taxable year," from subdivision (ii) and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "consolidated yearly base period capital for the second preceding taxable year, but if the affiliated group is subject to section 435 (f) (6), the consolidated yearly base period bank capital shall be used in lieu of the consolidated yearly base period capital for the purpose of computing the consolidated base period capital addition."

PAR. 18. Section 24.31 (a) (68) is amended by inserting immediately after the word "reduced" the following: "(but not below zero)".

PAR. 19. Section 24.31 (a) (70) is amended by changing that part of such section which precedes (i) to read as follows:

(70) Consolidated net capital addition. The consolidated net capital addition for the taxable year shall be the sum of the consolidated section 435 (g) (9) adjustment, if any, and the following amount:

PAR. 20. Section 24.31 (a) (83) is amended to read as follows:

(83) Consolidated alternative excess profits net income. The consolidated alternative excess profits net income for any month shall be an amount equal to the sum of:

(i) The combined excess profits net income for such month determined under section 433 (b) for the several affiliated corporations other than the affiliated corporations described in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph and other than the affiliated corporations to which subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph is applicable for such month,

(ii) In the case of any member of the affiliated group to which section 442 (d), 443, 444, 445, 446, 459 (a), or 459 (b) (2) (B) is applicable, one-twelfth of the average base period net income separately computed under such section for such member, and

(iii) In the case of any member of the group (other than a member described in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph) to which section 442 (c), 442 (h), or 459 (b) (2) (A) is applicable and for which such month is a month identified under section 442 (c) (3), or a month selected under section 442 (h) (2) (B), or a month in the taxable year in which the catastrophe described in section 459 (b) (1) occurred, as the case may be, the substitute excess profits net income for such month separately computed for such member under section 442 (c), section 442 (h), or section 459 (b) (2) (A), as the case may be,

minus the combined deficits in excess profits net income for such month determined under section 433 (c) for the several affiliated corporations other than the corporations described in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph and other than the affiliated corporations to which subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph is applicable for such month.

PAR. 21. Section 24.31 (a) (85) is amended by striking the parenthetical expression "(determined as if the affiliated group were a single corporation)" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "(determined in the same manner as if the affiliated group were a single corporation, and, if more than one percentage is applicable, under the rules applicable in the case of a single corporation)".

PAR. 22. Section 24.31 (a) is amended by adding immediately after subparagraph (90) the following:

(91) Consolidated 1951 adjusted normal tax net income of life insurance companies. The consolidated 1951 adjusted normal-tax net income, in the case of an affiliated group consisting of corporations subject to the tax imposed by section 201 for taxable years beginning in 1951, shall be the consolidated normal tax net income plus eight times the consolidated section 202 (c) adjustment and minus the consolidated reserve interest credit, if any.

(92) Consolidated reserve interest credit. The consolidated reserve interest credit shall be the aggregate of the reserve interest credits of the several members of the affiliated group.

(93) Consolidated net new bank capital addition. The consolidated net new bank capital addition for the taxable year shall be:

(i) The excess, divided by the number of days in the taxable year, of the aggregate of the consolidated daily new capital addition for each day of the taxable year over the aggregate of the consolidated daily new capital reduction for each such day, reduced (but not below zero) by

(ii) An amount which bears the same ratio to the consolidated increase in inadmissible assets for the taxable year as the amount computed under subdivision (i) of this subparagraph bears to the consolidated increase in total assets for the taxable year.

(94) Consolidated increase in total assets. The consolidated increase in total assets for the taxable year shall be an amount determined under subparagraph (52) of this paragraph by treating all assets of the members of the group as inadmissible assets (except that the rule provided in paragraph (b) (2) (xviii) (c) of this section shall be applicable only for the purpose of computing the consolidated net bank capital addition).

(95) Consolidated net bank capital addition. The consolidated net bank capital addition for the taxable year shall be the sum of the consolidated section 435 (g) (9) adjustment, if any, and the following amount:

(i) The excess, divided by the number of days in the taxable year, of the aggregate of the consolidated daily capital addition for each day of the taxable year over the aggregate of the consolidated daily capital reduction for each such day, reduced (but not below zero) by

(ii) An amount which bears the same ratio to the consolidated increase in inadmissible assets for the taxable year as the amount computed under subdivision (i) of this subparagraph bears to the consolidated increase in total assets for the taxable year.

(96) Consolidated net bank capital reduction. The consolidated net bank capital reduction for the taxable year shall be:

(i) The excess, divided by the number of days in the taxable year, of the aggregate of the consolidated daily capital reduction for each day of the taxable year over the aggregate of the consolidated daily capital addition for each such day, reduced (but not below zero) by

(ii) An amount which bears the same ratio to the consolidated decrease in inadmissible assets for the taxable year as the amount computed under subdivision (i) of this subparagraph bears to the consolidated decrease in total assets for the taxable year.

(97) Consolidated decrease in total assets. The consolidated decrease in total assets shall be an amount determined under subparagraph (75) of this paragraph by treating all assets of the members of the group as inadmissible assets.

(98) Consolidated yearly base period bank capital. The consolidated yearly base period bank capital for a taxable year shall be the sum of:

(i) The consolidated equity capital at the beginning of the first day of such taxable year, and

(ii) An amount equal to 75 percent of the consolidated daily borrowed capital for such first day, reduced (but not below zero) by the sum of—

(iii) Seventy-five percent of the consolidated controlled group indebtedness for such first day,

(iv) Seventy-five percent of the aggregate of the adjustments for interest on borrowed capital under section 435 (f) (5) of the several members of the group for such first day, and

(v) An amount which bears the same ratio to the sum of the amounts computed in subdivisions (i) and (ii) of this subparagraph, reduced (but not below zero) by the amounts computed in subdivision (iii) and (iv) of this subparagraph, as the aggregate inadmissible assets for such first day of the several members of the group bears to the aggregate admissible and inadmissible assets for such first day of such members.

(99) Consolidated section 435 (g) (9) adjustment. The consolidated section 435 (g) (9) adjustment for the taxable year shall be:

(i) In the case of an affiliated group not subject to section 435 (g) (9) (B) (relating to banks), whichever is the lesser of:

(a) The excess of the amount computed under subparagraph (71) (ii) of this paragraph over the amount, if any, computed under subparagraph (71) (i) of this paragraph, or

(b) The excess of the consolidated increase in operating assets over the consolidated net capital addition (computed without regard to the consolidated section 435 (g) (9) adjustment);

(ii) In the case of an affiliated group subject to section 435 (g) (9) (B) (relating to banks), whichever is the least of:

(a) The excess of—

(1) An amount which bears the same ratio to the consolidated decrease in inadmissible assets for the taxable year as the sum of the consolidated equity capital and the consolidated daily borrowed capital, both computed as of the beginning of the first day of the first taxable year of the group ending after June 30, 1950, bears to the aggregate of the admissible and inadmissible assets of the several members of the group as of the beginning of such day, over

(2) The amount, if any, computed under subparagraph (71) (i) of this paragraph, or

(b) If the group is subject to section 435 (g) (8) for the purpose of computing the consolidated net bank capital reduction, the excess of the amount computed under subparagraph (96) (ii) of this paragraph over the amount computed under subparagraph (96) (i) of this paragraph, or

(c) The excess of the consolidated increase in operating assets over whichever is the greater of the consolidated net capital addition or the consolidated net bank capital addition (each computed without regard to the consolidated section 435 (g) (9) adjustment).

(100) Consolidated increase in operating assets. The consolidated increase in operating assets shall be the amount which would be determined under subparagraph (52) of this paragraph as the consolidated increase in inadmissible assets if the inadmissible assets of the members of the group consisted only of the operating assets (as defined in section 435 (g) (10) (B)) of the several members of the group.

PAR. 23. Section 24.31 (b) (1) is amended as follows:

(A) By striking "and" at the end of subdivision (vii);

(B) By striking the period at the end of subdivision (viii) and inserting in lieu thereof "; and"; and

(C) By adding immediately after subdivision (viii) the following:

(ix) In the case of the deduction provided in section 23 (ff) (relating to mine exploration expenditures), the allowable deduction shall be determined subject to the qualifications prescribed in subparagraph (30) of this paragraph.

PAR. 24. Section 24.31 (b) (2) (xxii) (b) is amended by striking the parenthetical expression "(including any component corporation of any such member within the meaning of section 461)" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "(including any component corporation of any such member within the meaning of section 461, and including any selling corporation with respect to which any such corporation is a purchasing corporation as defined in section 474 (a))".

PAR. 25. Section 24.31 (b) (2) (xxvi) is amended as follows:

(A) By striking "or 446" from the heading of such section and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "446, or 459";

(B) By striking "or 446" from the part of such section preceding (a) and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "446, or 459";

(C) By striking "assets; and" at the end of subdivision (a) (1) and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "assets, and properly adjusted for amounts with respect to other members of the group taken into account under section 442 (f) (2); and";

(D) By inserting immediately after "the outstanding indebtedness" in subdivision (a) (2) the following: "(other than indebtedness described in section 442 (f) (2))";

(E) By striking "444" wherever it appears in subdivision (c) and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "section 444 or 459 (a)";

(F) By inserting immediately after "any facility held" in subdivision (c) of such section the following: "(or, for the purpose of section 444, considered under section 444 (f) (2) to have been held)"; and

(G) By adding immediately after subdivision (e) of such section the following:

(f) For the purpose of applying section 459 (a) (3), the gross income shall be properly adjusted to avoid duplication arising by reason of transactions between members of the group.

(g) For the purpose of applying section 459 (c) (except for the purpose of determining an amount computed under section 435 (d)) deductions and expenses shall be properly adjusted to avoid duplication by reason of transactions between members of the group.

PAR. 26. Section 24.31 (b) (2) is amended by adding immediately after subdivision (xxvii) the following:

(xxviii) Mutual savings banks, domestic building and loan associations, and cooperative banks. In the case of a mutual savings bank, a domestic building and loan association, and a cooperative bank:

(a) In the computation of total deposits or withdrawable accounts at the close of the taxable year for the purpose of section 23 (k) (1) (B) (relating to the deduction for bad debts), there shall be excluded the total deposits or withdrawable accounts of other members of the group, and

(b) In the computation of the deduction provided in section 23 (r) (1) (relating to dividends paid by banking corporations), there shall be excluded amounts paid to, or credited to the accounts of, other members of the group.

PAR. 27. Section 24.31 (b) (12) (iv) (c) (2) is amended by striking out the words "the provisions of section 112 (b) (7) of the Internal Revenue Code relating to certain complete liquidations occurring during some one calendar month in 1944 or 1951" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "the provisions of section 112 (b) (7) of the Internal Revenue Code relating to certain complete liquidations occurring during some one calendar month in a year specified in such section".

PAR. 28. Section 24.31 (b) (13) (viii) is amended by striking "consolidated original section 435 (g) (7) indebtedness" from subdivision (b) and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "consolidated original controlled group indebtedness".

PAR. 29. Section 24.31 (b) (14) is amended as follows:

(A) By striking "; and" at the end of subdivision (i) and inserting in lieu thereof a period; and

(B) By adding immediately after subdivision (ii) the following:

(iii) If the consolidated selected base period is determined by substituting for the consolidated base period the period of 48 consecutive months ending March 31, 1950, the consolidated weighted excess profits net income for each of the months January, February, and March of 1950 shall be substituted for the consolidated section 433 (b) excess profits net income for each such month.

PAR. 30. Section 24.31 (b) (15) is amended as follows:

(A) By striking the words "the beginning of the consolidated base period" from subdivision (i), (i) (b), (i) (c), (ii), (ii) (a), (ii) (b), and (iii) of such section and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "the end of the consolidated base period"; and

(B) By striking the word "solely" from subdivision (iii) of such section.

PAR. 31. Section 24.31 (b) (16) is amended as follows:

(A) By striking the words "the beginning of the consolidated base period" from subdivision (i) (a), (i) (b), and (iii) (d) of such section, and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "the end of the consolidated base period";

(B) By inserting in subdivision (iii) (a) of such section, immediately after the words "If those members of the affiliated group", in subdivision (iii) (b) of such section, immediatley after the words "If those members of the group", and in subdivision (iii) (c) of such section, immediately after the words "In the case of each member of the affiliated group", the following: "which commenced business before the end of the consolidated base period and"; and

(C) By striking "(i) (B)" from subdivision (iii) (d) of such section and inserting in lieu thereof "(i) (b)".

PAR. 32. Section 24.31 (b) (17) is amended as follows:

(A) By striking "section 442 (c), 442 (d), 443, 444, or 446" from subdivision (i) of such section and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "section 442 (c), 442 (d), 442 (h), 443, 444, 446, 459 (a), 459 (b), 459 (c), or 459 (d)"; and

(B) By striking "Section 442, 443, 444, 445, or 446" from subdivision (ii) of such section and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "Section 442 (c), 442 (d), 442 (h), 443, 444, 445, 446, 459 (a), 459 (b), 459 (c), or 459 (d)";

(C) By striking "or 446" from subdivision (iv) of such section and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "446, 459 (a), 459 (b), 459 (c), or 459 (d)"; and

(D) By adding immediately after subdivision (iv) the following:

(v) In the case of a member of the group to which section 459 (c) is applicable, the excess profits net income determined under section 433 (b) or the deficit in excess profits net income determined under section 433 (c), as the case may be, for any month shall include as an item of excess profits net income one-twelfth of the amount which, under section 459 (c), would be added to the amount computed under section 435 (d) for such corporation.

(vi) In the case of a member of the group to which section 459 (d) is applicable, the excess profits net income determined under section 433 (b) for any month, and the deficit in excess profits net income determined under section 433 (c) for any month, shall be computed as follows:

(a) Such computation shall be made without regard to income, deductions, losses, or other items attributable to the television broadcasting business of the corporation, and

(b) There shall be included, as an item of excess profits net income for the month, an amount equal to one-twelfth of the amount which, under section 459 (d), would be added to the amount computed for such corporation under section 459 (d) (2) (A).

PAR. 33. Section 24.31 (b) (18) (i) is amended as follows:

(A) By striking "or 446" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "446, 459 (a), 459 (b) (2) (B), or 459 (c)";

(B) By striking "section 442 (c)" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "section 442 (c) or section 442 (h)";

(C) By striking "section 442 (c) (1)" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "section 442 (c) (1) or section 442 (h)"; and

(D) By adding at the end thereof the following: If the affiliated group includes any member for which an amount computed under section 459 (d) is included in the consolidated alternative average base period net income, the portion of the consolidated base period capital addition properly allocable to such member shall be subject to proper adjustment under section 459 (d) (5) (A).

PAR. 34. Section 24.31 (b) (19) is amended as follows:

(A) By striking "443 or 445" from the heading of such section and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "443, 445, or 459 (d)"; and

(B) By inserting immediately after the first sentence thereof the following: "If the affiliated group includes any member for which an amount computed under section 459 (d) is included in the consolidated alternative average base period net income, the consolidated net capital addition or reduction shall be subject to proper adjustment under section 459 (d) (5) (C) to eliminate the effect thereon of any items involved in the computation of the consolidated alternative average base period net income."

PAR. 35. Section 24.31 (b) (20) is amended as follows:

(A) By striking "In the computation of the consolidated section 448 excess profits credit, the consolidated section 448 gross credit, and the consolidated section 448 inadmissible asset adjustment, the following rules shall apply in the case of any member of the affiliated group described in section 448 (c) (1) (a), (c) (1) (b), (c) (2) or (c) (4)" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "In the computation of the consolidated section 448 excess profits credit, the consolidated section 448 (b) gross amount, and the consolidated section 448 inadmissible asset adjustment, the following rules shall apply in the case of any member of the affiliated group described in section 448 (c) (1) (A), (c) (1) (B), (c) (2) or (c) (4)."

(B) By striking subdivisions (a) and (b) of subdivision (i) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

(a) The sum of:

(1) The average outstanding common and preferred capital stock accounts for the taxable year and the average capital and earned surplus accounts (or minus any deficits therein) for the taxable year, as properly recorded on the corporate books of account of such member, determined under the rules applicable to the computation of such amounts if a separate return were filed by such member, and

(2) The average borrowed capital of such member for the taxable year, minus

(b) The average for the taxable year of the amount, as properly recorded on the corporate books of account, of the stock of other members of the group held by such member.

PAR. 36. Section 24.31 (b) is amended by adding immediately after subparagraph (27) the following:

(28) Disposal of timber or coal—(i) Intercompany transactions. Section 117 (k) (2) (relating to the disposal of timber or coal) shall apply to an amount received by a member of the group only to the extent such amount is received by the member of the group as a party to a transaction described in section 117 (k) (2) with persons not members of the group.

(ii) Application of section 102 and Subchapter A to coal royalties. For the purpose of determining the consolidated section 102 net income, the consolidated subchapter A net income, and the tax under section 117 (c) (1) in lieu of the tax imposed by subchapter A, the provisions of section 117 (k) (2) shall not apply to any amount received by a member of the group upon the disposal of coal.

(29) Special rules in case of banks. The rules provided in this paragraph with respect to the computation of the consolidated net new capital addition, the consolidated yearly base period capital, the consolidated net capital addition, and the consolidated net capital reduction shall also be applicable with respect to the computation of the consolidated net new bank capital addition, the consolidated yearly base period bank capital, the consolidated net bank capital addition, and the consolidated net bank capital reduction, respectively.

(30) Mine exploration expenditures—(i) Limitation under section 23 (ff) (1). If the aggregate of the deductions, computed without regard to this sentence, allowable under section 23 (ff) (1) to the several members of the group exceeds $75,000,

(a) The deduction under that section allowable to any member of the group shall be an amount which bears the same ratio to $75,000 as its deduction computed without regard to this sentence bears to the aggregate of such deductions so computed for the members of the group, except that,

(b) If all members of the group consent in writing (which consent, in the case of a return filed on or after September 15, 1952, shall be filed with the return, or, in the case of a return filed before September 15, 1952, shall be filed not later than September 15, 1952, in the same office in which the return is filed), the deduction under that section allowable to such member shall be the deduction under that section computed without regard to this sentence, or such part thereof as the common parent corporation shall determine at the time the consent is filed: Provided, however, That the aggregate of the deductions so allowable for all members of the group shall not exceed $75,000.

(ii) Limitation under section 23 (ff) (3). If the limitation provided in section 23 (ff) (3) is applicable to any member of the group, such limitation shall be deemed applicable to all members of the group.

(31) Application of section 433 (a) (1) (R) and section 433 (b) (16). For the purpose of applying section 433 (a) (1) (R) and section 433 (b) (16) (which relate to payments from foreign sources for technical assistance):

(i) If any deduction of a member of the group, disallowed under such section, consists of a payment to another member of the group, such payment shall be considered remuneration described in such section to such other member.

(ii) A foreign corporation shall be considered to be a "related foreign corporation" if the members of the group, at the time the service or assistance is rendered, own 10 percent or more of the outstanding stock of such foreign corporation.

(32) Eligibility requirements for consolidated net new bank capital addition. An affiliated group shall be subject to section 433 (g) for any taxable year if during such taxable year one or more members of the group are banks (as defined in section 104) and if:

(i) More than one-half of the sum of—

(a) The consolidated equity capital for the first day of the first taxable year of the group ending after June 30, 1950, and

(b) Seventy-five percent of the consolidated daily borrowed capital for such first day is properly allocable to such banks, and

(ii) The consolidated increase in total assets for the taxable year exceeds the amount determined under paragraph (a) (47) (i) of this section.

(33) Affiliated groups subject to section 435 (f) (6), section 435 (g) (8), and section 435 (g) (9) (B). If during the taxable year one or more members of the group are banks (as defined in section 104), and if more than one-half of the consolidated average base period net income is properly allocable to such banks, then the affiliated group shall be subject to:

(i) Section 435 (f) (6) (but, in computing the tax for a taxable year beginning before October 20, 1951, only if all the members of the group so elect);

(ii) Section 435 (g) (8): Provided, That—

(a) In the case of the consolidated net bank capital addition, the consolidated increase in total assets for the taxable year exceeds the amount computed under paragraph (a) (70) (i) of this section, and

(b) In the case of the consolidated net bank capital reduction, the consolidated decrease in total assets for the taxable year exceeds the amount computed under paragraph (a) (71) (i) of this section; and

(iii) Section 435 (g) (9) (B).

(34) Rules for computation of consolidated section 435 (g) (9) adjustment. For the purpose of determining the consolidated section 435 (g) (9) adjustment, the following rules shall apply:

(i) The consolidated section 435 (g) (9) adjustment shall be subject to reduction to the extent that the Commissioner determines that the consolidated increase in operating assets is a result, directly or indirectly, of an increase in indebtedness of any member of the group (other than indebtedness which constitutes borrowed capital and other than indebtedness from one member of the group to another member of the group).

(ii) For the purpose of paragraph (a) (99) (i) (a) of this section, the amount computed under paragraph (a) (71) (ii) of this section shall not be less than the consolidated decrease in inadmissible assets for the taxable year reduced by 25 percent of the excess of—

(a) The amount computed under paragraph (a) (71) (i) of this section by using 100 percent, in lieu of 75 percent, of the amounts referred to in paragraph (a) (73) (iii) and (v) of this section (relating to borrowed capital and loans to members of a controlled group), over

(b) The amount computed under paragraph (a) (71) (i) of this section without regard to the amounts referred to in paragraph (a) (73) (iii) and (v) of this section.

(iii) For the purpose of determining the excess of the consolidated increase in operating assets over the consolidated net capital addition or consolidated net capital bank addition, the consolidated net capital addition and the consolidated net bank capital addition shall be computed by using 100 percent, in lieu of 75 percent, of the amounts referred to in paragraph (a) (72) (iii) of this section and paragraph (a) (73) (iii) and (v) of this section (relating to borrowed capital and loans to members of a controlled group).

PAR. 37. The following new section is added immediately after § 24.44:

§ 24.45 Mine exploration expenditures. For the purpose of applying the limitation provided in section 23 (ff) (3) (whether during a consolidated return period or during a period for which a separate return is made), if during a preceding taxable year for which a consolidated return was made or was required to be made any member of the affiliated group for such preceding taxable year was allowed the deduction provided in section 23 (ff) (1) or made the election provided in section 23 (ff) (2), each member of the affiliated group for such preceding taxable year shall be deemed to have been allowed such deduction or to have made such election, as the case may be.

A corporation entitled to file with other corporations a consolidated return under section 141 for a taxable year ending after March 31, 1951, and before April 1, 1952, has until July 15, 1952, to file such return. With respect to most of these corporations, this date cannot be extended further in view of statutory restrictions. The rules prescribed in this Treasury decision are essential to the filing of such consolidated returns; furthermore, many of the rules prescribed in this Treasury decision with respect to the excess profits tax are retroactive in that they apply to all taxable years ending after June 30, 1950. Therefore, good cause is found for issuing this Treasury decision without regard to the effective date limitation of section 4 (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946. Hence, this Treasury decision shall be effective upon its filing with the FEDERAL REGISTER for publication.

TITLE 32A—NATIONAL DEFENSE, APPENDIX

Chapter III—Office of Price Stabilization, Economic Stabilization Agency

[Ceiling Price Regulation 17, Supplementary Regulation 10]

CPR 17—GASOLINES, NAPHTHAS, FUEL OILS AND LIQUEFIED PETROLEUM PRODUCTS, NATURAL GAS, PETROLEUM GAS, CASINGHEAD GAS AND REFINERY GAS

SR 10—SPECIFIC CEILING PRICES FOR MIDDLE DISTILLATES ON THE EAST COAST

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Supplementary Regulation No. 10 to Ceiling Price Regulation 17 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This supplementary regulation establishes specific cents-per-gallon ceiling prices at named Eastern Seaboard refinery and terminaling points for kerosene, No. 2 heating oil and the principal grades of Diesel fuel. These ceiling prices represent an increase of 0.65 cents per gallon over the base period ceiling in tank car prices for f. o. b. delivery of No. 2 fuel oil at North Atlantic refineries and seaboard terminals, and the regulation provides for a pass-through of that 0.65-cent increase at subsequent levels of sale.

In addition a further increase of 0.15 cents per gallon is allowed such resellers as bulk plant operators, independent jobbers or distributors receiving their products from the seaboard terminal and refinery points at the newly established ceilings. Where the seaboard refinery or terminal operators may make sales to buyers other than bulk plant operators—for example, direct sales to large commercial accounts, they, the refinery or terminal operators, also are permitted to add the 0.15 cents in keeping with established industry practices. However, in no case will the ceiling price to an ultimate consumer be increased more than 0.8 cents per gallon above present ceiling prices by this supplementary regulation.

The problem of providing for adequate supplies of middle distillates, particularly No. 2 heating oil, for both domestic and industrial consumers on the Eastern Seaboard has vexed the responsible agencies of Government and the industry, as well as consumers, continuously since late 1951. The common denominator in all approaches toward solution of the problem has been the recognition that adequate supplies of these products must be made available on the Eastern Seaboard throughout the heating season if grave disruption of the domestic economy and injury to the defense program are to be avoided. The problem is complicated by many factors of product price, both on the Eastern Seaboard and in the Gulf (whence most of the supplies are obtained), competitive forces within the industry, fluctuating transportation costs and even the vagaries of the weather. Consequently, in the continuing study of the problem a mass of material has been developed by the Office of Price Stabilization, Petroleum Administration for Defense, the Economic Stabilization Agency and other sources. In order to resolve conflicts in views and recommendations variously advanced, and to insure that adequate supplies of middle distillate fuel oils will be made available on the Eastern Seaboard during the coming heating season, Dr. J. R. Steelman, Acting Director, Office of Defense Mobilization, has issued a directive in the form of a letter addressed to Mr. Roger Putman, Administrator, Economic Stabilization Agency. The full text of that letter is quoted below:

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF DEFENSE MOBILIZATION
WASHINGTON 25, D. C., June 13, 1952.

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

Hon. ROGER L. PUTNAM,
Administrator, Economic Stabilization Agency, Washington, D. C.

DEAR MR. PUTNAM: This is in reference to your letter of June 11, regarding the proposed increase in the price of heating oil on the East Coast. I have examined with great care the materials presented by your Office, by the Office of Price Stabilization and by the Petroleum Administration for Defense.

It is extremely important that we take all necessary actions to assure an adequate supply of fuel oil for the East Coast during the coming heating season. At the same time, in the interests of protecting consumers against unnecessary increases in the cost of living, it is imperative that any increase in the price of fuel oil which may be made to facilitate shipments of oil to the east coast should be held to the minimum.

I am also concerned about the effects which any action taken may have upon jobbers and local distributors of fuel oil. Due allowance should be given to the effects of an increase in wholesale prices upon their operating costs.

I am also concerned about interferences with normal contracting and marketing practices which may have been, or subsequently may be, caused by uncertainties regarding the price structure for fuel oils, during the coming heating season. It is highly important that we take definite and final action at this time.

It is my conclusion, after very careful study of all of the evidence which has been submitted, that an increase in the East Coast retail price of distillate fuel oils of 0.80 cents per gallon should be authorized, and that 0.15 cents per gallon of this increase should be reserved for jobbers and distributors.

I am sending a copy of this letter to the Secretary of the Interior, and am asking him to cooperate to the fullest by taking whatever steps are necessary to insure an adequate production and equitable distribution of fuel oil during this coming winter. I am also writing the Maritime Administration and asking them to study the developing situation with respect to the supply of tankers, and to take such actions as are necessary to assure adequate tankers to move oil to the east coast in the necessary volume this winter.

Sincerely yours,

JOHN R. STEELMAN.

Based on the foregoing, this supplementary regulation to Ceiling Price Regulation 17 is issued. As already indicated, the principal middle distillate fuel is No. 2 heating oil, and therefore No. 2 is used in this supplementary regulation as the basis for pricing of the other distillates, retaining the customary price relationships between products prevalent in the industry. Similarly, in setting the ceilings applicable at Norfolk and areas south of Norfolk, use of a progressively decreasing factor for costs of transportation is dictated by industry practice, and, consequently, increases proportionately smaller than 0.65 cents are included in the spelled-out ceiling prices for those areas. This, again, maintains the customary price relationships as between points respectively north and south of Norfolk.

REGULATORY PROVISIONS

Sec.
1. What this supplementary regulation does.
2. Ceiling prices at East Coast ports.
3. Differentials for other distillate fuel oils.
4. Preservation of discounts and allowances.
5. Applicability of Ceiling Price Regulation 17 provisions.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 through 5 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply Title IV, 64 Stat. 803, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2101-2110, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105, 3 CPR 1950 Supp.

SECTION 1. What this supplementary regulation does. This supplementary regulation establishes specific tank car ceiling prices for kerosene, No. 2 fuel oil and 48/52 Diesel index gas oil f. o. b. refineries and seaboard terminals in certain enumerated areas along the East Coast of the United States. For barge and cargo sales in these refinery-tanker terminal areas, minimum discounts off the specific tank car ceiling prices are required, but where customarily larger discounts were in effect, such customary discounts must be continued. Purchasers obtaining product from these points may increase their ceiling prices by the amount of the increase of ceiling price permitted their suppliers by this regulation. In those areas where sellers have customarily based their prices on prices established at East Coast terminal and refinery points, provision for adjustment is also made. Ceiling prices for sales of these products by operators of such terminals or refineries to other than bulk plant operators, and sales by bulk plant operators who receive product from these terminals or refineries, may be increased by an additional 0.15 cents per gallon.

SEC. 2. Ceiling prices at East Coast ports—(a) Tank car ceiling prices to resellers. The ceiling prices for kerosene, No. 2 fuel oil and 48/52 Diesel index gas oil f. o. b. seaboard terminals or refineries for tank car or transport truck delivery for sale to resellers shall be as follows at the enumerated points below:

Location	Kerosene (cents per gallon)	No. 2 fuel oil (cents per gallon)
Searsport and Bucksport, Maine	11.75	10.75
Portland, Maine	11.05	10.05
Portsmouth, N. H.	11.55	10.05
Everett, Mass.	10.95	9.95
Boston, Mass.	10.95	9.95
Fall River, Mass.	10.95	9.95
Tiverton, R. I.	10.95	9.95
Providence, R. I.	10.95	9.95
New London, Conn.	11.35	10.45

New York, N. Y.	10.75	9.75
Philadelphia, Pa.	10.85	9.85
Baltimore, Md.	10.85	9.85
Norfolk, Va.	10.75	9.75
Morehead City, N. C.	10.9	9.9
Wilmington, N. C.	10.9	9.9
Charleston, S. C.	10.9	9.9
		48/52 Diesel index gas oil
Savannah, Ga.	11.45	10.45
Jacksonville, Fla.	11.4	10.4
Miami, Fla.	11.5	10.5
Port Everglades, Fla.	11.5	10.5
Tampa, Fla.	11.15	10.25
Port Tampa, Fla.	11.15	10.25

(b) F. o. b. barge ceiling prices to resellers. If delivery is into barges, the ceiling prices set forth in paragraph (a) of this section shall be reduced by the amount of the seller's customary differential under tank car prices, but in no case shall this differential be less than 0.1 cents per gallon.

(c) Delivered cargo ceiling prices to resellers. If delivery is by tank steamer into buyer's terminal, the ceiling prices established in paragraph (a) of this section shall be reduced by the amount of the seller's customary differential under tank car prices, but in no case shall this differential be less than 0.55 cents per gallon.

(d) Other ceiling prices. (1) Ceiling prices of resellers for these products obtained from such terminals and refineries may be increased by the amount of increase permitted their suppliers by this regulation.

(2) To the ceiling prices set forth in sections 2 (a), (b) and (c), 0.15 cents per gallon may be added for sales of these products by operators of such terminals or refineries to other than bulk plant operators, and for sales by bulk plant operators who receive product from these terminals or refineries. This 0.15 cents per gallon increase may not be applied on sales at the tank car or transport truck level. In no case may the price to the ultimate consumer be increased more than the amount of the adjustment provided for in the appropriate ceiling price set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, plus 0.15 cents per gallon.

(3) On sales at any point where the seller's price for these products was customarily based upon the selling price at a point named in paragraph (a) of this section, the ceiling prices may be increased by the amount of the adjustment contained in the appropriate ceiling price established under this regulation irrespective of the origin of the product.

SEC. 3. Differentials for other distillate fuel oils. Any seller who during the base period maintained a customary differential between either kerosene or No. 2 heating oil and other distillate fuel oils, such as Diesel fuel, No. 1 heating oil, No. 3 heating oil, distillate No. 4 oil, and gas house gas oil may determine ceiling prices for these products by applying his customary differential to the specific ceiling prices established by this supplementary regulation.

SEC. 4. Preservation of discounts and allowances. All ceiling prices determined under this supplementary regulation shall reflect your customary differentials, discounts, and allowances in effect during the base period.

SEC. 5. Applicability of Ceiling Price Regulation 17 provisions. Sellers subject to this supplementary regulation shall be subject to all the provisions of Ceiling Price Regulation 17 not inconsistent herewith.

Effective date. This supplementary regulation shall become effective June 30, 1952.

ELLIS ARNALL,
Director of Price Stabilization.

CPR 97—CEILING PRICES FOR PACIFIC NORTHWEST LOGS

ADDITION OF ACCREDITED SCALERS AND GRADERS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, Delegation of Authority No. 30, this Amendment 7 to Ceiling Price Regulation 97 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This amendment to Ceiling Price Regulation No. 97 carries out the intention expressed in section 19 by adding to Appendix A three log scaling and grading bureaus, certain employees thereof, employees of previously accredited log scaling and grading bureaus, and individual scalers and graders who have been found qualified by the Regional Director of Region 13 to scale and grade logs subject to the regulation.

The persons accredited by this amendment have submitted the information and statements required under section 19. The Regional Director of Region 13 has requested the appropriate log scaling and grading bureaus named in this section to examine into the qualifications of each applicant. The Regional Director has evaluated whatever findings were made by the appropriate bureau, has considered whatever other information has been brought to his attention, and is of the opinion that each applicant is qualified for listing as an accredited scaler and grader.

This amendment also deletes from subparagraph (4) of paragraph (b) six accredited employees and adds one of them to subparagraph (12) of paragraph (b), one of them to subparagraph (13) of paragraph (b), three of them to subparagraph (3) of paragraph (b), and adds the sixth one to paragraph (c); deletes from subparagraph (3) of paragraph (b) and from paragraph (c) a scaler and grader who was accredited both as an employee and as an individual scaler and grader, and who by subparagraph (11) of paragraph (b) of this amendment to Appendix A to Ceiling Price Regulation 97, has been accredited as an employee scaler and grader of another bureau.

In the formation of this amendment, there has been consultation with industry representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Ceiling Price Regulation 97 is hereby amended in the following respects:

1. Paragraph (a) of Appendix A is amended by inserting the name "Coast Log Scaling and Grading Bureau" immediately preceding the name "Columbia River Log Scaling and Grading Bureau"; inserting the name "Humboldt County Log Scaling and Grading Bureau" immediately after the name "Handler & Schneider Log Scaling and Grading Bureau"; inserting the name "North Sound Log Scaling and Grading Bureau" immediately after the name "Lamb Log Scaling and Grading Bureau."

2. Subparagraph (1) of paragraph (b) of Appendix A is amended by inserting the name "Sanders, Lyle S." immediately after the name "Rickey, Ray."

3. Subparagraph (3) of paragraph (b) of Appendix A is amended by deleting the name "Emery, Quincy Pierce, Jr." therefrom.

4. Subparagraph (3) of paragraph (b) of Appendix A is amended by inserting the name "Backlund, Arvid" immediately preceding the name "Babcock, Vernon L."; inserting the name "Beehrie, Clarence Louis" immediately after the name "Babcock, Vernon L."; inserting the name "Hayes, R. M." immediately after the name "Cairns, Richard"; inserting the name "Morgan, Griffith" immediately after the name "Miller, Fred"; and inserting the name "Ramage, Sam" immediately after the name "Pittenger, Howard."

5. Subparagraph (4) of paragraph (b) of Appendix A is amended by deleting the names "Backlund, Arvid," "Barrett, Gordon S.," "Forseth, Kenneth S.," "Forseth, Theo.," "Hayes, Robert M.," and "Ramage, Sam E." therefrom.

6. Subparagraph (4) of paragraph (b) of Appendix A is amended by inserting the name "Aardal, George" immediately preceding the name "Baker, Everett"; inserting the name "McCullough, John L." immediately after the name "MacIntosh, Horace A."; inserting the name "Oakes, George" immediately after the name "Niemeyer, R. Earl"; inserting the name "Plaskett, Joe" immediately after the name "Plaskett, Jack"; inserting the names "Smith, Lindley H.," "Sorensen, Donald," and "Turner, Earl," in that order, immediately after the name "Shurke, Loren."

7. Subparagraph (5) of paragraph (b) of Appendix A is amended by inserting the name "Segal, Stanley" immediately after the name "Rich, J. P."

8. Subparagraph (7) of paragraph (b) of Appendix A is amended by inserting the names "Edwards, Jack C." and "Edwards, Winfield S.," in that order, immediately preceding the name "Hartman, R. B."

9. Paragraph (b) of Appendix A is amended by adding three subparagraphs reading as follows:

11. Humboldt County Log Scaling and Grading Bureau employees: Emery, Quincy Pierce, Jr., Huston, Leo M.

12. North Sound Log Scaling and Grading Bureau employees: Forseth, Ted.

13. Coast Log Scaling and Grading Bureau employees; Barrett, Gordon S.

10. Paragraph (c) of Appendix A is amended by deleting the name "Emery, Quincy Pierce, Jr., Arcata, California" therefrom.

11. Paragraph (c) of Appendix A is amended by inserting the name "Arnot, Paul E., Coos Bay, Oregon" immediately after the name "Archer, William R., Coos Bay, Oregon"; inserting the name "Branson, William P., Carlotta, California," and the name "Cravens, Gerald S., Portland, Oregon," in that order, immediately after the name "Borst, Jack, Tillamook, Oregon"; inserting the name "Day, John W., Coos Bay, Oregon" immediately after the name "Culkin, Peter, Salem, Oregon"; and inserting the name "Forseth, Kenneth S., Bellingham, Washington" immediately after the name "Farrier, J. Merle, Eugene, Oregon."

Effective date. This amendment 7 to Ceiling Price Regulation 97 is effective June 30, 1952.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 98, Amdt. 2]

CPR 98—SMALL WAREHOUSE RESELLERS AND MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

RESELLERS OF IRON AND STEEL PRODUCTS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Amendment 2 to Ceiling Price Regulation 98, is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This amendment in addition to making several changes of a clarifying nature modifies the prohibition on the reseller charging a warehouse markup on steel products sold out of a public warehouse, removes from the coverage of this regulation sales of new industrial steel products by certain small warehouse resellers and adds a new product to Table B in Part II.

Prior to this amendment the provisions of CPR 98 did not permit the addition of any markup on the resale out of warehoused stock of industrial steel products purchased from other warehouses. This prohibition was directly toward the elimination of inflationary "daisy-chain" sales and the restoration of normal distributive practices in the steel warehouse industry. Generally, steel warehouses purchase all or most of their supply of steel products from mill sources and purchase from other warehouses only for the accommodation of their customers or for the realization of a small profit on the resale in small lots. Consequently, the provisions of CPR 98 previously provided only for the addition of incoming transportation costs and quantity differentials in computing ceiling prices for new industrial steel products purchased exclusively from other warehouse sources.

It has come to the attention of the Office of Price Stabilization that in certain rural or sparsely populated areas which are not served by regular industrial steel warehouses a few resellers of new industrial steel products who purchase all or most of their stock from other warehouse resellers have been able, even under normal market conditions, to add a markup over and above the markup charged to them by their warehouse supplier and the quantity differentials established for them under this regulation. Such sales are normally limited to emergency fill-in requirements, repair work or retail purchases by farmers, contractors and the like and are invariably in small quantities. While normally it would not appear economically feasible for a reseller to put such industrial steel products through the warehousing operation in such limited volume, such warehouse operations are frequently incidental to a machine, welding or blacksmith shop operation or similar activity requiring industrial steel products or are in the nature of rural supply stores handling only a limited range of such items as angles, bars reinforcing bars or galvanized sheets. To permit such resellers to continue their customary business operations, which are totally unlike the warehousing operations for which CPR 98 was designed, this amendment provides for a new section 18 in Part II which excepts from the coverage of this regulation sales by certain resellers of industrial steel products. Such resellers who meet the qualifications set forth in that section will determine their ceiling prices for these products under the General Ceiling Price Regulation and Supplementary Regulation 29.

To qualify under section 18 the applicant must show that he was charging such a markup during the entire period January 1, 1950 to June 24, 1950 and did not merely begin such operations as the result of the abnormal market condition arising after the outbreak of the Korean conflict. In the opinion of the Director the period chosen is the most representative period for such resellers as determined in accordance with the provisions of section 402 (c) of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

Furthermore as these resale operations are necessarily limited in size by the nature of the area they serve, the scope of the exception provided by this amendment has been limited to resellers whose total gross sales of new domestic industrial steel products during the year 1951 did not exceed $100,000. In addition, a third requirement has been added to limit the coverage of this exception to those resellers who purchased at least 75 percent of their total stock of new domestic industrial steel products from other warehouse sources and not from mill sources during the period January 1, 1950 to June 24, 1950. This limitation is in keeping with the findings by the Director that these small resellers to whom this amendment is intended to apply customarily purchased all or nearly all of their material from other warehouse resellers during the period directly preceding June 24, 1950 and also serves to restrict the exception provisions from being used by those resellers who subsequent to the outbreak of the Korean conflict entered into daisy chain sales to take advantage of the inflationary pressures.

Ceiling Price Regulation 98 establishes two levels of ceiling prices for persons who resell iron and steel products in substantially the same form as received. The higher level applies in cases where the material has been put through the warehousing operation while the lower level applies where such operation has not been performed. This reflects the customary pricing practices in the industry under normal marketing conditions and results from the fact that warehousemen render services which add to the utility of the products, incur costs and undertake risks which distinguish them from those persons who act as brokers, intermediaries or who are engaged in finding purchasers for excess stock.

The definition of the operations of the "warehousing of iron or steel products" in section 10 (d) of CPR 98 was designed to restrict the charging of the higher level of markups established in CPR 98 to cases where the seller performs a genuine warehousing operation. The inclusion of the phrase "not a public warehouse" in this definition was intended to prevent resellers from obtaining a warehouse markup where, for example, they merely stored a shipment of excess stock temporarily in a public warehouse for the purpose of increasing their ceiling markup from 20 percent to the higher markups established in CPR 98 for sales out of warehoused stock. This amendment, in addition to clarifying the definition of the warehousing operation and the handling of excess stock, completely revises the public warehouse aspect of the resale of industrial steel products to reflect certain customary trade practices.

Prior to the outbreak of the Korean conflict and under more normal supply and marketing conditions certain resellers of new industrial steel products were able to realize the higher warehouse markups on products sold out of public warehouse stock in at least two different sets of circumstances.

The first of these situations is where a reseller regularly maintained space in a warehouse, which, for the purposes of this regulation would be considered a public warehouse, which was equipped for and often specialized in the handling of industrial steel products. On the resale of new industrial steel products out of the stock which he maintained in such premises, he often realized a markup comparable to those charged by other regular warehouse resellers. To permit such resellers who have an historical pattern of operating in a public warehouse to continue their operations, in accordance with section 402 (k) of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, a new provision has been added to section 10 whereby resellers of new industrial steel products who can demonstrate from their written records that they regularly maintained a warehousing operation in a public warehouse during the period April 1 through June 24, 1950, may apply for permission to charge a markup (for sales out of public warehoused stock) not higher than that which they last realized during that period on the same product or that markup established in Part II, whichever is the lower. The departure from uniform industry wide markups otherwise established in CPR 98 has been necessitated by the lack of uniformity in such public warehouse operations.

A second situation in which public warehouses have frequently been utilized as part of the regular operation of warehousing industrial steel products is where a reseller who regularly operates a warehouse of his own is compelled because of some physical limitations arising out of an emergency to store his material for a short time at premises maintained and operated by others. To prevent any undue hardship in such cases this amendment provides that such a reseller may apply to the OPS for authorization to charge his regularly established ceiling warehouse prices for material which he was compelled to receive at such other premises during the emergency. This special authorization will be granted, however, only where it is found that emergency circumstances do not permit the applicant to store material at the premises which he regularly maintains and operates for the warehousing of iron or steel products. It will not be granted in cases where a reseller is proposing to use other people's storage facilities outside of the trade area normally served by his warehouse at which the emergency condition exists. The OPS will deny any application where it is being used as a means of evading the provision of CPR 98.

The provisions concerning the warehousing of excess stock have been clarified and strengthened to insure that the higher ceiling warehouse prices may be charged only where there has been a bona fide performance of the functions and services ordinarily rendered by warehousemen and will prevent resellers who merely go through the form of warehousing excess stock, without any real benefit to the buyers, from obtaining such higher prices.

Except for those special provisions for the exceptional situations previously outlined, the definition of the warehousing operation has been both strengthened and clarified. The requirement that the warehousing operation must be performed in the space owned, rented or otherwise regularly maintained by the owner of the material at the time it is put through the warehousing operation has been added.

Previously the services of pipe-threading, cutting, shearing, flame-cutting and burning were included in the definition as illustrative examples of the type of service normally provided in the steel warehousing operation. This listing, however, has given rise to some misunderstanding concerning warehouses who do not have all of any of the equipment necessary to perform these services. Most industrial steel warehouses do have some or all of such equipment but since such equipment is only necessary in the handling of certain products and the performance of certain services on such products, it is often unnecessary for some resellers to have such equipment in their warehouses. Very few public warehouses would have all facilities for performing such specialized services. Consequently to make it quite clear that those warehouse resellers who have only facilities for receiving, sorting, grading, and shipping industrial steel products are nevertheless able to perform the warehousing of iron or steel products, references in the definition to services requiring special equipment have been deleted.

Forged Steel Bars, Carbon and Alloy, carried as stock items by numerous warehouse resellers and heretofore omitted, have been added to Table E. As this material has been a regular stock item with many resellers for many years, it should be included in the steel reseller's regulation. Although in most areas of the country, resellers have historically applied a percentage markup to the mill net price, in certain areas some resellers have applied a percentage markup to a mill base price and added applicable extras. Therefore, both pricing methods are provided for in this amendment. As the percentage markups used by different resellers vary considerably, it would have been highly impracticable to have tried to ascertain a specific uniform percentage markup for all resellers as has been done for other industrial steel products. Therefore, the amendment provides that resellers must use the same percentage markup they used during the period May 24 to June 24, 1950, as shown by their written records. This pre-Korean markup provision is consistent with the other pricing bases in the regulation and the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

The exemption for small lot sales of merchant trade products in Section 20 (e) while intended to cover all merchant trade products including pipe has given rise to some confusion by appearing in section 20 which otherwise purports to apply only to sales of merchant trade wire and roofing products. Consequently a provision exempting sales by jobbers of merchant trade pipe in lots of less than 100 pounds has been added to section 21.

In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization the provisions of this amendment are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to effectuate the purposes of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

So far as practicable, the Director has given due consideration to the national effort to achieve maximum production in furtherance of the objectives of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, and to relevant factors of general applicability.

In the opinion of the Director the ceiling prices established by this amendment provide the resellers of iron and steel products with their customary percentage margins over costs of material prevailing during the period May 24, 1950, to June 24, 1950.

In formulating this amendment, the Director consulted with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, to the extent practicable and has given full consideration to their recommendations.

Every effort has been made to conform these amendments to existing business practices or means or aids to distribution, insofar as any provisions of this regulation may operate to compel changes in the business practices, or means or aids to distribution, such provisions are found by the Director of Price Stabilization to be necessary to prevent circumvention or evasion of the regulation and to effectuate the purposes of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

AMENDATORY PROVISION

Ceiling Price Regulation 98 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 3 (a) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(1) All sales by any reseller, including any holder of excess stock, of any new prime industrial steel product listed in Appendix A, except for sales by certain small warehouse resellers described in section 18.

2. Section 3 (a) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) All sales by any reseller, including any holder of excess stock, of any new secondary or rejected flat rolled or semi-finished steel product, except for sales by certain small warehouse resellers described in section 18.

3. Section 3 (a) (3) is amended to read as follows:

(3) All sales by any jobber of any merchant trade product listed in Appendix B except for certain small quantity sales described in sections 20 (e) and 21 (c).

4. Section 10 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) If you are a reseller who has put such products through the operations commonly known as the warehousing of iron or steel products, hereafter referred to as sales "out of warehoused stock," you determine your ceiling prices in accordance with sections 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, or 18 depending on the type of product, and the nature of your operation.

If you are a reseller of such products on a direct mill shipment or on a shipment direct from another reseller without putting the product through the warehousing operation, you must determine your ceiling price in accordance with section 16.

5. Section 10 (d) is amended to read as follows:

(d) The operations commonly known as the "warehousing of iron or steel products" means the actual receipt and unloading of iron or steel products for sale or resale in substantially the same form as received into premises regularly maintained and equipped with facilities for performing such operation as receiving, stocking, sorting, grading and shipping and other operations which are necessary or incidental to the resale and distribution of the particular products brought into these premises. In no case, however, will such operations be considered as having been performed unless the premises referred to are owned, rented or otherwise regularly maintained by the owner of the material at the time it is put through such operations. Except as provided in paragraph (e) of this section, the operation of warehousing of iron or steel products will not be considered as having been performed if the premises referred to are a public warehouse.

6. Section 10 is amended by adding the following new paragraph (e).

(e) Public warehouses. (1) If you are a reseller who during the period April 1 through June 24, 1950, regularly maintained space in a public warehouse in which you performed the operations of warehousing new industrial steel products and for which your written records indicate that you charged a warehouse markup over your invoice costs, you may apply to the appropriate OPS office for permission to determine your ceiling prices in accordance with the provisions of Part II of this regulation using for your calculations under these sections the percentage markup established by the Director by letter order. The percentage markup which may be established by the Director under this paragraph may not exceed the percentage markup over your material invoice costs which you realized for the product during the period April 1 through June 24, 1950, or the percentage markup established by sections 11 (c), 12 (c) and 13 for the product, whichever is lower. In determining your markup you must use as your material invoice costs those cost factors to which a warehouse reseller is permitted to apply a percentage markup under sections 11 (c), 12 (c) and 13.

Where, in addition to such products for which you have had base period experience, you also propose to sell industrial steel products for which your written records indicate no sale having been made during the period April 1 through June 24, 1950, you may apply to OPS for a markup and the Director may establish a markup for such products in line with those markups which you have established under this paragraph for other industrial steel products.

(2) Your application under this section must be sent by registered mail, return receipt requested, to the appropriate OPS office and must contain the following information:

(i) Your name and address;

(ii) The name or names and address or addresses of the public warehouses in which you warehoused industrial iron or steel products during the period April 1, 1950, to June 24, 1950;

(iii) An identification of the industrial steel products which you propose to sell and a statement as to their condition (e. g. prime or secondary);

(iv) A description of your price determining method which you had in effect for sales of new industrial steel iron or steel products which you sold from stock maintained in the public warehouse including the percentage markup (exclusive of extras) over invoice costs which your written records indicate your last realized during the period April 1 through June 24, 1950, on a sale of the same product and a list of the new industrial steel products which you propose to sell for which your written records indicate no sale having been made during the same period; and

(v) The name and address of the public warehouse in which you propose to maintain space and perform the operation of warehousing of iron or steel products.

(3) After receipt of your application the Director may grant or deny your proposed ceiling warehouse markup, establish a different ceiling warehouse markup, or request further information. Pending any such action, you may sell the new industrial steel products at a ceiling price determined in accordance with the provisions applicable to sales out of warehouse stock using in your calculations under those sections your proposed ceiling markup, provided that you agree with the purchaser to refund the amount, if any, by which such price exceeds the ceiling price determined by using the markup established by the Office of Price Stabilization. If, within thirty days after receipt of the required application by the Office of Price Stabilization, none of the actions listed have been taken by the Director, your proposed ceiling warehouse markup will be deemed to have been granted for the determination of your ceiling prices for all deliveries made between the date of filling your application and the date of any order issued by the Office of Price Stabilization disposing of your application.

7. Section 11 (b) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(1) Where you have received shipments of a product from sources other than the producing mill in addition to shipments received from mill source, you must, except as provided in section 18, apply your ceiling warehouse price for the product which you determined in accordance with the provisions outlined in paragraph (a) of this section to all your sales of that product regardless of your source of supply.

8. Section 11 (b) (2) (i) is amended to read as follows:

(i) Where you are unable to determine a ceiling warehouse base price for a product in accordance with provisions outlined in paragraph (a) because of the fact that all the invoices received by you during the preceding calendar month for that product were from warehouse sources rather than mill sources, you must use the ceiling warehouse base price of the reseller who was your principal source of supply for that month, except as provided for in section 18 of this regulation. In determining this you must use the ceiling warehouse base price which such steel warehouse reseller had in effect on the last day of the preceding calendar month. This warehouse base price becomes your ceiling warehouse base price for shipments made from the 16th of the month to the 15th of the following month.

9. Section 12 (b) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(1) Where you have received shipments of a product from sources other than the producing mill in addition to shipments received from such mill sources, you must, except as provided in section 18, apply your ceiling warehouse modified base price for the product which you determined in accordance with the steps outlined in paragraph (a) to all your sales of that product regardless of your source of supply.

10. Section 12 (b) (2) (i) is amended to read as follows:

(i) Where you are unable to determine a ceiling warehouse modified base price for a product in accordance with the provisions outlined in paragraph (a) because of the fact that all the invoices received by you during the preceding calendar month for that product were from warehouse sources rather than mill sources, you must use the ceiling warehouse modified base price of the reseller who was your principal source of supply for that month, except as provided for in section 18 of this regulation. In determining this, you must use the ceiling warehouse modified base price which such steel warehouse reseller had in effect on the last day of the preceding calendar month. This ceiling warehouse modified base price becomes your ceiling warehouse modified base price from the 16th of the month to the 15th of the following month.

11. Section 12 (c) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) Percentage markups. The percentage markup which you may add for each product is set forth under Column 1. These markups apply uniformly throughout the continental United States, except in the case of Aircraft Sheets, for which the markups are established according to the geographical area in which your warehouse is located, and except in the case of Forged Steel Bars, for which the markups are established in accordance with the provisions of inferior subdivision (iii) of sub-paragraph (3).

12. Section 12 (c) (2) is further amended by inserting the following new product in Table B.

TABLE B

Product	Column I Percentage markup	Column II Material cost factor
Forged steel bars, carbon and alloy.	That used during period May 24–June 24, 1950.	Refer to sec. 12 (d) (4)

13. Section 12 (c) (3) is amended by adding the following inferior subdivision (iii):

(iii) Forged Steel Bars. In the case of Forged Steel Bars, both Carbon and Alloy, in connection with which you have customarily been using a percentage markup applied to a mill net price, you may continue to do so, using, however, the percentage markup which your records indicate you applied to the mill net price during the period, May 24, 1950, to June 24, 1950. If you have customarily been using a percentage markup applied to a mill base price, to which you have added extras, you may continue to do so, using, however the percentage markup which your records indicate you applied to the mill base price during the period, May 24, 1950, to June 24, 1950.

14. Section 12 (d) is amended by the addition of the following subparagraph (4).

(4) Forged Steel Bars, Carbon and Alloy. (i) Where you are required to determine your dollars and cents markup under 12 (c) (iii) by applying your percentage markup to the mill net price, you must average the mill net prices per grade on all invoices received by you during the proceeding calendar month or the last calendar month for which your written records show invoices having been received for this product. You disregard the invoice date, or actual shipping and receiving dates of the material. The mill net price is the mill base price plus all mill extras except freight and packing charges. To find the mill net price you divide the total dollar value exclusive of freight and packing shown on these invoices by the total weight of the item involved. This figure is your monthly average material cost factor.

(ii) Where you are required to determine your dollars and cents markup under 12 (c) (iii) by applying your percentage markup to the mill base price, you average the mill base prices, excluding all extras, on all invoices received by you during the preceding calendar month or the last calendar month for which your written records show invoices having been received by you for this product. You disregard the invoice date, or actual shipping and receiving dates of the material. This figure is your monthly average material cost factor.

15. The first sentence of subparagraph (1) of section 13 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(1) If you are selling any product listed in Table C out of warehoused stock, you must determine your ceiling price in accordance with the provisions of this section, except as provided in Section 18 of this regulation.

16. The first paragraph of Section 15 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 15. Secondary or rejected industrial steel products. You determine your ceiling price for the secondary or rejected steel products enumerated in paragraph (b) which have been put through a warehousing operation in accordance with the provisions of this section, except as provided for in section 18, and adjust these prices in accordance with the provisions of Section 41 of this regulation. Ceiling prices determined in accordance with paragraphs (g) and (h) must be recalculated each month. The ceiling price for any product thus determined becomes your ceiling price for all shipments from the 16th of the month to the 15th of the following month.

17. Section 16 is amended by adding the following new paragraph (c):

(c) Emergency exceptions. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, the Director of Price Stabilization may grant permission, upon application, to any warehouse reseller to charge ceiling prices determined in accordance with sections 11, 12, 13, 14, or 15 (whichever are applicable) for new industrial steel products which have not been put through the operations commonly known as the warehousing of iron or steel products where it is shown that all of the special circumstances set forth in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph are present and that they are not being used as a means of circumventing the limitations of this regulation.

(2) In order to apply under this paragraph, you must meet all of the following requirements:

(i) You propose to make delivery of new industrial steel products from stock which you have stored at premises regularly maintained and operated for such storage by any person other than a producer or holder of excess stock;

(ii) Emergency circumstances do not permit you to receive and store such material at premises which you regularly maintain and operate for the warehousing of iron or steel products.

(3) Your application under this paragraph must be directed either by letter or telegram to the appropriate OPS office and must contain the following information:

(i) Your name and address and the name and location of your regularly maintained warehouse;

(ii) The name and address of the warehouse which you propose to use during the emergency;

(iii) A full description of the emergency circumstances which make it impossible for you to put the material through your regularly established warehouse and a statement as to their expected duration.

(4) After receipt of your application the Director may grant or deny permission to charge a warehouse markup or request further information. Pending any such action, you may sell at a ceiling price determined in accordance with the provisions applicable to sales out of warehoused stock, provided that you agree with the purchaser to refund the amount, if any, by which such price exceeds the ceiling price applicable to sales of such material which have not been put through the warehousing operations should the Director deny your application. The Director will not grant such authorization, where the facilities you propose to use are outside of the trade area normally served by your regularly maintained warehouse or warehouses at which the emergency exists. The Director may revoke the permission granted hereunder when he finds that circumstances have so changed as to warrant such action.

18. Section 17 (b) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(1) Warehoused material. If you purchase excess stock from a holder and meet all of the following requirements, your ceiling price, f. o. b. warehouse, is your ceiling warehouse price for the same industrial iron or steel product under sections 11, 12, 13, and 15 of this regulation:

(i) The material is delivered to your warehouse, before receipt of any order or acceptance of any offer for the specific lot of material or any portion thereof, to premises regularly maintained by you for the warehousing of iron or steel products from several sources for resale in substantially the same form as received; and

(ii) You have put the products through the operation commonly known as the warehousing of iron or steel products (as defined in section 10 (d)).

19. Section 17 (b) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) Unwarehoused material. On excess stock shipped directly from a holder to a consumer for the account of a reseller, or for any sales of excess stock by a person other than a holder which do not meet all the requirements of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, the ceiling price f. o. b. point of shipment, is the price paid the holder, provided it does not exceed the holder's ceiling price as determined in paragraph (a) of this section, plus an amount not to exceed 20 percent of the price paid to the holder.

20. The following new section 18 is added to Part II:

SEC. 18. Exception for certain small warehouse resellers of industrial steel products. (a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this regulation if you are a reseller of new domestic industrial steel products out of warehoused stock and you meet all of the conditions set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, you need not determine your ceiling price in accordance with provisions of this regulation for any of your sales out of warehoused stock of new domestic industrial steel products, but these sales will be subject to the General Ceiling Price Regulation and Supplementary Regulation 29.

(b) In order for your sales of new domestic industrial steel products out of warehoused stock to be excepted from the provisions of this regulation your written records must indicate that you meet all of the following requirements:

(1) Your total gross sales of new domestic industrial steel products for your last complete fiscal year did not exceed $100,000;

(2) During the period January 1, 1950, to June 24, 1950, inclusive, you purchased at least 75 percent of your total stock (computed on the basis of dollar value) of new domestic industrial steel products from warehouse sources and not from mill sources; and

(3) Throughout the period January 1, 1950, to June 24, 1950, inclusive, you included in your resale price for new domestic industrial steel products purchased from other warehouse sources markups (exclusive of transportation charges) over your invoice costs greater than or in lieu of the quantity differentials and markups permitted by sections 11 (b) (2) (i), 12 (b) (2) (i), 13, or 15 of this regulation.

21. Section 20 (e) is amended to read as follows:

(e) Small quantity sales. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section you need not determine your ceiling price in accordance with this regulation for the sale of any merchant trade wire and roofing and siding product sold in less than 100 pound lots.

22. Section 21 is amended by adding the following new paragraph (c):

(c) Small quantity sales. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section you need not determine your ceiling price in accordance with this regulation for the sale of any merchant trade pipe or tubular product in less than 100 pound lots.

23. Section 47 is amended to read as follows:

(a) Record keeping requirements. (1) You must prepare and keep for inspection by the Office of Price Stabilization for a period of two years accurate records of each sale and purchase in your customary manner showing: The date thereof, the name and address of the seller (in the case of a purchase) or the name of the purchaser (in the case of a sale), a description of the products sold or purchased including but not limited to: quantity of each item, the size, length, finish, coating, quality or any other factor affecting the price; any conditioning performed on the product; any discounts allowed; the total price charged, the f. o. b. point and the disposition of the transportation charges.

(2) You must keep for inspection by the Office of Price Stabilization for a period of two years all invoices of your purchases from your sources of supply, including a record of the date of receipt of the invoice, necessary to determine whether you have computed your ceiling prices correctly. You must mark each invoice as received with the date of receipt.

(b) Filing requirements. Every person subject to this regulation shall file with the appropriate OPS office within thirty days of the date of issuance of this regulation accurate statements or published lists of the following factors and extras (where applicable) in effect on January 25, 1951;

(1) The customary incoming transportation factor (if any) used in determining your resale price.

(2) Extras and deductions for quantity.

(3) Extras for quality, merchandising, finish and tolerance.

(4) Extras for size.

(5) Extras for boxing, annealing, heat treating, etc.

(6) Extras for cutting.

(7) Trucking charges for local delivery in equipment owned or operated by the seller, and the area involved.

Stock lists, catalogues, pamphlets, printed schedules and similar literature are all acceptable media for the filing of these items.

Effective date. This amendment to Ceiling Price Regulation 98 shall become effective June 30, 1952.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 98, Amdt. 3]

CPR 98—RECALCULATIONS OF CEILING PRICES

RESELLERS OF IRON AND STEEL PRODUCTS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Amendment 3 to Ceiling Price Regulation 98, is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This Amendment 3 to Ceiling Price Regulation 98 provides for the recalculation by resellers of iron and steel products of their ceiling warehouse prices in those instances where they have received from their sources of supply an increase in the price of iron or steel products authorized by the Office of Price Stabilization. The necessity for the amendment arises because of the issuance of Supplementary Regulation 100 to the General Ceiling Price Regulation and the dispatch of letters on April 25, 1952 to steel producers operating under the Voluntary Agreement of January 15, 1951 between certain steel producers and the Director of Price Stabilization.

Under Supplementary Regulation 100 and the letters of April 25, 1952 producers of certain iron and steel products, as defined in the supplementary regulation, may apply for an adjustment in their prices established under the General Ceiling Price Regulation or the Voluntary Agreement. As a result of such permission to apply for adjustments and the probable applications by some steel producers for such adjustments, it is reasonable to assume that warehouse resellers of iron and steel products may experience an increase in the cost to them of iron and steel products.

Although it has been a customary and historical practice for resellers of iron and steel products to reflect in their resale prices immediately any increases or decreases in their prices from their source, Ceiling Price Regulation 98 does not currently provide, except in a few instances, for the retention of that practice. Rather, it sets up a method of monthly calculations under which a reseller finds his ceiling warehouse base price by computing a monthly average material cost factor, based upon invoices received during the preceding calendar month. It is seen that use of this method means that any current changes in a reseller's costs will not be reflected in his ceiling prices until the succeeding calendar month. The "time lag" could cover a period of forty-five days and result in a severe replacement squeeze.

This amendment is designated to eliminate replacement squeezes by permitting the reseller under certain conditions to recalculate his ceiling warehouse price immediately for a product the price for which includes an increase approved by the Office of Price Stabilization. Under certain conditions he may charge this recomputed ceiling price at once rather than waiting until the 16th of the following month. Of course, immediate recalculation of a ceiling price of a product is not permitted unless inventory of that product is exhausted; where not exhausted when the reseller receives the higher priced material, recalculation of the ceiling price of the product is not allowed until sales have been made of an amount of tonnage of the product equal to the amount on hand when the higher priced material was received, or until the regular recalculating period following a price increase. Any ceiling price for a product, so recalculated, is an interim price only, and may be used only until the 16th of the following month.

Provision has also been made in this amendment to permit a warehouse reseller to recalculate his ceiling prices even though he has received no shipments of the product by the end of the calendar month in which his principal source of supply has effected a ceiling price increase authorized by the Office of Price Stabilization. Any such recalculated ceiling price becomes effective on the 16th of the following month. This is intended to eliminate to the extent possible the creation of a unique dual price structure among warehouse resellers of iron and steel products, and to enable small resellers, who receive shipments less frequently than larger resellers and who therefore might not otherwise be able to reflect the increased price for several months after the larger resellers were reflecting such increased price, to establish their ceiling prices at the same general level as the larger resellers.

Certain sections of the regulation provide that resellers' ceiling prices are established, without recalculating, on the basis of the current mill price. The mill parity items in section 13, for example, are sold by resellers at the same as the mill price, up to certain quantities. In effect, therefore, the regulation provides that the reseller's prices varies with the mill price. Otherwise, in the event of a price increase, the reseller's price would be less than the producer's price. However, because the regulation provides that resellers' ceiling prices are effective from the 16th of one month to the 15th of the following month, some confusion has arisen as to whether or not a reseller must wait until the 16th of the month following a price increase, to put such increase into effect. A similar question arises in connection with sections 15 (b), 20, 21 and 22. A further provision of this amendment clarifies this matter, consistent with the original intent of the regulation, by providing that resellers, in such cases, may immediately reflect in their resale prices any changes in the price of their suppliers.

In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization the provisions of this amendment are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to effectuate the purposes of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

So far as practicable, the Director has given due consideration to the national effort to achieve maximum production in furtherance of the objectives of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, and to relevant factors of general applicability.

In the opinion of the Director the ceiling prices established by this amendment provide the resellers of iron and steel products with their customary percentage margins over costs of materials prevailing during the period May 24, 1950 to June 24, 1950.

In the formulation of this amendment there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, to the extent practicable, and consideration has been given to their recommendations.

Every effort has been made to conform these amendments to existing business practices or means or aids to distribution. Insofar as any provisions of this regulation may operate to compel changes in the business practices, or means or aids to distribution, such provisions are found by the Director of Price Stabilization to be necessary to prevent circumvention or evasion of the regulation and to effectuate the purposes of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Ceiling Price Regulation 98 is amended in the following respects;

1. Paragraphs (b) and (c) of section 5 are hereby redesignated as paragraphs (c) and (d) respectively.

2. Section 5 is amended by the addition of the following new paragraph (b):

(b) Supplemental pricing instructions. (1) As stated in paragraph (a) above, this regulation, in general, requires you to compute your ceiling price (except for products covered by Part IV) by determining your average material costs during a calendar month, adding an amount calculated by applying a specified percentage markup to your average material cost, and adding incoming transportation costs and extras. It requires you to recompute your ceiling prices monthly at the close of each calendar month by using the invoices received by you during that calendar month. It further provides that you may not put into effect the ceiling prices so determined until the 16th of the month following the calendar month in which the invoices were received. This paragraph, however, permits you, as provided in subparagraphs (2), (3) and (4) of this paragraph, to recalculate immediately your ceiling warehouse price for a product, under certain conditions. The supplemental pricing provisions of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph are applicable only between the time a price increase authorized by the Office of Price Stabilization becomes effective and the 15th day of the following month. On the 16th day of the following month your ceiling prices determined under subparagraph (4) of this paragraph become effective. Each month thereafter your ceiling prices determined under the regular recalculating provisions of the regulation become effective.

(2) Whenever you receive from your source of supply a shipment of a product, the price for which includes an increase authorized by the Office of Price Stabilization for producers of iron and steel products, you may immediately use the increased price of the source from which you purchased the higher priced product, whether or not you have yet received an invoice reflecting the higher price, as your material cost factor or as a basis for computing your material cost factor for that product under the following conditions: (i) You have no inventory of that product on hand which you received before the increased price became effective, or (ii) you have sold from your inventory a quantity equivalent to the tonnage of that product on hand when you received the higher cost inventory. If you receive shipments at increased prices from more than one source of supply, you must recompute your material cost factor on the basis of the average of such increased prices. You use this material cost factor or this recomputed average material cost factor to redetermine pursuant to the provisions of the regulation your ceiling price for the product or products concerned. If you cannot immediately use the increased price of the source from which you purchased the higher priced product or products because you do not meet the conditions in (i) or (ii) above, you must use the ceiling price determined pursuant to the regular recalculating provisions of the regulation until you do qualify under (i) or (ii) above, except as provided in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph.

(3) Your ceiling price for a product, determined pursuant to subparagraph (2) above, is an interim ceiling price only, and you may continue to charge it only until the 16th of the month following that in which you put it into effect, at which time you must use the ceiling price which you have computed in accordance with subparagraph (4) of this paragraph.

(4) Whether or not, during the calendar month in which an increased price of your principal source of supply becomes effective, you have received a shipment or shipments of a product or products, the price for which includes an increase authorized by the Office of Price Stabilization for producers of iron and steel products, you may nonetheless in recalculating your ceiling price to become effective on the 16th of the following month use the new higher price of the product or products of your principal source of supply. You accomplish this by using the new increased price of your principal source of supply as your material cost factor or as a basis for computing your material cost factor for the product and you compute your ceiling warehouse price for the product in the manner regularly provided under this regulation. If you have received invoices, however, from more than one source of supply, which reflect a price increase authorized by the Office of Price Stabilization to producers of iron or steel products, you must average such invoices in computing your average material cost factor. In calculating such average, you need not include invoices received the previous month which do not reflect such authorized price increase.

(5) Wherever this regulation provides that you determine or may determine your ceiling warehouse price for a product or products without averaging invoices received, you may reflect immediately in your ceiling warehouse price any change in the price of your principal source of supply for that product or products, regardless of the status of your inventory of that product or products.

(6) As illustrated by the following examples, you may operate under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, for all products covered by this regulation, on a product basis (i. e. Hot Rolled Sheets, Floor Plates, etc.) as shown in example (i) below, on a size basis, as shown in example (ii) below, or on a grade basis, as shown in example (iii) below.

(i) If you have 100 tons of Hot Rolled Sheets on hand when you receive a shipment of such material at an authorized increased price, you may reflect the increased price in your ceiling price for such material immediately after you have sold from your inventory 100 tons of Hot Rolled Sheets at a price predicated upon the lower cost material.

(ii) If you receive a shipment of 6" I Beams at an authorized increased price, and you have on hand no 6" I Beams for which you paid a lower price, you may immediately reflect the increased price in your ceiling price for such material.

(iii) If you receive a shipment of 4615 Hot Rolled Alloy Bars at an authorized increased price, and you have no such material on hand for which you paid a lower price, you may reflect immediately the increased price in your ceiling price for such material.

In examples (ii) and (iii) above, if you have inventory on hand of lower cost material, you may not reflect the increased price in your ceiling price until you have sold from your inventory an amount of that material equal to that which you had on hand when the increased cost material was received.

[General Ceiling Price Regulation, Supplementary Regulation 63, Amdt. 1 to Area Milk Price Regulation 9]

GCPR, SR 63—AREA MILK PRICE ADJUSTMENTS

AMPR 9—SAN DIEGO DISTRICT, CALIFORNIA

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended (Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong., Pub. Law 96, 82d Cong.); Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105); Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2 (16 F. R. 738), this Amendment No. 1 to Area Milk Price Regulation 9 issued pursuant to Supplementary Regulation 63 to the General Ceiling Price Regulation is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

Since January 16, 1952, the effective date of Area Milk Price Regulation 9, it has become evident that certain changes are needed in the regulation to make it conform more closely to historical practices in pricing milk in the San Diego and Orange Counties Marketing Areas. This amendment has been issued to make these changes.

1. Certain kinds of fluid milk. When first issued, Appendix I and Appendix II of AMPR 9 listed non-fat milk, chocolate drink, and buttermilk as "type of sale," and provided that the ceiling price for each item was the base period price plus the dollars-and-cents additions justified by parity adjustments and specified in Appendix I and in Appendix II. Representatives of the industry have pointed out that the result of such pricing was to deny the same margin relief which AMPR 9 granted on standard milk.

Section 3 of Appendix I and section 3 of Appendix II have been amended to provide that non-fat milk, chocolate drink, and buttermilk shall be priced as "other kinds of fluid milk." The seller of such "other kinds" begins with the uniform ceiling price provided in Appendix I and Appendix II for standard milk in the same sized container and adds or subtracts, as the case may be, the dollars-and-cents difference between the seller's base period prices for the "other kind" of milk and standard milk. So far as non-fat milk, chocolate drink, and buttermilk are concerned, the effect of the new pricing method is to extend margin relief to these products. Ceiling prices determined under section 3 of Appendix I and under section 3 of Appendix II are to be reported in accordance with section 3 of AMPR 9.

2. Sales in remote areas. Since the effective date of AMPR 9, it has been learned that certain sellers who sold milk in remote areas customarily charged a higher price than the applicable area minimum price. This practice has been common in making sales in areas considered remote by reason of such factors as unusually high costs in transporting milk to the area, and geographic inaccessibility or distance from a source of milk supply.

Since the preservation of the price differentials charged in making sales in remote areas is considered essential to assure an adequate supply of milk in these areas, a new section has been added to Appendix I and to Appendix II to provide a ceiling price adjustment equal to the dollars-and-cents difference between the seller's price during the period, December 19, 1950 to January 25, 1951 and the applicable area minimum price in effect during that period.

3. Inter-distributor sales. The change in section 1 (a) (2) of AMPR 9 effected by this amendment is technical in nature and will have no effect on ceiling prices paid by consumers. It applies only to pricing between certain classes of distributors.

The method provided in AMPR 9 for pricing sales made by processors to distributors created an inequity in the margin relief granted on sales to retail distributors by processor-distributors who also sell on home-delivery routes but who do not make sales f. o. b. purchaser's business location. This type of processor-distributor does not have any established price for sales at wholesale f. o. b. purchaser's business location. Therefore, in determining his ceiling price to retail distributors f. o. b. platform under section 1 (a) (2) of AMPR 9, it was necessary for him to use home-delivery customers as his most nearly similar kind of purchaser. The deduction of a base period dollars-and-cents differential from AMPR 9 retail home-delivery price produced a higher maximum price to retail distributors than was used by purchasers who determined their maximum price by deducting the differential from their established price at wholesale f. o. b. purchaser's business location.

As amended, section 1 (a) (2) provides that a processor-distributor who, during the base period, sold to distributors f. o. b. platform, but made no sales at wholesale f. o. b. purchaser's business location, and is currently selling to distributors, shall price sales to distributors by using the ceiling price of his most closely competitive seller of the same class who sold to distributors and who also made sales at wholesale f. o. b. purchaser's business location during the base period, and is currently making such sales. This change in section 1 (a) (2) eliminates the unintentional variation as between processors or distributors in their ceiling prices to distributors. It also provides retail home-deliverymen, who buy from such processors or distributors, with their share of the margin relief granted by AMPR 9 to other retail home-deliverymen.

In the formulation of this amendment, the District Director of the Office of Price Stabilization has consulted with local industry representatives to the extent practicable, and has given consideration to their recommendations. In his judgment the provisions of this amendment are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to effectuate the purpose of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended by the Defense Production Act Amendments of 1951.

The District Director of the Office of Price Stabilization gave due consideration to the national effort to achieve maximum production in furtherance of the objectives of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, to prices prevailing during the period from May 24, 1950, to June 24, 1950, inclusive; and to all relevant factors of general applicability.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Area Milk Price Regulation No. 9 to Supplementary Regulation 63 to GCPR is hereby amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1 (a) (2) is deleted and a new section 1 (a) (2) is added to read as follows:

(2) When the sale differs by type of purchaser from those sales for which such appendix prescribes a price: The price prescribed by such appendix for a sale to the most nearly similar kind of purchaser, adjusted by the dollars-and-cents difference between the seller's base period prices (as defined in section 5 of this regulation) for the kind of sale being made and the kind of sale priced by the appendix; provided that a processor or distributor who, during the base period, sold to distributors f. o. b. platform but made no sales at wholesale f. o. b. purchaser's business location, and is currently selling to distributors, shall determine his ceiling price for sales to distributors by using the ceiling price of his most closely competitive seller of the same class who did make sales to distributors and also made sales at wholesale f. o. b. purchaser's business location during the base period and is currently making such sales. The ceiling prices so determined shall be reported in accordance with the provisions of section 3 (a) of this regulation.

2. Appendix I—San Diego County Marketing Area is deleted and a Revised Appendix I—San Diego County Marketing Area is added to read as follows:

APPENDIX I (REVISION 1)—SAN DIEGO COUNTY MARKETING AREA

This appendix provides ceiling prices for milk and cream (excluding sour cream) in the San Diego County Marketing Area, which comprises San Diego County, California.

1. For standard milk (including homogenized) ceiling prices are as follows:

Size of container	Wholesale, f. o. b. purchaser's business location	Retail store, carry-out	Retail, home-delivered
10 gallons or more bulk, per gallon	$0.68
5 gallons and less than 10 gallons, bulk, per gallon	.69
1 gallon and less than 5 gallons, bulk, per gallon	.70
Gallon bottle	.70	$0.88	$0.92
Half-gallon container (fiber or glass)	.395	.44	.46
Quart container (fiber or glass)	.1975	.22	.23
Pint container (fiber or glass)	.11	.13	.14
Third-quart or ½-pint container (fiber or glass)	.079
Half-pint container (fiber or glass)	.068

2. For the following items the ceiling price is the base period price plus the following additions:

Type of sale	Container size: Per gallon (bulk or package)	½ gallon	Quart	Pint	½ pint
Half and half	$0.16	$0.08	$0.04	$0.02	$0.01
Table cream	.32	.16	.08	.04	.02
All-purpose cream	.40	.20	.10	.05	.025
Whipping cream	.40	.20	.10	.05	.025
Other retail sales of standard milk (including homogenized)	.10	.05	.025

The "other retail sales" referred to above are retail sales f. o. b. distributor's processing plant or producer's ranch.

3. For standard milk (including homogenized) sold in remote areas where the retail store carry-out base period price was in excess of 19.5¢ per quart or the retail home-delivered base period price was in excess of 20.5¢ per quart, the ceiling price for all kinds of sales shall be the applicable price provided in subdivision 1, above, plus an amount proportionate (according to container size) to either of such excesses.

For other kinds of fluid milk (such as buttermilk, chocolate drink, non-fat milk, and special grades of milk) the ceiling price shall be the ceiling price as hereinbefore provided for standard milk in the same sized container plus or minus, as the case may be, the dollars-and-cents difference between the seller's base period prices for such kind of milk and standard milk. Ceiling prices so determined under this subdivision shall be reported in accordance with section 3 of this regulation.

4. The prices herein provided are based upon a producer paying price of $6.15 per hundredweight of milk containing 3.8 percent milk fat for Class 1 fluid milk purchased f. o. b. processor's plant, subject to the deductions and additions set forth in Provision 1 of section A of Article I of San Diego County Order No. 37 issued by the State of California Bureau of Milk Control effective January 16, 1952.

3. Appendix II—Orange County Marketing Area is deleted and a Revised Appendix II—Orange County Marketing Area is added to read as follows:

APPENDIX II (REVISION 1)—ORANGE COUNTY MARKETING AREA

This appendix provides ceiling prices for milk and cream (excluding sour cream) in the Orange County Marketing Area, which is defined below.

1. For standard milk (including homogenized) ceiling prices are as follows:

Size of container	Wholesale, f. o. b. purchaser's business location	Retail store, carry-out	Retail, home-delivered
10 gallons or more, bulk, per gallon	$0.71
5 gallons and less than 10 gallons, bulk, per gallon	.72
1 gallon and less than 5 gallons, bulk, per gallon	.73
Gallon bottle	.73	$0.88	$0.92
Half-gallon container (fiber or glass)	.39	.44	.46
Quart container (fiber or glass)	.195	.22	.23
Pint container (fiber or glass)	.11	.125	.135
Third-quart or ½-pint container (fiber or glass)	.077
Half-pint container (fiber or glass)	.066

2. For the following items the ceiling price is the base period price plus the following additions:

Type of sale	Container size: Per gallon (bulk or package)	½ gallon	Quart	Pint	½ pint
Half and half	$0.16	$0.08	$0.04	$0.02	$0.01
Table cream	.32	.16	.08	.04	.02
All-purpose cream	.40	.20	.10	.05	.025
Whipping cream	.40	.20	.10	.05	.025
Other retail sales of standard milk (including homogenized)	.10	.05	.025	.01

The "other retail sales" referred to above are retail sales f. o. b. distributor's processing plant or producer's ranch.

3. For standard milk (including homogenized) sold in remote areas where the retail store carry-out base period price was in excess of 19.5¢ per quart or the retail home-delivered base period price was in excess of 20.5¢ per quart, the ceiling price for all kinds of sales shall be the applicable price provided in subdivision 1, above, plus an amount proportionate (according to container size) to either of such excesses.

For other kinds of fluid milk (such as buttermilk, chocolate drink, non-fat milk, and special grades of milk) the ceiling price shall be the ceiling price as hereinbefore provided for standard milk in the same sized container plus or minus, as the case may be, the dollars-and-cents difference between the seller's base period prices for such kind of milk and standard milk. Ceiling prices so determined under this subdivision shall be reported in accordance with section 3 of this regulation.

4. The prices herein provided are based upon a producer paying price of $6.05 per hundredweight of milk containing 3.8 percent milk fat for Class I fluid milk purchased f. o. b. processor's plant, subject to the deductions and additions set forth in Provision 1 of Section A of Article I of Orange County Order No. 41 issued by the State of California Bureau of Milk Control effective January 16, 1952.

5. "Orange County Marketing Area" means that area as defined in said Orange County Order No. 41.

(Sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154)

Effective date. This amendment is effective June 30, 1952.

NOTE: The reporting requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

TITLE 33—NAVIGATION AND NAVIGABLE WATERS

Chapter II—Corps of Engineers, Department of the Army

PART 207—NAVIGATION REGULATIONS

SAN DIEGO HARBOR, CALIF.; RESTRICTED AREAS

Pursuant to the provisions of section 7 of the River and Harbor Act of August 8, 1917 (40 Stat. 266; 33 U. S. C. 1), § 207.612 is amended by a restatement of the section headnote and redesignation of the seaplane restricted area as paragraph (a) and the addition of paragraph (b) establishing a restricted area to govern the use and navigation of the waters of San Diego Bay between Ballast Point and Zuniga Point, the area to be used by the Navy for experimental underwater installations and cables, as follows:

§ 207.612 San Diego Harbor, Calif.; restricted areas—(a) The seaplane restricted area—(1) The area. (i) That portion of the central part of San Diego Bay, opposite National City, inclosed by lines connecting the following points, which are rectangular coordinates and are referred to the U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey Station "Old Town" as their origin:

TITLE 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF

Chapter I—Veterans' Administration

PART 14—LEGAL SERVICES, SOLICITOR'S OFFICE

SUBPART C—GUARDIANSHIP SERVICES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. In § 14.201, paragraph (b) is amended to read as follows:

§ 14.201 Form of notification. • • •

(b) In cases coming within section 21 (4), World War Veterans' Act of 1924, as amended, the director, veterans claims service, central office, or adjudication officer, regional office, will notify the chief attorney of the office having jurisdiction over the territory in which the veteran resides furnishing information as to the name and address of the veteran and his wife, the amount of the initial payment, and monthly payments to be made. The chief attorney will investigate each case to determine whether the wife is properly qualified to administer the funds payable, whether she will agree to use the funds for the benefit of the veteran and his dependents, and whether all conditions justify payment of the compensation, pension, or retirement pay to the veteran's wife; or whether, in the best interests of the veteran and his dependents, a guardian should be appointed to receive and administer the funds payable. If the chief attorney determines that payments shall be made to the wife, a complete report will be forwarded to the director, veterans claims service, or adjudication officer, regional office, accompanied by the evidence disclosing the facts, with a recommendation that payments be made to the wife. If the chief attorney determines that the facts justify the appointment of a guardian, he will take action promptly to effect the appointment and will forward the evidence thereof, together with his certification as to the legality of the appointment and adequacy of bond, to the director, veterans claims service, or adjudication officer, regional office. For the purpose of determining whether the funds paid to the wife are being applied as intended and whether the payments should continue to the wife, or whether in the interests of the veteran and his dependents action should be taken to have a guardian appointed, or whether the veteran has recovered and should be rerated as to competency, a social survey will be accomplished each year. The case will be diaried for this purpose on the Account Due Card, VA Form 2-3526. A record of these cases will be maintained on the Locator Index, VA Form 2-3525, filed alphabetically. A correspondence file on each case will be maintained.

2. Section 14.202 is revised to read as follows:

§ 14.202 Diary and follow-up by originating service and notice by regional chief attorney. The claims folder will be diaried by the director, veterans claims service; director, dependents and beneficiaries claims service; director, disability insurance claims service, central office; or director, claims service, and director, insurance service, district office; adjudication officer, or chief, vocation rehabilitation and education division, regional office, to come up for attention sufficiently far in the future to enable the chief attorney to secure a certified copy of the letters of appointment of the guardian or arrange for the determination of a legal custodian. If action is not then completed, a proper follow-up will be maintained on the chief attorney. It will be the duty of the chief attorney to secure and furnish the officer requesting the appointment of the fiduciary a certified copy of the letters of appointment of the guardian with VA Form 2-4704, Certificate of Legality of Appointment and Adequacy of Bond, or VA Form 2-555, Certificate of Legal Custody. The chief attorney will notify the officer requesting the appointment at the earliest moment possible as to whether or not there will be a guardian appointed or a determination as to a legal custodian in the case. The chief attorney will also notify the above-mentioned officers if there is to be a delay in the appointment of a fiduciary, the reason for such delay, and the probable date of appointment.

3. In § 14.205, the introduction is amended to read as follows:

§ 14.205 Amount of benefits payable by Veterans' Administration to legal custodian or custodian-in-fact; payments to bonded officer of Indian reservations. When a claimant under legal disability is found entitled to any benefit payable by the Veterans' Administration, the accrued amount of which at the time of the execution of VA Form 2–555, Certificate of Legal Custody, is $700 or less, or the monthly rate of which is $67 or less, or if the finding is in favor of two or more claimants under legal disability and the accrued amount is $1,000 or less, or the combined monthly rates for two claimants amount to $94 or less, for three claimants $122 or less, plus monthly payments of $23 for each additional claimant, and no legal guardian or committee has been appointed, the awards shall be made upon proper finding to the person legally vested with the responsibility or care of such claimant or claimants: Provided, That the best interests of the claimant or claimants will be served thereby and the legal custodian is properly qualified.

PART 200—MATERNAL AND CHILD HEALTH AND CRIPPLED CHILDREN'S PROGRAMS

TERMS; PROPORTIONATE USE OF FEDERAL FUNDS

By virtue of the authority vested in the Commissioner for Social Security by sec. 1102, 49 Stat. 647, as amended, 42 U. S. C. 1302; secs. 501–515, 49 Stat. 629–633, as amended, 42 U. S. C. 701–715, sec. 1101 (a) (1), as amended, 42 U. S. C. 1301 (a) (1); sec. 1, Reorganization Plan No. 2 of 1946, 60 Stat. 1095, 11 F. R. 7873; Agency Order No. 9, 12 F. R. 479, the following revisions are made in the regulations heretofore prescribed (42 CFR Part 200) for the administration of the Maternal and Child Health and Crippled Children's Services Programs:

1. Effective July 1, 1952, paragraphs (q) and (r) of § 200.1 of such regulations as heretofore prescribed shall be revoked and the following new paragraph (q) prescribed:

§ 200.1 Terms. * * *

(q) "Specialized expenditures for Maternal and Child Health Services," "Specialized expenditures for Crippled Children's Services," "Supporting expenditures for Maternal and Child Health Services," and "Supporting expenditures for Crippled Children's Services," shall have such meaning as may be ascribed to them in policies issued by the Chief for the purpose of achieving the most effective utilization of the Federal funds granted.

2. Effective July 1, 1952, § 200.18 of such regulations as heretofore prescribed shall be revoked and the following new section prescribed:

§ 200.18 Proportionate use of Federal funds. (a) Effective for the fiscal year 1953, and for each subsequent fiscal year, the State Agency shall, with respect to its total annual expenditures of Federal and required matching funds for its Crippled Children's program, identify as "specialized" expenditures for such program an amount equal to 80 percent or more of the total annual expenditures of Federal and required matching funds for that program, provided the remaining 20 percent or less of such total expenditures were for purposes within the scope of the approved crippled children's services plan.

(b) Effective for the fiscal year 1954, and for each subsequent fiscal year, the State Agency shall, with respect to its total annual expenditures of Federal and required matching funds for its Maternal and Child Health program, provide in its State plan for the allocation of such expenditures to such program in accordance with either of the following procedures:

(1) On the basis of objective criteria set forth in the State plan, allocate to such program a portion of "supporting expenditures" which, together with any "specialized expenditures" identified for such program will at least equal the total annual expenditures of Federal and required matching funds;

(2) Identify as "specialized" expenditures for such program an amount equal to 80 percent or more of the total annual expenditures of Federal and required matching funds for that program, provided the remaining 20 percent or less of such total expenditures were for purposes within the scope of approved maternal and child health services plan.

(Sec. 1102, 49 Stat. 647, as amended; 42 U. S. C. 1302. Interpret or apply secs. 501–515, 49 Stat. 629–633, as amended; 42 U. S. C. 701–715)

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

PART 7—LIST OF FORMS, PART II, INTERSTATE COMMERCE ACT

PART 180—CONTROL OR CONSOLIDATION OF MOTOR CARRIERS OR THEIR PROPERTIES

APPLICATIONS OF AUTHORITY TO MERGE PROPERTIES OR FRANCHISES

Applications for authority under section 5, Interstate Commerce Act, to consolidate, merge, purchase, or lease operating rights and properties, or any part thereof, of a motor carrier.

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 4, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 13th day of June A. D. 1952.

The matter of applications designated Form BMC–44 (§ 7.44) prescribed by order entered November 12, 1940 (5 F. R. 4698), as supplemented by orders entered September 17, 1943 (8 F. R. 13193), December 11, 1945 (11 F. R. 746, 747), and December 27, 1951 (17 F. R. 234), being under consideration: It is ordered, That:

1. Part 7 is hereby amended as follows:

§ 7.44 B. M. C. 44 (revised). Application for authority under section 5, Interstate Commerce Act, to consolidate, merge, purchase, or lease operating rights and properties, or any part thereof, of a motor carrier.

2. Section 180.1 Application for authority to merge properties or franchises, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 180.1 Application for authority to merge properties or franchises. (a) Applications for authority under section 5, Interstate Commerce Act, to consolidate, merge, purchase, or lease operating rights and properties, or any part thereof of a motor carrier, shall be in the form and contain the information called for in the form of application, designated Form B. M. C. 44 (Revised) [1] (§ 7.44 of this chapter).

(b) The verified original of each such application and five copies thereof shall be filed with this Commission, one true copy thereof shall be furnished to each of the Directors of Districts of the Bureau of Motor Carriers in which the headquarters of applicants are located, and one true copy shall be delivered, in person or by registered or receipted mail, to the Board, Commission, or official (or to the Governor where there is no Board, Commission, or official) having authority to regulate the business of transportation by motor vehicle in each State in which the applicants operate. A notice of the filing of such application, Form B. M. C.–15A (§ 7.15a of this chapter), must also be delivered, in person or by registered or receipted mail, to each motor carrier and each carrier by rail or water, known to the applicants, with whose service the operations described in such application are or will be directly competitive.

(c) Proof of service of copies of the application and notice of filing as provided in the next preceding paragraph shall be made in connection with and as part of the original verified application filed with this Commission.

It is further ordered, That the orders of November 12, 1940, September 17, 1943, December 11, 1945, and December 27, 1951, relating to Form B. M. C. 44, be, and they are hereby superseded by this order.

And it is further ordered, That this order shall become effective on the 2d day of September A. D. 1952.

By the Commission, Division 4.

PART 95—CAR SERVICE

SUBSTITUTION OF REFRIGERATOR CARS FOR BOX CARS

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of June A. D. 1952.

It appearing, that the number of freight cars available for the movement of box car freight in the States of Oregon, California, Arizona and Nevada, has seriously decreased recently; that at present the supply is insufficient to move such freight traffic of carriers serving those States; that there are certain SFRD, PFE and WP refrigerator cars in that territory not suitable for transporting commodities requiring protective service and that such cars are suitable for transporting other freight; in the opinion of the Commission an emergency exists requiring immediate action in Oregon, California, Arizona and Nevada: It is ordered, that:

§ 95.887 Substitution of refrigerator cars for box cars. (a) (1) Except as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, common carriers by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act transporting carload freight from origins in the States of Oregon, California, Arizona or Nevada, and destined to points in the States of Oregon, California, Arizona, or Nevada, may, at their option, furnish and transport not more than three (3) refrigerator cars of SFRD, PFE, or WP ownership, not suitable for transporting commodities requiring protective service, in lieu of each box car ordered, subject to the carload minimum weight which would have applied if shipment had been loaded in a box car.

(2) On shipments on which the carload minimum weight varies with the size of the car.

(i) Two (2) refrigerator cars not suitable for transporting commodities requiring protective service may be furnished in lieu of one (1) box car ordered of a length of 40'7", or less, subject to the carload minimum weight which would have applied if the shipment had been loaded in a box car of the size ordered.

(ii) Three (3) refrigerator cars not suitable for transporting commodities requiring protective service may be furnished in lieu of one (1) box car ordered of a length of over 40' 7", but not over 50' 7", subject to the carload minimum weight which would have applied if the shipment had been loaded in a box car of the size ordered.

(b) Application. The provisions of this section shall apply to shipments moving in intrastate commerce as well as to those moving in interstate commerce.

(c) Effective date. This section shall become effective at 7:00 a. m., July 1, 1952.

(d) Expiration date. This section shall expire at 11:59 p. m., October 31, 1952, unless otherwise modified, changed, suspended or annulled by order of this Commission.

(e) Rules and regulations suspended. The operation of all rules and regulations insofar as they conflict with the provisions of this section is hereby suspended.

(f) Announcement of suspension. Each of such railroads, or its agents, shall publish, file, and post a supplement to each of its tariffs affected hereby, in substantial accordance with the provisions of Rule 9 (k) of the Commission's Tariff Circular No. 20 (§ 141.9 (k) of this chapter) announcing the suspension of any of the provisions therein.

It is further ordered, that a copy of this order and direction shall be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

(Sec. 12, 24 Stat. 383, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 12. Interpret or apply secs. 1, 15, 24 Stat. 379, as amended, 384, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 1, 15)

By the Commission, Division 3.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

[7 CFR Part 28]

STANDARDS FOR GRADES OF COTTONSEED SOLD OR OFFERED FOR SALE FOR CRUSHING PURPOSES WITHIN UNITED STATES

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering amending the standards for grades of cottonseed sold or offered for sale for crushing purposes within the United States, pursuant to the authority contained in the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act of 1952 (Pub. Law 135, 82d Cong., approved Aug. 31, 1951; 7 U. S. C. 414).

The proposed amendment would provide an optional method for determining the quantity index of cottonseed whereby linters would be included as a factor in grading cottonseed. The proposed amendment would also provide a means for identifying cottonseed grades in which linters have been included as a factor in grading. Interest in the use of linters as a factor in the grading of cottonseed is primarily centered in Western Texas and Western Oklahoma with respect to upland cottonseed and in the far Western States with respect to American Egyptian cottonseed. It is proposed to make the amendment effective by August 1952.

The linters factor which will be used in determining the quantity index of cottonseed under the proposed optional method will be announced from time to time by the Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposed amendment of §§ 28.401 and 28.402 (7 CFR Part 28) are as follows:

§ 28.401 Determination of grade. The grade of cottonseed shall be determined from the analysis of samples, and it shall be the result, stated in the nearest whole or half numbers, obtained by multiplying a quantity index by a quality index and dividing the result by 100. The quantity index and the quality index shall be determined as hereinafter provided.

(a) The basis grade of cottonseed shall be grade 100.

(b) High grades of cottonseed shall be those grades above 100.

(c) Low grades of cottonseed shall be those grades below 100.

(d) When linters have been included as a factor in determining the grade of cottonseed, the capital letter (L) in parentheses shall be placed immediately after the numerical grade designation on the cottonseed grade certificate.

§ 28.402 Determination of quantity index. (a) When linters are not to be included as a factor in determining the grade of cottonseed, the following formula shall be used in determining the quantity index of cottonseed:

(1) For cottonseed that by analysis contain 16.5 percent or more of oil, the quantity index shall equal 4 times the percentage of oil, plus 6 times the percentage of ammonia, plus 5.

(2) For cottonseed that by analysis contain less than 16.5 percent of oil, the quantity index shall equal 6 times the percentage of oil, plus 6 times the percentage of ammonia, minus 28.

(b) When linters are to be included as a factor in determining the grade of cottonseed, the following formula shall be used in determining the quantity index of cottonseed:

(1) For cottonseed that by analysis contain 16.5 percent or more of oil, the quantity index shall equal 4 times the percentage of oil, plus 6 times the percentage of ammonia, plus the officially announced linters factor times the percentage of residual linters minus 11, plus 5.

(2) For cottonseed that by analysis contain less than 16.5 percent of oil, the quantity index shall equal 6 times the percentage of oil, plus 6 times the percentage of ammonia, plus the officially announced linters factor times the percentage of residual linters minus 11, minus 28.

All persons who desire to submit written data, views or arguments for consideration in connection with the foregoing proposed amendment should file the same in duplicate with the Director, Cotton Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than twenty (20) days after date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 27th day of June 1952.

[SEAL] ROY W. LENNARTSON, Assistant Administrator.

GRAIN WAREHOUSE REGULATIONS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given in accordance with section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003) that the Secretary of Agriculture proposes to amend the Grain Warehouse Regulations (7 CFR Part 102) under the United States Warehouse Act, as amended (7 U. S. C. 241-273) as follows:

1. A new § 102.3a would be added to read:

§ 102.3a All facilities to be licensed or exempted. All facilities within the same city or town used for the storage of grain by an applicant for a warehouse license must qualify for a license and be licensed under the act if the applicant is to be licensed to operate as a grain warehouseman in such city or town, unless the facilities which are not to be covered by a license are exempted by the Secretary or his designated representative upon a finding that, due to the exercise of adequate controls by some independent agency over the operation of the non-federally licensed facilities, there would be no likelihood of interchange, substitution, or commingling of grain stored in such facilities with grain stored in the federally licensed facilities. If all such facilities do not qualify for a license or for an exemption under this paragraph, the applicant shall not be licensed under the act as a grain warehouseman in the city or town in which the facilities in question are located. Each applicant for a grain warehouse license must apply for a license covering all facilities operated by him for the storage of grain within the same city or town or for exemption as provided in this paragraph. If a licensed grain warehouseman acquires any additional grain storage facilities within the same city or town in which his licensed warehouse is located, he shall file promptly an application for a license or an exemption of the additional facilities. No grain storage facility acquired by a licensed grain warehouseman, subsequent to the issuance of his license, in the same city or town as his licensed facilities, shall be used for the storage of grain until it qualifies for license and is licensed or is exempted as provided in this paragraph. If any one of the licensed grain storage facilities operated by a warehouseman in the same city or town becomes ineligible for a license at any time for any reason, it shall not thereafter be used for the storage of grain until the condition making it ineligible is removed or an exemption is granted as provided in this paragraph. The use for the storage of grain by a licensed warehouseman of a facility which is in the same city or town as his licensed facilities and is neither licensed nor exempted, or other violation of the provisions of this paragraph, shall be cause for suspension or revocation of any license issued to the warehouseman for the storage of grain.

2. Section 102.6 would be amended to read:

§ 102.6 Net assets. (a) Each warehouseman shall have and maintain above all exemptions and liabilities, total net assets liable for the payment of any indebtedness arising from the operation of the warehouse equal to at least 4 percent of the total value of the maximum number of bushels of wheat that the warehouse could accommodate when stored in the manner customary to the warehouse, calculated upon the basis of the unit price for wheat announced annually by the Administrator: Provided, however, That if the commodity normally stored or to be stored in the warehouse in greatest quantity over the period of a year has a unit price, as announced annually by the Administrator, higher than wheat, the maximum number of bushels and the unit price of such commodity shall be used in calculating the amount of net assets required: And provided further, That a warehouseman who does not meet the net assets requirement specified in this paragraph may be licensed under the act and the regulations in this part if he furnishes the bond required under § 102.14 for such a warehouseman. In determining total net assets, credit may be given for insurable property such as buildings, machinery, equipment, and merchandise inventory, only to the extent that such property is protected by insurance against loss or damage by fire. Such insurance shall be in the form of lawful policies issued by one or more insurance companies authorized to do such business and subject to service of process in suits brought in the State in which the warehouse is located.

(b) In case a warehouseman is licensed or is applying for a license to operate two or more warehouses in the same State, the maximum number of bushels which all such warehouses will accommodate when stored in the manner customary to the warehouses, shall be considered in determining whether the warehouseman meets the net worth requirements specified in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) For the purposes of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section only, capital stock as such shall not be considered a liability.

(d) In case a State agency licensed or applying for a license as provided in section 9 of the act has funds of not less than $500,000 guaranteeing the performance of obligations of the agency as a warehouseman, such funds shall be considered sufficient to meet the net asset requirements of this section.

3. Section 102.7 would be amended by adding thereto the following sentence: "If all the facilities operated for the storage of grain by the applicant within the same city or town are not to be licensed under the act, the applicant shall not be licensed as a grain warehouseman with respect to any of such facilities unless an exemption of the facilities which are not to be licensed is granted as provided in § 102.3a."

4. The third and fourth sentences in § 102.9 would be amended to read, respectively: "The Secretary, or his designated representative, may, after opportunity for hearing has been afforded in the manner prescribed in this section, suspend or revoke a license issued to a warehouseman when such warehouseman (a) is bankrupt or insolvent; (b) has parted, in whole or in part, with his control over the licensed warehouse; (c) is in process of dissolution or has been dissolved; (d) has for any reason ceased to operate such licensed warehouse; (e) has in any other manner become incompetent or incapacitated to conduct the business of the warehouse; (f) has made unreasonable or exorbitant charges for services rendered; (g) is using in the same city or town in which his licensed warehouse facilities are located, any facility for storage of grain which is not covered by a license or an exemption as provided in § 102.3a; or (h) has in any other manner violated or failed to comply with any provision of the act or the regulations in this part."

5. Section 102.14 would be amended to read:

§ 102.14 Amount of bond; additional amounts. (a) The amount of bond to be furnished by a warehouseman who has met the net assets requirement of § 102.6 (a) shall be at least 6 percent of the total value of the maximum number of bushels of wheat that his warehouse could accommodate when stored in the manner customary to the warehouse, calculated upon the basis of the unit price for wheat announced annually by the Administrator: Provided, however, That if the commodity normally stored or to be stored in the warehouse in greatest quantity over the period of a year has a unit price, as announced annually by the Administrator, higher than wheat, the maximum number of bushels and the unit price of such commodity shall be used in calculating the amount of bond required: And provided further, That in any case the amount of bond shall not be less than $5,000 or more than $200,000, except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section. The amount of bond to be furnished by a warehouseman who has not met the net assets requirement of § 102.6 (a) shall be calculated in the manner prescribed in this paragraph except that it shall be at least 12 percent of the total value as specified in this paragraph and in any case shall not be less than $10,000 nor more than $400,000 except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section.

(b) In case a warehouseman has applied for licenses to operate two or more warehouses in the same State and his total assets are subject to the liabilities of each warehouse, he may if he desires give a single bond meeting the requirements of the act and the regulations in this part to cover all his warehouses within the State. In such case all of his warehouses in the State shall be deemed to be one warehouse and the maximum number of bushels that all of said warehouses will accommodate when stored in the manner customary to each of such warehouses shall be considered for the purposes of determining the amount of bond required under §§ 102.13 through 102.17.

(c) In case the Secretary, or his designated representative, finds that conditions exist which warrant requiring additional bond, there shall be added to the amount fixed in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section a further amount to meet such conditions.

6. Section 102.57 would be amended to read:

§ 102.57 License fees. There shall be charged and collected a fee of $20 for each original warehouseman's license, and a fee of $10 for each amended or reinstated warehouseman's license applied for by a warehouseman, and a fee of $6 for each license, or amendment thereto, issued to an inspector and/or weigher.

7. Section 102.58 would be amended to read:

§ 102.58 Warehouse inspection fee. There shall be charged and collected for each original inspection of a warehouse under the act, when such inspection is made upon application of a warehouseman, a fee at the rate of $5 for each 10,000 bushels of the grain storage capacity of the warehouse, or fraction thereof, determined in accordance with § 102.6 (a), but in no case less than $20 nor more than $500, and for each reinspection, applied for by the warehouseman, a fee based on the extent of the reinspection, proportioned to, but not greater than, that prescribed for the original inspection.

8. Section 102.80 would be amended to read:

§ 102.80 Appeal procedure. In case a question arises as to the true grade of grain stored or to be stored in a licensed warehouse, for which official grain standards of the United States are in effect and for which a grain inspection certificate has been issued in accordance with § 102.64, any interested party may take an appeal for the determination of the grade of such grain as provided in this section. If the grain inspection certificate involved was issued under the Grain Standards Act, the appeal shall be governed by the regulations issued under that act: Provided, That a copy of the Federal appeal grade certificate issued in the appeal, together with any receipt covering the grain filed in the appeal, shall be sent to the licensed warehouseman concerned, and a copy of the Federal appeal grade certificate shall be sent to the licensed inspector and to each other person shown by the record of the appeal to be interested therein. When the grain inspection certificate with respect to which the appeal is taken was not issued under the Grain Standards Act, the appeal shall be governed by §§ 102.81 through 102.95.

9. Section 102.82 would be amended by deleting the last sentence thereof reading as follows: "An appeal taken in conformity with the Grain Standards Act and regulations thereunder shall be deemed to be an appeal for the purposes of §§ 102.80–102.95."

10. Section 102.91 would be amended to read:

§ 102.91 Grain grade appeal fees. The fees and charges in appeals from grain inspection certificates not issued under the Grain Standards Act shall be the same as those prescribed in the regulations under the Grain Standards Act for appeals from grain inspection certificates issued under that act. Such fees and charges shall be assessed against the appellant.

11. Section 102.96 would be amended by deleting the phrase "except § 102.6" from the first sentence of the section.

12. Wherever in §§ 102.18, 102.44, 102.83, 102.86, 102.88, 102.90, 102.93, 102.94, 102.95, and 102.99, the phrase "§§ 102.80–102.95" appears, it would be deleted and the phrase "§§ 102.81 through 102.95" would be substituted therefor.

The proposed amendments would require all grain warehouse facilities in the same city or town operated by a warehouseman holding a grain warehouse license under the United States Warehouse Act to be covered by such license, except under specified conditions. The amendments would increase the amount of net assets and bond required of licensed warehousemen and the fees for inspection of warehouses, for licenses of warehousemen, inspectors and weighers, and for grain grading appeals. The grain grading appeal procedure would be modified by the amendments. The amendments would also modify the provisions of the regulations relating to suspension and revocation of warehouse licenses.

Any interested person who wishes to submit written data, views, or arguments concerning the proposed amendments, may do so by filing them with the Director of the Transportation and Warehousing Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., within 15 days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 27th day of June 1952.

[Docket AO-196-A-2]

HANDLING OF HOPS GROWN IN OREGON, CALIFORNIA, WASHINGTON, AND IDAHO, AND OF HOP PRODUCTS PRODUCED THEREFROM IN THESE STATES

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER

Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.) (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), and the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held at Portland, Oregon, March 25 and 26, 1952, on proposed amendments to the marketing agreement and order (7 CFR, 1951 Supp., Part 986) regulating the handling of hops grown in Oregon, California, Washington, and Idaho, and of hop products produced therefrom in these States. Said marketing agreement and order are effective pursuant to the provisions of the act.

Upon the basis of the evidence adduced at the aforementioned hearing, and the record thereof, the Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, on June 2, 1952, filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, his recommended decision in this proceeding. Notice of such recommended decision, and opportunity to file written exceptions with respect thereto, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (17 F. R. 5153), on June 6, 1952, and corrected in the FEDERAL REGISTER (17 F. R. 5435) issue of June 17, 1952. The last day for filing such written exceptions has expired, and no exceptions were filed during the prescribed period.

Findings and conclusions. The material issues and the findings and conclusions of the aforesaid recommended decision (F. R. Doc. 52-6179; 17 F. R. 5153 et seq.), as corrected (17 F. R. 5435) in the FEDERAL REGISTER issue of June 17, 1952, are hereby approved and adopted as the material issues and the findings and conclusions of this decision as if set forth in full herein, except for the corrections, clarifications, and modifications which are set forth below, namely:

1. In 17 F. R. 5158, first column, 19th line from the bottom, the word "estimate" should be changed to read "estimates." This will correct an obvious typographical error, since it clearly appears from the context that the word in question is used in the plural sense.

2. In 17 F. R. 5166, second column—§ 986.74 (e)—change the words at the beginning of said section reading "Any grower who may be dissatisfied with the determinations pursuant to § 986.75" so that they will read "Any grower who may be dissatisfied with the determinations pursuant to § 986.74 (a) or § 986.75." This matter is covered in the present order under § 986.6 (c) (1) (v), and the phrase in question in the present order reads as follows: "Any grower who may be dissatisfied with the determinations pursuant to subdivisions (i) [dealing with determination of the quantities available for market] or (ii) [dealing with preliminary estimates of the productions of individual growers] of this subparagraph or pursuant to subparagraph (2) [dealing with computations of grower's salable allotments] of this paragraph." As indicated in the discussion of the change to be made in this section (see discussion under the issue numbered 4—17 F. R. 5156, third column), it is concluded that the reference to "(ii) of the present order should be omitted for the reason that it is proposed to eliminate the existing requirement for the making of preliminary estimations of the productions of individual growers, and there will, therefore, be no occasion for any protests to be filed in that regard in case such a change is adopted. The language of § 986.74 (e) of the proposed amended order will be similar to the coverage of § 986.6 (c) (1) (v) of the existing order, except for the indicated omission. Thus, this change will make the language of the new section read in line with the true intent.

3. In 17 F. R. 5167, second column, 14th and 15th lines from the top—§ 986.76 (c)—the words "Grower Allocation Committee" should be changed to read "Growers Allocation Committee." This will correct the reference so as to show the correct name of such committee, which committee is authorized and provided for in the regulation by the later name.

4. In 17 F. R. 5167, second column, 25th and 26th lines from the top—also § 986.76 (c)—change the words "provided for therein" so that they will read "provided for in § 986.60 of this subpart." This change will not affect the meaning or intent of the quoted words, but it will serve to make such meaning clear and unambiguous.

5. In 17 F. R. 5168, second column—§ 986.82, 16th, 17th, 18th, and 19th lines of said section—change the words "(a) cases where such dispositions are accidental and due to causes beyond the control of the particular growers," so that they will read "(a) cases where such dispositions are accidental or are due to causes beyond the control of the particular growers,". Through inadvertence, the previous language used was such as to provide exemption in this regard only where the dispositions were both accidental and due to causes beyond the control of the particular grower. It was actually intended, however, that there should be such exemption in a case of the arising of either happening. The changed language will express the true intent.

General findings. (a) The findings hereinafter set forth are supplementary, and in addition, to the findings and determinations which were previously made in connection with the original issuance of the marketing agreement and order (14 F. R. 3660); and said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and confirmed except the finding with respect to the base period for the parity determination, and except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings set forth herein.

(b) The order, as hereby proposed to be amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(c) The order, as hereby proposed to be amended, will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activities specified, or necessarily included, in the proposals upon which the amendment hearing was held; and

(d) There are no differences in the production and marketing of hops in the production area covered by this order, as herein proposed to be amended, which make necessary different terms applicable to different parts of such area.

Marketing agreement and order. Annexed hereto, and made a part hereof, are two documents entitled, respectively, "Marketing Agreement, as amended, Regulating the Handling of Hops Grown in Oregon, California, Washington, and Idaho, and of Hop Products Produced Therefrom in these States," and "Order, as amended, Regulating the Handling of Hops Grown in Oregon, California, Washington, and Idaho, and of Hop Products Produced Therefrom in these States," which have been decided upon as the appropriate and detailed means of effectuating the foregoing conclusions. The marketing agreement, as amended, and the order, as amended, shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders have been met.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision, except the annexed marketing agreement, as amended, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said agreement, as amended, are identical with those contained in the attached order, as amended, which will be published with this decision.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 27th day of June 1952.

§ 986.2 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as re-enacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 208, 707).

§ 986.3 Person. "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business unit.

§ 986.4 Hops. "Hops" means, except as otherwise specifically indicated in this subpart, the pistillate cones, either in the green or the dried state, of the vine Humulus lupulus or Humulus americanus grown in the States of Oregon, California, Washington, or Idaho.

§ 986.5 Hop product. "Hop product" means any substance which is (a) derived, either in whole or in part, from hops, including, but not limited to, any form of lupulin, lupulin sweepings, hop oil, or hop extracts or concentrates, and (b) capable of being used for a purpose for which hops are used.

§ 986.6 Grower. "Grower" is synonymous with "producer," and means any person who or which is engaged in a proprietary capacity in the commercial production of hops, and who or which is an individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business unit who or which: (a) Owns and farms land, resulting in his or its ownership of the hops produced thereon; (b) rents and farms land, resulting in his or its ownership of all or a portion of the hops produced thereon; or (c) owns land which he or it does not farm and, as rental for such land, obtains the ownership of a portion of the hops produced thereon. Ownership of, or leasehold interest in land, and the acquisition, in any manner other than as set forth in this section, of legal title to hops grown thereon shall not be deemed to result in such owners or lessees becoming producers. For the purpose of this definition, the term "partnership" shall be deemed to include a husband and wife, and any others, with respect to land the title to which, or the leasehold interest in which, is vested in them as tenants in common, joint tenants, tenants by the entirety, or, under community property laws, as community property.

§ 986.7 Dealer. "Dealer" means any person, other than a grower or brewer, who is a handler of hops or hop products for his or its own account.

§ 986.8 Grower-dealer. "Grower-dealer" means any grower, other than a brewer, who is a handler for his or its own account of any hops or hop products other than those of his or its own production: Provided, That handling transactions pursuant to § 986.81 shall not be within this definition.

§ 986.9 Brewer. "Brewer" means any person who uses hops or any hop product in manufacturing any malt beverage for commercial purposes.

§ 986.10 Handler. "Handler" means any person who, either personally or through another person, handles hops or any hop product: Provided, That a person who handles hops which have been previously certificated and handled by another person shall not thereby be deemed to be a handler with respect to such hops.

§ 986.11 Handle. "Handle" means, except as provided in § 986.81, (a) to market, ship, or transport (except as a common or contract carrier for others) to or for market, or to use, any hops or hop product, or (b) to purchase, take consignment of, accept delivery of (except as a common or contract carrier) in connection with a purchase or sale or otherwise acquire, within the States of Oregon, California, Washington, or Idaho, hops or any hop product from a grower or any other person.

§ 986.12 Consumptive demand. "Consumptive demand" means that quantity of hops and hop products (expressed in terms of dried hops) which it is anticipated will be required in all trade outlets, both domestic and foreign, during the period September 1 of the respective year through the following August 31.

§ 986.13 Marketing season. "Marketing season" means the 12 months from August 1 to the following July 31, both dates inclusive.

§ 986.14 Federal-State inspection service. "Federal-State inspection service" means that inspection service on hops or hop products which is performed within the States of Oregon, California, Washington, or Idaho by the United States Department of Agriculture or by said Department under a cooperative arrangement with any of such States pursuant to authority contained in any act of Congress.

§ 986.15 Part and subpart. "Part" means the order regulating the handling of hops grown in Oregon, California, Washington, and Idaho, and of hop products produced therefrom in these States, and all rules, regulations, and supplementary orders issued thereunder. This order regulating the handling of hops grown in Oregon, California, Washington, and Idaho, and of hop products produced therefrom in these States shall be a "subpart" of such part.

HOP CONTROL BOARD

§ 986.20 Establishment. A Control Board consisting of eighteen members, with an alternate member for each such member, is hereby established to administer the terms and provisions of this subpart, of whom, with their respective alternates, nine shall represent growers of hops, two shall represent grower-dealers, three shall represent dealers, and four shall represent brewers. The grower members of the Control Board shall be growers of hops who are not grower-dealers, of whom three shall be growers of hops in and residents of the States of Oregon or Idaho, three shall be growers of hops in and residents of the State of California, and three shall be growers of hops in and residents of the State of Washington. One of the grower-dealer members of the Control Board shall be a grower-dealer having his or its principal office in that regard in the States of Oregon, California, Washington, or Idaho, and the other grower-dealer member shall be a grower-dealer having his or its principal office in that regard outside of such States. Each of the four brewer members of the Control Board shall be a brewer. Each of the three dealer members of the Control Board shall be a dealer in hops. An officer, agent, or employee of a business unit other than an individual person shall be eligible for membership or alternate membership on the Control Board in the category in which such business unit belongs pursuant to the provisions of this section. No person shall be selected as a member or alternate member of the Control Board who is not actively engaged, as his principal business occupation, in the business of the group which he represents, and may be an officer, agent, or employee of a business unit engaged in such business.

§ 986.21 Designation of original members and alternates. The original members of the Control Board, and their respective alternates, shall be selected by the Secretary, subject to the requirements as to district representation, occupation, and residence which are set forth in § 986.20, and shall serve for a term ending on March 31, 1950, except that, if the respective successor to such original member or alternate member has not been selected and qualified by March 31, 1950, such original member or alternate member shall serve until his respective successor has been selected and has qualified. For the consideration of the Secretary in making such selection, nominations for original members and alternate members of the Control Board may be submitted to him not later than the date on which this subpart is issued by the Secretary, but may be submitted prior thereto. Nominations for the original nine grower members and their alternates may be made by any grower, or by any association or other group of growers. Nominations for the original two grower-dealer members and their alternates may be made by any grower-dealer, or by any group of grower-dealers. Nominations for the original four brewer members and their alternates may be made by any brewer, or by any organization of brewers. Nominations for the original three dealer members and their alternates may be made by any dealer, or by any group of dealers. However, the Secretary, in making his selection of the original members and their alternates shall not be bound to make such selections from nominations thus received, but he shall make such selections in his discretion.

§ 986.22 Nomination and selection of successor members and alternates.—(a) General. Members and alternates of the Control Board selected for terms commencing April 1, 1950, and thereafter, shall serve for terms of two years ending March 31 or until such time thereafter as their successors have been selected and have qualified. Selection of successor members of the Control Board and their alternates shall be made by the Secretary for each of the aforementioned groups from the nominations submitted for that purpose by the respective groups and/or from among other qualified persons. Such nominations for each respective group shall be made to the Secretary on or before March 1 of each election year in the manner described in this section.

(b) Grower members. Each of the growers Advisory Committees, established pursuant to § 986.40, shall nominate to the Secretary the names of three qualified persons as grower members, and three qualified persons as their alternates, from the State or States represented by the respective committee. The persons receiving in consecutive order the highest number of votes for members shall be the nominees for members of the respective committees, and a corresponding provision shall apply to nominees for alternate members.

(c) Grower-dealer member, Western. The grower-dealers whose principal offices are within the States of Oregon, California, Washington, or Idaho, shall nominate to the Secretary, by means of an election in which all (and only) such grower-dealers shall be entitled to participate on the basis of one vote for each full bale of hops (including hop products expressed in terms of dried hops) handled by the particular grower-dealer during the next preceding marketing season, one qualified person as the grower-dealer member, and one qualified person as his alternate.

(d) Grower-dealer member, Eastern. The grower-dealers whose principal offices are outside the States of Oregon, California, Washington, or Idaho, shall nominate to the Secretary, by means of an election in which all (and only) such grower-dealers shall be entitled to participate on the basis of one vote for each full bale of hops (including hop products expressed in terms of dried hops) handled by the particular grower-dealer during the next preceding marketing season, one qualified person as grower-dealer member, and one qualified person as his alternate.

(e) Dealer members. The dealers shall nominate to the Secretary by means of elections in which all (and only) dealers shall be entitled to participate on the basis of one vote for each full bale of hops (including hop products expressed in terms of dried hops) handled by the particular dealer, as the first handler thereof, other than a grower, and for that dealer's own account, during the next preceding marketing season, three qualified persons as dealer members and three qualified persons as their alternates. Nominations for one of such members and his alternate shall be made by each of the following categories of dealers: (1) Those handling less than 10,000 bales of hops (including hop products expressed in terms of dried hops) during the next preceding marketing season; (2) those handling between 10,000 and 25,000 bales of hops (including hop products expressed in terms of dried hops) during the next preceding marketing season; and (3) those handling over 25,000 bales of hops (including hop products expressed in terms of dried hops) during the next preceding marketing season.

(f) Brewer members. Of the four qualified persons to be nominated by the brewers for selection as brewer members of the Control Board, and their respective alternates, two of such nominations for members and their respective alternates may be made to the Secretary by the United States Brewers Foundation, Inc., whose present office address is 21 East Fortieth Street, New York, N. Y., and two such nominations for members, and their respective alternates, may be made by the Small Brewers' Association, whose present office address is 188 West Randolph Street, Chicago, Ill. However, nominations may also be made by any individual brewer or by any other associations or groups of brewers.

(g) Elections of nominees for membership. Each election for the purpose of nominating grower, grower-dealer and dealer members or alternates of the Control Board to succeed those whose terms of office expire on March 31 of any year, shall be held on or before the preceding March 1, and shall be conducted and supervised by the Control Board. Regulations prescribing the method or methods for, and the rules governing the election of nominees as provided for in this section, and which shall assure to all persons eligible to take part in such elections reasonable opportunity to select candidates and to vote for nominees, shall be adopted by the Control Board and submitted to the Secretary on or before November 1, 1949; and such regulations as shall be approved by the Secretary shall govern each such election. Reports of the results of elections of nominees shall be submitted to the Secretary by the Control Board.

(h) Time limitation on nominations. In the event any of the group nominations are not submitted to the Secretary within twenty days after the time specified in paragraph (a) of this section, the Secretary may select each such member or alternate without waiting for the nomination or nominations to be made. If no qualified person is available from any category in any such group, the Secretary may appoint such member or alternate from another category within such group.

(i) Qualification of members and alternates. Each person selected as a member or alternate of the Control Board, including original members and alternates, shall promptly qualify by filing with the Secretary a written acceptance of the appointment. The failure of an appointee to qualify within twenty days after the appointment of such person shall be cause for the Secretary to appoint another person in his stead.

(j) Qualifications requirements for alternates. Each alternate shall meet the same qualifications, be nominated and selected in the same manner, and hold office for the same term, as the member for whom he is an alternate. An alternate for a member of the Control Board shall, in the event of that member's absence, act in the place and stead of that member; and in the event of such member's removal, resignation, disqualification, or death, the alternate for such member shall act in the place and stead of said member until a successor for the unexpired term of said member has been selected.

(k) Substitutes for members or alternates. In the event any member of the Control Board and his alternate are both unable or fail to attend a meeting of the Control Board, any alternate for any other member of the same group as that represented by the absent member may be designated by the absent member to serve in the stead of the absent member, or pending such designation the Secretary may designate such temporary substitute.

§ 986.23 Vacancies. To fill any vacancy which occurs by reason of the failure of any person, selected as a member of the Control Board or as an alternate member thereof, to qualify, or the death, removal, resignation, or disqualification of any qualified member or alternate member of the Control Board, a successor for his unexpired term of office shall be nominated and selected (insofar as is appropriate) in the manner specified in this subpart, for the nomination and selection of successors to the initial members and alternate members of the Control Board representing the same industry group as was represented by the respective member or alternate member thus to be succeeded. In the event such nomination for vacancy is not made within thirty days after the beginning of the vacancy, the Secretary may select a person to fill such vacancy without waiting for the nomination to be made.

§ 986.24 Compensation. The members of the Control Board, and their respective alternates, shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties under this part.

§ 986.25 Powers. The Control Board shall have the following powers:

(a) To administer the provisions of this subpart in accordance with their terms;

(b) To make rules and regulations to effectuate the terms and provisions of this subpart;

(c) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations of this subpart; and

(d) To recommend to the Secretary amendments of this subpart.

§ 986.26 Duties. The duties of the Control Board shall be, among others, as follows:

(a) Intermediary. To act as intermediary between the Secretary and any grower, handler, dealer, grower-dealer, or brewer;

(b) Minutes, books and records. To keep minutes, books, and other records which will clearly reflect all of its acts and transactions, and which shall be subject at any time to examination by the Secretary or his designated representative;

(c) Scientific studies and research. To provide, subject to prior approval by the Secretary, for the making of scientific and other studies and for the conducting of research appropriate in connection with the performance of its official duties;

(d) Assembling data. To gather and assemble data on the growing, handling, shipping and marketing conditions relative to hops and hop products, appropriate or desirable in connection with the performance of its official duties;

(e) Information. To furnish to the Secretary such available information with respect to hops as the Board may deem appropriate or as the Secretary may request;

(f) Audit. To cause the books and other records of the Control Board to be audited by one or more competent accountants at least once each marketing season and at such other times as the Control Board may deem necessary, or as the Secretary may request, and to file with the Secretary a copy of each audit report made;

(g) Managing agent. To employ a managing agent who, during his employment as such, shall not be a grower, dealer, grower-dealer, or brewer, nor in the employment thereof or financially interested in the production of, dealing in, or use of hops and hop products, and who shall serve as the Secretary of the Control Board and the secretary of the Growers Allocation Committee and shall have such other duties as are specified for him herein or by the Control Board; and to employ or retain such other employees, agents, and representatives as the Control Board may deem necessary; and to determine the salaries and define the duties of such managing agent, employees, agents and representatives;

(h) Notice to Secretary of meetings. To give to the Secretary the same notice of meetings of the Control Board as is given to the members of the Control Board; and

(i) Issuance of necessary regulations. To issue, with the approval of the Secretary, any regulations which are necessary and appropriate for the carrying out of the provisions of this subpart in accordance with their terms.

§ 986.27 Procedure—(a) Rules and officers. The Control Board shall adopt rules governing the performance of its powers and duties under this part, and shall select a chairman and such other officers as it may deem advisable.

(b) Quorum. A quorum shall consist of twelve members, or alternate members or substitutes then serving in the place and stead of any members, in attendance at the meeting, and all decisions of the Control Board shall be made by not less than ten affirmative votes.

(c) Permissive methods of voting. The Control Board may vote by mail or telegraph upon due notice to all members and when any proposition is submitted for polling by such method, one dissenting vote shall prevent its adoption until submitted to a meeting of the Control Board.

§ 986.28 Funds and other property—(a) Uses. All funds received by the Control Board pursuant to this subpart shall be used solely for the purposes specified in this subpart; and the Secretary may require the Control Board and its members to account for all receipts and disbursements.

(b) Accountability of members. Whenever any person ceases to be a member or alternate member of the Control Board, such person shall account for all receipts and disbursements under this subpart and deliver all property, funds, books, and other records (in his possession or control) of the Control Board, to his successor in office or to such person as the Secretary may designate, and shall execute such assignments and other instruments as may be necessary or appropriate to vest in such successor or in such designated person the right to all of the property, funds or claims vested in such manner.

(c) Legal action for collection of assessments. The Control Board, with the approval of the Secretary, may maintain in its own name, or in the names of its members, a suit against any handler subject to the provisions of this subpart for the collection of such handler's pro rata share of expenses.

GROWERS ALLOCATION COMMITTEE

§ 986.35 Members. The grower members and the grower-dealer members of the Control Board shall constitute the Growers Allocation Committee. Said committee shall have such duties and powers as are expressly specified in this subpart for that committee and such other duties and powers as may be incident thereto. The Growers Allocation Committee may incur only such expenses as from time to time are authorized by the Control Board.

§ 986.36 Procedure. The Growers Allocation Committee shall select one of its members as its chairman and such other officers as it may deem advisable. It shall keep proper records of all its proceedings, and shall adopt regulations governing its procedure. It may provide for voting by mail or telegraph upon due notice to all members and when any such proposition is submitted for polling by such method, one dissenting vote shall prevent its adoption until submitted to a meeting of the Growers Allocation Committee.

§ 986.37 Alternates. The alternate of each grower member or grower-dealer member of the Control Board shall have the same right to serve in lieu of a member of the Growers Allocation Committee as such alternate has to serve in lieu of a member of the Control Board.

GROWERS ADVISORY COMMITTEE

§ 986.40 Establishment and membership. A Growers Advisory Committee of 12 members is hereby established for each of the States of Washington and California, and of 13 members for the combined States of Oregon and Idaho. Each of the said committees shall consist of members who shall be growers or grower-dealers, or officers or employees of growers or grower-dealers, engaged in growing hops in and shall be residents of the State or States for which the respective committee is established; one of the members of the Advisory Committee for the States of Oregon and Idaho shall be a grower or an officer or employee thereof, engaged in growing hops in and a resident of the State of Idaho.

§ 986.41 Original members. The original members of the Growers Advisory Committees shall be the members of the existing advisory committees organized by the United States Hop Growers Association, an association of hop growers whose present address is Mills Building, San Francisco, California. Each of the original members shall serve for a term ending on January 31, 1950, and in the event that the respective person's successor has not been selected by February 1, 1950, such person shall serve until his successor has been selected.

§ 986.42 Election of successor members. Successor members of Growers Advisory Committees, beginning with those elected for terms beginning on and after February 1, 1950, shall serve a two year term ending January 31. Election shall be at meetings held under the supervision of the Managing Agent or his designated representative by the growers and grower-dealers in each of the designated districts in this subpart. In such election each grower and each grower-dealer residing or producing hops in the district shall have an opportunity to participate, and at such election shall, on behalf of himself, his agents, partners, affiliates, subsidiaries, and representatives, cast only one vote to fill the vacancy or vacancies occurring in his district. No grower or grower-dealer shall vote in more than one district in any one State. Voting shall be by ballot; there shall be no voting by proxy. The nominee having the highest number of votes shall be the member for the district or, in the districts electing more than one member, the nominees receiving in consecutive order the highest number of votes shall be the members for that district. In the case of a tie vote, where vacancies are insufficient to give membership to each, a runoff election shall be held on the vacancy in question.

§ 986.43 Washington Advisory Committee. The State of Washington is hereby delimited into four election districts, as follows:

District No. 1. That portion of Yakima County lying east of the Yakima River and north of Parker Ridge, and all counties of the State of Washington not delineated in other districts.

District No. 2. Benton County, Klickitat County, and that portion of Yakima County lying south of Parker and Ahtanum Ridges.

District No. 3. That portion of Yakima County lying north of Ahtanum Ridge and west of the Yakima River.

District No. 4. All counties of the State of Washington lying west of Districts 2 and 3, or lying west of the Cascade Mountains.

Growers and grower-dealers who reside or produce hops in any such district shall be entitled to vote for and select for that district three members of the Advisory Committee.

§ 986.44 California Advisory Committee. The State of California is hereby delimited into three election districts, as follows:

District No. 1. Sacramento County and all other counties of the State of California not delineated in other districts.

District No. 2. Sonoma, Napa and Marin Counties.

District No. 3. Mendocino and Lake Counties.

Growers and grower-dealers who reside or produce hops in any such district shall be entitled to vote for and select for that district four members of the Advisory Committee.

§ 986.45 Oregon-Idaho Advisory Committee. The States of Oregon and Idaho are hereby delimited into twelve election districts, as follows:

Umatilla, Morrow, Gilliam, Sherman, Wasco, Hood River and Multnomah Counties, and that portion of Clackamas County described as follows: Beginning at Sellwood, Oregon, thence south following the meanderings of the Willamette River to Oregon City, thence south following the Oregon City-Molalla Highway to Lewis Station due east of Canby thence due east along a straight line to the Cascade Mountains, thence north along the eastern boundary of Clackamas County to the northern boundary of Clackamas County, thence due west to place of beginning and all other Counties or portion of Counties of Oregon not delineated in other districts.

Growers and grower-dealers who reside or produce hops in the district which includes the State of Idaho shall be entitled to vote for and select for that district two members of the Advisory Committee, one of whom shall be a grower of hops in the State of Idaho; and growers and grower-dealers who reside or produce hops in any of the other districts shall be entitled to vote for and select for that district one member of the Advisory Committee.

§ 986.46 Changes in districts. The number of districts or the area covered by each in any State or States may be changed by the Secretary in an equitable manner giving consideration to quantity of hops produced, number of growers, geographical characteristics or other factors and upon recommendation of the Control Board or of the Advisory Committee for such State or States.

§ 986.47 Alternates. Each member of an Advisory Committee may designate, in writing, addressed to the managing agent, an alternate having the same membership qualifications as are applicable to the member. Such alternate may act at any meeting of the Advisory Committee at which the member is not present.

§ 986.48 Vacancies. A vacancy in the membership of an Advisory Committee shall be filled, for the balance of the term of the member whose place is vacant, by a person of the membership qualifications of the former member, selected by majority vote of the remaining members of that committee.

§ 986.49 Expenses. The members of each Advisory Committee may be reimbursed by the Control Board for all travel and other expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties.

§ 986.50 Functions—(a) Nomination of successor Control Board members. Each Advisory Committee shall promptly nominate to the Secretary a successor to any grower from that State whose term on the Control Board as a member or alternate shall expire or whose place on the Control Board for any reason may become vacant. Grower members of an Advisory Committee, as well as other growers, shall be eligible for nomination by that Advisory Committee to serve on the Control Board.

(b) Officers and other functions. Each Advisory Committee shall select from its membership a chairman and such other officers as the respective committee may deem advisable, and shall keep proper records of all of its proceedings. It shall hold meetings after notice to its members, upon the call of four members, or upon the call of its chairman, or the Control Board, or the Managing Agent. Each Advisory Committee shall serve the Control Board in an advisory capacity concerning the administration hereof in the State or States for which such committee is established, and in general shall perform such ministerial functions as the Control Board may, from time to time, specify. Each Advisory Committee may incur only such expenses as are authorized by the Control Board.

CONTROL OF QUALITY

§ 986.60 Minimum standards of quality and grading and inspection requirements—(a) Establishment. In order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, the Secretary shall, after consideration of the Control Board's recommendations, prescribe minimum standards of quality for hops with respect to their leaf and stem content or other factors of quality and maturity for which grading and inspection procedure has been developed by the Grain Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, and is in general use; and shall prescribe grading and inspection requirements therefor. The term "leaves and stems," as used in this subpart, shall include all leaves and stems of the hop plant, except the stems (petioles) which bear the individual cones, and all extraneous matter. Hop seeds which are naturally within the hops under inspection shall not be considered as extraneous matter. To aid the Secretary in prescribing minimum standards and requirements, the Control Board shall furnish to the Secretary the information upon which it acted in recommending such standards and requirements, and shall furnish such other available data pertaining thereto as the Secretary shall request.

(b) Initial standards and requirements. Until such time as other standards and requirements for leaf and stem content are prescribed under this section, no hops shall be deemed merchantable or entitled to certification which contain over fifteen percent, by weight, of leaves and stems as defined in this section and as determined by the Federal-State inspection service.[1]

(c) Operation irrespective of price. The provisions of this section relating to minimum standards of quality and maturity, and to grading and inspection requirements, within the meaning of section 2 (3) of the act, and any other provisions pertaining to the administration and enforcement thereof, shall continue in effect irrespective of whether the season average price for hops is in excess of the parity level specified in section 2 (1) of the act.

§ 986.61 Inspection and certification. Each grower shall be entitled, upon application to the Control Board or its representative, and subject to the meeting by him of any applicable provisions of § 986.60 and §§ 986.70 through 986.81, to the certification of hops harvested after the effective date of this subpart: Provided, That such hops have been inspected by the Federal-State Inspection Service within the States of Oregon, California, Washington, or Idaho, and their official certificate presented by such grower showing such hops to meet said standards and requirements. No person shall handle any hops harvested after the effective date of this subpart unless such hops have been so certificated by the Control Board.

§ 986.62 Regulations. Such certification as to minimum quality shall be based on information on a Federal-State Inspection Certificate and shall include substantially the following wording: "Hops covered by this certificate are of the ---------- crop and are covered (year) by Federal-State Inspection Certificate No. -------- as meeting minimum standards of quality prescribed pursuant to applicable Federal-Marketing Agreement and Order." Such certification shall be executed by authorized representatives of the Control Board, the grower and the handler. The bale or other container shall also be marked or tagged to furnish proper identification as to producer and lot. Such marking or tagging shall comply with the requirements for marking included in § 986.79. This method of marking may be changed by the Control Board, subject to the approval of the Secretary.

[1] In a supplemental order (16 F. R. 6713) issued by the Secretary of Agriculture on July 6, 1951, and made effective August 1, 1951, such maximum leaf and stem content was fixed at 10 percent.

CONTROL OF SURPLUS

§ 986.70 Application. The provisions of §§ 986.70 through 986.81 shall apply only during marketing seasons in which the estimated season average price of hops to growers is at or below the parity level specified in section 2 (1) of the act.

§ 986.71 Determination of salable quantity—(a) Total carryover. As early in the respective year as it shall find it to be feasible, but not later than August 1, the Control Board shall ascertain or estimate the total carryover, within the United States, of hops and hop products, expressed in terms of dry hops, produced in or outside the area covered hereby prior to that year and which, if produced within such area, are eligible for handling pursuant to the terms of this section.

(b) Consumptive demand. At the same time, the Control Board shall estimate the total consumptive demand for hops produced during the respective year. In estimating such consumptive demand, there shall be included the quantity of such hops estimated to be used as hops and the quantity estimated to be used in the form of hop products.

(c) Recommendation by Control Board. Immediately thereafter, and based upon its aforesaid estimates and findings, the Control Board shall make and transmit to the Secretary its recommendation of the maximum quantity of hops (net dry weight), produced during that respective year which should, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, be handled in the form of hops or in the form of any hop product, and, with such recommendation, shall transmit to the Secretary its estimates and findings on which its recommendation is based.

(d) Determination by Secretary of salable quantity. On the basis of the aforesaid estimates, data, and recommendations of the Control Board submitted pursuant to this section, and such other pertinent information as the Secretary may have, the Secretary shall determine, fix, and announce such maximum quantity of hops produced during that respective year which may be handled in the form of hops and in the form of any hop product. Such maximum quantity of hops which shall be fixed by the Secretary as aforesaid shall be known, and is referred to hereinafter, as the salable quantity of that respective year's crop of hops.

§ 986.72 Increase of salable quantity. The Secretary may at any time increase the salable quantity for the crop of any year in which the continued withholding of surplus would result in a season average price to growers in excess of the parity level specified in section 2 (1) of the act, or upon due consideration of either the needs of brewers or a recommendation of the Control Board that the salable quantity be increased. The Secretary may not decrease said salable quantity.

§ 986.73 Conversion ratios. In computing the hops equivalent of hop products, and unless changed as provided in this section, one pound of lupulin shall be considered equivalent to 20 pounds of dry hops and one pound of hop oil to 400 pounds of dry hops. In the case of hop extracts or concentrates for which conversion ratios are not established in this section, the Control Board, or its authorized representative may temporarily establish such conversion ratios for a period not exceeding 90 days. Conversion factors referred to in this section may be changed by regulation of the Control Board, subject to approval of the Secretary.

§ 986.74 Determination of total production—(a) Determination by Growers Allocation Committee. As the basis for apportioning equitably among growers the salable quantity of each year's crop, the Growers Allocation Committee each year as early as practicable during or after harvest, shall determine, or cause to be determined under its supervision, the total quantity of hops (net dry weight) produced by growers during that year which meet the requirements of § 986.60. Such determination shall include, for each grower, his harvested, unharvested, and total production. Such determination shall also include the quantity, if any, of such hops found to have been converted into hop products, except that lupulin sweepings shall be included in the computation only to the extent of the pounds of lupulin found to be in such quantity of lupulin sweepings. Unharvested hops shall be included only if grown to maturity and remaining unharvested on living vines which remain strung or trained, and from which hops have not been picked, and which have not been removed from the wires or poles. Such unharvested hops shall be determined by the Growers Allocation Committee on the basis of the amount of hops (net dry weight) which would have been yielded if such unharvested hops had been picked, dried, and baled or otherwise processed and packaged for market. In the event any grower does not permit the Growers Allocation Committee, or its representatives, access to any hops grown by that grower, or to any product thereof, or shall fail or refuse to make available to said committee, or its representatives, information relative to such hops or hop products which the Growers Allocation Committee finds to be desirable in order properly to make such determination in accordance with the provisions of this section, the Growers Allocation Committee shall determine, or cause to be determined, on the basis of an estimate of the grower's acreage, the average crop conditions in the area, the probable yield per acre on the grower's acreage, and from such other information as is available to it, the respective grower's production as aforesaid. After completing its determination of production by each individual grower, as aforesaid, the Growers Allocation Committee shall, by means of addition, compute the harvested, unharvested, and total production by all growers.

(b) Preliminary estimates. The Growers Allocation Committee each year, prior to the start of harvest, or as soon thereafter as practicable, shall determine, or cause to be determined under its supervision, a preliminary estimate of said total quantity of hops which will be produced by all growers from that year's crop. Said preliminary estimate shall be based upon the then current Federal or Federal-State crop estimates, as the case may be, and upon such other relevant data as are available.

(c) Determinations for and protests by members of committee. The determinations pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section for each member or alternate member of the Growers Allocation Committee shall not be made by any member or alternate member of such committee, but shall be made, and reported in writing to the Secretary and to the Growers Allocation Committee, by such other qualified person or persons as the Control Board or its authorized representatives shall designate for that purpose. Any protest by a member or alternate member of the Growers Allocation Committee concerning such determination shall be made directly to, and be determined by, the Secretary.

(d) Notice to growers. The Growers Allocation Committee shall cause to be mailed to each grower notice of the determination pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section of the respective grower's production for the respective year, and also, the computation of the total quantity determined, pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, respectively, produced by all growers during that year. The committee shall also publicly announce said computations of said total quantity, both estimated and final.

(e) Protests by growers. Any grower who may be dissatisfied with the determinations pursuant to § 986.74 (a) or § 986.75, may protest in writing to the Growers Allocation Committee within 10 days of the date of mailing of the notice and if dissatisfied with the decision in regard to such protest may appeal in writing to the Secretary.

(f) Determination by Secretary. Upon expiration of the time for protest specified in paragraph (e) of this section, and after completion of action by that committee upon all protests, the Growers Allocation Committee shall report to the Secretary all findings, determinations, and computations made by or for it pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, together with the data on which the same were based. On the basis of such findings, determinations, computations, data and other pertinent information which the Secretary may have, the Secretary shall determine and notify the Growers Allocation Committee of the harvested, unharvested, and total quantity of hops (net dry weight) meeting the requirements of § 986.60 which were produced by each grower during that year: Provided, That such determinations shall include the quantity, if any, of such hops converted into hop products except that insofar as lupulin sweepings are concerned there shall be included, in the computation, only the pounds of lupulin in such quantity of lupulin sweepings, and insofar as unharvested hops are concerned, shall include (net dry weight) only hops of that respective year's crop grown to maurity and remaining unharvested on the living vines. The Secretary, after having determined each grower's production, as aforesaid, shall, by means of addition, determine the production by all growers; the total production by all growers is referred to in this subpart as the "aggregate production" for that respective year. Immediately upon receipt of notice thereof from the Secretary, the Growers Allocation Committee shall publicly announce the aforesaid determination by the Secretary.

§ 986.75 Computation of growers' allotments—(a) Salable percentage. (1) The "salable percentage" of the aggregate production, determined pursuant to § 986.74, shall be computed by dividing the salable quantity of that year's crop, determined pursuant to § 986.71, by the aforesaid aggregate production, and multiplying the quotient by 100. After computing such salable percentage on this basis, it shall be adjusted to the nearest tenth of a percent. Each grower's maximum allotment of the salable quantity of that year's crop shall be that same salable percentage applied to his production as determined pursuant to § 986.74, except that if any such grower fails to harvest a quantity from that crop equal to such maximum salable allotment so computed for him, his salable allotment shall be the quantity which he actually harvested: Provided, That, if prior to the determination by the Secretary of the aggregate production of hops by all growers in any year, the Growers Allocation Committee finds that the harvested quantity exceeds the salable quantity, but, nevertheless, the aforementioned salable percentage will not result in the availability in marketing channels of the salable quantity of hops fixed for that year's crop, such percentage may be established by the Secretary at an amount necessary to result in the availability in marketing channels of the salable quantity of hops fixed for that year's crop: And provided also, That, if, prior to the determination by the Secretary of the aggregate production of hops by all growers in any year, the Growers Allocation Committee finds that the aggregate quantity of hops harvested from that year's crop, and meeting the minimum standards of quality prescribed in this subpart, will be less than the salable quantity fixed for such year's crop, such salable percentage shall, with the approval of the Secretary, be increased to 100 for that year's crop: And provided further, That, in lieu of the aforementioned method of computing growers' maximum allotments, the Secretary may make effective, at the beginning of any marketing season, the following procedure pursuant to a recommendation of the Control Board to that effect (such recommendation of the Board to be pursuant to and in accordance with a prior recommendation to it by the Growers Allocation Committee): Each grower's allotment of the maximum salable quantity of that year's crop shall be computed by first subtracting from said grower's poundage of credited production, the leaf and stem content thereof and applying the salable percentage to the remainder, then dividing the resulting quantity by the average percentage of clean hops (hops exclusive of leaf and stem content) in the aggregate production of hops for the preceding marketing season. The quotient will be the grower's maximum allotment of the salable quantity, in pounds of hops as prepared for market by him. The Board shall include in any recommendation pursuant to this proviso full information and data on which such recommendation is based. Said recommendation shall specify in regard to the "percentage of clean hops" to be used in the computation, whether such percentage shall be computed and applied for the production area as a whole or separately by States, and the Secretary if he approves the Board's recommendation shall state in his approval which procedure in regard thereto, shall be followed: And provided further, That, if this substitute method of computing growers' allotments is made effective, the Board may recommend (following a recommendation to it by the Growers Allocation Committee) to the Secretary the readoption of the original method at the beginning of any subsequent marketing season, supplying full information and data upon which such recommendation is based, and the Secretary may make such original method again effective.

(2) In any year in which the salable percentage, determined pursuant to this section, exceeds 98 percent, each grower's allotment shall be the total quantity harvested by such grower, determined pursuant to § 986.74. Each allotment determined under this subpart shall be expressed in pounds, net dry weight of hops, and shall be known as the respective grower's "maximum salable allotment" of that respective year's crop.

§ 986.76 Preliminary and supplementary allotments—(a) Preliminary. In order to assist growers to avoid delays in their individual harvesting and marketing, the Control Board, or its authorized representative, each year shall compute an "estimated salable percentage" of estimated aggregate production and shall compute and issue, or cause to be computed and issued, prior to the issuance of final allotments applicable to that year's crop, to any grower who applies therefor to the Growers Allocation Committee, a preliminary allotment representing such proportion of that grower's total production of hops during that year as the Growers Allocation Committee, or its authorized representatives, shall determine will not be in excess of 50 percent of that grower's estimated salable allotment for that year's crop. Said estimate shall be based upon physical examination of the hop yard, or yards, upon the historical production thereof, upon official crop estimates, and upon such other relevant data as are available.

(b) Supplementary, 80 percent basis. The Control Board, or its authorized representative, shall each year issue, prior to the issuance of final allotments applicable to that year's crop, to any grower who applies therefor to the Growers Allocation Committee, a supplementary allotment representing such proportions of that grower's total production of hops during that year as the Growers Allocation Committee, or its authorized representatives, shall determine will not be in excess of 80 percent of that grower's probable salable allotment for that year's crop: Provided, That any such supplementary allotment shall be based upon adequate, but not complete, crop production information available to the Growers Allocation Committee, or its authorized representatives, including, but not limited to bale count data or other reasonably accurate information as to such grower's hop production for that year.

(c) Supplementary, 90 percent basis. The Control Board, or its authorized representative, shall issue, prior to the issuance of final allotments applicable to that year's crop, to any grower who applies therefor to the Growers Allocation Committee, a supplementary allotment representing such proportion of that grower's total production of hops during that year as the Growers Allocation Committee, or its authorized representatives, shall determine will not be in excess of 90 percent of that grower's probable salable allotment for that year's crop: Provided, That any such supplementary allotment shall be based upon complete crop production information available to the Growers Allocation Committee, or its authorized representatives, including, but not limited to complete weight data on such grower's harvested hop production and the recommended determination by the Growers Allocation Committee, or its authorized representatives, as to any unharvested hop production for that year, and Federal-State Inspection Service evidence of the meeting of all minimum standard requirements for quality provided for in § 986.60 by all harvested hops of such grower for that year.

(d) Eligibility for certification. After issuance to a grower of such preliminary or supplemental allotment, the hops covered thereby, and any hop product derived from such hops, shall be eligible for certification, marking, and handling as though the final allotment had been issued, and subject to the same terms, conditions, and regulations as are applicable to such certification, marking, and handling of hops and hop products under a final salable allotment.

(e) Notice to growers. The Growers Allocation Committee shall mail to each grower who has requested a preliminary or supplementary allotment (either or both) notice thereof, and to each grower notice of his final salable allotment computed by that Committee as provided in this subpart. A list of the salable allotments of all growers for each year's crop shall be compiled and maintained by the Growers Allocation Committee at each of its offices, where the same shall be available during all reasonable hours for inspection by any interested person.

§ 986.77 Joint allotment—(a) Joint ownership. In the event that more than one grower shall participate jointly in the production of hops, whether as landlord and tenant, as partners, or otherwise, and said growers report that fact to the Growers Allocation Committee, then a single salable allotment shall cover such joint production. In the event that thereafter the interests of those growers in the crop produced or being produced are segregated, the Growers Allocation Committee, or its authorized representative, upon written application signed by all of said interested growers shall segregate and distribute said salable allotment among said growers in accordance with their respective segregated interests in the crop.

(b) Associations. Upon application of any bona fide incorporated cooperative association of growers which is authorized to market hops or hop products included within the salable allotments of those of its members who have authorized the association to sell and pool their hops for them, the individual salable allotments of such members shall be pooled and hops produced by those members during that season, and hop products derived from such hops, may be certificated and handled by that association without regard to the limits of the individual allotments of the members: Provided, That, (1) any such application is made in writing by the association to the Growers Allocation Committee prior to determination of the salable allotments to which it is to apply, (2) such application is signed by the duly authorized officers of the association, (3) such application is accompanied by satisfactory evidence that the submission of it has been approved by the membership of the association, by official action at a meeting or otherwise during the particular calendar year, and (4) such application is also accompanied by satisfactory evidence that each of the individual members who will be affected by the pooling arrangement has authorized the association to handle his hops under such a pooling arrangement.

§ 986.78 Revision of allotments—(a) Revisions and new allotments. In the event that at the normal time, no determination, pursuant to § 986.74, has been made as to a particular grower entitled thereto pursuant to the provisions of this subpart, or a previous determination as to a particular grower is substantially in error, the Growers Allocation Committee shall make the determination or correct the erroneous determination, or shall cause such determination or correction to be made. The same requirements of determination and approval by the Secretary, notice to the grower and rights of protest and appeal, shall be effective with respect to such determination, as in the case of a timely or original determination.

(b) Correction of clerical errors. In the event that the Growers Allocation Committee or the Managing Agent shall find, at any time, that the salable allotment previously issued to a grower was incorrectly computed or is erroneous by reason of mathematical or clerical error, the Growers Allocation Committee or the Managing Agent shall correct and revise said allotment to the extent found to be proper, and shall notify the respective grower and the Secretary of such correction.

§ 986.79 Certification—(a) Hops harvested during effective period of order. Each grower for whom a salable quantity is determined may, upon application to the Control Board or its representative and subject to the limitations of §§ 986.60 through 986.62, have the eligible quantity of hops or hop products certificated for handling. Such certification shall consist of the indelible marking of each bale or other container of such hops or hop products by an authorized representative of the Control Board and the issuance and delivery of a "handling certificate." Such marking shall be placed on the bale cover or other container or on a tag securely attached to such other container, and shall show the year of production, the handling certificate number, and the words "Certificated, Hop Control Board." This method of marking may be changed by the Control Board, subject to the approval of the Secretary. Such handling certificate shall certify that pursuant to the provisions of this section a specified quantity of hops or hop products has been duly certificated, for the grower and handler named in said certificate, as being eligible for handling pursuant to the terms of this subpart, and shall be executed by authorized representatives of the Control Board, the grower, and the handler. Such certification may exceed any grower's salable quantity by not over 100 pounds, provided such excess quantity is included entirely within the weight of the last bale or container certificated for said quantity.

(b) Hops harvested prior to effective date of this subpart. Any person who owns or is in the possession of hops harvested or hop products from hops harvested prior to 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 2, 1949, is entitled upon application, within 30 days after such date, to the Control Board or its representatives, to have such hops or hop products certificated free of charge without regard to any salable quantity, or minimum standard of quality. The Control Board may extend such time for good cause.

§ 986.80 Limitation of handling to certificated hops or hop products. No person, as principal, agent, broker, legal representative, or otherwise, shall handle any hops harvested or hop products from hops harvested subsequent to 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 2, 1949, unless: (a) Prior to such handling, the Control Board shall have issued a "handling certificate" pursuant to § 986.79 applicable to such hops or hop products; and (b) each bale or other container of said hops or hop products shall have been duly marked or tagged as prescribed in this subpart, for the purpose of identifying such hops or hop products as being covered by a duly issued salable allotment or as being properly certificated. However, hops harvested prior to 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 2, 1949, and hop products produced from such hops may be certificated for handling without regard to the salable allotment or the quality restriction

§ 986.81 Diversion privilege. In the event harvested hops in the control of the respective grower thereof, are destroyed or are so damaged or so deteriorated as, in the judgment of the grower to be unmarketable, or, if, because of quality or type, such hops are unsatisfactory to the grower, such grower may replace such hops (if the lupulin has not been removed therefrom) within the limits of his salable allotment for that year's crop, by acquiring uncertificated harvested hops of that year's crop from the growers thereof: Provided, That such purchasing grower shall first submit a written statement to the Growers Allocation Committee, setting forth the year of production, the location, and the quantity of hops he desires so to replace, (and, if the hops to be replaced have been destroyed, the time, place, and cause of such destruction, together with proof of such destruction satisfactory to the Growers Allocation Committee, or its authorized representatives), and the name and address of each grower from whom he proposes to acquire uncertificated hops for that purpose, and makes arrangements with the Growers Allocation Committee, or its authorized representatives, whereby the unmarketable, or unsatisfactory hops which are thus to be replaced will be effectively diverted from or disposed of out of the normal channels of trade, and such disposal or diversion shall be in such manner as may be prescribed by the Control Board: And provided further, That, any hops so diverted shall not be diverted or disposed of as hop products as defined in § 986.5. The selling grower shall not be regarded as handling such hops within the meaning of this subpart, nor shall the hops sold be considered a part of such selling grower's salable allotment. The Growers Allocation Committee shall prepare, and from time to time shall revise, a list of the names and addresses of growers who report to the Growers Allocation Committee that they have uncertificated hops for sale pursuant to this section; and a list of the names and addresses of growers who report to the Growers Allocation Committee that they desire to purchase or acquire uncertificated hops pursuant to this section. The Growers Allocation Committee shall make such lists available to any grower or handler of hops at each office of the Control Board.

§ 986.82 Supervision of disposition of uncertificated hops. Any grower who desires to dispose of any uncertificated hops or hop products in his possession or control shall first arrange with the Growers Allocation Committee, or its authorized representatives, for supervision of such disposition. The Growers Allocation Committee, or its authorized representatives, shall thereupon provide such supervision at the mutual convenience of such grower and of the Committee, or its authorized representatives. The requirements set forth in this section shall apply to all such dispositions of uncertificated hops and hop products except (a) cases where such dispositions are accidental or are due to causes beyond the control of the particular growers, or (b) cases where such dispositions are made pursuant to the provisions of § 986.81.

EXPENSES AND ASSESSMENTS

§ 986.90 Expenses. The Control Board (including, but not limited to, the Growers Allocation Committee and the several Growers Advisory Committees) is authorized to incur such expenses as the Secretary may find are reasonable and likely to be incurred by it during each marketing season for the maintenance and functioning by it and for such purposes as the Secretary may, pursuant to the provisions of this subpart determine to be appropriate. Such expenses shall be paid from the funds acquired pursuant to § 986.91. The recommendation of the Control Board as to its expenses for each such marketing season, or a portion thereof, together with all data supporting such recommendation, shall be submitted to the Secretary on or before September 15 of the marketing season for which such recommendation is made. The funds to cover such expenses shall be acquired by levying assessments as provided in § 986.91.

§ 986.91 Assessments—(a) Requirement for payment. Each handler shall pay to the Control Board the assessment provided in paragraph (b) of this section with respect to all hops and hop products which are handled or to be handled by that handler as the first handler thereof, except (1) such hops or hop products as are duly certificated pursuant to § 986.79 and (2) such hop products as have been derived from duly certificated hops with respect to which such assessment previously had been paid: Provided, however, That any grower who markets or transports to market within the State of production hops produced by that grower, or any hop product produced by that grower from hops produced by that grower, or hops acquired pursuant to § 986.81 or hop products produced from such hops, shall not be deemed to be the first handler thereof insofar only as payment of assessments pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph may be concerned. The person who handles such hops or hop products next following such handling by said grower shall be considered the first handler thereof within the provisions of this section. Said assessment shall be paid to the Control Board prior to or at the time of such handling, or at such subsequent time as the Control Board may specify.

(b) Rate of assessment. The aforesaid assessment shall be at the rate of one-fourth of one cent per pound, net dry weight, of hops handled, and said rate shall continue in effect until changed by the Control Board with the approval of the Secretary; and the assessment rate of any hop product shall be based upon the assessment rate for hops, and shall be computed at such conversion ratio or ratios between hops and the respective hop product as determined pursuant to § 986.73.

§ 986.92 Refunds. Any money collected as assessments during any marketing season and not expended in connection with that season's operations, may be used by the Control Board during a period of five months subsequent to such marketing season in paying the expenses of the Control Board incurred in connection with the new marketing season. The Control Board shall, however, from funds on hand, including assessments collected during the new marketing season, credit or upon request make available, within six months after the beginning of the new marketing season, the aforesaid excess carried into the new season, to each handler from whom an assessment was collected in the preceding marketing season, in the proportion that the amount of the assessment paid by the respective handler bears to the total amount of the assessments paid by all handlers during said preceding marketing season.

COMPLIANCE WITH PROVISIONS

§ 986.95 Compliance. Each handler shall comply strictly with all provisions of this subpart and all regulations duly effective under this subpart. No handler shall handle any hops or any hop product in violation of any of the provisions of this subpart or in violation of any regulation effective pursuant to this subpart.

REPORTS, BOOKS, AND RECORDS

§ 986.101 Books and records. Each handler and each subsidiary or affiliate thereof shall keep books and other records which will clearly show the details of its handling of hops and hop products.

§ 986.102 Reports by handlers. To enable the Control Board, the Growers Allocation Committee, and each Advisory Committee to perform its functions under this subpart, each handler shall furnish to the Managing Agent, (a) on June 1, or as of that date and within 15 days thereafter or on any other date or dates which the Control Board may specify, complete information as requested by the Control Board relating to the total quantity of hops and hop products owned by the respective handler; and (b) on or before December 1, or on any other date or dates which the Control Board may specify, complete information relating to (1) the volume of hops and hop products handled during the next preceding marketing season; (2) the names and addresses of the growers and other persons from whom such hops or hop products were acquired; and (3) the quantity of hops grown by that handler during such period. Such information furnished to the Managing Agent shall be confidential and shall not be disclosed to any person (including members of the Control Board as well as other persons) except to the Secretary at his request, or to such person as the Secretary may specify: Provided, That the Managing Agent may compile such information in such form as will not reveal the identity of individual informants and may make such compilations available to the Control Board, Growers Allocation Committee, any Advisory Committee, or to the public. The Managing Agent shall not disclose any information acquired under this section, except as expressly authorized in this section.

§ 986.103 Reports by growers. Each grower shall report to the Growers Allocation Committee, prior to June 15 of each marketing season, the quantities (by years of production stated separately) and locations of all uncertificated hops and hop products owned or controlled by him as of the preceding June 1, and each grower shall also furnish to the Growers Allocation Committee reports containing such information as of such other date or dates as the Growers Allocation Committee may specify.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 986.105 Amendments. Amendment of this subpart may from time to time be proposed by the Control Board or by the Secretary.

§ 986.106 Agents. The Secretary may, by a designation in writing, name any person, including but not being limited to, any officer or employee of the United States Department of Agriculture, or any Division thereof, to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this subpart.

§ 986.107 Effective time, suspension, and termination—(a) Effective time. The provisions of this subpart, or of any amendment to this subpart, shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare, and shall continue in force unless terminated or suspended in one of the ways specified in this section, so long as the provisions of the act authorizing the same are in effect.

(b) Termination or suspension. (1) The Secretary may, at any time, terminate or suspend the provisions of this subpart whenever he finds that the provisions hereof obstruct or do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act; and such notice of the termination or suspension shall be given as the Secretary deems proper.

(2) The Secretary shall terminate the provisions of this subpart whenever he finds that such termination is favored by the majority of the growers of hops who, during such representative period as may be determined by the Secretary, have been engaged in the production of hops within said States for market: Provided, That such majority have, during such period, produced for market more than 50 percent of the total volume of hops produced for market in said area during such period. Such termination shall become and be effective on and after the first day of July subsequent to the announcement thereof by the Secretary.

(3) The provisions of this subpart shall terminate in any event whenever the provisions of the act authorizing them cease to be in effect.

(c) Proceedings after termination. Upon the termination of the provisions of this subpart the members of the Control Board then functioning shall continue as trustees (for the purpose of liquidating the affairs of said Control Board) of all funds and property then in the possession or under the control of the Control Board, including but not being limited to claims for any funds unpaid or property not delivered at the time of such termination; but the procedural rules governing the activities of said trustees; including, but not limited to, the determination as to whether action may be taken by only a majority vote of the trustees, shall be prescribed by the Secretary. Said trustees shall continue in such capacity until discharged by the Secretary, and from time to time shall account for all receipts and disbursements, and deliver all funds and property on hand, together with all books and records of the Control Board and the trustees, to such person as the Secretary may direct, and shall, upon the request of the Secretary, execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person the right to all of the funds or claims vested in the Control Board or the trustees pursuant to this section. Any funds collected for expenses pursuant to §§ 986.90 through 986.92 and held by such trustees or such person over and above amounts necessary to meet outstanding obligations and the expenses necessarily incurred by the trustees or such other person, in the performance of their duties under this subpart, shall, as soon as practicable after the termination of the provisions of this subpart, be disbursed among the handlers pro rata in proportion to their contributions pursuant to this section. Any person to whom funds, property, or claims have been delivered by the Control Board or its members, upon direction of the Secretary as provided in this section shall be subject to the same obligations and duties with respect to said funds, property, or claims as are hereinabove imposed upon the members of said Board or upon said trustees.

§ 986.108 Duration of immunities. The benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred by virtue of this subpart shall cease upon termination of this subpart, except with respect to acts done under and during the existence of this subpart; and the benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred hereby upon any party signatory hereto shall cease upon the termination of this subpart as to such party except with respect to acts done under and during the existence of this subpart.

§ 986.109 Separability. If any provision of this subpart is declared invalid or the applicability thereof to any person, circumstance, or thing is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this subpart or the applicability thereof to any other person, circumstance, or thing shall not be affected thereby.

§ 986.110 Derogation. Nothing contained in this subpart is, or shall be construed to be, in derogation or in modification of the rights of the Secretary or of the United States (a) to exercise any powers granted by the act or otherwise, or (b) in accordance with such powers, to act in the premises whenever such action is deemed advisable.

§ 986.111 Right of the Secretary. Each member of the Control Board, Growers Allocation Committee, and Growers Advisory Committee, including successors and alternates, and any agent, representative or employee appointed or employed by the Control Board, shall be subject to removal or suspension by the Secretary at any time. Each regulation, decision, determination, or other act of the Control Board, Growers Allocation Committee, or any Growers Advisory Committee, shall be subject to the continuing right of the Secretary to disapprove of the same at any time and, upon such disapproval, shall be deemed null and void except as to acts done in reliance thereon or in compliance therewith prior to such disapproval by the Secretary.

§ 986.112 Liability of Control Board members. No member of the Control Board, Growers Allocation Committee, or any Advisory Committee, nor any agent, representative, or employee, shall be held liable individually in any way whatsoever to any other person for errors in judgment, mistakes, or other acts either of commission or omission as such member, employee, representative, except for acts of dishonesty. The liability of the parties hereunder is several and not joint, and no party shall be liable for the default of any other party.

§ 986.113 Effect of termination or amendment. Unless otherwise expressly provided by the Secretary, the termination of this subpart or of any regulation issued pursuant to this subpart, or the issuance of any amendment to either thereof, shall not (a) affect or waive any right, duty, obligation, or liability which shall have arisen prior thereto, or (b) release or extinguish any violation of this subpart or of any regulation issued under this subpart or (c) affect or impair any right or remedy of the United States, or of the Secretary, or of any other person with respect to any such violation.

HANDLING OF HOPS GROWN IN OREGON, CALIFORNIA, WASHINGTON, AND IDAHO, AND OF HOP PRODUCTS PRODUCED THEREFROM IN THESE STATES

ORDER DIRECTING THAT REFERENDUM BE CONDUCTED AMONG PRODUCERS OF HOPS IN OREGON, CALIFORNIA, WASHINGTON, AND IDAHO; DESIGNATING AGENTS TO CONDUCT SUCH REFERENDUM; AND DETERMINING REPRESENTATIVE PERIOD

Pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), it is hereby directed that a referendum be conducted among producers who, during the period August 1, 1951, through June 30, 1952 (which is hereby determined to be the representative period for the purpose of this referendum), were engaged, in the States of Oregon, California, Washington, and Idaho, in the growing of hops, for market, to determine whether such producers approve or favor the issuance of an amended order regulating the handling of hops grown in Oregon, California, Washington, and Idaho, and of hop products produced therefrom in these States; said order, as proposed to be amended, is annexed to the decision of the Secretary of Agriculture filed simultaneously herewith.[1]

The procedure applicable to this referendum shall be the "Procedure for the Conduct of Referenda Among Producers in Connection with Marketing Orders (Except those Applicable to Milk and its Products) to Become Effective Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as Amended" (15 F. R. 5176).

W. J. Broadhead, Robert H. Eaton, and P. P. Callaway of the Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, are hereby designated as agents of the Secretary of Agriculture to conduct said referendum jointly or severally.

Copies of the text of the aforesaid amended order may be obtained or examined in: The Office of the Hearing Clerk, Room 1353, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C.; Western Marketing Field Offices, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, 515 S. W. Tenth Avenue, Portland 5, Oregon, 335 Fell Street, San Francisco 2, California, Old Post Office Building, 701 K Street, Sacramento 14, California; the office of the Hop Control Board, 475 North Church Street, Salem, Oregon, and its branch offices; and the office of the United States Hop Growers Association, 155 Montgomery Street, San Francisco 4, California.

Ballot forms for use in the referendum will be mailed to all growers on record with the United States Department of Agriculture and who produced hops for market during the representative period, and such forms may also be obtained from the offices in the production area listed in the preceding paragraph.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 27th day of June 1952.

[SEAL] CHARLES F. BRANNAN,
Secretary of Agriculture.

Patent Office

POLICY ON FEES FOR ITEMS AND SERVICES FURNISHED TO OTHER AGENCIES OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

The purpose of this order is to prescribe the policy governing the applicability of fees for items and services furnished by the Patent Office to other Agencies of the Federal Government.

Rule 21 of the Rules of Practice in Patent Cases and Rule 2.1 of the Rules of Practice in Trade-Mark Cases (37 CFR 1.21, 100.21) establish fees applicable to items and services furnished by the Patent Office. Certain of these fees are fixed by statute; others are determined administratively.

The act of March 3, 1883 (35 U. S. C. 45) authorized the Commissioner of Patents to grant, subject to existing law and without the payment of any fee, to personnel of the Federal Government a patent for any invention which is used or liable to be used in the public interest, and which is so certified by the Head of the Agency through which the application for patent is filed.

The fees prescribed under Rule 21 of the Rules of Practice in Patent Cases and Rule 2.1 of the Rules of Practice in Trade-Mark Cases for the furnishing of items or services by the Patent Office are hereby made applicable to all Agencies of the Federal Government except the fees for the prosecution of patent applications referred to in 35 U. S. C. 45, or fees otherwise specifically exempt by statute.

The Executive Officer, upon recommendation of the Finance Officer, is authorized to waive any fees for items or services when (1) the cost of billing and other expenses incident to payment will approximate or exceed the cost of the items or services, or (2) for other reasons it is considered in the public interest to waive such fees.

This order shall be effective June 1, 1952.

[SEAL] JOHN A. MARZALL,
Commissioner of Patents.

[CPR 7, Section 43; Partial Revocation of Special Order 753]

GENERAL ELECTRIC CO.

CEILING PRICES AT RETAIL

Statement of considerations. Special Order 753 under section 43 of Ceiling Price Regulation 7, establishes ceiling prices for sales at retail of television receivers and other articles manufactured by the General Electric Company, Electronics Department, Electronics Park, Syracuse, New York, having the brand name "General (GE) Electric."

A prerequisite to an applicant's eligibility for a uniform pricing order under section 43 of Ceiling Price Regulation 7 is that the branded products for which application is made must have been sold at substantially uniform retail prices for a period immediately prior to January 26, 1951. On the basis of the evidence produced at the time of its application under section 43, it was the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization that this criterion of eligibility had been established for all of the commodities which were the subject of the application of the General Electric Company. On the basis of information subsequently obtained, however, the Director now finds that certain of the branded products for which the General Electric Company was granted a special order under section 43, namely, "General (GE) Electric" branded television receivers, were not in fact sold at substantially uniform retail prices for a period immediately prior to January 26, 1951.

A further opportunity has been afforded the General Electric Company to produce satisfactory evidence that its branded television receivers were sold at substantially uniform retail prices immediately prior to January 26, 1951, but such evidence has not been forthcoming. Therefore, it is the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization that insofar as Special Order 753 establishes retail ceiling prices for sales of the General Electric Company's branded television receivers, the order must be revoked.

Revocation. 1. For the reason set forth in the Statement of Considerations, and in keeping with the provisions of section 43 of Ceiling Price Regulation 7, Special Order 753 issued to General Electric Company, to the extent that it establishes ceiling prices for sales at retail of television receivers having the brand name "General (GE) Electric," is hereby revoked. In all other respects Special Order 753 remains in effect.

2. Within 15 days after the effective date of this partial order of revocation, General Electric Company must send a copy of this order to all purchasers for resale of "General (GE) Electric" branded television receivers to whom it has given notice of Special Order 753. Twenty days after the effective date of this order each such purchaser for resale, before selling any "General (GE) Electric" branded television receivers, must (a) remove all tags which were affixed to "General (GE) Electric" branded television receivers in accordance with Special Order 753; and (b) determine ceiling prices for "General (GE) Electric" branded television receivers under Ceiling Price Regulation 7 or whatever other ceiling price regulation is applicable to him.

Effective date. This order shall become effective June 30, 1952.

ELLIS ARNALL,
Director of Price Stabilization.

[Delegation of Authority 53, Amdt. 1]

DIRECTORS OF THE REGIONAL OFFICES

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY TO ACT UNDER SECTIONS 10 (E) AND 16 (C) CPR 98, AS AMENDED

By virtue of the authority vested in the Director of Price Stabilization, pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended (64 Stat. 798, 803; 65 Stat. 131), Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, as amended (16 F. R. 738, 11626), this Amendment 1 to Delegation of Authority 53 is hereby issued.

Delegation of Authority 53 is amended by redesignating the present paragraph 2 as paragraph 4 and adding new paragraphs 2 and 3 to read as follows:

2. Authority under section 10 (e) of Ceiling Price Regulation 98, as amended. Authority is hereby delegated to the Directors of Regional Offices of the Office of Price Stabilization to accept application for the establishment of ceiling markups made in accordance with the provisions of section 10 (e) of Ceiling Price Regulation 98, as amended, to request further information in connection with such applications, to approve, disapprove or revise proposed ceiling markups, and to modify or revoke ceiling markups established under that section. The authority herein delegated may be redelegated to the Directors of the District Offices of the Office of Price Stabilization.

3. Authority under section 16 (c) of Ceiling Price Regulation 98, as amended. Authority is hereby delegated to the Directors of Regional Offices of the Office of Price Stabilization to accept applications for the establishment of ceiling warehouse prices made in accordance with the provisions of section 16 (c) (2) of Ceiling Price Regulation 98, as amended, to request further information in connection with such application, to approve or disapprove such ceiling prices and to revoke ceiling prices established under section 16 (c). The authority herein delegated may be redelegated to the Directors of the District Offices of the Office of Price Stabilization.

Effective date. This amendment shall be effective June 30, 1952.

ELLIS ARNALL,
Director of Price Stabilization.

SHENANDOAH GAS CO.

NOTICE OF AMENDED APPLICATION

JUNE 26, 1952.

Take notice that Shenandoah Gas Company (Applicant), a Virginia corporation, address, Lynchburg, Virginia, filed on June 18, 1952, an amended application in this proceeding, amending an application filed on July 26, 1950 for an order pursuant to section 7 (a) of the Natural Gas Act, directing Virginia Gas Transmission Corporation to establish physical connection of its transmission facilities with the proposed facilities of, and to sell natural gas to Applicant; and for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing the construction and operation of certain natural-gas transmission facilities.

Applicant now proposes to construct and operate approximately 39 miles of 8⅝ inch and 4 miles of 4½ and 3½ inch pipeline instead of approximately 38 miles of 8⅝ inch and 11 miles of 4½ and 3½ inch pipeline as proposed in its original application. In its amended application, Applicant proposes to make retail distribution of natural gas in the City of Winchester, Virginia, and in the communities of Middletown, Stephens City and Clearbrook, Virginia, and in Bunker Hill, and Inwood, West Virginia, as well as to make direct sales to M. J. Grove Lime Company, Shenandoah Brick and Tile Corporation, Standard Lime & Stone Company, and Jones & Laughlin Steel Corporation. Applicant also proposes to supply natural gas to Martinsburg Gas and Heating Company for resale in Martinsburg, West Virginia. In its original application, Applicant proposed to sell natural gas at retail in Front Royal and Winchester, Virginia, and in Martinsburg, West Virginia, as well as Stephens City and Strasburg, in Virginia and Blairton, in West Virginia.

The estimated overall cost of the facilities now proposed is $1,570,000. Financing proposed includes sale of first mortgage bonds and junior securities.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before the 16th day of July 1952. The amended application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

EL PASO NATURAL GAS CO.

ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

JUNE 25, 1952.

On March 10, 1952, El Paso Natural Gas Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation having its principal place of business at El Paso, Texas, filed an application, and on April 15, 1952, a supplement to that application, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing the construction and operation of certain natural gas transmission facilities, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, as described in the application on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

The Commission finds: This proceeding is a proper one for disposition under the provisions of § 1.32 (b) (18 CFR 1.32 (b)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, Applicant having requested that its application be heard under the shortened procedure provided by the aforesaid rule for noncontested proceedings, and no request to be heard, protest or petition having been filed subsequent to the giving of due notice of the filing of the application, including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER on April 16, 1952 (17 F. R. 3393).

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing be held on July 10, 1952, at 9:45 a. m., e. d. s. t., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved and the issues presented by such application as supplemented: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a noncontested hearing, forthwith dispose of the proceeding pursuant to the provision of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(B) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)) of the said rules of practice and procedure.

Date of issuance: June 26, 1952.

JUNE 26, 1952.

The Commission, on December 24, 1947, having issued its Order approving a plan of reorganization of Interstate Power Company ("Interstate"), a registered holding company and a subsidiary of Ogden Corporation ("Ogden") also a registered holding company, filed pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") subject to conditions reserving jurisdiction to determine (1) issues raised concerning the rank and status of certain securities of Interstate held by Ogden, (2) the fair and equitable disposition of certain assets placed in escrow under the provisions of said plan, and (3) the reasonableness and appropriate allocation of all fees, expenses, and other remuneration incurred and to be incurred in connection with said plan;

The Commission on February 20, 1951 having issued its order approving a supplemental plan proposing the distribution of said assets previously placed in escrow, said order having provided that jurisdiction was specifically reserved to consider and determine the reasonableness and allocation of all fees and expenses incurred and to be incurred in connection with said supplemental plan and the transactions incident thereto;

The Commission, on March 1, 1951, having issued its order providing that Ogden should not make any distribution of funds received pursuant to the supplemental plan approved on February 20, 1951, until it should have made adequate provisions for the payment of fees and expenses which it might incur under said supplemental plan;

The Commission, on April 3, 1951, having issued its Order releasing jurisdiction over certain fees and expenses incurred in connection with said plan subject to a reservation of jurisdiction over the reasonableness and allocation of all fees and expenses other than those specified therein and those incurred and to be incurred in connection with plans for the distribution of those certain assets held in escrow pursuant to the plan approved on December 24, 1947;

Ogden having filed a petition requesting the payment of certain fees and expenses for services performed in connection with said plans and having requested the Commission to order that Interstate be required to pay certain of said fees and expenses;

Interstate and Ogden having entered into an agreement whereby Ogden has agreed, as consideration for the payment to it by Interstate of the sum of $45,000 in final discharge of Interstate from all liabilities for services rendered to Interstate or expenses incurred by Ogden on behalf of Interstate with respect to the plan approved by the Commission on December 24, 1947, to pay all fees and expenses, as determined by the Commission, of all participants and their counsel in the proceedings relating to the Supplemental Plan approved by the Commission on February 20, 1951;

Applications having been filed for the payment of fees and reimbursement of expenses by the following applicants in the following amounts:

	Fee	Expenses	Total
Paul J. Kern, James F. Dunn, and Morton Zuckerman for Interstate Power Co. preferred stockholders committee	$57,000	$3,001.01	$60,001.01
Alfred Berman and Myron Gollub of Guggenheimer & Untermeyer and David J. Colton for the Colton group of preferred stockholders of Interstate Power Co.	110,730 200	2,396.00 1.88	113,126.00 201.88
William H. Foulk, Delaware, counsel for the Colton group
E. Ralph Sterling, financial consultant to the Colton group of preferred stockholders	15,000		15,000.00
Bernard S. Kanton of Kanton and Fixel, counsel for Interstate Power Co. debenture escrow certificates committee	9,000	386.88	9,386.88
Arthur B. Rettallick, a member of the Interstate Power Co. debenture escrow certificates committee	500		500.00
Simpson Thacher & Bartlett, attorneys for Ogden Corp.	128,250	8,086.14	136,336.14
Expenses of Ogden:
Advertising and printing		7,372.82 26,154.15	7,372.82 26,154.15
Miscellaneous
Chemical Bank & Trust Co. for services:
As escrow agent		2,372.48 29,057.82	2,372.48 29,057.82
As distributing agent
Phillip D. Crockett, representative of certain debenture holders of Interstate Power Co.	25,000	930.00	25,930.00
	346,000	78,519.18	424,519.18

It appearing to the Commission that the agreement of Interstate to pay the sum of $45,000 for fees and expenses of services rendered to it and the agreement of Ogden to pay the remaining balance of the fees and expenses, as determined by the Commission, relating to said plans is fair and equitable and represents a reasonable allocation of said fees and expenses and it further appearing that, with the exception of the fee requested by Phillip D. Crockett as to which the record has not been completed, the amounts requested for fees and expenses as specified above are not unreasonable and that they relate to necessary services:

It is ordered, That the proposed payment by Interstate to Ogden of $45,000 is hereby approved as fair and equitable and reasonable and that upon such payment by Interstate, all jurisdiction heretofore reserved over Interstate in this particular proceeding (File No. 54–130), including the jurisdiction reserved in our orders of December 24, 1947, February 20, 1951, and April 3, 1951, be, and the same hereby is, except as stated below, released.

It is further ordered, That Ogden is directed to pay the remaining amount of said specified fees and expenses not previously paid and is directed to retain sufficient funds to satisfy the claims for fees and expenses made by Phillip D. Crockett and thereupon our order dated March 1, 1951, preventing the distribution of funds received by Ogden pursuant to the supplemental plan approved February 20, 1951, shall no longer have any force and effect.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction is hereby reserved to the Commission to consider and determine all issues relating to the fee requested by Phillip D. Crockett, and to entertain such further proceedings, to make such supplemental findings and to take such further action as it may deem appropriate in connection with the supplemental plan approved by our order dated February 20, 1951, the transactions incident thereto and the consummation thereof, and to take such further action as it may deem necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the act.

By the Commission.

NEW ENGLAND POWER CO.

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER CONCERNING ISSUANCE AND SALE OF BONDS AT COMPETATIVE BIDDING

JUNE 26, 1952.

New England Power Company ("NEPCO"), a subsidiary of New England Electric System, a registered holding company, having filed an application and amendments thereto pursuant to the third sentence of section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and Rule U-50 thereunder with respect to the issue and sale by NEPCO at competitive bidding of $5,000,000 principal amount of its First Mortgage Bonds, Series E, dated June 1, 1952 and maturing June 1, 1982;

The Commission, by order dated June 16, 1952, having granted said application, including the request of the applicant that for the purposes of this proceeding the ten-day period for the invitation of bids as prescribed by Rule U-50 be shortened to a period of not less than six days, all subject to the condition that the proposed issue and sale should not be consummated until the results of competitive bidding with respect thereto had been made a matter of record and a further order entered on the basis thereof, and subject to a reservation of jurisdiction with respect to legal, engineering, accounting and other fees and expenses;

NEPCO having filed an amendment setting forth the action taken in offering said bonds at competitive bidding and stating that on June 25, 1952 the following bids were received:

Bidder	Annual interest rate (per cent)	Price to company[1] (percent of principal)	Annual cost to company (percent)
Halsey, Stuart & Co. Inc.	3¼	100.30	3.214
Equitable Securities Corp.	3¼	100.09	3.247
Kuhn, Loeb & Co.	3¼	100.654	3.2472
The First Boston Corp.	3¼	102.1799	3.2496
Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Beane	3¼	102.633	3.2862
Kidder, Peabody & Co. and White, Weld & Co.	3¼	101.81	3.2756

[1] Exclusive of accrued interest from June 1, 1952.

Said amendment further stating that NEPCO has accepted the bid of Halsey, Stuart & Co., Inc. and that the bonds will be issued to the public at an initial price of 100.875 percent of their principal amount, plus accrued interest, resulting in an underwriting spread of 0.575 percent of the principal amount of the bonds or an aggregate of $28,750;

Said amendment further setting forth the legal, engineering, accounting and auditing services rendered and disbursements made, for which requests for compensation or reimbursement in the following amounts have been received by NEPCO:

Milbank, Tweed, Hope & Hadley, counsel for the underwriters, payable by the underwriters:
Fee	$5,600.00
Disbursements	700.00
Payable by NEPCO: Disbursements	500.00
Lybrand, Ross Bros. & Montgomery, independent public accountants, payable by NEPCO: Fee	1,250.00
Jackson & Moreland, engineers, payable by NEPCO: Fee	2,808.70

The Commission having considered the record as supplemented and finding no reason for imposing terms and conditions with respect to the price to be received for said bonds and the interest rate thereon, the redemption prices thereof, or the underwriter's spread, and finding that the fees and expenses over which jurisdiction was reserved are not unreasonable; and it appearing appropriate to the Commission to release the jurisdiction heretofore reserved herein and to grant applicant's request that the order herein become effective upon issuance:

It is ordered, That the jurisdiction reserved in our order of June 16, 1952, herein, be and hereby is released, and that said application, as amended, be and hereby is granted, effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions of Rule U-24.

By the Commission.

GEORGIA POWER CO.

ORDER PERMITTING SUBMISSION OF FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS TO COMPETITIVE BIDDING

JUNE 26, 1952.

Georgia Power Company ("Georgia"), a public utility subsidiary of The Southern Company, a registered holding company, having filed an application, with amendments thereto, pursuant to section 6 (b) of the act and Rule U-50, promulgated thereunder, with respect to the following proposed transactions:

Georgia proposes to issue and sell pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50, $20,000,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds, --Percent Series due 1982, to be issued under and secured by Georgia's present Indenture, dated as of March 1, 1941, as last supplemented on June 1, 1951, and to be further supplemented by a Supplemental Indenture to be dated as of July 1, 1952. The interest rate and the price to the company for the bonds will be determined through the competitive bidding, except that the invitation for bids will specify that the price to the company shall not be less than 100 percent nor more than 102.75 percent of the principal amount. The company proposes to use the proceeds from the sale of these new bonds to provide a portion of the funds required for extensions and additions to the company's property, to reimburse its treasury in part for expenditures made for such purposes, and to provide for the payment of temporary bank loans incurred for such purposes.

The filing states that the issuance and sale of the proposed new bonds have been approved by the Georgia Public Service Commission, the State Commission of the state in which Georgia is organized and doing business. Georgia requests that any order of this Commission granting the application shall become effective forthwith upon issuance.

Due notice having been given of the filing of the application, as amended, and a hearing not having been requested of or ordered by the Commission, and the Commission finding that the applicable provisions of the act and the rules promulgated thereunder are satisfied and that no adverse findings are necessary, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that said application, as amended, be granted subject to certain terms and conditions and reservations of jurisdiction:

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that said application, as amended, be, and the same hereby is, granted effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24 and to the further condition that the results of competitive bidding, pursuant to Rule U-50, have been made a matter of record herein and a further order shall have been entered with respect thereto, which order shall contain such further terms and conditions as may then be deemed appropriate, for which purpose jurisdiction be, and the same hereby is, reserved.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be, and the same hereby is, reserved over all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the proposed transactions.

By the Commission.

facilities for cottonseed, soybeans, dry edible beans, dry peas, peanuts, pasture seeds, hay seeds and winter cover crop seeds, will be approved only in areas for which the State committee determines that existing privately owned storage facilities for such commodity or commodities in the area concerned are not adequate. The term "storage facility" includes operating equipment which is necessary for the proper handling and conditioning of the agricultural commodity to be stored and without which the facility cannot be operated.

(b) Loans will not be available (1) for the repair, remodeling, refinancing, or maintenance of existing facilities, (2) for the purchase of secondhand facilities (except as specifically provided in this subpart), (3) to provide storage facilities for commodities which the borrower intends to purchase or store for others, (4) or to provide storage facilities which the borrower intends to lease to others, except in the case of landlords who lease the facility together with the land on which the commodity to be stored in such facility is produced.

§ 674.180 Terms and conditions of loan—(a) Maximum term of loan. The maximum term of the loan will be approximately four years, except that the term of an individual loan may be extended for one year or less by the county committee in case of catastrophic losses of crops or other conditions beyond the control of the borrower. Loans will be secured by chattel mortgages on the storage facilities, real estate mortgage, deed of trust, or other security instrument approved by CCC, on the borrower's farm or other property on which the facility is to be located, or on a sufficient acreage of the farm which, in the judgment of the county committee, will make the site easily accessible for use of other farmers in the area, and constitutes a salable unit. A first mortgage will be required except that where a first mortgage is not obtainable, a second mortgage loan may be made provided the prior lien on the farm is small enough that the borrower's equity in the farm, in the opinion of the county committee, is sufficient to assure his continued tenure of the farm, and provided the prior lien-holder subordinates his lien as to the structure and the site on which it is located, with the right of ingress and egress to the storage facility. No second mortgage loans will be made on structures not located on the farm.

(b) Amount of loan. (1) The maximum amount loaned on any new farm storage facility shall be $30 per ton of the rated storage capacity for cottonseed and forty-five cents per bushel for all other commodities, or eighty percent of the cost incurred whichever is less. The cost incurred shall include the expenditures of the borrower which are necessary for the purchase, delivery, and erection of the facility, and the cost of that operating equipment which is necessary for the proper handling and conditioning of the agricultural commodity to be stored and without which the facility cannot be operated. In determining the cost incurred, the applicants and other labor usually employed on the farm, the cost of all equipment placed in the facility which is not necessary for its operation, and the cost of permanent foundations for movable facilities shall be excluded.

(2) The maximum amount to be loaned on any farm storage facility which CCC had previously acquired by foreclosure or other means under the program shall be forty-five cents per bushel of capacity: Provided, That such amount shall not exceed eighty percent of the price of purchase from Commodity Credit Corporation.

(3) In computing the capacity of the storage facility, two and one-half cubic feet shall be considered equivalent to one bushel of ear corn, ninety cubic feet equivalent to one ton of cottonseed, and one and one-fourth cubic feet equivalent to one bushel of all other commodities.

(c) Repayment of loan. The principal of the loan shall be repayable in equal annual installments with interest at four percent per annum on the unpaid balance. The first installment, including interest shall be payable during the twelve months period beginning on the first anniversary date of the first disbursement of the loan, out of amounts due the borrower under any price support loan or purchase agreement operation carried out by the Department of Agriculture, and a like installment shall be similarly payable during the twelve months following each anniversary date thereafter until the principal, together with interest thereon, has been paid in full. Payment out of such amounts shall be obtained by deduction therefrom, except that such deduction shall not exceed that portion of the proceeds remaining after deduction of service charges and amounts due prior lienholders. Unless an extension is granted by Commodity Credit Corporation in writing, each installment must be paid out of price support proceeds, in cash, or otherwise not later than the end of the applicable twelve months pay period, and failure to pay any installment by the thirtieth day after the end of such period, or extension thereof, shall mature all installments then unpaid and the entire unpaid amount of the note without demand, notice, or other action shall become immediately due and payable, and the borrower shall be personally liable for the entire amount remaining unpaid on the loan. Any delinquent loan may be deducted and paid out of any amounts due the borrower under any program carried out by the Department of Agriculture, excepting amounts due the borrower out of appropriated funds, i. e. funds other than CCC funds, when the loan is held by a lending agency. Upon breach by the maker of the note of any covenants or agreements on his part to be performed under the mortgage or other security instrument securing the note, or under any other instruments executed in connection with the loan, the holder, at its option, may declare the entire indebtedness immediately due and payable. The loan may be paid in full or in part by the borrower at any time before maturity. Upon payment of farm storage facility loans secured by mortgages or deeds to secure debt which are held by CCC or secured by deeds of trust under which CCC is beneficiary, the county committees should be requested to release or obtain the release of such instruments of record. The chairman of each county committee is authorized to act as agency of CCC in releasing or obtaining the release of such instruments. Upon payment of loans secured by instruments held by a lending agency or under which a lending agency is beneficiary, the lending agency should be requested to release or obtain the release of such instrument or instruments.

(d) Insurance. Insurance will be required on all immovable storage facility loans, regardless of the amount of the loan and with coverage for hazards existent in the area. Insurance will also be required on all movable facility loans on which the amount loaned was $1,000 or more and on loans under $1,000, when required by the State committee of any State. All insurance shall be maintained during the life of the loan and the cost shall be borne by the borrower, and the policy shall contain a clause making any loss thereunder payable to CCC, and to any other holder of the note secured by the storage facility as their interests may appear.

(e) Maintaining storage facility. The borrower shall be required to maintain the storage facility in condition and keep it available for storage until the loan is paid. The borrower shall not use the facility for any purpose other than the storage of the commodities listed in § 674.179 (a) in the production of which he has an interest without the written consent of the county committee, except that landlords may rent the facility together with the land on which the commodity to be stored in such facility is produced.

§ 674.181 Disbursement of loan. In the case of movable storage facilities, disbursement will be made in full at the time of completion of the facility and after the facility has been inspected and approved by the county committee. In the case of immovable storage facilities, disbursement will be made either in full at the time of completion and approval of the facility by the county committee or on a partial advance plan, as elected by the borrower in his application for a loan. Under the partial advance plan, the proceeds of the loan will be disbursed in the following manner: 10 percent upon the execution of the security instrument, an additional 20 percent when the construction is one-half completed, an additional 20 percent when the construction is three-fourths completed, and the remainder when the construction is fully completed. Final and complete disbursement of the loan proceeds on movable or immovable structures will not be made under any plan until the borrower furnishes satisfactory evidence of the payment of any debts on the facility in excess of the amount discharged with the loan.

§ 674.182 Service charge. There shall be collected from the applicant at the time the application is made, a service charge of eighteen cents per ton of the rated storage capacity of the structure to be acquired or erected for the storage of cottonseed and a charge of one-fourth cent per bushel of the rated storage capacity for all other commodities, but in no case shall the charge be less than $2.50. If the loan is rejected or is not completed, the minimum charge of $2.50 shall be retained by the county committee and the balance returned to the applicant.

§ 674.183 Sale or conveyance of security. When the borrower desires to sell or convey the facilities or other property securing a loan without repaying the loan in full, he shall apply to the Chairman of the county committee for approval of the sale or conveyance on behalf of CCC. If such approval is granted, the borrower and the purchaser shall execute an assumption agreement in form prescribed by CCC under which the borrower remains liable for the balance of the indebtedness and the purchaser assumes the balance of the indebtedness and agrees to comply with all the terms, conditions, covenants, and agreements set out in the security instruments. Approval of the transaction on behalf of CCC shall be shown by signature of the Chairman of the county committee in the space provided in the assumption agreement. The Chairman of each county committee is authorized to approve such transactions on behalf of CCC with respect to facilities located within the county, by executing the consent provision in the assumption agreement. The assumption agreement form may be obtained from the county committee office.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter II—Civil Aeronautics Administration, Department of Commerce

[Amdt. 70]

PART 600—DESIGNATION OF CIVIL AIRWAYS

ALTERATIONS

The civil airway alterations appearing hereinafter have been coordinated with the civil operators involved, the Army, the Navy, and the Air Force, through the Air Coordinating Committee, Airspace Subcommittee and are adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety of the flying public. Compliance with the notice, procedures, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act would be impracticable and contrary to public interest, and therefore is not required.

Part 600 is amended as follows:

1. Section 600.6003 VOR civil airway No. 3 (Key West, Fla., to Bangor, Maine) is amended by changing the first portion to read: "From the Key West, Fla., omnirange station via the Miami, Fla., omnirange station, including an east alternate and excluding the portion which overlaps Airspace Warning Areas;"

2. Section 600.6012 is amended by changing caption to read: "VOR civil airway No. 12 (Daggett, Calif., to Philadelphia, Pa.)," and by adding the following first portion to read: "From the Daggett, Calif., omnirange station via the Needles, Calif., omnirange station; Prescott, Ariz., omnirange station; Winslow, Ariz., omnirange station to the Zuni, N. Mex., omnirange station."

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interprets or applies sec. 302, 52 Stat. 985, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 452)

This amendment shall become effective 0001, e. s. t., July 8, 1952.

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF CONTROL AREAS, CONTROL ZONES, AND REPORTING POINTS

ALTERATIONS

The control area, control zone and reporting point alterations appearing hereinafter have been coordinated with the civil operators involved, the Army, the Navy and the Air Force, through the Air Coordinating Committee, Airspace Subcommittee, and are adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety of the flying public. Compliance with the notice, procedures, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act would be impracticable and contrary to public interest, and therefore is not required.

Part 601 is amended as follows:

1. Section 601.6012 is amended by changing the caption to read:

§ 601.6012 VOR civil airway No. 12 control areas (Daggett, Calif., to Philadelphia, Pa.).

2. Section 601.1108 is amended to read:

§ 601.1108 Control area extension (Salina, Kans.). All that area north of Salina, Kans., within a 30-mile radius of a point at latitude 38°52'39", longitude 97°38'54" bounded on the south by the northern boundary of VOR civil airway No. 4, and the area within 5 miles either side of the 142° True radial of the Salina, Kans., omnirange extending from the omnirange station to a point 25 miles southeast.

3. Section 601.1168 is amended to read:

§ 601.1168 Control area extension (Ponca City, Okla.). Within a 15-mile radius of the Ponca City Airport and within 5 miles either side of the 284° True radial of the Ponca City omnirange extending from the omnirange station to a point 25 miles west.

4. Section 601.1215 Control area extension (Galveston, Tex.), is amended by adding the following to the present control area extension: "excluding that portion below 2,500 feet between the United States shoreline and the New Orleans Oceanic Control Area."

5. Section 601.1282 is amended to read:

§ 601.1282 Control area extension (Wichita, Kans.). All that area bounded on the north by a line 10 miles north of and parallel to the 259° True and 79° True radials of the Emporia, Kans., omnirange, on the east by a line 10 miles east of and parallel to the 209° True and 29° True radials of the Emporia, Kans., omnirange, on the south by a line 10 miles south of and parallel to the 85° True and 265° True radials of the Anthony, Kans., omnirange and on the west by a line 10 miles west of and parallel to the 195° True and 15° True radials of the Hutchinson, Kans., omnirange.

6. Section 601.1305 Control area extension (Mountain Home, Idaho) amended on June 10, 1952 (17 F. R. 5215), is corrected by substituting "§ 601.1306" for "§ 601.1305".

7. Section 601.2246 is amended to read:

§ 601.2246 Oklahoma City, Okla., control zone. Within a 5-mile radius of Will Rogers Municipal Airport and within 2 miles either side of the west course of the Oklahoma City radio range extending from the radio range station to the Mustang fan marker; within 2 miles either side of a direct line between the Will Rogers Municipal Airport and Tinker AFB including a 5-mile radius of Tinker AFB and within 2½ miles either side of the south and north courses of the Tinker AFB radio range extending from the AFB to a point 5 miles north of the Tinker AFB radio range station.

8. Section 601.2311 is added to read:

§ 601.2311 San Antonio, Tex., control zone. Within a 5-mile radius of Kelly AFB and within 5 miles either side of a direct line from the Kelly AFB through the Leon-nondirectional radio beacon extending from the AFB to a point 2½ miles northwest of the Leon nondirectional radio beacon.

9. Section 601.2312 is added to read:

§ 601.2312 Columbus, Ind., control zone. Within a 5-mile radius of Atterbury AFB and within 2 miles either side of a line bearing 44° True from the Atterbury AFB to a point 10 miles northeast excluding the portion which overlaps danger areas.

10. Section 601.4626 Blue civil airway No. 26 (Anchorage, Alaska to Nenana, Alaska) is amended by deleting the following reporting point: "the intersection of the northeast course of the Summit, Alaska, radio range and the southeast course of the Nenana, Alaska, radio range."

11. Section 601.7001 VOR reporting points is amended by correcting the Bradford Intersection to read: "The intersection of the Buffalo, N. Y., omnirange 178° True and the Elmira, N. Y., omnirange 254° True radials."

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interprets or applies sec. 601, 52 Stat. 1007, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 551)

This amendment shall become effective 0001, e. s. t., July 8, 1952.

TITLE 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs, Department of the Treasury

[T. D. 53033]

PART 1—CUSTOMS DISTRICTS AND PORTS

CHANGES IN FIELD ORGANIZATION

JUNE 27, 1952.

By virtue of the authority vested in the President by section 1 of the act of August 1, 1914, 38 Stat. 623 (19 U. S. C. 2), and delegated to the Secretary of the Treasury by the President by Executive Order No. 10289, of September 17, 1951 (16 F. R. 6499), the following changes in the customs field organization are hereby made effective July 1, 1952:

1. In view of the consolidation of the municipalities of Fernandina and Fernandina Beach, Florida, and certain territory lying between the two municipalities under the name of Fernandina Beach, effective January 7, 1952, under an act of the Legislature of the State of Florida (Chapter 27543, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1951) and by vote of the qualified voters, the name of the customs port of entry of Fernandina, Florida, in Customs Collection District No. 18 (Florida), is changed to "Fernandina Beach, Florida." This port shall include the territory within the corporate limits of Fernandina Beach and St. Marys, Georgia.

2. The limits of the customs port of entry of Los Angeles, California, the headquarters port of Customs Collection District No. 27 (Los Angeles), are extended to include the territory embracing the city of El Segundo, California.

3. In addition to the territory included within the limits of the customs port of entry of Portland, Oregon, in Customs Collection District No. 29 (Oregon), by Executive Order No. 3390, January 24, 1921, and Executive Order No. 5193, September 14, 1929, the limits of said port of entry are further extended to include:

(1) All the territory within the corporate limits of the city of Portland lying outside the territory described in Executive Order No. 3390;

(2) The territory lying between the south bank of the Columbia River and the corporate limits of Portland, bounded on the west by the territory described in Executive Order No. 3390, and on the east by the Portland International Airport;

(3) The territory lying between the corporate limits of Portland and the southern boundary of the Portland International Airport; and

(4) The territory embracing the Portland International Airport.

4. The limits of the customs port of entry of Minneapolis, Minnesota, the headquarters port of Customs Collection District No. 35 (Minnesota), are extended to include the territory embracing the Minneapolis-St. Paul International Airport (formerly known as Wold Chamberlain Field) and such additional adjoining territory that may hereafter be acquired or leased by the airport authorities.

Section 1.1 (c), Customs Regulations of 1943 (19 CFR 1.1 (c)), as amended, is hereby further amended by substituting the name "Fernandina Beach" for the name "Fernandina" under District No. 18 (Florida), in the column headed "Ports of entry"; and by inserting the number of this Treasury decision opposite the name of the port of Fernandina Beach, Florida, in District No. 18 (Florida); by inserting a comma and "and the territory described in T. D. 53033" immediately after "Long Beach" following the name of the port of Los Angeles, California, in District No. 27 (Los Angeles); by inserting a comma and "and the territory described in T. D. 53033" immediately after "1929" following the name of the port of Portland, Oregon, in District No. 29 (Oregon); and by inserting "(including the territory described in T. D. 53033)" after the parenthetical matter now following the name of the port of Minneapolis, Minnesota, in District No. 35 (Minnesota).

On and after July 1, 1952, the port of Fernandina Beach, Florida, will be the home port of all vessels whose home port was Fernandina, Florida, immediately prior to that date.

PART 16—LIQUIDATION OF DUTIES

PROCEDURE; NOTICE OF LIQUIDATION

In view of the fact that customs stations are sometimes located at considerable distances from ports of entry, notices of liquidation of entries filed at customs stations outside of ports of entry shall hereafter be posted or lodged in the stations where the entries were filed in order to improve administration and as a service to the importers. Accordingly, § 16.2 (g) of the Customs Regulations of 1943 (19 CFR 16.2 (g)), as amended, is hereby further amended to read:

§ 16.2 Procedure; notice of liquidation. • • •

(g) The bulletin notice of liquidations, customs Form 4333, prepared at the headquarters port shall be posted or lodged at the port of entry (or customs station, when the entries listed were filed at a customs station outside the limits of a port of entry).

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter I—Bureau of Internal Revenue, Department of the Treasury

Subchapter B—Estate and Gift Taxes

[T. D. 5916, Regs. 105]

PART 81—REGULATIONS RELATING TO ESTATE TAX

WORKS OF ART ON LOAN FOR EXHIBITION

In order to conform Regulations 105 [26 CFR Part 81] to Public Law 749 (81st Congress, 2d Session), approved September 1, 1950, and to section 605 of the Revenue Act of 1951 (Public Law 183, 82d Congress), approved October 20, 1951, such regulations are hereby amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. There is inserted immediately preceding § 81.49 the following:

PUBLIC LAW 749 (81ST CONGRESS, SECOND SESSION), APPROVED SEPTEMBER 1, 1950

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 863 of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to property without the United States) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

(c) Works of art on loan for exhibition. Works of art owned by a nonresident not a citizen of the United States imported into the United States solely for exhibition purposes, loaned to the Trustees of the National Gallery of Art for such purpose, and, at the time of the death of the owner, on exhibition, or en route to or from exhibition, either in the National Gallery of Art or in such other public gallery or museum as the Trustees of the National Gallery of Art may have designated.

• • • • •

SEC. 4. The amendments made by section 1 of this joint resolution shall be applicable only with respect to estates of decedents dying after the date of enactment.

• • • • •

SEC. 605. ESTATE TAX EXEMPTION FOR WORKS OF ART LOANED BY NONRESIDENT ALIENS (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

(a) Amendment of section 863 (c). Section 863 (c) (relating to exemption of works of art loaned by nonresident aliens) is hereby amended to read as follows:

(c) Works of art on loan for exhibition. Works of art owned by a nonresident not a citizen of the United States (1) imported into the United States solely for exhibition purposes, (2) loaned for such purposes to a public gallery or museum, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual, and (3) at the time of the death of the owner, on exhibition, or en route to or from exhibition, in such a public gallery or museum.

(b) Effective date. The amendment made by this section shall be applicable only with respect to estates of decedents dying after the date of the enactment of this act.

PAR. 2. Section 81.50 is amended as follows:

(A) By striking from the first sentence thereof "tangible personal property" and inserting in lieu thereof "tangible personal property (if not subject to the exception provided in section 863 (c))".

(B) By inserting immediately after paragraph (a) thereof (ending with "physically located.") the following subparagraphs (1) and (2):

(1) Section 863 (c), as added by Public Law 749 (81st Cong. 2d Sess.), provides that, with respect to estates of decedents dying after September 1, 1950, and on or before October 20, 1951, works of art owned by a nonresident not a citizen of the United States shall not be deemed to be property situated within the United States if such works of art are (1) imported into the United States solely for exhibition purposes, (2) loaned to the Trustees of the National Gallery of Art, Washington, D. C., solely for exhibition purposes, and (3) at the time of the death of the decedent on exhibition (or en route to or from exhibition) either in such National Gallery of Art or in such other public gallery or museum as the Trustees of such National Gallery of Art may have designated.

(2) Section 863 (c), as amended by section 605 of the Revenue Act of 1951, provides that, with respect to estates of decedents dying after October 20, 1951, works of art owned by a nonresident not a citizen of the United States shall not be deemed property situated within the United States if such works of art are (i) imported into the United States solely for exhibition purposes, (ii) loaned for such purposes to a public gallery or museum, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual, and (iii) at the time of the death of the owner, on exhibition, or en route to or from exhibition, in such a public gallery or museum.

Because of the technical nature of the amendments made herein, it is found that it is unnecessary to issue this Treasury decision with notice and public procedure thereon under section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, or subject to the effective date limitation of section 4 (c) of said act.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter XIV—The Renegotiation Board

Subchapter B—Renegotiation Board Regulations Under the 1951 Act

PART 1464—CONSOLIDATED RENEGOTIATION OF AFFILIATED GROUPS AND RELATED GROUPS

This part is revised in its entirety to read as follows:

Sec.
1464.1 Consolidated renegotiation of affiliated group.
1464.2 Request for consolidated renegotiation of affiliated group; when approved.
1464.3 Consolidated renegotiation of a related group.
1464.4 Request for consolidated renegotiation of related group; when granted.
1464.5 Partial fiscal years.
1464.6 Effect of consolidation.
1464.7 Miscellaneous provisions applicable to consolidated renegotiation.
1464.8 Allocation of excessive profits.
1464.9 Liability of members of affiliated or related group.
1464.10 When consolidated basis not used.
1464.11 Separate renegotiation of partial fiscal years.

FORMS

1464.90 Letter form of request for renegotiation on consolidated basis (affiliated group).
1464.91 Letter form of request for renegotiation on consolidated basis (related group).

AUTHORITY: §§ 1464.1 to 1464.91 issued under sec. 109, Pub. Law 9, 82d Cong. Interpret or apply sec. 105, Pub. Law 9, 82d Cong.

§ 1464.1 Consolidated renegotiation of affiliated group—(a) Statutory provision. Section 105 (a) of the act provides in part as follows:

Renegotiation shall be conducted on a consolidated basis with a parent and its subsidiary corporations which constitute an affiliated group under section 141 (d) of the Internal Revenue Code if all of the corporations included in such affiliated group request renegotiation on such basis and consent to such regulations as the Board shall prescribe with respect to (1) the determination and elimination of excessive profits of such affiliated group, and (2) the determination of the amount of the excessive profits of such affiliated group allocable, for the purposes of section 3806 of the Internal Revenue Code, to each corporation included in such affiliated group.

(b) Definition of "affiliated group". (1) Section 141 (d) of the Internal Revenue Code provides as follows:

(d) Definition of "affiliated group". As used in this section, an "affiliated group" means one or more chains of includible corporations connected through stock ownership with a common parent corporation which is an includible corporation if—

(1) Stock possessing at least 95 per centum of the voting power of all classes of stock and at least 95 per centum of each class of the non-voting stock of each of the includible corporations (except the common parent corporation) is owned directly by one or more of the other includible corporations; and

(2) The common parent corporation owns directly stock possessing at least 95 per centum of the voting power of all classes of stock and at least 95 per centum of each class of the non-voting stock of at least one of the other includible corporations.

As used in this subsection, the term "stock" does not include non-voting stock which is limited and preferred as to dividends.

(2) The term "affiliated group" as used in this part means a group of corporations which qualify under the definition quoted in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph of section 141 (d). A corporation cannot be a member of an affiliated group unless it is an "includible corporation" as defined in subsections (e), (f), (g) and (j) of section 141 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) Fiscal year of an affiliated group. The fiscal year of an affiliated group for the purpose of consolidated renegotiation shall be the fiscal year of the common parent corporation.

§ 1464.2 Request for consolidated renegotiation of affiliated group; when approved. The Board will approve a request for consolidated renegotiation of all members of an affiliated group who qualify therefor. A member of an affiliated group other than the common parent corporation shall not be deemed to qualify for consolidated renegotiation unless:

(a) Such member had renegotiable receipts or accruals during the fiscal year under review;

(b) Except as provided hereafter in this paragraph, such member was a member of the affiliated group during the entire fiscal year of the common parent corporation and its fiscal year for Federal income tax purposes ended on the same date as the fiscal year of the common parent corporation. The foregoing limitation shall not disqualify a member; (1) if the fiscal period of such member ended on the same date as the fiscal year of the other member or members but began on a later date because such member was incorporated during such fiscal year, and if such member during its entire first fiscal period was a member of the group; or (2) if the fiscal period of such member began on the same date as the fiscal year of the other member or members but ended on an earlier date because such member was dissolved during such fiscal year and if such member during its entire last fiscal period was a member of the group.

§ 1464.3 Consolidated renegotiation of a related group—(a) Statutory provision. Section 105 (a) of the act provides in part as follows:

By agreement with any contractor or subcontractor, and pursuant to regulations promulgated by it, the Board may in its discretion conduct renegotiation on a consolidated basis in order properly to reflect excessive profits of two or more related contractors or subcontractors.

(b) Definition of "related group". A "related group" means two or more persons, one of whom controls the other or others, or who are under common control, and who qualify for and request renegotiation on a consolidated basis. The members of the group may consist of persons including corporations, partnerships, joint ventures, associations, sole proprietorships, or a combination of some or all of these.

(c) Fiscal year of a related group. The fiscal year of a related group shall be the fiscal year of the member of the related group designated as agent in accordance with § 1464.7 (b), except that the Board may, upon application of the group made with the letter requesting consolidated renegotiation (§ 1464.91), permit such related group to adopt a different fiscal year unless adoption of such different fiscal year would hinder conduct of the renegotiation. The fiscal year of the agent or the fiscal year adopted, as the case may be, will be referred to hereafter in this part as the related group's fiscal year.

§ 1464.4 Request for consolidated renegotiation of related group; when granted. In order properly to reflect excessive profits, the Board may, in its discretion, grant a request for a consolidated proceeding with respect to a related group if the Board is satisfied that consolidation will not be inequitable to minority interests in one or more members of such group. A person shall not be deemed to qualify for consolidated renegotiation as a member of a related group unless all of the following conditions exist:

(a) Such person had renegotiable receipts or accruals during the related group's fiscal year under review.

(b) The renegotiable business done by such person was related to the renegotiable business done by the other member or members of the group in such a way that consolidation will facilitate the renegotiation process.

NOTE: Consolidated renegotiation of contractors in wholly different and unrelated lines of business might hamper the Board in applying the factors prescribed in the statute for determining what profits are excessive. Relationship justifying consolidation may be found either in the similarity of supplies or services furnished, in the connection of the members of the group as supplier and customer, or possibly in other circumstances.

(c) Each of such persons who participated in a consolidated renegotiation for a prior fiscal year and whose fiscal year differed from the fiscal year of the related group in that renegotiation has, before the close of the related group's fiscal year under review, adopted under the Internal Revenue Code a fiscal year in conformity with the related group's fiscal year.

§ 1464.5 Partial fiscal years. If during a related group's fiscal year under review a person came under control of, acquired control over or came under common control with another member or members of such group, such person may, in the discretion of the Board, be included in the consolidated proceeding with respect to his receipts or accruals from the date such control became effective, if such person otherwise meets the qualifications for consolidated renegotiation set forth in § 1464.4. Similarly, if during a related group's fiscal year under review such control ceases with respect to a person who is a member of such group, such person may, in the discretion of the Board, be included in the consolidated proceeding with respect to his receipts or accruals up to the date such control ceased, if such person otherwise meets the qualifications for consolidated renegotiation set forth in § 1464.4.

§ 1464.6 Effect of consolidation. Once the Board has granted a request for renegotiation of an affiliated group or related group on a consolidated basis, then, except as otherwise provided herein, the proceeding will remain consolidated for all purposes, regardless of whether a clearance issues or excessive profits are determined by agreement or order. However, on request of any member of the group or on its own motion, the Board may discontinue the consolidated proceeding and convert it to separate renegotiation proceedings or consolidate a different group, if satisfied that the consolidation was improperly effected pursuant to the regulations in this subchapter or, if satisfied in the case of a related group, one or more of whose members has a fiscal year not conforming with the related group's fiscal year, that the accounting records of such member or members do not properly reflect excessive profits for the related group's fiscal year.

§ 1464.7 Miscellaneous provisions applicable to consolidated renegotiation. A request for consolidated renegotiation proceedings shall conform to the following requirements:

(a) A request made by an affiliated group shall be made in the form prescribed by § 1464.90. A request made by a related group shall be made in the form prescribed by § 1464.91. A request by either group shall constitute a consent by each member of such group to the application of the regulations governing consolidated renegotiation. The request shall be duly executed by each eligible member of the affiliated group or by each member of the related group. The request shall be filed with the Board on or before the first date on which any member of the group completes the filing of the Standard Form of Contractor's Report (RB Forms 1 and 1B). The Board may grant requests filed after that date if no inconvenience to the Board will result and if, at the time of such filing, renegotiation has not been commenced with any of the members of the group requesting consolidated renegotiation.

(b) A request filed by the members of an affiliated group shall designate the common parent corporation as agent of the group and shall authorize such parent corporation to represent all members of the group in all respects in connection with the consolidated proceeding. A request filed by the members of a related group shall designate one member of the group as agent of the group and shall authorize such member to represent all members of the group in all respects in connection with the consolidated proceeding. Such authorization in either case shall be irrevocable as long as renegotiation is conducted on a consolidated basis, and shall apply to all phases of the proceeding including commencement of renegotiation, submission of data, the making and execution of renegotiation agreements administrative review, and petition to the Tax Court.

(c) The Board will commence renegotiation with an affiliated group on a consolidated basis by sending a registered letter to the common parent corporation of such group, and such letter will constitute an acknowledgment by the Board that the group has complied with the regulations of the Board with respect to (1) the determination and elimination of excessive profits of such affiliated group, and (2) the determination of the amount of excessive profits of such affiliated group allocable, for the purposes of section 3806 of the Internal Revenue Code, to each member of such affiliated group unless the Board has previously made such an acknowledgment. The Board will commence renegotiation with a related group on a consolidated basis by sending a registered letter to the member of such group designated as agent pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section, and such letter will constitute the granting by the Board of the request of such related group for renegotiation on a consolidated basis, unless the Board has previously granted such request.

§ 1464.8 Allocation of excessive profits. Excessive profits, whether determined by agreement or order, will be allocated among the members of the consolidated group and when necessary among different fiscal years of any member in an equitable manner, and the agreement or order will disclose the allocation. The excessive profits will be so allocated even though some or all of the members of the consolidated group participate in filing a consolidated Federal tax return. If excessive profits have been realized and if the renegotiation agreement or order were to impose liability generally on the entire consolidated group for the profits found to be excessive, without fixing the separate allocations, the members of the group might not be allowed appropriate deductions for Federal income and excess profits tax purposes under section 3806 of the Internal Revenue Code.

§ 1464.9 Liability of members of affiliated or related group. Although excessive profits to be eliminated will be allocated to members of an affiliated or related group, each member of the affiliated or related group shall be jointly and severally liable for the total amount of excessive profits, if any, to be eliminated as determined in the consolidated proceeding.

§ 1464.10 When consolidated basis not used. Whenever the members of an affiliated group or a related group are renegotiated separately, renegotiations with the individual members of such group will if practicable be conducted concurrently.

§ 1464.11 Separate renegotiation of partial fiscal years. When amounts received or accrued during a portion of a person's fiscal year or years are included in a consolidated proceeding, such person shall notwithstanding the provisions of § 1470.3 (h) of this subchapter, file in full a Standard Form of Contractor's Report for each of such fiscal years. Such Standard Form of Contractor's Report shall reflect separately the amounts received or accrued by such person which are included in the consolidated proceeding. Such person will be renegotiated separately with respect to the receipts or accruals reflected on such Standard Form of Contractor's Report which are not included in the consolidated proceeding: Provided, however, That such separate renegotiation will be conducted concurrently with the consolidated proceeding, if practicable.

FORMS

§ 1464.90 Letter form of request for renegotiation on consolidated basis (affiliated group). The following letter is prescribed for requesting consolidated renegotiation of an affiliated group:

THE RENEGOTIATION BOARD
Washington 25, D. C.

GENTLEMEN:

1. Pursuant to the provisions of section 105 (a) of the Renegotiation Act of 1951 and Part 1464 of the Renegotiation Board Regulations, the undersigned corporations hereby request renegotiation on a consolidated basis for the fiscal year ended ----------.

2. The undersigned represent that they constitute all the members of an "affiliated group" as that term is defined in section 141 (d) of the Internal Revenue Code, except those listed as follows:

Name of corporation	Principal office	Fiscal year
		Began	Ended
----------	----------	----------	----------
----------	----------	----------	----------

The corporation or corporations listed above have not joined in this request because each such corporation (a) was not a member of such affiliated group during the entire fiscal year of the common parent corporation, or its fiscal year for Federal income tax purposes did not end on the same date as the fiscal year of the common parent corporation, and (b) does not qualify for consolidated renegotiation with the undersigned within the exceptions provided in § 1464.2 (b) of said regulations as set forth in Schedule A attached hereto; or because it had no renegotiable business during the year under review.

3. Each of the undersigned hereby consents, for said fiscal year, to the Renegotiation Board Regulations with respect to (a) the determination and elimination of excessive profits of the undersigned affiliated group and (b) the determination of the amount of the excessive profits of the undersigned affiliated group allocable, for the purposes of section 3806 of the Internal Revenue Code, to each of the undersigned.

4. ---------- (the common parent corporation of the undersigned affiliated group) is hereby designated as agent of the undersigned affiliated group and is hereby authorized to represent all members of the group in all respects in connection with the consolidated renegotiation proceedings requested herein for said fiscal year.

5. The undersigned represent that they (have) (have not) (delete inapplicable language) filed consolidated Federal income tax returns for said fiscal year; and that, except as indicated in Schedule A attached hereto, each of the undersigned was a member of the affiliated group during the entire fiscal year of the undersigned common parent corporation, and the fiscal year for Federal income tax purposes of each of the undersigned other than said common parent corporation ended on the same date as the fiscal year of said common parent corporation.

6. The undersigned are aware that under section 105 (e) (1) of the Renegotiation Act of 1951, criminal penalties may be incurred by any person who knowingly furnishes any statement, information, records or data required under said section 105 (e) (1), containing information which is false or misleading in any material respect.

SCHEDULE A—EXCEPTIONS TO COMMON FISCAL YEAR

(a) The fiscal period of each of the following members of the applicant affiliated group ended on the same date as the fiscal year of the other members but began on a later date because such member was incorporated during such fiscal year, and such member during its entire first fiscal period was a member of such affiliated group (if none, write "None"):

Name of corporation	Principal office	Fiscal period
		Began	Ended
----------	----------	----------	----------
----------	----------	----------	----------
----------	----------	----------	----------

(b) The fiscal period of each of the following members of the applicant affiliated group began on the same date as the fiscal year of the other members but ended on an earlier date because it was dissolved during such fiscal year, and such member during its entire last fiscal period was a member of such affiliated group (if none, write "None"):

Name of corporation	Principal office	Fiscal period
		Began	Ended
----------	----------	----------	----------
----------	----------	----------	----------

(NOTE: For each corporation listed above, state applicable date of incorporation or dissolution and such other information as will clearly demonstrate that such corporation is entitled to be included in the consolidated proceeding. See § 1464.2 (b).)

§ 1464.91 Letter form of request for renegotiation on consolidated basis (related group). The following letter form is prescribed for requesting consolidated renegotiation of a related group:

THE RENEGOTIATION BOARD
Washington 25, D. C.

GENTLEMEN:

1. Pursuant to the provisions of section 105 (a) of the Renegotiation Act of 1951 and Part 1464 of the Renegotiation Board Regulations, the undersigned hereby request renegotiation on a consolidated basis for the fiscal year ended ----------.

2. The undersigned represent that they constitute a "related group" as that term is defined in § 1464.3 (b) of the Renegotiation Board Regulations.

3. Each of the undersigned hereby consents, for said fiscal year, to the Renegotiation Board Regulations with respect to (a) the determination and elimination of excessive profits of the undersigned related group and (b) the determination of the amount of the excessive profits of the undersigned related group allocable, for the purposes of section 3806 of the Internal Revenue Code, to each of the undersigned.

4. ---------- (one of the undersigned) is hereby designated as agent of the undersigned related group and is hereby authorized to represent all members of the group in all respects in connection with the consolidated renegotiation proceeding requested herein for said fiscal year.

5. The undersigned represent that all of the undersigned had the same fiscal year for Federal income tax purposes, except as indicated in Schedule A attached hereto.

6. Each of the undersigned who participated in a consolidated renegotiation under the act for a prior fiscal year and whose fiscal year differed from the fiscal year of the related group in that renegotiation represents that before the close of the related group's fiscal year under review, it adopted, under the Internal Revenue Code, a fiscal year in conformity with the related group's fiscal year.

7. The undersigned represent that the renegotiable business done by them was related in the following way (see § 1464.4 (b)):

(Describe)

8. The undersigned are aware that under section 105 (e) (1) of the Renegotiation Act of 1951, criminal penalties may be incurred by any person who knowingly furnishes any statement, information, records or data required under said section 105 (e) (1), containing information which is false or misleading in any material respect.

Subchapter B—Renegotiation Board Regulations Under the 1951 Act

PART 1490—BROKERS AND MANUFACTURERS' AGENTS

Sec.
1490.1 Introduction.
1490.2 Statutory provisions.
1490.3 Limited exemption of subcontracts for architectural, design or engineering services.
1490.4 Application of the act.
1490.5 Filing of financial statement.
1490.6 Determination of renegotiable business under section 103 (g) (3) of the act.
1490.7 Determination of excessive profits under subcontracts described in section 103 (g) (3) of the act.
1490.8 Efficiency of the contractor.
1490.9 Reasonableness of costs and profits.
1490.10 Capital employed.
1490.11 Extent of risk assumed.
1490.12 Contribution to the defense effort.
1490.13 Character of business.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1490.1 to 1490.13 issued under sec. 109, Pub. Law 9, 82d Cong.

§ 1490.1 Introduction. Subcontracts described in section 103 (g) (3) of the act are substantially different from other contracts and subcontracts subject to the act, both in the nature of the services rendered thereunder and their relation to the defense effort. Because of these basic differences, the application of the act to such subcontracts gives rise to correspondingly different problems and considerations. The regulations in this part apply solely to subcontracts described in section 103 (g) (3) of the act. As used in this part, except when the context clearly indicates otherwise, the term "contractor" means any person holding one or more subcontracts described in section 103 (g) (3) of the act.

§ 1490.2 Statutory provisions. (a) Coverage. Section 103 (g) (3) of the act provides in part as follows:

The term "subcontract" means—
(1) • • •
(2) • • •
(3) Any contract or arrangement (other than a contract or arrangement between two contracting parties, one of whom is found by the Board to be a bona fide executive officer, partner, or full-time employee of the other contracting party) under which—
(A) Any amount payable is contingent upon the procurement of a contract or contracts with a Department or of a subcontract or subcontracts; or
(B) Any amount payable is determined with reference to the amount of a contract or contracts with a Department or of a subcontract or subcontracts; or
(C) Any part of the services performed or to be performed consists of the soliciting, attempting to procure, or procuring a contract or contracts with a Department or a subcontract or subcontracts.

(b) Minimum amount subject to renegotiation. Section 105 (f) (2) of the act provides as follows:

If the aggregate of the amounts received or accrued during a fiscal year (and on or after the applicable effective date specified in section 102 (a)) by a subcontractor, and all persons under control of or controlling or under common control with the subcontractor, under subcontracts described in section 103 (g) (3) is not more than $25,000, the receipts or accruals from such subcontracts shall not, for such fiscal year, be renegotiated under this title. If the aggregate of such amounts received or accrued during the fiscal year under such subcontracts is more than $25,000, no determination of excessive profits to be eliminated for such year with respect to such subcontracts shall be in an amount greater than the amount by which such aggregate exceeds $25,000.

§ 1490.3 Limited exemption of subcontracts for architectural, design or engineering services. Certain subcontracts described in section 103 (g) (3) of the act have been exempted by the Board under certain circumstances. Such exemption is limited to subcontracts "for architectural, design or engineering services, no part of which services are or were related to the effecting or procuring of a contract with a Department or a subcontract, if the aggregate amount received or accrued during a fiscal year by a subcontractor and all persons under control of or controlling or under common control with the subcontractor, is not more than $250,000" (see § 1455.3 (b) (6) of this chapter).

§ 1490.4 Application of the act. Subcontracts described in section 103 (g) (3) of the act are subject to renegotiation under the act to the extent of amounts received or accrued on or after the date applicable to the prime contract to which the subcontract relates (see § 1452.2 of this chapter).

§ 1490.5 Filing of financial statement. The regulations pertaining to this subject are set forth in § 1470.3 of this chapter. It will be noted therefrom that no special form is prescribed for persons holding subcontracts described in section 103 (g) (3) of the act. Such persons shall adapt the Standard Form of Contractor's Report to their particular needs.

§ 1490.6 Determination of renegotiable business under section 103 (g) (3) of the act. (a) Receipts and accruals which are derived from any contract or arrangement described in section 103 (g) (3) of the act are renegotiable only to the extent that they are contingent upon the procurement of a renegotiable prime contract or subcontract, or are determined with reference to the amount of a renegotiable prime contract or subcontract, or are received or accrued for soliciting, attempting to procure, or procuring a renegotiable prime contract or subcontract.

Example. X Company, only part of whose sales are subject to renegotiation, enters into a sales commission contract with a sales representative. Pursuant to such contract he makes sales on behalf of X company to Y company, which is not engaged in renegotiable business, and also to the Department of the Army. The commissions on the sales to the Department of the Army are renegotiable since they are received for procuring a renegotiable prime contract. The commissions on the sales to Y company are not renegotiable even though all of the commissions are received pursuant to the single commission contract. It is immaterial in this instance whether the commission is a fixed amount or is measured by the amount of the renegotiable sales.

(b) All receipts or accruals which are contingent upon the procurement of renegotiable prime contracts or subcontracts or which are determined with reference to the amount thereof, are subject to the act without regard to whether they are paid or payable for the procurement of such prime contracts or subcontracts or for the servicing thereof.

Example. A sales organization is entitled by its contract with X Corporation to be paid 5% of all sales of X Corporation within a certain territory. Most sales during the year are repeat orders placed directly with X Corporation by regular customers who make their purchases in connection with renegotiable business. The main function of the sales organization is to service the contracts, expedite shipments, and render engineering or other technical assistance to X Corporation in the improvement, use or maintenance of its products. All commissions received or accrued by the sales organization from X Corporation on renegotiable business are subject to the act.

(c) If the amount of the receipts or accruals under a subcontract described in section 103 (g) (3) of the act is not contingent upon the procurement of a renegotiable prime contract or subcontract, or measured by the amount thereof, but is received or accrued in whole or in part for soliciting, attempting to procure or procuring such a contract, that part of such receipts or accruals is subject to the act which the Board determines to be reasonably allocable to renegotiable sales.

EXAMPLE. Pursuant to a fixed monthly retainer, a manufacturer's representative represents X Corporation, sells its products, assists in expediting shipment thereof, and performs engineering services in connection with such sales and the use of such products. Normally, segregation will be accomplished by applying to the receipts or accruals from the retainer contract the same ratio which the renegotiable sales of X Corporation bear to total sales. If it should appear, however, that the application of such ratio would not correctly reflect the part of such receipts or accruals which is properly referable to renegotiable business, segregation will be accomplished on such basis as will correctly reflect such part.

(d) A contract to furnish engineering or other technical services required for the performance of a renegotiable prime contract or subcontract is not a subcontract described in section 103 (g) (3) of the act if no part of the amount payable under such contract is contingent upon the procurement of a renegotiable prime contract or subcontract, or is measured by the amount thereof, and if no part of the services performed or to be performed thereunder consists of soliciting, attempting to procure, or procuring a renegotiable prime contract or subcontract. However, a contract to furnish such services is a subcontract described in section 103 (g) (1) of the act.

(e) Receipts and accruals under subcontracts described in section 103 (g) (3) of the act are exempt from renegotiation, to the extent that such receipts and accruals are referable to prime contracts and subcontracts which are exempted from the provisions of the act by sections 106 (a) or (d) thereof. See §§ 1453.6 and 1455.7 of this chapter.

(f) Receipts and accruals under subcontracts described in section 103 (g) (3) of the act, to the extent that such receipts and accruals are referable to subcontracts for new durable productive equipment, are subject to renegotiation to the same extent as the receipts or accruals under the subcontracts to which they are referable.

§ 1490.7 Determination of excessive profits under subcontracts described in section 103 (g) (3) of the act—(a) General considerations. (1) It is recognized that, in times of emergency, the bona fide manufacturer's representative or salesman can render a useful service in the defense effort by making sources of materials available to defense contractors, coordinating procurement needs with the productive capacities of his principal, expediting shipments, and rendering expert technical assistance to the buyer, the seller and the Government.

(2) At the same time, under emergency conditions, the demand for materials is so enhanced that a normal return to a sales representative for selling goods or services or to a person compensated on a commission or percentage basis may become excessive when considered in relation to the character and amount of work performed by such person. To the extent that the emergency creates a sellers' market, it tends to reduce the amount of effort required to locate buyers and to induce them to purchase. At the same time, the increase in the volume of such purchasing frequently results in a corresponding dollar increase in sales commissions. When commissions are based on a rate of compensation which was established in normal times, when supply and demand were more evenly balanced, excessive compensation may result without corresponding benefits to the buyer and supplier of the materials. This excessive compensation, when paid for the procurement of defense prime contracts or subcontracts, is borne ultimately by the Government.

(3) Consequently, while there is definite value in the services of sales representatives in the prosecution of the defense effort, it is necessary to maintain the compensation paid for such services at a reasonable level commensurate with their character, amount and value, and thus to avoid excessive costs and profits. This applies with equal force to the commissions of established sales agencies and the commissions of agencies which have developed solely or principally as a result of the emergency.

(b) Application of statutory factors; general policy. Reasonable profits will be determined in every case by over-all evaluation of the particular factors present and not by the application of any fixed formula with respect to rate of profit, or otherwise. Renegotiation proceedings will not result in a profit based on the principle of a percentage of cost. Brokers and manufacturers' agents who render a valuable service in the prosecution of the defense effort, through bringing production facilities into defense work, furnishing technical assistance in the use and maintenance of the products of their principals, or otherwise improving or facilitating the execution of the defense program, will receive a more favorable determination than those who do not. Such favorable or unfavorable determination will be reflected in the profits allowed to be retained by the contractor as nonexcessive. Claims of a contractor for favorable consideration must be supported by established facts, analyses and appropriate comparisons.

§ 1490.8 Efficiency of the contractor—(a) Statutory provision. Section 103 (c) of the act provides that in determining excessive profits, favorable recognition must be given to:

the efficiency of the contractor or subcontractor, with particular regard to attainment of quantity and quality production, reduction of costs, and economy in the use of materials, facilities, and manpower;

(b) Comment. Favorable recognition must be given to the contractor's efficiency in operations, with particular attention to the following:

(1) Quantity of production; for example, the servicing or expediting of an expanded volume of renegotiable sales without a correspondingly expanded staff.

(2) Quality of production: for example, maintenance of standards of service, advice and technical assistance to buyers and sellers, notwithstanding increased volume of work; maintenance of delivery schedules, to the extent resulting from efforts of the contractor.

(3) Reduction of costs; for example, decrease in promotional expenses as compared with previous years and with the experience of other similar contractors.

(4) Economy in the use of materials, facilities, and manpower; for example, utilizing the services of less skilled employees or trainees to do technical work normally requiring employees with greater training and experience when such more highly skilled employees are not available.

§ 1490.9 Reasonableness of costs and profits—(a) Statutory provision. Section 103 (e) of the act provides that in determining excessive profits there shall be taken into consideration the following factor:

(1) Reasonableness of costs and profits, with particular regard to volume of production, normal earnings, and comparison of war and peacetime products:

(b) Comment. Consideration will be given to the reasonableness or the excessiveness of costs and profits of the contractor. Comparisons will be made with the contractor's own costs and profits in previous years and with current costs and profits of other contractors, if such information is available. In making comparisons for fiscal periods ended before January 1, 1951, profits during World War II years will not be regarded as determinative. Nor is it intended that renegotiation should, in effect, freeze the contractor's profits at the peacetime level. Rather it is intended that he be allowed a reasonable reward for his effort, skill and success in performing services for his principals and for his contribution to the defense effort. The reasonableness of profits will be determined on a dollar basis rather than on the basis of a percentage of the sales of his principals.

§ 1490.10 Capital employed—(a) Statutory provision. Section 103 (e) of the act provides that in determining excessive profits there shall be taken into consideration the following factors:

(2) The net worth, with particular regard to the amount and source of public and private capital employed;

(b) The net worth of a sales organization is rarely of sufficient importance to have a bearing upon the reasonableness of sales commissions; nor, as a general rule, is any substantial amount of capital, either public or private, employed in its operations. However, when sufficient capital or net worth is employed, consideration will be given thereto in determining the existence and amount of excessive profits of such a contractor.

§ 1490.11 Extent of risk assumed—(a) Statutory provision. Section 103 (e) of the act provides that in determining excessive profits there shall be taken into consideration the following factor:

(3) Extent of risk assumed, including the risk incident to reasonable pricing policies;

(b) Comment. If the contractor undertakes financial obligations or incurs financial or other risks in connection with his renegotiable business, such obligations and risks will be taken into consideration in determining what constitutes excessive profits. To receive such consideration, such risk must be an unusual one, such as the risk of saturating post-emergency markets, and not merely the risk of expending the efforts and capacities of a sales organization without assurance of compensation. Any risk incident to the performance of sales services on a contingent basis is one which is assumed by most sales organizations and, furthermore, is one which diminishes with the increased volume of business resulting from the defense effort.

§ 1490.12 Contribution to the defense effort—(a) Statutory provision. Section 103 (e) of the act provides that in determining excessive profits there shall be taken into consideration the following factor:

(4) Nature and extent of contribution to the defense effort, including inventive and developmental contribution and cooperation with the Government and other contractors in supplying technical assistance.

(b) Comment. This factor is especially significant in determining excessive profits under subcontracts described in section 103 (g) (3) of the act. A manufacturer's representative or salesman can make a substantial contribution to the defense effort by (1) making sources of materials and services available to defense contractors, including the exercise of ingenuity in bringing facilities and services into defense work and developing new uses for old products; (2) correlating the productive capacity of a manufacturer with the procurement needs of the defense effort; (3) expediting the purchase and flow of materials to contractors; (4) servicing sales contracts during performance to meet the requirements of the buyer; (5) rendering expert engineering or other technical assistance to the buyer, the seller and the Government. The contractor who assists the prosecution of the defense effort in any of the above ways, or in other ways, will be given more favorable consideration than the contractor who does not. The profits allowed to be retained by the contractor as nonexcessive will include a suitable financial reward for any exceptional accomplishments or outstanding efforts that inured or might reasonably have inured to the benefit of the defense effort. To determine this, comparison will be made with the services and activities customarily performed by similar contractors in the same field.

§ 1490.13 Character of business—(a) Statutory provision. Section 103 (e) of the act provides that in determining excessive profits there shall be taken into consideration the following factor:

(5) Character of business, including source and nature of materials, complexity of manufacturing technique, character and extent of subcontracting, and rate of turnover.

(b) Comment. Consideration will be given to the character of the business of the contractor. This will vary greatly from one sales organization to another. The contractor who merely takes orders and transmits them to his principal generally is not entitled to as large a profit as the contractor who, in addition to such functions, also performs technical services in adapting his principal's products to the needs of his buyers or devotes substantial effort to expediting shipments and servicing the sales he has made. The profits allowed to be retained by the contractor will reflect the skill, training and experience required to accomplish the functions performed by the contractor, and the compensation customarily paid for such skill, training and experience.

TITLE 32A—NATIONAL DEFENSE, APPENDIX

Chapter III—Office of Price Stabilization, Economic Stabilization Agency

[Ceiling Price Regulation 61, Supplementary Regulation 3]

CPR 61—EXPORTS

SR 3—CEILING PRICES FOR SULFUR MINED BY NON-FRASCH METHODS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Supplementary Regulation 3 to Ceiling Price Regulation 61 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This supplementary regulation to Ceiling Price Regulation 61 provides for the establishment or adjustment of ceiling prices for export sales and sales for export of sulfur, produced and mined from sulfur deposits, by methods other than the Frasch method, to reflect the greater costs involved in the production of sulfur by non-Frasch methods and the greater costs resulting from the more impure deposits which are involved. The production of sulfur by the Frasch process is at capacity level. Increased domestic production is necessitated by the greatly increased demand in both domestic and foreign markets. The United States is the prime supplier of sulfur in world markets and sulfur at present is in critical short supply for defense and civilian requirements. These requirements have resulted in the domestic allocation of sulfur to production and use on the basis of 90 percent of the 1950 consumption. The inadequacy of the total current supply of sulfur is recognized by the National Production Authority which is encouraging the production of sulfur from all available sources.

Sulfur is produced today by the Frasch process or is recovered from sour gases or crude oil in the petroleum industry. There is at present only limited production of mined sulfur by non-Frasch methods, primarily because of the substantially greater costs involved in this method of production which necessitates much higher selling prices than existing ceiling prices. These deposits are considerably less pure than the deposits which lend themselves to the Frasch method of extraction and thus involve greater extraction costs.

Expansion of the present sources of supply of sulfur cannot be achieved without this incremental production at significantly greater unit costs.

There are existing sulfur deposits in several areas of the United States. These deposits contain a relatively low percentage of sulfur and the ore must be, when mined, beneficiated to increase the sulfur content to an economic level in order to be sold in existing markets. The cost of production, therefore, is generally much higher than existing ceiling prices for sales of elemental sulfur produced by the Frasch process or recovered from sour natural gas or waste refinery gases in the petroleum industry. It can be expected that all of the incremental mined sulfur produced by non-Frasch methods will be sold in the export markets where world prices for sulfur are substantially higher than the prevailing ceiling prices for sulfur in the United States. This supplementary regulation will, therefore, permit increased production of elemental sulfur for the export trade with a minimum effect on the prevailing price level in the United States.

This supplementary regulation provides, upon application, for the establishment or adjustment of ceiling prices for export sales and sales for export of sulfur so produced.

Since the estimated increases in unit costs will be based on anticipated expenditures, the producer receiving an authorized ceiling price or an adjustment of his ceiling price will be required, in all cases, to file a detailed report of the actual cost experience for the sixth full month of production and a report of the average production costs for the first six full months of production.

In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization the provisions of this supplementary regulation are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to effectuate the purposes of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

In view of the remedial nature of this supplementary regulation, special circumstances have rendered consultations with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, impractical.

REGULATORY PROVISIONS

Sec.
1. What this supplementary regulation does.
2. How to apply for establishment or adjustment of ceiling price.
3. Contents of application.
4. Action by the Director.
5. Sales to merchant exporters.
6. Applicability of other regulations.
7. Definitions.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 7 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply Title IV, 64 Stat. 803, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2101-2110, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR 1950 Supp.

SECTION 1. What this supplementary regulation does. This supplementary regulation applies to producers of elemental sulfur mined in the United States by other than the Frasch method and provides for the establishment of ceiling prices or the adjustment of ceiling prices for all their export sales and sales for export of such sulfur. The General Ceiling Price Regulation continues to be applicable to all other sales of such sulfur.

SEC. 2. How to apply for establishment or adjustment of ceiling price. If you are a producer of sulfur mined from deposits in the United States by other than the Frasch method, and do not have a ceiling price established for export sales or sales for export of that sulfur, you may apply for the establishment of a ceiling price under this supplementary regulation instead of establishing a ceiling price under Ceiling Price Regulation 61. If you already have a ceiling price established for export sales or sales for export of such sulfur, you may apply for an adjustment of that ceiling price under this supplementary regulation. Your signed application should be filed with the Office of Price Stabilization, Rubber, Chemicals and Drugs Division, Washington 25, D. C.

SEC. 3. Contents of application. Your application shall set forth the following:

(a) Name and address of applicant and location of the sulfur deposit; the nature of applicant's interest therein, e. g., Fee Simple, Leasehold, Rental Agreement, etc., accompanied by a copy of the instrument by which the interest was acquired; and a statement of the acquisition cost of the property or rental terms if under lease, with dates of acquisition and, in the case of a lease, of its expiration.

(b) Your present ceiling price, if any, for domestic sales, sales for export and export sales.

(c) A description of your present and proposed operations including a statement of

(1) The quantity of sulfur (99.5 percent basis) produced annually from your mine or if you cannot furnish figures of actual production, an estimate of your annual production, giving the basis for your estimate.

(2) The total amount of recoverable sulfur in the deposit to be mined, including the actual or estimated amount at the time of acquisition and at the beginning of the fiscal period used in paragraph (f), below.

(3) The physical description and grade of the ore, including the percentage of contained sulfur in the ore.

(d) A breakdown of the actual capital investment in plant and equipment required to achieve the sulfur production stated in paragraph (c) above. This investment should be valued at acquisition cost. Where the equipment has been used, deduct from the acquisition cost the normal depreciation resulting from the use of the equipment. Where the plant and equipment have not yet been purchased, submit a breakdown of estimated acquisition cost erected at plant site.

(e) The estimated book value of the recoverable provable sulfur.

(f) A breakdown of the unit cost of producing the sulfur on the basis of a long ton of 99.5 percent basis sulfur, presented in the same detail as you carry your figures on your books of account. The suggested detailed items of cost for which separate figures are to be submitted are covered in the outline below. If you have been in production for three months or more, submit your actual unit costs of production for the most recent three month period with estimated costs of production for the subsequent three month period. If you are not yet in production or if you have been in production less than three months, submit your estimated unit costs for the first six months of production.

(1) Total mining and plant cost.
(i) Mining costs: E. g. cutting, blasting, loading, ventilation, drainage, mucking, nipping, stripping, direct supervision, power and light.
Mine haulage: E. g. hoisting, trucking to mill, waste disposal, etc.
Mine maintenance: E. g. cutting and drilling machines, loading equipment, pumps, ventilation, etc.
(ii) Milling and refining expense: E. g. supervision, operation, processing materials, utilities, tailings disposal, maintenance and repair, etc.
(iii) Mine and plant overhead: E. g. supervisory, shop, laboratory, powerhouse, general, etc.
(iv) Warehouse and loading.
(v) Taxes: E. g. production, use, severance, franchise, and personal property taxes, and social security taxes, but not including income and excess profit taxes.
(vi) Depreciation.
(vii) Depletion.
(viii) Royalty and lease rentals.
(2) Administrative, general, selling expense.
(3) Exploration and development costs.
(4) Total operating cost.

(g) Any other information deemed pertinent by the applicant which will assist the Director in establishing or adjusting your ceiling price.

SEC. 4. Action by the Director. (a) If the Director finds that you cannot reasonably be expected to produce or to continue to produce sulfur from your deposit for export sales or sales for export at ceiling prices which would have been provided by regulations otherwise applicable and that the sulfur which you produce is required by the world market, he may establish a ceiling price or adjust your ceiling prices for your export sales or sales for export of such sulfur, taking into consideration the cost of producing and selling the sulfur. The Director's order may also establish ceiling prices for export sales of your sulfur by merchant exporters. Your ceiling prices for sales of such sulfur in the United States are established by the General Ceiling Price Regulation and will not be changed by the Director's order.

(b) The Director may request such further information as he may deem necessary to a proper determination of your application.

(c) Producers of sulfur whose ceiling prices have been established or adjusted under the provisions of this section shall be required, after six full months of operation, to file a report showing the following:

(1) Your cost for the sixth full month of operation, showing the same items of cost required by section 3 (f).

(2) Your cost for the entire six month period, showing the same items of costs required by section 3 (f).

(3) Total tons of sulfur produced (on a 99.5% basis) during your sixth month of operation and for the entire six month period.

(d) Any order issued by the Director under this supplementary regulation may be modified or revoked at any time.

SEC. 5. Sales to merchant exporters. A producer who has his ceiling prices for sulfur established or adjusted under this supplementary regulation, and who makes a sale or sales of such sulfur to a merchant exporter shall furnish the merchant exporter an invoice or an accompanying statement, for each sale, showing his ceiling prices which have been established or adjusted for export sales and sales for export under this supplementary regulation, and a statement that his ceiling prices were established or adjusted under this supplementary regulation.

SEC. 6. Applicability of other regulations. A producer of sulfur whose ceiling price has been established or adjusted in accordance with this supplementary regulation shall be subject to all provisions of Ceiling Price Regulation 61 which are not inconsistent with the provisions hereof, including, but not limited to, the enforcement and penalty provisions thereof, and the requirements of keeping on file for inspection a statement of his records.

SEC. 7. Definitions. Where used in this supplementary regulation the term:

(a) "Producer" means any person engaged in the business of producing sulfur as defined in paragraph (b) below.

(b) "Sulfur" means sulfur obtained by mining deposits containing elemental sulfur and does not include sulfur produced by the Frasch process or sulfur obtained from petroleum or natural gases.

(c) "Export sales" and "sales for export" are defined in sec. 15 (c) of Ceiling Price Regulation 61.

Effective date: This Supplementary Regulation 3 to the Ceiling Price Regulation 61 is effective July 1, 1952.

NOTE: The record-keeping and reporting requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Director of Price Stabilization.

Chapter IV—Salary and Wage Stabilization, Economic Stabilization Agency

Subchapter A—Salary Stabilization Board

[Interpretation 12]

INT. 12—EXCLUSION FROM SALARY STABILIZATION OF PROFESSIONAL ENGINEERS EMPLOYED IN A PROFESSIONAL CAPACITY

This interpretation defines the scope of paragraph (ii) of section 402 (c) of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended by the Defense Production Act Amendments of 1952, with regard to the exclusion from stabilization of the salaries and other compensation of professional engineers employed in a professional capacity.

The statute, as amended, provides that the authority conferred by Title IV, relating to salary stabilization, shall not be exercised with respect to "* * * wages, salaries and other compensation paid to professional engineers employed in a professional capacity; * * *".

1. Definition of "professional engineer". (a) A professional engineer is a person who, by reason of his special knowledge of the mathematical and physical sciences and the principles and methods of engineering analysis and design, acquired by professional education and practical experience, is qualified to apply such special knowledge for the purpose of rendering professional services or accomplishing creative work, such as consultation, investigation, evaluation, planning, design, or supervision of construction for the purpose of assuring compliance with specifications and design in connection with structures, machines, processes, works or projects.

(b) A person is qualified as a professional engineer by reason of his professional education, if he holds a professional engineering degree from a college, university or institute of technology, authorized under the laws of the jurisdiction in which it is located to grant academic degrees in professional engineering.

(c) A person licensed or registered to practice as a professional engineer in any State, Territory, or possession of the United States or in the District of Columbia is qualified as a professional engineer.

2. Persons who are not "professional engineers". (a) Persons engaged in carrying on routine mechanical activities, or persons employed as technicians or artisans (no matter how highly skilled), advisers on sales promotion, business methods and operations or in similar capacities, are not considered professional engineers. Consequently, persons whose occupations are designated as that of "engineer", such as stationary engineers, maintenance engineers, sales engineers or management or administrative engineers, are not professional engineers.

(b) Physicists, chemists, mathematicians, and other persons professionally employed in scientific fields, even though their scientific field or particular work activity may be related closely to professional engineering, are not professional engineers.

(c) Persons employed as engineering assistants, engineering aides, junior engineers or other "engineering" personnel who may work in more or less close association with professional engineers, but who are not qualified to do the work of professional engineers, are not professional engineers.

3. Employed in a professional capacity. (a) The statutory exclusion from salary stabilization extends to a professional engineer only if he is employed in a professional capacity. A person is so employed if he performs engineering work of a professional character within the meaning of the Regulations, Part 541, issued by the Administrator of the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Division pursuant to section 13 (a) (1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended (29 CFR, 1950 Supp.).

(b) A person, qualified as a professional engineer, may actually be employed in a position which does not involve the duties or responsibilities of a professional engineer. Such a person is not regarded as being employed in a professional capacity, even though he may be employed by a professional engineer or a firm of professional engineers.

For example, a qualified professional engineer may be employed in an executive rather than a professional capacity (such as vice president in charge of sales of a firm of machinery distributors). Similarly, a professional engineer whose primary duty is that of an administrative employee (such as employment manager in charge of recruiting and placement of professional personnel) or that of an outside salesman (such as soliciting of contracts from governmental agencies for industrial concerns) is not employed in a professional capacity. A person qualified to be a professional engineer, who has a combination of professional and non-professional duties and responsibilities, is employed in a professional capacity only if his primary duty, as such term is used in the definition of a bona fide professional capacity contained in the Regulations, Part 541 (issued by the Administrator of the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions) is that of a professional engineer.

(Sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154)

Issued by the Office of Salary Stabilization, July 1, 1952.

Executive Director.

Chapter VI—National Production Authority, Department of Commerce

[NPA Order M-16, Direction 1 as Amended July 2, 1952]

M-16—DISTRIBUTION OF COPPER RAW MATERIALS

DIR. 1.—ADVANCE AUTHORIZATIONS

This amended direction to NPA Order M-16 is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended. In the formulation of this amended direction, there has been consultation with industry representatives and consideration has been given to their recommendations.

Direction 1 of November 19, 1951, to NPA Order M-16 is hereby amended to permit advance orders to be placed for two succeeding months and to increase the quantity which may be ordered in advance. As amended, Direction 1 to NPA Order M-16 reads as follows:

Sec.
1. What this direction does.
2. Advance authorizations.
3. Certification.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 3 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, Pub. Law 429, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply sec. 101, 64 Stat. 799, Pub. Law 429, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2071; sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.; sec. 2, E. O. 10200, Jan. 3, 1951, 16 F. R. 61; 3 CFR, 1951 Supp.; secs. 402, 405, E. O. 10281, Aug. 28, 1951, 16 F. R. 8789; 3 CFR, 1951 Supp.

SECTION 1. What this direction does. The purpose of this direction is to permit persons who have received authority to purchase copper raw materials to place orders for and accept delivery of a limited quantity of similar materials during the 2 months succeeding the month for which the authorization was issued.

SEC. 2. Advance authorizations. (a) Any person who has received a written authorization pursuant to section 3 of NPA Order M-16, which authorization permits the acceptance of delivery of copper raw materials in a given month, may order for delivery to him during each of the two immediately succeeding months a quantity of copper raw materials for which he has such written authorization, not in excess of 50 percent of the quantity of each type of material other than refined copper, 75 percent of the quantity of domestic refined copper, and 100 percent of the quantity of other refined copper, and may during each of such succeeding two months accept delivery of the material so ordered. This permission does not apply to persons whose authorization to purchase issued pursuant to section 3 of NPA Order M-16, covers a period longer than one month.

(b) Any material received in any month pursuant to the permission granted by this section must be deducted from the quantity authorized to be received under the written authorization issued for that month in accordance with section 3 of NPA Order M-16. If the authorization received for any month is not large enough to cover the entire quantity ordered for such month, any excess must be deducted from the next authorization received.

SEC. 3. Certification. Orders placed pursuant to the permission granted by section 2 of this direction shall be certified as provided in paragraph (b) of section 3 of NPA Order M-16, except that where such certification provides for the authorization number to be given, there shall be inserted the authorization number which is the basis for the advance order, together with the words "advance authorization."

This direction as amended shall take effect on July 2, 1952.

Chapter XIV—General Services Administration

MANGANESE REGULATIONS: PURCHASE PROGRAM FOR DOMESTIC MANGANESE ORE AT WENDEN, ARIZONA

Sec.
1. Basis and purpose.
2. Definitions.
3. Participation in the program.
4. Deliveries.
5. Duration of the program.
6. Price schedule for ores.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 6 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended, Pub. Law 96, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply sec. 303, 64 Stat. 801, as amended, Pub. Law 96, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2093, E. O. 10281, Aug. 28, 1951, 16 F. R. 8789-8791.

SECTION 1. Basis and purpose. This regulation interprets and implements the authority of the Administrator of General Services to purchase manganese ore of domestic origin at Wenden, Arizona, pursuant to delegation of authority from the Defense Materials Procurement Administrator [1] of even date with this regulation, and outlines the attendant responsibilities and functions of the Administrator of General Services in purchasing such manganese ores for Government use and resale. In accordance with the program set forth herein, as authorized by the Defense Production Administration on May 9, 1952, the Administrator will buy domestically produced manganese ore containing not less than fifteen percent (15%) manganese, in accordance with the specifications contained in this regulation.

SEC. 2. Definitions. As used in this regulation:

(a) "Administrator" means the Administrator of General Services.

(b) "Program" means the purchase of manganese ore as set forth in this regulation.

(c) "Depot" means the purchase depot of the Government at Wenden, Arizona.

(d) "Manganese ore" means crude ore containing not less than fifteen percent (15%) manganese, mined in the United States, its territories and possessions.

(e) "Long ton unit of manganese" means 22.4 pounds of manganese contained in a long dry ton of manganese ore.

SEC. 3. Participation in the program. Any person may participate in the program by notice given to the General Services Administration Regional Office, Building 41, Denver Federal Center, Denver, Colorado, in the form of a letter, postcard or telegram postmarked or dated by the telegraph office not later than August 31, 1953. Such notice shall state that the writer desires to participate in the program and will deliver manganese ore to the depot. Such notice must be signed and a return address given. Any person participating in the program will promptly be sent a certificate authorizing him to deliver ore meeting minimum specifications.

SEC. 4. Deliveries. Manganese ore to be purchased by the Government under the program is to be delivered f. o. b. depot. Delivery of less than five (5) long tons of ore at one time will not be accepted. Participants in the program must give the Government reasonable notice with respect to deliveries of ore. Each delivery will be sampled and assayed by the Government at the depot and payment on an estimated recovery basis will be made in accordance with the analysis of such sample and as provided in section 6 below. Deliveries not conforming to the minimum specifications will be rejected, and expenses in connection therewith will be borne by the seller.

SEC. 5. Duration of the program. This program shall terminate and be of no further force or effect when six million (6,000,000) contained long ton units of manganese have been delivered to the depot and accepted by the Government under this program, or at the close of business June 30, 1956, whichever first occurs.

SEC. 6. Price schedule for ores. The following prices per long dry ton will be paid for manganese ore delivered f. o. b. depot. Where the fractional manganese content is 0.5 percent (0.5%) or below, payment will be made as though no fractional content were involved. Where such fractional content is 0.51 percent (0.51%) or above, payment will be made at the next higher figure.

Percent Mn in ore:	To be paid for 1 long dry ton
15	$8.54
16	10.24
17	12.00
18	13.71
19	15.48
20	17.20
21	19.13
22	21.08
23	23.05
24	24.99
25	26.94
26	29.64
27	32.40
28	35.11
29	37.88

37	65.15
38	69.61
39	74.03
40 fines	78.00
40 ore	88.00

The above price schedule applies to lots received from individual shippers aggregating less than 200 tons during any 30-day period, and shall constitute the final and definite price for such lots.

For lots received from individual shippers aggregating 200 tons or more during any 30-day period, the above price schedule shall serve as a basis for preliminary settlement pending laboratory tests. The preliminary settlement shall be adjusted up or down, as the case may be, as a result of tests for laboratory-determined recoverability. Final settlement shall be calculated on the basis of $2.30 per long ton unit of manganese determined from the laboratory tests to be recoverable from the ore, subject to a charge of $10 per ton of ore (the estimated cost of sampling, milling, and handling) and to the specifications, premiums, and penalties set forth below.

SPECIFICATIONS

	Percent
Manganese	48.0
Iron	6.0
Silica plus alumina	11.0
Phosphorus	.12

PREMIUMS

Manganese content above 48.0 percent (dry basis): ½ cent for each 1.0 percent.

Iron content below 6.0 percent (dry basis): ½ cent for each 1.0 percent.

PENALTIES

Manganese content below 48.0 percent (dry basis): 1 cent for each 1.0 percent, down to and including 44.0 percent. Below 44.0 percent: 4 cents, plus 1½ cents for each 1.0 percent down to 40.0 percent minimum. Iron content above 6.0 percent (dry basis): 1 cent for each 1.0 percent, up to and including 8.0 percent. Above 8.0 percent: 2 cents plus ¾ cent for each 1.0 percent up to 16 percent maximum. Silica plus alumina content above 11.0 percent (dry basis): 1 cent for each 1.0 percent up to 15 percent maximum. Phosphorus content above 0.12 percent (dry basis): ½ cent for each 0.01 percent up to 0.3 percent maximum.

The Government will reject any lot which, on the basis of the laboratory testing, cannot be beneficiated to a product the chemical analysis of which falls within the following limits in all respects. The Government reserves the right to dispense with laboratory testing of shipments aggregating less than 200 tons over a 30-day period.

	By weight (dry basis) (percent)
Manganese (Mn)	40.0	minimum

2. Schedule A, Item 173a, is amended to read as follows:

(173a) [Revoked and decontrolled.]

This decontrols: (a) The City of Springfield in Greene County, Missouri, a portion of the Springfield, Missouri Defense-Rental Area, based on a resolution submitted under section 204 (j) (3) of the Housing and Rent Act of 1947, as amended; (b) all unincorported localities in said defense-rental area, said City of Springfield being the major portion of the defense-rental area, under section 204 (j) (3) of said act, and (c) all incorporated localities, other than said City of Springfield, in the defense-rental area on the initiative of the Director of Rent Stabilization under section 204 (c) of said act.

3. Schedule A, Item 190, is amended to describe the counties in the defense-rental area as follows:

Bergen County, except the Boroughs of Allendale, Hohokus, Ramsey, Rutherford and Saddle River, the Village of Ridgewood, and the Township of Mahawah; Morris County, except the Township of Jefferson; and the Counties of Essex, Hudson, Middlesex, Monmouth, Passaic, Somerset and Union.

Morris County, except the Township of Jefferson.

In Morris County, the Township of Jefferson.

This decontrols the Borough of Rutherford in Bergen County, New Jersey, a portion of the Northeastern New Jersey Defense-Rental Area.

4. Schedule A, Item 258, is amended to describe the counties in the defense-rental area as follows:

In Blair County, the City of Altoona, and the Townships of Allegheny, Antis, Blair, Frankstown, Logan and Snyder, and the Boroughs of Bellwood, Duncansville, Hollidaysburg, Newry and Tyrone; Cambria County; and in Somerset County, the Townships of Black, Conemough, Jenner, Lincoln, Ogle, Paint, Shade, Somerset, Summit and Quemahoning, and the Boroughs of Benson, Boswell, Central City, Hooversville, Garrett, Jennerstown, Meyersdale, Paint, Rockwood, Stoyestown and Windber.

This decontrols the Borough of Somerset in Somerset County, Pennsylvania, a portion of the Altoona-Johnstown, Pennsylvania Defense-Rental Area.

5. Schedule A, Item 264, is amended to read as follows:

(264) [Revoked and decontrolled.]

This decontrols the Meadville-Titusville, Pennsylvania Defense-Rental Area on the initiative of the Director of Rent Stabilization under section 204 (c) of the act.

6. Schedule A, Item 267, is amended to describe the counties in the defense-rental area as follows:

Allegheny County, except the Boroughs of Bethel, Churchill, Elizabeth, Ingram, Rosslyn Farms and Wilkinsburg, and the Townships of Crescent, Mount Lebanon, Ohio, Penn and Shaler; Armstrong County; Beaver County, except the Borough of Beaver and the Township of Brighton; Lawrence County, except the Borough of New Wilmington; Westmoreland County; in Butler County, the City of Butler; Fayette County, except the Townships of Henry Clay, Stewart and Wharton; in Green County, the Townships of Cumberland, Dunkard, Franklin, Jefferson, Monongahela and Morgan; and Washington County, except the Townships of East Finley, Morris, South Franklin and West Finley.

That part of Beaver County north and east of the Ohio River, except the Townships of Economy, Harmony and Brighton, and the Boroughs of Ambridge, Baden, Beaver and Conway, and (effective February 28, 1952) that part of the Borough of Ellwood City which lies in Beaver County.

In Beaver County, the Townships of Potter and Center and the Borough of Monaca.

In Beaver County, Brighton Township.

This decontrols the Borough of Ingram in Allegheny County, Pennsylvania, a portion of the Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania Defense-Rental Area.

All decontrols effected by these amendments, in items 3, 4 and 6 thereof, are based entirely on resolutions submitted under section 204 (j) (3) of the Housing and Rent Act of 1947, as amended. The basis for the decontrols effected by these amendments, in items 1, 2 and 5 thereof, is set forth in those items.

TITLE 36—PARKS, FORESTS, AND MEMORIALS

Chapter I—National Park Service, Department of the Interior

PART 20—SPECIAL REGULATIONS

DEATH VALLEY NATIONAL MONUMENT; MINING

The regulations governing mining in Death Valley National Monument are republished by adding to Part 20 a new § 20.26, reading as follows:

§ 20.26 Death Valley National Monument—(a) Mining. Mining in Death Valley National Monument is subject to the following special regulations which are prescribed to govern the surface use of claims therein:

(1) The claim shall be occupied and used exclusively for mineral exploration and development and for no other purpose; except that, upon written permission of the Director of the National Park Service, the surface of the claim may be used for other specified purposes, the use to be on such conditions and for such period as may be prescribed when permission is granted.

(2) The owner of the claim and all persons holding under him shall conform to all rules now prescribed or which may be made applicable by the Director of the National Park Service, governing occupancy of lands within the national monument.

(3) The use and occupancy of the surface of mining claims as prescribed above shall apply to all such claims located after the date of the act of June 13, 1933 (48 Stat. 139; 16 U. S. C. 447), within the limits of the national monument as fixed by Proclamation 2028, February 11, 1933, and to all mining claims on lands hereafter included in the national monument, located after such inclusion, so long as such claims are within the boundaries of said monument.

(4) Prospectors or miners shall not open or construct roads or vehicle trails without first obtaining a permit from the Director of the National Park Service. Applications for permits may be made through the custodian of the monument, upon submitting a map or sketch showing the location of the mining property to be served and the location of the proposed road or vehicle trail. The permit may be conditioned upon the permittee's maintaining the road or trail in a passable condition as long as it is used by the permittee or his successors.

(Sec. 3, 39 Stat. 535, as amended; 16 U. S. C. 3)

Issued this 27th day of June 1952.

Appendix—Public Land Orders

[Public Land Order 846]

ALASKA

PARTIALLY REVOKING AIR-NAVIGATION SITE WITHDRAWAL NO. 138 OF MARCH 28, 1940, AND PUBLIC LAND ORDER NO. 585 OF APRIL 14, 1949; RESERVING PORTIONS OF THE RELEASED LANDS FOR PUBLIC PURPOSES

By virtue of the authority vested in the President by section 1 of the act of June 25, 1910 (36 Stat. 847; 43 U. S. C. 141), and otherwise, and pursuant to Executive Order No. 10355 of May 26, 1952, and section 4 of the act of May 24, 1928 (45 Stat. 729; 49 U. S. C. 214), it is ordered as follows:

1. The order of the Assistant Secretary of the Interior of March 28, 1940, withdrawing certain public lands in Alaska for the use of the Alaska Road Commission in the maintenance of air-navigation facilities, is hereby revoked so far as it affects the following-described lands:

SEWARD MERIDIAN

T. 1 S., R. 14 W.,
Sec. 34, lot 6 (formerly lot 4), and E½ NE¼SW¼.

The areas described aggregate 38.69 acres.

2. Public Land Order No. 585 of April 14, 1949, withdrawing the public lands within certain described areas in Alaska for classification and examination, and in aid of legislation, is hereby revoked so far as it affects the following-described lands:

SEWARD MERIDIAN

T. 1 S., R. 14 W.,
Sec. 34, lots 5 and 6 (formerly lots 2 and 4), and E½SW¼.

The areas described aggregate 131.26 acres.

Lot 5, sec. 34, 32.57 acres, is included in Air-Navigation Site Withdrawal No. 138 established by said order of May 28, 1940.

3. Subject to valid existing rights, the following-described lands, which are portions of the lands described in paragraphs 1 and 2 hereof, are hereby withdrawn from all forms of appropriation under the public-land laws, including the mining laws but not the mineral-leasing laws, and reserved under the jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Interior as follows:

(a) For use by the Alaska Road Commission as a road-camp and gravel-pit site:

SEWARD MERIDIAN

T. 1 S., R. 14 W.,
Sec. 34, E½NE¼SW¼.

The area described contains 20 acres.

(b) For use by the Territory of Alaska as a public-school ground:

SEWARD MERIDIAN

T. 1 S., R. 14 W.,
Sec. 34, lot 6.

The area described contains 18.69 acres.

4. Except as to their release from withdrawal by paragraph 2 hereof, the status of the following described-lands shall not be changed until it is so provided by an order of classification to be issued by the Regional Administrator, Bureau of Land Management, Anchorage, Alaska, opening the lands to application under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938 (52 Stat. 609; 43 U. S. C. 682a), as amended, with a 91-day preference-right filing period for filing such applications by veterans of World War II and others entitled to preference:

SEWARD MERIDIAN

T. 1 S., R. 14 W.,
Sec. 34, W½NE¼SW¼ and SE¼SW¼.

The areas described aggregate 60 acres.

[Public Land Order 847]

ALASKA

PARTIAL REVOCATION OF EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 6957 OF FEBRUARY 4, 1935, RESERVING LANDS FOR CLASSIFICATION AND OTHER PURPOSES

By virtue of the authority vested in the President by section 1 of the act of June 25, 1910, 36 Stat. 847 (43 U. S. C. 141) and pursuant to Executive Order No. 10355 of May 26, 1952, it is ordered as follows:

Executive Order No. 6957 of February 4, 1935, reserving lands for classification, to conserve the public interest, and in aid of proposed legislation, is hereby revoked so far as it relates to the following-described lands:

SEWARD MERIDIAN

T. 19 N., R. 1 E.,
Secs. 31 to 34, inclusive, unsurveyed.

The areas described contain approximately 2,560 acres.

At 10:00 a. m. on the 35th day after the date of this order, the unappropriated, unreserved, unsurveyed public lands released by this order shall be opened to settlement under the homestead laws or under the home site act of May 26, 1934, 48 Stat. 809 (48 U. S. C. 461), and to those forms of appropriation only by qualified veterans of World War II for whose services recognition is granted by the act of September 27, 1944, 58 Stat. 747 (43 U. S. C. 279–284), as amended, and by other qualified persons entitled to credit for service under the said act. Commencing at 10:00 a. m. on the 126th day after the date of this order, any of such lands not settled upon by veterans or other persons entitled to credit for service shall become subject to settlement and other forms of appropriation by the public generally in accordance with appropriate laws and regulations.

Applications for these lands, which shall be filed in the Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Anchorage, Alaska, shall be acted upon in accordance with the regulations contained in § 295.8 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations to the extent that such regulations are applicable. Applications under the homestead and home site laws shall be governed by the regulations contained in Parts 64 to 66 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Inquiries concerning these lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Anchorage, Alaska.

OSCAR L. CHAPMAN,
Secretary of the Interior.

TITLE 45—PUBLIC WELFARE

Chapter V—War Claims Commission

Subchapter A—Rules of Practice

PART 501—PRACTICE BEFORE THE COMMISSION

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Part 501—Practice before the Commission, is hereby amended by adding the following:

§ 501.8 Suspension of attorneys. The Commission may censure, suspend or revoke the right of any attorney to appear before the Commission in any claim proceeding if it finds that such attorney has concealed any material facts with reference to his legal qualifications, professional standing, character or integrity, has failed to conform to recognized standards of professional conduct, has conducted himself in a contumacious, contemptuous or unethical manner before the Commission, or any board or unit thereof, or has violated the provisions of section 10 of the act.

§ 501.9 Rules of procedure. The Commission may, where it has cause to believe that any attorney has violated any provision of the law or of § 501.6, § 501.7, or § 501.8, institute proceedings to censure, suspend or revoke the right of such attorney, hereinafter called the respondent, to appear before the War Claims Commission. Such proceedings shall be governed by the rules in this part, Part 502 of this subchapter, and Part 516 of this chapter.

§ 501.10 Negotiations. At any time prior to hearing the Commission may, in its discretion, informally review submissions made by the respondent for the purpose of determining the propriety of continuing the authorization of the respondent to practice. The parties may at any time prior to or during the hearing limit the issues by stipulation. Such stipulations if any shall be entered in the record.

§ 501.11 Statement of charges. The statement of charges shall contain a plain and concise statement of the facts which it has claimed constitute grounds for censure, suspension or revocation of the right of the respondent to appear before the Commission. A statement of charges which fairly informs the respondent of the charges against him so that he is able to prepare his defense shall be deemed sufficient.

§ 501.12 Bill of particulars. If, in order to prepare for defense, the respondent desires additional information as to the time and place of the alleged misconduct, or the means by which it was committed, or any other more specific information concerning the alleged misconduct, he may present a motion in writing to the Commission asking that the statement of charges be made more specific, stating further in such motion in specific manner in which respect the statement of charges leaves him in doubt and describing the particular language of the statement of charges as to which additional information is required. If in the opinion of the Commission such information is reasonably necessary to enable the respondent to prepare his defense, the Commission shall furnish the respondent with a bill of particulars.

§ 501.13 Answer. The respondent's answer shall be filed in writing within the time specified in the original notice unless on application the time is extended pursuant to § 502.7 (b) of this subchapter. The answer shall be made under oath before an officer authorized to administer oaths and shall be filed in duplicate with the Commission.

§ 501.14 Content of answer. In his answer the respondent should specifically admit or deny every material allegation in the statement of charges. Every allegation in the statement of charges not denied shall be deemed admitted, unless the respondent shall state in his answer that he has no knowledge thereof sufficient to form a belief, which statement shall be considered a denial. In answer to a statement of charges, the respondent shall not deny a material allegation of fact which he knows to be true, or state in such answer that he is without sufficient information to form a belief when in fact he possesses such information.

§ 501.15 Affirmative defense. In his answer the respondent may also state affirmatively special matters of defense, and shall not give in evidence any matters in avoidance or of defense, consistent with the truth of the allegation of the statement of charges, unless in his answer he states such matters specifically.

§ 501.16 Complaining witness. The Commission may, in its discretion furnish a complaining witness with a copy of the answer if in its opinion such action will aid in ascertaining the truth or falsity of the charges. The term "complaining witness" for the purposes of this provision shall include any officer or employee of the Commission or any attorney who may have reported the alleged misconduct to the Commission or any other person upon whose information the Commission has instituted the proceedings.

§ 501.17 Reply to answer. If the answer contains affirmative matter in avoidance, consistent with the truth of the material allegations in the statement of charges, a reply by the Commission admitting or denying the new matter set forth in the answer shall be served upon the respondent.

§ 501.18 Supplemental charges. If it appears that a denial of a material allegation of fact in the statement of charges, or a statement that the respondent has no knowledge sufficient to form a belief; was made in bad faith in the answer; or that the respondent has knowingly introduced false testimony during proceedings against him pursuant to the provisions of this part the Commission may thereupon file supplemental charges which charges may be tried with the other charges in the case, provided the respondent shall be given due notice thereof and afforded an opportunity for preparing a defense.

§ 501.19 Sufficiency of the pleadings. The Commission shall have authority to pass upon the sufficiency of the statement of charges, the answer, and all other pleadings. The parties may be heard upon the sufficiency of any pleadings whenever, in the opinion of the Commission, a hearing thereon is necessary or desirable.

§ 501.20 Immaterial mistakes. The Commission need not observe strict rules as to pleadings and may disregard immaterial misnomers of third persons, immaterial mistakes in description of any person, thing or place or the ownership of any property, a failure to prove immaterial allegations in the description of the respondent's conduct, or any other immaterial matters occurring at any point in the proceedings.

§ 501.21 Hearings. All evidence shall be presented before the Commission, decisions on procedure and final determinations may be taken by majority vote. Subject to its regulations in these respects the Commission may determine the time, place, and manner in which hearings shall be conducted; the form in which evidence shall be received, and may adopt rules of procedure and modify the same from time to time as occasion requires for the orderly disposition of disciplinary cases. Written notice of the time and place of all hearings shall be given the respondent in the manner provided in Part 502 of this subchapter for the service of papers. No hearing shall be held without reasonable notice thereof to the respondent, except that the Commission may postpone or adjourn hearings when necessary or desirable, on notice to the parties.

§ 501.22 Testimony. Unless the Commission shall otherwise direct, the testimony of witnesses at all hearings will be taken under oath and stenographically recorded and transcribed.

§ 501.23 Documents. Whenever any book, document or paper is introduced as an exhibit in a proceeding the Commission may authorize, upon such conditions as it may be deemed proper the withdrawal of such exhibit upon the request of such party.

§ 501.24 Proof; partial. If the Commission finds that a part of the charges in the statement of charges is not sufficiently proved but that the residue thereof is so proved, it may base its determination on such charges as are so proved.

§ 501.25 Proof; variance. In the case of variance between the allegations in the statement of charges and the evidence, the Commission shall have power to base its findings on any facts established by the evidence which are grounds for censure, suspension of revocation and to order the amendment to the statement of charges to conform to the evidence: Provided, That the respondent has had or is given reasonable opportunity to present his defense to such amended charges, with such postponements of the hearings as may be reasonably necessary to permit the respondent to present such defense.

§ 501.26 Decision. After the parties rest, the Commission shall make its decision which decision may include (a) findings and conclusions, as well as the reasons or basis therefor, upon all the material issues of fact, and law, presented on the record and (b) an order to censure, suspend or revoke the right of the respondent to appear before the Commission or order to dismiss the charges as the case may require. If at any hearing upon issue of fact raised by the record in the case the respondent fails to put in any evidence the Commission may base its findings upon the record before it.

§501.27 Decision. The decision of the Commission, in the absence of a request for reconsideration pursuant to § 501.32, shall without further proceedings become the final decision of the agency.

§ 501.28 Notice of decisions. Each decision shall promptly be filed in the record, and the Commission shall thereupon give notice thereof to the parties in the manner prescribed for the service of papers.

§ 501.29 Effect of censure, suspension or revocation of right to practice. After the right of an attorney to appear before the Commission has been suspended or revoked, such person will not thereafter be recognized during the period of suspension or revocation as an attorney in any matter before the Commission.

§ 501.30 Reconsideration. An attorney who has been censured, suspended, or whose right to appear has been revoked may make written application to the Commission to have the order of suspension vacated or modified upon the ground (a) of newly discovered evidence or (b) that important evidence is now available which the applicant was unable to produce at the original hearing by the exercise of due diligence. Every application for reinstatement shall be filed with the Commission in duplicate. Such application must set forth specifically the precise character of the evidence to be relied upon in its support and shall state the reasons why the applicant was unable to produce it when the original charges were heard. If the Commission after due consideration of the application shall deem it sufficiently meritorious to warrant reopening, the Commission shall set a time and place for a hearing on the application and give due notice thereof to the applicant. Upon the conclusion of the hearing in the event that the Commission shall issue an order vacating or revoking the prior order to censure, suspend or revoke the right of an attorney to appear before the Commission, notice thereof shall be given by the Commission to all those to whom the original order of censure, suspension, or revocation of the right to appear before the Commission was sent.

The foregoing sections shall become effective as of the date of filing in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

MEAT INSPECTION REGULATIONS

ANTE-MORTEM INSPECTION; DISPOSAL OF DISEASED CARCASSES AND PARTS

Notice is hereby given in accordance with the provisions of section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003 (a)) that the Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to the authority conferred upon him by the Meat Inspection Act, as amended (21 U. S. C. 71-91), is considering amending the Meat Inspection Regulations (9 CFR, Chapter 1, Subchapter A) as follows:

1. Section 9.6 would be amended to read as follows:

§ 9.6 Animals showing symptoms of anaplasmosis, leptospirosis, listerellosis, parturient paresis, rabies, railroad sickness, or tetanus. (a) All animals showing on ante-mortem inspection symptoms of anaplasmosis, leptospirosis, listerellosis, parturient paresis, rabies, railroad sickness, or tetanus shall be marked "U. S. condemned" and disposed of in accordance with § 9.16, except that cattle showing symptoms of anaplasmosis, leptospirosis, listerellosis, parturient paresis, or railroad sickness may be set apart and held for treatment under division or other responsible official supervision. If, at the expiration of the treatment period, animals upon examination are found to be free from disease, they may be released for any purpose in accordance with § 9.16, except that when released for slaughter at the official establishment, animals which have been previously affected with listerellosis shall be marked "U. S. suspect."

(b) Animals which have reacted to a test for leptospirosis, but which show no symptoms of the disease, shall be marked "U. S. suspect."

2. Section 9.16 would be amended to read as follows:

§ 9.16 Disposition of condemned animals. Except as otherwise provided in this part, animals marked "U. S. condemned" shall be killed by the official establishment, if not already dead. Such animals shall not be taken into an establishment to be slaughtered or dressed; nor shall they be conveyed into any department of the establishment used for edible products; but they shall be disposed of and tanked in the manner provided for condemned carcasses in Part 14 of this subchapter. The "U. S. condemned" tag shall not be removed from, but shall remain on, the carcass until it goes into the tank, at which time the tag may be removed by a division employee only. The number of such tag shall be reported to the inspector in charge by the inspector who affixed it, and also by the inspector who supervised the tanking of the carcass. Any animal condemned on account of hog cholera, swine erysipelas, vesicular exanthema, vesicular stomatitis, railroad sickness, parturient paresis, anasarca, anaplasmosis, leptospirosis, listerellosis, or inflammatory condition including pneumonia, enteritis, and peritonitis, may be set apart and held for treatment under division or other responsible official supervision. The "U. S. condemned" tag will be removed by a division employee either when the animal is released to a responsible official for treatment, or following treatment under division supervision if the animal is found to be free from disease. When an animal under the provisions of these regulations is to be released for a purpose other than slaughter, the official establishment or the owner of the animal shall first obtain permission for the movement of such animal from the local State or Federal livestock sanitary official having jurisdiction.

3. Section 11.11 would be amended to read as follows:

§ 11.11 Anthrax, bacillary hemoglobinuria in cattle, blackleg, hemorrhagic septicemia, icterohematuria in sheep, malignant epizootic catarrh, piroplasmosis, pyemia, septicemia, unhealed vaccine lesions; carcasses affected with, to be condemned. Carcasses of animals affected with or showing lesions of any of the following-named diseases or conditions shall be condemned:

(a) Anthrax.
(b) Bacillary hemoglobinuria in cattle.
(c) Blackleg.
(d) Hemorrhagic septicemia.
(e) Icterohematuria in sheep.
(f) Malignant epizootic catarrh.
(g) Piroplasmosis.
(h) Pyemia.
(i) Septicemia.
(j) Unhealed vaccine lesions (vaccinia).

4. Part 11 would be amended by the addition of new §§ 11.35, 11.36 and 11.37 reading as follows:

§ 11.35 Anaplasmosis. (a) Carcasses of cattle and calves found on post-mortem inspection to be affected with anaplasmosis shall be condemned.

(b) Carcasses of cattle and calves which are classed as recovered cases of anaplasmosis evidenced by the absence of abnormal symptoms on ante-mortem inspection but which show slight yellow coloration of tissues on post-mortem examination shall be passed for food provided the yellow coloration disappears on chilling. Those carcasses which do not lose such yellow coloration on chilling shall be condemned.

§ 11.36 Listerellosis. Carcasses of animals marked "U. S. suspect" because of a history of listerellosis shall be passed for food after condemnation of the head if the carcass is otherwise in good condition.

§ 11.37 Leptospirosis. (a) Carcasses of animals affected with leptospirosis shall be condemned.

(b) Carcasses of animals which have reacted to a test for leptospirosis and have been marked "U. S. suspect" on ante-mortem inspection shall be passed for food when no evidence of the disease is found on post-mortem examination provided the carcasses are otherwise in good condition.

The purpose of the foregoing proposed amendments is to outline the requirements for inspection and disposition of animals and carcasses found to be affected with certain disease conditions.

Any person who wishes to submit written data, views, or arguments concerning the proposed amendments may do so by filing them with the Chief of the Meat Inspection Division, Bureau of Animal Industry, Agricultural Research Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., within fifteen days after the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 30th day of June 1952.

[SEAL] C. J. MCCORMICK,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

INSPECTION, CERTIFICATION, AND STANDARDS FOR FRESH FRUITS, VEGETABLES AND OTHER PRODUCTS

UNITED STATES STANDARDS FOR FLORIDA GRAPEFRUIT

Notice is hereby given that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering the issuance of proposed separate United States Standards for Florida Grapefruit and the deletion of all references to Florida under the present effective Standards for Grapefruit (14 F. R. 6828), issued November 15, 1949. This action is being taken pursuant to the authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1087; 7 U. S. C. 1621 et seq.) and the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1952 (Pub. Law 135, 82d Cong., approved August 31, 1951).

All persons who desire to submit written data, views or arguments for consideration in connection with the proposed standards should file the same with M. W. Baker, Deputy Director, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, South Building, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., on the thirtieth (30) day after the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposed standards are as follows:

§ 51.193 Standards for Florida grapefruit—(a) Grades—(1) U. S. Fancy. U. S. Fancy consists of grapefruit of similar varietal characteristics which are well colored, firm, well formed, mature, and of smooth texture, and which are free from ammoniation, bird pecks, bruises, buckskin, cuts which are not healed, decay, growth cracks, scab, sprayburn, and free from injury caused by green spots or oil spots, pitting, scale, scars, thorn scratches, and from damage caused by dirt or other foreign materials, dryness or mushy condition, sprouting, sunburn, disease, insects, or mechanical or other means.

(i) In this grade not more than one-tenth of the surface in the aggregate may be affected with discoloration. (See tolerances for defects, paragraph (c) (1) of this section.)

(2) U. S. No. 1. U. S. No. 1 consists of grapefruit of similar varietal characteristics which are fairly well colored, firm, well formed, mature, and of fairly smooth texture, and which are free from bruises, cuts which are not healed, buckskin or similar type of discoloration, decay, growth cracks, sprayburn, and free from damage caused by ammoniation, bird pecks, dirt or other foreign materials, dryness or mushy condition, green spots or oil spots, pitting, scab, scale, scars, sprouting, sunburn, thorn scratches, disease, insects, or mechanical or other means.

(i) In this grade not more than one-third of the surface in the aggregate may be affected with discoloration. (See tolerances for defects, paragraph (c) (2) of this section.)

(3) U. S. No. 1 Bright. The requirements for this grade are the same as for U. S. No. 1 except that no fruit may have more than one-tenth of its surface in the aggregate affected with discoloration. (See tolerances for defects, paragraph (c) (2) of this section.)

(4) U. S. No. 1 Golden. The requirements for this grade are the same as for U. S. No. 1 except that not more than 30 percent, by count, of the fruits shall have in excess of one-third of their surface in the aggregate affected with discoloration. (See tolerances for defects, paragraph (c) (3) of this section.)

(5) U. S. No. 1 Bronze. The requirements for this grade are the same as for U. S. No. 1 except that more than 30 percent but not more than 75 percent, by count, of the fruits shall have in excess of one-third of their surface in the aggregate affected with discoloration: Provided, That when the predominating discoloration on each of 75 percent or more, by count, of the fruits is caused by rust mite, all fruits may have in excess of one-third of their surface affected with discoloration. (See tolerances for defects, paragraph (c) (3) of this section.)

(6) U. S. No. 1 Russet. The requirements for this grade are the same as for U. S. No. 1 except that more than 75 percent, by count, of the fruits shall have in excess of one-third of their surface in the aggregate affected with discoloration. (See tolerances for defects, paragraph (c) (4) of this section.)

(7) U. S. No. 2. U. S. No. 2 consists of grapefruit of similar varietal characteristics which are mature, fairly firm, not more than slightly misshapen or of slightly rough texture, and which are free from bruises, cuts which are not healed, decay, growth cracks, and free from serious damage, caused by ammoniation, bird pecks, buckskin, dirt or other foreign materials, dryness or mushy condition, green spots or oil spots, pitting, scab, scale, scars, sprayburn, and from very serious damage caused by bruises, growth cracks, ammoniation, bird pecks, caked melanose, buckskin, dryness or mushy condition, pitting, scab, scale, sprayburn, sprouting, sunburn, thorn punctures, disease, insects, mechanical or other means. The fruit may be poorly colored but not more than 25 percent of the surface of each fruit may be of a solid dark green color. (See tolerances for defects, paragraph (c) (7) of this section.)

(b) Unclassified. Unclassified consists of grapefruit which has not been classified in accordance with any of the foregoing grades. The term "unclassified" is not a grade within the meaning of these standards but is provided as a designation to show that no definite grade has been applied to the lot.

(c) Tolerances. In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling in each of the foregoing grades, the followinig tolerances are provided as specified:

(1) U. S. Fancy. Not more than 10 percent, by count, of the fruits in any lot may be below the requirements of this grade, but not more than one-half of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for very serious damage, and not more than one-twentieth of the tolerance, or one-half of one percent, shall be allowed for decay at shipping point: Provided, That an additional tolerance of 2½ percent, or a total of not more than 3 percent, shall be allowed for decay enroute or at destination. None of the foregoing tolerances shall apply to wormy fruit.

(2) U. S. No. 1, U. S. No. 1 Bright, and U. S. No. 2 Bright Grades. Not more than 10 percent, by count, of the fruits in any lot may be below the requirements of the grade other than for discoloration but not more than one-half of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for very serious damage, and not more than one-twentieth of the tolerance, or one-half of one percent, shall be allowed for decay at shipping point: Provided, That an additional tolerance of 2½ percent, or a total of not more than 3 percent, shall be allowed for decay enroute or at destination. In addition, not more than 10 percent, by count, of the fruits in any lot may not meet the requirements relating to discoloration. None of the foregoing tolerances shall apply to wormy fruit.

(3) U. S. No. 1 Golden and U. S. No. 1 Bronze Grades. Not more than 10 percent, by count, of the fruits in any lot may be below the requirements of the grade, but not more than one-half of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for very serious damage, and not more than one-twentieth of the tolerance, or one-half of one percent, shall be allowed for decay at shipping point: Provided, That an additional tolerance of 2½ percent, or a total of not more than 3 percent, shall be allowed for decay en route or at destination. No part of any tolerance shall be allowed to reduce or to increase the percentage of fruits having in excess of one-third of their surface in the aggregate affected with discoloration which is required in the grade, but individual containers may vary not more than 10 percent from the percentage required: Provided, That the entire lot averages within the percentage specified. None of the foregoing tolerances shall apply to wormy fruit.

(4) U. S. No. 1 Russet. Not more than 10 percent, by count, of the fruits in any lot may be below the requirements of the grade but not more than one-half of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for very serious damage, and not more than one-twentieth of the tolerance, or one-half of one percent, shall be allowed for decay at shipping point: Provided, That an additional tolerance of 2½ percent, or a total of not more than 3 percent, shall be allowed for decay enroute or at destination. In addition, not more than 10 percent, by count, of the fruits in any lot may not meet the requirements relating to discoloration. None of the foregoing tolerances shall apply to wormy fruit.

(5) U. S. No. 2. Not more than 10 percent, by count, of the fruits in any lot may be below the requirements of this grade other than for discoloration but not more than one-half of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for very serious damage other than that caused by dryness or mushy condition, and not more than one-twentieth of the tolerance, or one-half of one percent, shall be allowed for decay at shipping point: Provided, That an additional tolerance of 2½ percent, or a total of not more than 3 percent, shall be allowed for decay en route or at destination. In addition, not more than 10 percent, by count, of the fruits in any lot may not meet the requirements relating to discoloration. None of the foregoing tolerances shall apply to wormy fruit.

(6) U. S. No. 2 Russet. Not more than 10 percent, by count, of the fruits in any lot may be below the requirements of this grade but not more than one-half of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for very serious damage other than that caused by dryness or mushy condition, and not more than one-twentieth of the tolerance, or one-half of one percent, shall be allowed for decay at shipping point: Provided, That an additional tolerance of 2½ percent, or a total of not more than 3 percent, shall be allowed for decay en route or at destination. No part of any tolerance shall be allowed to reduce the percentage of fruits having in excess of one-half of their surface in the aggregate affected with discoloration which is required in this grade, but individual containers may have not more than 10 percent less than the percentage required: Provided, That the entire lot averages within the percentage specified. None of the foregoing tolerances shall apply to wormy fruit.

(7) U. S. No. 3 Grade. Not more than 15 percent, by count, of the fruit in any container may be below the requirements of this grade but not more than one-third of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for defects other than dryness or mushy condition, and not more than one-fifth of this amount, or 1 percent, shall be allowed for decay at shipping point: Provided, That an additional tolerance of 2½ percent, or a total of not more than 3 percent shall be allowed for decay en route or at destination. None of the foregoing tolerances shall apply to wormy fruit.

(d) Application of tolerances to individual packages. (1) The contents of individual packages in the lot, based on sample inspection, are subject to the following limitations: Provided, That the averages for the entire lot are within the tolerances specified for the grade.

(i) For packages which contain more than 10 pounds, and a tolerance of 10 percent or more is provided, individual packages in any lot shall have not more than one and one-half times the tolerance specified. For packages which contain more than 10 pounds and a tolerance of less than 10 percent is provided, individual packages in any lot shall have not more than double the tolerance specified, except that at least one decayed or very seriously damaged fruit may be permitted in any package.

(ii) For packages which contain 10 pounds or less, individual packages in any lot are not restricted as to the percentage of defects: Provided, That not more than one grapefruit which is seriously damaged by dryness or mushy condition or very seriously damaged by other means may be permitted in any package and in addition enroute or at destination not more than 10 percent of the packages may have more than one decayed fruit.

(e) Standard pack for grapefruit. (1) Fruits shall be fairly uniform in size, unless specified as uniform in size, and when packed in boxes, shall be arranged according to the approved and recognized methods. Each wrapped fruit shall be fairly well wrapped.

(2) All packages shall be tightly packed and well filled but the contents shall not show excessive or unnecessary bruising because of overfilled packages.

(3) When packed in standard nailed boxes, each container shall show a minimum bulge of 2 inches, except that boxes packed with grapefruit of a size 80 or smaller need only show a bulge of 1½ inches.

(4) "Fairly uniform in size" means that not more than a total of 10 percent, by count, of the fruits in any container is outside the range of diameters given in the following table for various packs:

TABLE I

[Diameter in inches]

Pack	Minimum	Maximum
36's	5	5 9/16
45's or 40's	4 11/16	5 1/16
54's or 50's	4 5/16	4 13/16
64's	4	4 9/16
70's or 72's	3 13/16	4 5/16
80's	3 13/16	4 1/16
96's	3 9/16	3 13/16
112's	3 5/16	3 9/16
125's or 126's	3 1/16	3 5/16

(5) "Uniform in size" means that not more than 10 percent, by count, of the fruits in any container vary more than the following amounts:

64 size and smaller—not more than 5/16 inch in diameter.

54 size and larger—not more than 9/16 inch in diameter.

(6) In order to allow for variations, other than sizing, incident to proper packing, not more than 5 percent of the packages in any lot may not meet the requirements of standard pack.

(f) Definitions. (1) "Similar varietal characteristics" means that the fruits in any container are similar in color and shape.

(2) "Well colored" means that the fruit is yellow in color with practically no trace of green color.

(3) "Firm" means that the fruit is not soft, or noticeably wilted or flabby, and the skin is not spongy or puffy.

(4) "Well formed" means that the fruit has the shape characteristic of the variety.

(5) "Mature" means the same as that term is set forth in section 601.16 Florida Statutes, Chapter 26492, known as the Florida Citrus Code of 1949, as amended.

(6) "Smooth texture" means that the skin is thin and smooth for the variety and size of the fruit.

(7) "Injury" means any defect which more than slightly affects the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the fruit. Any one of the following defects, or any combination of defects, the seriousness of which exceeds the maximum allowed for any one defect, shall be considered as injury:

(i) Green spots or oil spots, when appreciably affecting appearance of the individual fruit:

(ii) Scale, when more than a few adjacent to the "button" at the stem end, or when more than 6 scattered on the other portions of the fruit;

(iii) Scars which are depressed, not smooth, or which detract from the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the maximum amount of discoloration allowed in the grade; and,

(iv) Thorn scratches, when the injury is not slight, not well healed, or more unsightly than discoloration allowed in the grade.

(8) "Discoloration" means russeting of a light shade of golden brown caused by rust mite or other means. Lighter shades of discoloration caused by scars or other means may be allowed on a greater area, or darker shades may be allowed on a lesser area, provided no discoloration caused by melanose or other means may affect the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the shade and amount of discoloration allowed for the grade.

(9) "Fairly well colored" means that except for one inch in the aggregate of green color, the yellow color predominates over the green color on that part of the fruit which is not discolored.

(10) "Fairly smooth texture" means that the skin is fairly thin and not coarse for the variety and size of the fruit.

(11) "Damage" means any defect which materially affects the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the fruit. Any one of the following defects, or any combination of defects, the seriousness of which exceeds the maximum allowed for any one defect, shall be considered as damage:

(i) Ammoniation, when not occurring as light speck type similar to melanose;

(ii) Dryness or mushy condition when affecting all segments more than one-fourth inch at the stem end, or more than the equivalent of this amount, by volume, when occurring in other portions of the fruit;

(iii) Green spots or oil spots, when materially affecting the appearance of the individual fruit;

(iv) Scab, when it cannot be classed as discoloration or appreciably affects shape or texture;

(v) Scale, when occurring as a blotch and its size exceeds the area of a circle ¾ inch in diameter, or when occurring as a ring and its size exceeds the area of a circle 1¼ inches in diameter on a grapefruit of 70-size. Smaller sizes shall have lesser areas of scale and larger sizes may have greater areas: Provided, That no scale shall be permitted which affects the appearance to a greater extent than a blotch ¾ inch in diameter or a ring 1¼ inches in diameter on a 70-size grapefruit;

(vi) Scars which are not smooth, or scars which are deep, or scars which are shallow or fairly shallow and detract from the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the amount of discoloration allowed in the grade;

(vii) Sunburn, when the area affected exceeds 25 percent of the fruit surface, or when the skin is appreciably flattened, dry, darkened, or hard; and,

(viii) Thorn scratches, when the injury is not well healed, or concentrated light colored thorn injury which has caused the skin to become hard and the aggregate area exceeds the area of a circle one-fourth inch in diameter, or slight scratches when light colored and concentrated and the aggregate area exceeds the area of a circle 1 inch in diameter, or dark or scattered thorn injury which detracts from the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the amounts specified above.

(12) "Fairly firm" means that the fruit may be slightly soft, but not bruised, and the skin is not spongy or puffy.

(13) "Slightly misshapen" means that the fruit is not of the shape characteristic of the variety but is not appreciably elongated or pointed, or otherwise deformed.

(14) "Slightly rough texture" means that the skin is not of smooth texture but is not excessively thick or materially ridged, grooved, or wrinkled.

(15) "Serious damage" means any defect which seriously affects the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the fruit. Any one of the following defects, or any combination of defects, the seriousness of which exceeds the maximum allowed for any one defect, shall be considered as serious damage:

(i) Ammoniation, when scars are cracked, or when dark and aggregating more than one-half inch in diameter, or when light colored and aggregating more than one inch in diameter;

(ii) Buckskin, when affecting the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the amount of discoloration allowed;

(iii) Dryness or mushy condition, when affecting all segments more than one-half inch at the stem end, or more than the equivalent of this amount, by volume, when occurring in other portions of the fruit;

(iv) Green spots or oil spots, when the aggregate area exceeds the area of a circle one inch in diameter on a grapefruit of 70-size. Smaller sizes shall have lesser areas of green spots or oil spots and larger sizes may have greater areas: Provided, That the appearance of the grapefruit is not affected to a greater extent than the area permitted on a 70-size grapefruit;

(v) Scab, when it cannot be classed as discoloration, or when materially affecting shape or texture;

(vi) Scale, when occurring as a blotch and its size exceeds the area of a circle one inch in diameter, or when occurring as a ring and its size exceeds the area of a circle 1½ inches in diameter on a grapefruit of 70-size. Smaller sizes shall have lesser areas of scale and larger sizes may have greater areas: Provided, That no scale shall be permitted which affects the appearance to a greater extent than a blotch one inch in diameter or a ring 1½ inches in diameter on a 70-size grapefruit;

(vii) Scars which are not fairly smooth, or scars which are very deep, or scars which are not very deep but which detract from the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the amount of discoloration allowed in the grade;

(viii) Sprayburn which seriously affects the appearance of the fruit or is hard, or when more than 1¼ inches in diameter in the aggregate has a light brown discoloration;

(ix) Sunburn which affects more than one-third of the fruit surface, or is hard, or the fruit is decidedly one-sided, or when more than 1¼ inches in diameter in the aggregate has a light brown discoloration; and,

(x) Thorn scratches, when the injury is not well healed, or concentrated light colored thorn injury which has caused the skin to become hard and the aggregate area exceeds the area of a circle one-half inch in diameter, or slight scratches when light colored and concentrated and the aggregate area exceeds the area of a circle 1½ inches in diameter, or dark or scattered thorn injury which detracts from the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the amounts specified above.

(16) "Slightly colored" means that except for two inches in the aggregate of green color, the portion of the fruit surface which is not discolored shows some yellow color.

(17) "Misshapen" means that the fruit is decidedly elongated, pointed or flat sided.

(18) "Slightly spongy" means that the fruit is puffy or slightly wilted but not flabby.

(19) "Very serious damage" means any defect which very seriously affects the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the fruit. Any one of the following defects, or any combination of defects, the seriousness of which exceeds the maximum allowed for any one defect, shall be considered as very serious damage:

(i) Growth cracks that are seriously weakened, gummy or not healed;

(ii) Ammoniation, when aggregating more than 2 inches in diameter, or which has caused serious cracks;

(iii) Bird pecks, when not healed;

(iv) Caked melanose, when more than 25 percent in the aggregate of the surface of the fruit is caked;

(v) Buckskin, when rough and aggregating more than 50 percent of the surface of the fruit;

(vi) Dryness or mushy condition, when affecting all segments more than one-half inch at the stem end, or more than the equivalent of this amount, by volume, when occurring in other portions of the fruit;

(vii) Scab, when aggregating more than 25 percent of the surface of the fruit;

(viii) Scale, when covering more than 20 percent of the surface of the fruit;

(ix) Sprayburn, when seriously affecting more than one-third of the fruit surface; and,

(x) Sunburn, when seriously affecting more than one-third of the fruit surface; and,

(xi) Thorn punctures, when not healed or the fruit is seriously weakened.

(20) "Diameter" means the greatest dimension measured at right angles to a line from stem to blossom end of the fruit.

UNITED STATES STANDARDS FOR GRADES OF DRIED CURRANTS[1]

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering the revision, as herein proposed, of the current United States Standards for Grades of Dried Zante Currants, pursuant to the authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1087; 7 U. S. C. 1621 et seq.) and the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1952 (Pub. Law 135, 82d Cong., approved Aug. 31, 1951). This revision, if made effective, will be the second issue by the Department of grade standards for this product.

All persons who desire to submit written data, views, or arguments for consideration in connection with the proposed revision should file the same, in duplicate, with the Chief, Processed Products Standardization and Inspection Division, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposed revision is as follows:

§ 52.288 Dried currants. Dried currants are dried grapes of such Vinifera varieties as Black Corinth or White Corinth that have been properly processed by stemming, capstemming, and cleaning.

(a) Types (varieties) of dried currants—(1) Type I. Black Zante type (domestic).

(2) Type II. White Zante type (domestic).

(3) Type III. Other than Zante type (domestic), such as Amalias, Patras, Vostizza, and Zante varieties.

(b) Grades of dried currants. (1) "U. S. Grade A" or "U. S. Fancy" is the quality of dried currants that possess similar varietal characteristics; that possess a good typical color; that possess a good characteristic flavor; that show development characteristic of dried currants prepared from well-matured grapes; that contain not more than 18 percent, by weight, of moisture; and that meet the following additional requirements (see Table I of this paragraph):

(i) Not more than 2 pieces of stem per 16 ounces of dried currants may be present;

(ii) Not more than 1 percent, by weight, of dried currants may possess capstems;

(iii) Not more than 1 percent, by weight, of dried currants may be poorly developed, blowovers;

(iv) Not more than 2 percent, by weight, of dried currants may be damaged;

(v) Not more than 5 percent, by weight, of dried currants may be visibly sugared; and

[1] The requirements of these standards shall not excuse failure to comply with the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

(vi) Not more than 1 percent, by weight, of dried currants may be affected by mold, decay, fermentation, insect infestation (no live insects are permitted), imbedded dirt, or other foreign material: Provided, That:

(a) Not more than ½ of 1 percent, by weight, of dried currants may be affected by decay.

(2) "U. S. Grade B" or "U. S. Choice" is the quality of dried currants that possess similar varietal characteristics; that possess a reasonably good typical color; that possess a good characteristic flavor; that show development characteristic of dried currants prepared from reasonably well-matured grapes; that contain not more than 18 percent, by weight, of moisture; and that meet the following additional requirements (see Table I of this paragraph):

(i) Not more than 3 pieces of stem per 16 ounces of dried currants may be present;

(ii) Not more than 2 percent, by weight, of dried currants may possess capstems;

(iii) Not more than 2 percent, by weight, of dried currants may be poorly developed, blowovers;

(iv) Not more than 3 percent, by weight, of dried currants may be damaged;

(v) Not more than 10 percent, by weight, of dried currants may be visibly sugared; and

(vi) Not more than 2 percent, by weight, of dried currants may be affected by mold, decay, fermentation, insect infestation (no live insects are permitted), imbedded dirt, or other foreign material: Provided, That:

(a) Not more than 1 percent, by weight, of dried currants may be affected by decay.

TABLE I—MAXIMUMS ALLOWABLE FOR DEFECTS IN DRIED CURRANTS

Defects	U. S. Grade A or U. S. Fancy	U. S. Grade B or U. S. Choice	Substandard

Visibly sugared	5	10	do.
Mold, decay, fermentation, insect infestation, imbedded dirt, or other foreign material	1	2
	But not more than
Decay	½	1

(c) Explanation of terms. (1) A "piece of stem" means a portion of the branch or main stem.

(2) "Capstems" means small woody stems exceeding ⅛ inch in length which attach the grapes to the branches of the bunch. A currant for each capstem which is not attached to a currant is included and weighed with "currants with capstems" in ascertaining compliance with the allowance permitted.

(3) "Poorly developed, blowovers" refers to currants that are immature or hard, contain practically no flesh, are very light in weight, and have very coarse wrinkles.

(4) "Damaged" currants means currants affected by insect injury or injury from sunburn, scars, mechanical or other means which seriously affects the appearance, edibility, keeping quality, or shipping quality of the currants.

(5) "Visibly sugared" means the accumulation of crystallized fruit sugars in the flesh of the currant or on the surface which is readily apparent.

(6) "Mold" means mold filaments or spores (often characterized by a condition wherein the skin of the currant appears to have been dissolved, leaving a slimy or sticky appearance, and often resulting in a positive reaction when submerged in a 3-percent hydrogen peroxide solution).

(7) "Affected by insect infestation" means that the currants show the presence of insects, insect fragments, or excreta. No live insects are permitted.

UNITED STATES STANDARDS FOR GRADES OF FRUIT PRESERVES (OR JAMS)[1]

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering the revision, as herein proposed, of the current United States Standards for Grades of Fruit Preserves (or Jams) (7 CFR 52.333), pursuant to the authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1087; 7 U. S. C. 1621, et seq.) and the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1952 (Pub. Law 135, 82d Cong., approved Aug. 31, 1951). This revision, if made effective, will be the third issue by the Department of grade standards for this product.

All persons who desire to submit written data, views, or arguments for consideration in connection with the proposed revision should file the same, in duplicate, with the Chief, Processed Products Standardization and Inspection Division, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposed revision is as follows:

§ 52.333 Fruit preserves (or jams). "Fruit preserves (or jams)" means preserves or jams as defined in the definitions and standards of identity for preserves, jams (21 CFR, Cum. Supp., 29.3, as amended March 26, 1952 (17 F. R. 2596), issued pursuant to the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act. The soluble solids for fruit preserves (or jams) in Group I are not less than 68 percent. The soluble solids for fruit preserves (or jams) in Group II are not less than 65 percent.

(a) Types of fruit preserves (or jams)—(1) Type I. Fruit preserves (or jams) that are prepared from a single fruit (except apple) listed in Group I or Group II are "Type I."

(2) Type II. Fruit preserves (or jams) that are prepared from more than a single fruit listed in Group I and Group II are "Type II."[2]

(b) Kinds of fruit preserves (or jams) according to Group I or Group II designations.

GROUP I

Any one singly or in combination with not more than four of the following:[1]

Blackberry (other than dewberry).
Black raspberry.
Blueberry.
Boysenberry.
Cherry.
Crabapple.
Dewberry (other than boysenberry, loganberry and youngberry).
Elderberry.

[1] The requirements of these standards shall not excuse failure to comply with the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

[2] In accordance with the limits specified in the definitions and standards of identity for preserves, jams, (21 CFR, Cum. Supp. 29.3, as amended.)

Grape.
Grapefruit.
Huckleberry.
Loganberry.
Orange.
Pineapple.
Raspberry, red raspberry.
Rhubarb.
Strawberry.
Tangerine.
Tomato.
Yellow tomato.
Youngberry.

GROUP II

Any one singly or in combination with not more than four of the following fruits and fruits in Group I:[1]

Apple (type II only).
Apricot.
Cranberry.
Damson, damson plum.
Fig.
Gooseberry.
Greengage, greengage plum.
Guava.
Nectarine.
Peach (clingstone and freestone).
Pear.
Plum (other than greengage plum and damson plum).
Quince.
Red currant, currant (other than black currant).

(c) Grades of fruit preserves (or jams). (1) "U. S. Grade A" or "U. S. Fancy" is the quality of fruit preserves (or jams) that possess a good consistency; that possess a good color; that are practically free from defects; that possess a good flavor; and that score not less than 85 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this section.

(2) "U. S. Grade B" or "U. S. Choice" is the quality of fruit preserves (or jams) that possess a reasonably good consistency; that possess a reasonably good color; that are reasonably free from defects; that possess a reasonably good flavor; and that score not less than 70 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this section.

(3) "Substandard" is the quality of fruit preserves (or jams) that fail to meet the requirements of U. S. Grade B or U. S. Choice.

(d) Recommended fill of container. The recommended fill of container is not incorporated in the grades of the finished product since fill of container, as such, is not a factor of quality for the purpose of these grades. It is recommended that each container be filled with fruit preserves (or jams) as full as practicable without impairment of quality and that the product occupy not less than 90 percent of the volume of the container.

(e) Ascertaining the grade. (1) The grade of fruit preserves (or jams) is ascertained by considering, in conjunction with the requirements of the respective grade, the respective ratings for the factors of consistency, color, absence of defects, and flavor.

(2) The relative importance of each factor which is scored is expressed numerically on the scale of 100. The maximum number of points that may be given such factors are:

Factors:	Points
(i) Consistency	20
(ii) Color	20
(iii) Absence of defects	20
(iv) Flavor	40
Total score	100

(f) Ascertaining the rating for the factors which are scored. The essential variations within each factor which is scored are so described that the value may be ascertained for each factor and expressed numerically. The numerical range within each factor which is scored is inclusive (for example, "17 to 20 points" means 17, 18, 19, or 20 points).

(1) Consistency. The factor of consistency refers to the extent of the dispersion and size of the fruit or fruit particles throughout, and the gel-like properties of the product.

(i) Fruit preserves (or jams) that possess a good consistency may be given a score of 17 to 20 points. "Good consistency" means that the fruit or fruit particles are dispersed uniformly throughout the product; that the product is a tender gel or may possess no more than a very slight tendency to flow, except that a slightly less viscous consistency may be present when the fruit is chiefly in the form of whole or almost whole units; and that the following kinds do not have a macerated or pureed appearance but include substantially whole, or almost whole units or pieces of fruit particles as indicated for the respective kinds, either singly or in combination with any other kind:

Apricot: Halves or pieces from halves.
Cherry: Whole or almost whole pitted cherries.
Gooseberry: Whole or almost whole berries.
Peach (clingstone and freestone): Slices, pieces from slices, or pieces from halves.
Pineapple: Crushed pieces or small pieces.
Strawberry: Whole or almost whole berries.

(ii) If the fruit preserves (or jams) possess a reasonably good consistency, a score of 14 to 16 points may be given. Fruit preserves (or jams) that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Choice, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably good consistency" means that the fruit or fruit particles are dispersed reasonably uniformly throughout the product; and that the product may be firm but not rubbery or may be noticeably viscous but not excessively thin.

(iii) Fruit preserves (or jams) that fail to meet the requirements for subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 13 points and shall not be graded above Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(2) Color. (i) Fruit preserves (or jams) that possess a good color may be given a score of 17 to 20 points. "Good color" means that the color is bright, practically uniform throughout, and characteristic of the variety or varieties of the fruit ingredients; and that the product is free from dullness of color due to any cause (including, but not being limited to, oxidation or improper processing or improper cooling).

(ii) If the fruit preserves (or jams) possess a reasonably good color, a score of 14 to 16 points may be given. Fruit preserves (or jams) that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Choice, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably good color" means that the color is reasonably bright, reasonably uniform throughout, and characteristic of the variety or varieties of the fruit ingredients; however, the color may be slightly dull but may not be off color due to oxidation or improper processing or improper cooling or other causes.

(iii) Fruit preserves (or jams) that for any reason fail to meet the requirements of subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 13 points and shall not be graded above Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(3) Absence of defects. The factor of absence of defects refers to the degree of freedom, in the applicable kinds, from substances ordinarily removed in the preparation for the manufacture of fruit preserves (or jams) and includes, but is not limited to, caps, leaves, stems, seeds, pits, peel, or any portions thereof; from blemished units, underdeveloped units, or otherwise damaged units; and from any defects not specifically mentioned that affect the appearance or edibility of the product.

(i) A "cluster of cap stems" means three or more joined cap stems.

(ii) A "cap" means a loose or attached full cap or a portion of a cap to which at least one sepal-like bract or portion thereof is attached. A short stem that is attached to a cap is considered a part of that cap.

(iii) A "short stem" means a stem that is ⅛ inch or less in length and which may include the center portion of a cap to which no sepal-like bract or portion thereof is attached. A short stem that is attached to a cap is considered a part of that cap.

(iv) A "small stem" means a stem that is longer than ⅛ inch but not more than ¼ inch in length. A small stem that is attached to a cap is considered as a defect separate from that cap.

(v) A "medium stem" means a stem that is longer than ¼ inch but not more than ½ inch in length. A medium stem that is attached to a cap is considered as a defect separate from that cap.

(vi) A "long stem" means a stem that is longer than ½ inch in length. A long stem that is attached to a cap is considered as a defect separate from that cap.

(vii) A "woody base-stem" means any stem in grape preserves (or jams) with an enlarged woody base approximating 1/16 inch or more in diameter.

(viii) "Peel" means, with respect to these fruits, such as apples and peaches, that are commonly prepared for the manufacture of fruit preserves (or jams) by the removal of the skin or peel, any skin or peel whether or not it is attached.

(ix) "Seeds" means, with respect to these fruits, such as apples, grapes, and pears, that are prepared for the manufacture of fruit preserves (or jams) by the removal of the seeds, the seeds of such fruit. "Seeds" in fruit preserves (or jams) prepared from citrus fruits means any seed or any portion thereof, whether or not fully developed, that measures more than 5/16 inch in any dimension. Seeds are not considered as defects in fruit preserves (or jams) prepared from such fruits as figs and tomatoes.

(x) "Pit" means, with respect to those fruits, such as apricots, cherries, plums, and peaches, that are prepared for the manufacture of fruit preserves (or jams) by the removal of the pits, a whole, intact pit. Portions of pits include:

(a) A "piece of pit" which means any portion of a pit that is more than ½ inch in any dimension;

(b) A "small piece of pit" which means any portion of a pit that is not less than ¼ inch nor more than ½ inch in any dimension;

(c) And a "pit fragment" which means any portion of a pit that is less than ¼ inch in any dimension.

(xi) "Blemished, underdeveloped, or otherwise damaged" means units of fruit in which the appearance or edible quality is damaged because of discolored skin, bruised spots, insect or similar injury, hard areas, or units that are hard and shrivelled or damaged by mechanical, pathological, or other injury.

(xii) Fruit preserves (or jams) that are practically free from defects may be given a score of 17 to 20 points. "Practically free from defects" means with respect to:

(a) Type II and any kind or kinds with a macerated or pureed appearance (whether of Type I or II), that the defects do not materially affect the appearance or edibility of the product; and

(b) Type I, that the defects and defective units as applicable do not exceed the allowances for U. S. Grade A as specified in Tables I, II, III, or IV of this section and that any defects whether or not specifically mentioned in such tables do not materially affect the appearance or edibility of the product.

(xiii) If the fruit preserves (or jams) are reasonably free from defects, a score of 14 to 16 points may be given. Fruit preserves (or jams) that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Choice, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably free from defects" means with respect to:

(a) Type II and any kind or kinds with a macerated or pureed appearance (whether of Type I or II), that the defects do not seriously affect the appearance or edibility of the product; and

(b) Type I, that the defects and defective units as applicable do not exceed the allowances for U. S. Grade B as specified in Tables I, II, III, or IV of this section and that any defects whether or not specifically mentioned in such tables do not seriously affect the appearance or edibility of the product.

(xiv) Fruit preserves (or jams) that fail to meet the requirements for subdivision (xiii) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 13 points and shall not be graded above Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product. (This is a limiting rule.)

(xv) Ascertaining compliance with, and explanation of, allowances in Tables I, II, III, and IV:

(a) The term "ounces" refers to "ounces of net weight" of any individual container, of the average net weight of all the containers, or of the aggregate net weight of all the containers comprising the sample as may be applicable. "1 per 32 ounces" means "1 (defect, as stated) for each 32 ounces of net weight plus any fraction thereof less than 32 ounces;" "4 per 8 ounces" means "4 (defects, as stated) for each 8 ounces of net weight plus any fraction thereof less than 8 ounces." The allowances thus stated may be interpolated into other equivalents for containers of larger sizes or on an aggregate basis, if applicable: For example,

(1) "1 per 32 oz." means "not any in less than 32 ounces" or "1 in 32 oz. to, but not including, 64 oz.;" or "2 in 64 oz. to, but not including, 96 oz."

(2) "4 per 8 oz." means "not any in less than 8 ounces" or "4 in 8 oz. to, but not including, 16 oz.;" or "8 in 16 oz. to, but not including, 24 oz."

(b) When the unit of the allowance, such as "per 200 ounces", is greater than in individual containers, the net weight of all containers in the sample may be aggregated to arrive at the approximate quantity by which to determine compliance with the stated allowance. For example, in a lot consisting of approximate 8-oz. net weight containers and with defects permitted in "1 per 200 ounces", such defect would be permitted in a total of not less than twenty-five 8-oz. containers (approximately 200 ounces in the aggregate).

(c) An occasional defect may be permitted if all the containers in a sample in the aggregate constitute a net weight less than the unit of allowance, provided such defect, singly or in combination with other defects, does not affect more than slightly the appearance or edibility of the product.

(4) Flavor. (i) Fruit preserves (or jams) that possess a good flavor may be given a score of 34 to 40 points. "Good flavor" means that the product possesses a good distinct flavor characteristic of the fruit ingredient or fruit ingredients and is free from any caramelized flavor or any objectionable flavor of any kind.

(ii) If the fruit preserves (or jams) possess a reasonably good flavor, a score of 28 to 33 points may be given. Fruit preserves (or jams) that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Choice, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably good flavor" means that the product possesses a reasonably good flavor characteristic of the fruit ingredient or fruit ingredients and may possess a slightly caramelized flavor but is free from any bitter flavor or other objectionable flavor or off flavor of any kind.

(iii) Fruit preserves (or jams) that fail to meet the requirements of subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 27 points and shall not be graded above Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(g) Tolerances for certification of officially drawn samples. (1) When certifying samples that have been officially drawn and which represent a specific lot of fruit preserves (or jams), the grade for such lot will be determined by averaging the total scores of the containers comprising the sample, if:

(i) Not more than one-sixth of such containers fails to meet all the requirements of the grade indicated by the average of such total scores, and, with respect to such containers which fail to meet the requirements of the indicated grade by reason of a limiting rule, the average score of all containers in the sample for the factor, subject to such limiting rule, is within the range for the grade indicated;

(ii) None of the containers comprising the sample fall more than 4 points below the minimum score for the grade indicated by the average of the total scores; and

(iii) All containers comprising the sample meet all applicable standards of quality promulgated under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act and in effect at the time of the aforesaid certification.

[Docket No. AO 86-9]

HANDLING OF MILK IN OMAHA-LINCOLN-COUNCIL BLUFFS MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF RECOMMENDED DECISION AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER AMENDING ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), hereinafter referred to as the "act," and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900) notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of the recommended decision of the Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to a proposed marketing agreement and an order amending the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Omaha-Lincoln-Council Bluffs marketing area. Interested parties may file written exceptions to this decision with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the close of business on the 10th day after publication of this decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. The hearing on the record of which the proposed marketing agreement and order was formulated, was conducted at Omaha, Nebraska, on March 26 and 27, 1952, pursuant to notice thereof which was issued on March 5, 1952 (17 F. R. 2066).

The material issues of record related to:

1. Whether the marketing area should be expanded to include the cities of Lincoln, York and Fremont, Nebraska, and certain areas contiguous to the city of Lincoln;
2. Revision of definitions of handler and producer;
3. Revision of the classification of milk;
4. Revision of transfer provisions;
5. Revision of class prices;
6. Adoption of seasonal prices to producers;
7. Modification of the emergency milk provisions;
8. Inclusion of location differentials to producers and handlers;
9. Application of administrative assessment to other source milk and emergency milk; and
10. Revision of the administrative provisions of the order.

Findings and conclusions. The following findings and conclusions on the material issues are based upon the evidence in the record.

1. Marketing area. The marketing area should be expanded to include the city of Lincoln, Nebraska, as well as certain areas contiguous to the city of Lincoln. The cities of Fremont and York, Nebraska, should not be included in the marketing area.

Lincoln, second largest city in Nebraska, is located about 60 miles from the city of Omaha. The milksheds of the two markets are contiguous and overlap to a considerable degree. About 95 percent of the producers supplying the Lincoln market are members of the cooperative association which represents an even larger percentage of the producers supplying the present marketing area. Both cities have identical health ordinances and each city will accept milk which has been approved by the other. The association is in a position to shift producers from one city to the other as supply and demand conditions warrant. Regulation under a single marketing order would facilitate such inter-city movement of milk.

Until recent months producers in the Lincoln area were not effectively organized and were unable to bargain effectively with handlers. During the spring and summer of 1951, a majority of the producers joined the association which represents the producers shipping to handlers in the present marketing area. The association since has negotiated with Lincoln handlers for the purchase of milk on a classification and pricing plan similar to that provided in the present order. They have been unable, however, to achieve prices equal to those prevailing in Omaha.

The markets are so similar and so closely interrelated that a single plan of classification and pricing should prevail to prevent maladjustment between the markets. In addition to the intermingling of producers, and the fact that the same cooperative represents most of the producers in both cities, it should be noted that a substantial percentage of the milk distributed in Lincoln is handled by companies who distribute a sizable proportion of the milk distributed in the present marketing area.

In addition to the city of Lincoln, there should be added to the marketing area West Lincoln precinct and the Veterans' Administration Hospital in Lancaster precinct. West Lincoln which is immediately contiguous to Lincoln contains a fairly large suburban population particularly in the village of West Lincoln and the Huskerville housing project. The latter while outside the city limits is owned by the city of Lincoln. The Lincoln Air Base presently being reactivated by the United States Government is also located in West Lincoln precinct. The Veterans' Administration Hospital is located just outside the city limits of Lincoln in Lancaster precinct. These areas are regularly served by Lincoln handlers and are a natural part of the Lincoln sales area. The two government installations and the municipal housing project require milk of a quality similar to that of the city of Lincoln. Accordingly it is concluded that West Lincoln precinct and the Veterans' Administration Hospital should be included in the marketing area.

No one offered any opposition to the inclusion of Lincoln and its environs in the marketing area.

The city of Fremont is located approximately 40 miles from Omaha and 50 miles from Lincoln. At the present time it does not have a compulsory Grade A ordinance. Of the three plants located in the city one processes both Grade A and non-Grade A milk. The other two process only non-Grade A milk but act as jobbers for Grade A milk which is packaged by other plants. Fremont handlers opposed inclusion in the area on the grounds that Grade A milk was not required in the city and constituted only a small portion of their total volume of business.

Although both Omaha and Lincoln handlers compete with Fremont handlers neither group supported the proposal to include Fremont or indicated that its omission would leave them at a competitive disadvantage. One of the Fremont plants is distributing Grade A milk which is bottled in Grand Island, Nebraska. Inclusion of Fremont within the marketing area would make the Grand Island plant subject to the order unless it abandoned its sales in Fremont.

The record further indicates that prices received by Grade A producers supplying Fremont are at least equal to the prices received by producers supplying Omaha or Lincoln handlers. Under the circumstances indicated by the record it appears that little would be accomplished through extension of the marketing area to include Fremont. Accordingly it is concluded that Fremont should not be included in the marketing area.

The city of York with a population of less than 7,000 is located some 50 miles west of Lincoln. There is only one plant located there which receives and bottles milk. One of the Lincoln handlers maintains a plant there where milk is assembled for transfer to Lincoln. Bottled milk is returned to this plant from the Lincoln plant for distribution in York. All of the Grade A milk received at this plant would therefore be subject to regulation by inclusion of Lincoln in the marketing area. The addition of York to the marketing area would extend the regulation to only one small handler. Except for the intracompany transfer noted above York appears to be completely outside the orbit of the Omaha-Lincoln area. It is concluded that it would be impracticable to include York in the marketing area.

In addition to the changes noted above it has been necessary to revise the description of the existing marketing area to encompass the territory originally intended to be regulated. Since the marketing area was last defined, the legal description of the territory has been considerably altered. Several new precincts have been created by a division of former precincts. The definition of marketing area has been corrected accordingly to reflect these changes.

Because of the size and importance of the city of Lincoln it has been concluded that the designation of the marketing area should be changed to the Omaha-Lincoln-Council Bluffs marketing area.

2. Producer and handler definitions. The term handler is used to denote those persons engaged in the handling of milk to whom the order is applicable. It should include all persons who operate plants approved by the applicable health authorities for the disposition of Grade A milk, or milk of comparable quality, within the marketing area. At the present time all the government installations within the marketing area purchase milk from plants which are approved by local authorities. It is not impossible, however, that in the future milk might be purchased from sources which have been approved by the health officer of the government base rather than by the local municipal or state authority. Accordingly the definition should be broad enough to cover any such source as a handler. It should not, however, include those persons operating plants which have not been approved for the receipt and disposition of Grade A milk or which have not been approved by the health officer of a government installation.

The definition should also permit separate operating units of a corporation to be considered separate handlers with respect to the plant or plants comprising each unit. These separate units are operated independently of each other and to combine these operations for purposes of reporting etc., under the order would necessitate extensive revision of these corporations' accounting and administrative practices.

A producer should be defined as any person who produces milk of Grade A quality under inspection of applicable health authorities which milk is received at an approved plant of a handler. This definition should not include farmers producing milk of non-Grade A quality which may be received at an approved plant for use in manufacturing or for sale in areas where Grade A milk is not required.

In this market as in many others, a handler may arrange for the diversion of Grade A milk from farms to manufacturing plants when the market's facilities for disposing of reserve supplies become overburdened. The order should provide that the farmers who produce this milk retain their status as producers during the period when their milk may be received at an unapproved plant.

3. Classification of milk. The proposed amended order should provide for only two classes of milk, Class I to contain those products normally associated with the fluid milk industry which are required to be produced from Grade A milk and Class II to contain all other products.

In the past the order has provided two classes for products which were required to be produced from inspected milk, one class containing milk, skim milk and similar products and the other containing cream products. For several years both classes have been priced the same, and there appears to be no basis for continuing to make a distinction between the two classes. Omaha handlers opposed the single classification on the grounds that the Omaha health ordinance assessed all milk classified as Class I and Class II under Order No. 35, as amended. They indicated the possibility that by designating the manufacturing class as Class II, we would make it subject to assessment under the local health ordinance. We think it is clear that the intent of the ordinance was to assess those milk products which are regulated by it, not such products as the Secretary from time to time might place in a specific classification.

The Class I definition should be amended to specifically include yogurt and concentrated milk, not sterilized, for consumption in fluid form. The concentrated product is not sold in the market at the present time, but the evidence indicates that both these products would be required to meet the Grade A standards provided in the several ordinances in effect in the marketing area.

The amount of allowable shrinkage on skim milk in producer milk and emergency milk should be reduced to 2 percent of receipts. The present allowance of 5 percent was put in the order when the practice of accounting for skim milk and butterfat separately was in its initial stages. Experience over the years has shown that an allowance of 2 percent is ample. At the same time, the allowance on shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat in other source milk should be changed from 5 percent and 2 percent respectively to actual shrinkage. In the areas which are being added to the marketing area handlers receive substantial volumes of other source milk for processing. The shrinkage on manufacturing operations normally runs somewhat higher than on bottling fluid milk. To limit the shrinkage on such milk to 2 percent would result in reimbursing producers for milk not produced by them whenever shrinkage exceeded that figure.

4. Transfers. The provisions of the order relating to transfers of skim milk and butterfat between plants should be revised to reflect the change resulting from the combining into a single class of Classes I and II.

The order should further provide a limit of 150 miles beyond which any skim milk or butterfat moved as milk, skim milk or cream shall be classified as Class I. The record indicates that this is a reasonable distance beyond which the market administrator should not be required to send auditors to verify the utilization of milk. There are ample manufacturing facilities within this distance to absorb the seasonal reserve supplies of the market, and any milk shipped a greater distance can reasonably be presumed to be intended for Class I utilization. The original proposal would have placed a 100-mile limitation on such movements. The record indicates, however, that certain handlers in the market normally move their excess supplies to manufacturing branches of the same corporation in other cities. The evidence shows that the most distant of these plants to which milk is regularly moved is located a little less than 150 miles from the marketing area. Accordingly the 150 mile limit has been adopted.

5. Class prices. The Class I price should be fixed at $1.40 per hundredweight over the basic price. The present Class I differential is $1.15 during the months of August through March and 75 cents during the other four months. All handlers in the present marketing area have paid substantial premiums over these prices since the market began to shift from standard to Grade A milk. In the initial stages of the changeover the premium amounted to 50 cents per hundredweight. This amount was later reduced to 35 cents and in recent months has been 25 cents per hundredweight.

Prior to the fall of 1951 producers on the Lincoln market were not organized in an effective cooperative association and milk was not purchased on a classified price plan. Since then all handlers have purchased milk on a classified plan identical to that provided by the present order. The Class I price, however, was 10 cents per hundredweight lower than the effective price in Omaha or 15 cents per hundredweight higher than the price fixed by the order.

The evidence indicates that the existing prices have failed to induce an adequate supply of milk for either the present marketing area or the city of Lincoln. Substantial quantities of emergency milk were required to supply the present marketing area during each of the months from September 1951 through March 1952. In prior years the market was also short of milk and found it necessary to import emergency supplies during most of these months. While complete records are not available for the city of Lincoln, it is known that Grade A milk was imported into that city during several months in 1950 and 1951.

While the number of Grade A producers supplying the market has been increasing steadily since the adoption of the Grade A ordinance, the increase has been gradual. In recent years Class I sales have been increasing at an average annual rate of almost 5 percent. Unless the rate of increase in production is greatly accelerated this market will continue to be short of milk for several years. Both producers and handlers testified that an increase of the amount recommended (an average of 13 cents per hundredweight over the price actually being paid and 38 cents over the price fixed in the order) coupled with the seasonal pricing plan discussed below would provide the necessary incentive to produce an adequate supply.

It further appears that prices to handlers in all segments of the marketing area should be uniform. The producers shipping to Lincoln and Omaha are extensively intermingled. Production conditions throughout the whole milkshed are very similar. The 10 cents difference in price between Omaha and Lincoln which has prevailed in recent months is the result of a compromise reached in the initial bargaining between handlers and the newly organized producer group. It does not reflect a difference in supply or production conditions in the two milksheds.

Both the handlers and producers favored the continuation of the present method of allocating the amount of the Class I differential between the butterfat and the skim milk. For several years in this market the price of butterfat in Classes I and II (Class I of the proposed order) has been computed by adding to the price of butterfat in Class III 20 percent of the Class I differentials. Thus when the Class I differential has been 75 cents the price of butterfat in Classes I and II has been 15 cents per pound higher than the price of butterfat in Class III and when the differential has been $1.15 the price of butterfat has been 23 cents higher than the price of butterfat in Class III. The premiums which handlers have paid for Grade A milk has been allocated in the same manner. Of the 25 cent premium paid by handlers 5 cents has been allocated to each pound of butterfat. Since the classified pricing plan was adopted on the Lincoln market, the same practice of pricing butterfat and skim milk has been followed.

Accordingly it is recommended that of the $1.40 differential applicable to milk of 3.8 percent butterfat, 28 cents per pound, or a total of $1.064, be applied to the butterfat. The price of skim milk in Class I would be computed by subtracting the value of 3.8 pounds of butterfat from the Class I price. The price of butterfat in Class I would be the price of butterfat in Class II plus 28 cents.

The Class II (present Class III) price should also be revised. The present formula has remained unchanged for several years. The evidence indicates that the "make" allowance provided is no longer adequate to cover the costs incurred in handling the reserve supplies of the market. In addition to the higher costs resulting from increased prices of fuel, labor, equipment, etc., the character of the market has changed. At the time the formula was adopted, the market was not on a Grade A basis and the amount of milk available for manufacturing was substantially greater than at the present time. Today because of the shortness and the high seasonality of supplies, the manufacturing facilities in the market are idle several months of the year.

The producers proposed a reduction of 15 cents per hundredweight in the price. One handler operating plants in both Lincoln and Omaha presented figures to show that a greater reduction would be necessary to permit them to break even on their present operations, but indicated that if receipts were to increase sufficiently they could probably operate on the proposed price without loss. Handlers in the Lincoln market are currently paying 20 cents per hundredweight less than Omaha handlers for milk which would be classified as Class II under the proposed order. Except as noted above no Lincoln handler offered any objection to the proposal which would increase the cost of his Class II milk by 5 cents per hundredweight.

The present formula is one of the highest butter-powder formulas in any marketing order. A reduction of 15 cents per hundredweight would result in a price more nearly comparable to those provided in other areas. Accordingly it has been concluded that the Class II price should be reduced approximately 15 cents per hundredweight. In order to maintain a proper ratio between values of butterfat and skim milk, the price per pound of butterfat should be reduced 3 cents and the price of skim milk should be reduced 4 cents per hundredweight.

6. Seasonal pricing. Both producers and handlers feel that steps should be taken to level out production on the market. At the present time there is a continuously widening variation between the high and low months of production.

For several years the producers association operated a base and surplus plan among its members. However as market supplies became short and a greater percentage of the receipts were utilized in Class I it began to lose its effectiveness. Moreover the plan as it had been operated in the market was found to be administratively cumbersome and it was abandoned in favor of a wider seasonal variation in class prices.

For some time there has been a difference of 40 cents per hundredweight in the Class I and Class II prices between the spring and fall months. During the past 3 years the average difference in the uniform price between May and November has approximated 73 cents. This has proved inadequate as an incentive to bring about fall production.

As a means of obtaining a relatively uniform supply for the market producers have proposed the adoption of the so-called "Louisville Plan." Under this plan 8 percent of the funds in the pool would be deducted in computing the uniform price during each of the months of April, May, and June, and one-third of the total amount deducted would be added back in computing the uniform price during each of the months of September, October, and November. It is estimated that this plan will result in a difference of about $1.50 in the uniform price between May and November.

This plan as proposed by producers has the effect of applying a wide seasonal element in the pricing of milk to producers which is closely related to the needs of the market, without unnecessarily influencing the stability of handlers' costs. Accordingly it is felt that the recommended plan of a deduction from the pool in the spring months and the addition in the fall of the moneys deducted will provide an effective method of encouraging a more uniform pattern of production.

7. Emergency milk. The provisions relating to emergency milk should be modified. The present order permits milk to be designated as emergency milk in an amount equal to the difference between producer receipts and 115 percent of the handler's Class I (Classes I and II of present order) disposition. The evidence shows, however, that this is a much greater tolerance than is needed to adequately supply the market. The market administrator's records show that for the last 4 months of 1951 producer receipts plus emergency milk did not exceed 105 percent of Class I and Class II sales. In certain other months the figure was slightly higher than 105 percent. It appears that a limitation of 107 percent would adequately provide for day to day variations in receipts and sales.

The cooperative association originally proposed the deletion of emergency milk from the order, but modified its proposal at the hearing. It is quite evident from the record that producer receipts will be inadequate to supply the market needs during the coming fall and winter months, and unless supplies increase at a much more rapid rate than now appears likely there will continue to be some shortages during the fall months for at least another year or two. Accordingly it is concluded that the emergency milk provision be retained, but that the amount of milk to be designated as emergency milk be reduced to an amount equal to the difference between receipts of producer milk and 107 percent of Class I disposition.

8. Location differentials. The order should provide a location differential to handlers on milk received at country plants which is moved to city bottling plants in the form of milk, skim milk and cream.

There is only one receiving station supplying the present marketing area. This plant is located at Waterloo, Nebraska, approximately 30 miles from Omaha. Although the present order does not contain a provision for location differentials the cooperative association has for several years paid the handler who operated the station 5 cents per hundredweight to cover the cost of transporting the milk from Waterloo to Omaha. Producers whose milk was received at Waterloo had this amount deducted from their payments by the association. Lincoln handlers operate plants at York and Stromsburg, Nebraska, located about 50 and 70 miles, respectively, from the city of Lincoln, where milk is received or assembled for transfer to Lincoln. At both plants a location differential of 10 cents per hundredweight has been applicable to both producer and handler prices.

The record indicates that the amount of the differential at all three points is reasonable and should be incorporated in the order. While these are the only country points at which milk is now received, it is not unlikely that additional receiving plants will be opened as the milkshed is extended to secure additional supplies of milk. Provision should be made for location differentials at such points in the event such plants should be established. It would be uneconomic to establish such a plant within 45 miles of either Omaha or Lincoln. Accordingly it is concluded that the order should provide a location differential of 5 cents per hundredweight on milk received at Waterloo and of 10 cents per hundredweight at any other plant located more than 45 miles from the marketing area. The handler location differential should be applicable to all milk moved to the marketing area in the form of milk, skim milk or cream. It should not apply to milk manufactured into Class II products at the point of receipt since the value of such products at the plant of origin is approximately the same as it would be in the marketing area.

The location differentials to producers should be at the same rates as the handler differentials. These rates represent the approximate difference in cost between hauling from the farm to a country plant and the cost of the direct haul to a city bottling plant. They are necessary to prevent maladjustments in net returns to producers.

9. Administrative assessment. The assessment to defray the costs of administering the order should be levied on emergency milk and other source milk utilized in Class I. At the present time the full cost of administering the order is assessed against producer milk. The market administrator is required, however, to verify the utilization of all milk received at approved plants. Emergency milk and other source milk should bear their proper share of the costs. This is particularly true in view of the extension of the marketing area to include Lincoln. Substantial quantities of other source milk are regularly received by handlers in Lincoln for Class I disposition. Unless such milk is assessed its proper share of the costs, handlers who do not receive such milk would be bearing an excessive proportion of the total expenses of administering an order.

It appears that the order should continue to provide a maximum assessment of 2 cents per hundredweight. The additional revenue resulting from the addition of Lincoln to the area will, at least in the immediate future, be largely offset by the additional expenses incurred in the extension of the order to this area. Should experience prove a lesser sum were sufficient to provide proper administration, provision is made whereby the Secretary may reduce the assessment to whatever amount is necessary to meet the expenses of the office without amending the order.

10. Other administrative provisions. The addition of Lincoln to the marketing area has necessitated the revision of other provisions of the order.

Handlers in the present marketing area are not permitted to process non-Grade A milk in their approved plants. In Lincoln, however, handlers are permitted to bottle non-Grade A milk as long as it is not physically intermingled with the Grade A milk in the plant. Most handlers in Lincoln regularly receive and bottle non-Grade A milk which is sold outside the proposed marketing area.

Since this is a practice of long standing in the market and does not violate the local health regulations, the handler should be permitted to deduct from his Class I sales any non-Grade A milk which is actually disposed of as Class I milk outside the marketing area provided he maintains adequate records from which market administrator can verify the actual utilization of the milk.

As a safeguard to the stability of the market, the order should provide that if a handler disposes of other source milk as Class I milk within the marketing area or as Grade A milk, except during emergency periods, he should be assessed the difference between the Class I and Class II prices on the amount of milk so used. Such a provision is necessary to prevent handlers from selling in the market in the guise of producer milk, milk of manufacturing quality which they have purchased at less than the prices paid by other handlers subject to the order. It serves further to prevent the displacement of producer milk. Since producers are the persons on whom the market must rely for a continuing supply of milk, they should be paid the Class I price for Class I milk disposed of by handlers in the marketing area. Since utilization of other source milk in Class I forces producer milk into a Class II utilization, they should be reimbursed for the difference in price between the two classes. Moreover, since non-Grade A milk is purchased locally at approximately the Class II price, this additional charge will result in these handlers paying approximately the Class I price for any other source milk so utilized.

One handler in the city of Lincoln has recently constructed a distributing plant at Grand Island, Nebraska, which is outside the marketing area. At the present time this plant is not equipped to package milk in all styles of containers. However he expects the plant to be fully equipped by November 1, 1952. Pending completion of the plant facilities a portion of the milk received at Grand Island is hauled to Lincoln for bottling and the finished product returned to Grand Island for distribution. This handler requested that the order provide that milk received at its Lincoln plant from Grand Island and shipped back to Grand Island in bottled form prior to November 1, be deducted from its Class I sales before allocating producer milk to Class I. The producers association and the other handlers in the area offered no objection to the proposal. Under the circumstances the proposal does not appear unreasonable and it is concluded such a provision should be incorporated in the amended order.

The order should also provide that in the event a person who is a handler subject to another Federal order also disposes of milk in this marketing area, he should be partially exempt from the provisions of this order, if his Class I disposition in this marketing area is less than his disposition in the other marketing area. It would be impractical to attempt to regulate the same person under two different orders with respect to the same milk. The effective regulation should be that of the market in which such person has the greater portion of his sales. In order to insure equity, however, such person should not be permitted to purchase milk for sale in either market at less than the price paid by other handlers in that market. Therefore it should be provided that if the price such handler is required to pay for Class I milk under the other order to which he is subject is less than the price provided in the proposed order, he should pay to the producer-settlement fund an amount equal to the difference between the two prices on all Class I milk disposed of within the marketing area. Such a handler should also be required to report to the market administrator regularly so that he may ascertain the amount of milk disposed of within the area by such person.

The extension of the marketing area will necessitate the changing of the date for the filing of reports from the 5th of the month to the 7th of the month. At the present time it is extremely difficult for handlers to complete their reports and deliver them to the market administrator by the 5th whenever a weekend or a holiday falls at the beginning of the month. The additional time required for the delivery of mail from Lincoln would make it virtually impossible for handlers there to file their reports by the 5th in such months. In order to provide ample time it is concluded that the date should be fixed as the 7th.

Changing the date for filing reports will necessitate a similar change in the dates fixed for announcing the uniform price and making the payments required under the order, to provide ample time to the market administrator to make the necessary computations and furnish handlers with the information on which such payments are based. Accordingly all the dates fixed in the order for the filing of reports and the making of payments should be moved back 2 days from the present dates.

The powers of the market administrator as enumerated in the order should be broadened to include the power to make rules and regulations to effectuate its terms and provisions and to recommend amendments to the Secretary. These powers are specifically conferred upon the market administrator by the act. It appears reasonable that they should be set forth in the order.

No proposals were made and no testimony offered in support of any substantive changes in the provisions of the order other than those specifically discussed in preceding paragraphs. The witnesses who testified recommended the adoption of such provisions in their present form. Accordingly, except for changes in context necessitated by the adoption of the amendments discussed above, the remaining provisions of the order should be incorporated in their present form.

General findings. (a) The proposed marketing agreement and the order, amending the order, as amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The parity prices for milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order amending the order, as amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest; and

(c) The proposed order amending the order, as amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Proposed findings and conclusions. Briefs were filed on behalf of the producers association and certain of the handlers in the market. The briefs contained proposed findings of fact, conclusions, and argument with respect to the proposals discussed at the hearing. Every point covered in the briefs was carefully considered along with the evidence in the record in making the findings and reaching the conclusions hereinbefore set forth. To the extent that such suggested findings and conclusions contained in the briefs are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions contained herein the request to make such findings or to reach such conclusions is denied on the basis of the facts found and stated in connection with the conclusions in this decision.

Recommended marketing agreement and order. The following order amending the order, as amended, is recommended as the detailed and appropriate means by which these conclusions may be carried out. The proposed marketing agreement is not included because the regulatory provisions thereof would be the same as those contained in the order:

DEFINITIONS

§ 935.1 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 1940 ed., 601 et seq.).

§ 935.2 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States or any officer or employee of the United States Department of Agriculture who is authorized to exercise the powers and to perform the duties of the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

§ 935.3 Omaha-Lincoln-Council Bluffs Marketing Area. "Omaha-Lincoln-Council Bluffs Marketing Area," hereinafter called "marketing area" means the territory within the corporate limits of the cities of Omaha, and Lincoln, Nebraska, and Council Bluffs, Iowa; within Kane, Lake, Garner and Lewis townships in Pottawattamie County, Iowa; within Florence, Union, McArdle, Moorhead, McHugh, Benson, Beechwood, Pershing, Dundee, Loveland, Boystown, Ralston, Ashland and May precincts in Douglas County, Nebraska; within Gilmore, Highland and Bellevue precincts in Sarpy County, Nebraska; within West Lincoln precinct including the Lincoln Air Base, and the Veterans' Administration Hospital in Lancaster precinct, both in Lancaster County, Nebraska.

§ 935.4 Person. "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business unit.

§ 935.5 Producer. "Producer" means any person, irrespective of whether such person is also a handler, who produces milk which is received at an approved plant: Provided, That such milk is (a) produced under a dairy farm permit or rating issued by a municipal or state health authority having jurisdiction in the marketing area for the production of milk to be disposed for consumption as Grade A milk, or (b) acceptable to a Federal agency located within the marketing area. This definition shall include any such person who is regularly classified as a producer but whose milk is caused to be diverted to an unapproved plant by a handler and milk so diverted shall be deemed to have been received at an approved plant by the handler who caused it to be diverted. This definition shall not include a person with respect to milk produced by him which is received by a handler who is subject to another Federal marketing order and who is partially exempt from the provisions of this subpart pursuant to § 935.56.

§ 935.6 Handler. "Handler" means (a) any person in his capacity as the operator of an approved plant(s), and (b) a cooperative association with respect to milk which it causes to be delivered from a producer to an approved plant or which it causes to be diverted to an unapproved plant for the account of such cooperative association, and such milk shall be deemed to have been received at an approved plant by the cooperative association. In the case of recognized divisions of a corporation which are operated as separate business units, each such division shall be deemed to be a handler.

§ 935.7 Approved plant. "Approved plant" means (a) any milk processing plant from which skim milk and butterfat are disposed of as Class I milk (1) to any Federal agency located within the marketing area, or (2) on wholesale or retail routes (including plant stores) within the marketing area under a Grade A permit issued by any municipal or state health authority having jurisdiction in the marketing area, or (b) a plant which is under regular inspection by one or more of the several health authorities having jurisdiction in the marketing area, which is approved by such authority for the receiving of Grade A milk, and from which Grade A milk is regularly disposed of to plants described in paragraph (a) (2) of this section for Class I use.

§ 935.8 Unapproved plant. "Unapproved plant" means any milk processing plant other than an approved plant.

§ 935.9 Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means any person who is both a producer and a handler and who receives no milk from other producers or associations of producers: Provided, That the maintenance, care and management of the dairy animals and other resources necessary to produce the milk and the processing, packaging and distribution of the milk are the personal enterprise and the personal risk of such person.

§ 935.10 Cooperative association. "Cooperative association" means any cooperative association of producers which the Secretary determines (a) has its entire activities under the control of its members, and (b) has and is exercising full authority in the sale of milk of its members.

§ 935.11 Producer milk. "Producer milk" means any skim milk or butterfat which is produced by a producer, other than a producer-handler, and which is received by a handler either directly from producers or from other handlers.

§ 935.12 Other source milk. "Other source milk" means any skim milk or butterfat other than that contained in producer milk or emergency milk.

§ 935.13 Emergency milk. "Emergency milk" means skim milk or butterfat other than that in producer milk which is received by a handler under the conditions and subject to the limitations prescribed in § 935.45.

§ 935.14 Butter price. "Butter price" means the simple average of the daily wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade A (92-score) bulk creamery butter at Chicago as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture during the delivery period.

MARKET ADMINISTRATOR

§ 935.20 Designation. The agency for the administration of this subpart shall be a market administrator who shall be a person selected by the Secretary. Such person shall be entitled to such compensation as may be determined by, and shall be subject to removal at the discretion of the Secretary.

§ 935.21 Powers. The market administrator shall have the power to:

(a) Administer the terms and provisions of this subpart;

(b) Report to the Secretary complaints of violations of the provisions of this subpart;

(c) Make rules and regulations to effectuate the terms and provisions of this subpart; and

(d) Recommend to the Secretary amendments to this subpart.

§ 935.22 Duties. The market administrator shall perform all duties necessary to administer the terms and provisions of this subpart, including but not limited to the following:

(a) Within 45 days following the date upon which he enters upon his duties execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary;

(b) Pay out of the funds provided by § 935.73 the cost of his bond, his own compensation and all other expenses necessarily incurred in the maintenance and functioning of his office;

(c) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for in this subpart, and surrender the same to his successor or to such other person as the Secretary may designate;

(d) Unless otherwise directed by the Secretary, publicly disclose to handlers and producers the name of any person who, within 10 days after the date upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not (1) made reports pursuant to § 935.30 or (2) made payments pursuant to §§ 935.65 and 935.69;

(e) Promptly verify the information contained in reports submitted by handlers;

(f) Publicly announce by such means as he deems appropriate the prices determined for each delivery period as follows:

(1) On or before the 3d day after the end of each delivery period, the minimum class prices computed pursuant to § 935.51, and the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 935.66;

(2) On or before the 9th day after the end of each delivery period, the uniform price computed pursuant to § 935.61.

(g) Prepare and disseminate to the public such statistics and information as he deems advisable and as do not reveal confidential information.

REPORTS, RECORDS AND FACILITIES

§ 935.30 Delivery period report of receipts and utilization. On or before the 7th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler, who purchases or receives milk from producers or associations of producers shall report to the market administrator in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator as follows:

(a) The respective quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in producer milk, other source milk (except products disposed of in the form in which received without further processing or packaging in the plant of the handler), and emergency milk received during the delivery period;

(b) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in the opening and closing inventories;

(c) The utilization of all skim milk and butterfat reported pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section; and

(d) Such other information with respect to such receipts and utilization as the market administrator may request.

§ 935.31 Mid-delivery period reports. On or before the 22d day of each delivery period each handler shall report to the market administrator the pounds of milk received by him from each producer or association of producers during the first 15 days of the delivery period.

§ 935.32 Reports of payments to producers. On or before the 17th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall submit to the market administrator his producer payroll for the delivery period which shall show for each producer:

(a) The total pounds of milk received and the average butterfat content thereof;

(b) The price, amount, and date of payment made pursuant to § 935.65; and

(c) The nature and amount of each deduction or charge involved in the payments referred to in paragraph (b) of this section.

§ 935.33 Producer-handler and other handler reports. Each producer-handler and each handler who receives milk only from other handlers which are not cooperative associations shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may request.

§ 935.34 Records and facilities. Each handler shall maintain and make available to the market administrator, or his representative, during the usual hours of business, such accounts and records of his operations, including those of any other person upon whose utilization the classification of milk depends, and such facilities as, in the opinion of the market administrator, are necessary to verify or to establish the correct data with respect to:

(a) The receipts and utilization in whatever form of all skim milk and butterfat required to be reported pursuant to § 935.30;

(b) The weights and tests for butterfat and other contents of all milk and milk products received or utilized; and

(c) Payments to producers or cooperative associations.

§ 935.35 Retention of records. All books and records required under this subpart to be made available to the market administrator shall be retained by the handler for a period of three years to begin at the end of the calendar month to which such books and records pertain: Provided, That if, within such three-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that the retention of such records or of specific books and records is necessary in connection with the proceedings under section 8c (15) (A) of the act or a court action specified in such notice, the handler shall retain such books and records or specified books and records, until further written notification from the market administrator. In either case the market administrator shall give further written notification to the handler promptly upon the termination of the litigation or when the records are no longer necessary in connection therewith.

CLASSIFICATION OF MILK

§ 935.40 Skim milk and butterfat to be classified. Skim milk and butterfat contained in all milk, skim milk, cream and milk products required to be reported pursuant to § 935.30, which during the delivery period were received by a handler at an approved plant or caused by a cooperative association to be diverted to an unapproved plant shall be classified by the market administrator in the classes set forth in § 935.41.

§ 935.41 Classes of utilization. Subject to the conditions set forth in §§ 935.43, 935.44, and 935.47, the classes of utilization shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat (1) disposed of in the form of milk, skim milk, buttermilk, yogurt, flavored milk, flavored milk drinks, cream, either sweet or sour (including any mixture of butterfat and skim milk containing more than 6 percent butterfat except mixes for ice cream and frozen desserts) and eggnog, (2) used in the production of concentrated milk, not sterilized, for fluid consumption, and (3) not specifically accounted for as Class II milk.

(b) Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat (1) used to produce a milk product not specified in paragraph (a) of this section, (2) in shrinkage up to 2 percent of receipts from producers and cooperative associations and of emergency milk, and (3) in shrinkage of other source milk.

§ 935.42 Shrinkage. The market administrator shall allocate shrinkage over a handler's receipts as follows:

(a) Compute the total shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat for each handler.

(b) Prorate the resulting amounts between the receipts of skim milk and butterfat contained in (1) producer milk and emergency milk, and (2) other source milk.

§ 935.43 Responsibility of handlers and reclassification of milk. (a) In establishing the classification of skim milk and butterfat as required in § 935.41, the burden rests upon the handler who received such skim milk or butterfat from producers or cooperative associations to prove to the market administrator that such skim milk or butterfat should not be classified as Class I.

(b) Any skim milk or butterfat which has been classified by the market administrator shall be reclassified if verification discloses that the original classification was incorrect.

§ 935.44 Transfers. (a) Skim milk and butterfat when transferred or diverted by a handler which is not a cooperative association from an approved plant to an approved plant of another handler who receives milk from producers or from a cooperative association shall be Class I if transferred in the form of milk, skim milk or cream: Provided, That if the selling handler, on or before the 7th day after the end of the delivery period during which such transfer is made, furnishes the market administrator with a statement signed by the buyer indicating that such skim milk or butterfat was used in a different class, such skim milk or butterfat may be assigned to the indicated class up to the amount thereof remaining in such class in the plant of the buyer after the subtraction of receipts of other source milk.

(b) Skim milk and butterfat when transferred or diverted by a handler to a producer-handler shall be Class I if transferred or diverted in the form of milk, skim milk or cream.

(c) Skim milk and butterfat which is caused to be delivered from producers to an approved plant by a cooperative association which is a handler for the account of such cooperative association shall be ratably apportioned over the receiving handler's total utilization of producer milk.

(d) Skim milk and butterfat when transferred from an approved plant to an unapproved plant located more than 150 miles from the marketing area shall be Class I if transferred in the form of milk, skim milk, or cream.

(e) Skim milk and butterfat when transferred or diverted from an approved plant to an unapproved plant located less than 150 miles from the marketing area shall be Class I if transferred in the form of milk, skim milk, or cream unless the transferring handler reports that such skim milk or butterfat was used in Class II: Provided, That if the buyer refuses to permit the market administrator to audit his books and records, such milk, skim milk or cream shall be classified as Class I: Provided further, That if upon audit of the buyer's records it is found that the use of skim milk and butterfat in the buyer's plant in Class II is less than the amount stated to have been so used, any amount in excess of such Class II use shall be classified as Class I.

(f) Skim milk and butterfat received by a handler as other source milk shall, except as provided in § 935.57, be classified in the lowest class in which such handler has use.

(g) Skim milk and butterfat received by a handler as emergency milk shall be ratably apportioned over the receiving handler's total utilization of milk.

(h) Skim milk and butterfat of a handler's own production shall be ratably apportioned over such handler's total utilization of producer milk.

§ 935.45 Emergency milk. In any delivery period in which the market administrator determines that the supply of skim milk or butterfat in producer milk available to any handler is insufficient for such handler's disposition of Class I milk, skim milk and butterfat other than that in producer milk which is received by a handler and which is permitted by a health authority having jurisdiction in the marketing area to be disposed of as Grade A milk shall be considered emergency milk up to an amount equal to the difference between the receipts of skim milk or butterfat in producer milk by such handler and 107 percent of his total disposition of skim milk or butterfat in Class I milk.

§ 935.46 Computation of skim milk and butterfat in each class. For each delivery period the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and other obvious errors the delivery period report submitted by each handler and shall compute the total pounds of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in each class for such handler.

§ 935.47 Allocation of skim milk and butterfat classified. After computing, pursuant to § 935.46, the classification of all skim milk and butterfat received by a handler, the market administrator shall determine the classification of milk received from producers in the following manner.

(a) Skim milk shall be allocated as follows:

(1) Subtract from the total pounds of skim milk in Class II the pounds of skim milk allocated to shinkage of producer milk;

(2) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk in Class I the pounds of skim milk in other source milk allocated to Class I pursuant to § 935.57;

(3) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II the remaining pounds of skim milk in other source milk: Provided, That, if the pounds of skim milk in such other source milk are greater than the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II, an amount equal to the difference shall be subtracted from Class I;

(4) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each class the pounds of skim milk contained in receipts from other handlers in accordance with its classification as determined pursuant to § 935.44 (a);

(5) Add to the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II the pounds of skim milk subtracted pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph;

(6) Subtract pro rata from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each class the pounds of skim milk contained in (i) milk of the handler's own production, (ii) emergency milk, and (iii) milk received from a cooperative association which is a handler;

(7) If the remaining pounds of skim milk in all classes exceed the pounds of skim milk received from producers an amount equal to the difference shall be subtracted from the pounds of skim milk in Class II. Any amount in excess of that in Class II shall be subtracted from Class I. The amounts so subtracted shall be called "overage."

(b) Butterfat shall be allocated in accordance with the same procedure outlined for skim milk in paragraph (a) of this section.

MINIMUM PRICES

§ 935.50 Basic price to be used in computing the Class I price. The basic price to be used in computing the minimum price per hundredweight of Class I milk for each delivery period shall be the higher of the prices computed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

(a) The average of the basic or field prices reported to have been paid for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received during the preceding delivery period at the following plants or places for which prices are reported to the market administrator or to the Department of Agriculture, divided by 3.5, and multiplied by 3.8, and adjusted to the nearest cent:

Present Operator of Plant and Location of Plant

Amboy Milk Products Co., Amboy, Ill.
Borden Co., Dixon, Ill.
Borden Co., Sterling, Ill.
Carnation Co., Northfield, Minn.
Carnation Co., Morrison, Ill.
Carnation Co., Oregon, Ill.
Carnation Co., Waverly, Iowa.
Dean Milk Co., Pecatonica, Ill.
Fort Dodge Creamery Co., Fort Dodge, Iowa.
Pet Milk Co., Shullsburg, Wis.
United Milk Products Co., Argo Fay, Ill.

(b) The price computed pursuant to § 935.51 (b) for the preceding delivery period for Class II milk containing 3.8 percent butterfat plus 15 cents.

§ 935.51 Class prices. Subject to the provisions of §§ 935.52 and 935.53 the minimum prices per hundredweight to be paid by each handler for milk received by him from producers or from a cooperative association during the delivery period shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk. The price per hundredweight of Class I milk containing 3.8 percent butterfat shall be the basic price computed pursuant to § 935.50 plus $1.40.

(1) The price per hundredweight of butterfat in Class I shall be computed by adding $28.00 to the price computed pursuant to paragraph (b) (1) of this section for the preceding delivery period.

(2) The price per hundredweight of skim milk in Class I shall be computed by (i) multiplying by 0.038 the price computed pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, (ii) subtracting the result from the price computed pursuant to this paragraph for Class I milk containing 3.8 percent butterfat, (iii) dividing the result by 0.962, and (iv) adjusting to the nearest cent.

(b) Class II milk. The price per hundredweight of Class II milk containing 3.8 percent butterfat shall be that computed by multiplying by 3.8 the price computed pursuant to subparagraph (1) (iii) of this paragraph and adding thereto the amount computed pursuant to subparagraph (2) (i) of this paragraph.

(1) The price per hundredweight of butterfat in Class II milk shall be computed by (i) multiplying the butterfat price by 1.25, (ii) subtracting 8 cents, (iii) adjusting to the nearest cent, and (iv) multiplying the result by 100.

(2) The price per hundredweight of skim milk in Class II shall be computed by (i) adding to 17 cents, 3 cents for each full one-half cent that the price of nonfat dry milk solids is above 7 cents per pound, (ii) dividing the resulting sum by 0.962, and (iii) adjusting to the nearest cent. The price per pound of non-fat dry milk solids to be used shall be the simple average of carlot prices for nonfat dry milk solids for human consumption both spray and roller process, delivered at Chicago as reported by the Department of Agriculture during the delivery period. In the event the Department does not publish carlot prices for nonfat dry milk solids for human consumption delivered at Chicago, there shall be used the weighted average of carlot prices per pound for non-fat dry milk solids, spray and roller process, for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area as published for the period from the 26th day of the immediately preceding month through the 25th day of the current month, and 3 cents shall be added for each full one-half cent that the latter price is above 6 cents per pound.

§ 935.52 Emergency price provision. Whenever the provisions of this subpart require the market administrator to use a specific price (or prices) for milk or any milk product for the purpose of determining class prices or for any other purpose, and the specified price is not reported or published the market administrator shall use a price determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to or comparable with the price specified.

§ 935.53 Location differential to handlers. With respect to milk received from producers at an approved plant located outside the marketing area and which is transferred to an approved plant located within the marketing area in the form of milk, skim milk or cream, the Class prices computed pursuant to § 935.51 shall be reduced 5 cents per hundredweight with respect to milk received at a plant located in Waterloo precinct in Douglas County, Nebraska, and 10 cents per hundredweight with respect to milk received at any other plant located more than 45 miles from the marketing area.

APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS

§ 935.55 Producer-handlers. Sections 935.40 to 935.47, 935.50 to 935.53, 935.60 to 935.62, and 935.65 to 935.74 shall not apply to a producer-handler.

§ 935.56 Handlers subject to other orders. In the case of any handler who the Secretary determines disposes of a greater portion of his milk in another marketing area regulated by another milk marketing order issued pursuant to the act, the provisions of this subpart shall not apply except as follows:

(a) The handler shall, with respect to his total receipts and utilization of skim milk and butterfat, make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may require and allow verification of such reports in accordance with § 935.34.

(b) If the price which such handler is required to pay under the other order to which he is subject for skim milk and butterfat which are classified as Class I milk under this subpart, is less than the price provided by this subpart, such handler, on or before the 10th day after the end of the delivery period in which a bill is rendered, shall pay to the market administrator for deposit into the producer-settlement fund (with respect to all skim milk and butterfat disposed of as Class I milk within the marketing area) an amount equal to the difference between the value of such skim milk or butterfat as computed pursuant to this order and its value as determined pursuant to the other order to which he is subject.

§ 935.57 Other source milk in Class I. (a) In the case of approved plants which are permitted by the applicable health authorities to receive and process non-Grade A milk, non-Grade A skim milk and butterfat in other source milk shall be allocated to Class I up to the extent of the actual disposition of non-Grade A skim milk and butterfat as Class I milk in localities where Grade A milk is not required for Class I use.

(b) During any delivery period prior to November 1, 1952, Grade A skim milk and butterfat in other source milk which is received in bulk at an approved plant from an unapproved plant which receives Grade A milk in packaged form for Class I use from the approved plant, shall be allocated to Class I in an amount not in excess of the amounts of skim milk and butterfat either (1) transferred from the unapproved to the approved plant as Grade A milk, or (2) transferred from the approved to the unapproved plant in packaged form, whichever is the lesser amount.

DETERMINATION OF UNIFORM PRICE

§ 935.60 Computation of the value of milk received from producers. The value of the milk received by each handler from producers during each delivery period shall be a sum of money computed by the market administrator by multiplying the hundredweight of skim milk and butterfat in each class computed pursuant to § 935.47 by the applicable class prices and adding together the resulting amounts and adding any amounts computed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

(a) If the handler had overage of either skim milk or butterfat there shall be added to the above value an amount computed by multiplying the pounds of overage by the applicable class prices;

(b) If any skim milk or butterfat in other source milk has been subtracted from Class I pursuant to § 935.47 (a) (3) in any delivery period, other than one in which any handler has received skim milk or butterfat which has been designated by the market administrator as emergency milk, the market administrator in computing the value of milk of such handler shall add an amount computed by multiplying the hundredweight of skim milk or butterfat so subtracted by the difference between the Class I and Class II prices.

§ 935.61 Computation of uniform price. For each delivery period the market administrator shall compute the uniform price per hundredweight of milk received from producers as follows:

(a) Combine into one total the values computed pursuant to § 935.60 for all handlers who filed the reports prescribed by § 935.30 and who made the payments pursuant to §§ 935.65 and 935.69 for the preceding delivery period;

(b) Subtract during each of the delivery periods of April, May, and June, an amount equal to 8 percent of the resulting sum;

(c) Add during each of the delivery periods of September, October, and November one-third of the total amount subtracted pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section;

(d) Add an amount equal to the total value of the location differentials computed pursuant to § 935.67;

(e) Subtract if the average butterfat content of the milk included in these computations is more than 3.8 percent, or add, if such butterfat content is less than 3.8 percent, an amount computed by multiplying the amount by which the average butterfat content of such milk varies from 3.8 percent by the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 935.66 and multiplying the result by the total hundredweight of producer milk included in these computations;

(f) Add an amount equal to not less than one-half of the unobligated balance in the producer-settlement fund;

(g) Divide the resulting sum by the total hundredweight of milk included in these computations; and

(h) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents per hundredweight for the purpose of retaining in the producer-settlement fund a cash balance to provide against errors in reports and payments or delinquencies in payments by handlers. The result shall be known as the "uniform price" for milk received from producers.

§ 935.62 Notification of handlers. On or before the 9th day of each delivery period the market administrator shall notify each handler of:

(a) The amount and value of his milk in each class computed pursuant to §§ 935.47 and 935.60;

(b) The uniform price computed pursuant to § 935.61;

(c) The amount, if any, due such handler from the producer-settlement fund or the amount to be paid by such handler to the producer-settlement fund; and

(d) The total amounts to be paid by such handler pursuant to §§ 935.65 and 935.69.

PAYMENTS

§ 935.65 Time and method of payment. Each handler shall make payment for milk received during the delivery period as follows:

(a) Final payment. On or before the 12th day after the end of the delivery period:

(1) To each producer for milk which was not caused to be delivered by a cooperative association which is a handler at not less than the uniform price computed in accordance with § 935.61, subject to the butterfat and location differentials computed pursuant to §§ 935.66 and 935.67, and less the amount of the payment made to such producers pursuant to paragraph (b) (1) of this section.

(2) To a cooperative association which is a handler for milk which it caused to be delivered to such handler by such cooperative association at not less than the value of such milk at the applicable class prices, less the amount of the payment made pursuant to paragraph (b) (2) of this section.

(b) Mid-delivery period payment. On or before the 27th day of each delivery period:

(1) To each producer for milk which was not caused to be delivered by a cooperative association which is a handler an amount computed by multiplying the hundredweight of milk delivered during the first 15 days of the delivery period by the uniform price announced by the market administrator for the immediately preceding delivery period.

(2) To a cooperative association which is a handler for milk which was caused to be delivered to such handler by such cooperative association an amount computed by multiplying the hundredweight of milk caused to be so delivered during the first 15 days of the delivery period by the uniform price announced by the market administrator for the immediately preceding delivery period.

§ 935.66 Butterfat differential to producers. If any handler has received from any producer during the delivery period, milk having an average butterfat content other than 3.8 percent, such handler, in making the payment pursuant to § 935.65 (a) (1) shall add to the uniform price for each one-tenth of 1 percent that the average butterfat content of such milk is above 3.8 percent not less than, or shall subtract for each one-tenth of 1 percent that the average butterfat content of such milk is below 3.8 percent not more than an amount computed as follows: add 20 percent to the butter price, divide the resulting sum by 10, and adjust to the nearest cent.

§ 935.67 Location differential to producers. In making payments to producers pursuant to § 935.65 (a) (1) there shall be deducted with respect to milk received at an approved plant located in Waterloo precinct in Douglas County, Nebraska, 5 cents per hundredweight, and with respect to milk received at approved plants located more than 45 miles from the marketing area, 10 cents per hundredweight.

§ 935.68 Producer-settlement fund. The market administrator shall establish and maintain a separate fund known as the "producer-settlement fund" into which he shall deposit all payments made by handlers pursuant to §§ 935.56, 935.69 and 935.71 and out of which he shall make all payments to handlers pursuant to §§ 935.70 and 935.71.

§ 935.69 Payments to the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 10th day after the end of each delivery period each handler, including a cooperative association which is a handler, shall pay to the market administrator the amount, if any, by which the total value of the milk received by such handler from producers computed pursuant to § 935.60 is greater than the amount required to be paid producers by such handler pursuant to § 935.65 (a) (1).

§ 935.70 Payments out of the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 12th day after the end of each delivery period the market administrator shall pay to each handler, including a cooperative association which is a handler, the amount, if any, by which the value of the milk received by such handler from producers computed pursuant to § 935.60 is less than the amount required to be paid producers by such handler pursuant to § 935.65 (a) (1): Provided, That the market administrator shall offset any payment due any handler against payments due from such handler.

§ 935.71 Adjustment of accounts. Whenever verification by the market administrator of reports or payments of any handler discloses errors made in payments to or from the producer-settlement fund pursuant to §§ 935.69 and 935.70, the market administrator shall promptly bill such handler for any unpaid amount and such handler shall, within 5 days, make payment to the market administrator of the amount so billed. Whenever verification discloses that payment is due from the market administrator to any handler, the market administrator shall, within 5 days, make such payment to such handler.

§ 935.72 Adjustment of errors in payments to producers. Whenever verification by the market administrator of the payments by a handler to any producer or cooperative association, discloses payment of less than is required by § 935.65, the handler shall make up such payment to the producer or cooperative association not later than the time of making payments next following such disclosure.

§ 935.73 Expense of administration. As his pro rata share of the expense of administration of this subpart each handler on or before the 12th day after the end of the delivery period shall pay to the market administrator, 2 cents per hundredweight or such lesser amount as the Secretary from time to time may prescribe with respect to all milk received from producers (including such handler's own production) and cooperative associations and with respect to emergency milk or other source milk which is classified as Class I. As its pro rata share of the expense of administration of this subpart, a cooperative association which is a handler, shall pay to the market administrator on or before the 12th day after the end of the delivery period, with respect to the milk of any producer which it causes to be delivered to an unapproved plant, an amount per hundredweight equivalent to that required to be paid by other handlers pursuant to this section.

§ 935.74 Termination of obligations. The provisions of this section shall apply to any obligation under this subpart for the payment of money.

(a) The obligation of any handler to pay money required to be paid under the terms of this subpart shall, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, terminate two years after the last day of the calendar month during which the market administrator receives the handler's utilization report on milk involved in such obligation unless within such two-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that such money is due and payable. Service of such notice shall be complete upon mailing to the handler's last known address, and it shall contain, but need not be limited to the following information:

(1) The amount of the obligation;

(2) The month(s) during which the milk, with respect to which the obligation exists, was received or handled; and

(3) If the obligation is payable to one or more producer(s) or association of producers, or if the obligation is payable to the market administrator, the account for which it is to be paid.

(b) If a handler fails or refuses with respect to any obligation under this subpart, to make available to the market administrator or his representative all books and records required by this subpart to be made available, the market administrator may, within the two-year period provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, notify the handler in writing of such failure or refusal. If the market administrator so notifies a handler, the said two-year period with respect to such obligation shall not begin to run until the first day of the calendar month following the month during which all such books and records pertaining to such obligation are made available to the market administrator or his representatives.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a handler's obligation under this subpart to pay money shall not be terminated with respect to any transaction involving fraud or willful concealment of a fact, material to the obligation, on the part of the handler against whom the obligation is sought to be imposed.

(d) Any obligation on the part of the market administrator to pay a handler any money which such handler claims to be due him under the terms of this subpart shall terminate two years after the end of the calendar month during which the milk involved in the claim was received if an underpayment is claimed, or two years after the end of the calendar month during which the payment (including deduction or setoff by the market administrator) was made by the handler if a refund on such payment is claimed, unless such handler, within the applicable period of time, files pursuant to section 8c (15) (A) of the act, a petition claiming such money.

EFFECTIVE TIME, SUSPENSION OR TERMINATION

§ 935.80 Effective time. The provisions of this subpart or any amendment to this subpart shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated pursuant to § 935.81.

§ 935.81 Suspension or termination. The Secretary may suspend or terminate this subpart or any provision of this subpart whenever he finds this subpart or any provision of this subpart obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. This subpart shall terminate in any event whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

§ 935.82 Continuing obligations. If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this subpart, there are any obligations under this subpart the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any person (including the market administrator), such further acts shall be performed notwithstanding such suspension or termination.

§ 935.83 Liquidation. Upon the suspension or termination of the provisions of this subpart, except this section, the market administrator, or such other liquidating agent as the Secretary may designate, shall if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office, dispose of all property in his possession or control, including accounts receivable, and execute and deliver all assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate any such disposition. If a liquidating agent is so designated, all assets, books, and records of the market administrator shall be transferred promptly to such liquidating agent. If, upon such liquidation, the funds on hand exceed the amounts required to pay outstanding obligations of the office of the market administrator and to pay necessary expenses of liquidation and distribution, such excess shall be distributed to contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 935.90 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this subpart.

§ 935.91 Separability of provisions. If any provision of this subpart, or its application to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the application of such provision and of the remaining provisions of this subpart, to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Filed at Washington, D. C., this 27th day of June 1952.

NOTICES

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Bureau of Land Management

ALASKA

SMALL TRACT CLASSIFICATION ORDER NO. 58

JUNE 26, 1952.

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me under section 2.21 of Order No. 1, Bureau of Land Management, Region VII, approved by the Acting Secretary of the Interior on August 20, 1951 (16 F. R. 8625), I hereby classify as hereinafter indicated under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938 (52 Stat. 609, 43 U. S. C. 682a), as amended, the following described public lands in the Anchorage, Alaska, Land District:

KENAI PENINSULA AREA

STARISKI UNIT NO. 1

For lease and sale—for business or cabin sites:

T. 3 S., R. 15 W., Seward Meridian,
Sec. 25: Lots 7, 8, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, and 22, as per preliminary supplemental plat of survey.
Comprising 8 tracts aggregating 40 acres.

For lease only—for business or cabin sites:

T. 3 S., R. 15 W., Seward Meridian.
Sec. 25: Lots 19, 20, 21, and 23, as per preliminary supplemental plat of survey.
Comprising 4 tracts aggregating 20.74 acres.

2. The lands are located along the Sterling Highway approximately 26 miles north of Homer, Alaska, and approximately 12 miles south of Ninilchik, Alaska. The topography of the area is level to rolling and the lands support a sparse stand of spruce, alder, and aspen. A steep bluff approximately 100 feet in height extends from mean high tide to the uplands embraced in Lots 19, 20, 21, and 23, and renders access to the beach difficult. Adequate water for domestic uses may be obtained from wells and sewage disposal may be made by the use of cesspools. No public facilities are obtainable in the area at the present time. The climate is a favorable combination of the maritime climate of coastal Alaska and the temperate climate of south central Alaska.

3. Pursuant to § 257.9 of the Code of Federal Regulations (43 CFR Part 257), a preference right to a lease is accorded to those applicants whose applications (a) were regularly filed under the regulations issued pursuant to the act prior to this classification, and (b) are of the type of site for which the lands subject thereunder have been classified. As to such applications, this order shall become effective upon the date which it is signed.

4. As to the lands not covered by the applications referred to in paragraph 3, this order shall not become effective to permit the leasing of such land under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, cited above, until 10:00 a. m. on July 16, 1952. At that time such land shall, subject to valid existing rights and the provisions of existing withdrawals, become subject to application as follows:

(a) Ninety-one day period for preference right filings. For a period of 91 days from 10:00 a. m. on July 16, 1952, to close of business on October 14, 1952, inclusive, to (1) application under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, by qualified veterans of World War II, for whose service recognition is granted by the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747, 43 U. S. C. Secs. 279, 282) as amended, and by other qualified persons entitled to credit for service under the said act, subject to the requirements of applicable law, and (2) applications under any applicable public land laws, based on prior existing valid settlement and preference rights conferred by existing laws or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation. Application by such veterans and by other persons entitled to credit for service shall be subject to claims of the classes described in subdivision (2).

(b) Advance period for simultaneous preference right filings. All applications by such veterans and persons claiming preference rights superior to those of such veterans filed on June 26, 1952, or thereafter, up to and including 10:00 a. m., on July 16, 1952, shall be treated as simultaneously filed.

(c) Date for non-preference right filings authorized by the public land laws. Commencing at 10:00 a. m. on October 15, 1952, any of the land remaining unappropriated shall become subject to application under the Small Tract Act by the public generally.

(d) Advance period for simultaneous non-preference right filings. Applications under the Small Tract Act by the general public filed on September 25, 1952, or thereafter, up to and including 10:00 a. m. on October 15, 1952, shall be treated as simultaneously filed.

5. A veteran shall accompany his application with a complete photostatic, or other copy (both sides) of his certificate of honorable discharge, or of an official document of his branch of service which shows clearly his honorable discharge as defined in § 181.36 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or constitutes evidence of other facts upon which the claim for preference is based and which shows clearly the period of service. Other persons claiming credit for service of veterans must furnish like proof in support of their claim. Persons asserting preference rights, through settlement or otherwise, and those having equitable claim, shall accompany their applications by duly corroborated statements in support thereof, setting forth in detail all facts relevant to their claims.

6. All applications referred to in paragraphs 3 and 4, which shall be filed in the Land Office at Anchorage, Alaska, shall be acted upon in accordance with the regulations contained in § 295.8 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations to the extent that such regulations are applicable. Applications under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, shall be governed by the regulations contained in Part 257 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

7. Lessees under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, will be required, within a reasonable time after execution of the lease, to construct upon the leased land, to the satisfaction of the appropriate officer of the Bureau of Land Management authorized to sign the lease, improvements which, in the circumstances, are presentable, substantial, and appropriate for the use for which the lease is issued. Leases with option to purchase will be for a period of not more than three years, at an annual rental of $5 for cabin sites, payable in advance for the entire lease period. The rental for business sites classified for lease and sale will be in accordance with a schedule of graduated charges based on gross income, with a minimum charge of $20 payable yearly in advance, the remainder, if any, to be paid within 30 days after each yearly anniversary of the lease. For those tracts classified by this order for lease and sale, every lease will contain an option to purchase clause and every lessee may file an application to purchase at the sale price as specified in the lease, provided the supplemental plat of survey has been officially filed.

8. Lands classified for lease only by this order will be made subject to the following terms and conditions:

(a) The right of the public to enter upon, cross, and use the leased land to the extent necessary for conducting fishing operations, including the erection and use of temporary structures along the shore during fishing seasons.

(b) That the lease shall not confer upon the lessee any exclusive right to the use of the leased land for fishing purposes.

(c) That in conducting fishing operations the lessee may only erect temporary structures during fishing seasons.

9. Land classified by this order for lease only except a business site lease will be for a five year term with a rental of $25 for the lease period. For a business site lease for five years the minimum rental is $100 for the lease period; the annual rental, however, will be based on percentages of the gross income as specified in the lease, Form 4-776. Leases for fish traps and set net sites for commercial fishing operations will be considered as a use of the leased land for business purposes.

10. All of the land will be leased in tracts varying in size from approximately 3.79 acres to approximately 7.31 acres, in accordance with the classification map on file in the Land Office, Anchorage, Alaska. The tracts, where possible, are made to conform in description with the rectangular system of survey, in compact units.

11. All sewage disposal facilities will be located not less than 75 feet from the exterior boundaries of the tract described in the lease, provided, however, that if said tract abuts upon any stream, lake, or other body of fresh water, no sewage disposal facility shall be placed within 100 feet of any such water. If the tract described in the lease is located upon sloping lands, lessee should locate any well or sewage disposal facility according to the recommendations of the Alaska Territorial Department of Health.

12. The leases will be made subject to rights-of-way for road purposes and public utilities, of 50 feet in width along section or quarter section lines and 33 feet along the tract boundaries as shown on the classification maps on file in the Land Office, Anchorage, Alaska. Such rights-of-way may be utilized by the Federal Government, or the State or Territory; county, or municipality, or by any agency thereof. The rights-of-way may, in discretion of the authorized officer of the Bureau of Land Management, be definitely located prior to the issuance of the patent. If not so located, they may be subject to location after patent is issued.

13. All inquiries relating to these lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Anchorage, Alaska.

FRED J. WEILER, Chief, Division of Land Planning.

[CDHA 59]

FINDING AND DETERMINATION OF CRITICAL DEFENSE HOUSING AREAS UNDER THE DEFENSE HOUSING AND COMMUNITY FACILITIES AND SERVICES ACT OF 1951 (PUB. LAW 139, 82D CONG.)

JULY 2, 1952.

Upon a review of the construction of new defense plants and installations, and the reactivation or expansion of operations of existing defense plants and installations, and the in-migration of defense workers or military personnel to carry out activities at such plants or installations, and the availability of housing and community facilities and services for such defense workers and military personnel in each of the areas set forth below, I find that all of the conditions set forth in section 101 (b) of the Defense Housing and Community Facilities and Services Act of 1951 (Pub. Law 139, 82d Cong., 1st Sess.) exist.

Accordingly, pursuant to section 101 of the Defense Housing and Community Facilities and Services Act of 1951 and by virtue of the authority vested in me by paragraph number 1 of Executive Order 10296 of October 2, 1951, I hereby determine that each of said areas is a critical defense housing area.

Twenty-nine Palms, California, Area. (The area consists of all of the Township of Twenty-nine Palms in San Bernadino County, California.)

Coos Bay-Coquille, Oregon, Area. (The area consists of Election Precincts 1, 2, 3, 4, 7 through 22, 24, 25, 29, 30, 31, 33, 34, 38, 40, 41, 44, 47, 50, and 59, including the Cities of Coos Bay, North Bend, Empire, Eastside and Coquille; all in Coos County, Oregon.)

Waverly-Camden, Tennessee, Area. (The area consists of Benton and Humpreys Counties, Tennessee).

[Docket No. G-1981]

ROANOKE PIPE LINE CO.

ORDER SUSPENDING PROPOSED RATE SCHEDULES

JUNE 26, 1952.

On May 23, 1952, Roanoke Pipe Line Company (Roanoke Pipe), a Virginia corporation having its principal place of business at Roanoke, Virginia, filed Third Revised Sheet No. 4 to its FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1, which, unless suspended, will become effective July 1, 1952.

Roanoke Pipe owns and operates a natural gas transmission system whereby it transports natural gas purchased from Virginia Gas Transmission Corporation for resale to the Roanoke Gas Company, its sole customer, which distributes such natural gas in Roanoke, Virginia. Roanoke Pipe and its customer have common offices and identical boards of directors and officers.

By said Third Revised Sheet No. 4, Roanoke Pipe proposes to increase the facilities charge paid by Roanoke Gas Company from $6,700 to $7,600 per month—an increase of 13 percent—or $10,800 annually. Roanoke Pipe's presently effective monthly facilities charge of $6,700 was filed on November 26, 1951, in compliance with a condition contained in Paragraph (E) of the Commission's order issued February 9, 1950, granting a certificate of public convenience and necessity to Roanoke Pipe, providing that: "• • • the rates and charges applicable to Roanoke Gas Company • • • shall not exceed the cost which would result if the proposed facilities were owned and operated by Roanoke Gas Company • • • and such charges shall be just and reasonable."

It does not appear from an office review of the data submitted by Roanoke Pipe in justification for the proposed increase and a preliminary field investigation of the company's records that the proposed increase in rates and charges has been supported as required by section 4 (e) of the Natural Gas Act, and such increase in rates and charges may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory or preferential or otherwise unlawful, and may place an undue burden upon ultimate consumers of natural gas. Among other things, it appears that Roanoke Pipe has improperly allocated joint administrative and general expenses between Roanoke Pipe and Roanoke Gas Company.

The Commission finds: It is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of Natural Gas Act and to aid in the enforcement thereof in the public interest, that the Commission enter upon a hearing, pursuant to the authority contained in section 4 (e) thereof, concerning the lawfulness of the proposed rates, charges, classifications or services and, pending such hearing and decision thereon, that the operation of Roanoke Pipe's Third Revised Sheet No. 4 to its FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1, be suspended and the use thereof deferred as provided by the Natural Gas Act.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in section 4 of the Natural Gas Act, a public hearing be held at a time and place and at a date to be fixed by further order of the Commission concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, classifications or services subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, as set forth in Roanoke Pipe's Third Revised Sheet No. 4 to its FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, Roanoke Pipe's Third Revised Sheet No. 4 to its FPC Tariff, Original Volume No. 1, be and the same is hereby suspended and its use deferred until December 1, 1952, and until such further time as such revised sheet may be made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Interested state commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

Date of issuance: June 26, 1952.

By the Commission.

Acting Secretary.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION FOR EXEMPTION

JUNE 27, 1952.

Imperial Sugar Company ("Imperial") having filed an application pursuant to section 3 (a) (1) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") requesting on behalf of itself and its subsidiaries, as such, exemption from the provisions of the act applicable to them by reason of the ownership by Imperial of the outstanding common stock of Fort Bend Utilities Company ("Fort Bend"), a public-utility company; and

Due notice having been given of the filing of said application and a hearing not having been requested of or ordered by the Commission; and

The Commission having examined the application and the statements contained therein and having found that Imperial and Fort Bend are each organized and carrying on their businesses wholly within the State of Texas; and further finding that granting the requested exemption will not be detrimental to the public interest or the interests of investors and consumers;

It is ordered, Pursuant to section 3 (a) (1) of the act, that the application of Imperial for exemption of itself as a holding company and its subsidiaries, as such, be, and the same hereby is, granted, said company and its subsidiaries remaining subject, however, to section 9 (a) (2) of the act.

COLUMBIA GAS SYSTEM, INC. AND CUMBERLAND AND ALLEGHENY GAS CO.

ORDER AUTHORIZING ISSUANCE AND SALE OF SHARES OF COMMON STOCK AND INSTALLMENT PROMISSORY NOTES BY SUBSIDIARY AND ACQUISITION THEREOF BY PARENT COMPANY

JUNE 27, 1952.

The Columbia Gas System, Inc. ("Columbia"), a registered holding company, and Cumberland and Allegheny Gas Company ("Cumberland"), a subsidiary company of Columbia, having filed a joint application and an amendment thereto with this Commission pursuant to sections 6 (b), 9 and 10 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, with respect to the following proposed transactions:

Cumberland proposes to issue and sell and Columbia proposes to acquire 8,000 shares of common stock, par value $25 per share ($200,000), and a maximum of $1,500,000 principal amount of 3⅝ percent Installment Promissory Notes. Cumberland represents that the proceeds in the amount of $1,700,000 to be derived from Columbia will be used to finance, in part, its 1952 construction program estimated to cost $2,920,564. Columbia states that it would first purchase common stock, at par, when and as funds are required up to a maximum amount of 8,000 shares and thereafter it would purchase 3⅝ percent Notes of Cumberland, as funds are needed, up to a maximum principal amount of $1,500,000. Cumberland further states that it will not issue or sell any of the above-mentioned common stock or 3⅝ percent Notes subsequent to March 31, 1953.

It is also proposed that Cumberland's outstanding 2¾ percent open account loans in the principal amount of $2,400,000, owing to Columbia and repayable on June 1, 1952, be funded into long-term securities. Cumberland proposes to issue and sell and Columbia proposes to acquire, at par, 76,000 shares of common stock, par value $25 per share ($1,900,000), and $500,000 principal amount of 3⅝ percent Notes as payment and liquidation of the aforementioned open account loans.

The 3⅝ percent Notes to be issued by Cumberland would be registered and the principal amounts thereof would be payable in 25 equal annual installments on February 15 of each of the years 1954 to 1978, inclusive. Interest on the unpaid principal amount of said Notes will be payable semi-annually on February 15 and August 15.

The Public Service Commission of the State of West Virginia having expressly authorized the proposed issuance and sale of the common stock and Notes by Cumberland; and

Due notice having been given of the filing of the joint application, as amended, and a hearing not having been requested or ordered by the Commission; and the Commission finding that the applicable provisions of the act and the rules promulgated thereunder are satisfied and that no adverse findings are necessary, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that said joint application, as amended, be granted, effective forthwith:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of said act, that said joint application, as amended, be, and the same hereby is, granted, effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

By the Commission.

GENERAL PUBLIC UTILITIES CORP.

ORDER GRANTING AUTHORITY TO ISSUE AND SELL COMMON STOCK THROUGH SUBSCRIPTION WARRANTS TO COMMON STOCKHOLDERS

JUNE 27, 1952.

General Public Utilities Corporation ("GPU"), a registered holding company, having filed an application-declaration, with amendments thereto, pursuant to the provisions of sections 6 (a), 7 and 12 (c) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("the act") and Rules U-42 and U-50 thereunder, with respect to the following proposed transactions:

GPU proposes to issue 531,949 additional shares of its authorized and unissued common stock, par value $5 per share, offering same first to the holders of its outstanding common stock by transferable subscription warrants carrying the right to subscribe for shares of such additional common stock on the basis of one share for each fifteen shares of common stock held on the record date. Subject to obtaining requisite orders, the record date will be July 1, 1952, and the subscription period will expire July 23, 1952. The subscription price will be supplied by amendment.

Warrants will be issued only to purchase full shares. GPU states that it will invite approximately six investment banking houses to submit written proposals to purchase for public distribution the fractional interest shares, which it estimates will aggregate about 25,000 full shares. The proceeds from the sale of such shares, less the aggregate subscription price, will be distributed ratably in lieu of fractional shares. The reoffering price of such shares will be supplied by amendment.

During the period from issuance of the warrants to July 18, 1952, or to such later date as may be fixed by GPU without notice, GPU will, upon the written request of and the delivery to GPU of his warrant by the initial record holder of a warrant, purchase the rights represented by such warrant, or such portion thereof as such stockholder may request, at a price per right which will be the greater of (1) 1/15 of the excess of (a) the last sale price of GPU common stock on the New York Stock Exchange on the date of receipt by the subscription agent of the warrant evidencing such rights (or the closing quoted bid price in the absence of sales on that date) over (b) the subscription price, or (2) a specified minimum price per right to be subsequently fixed by GPU and supplied by amendment.

The offering will not be underwritten nor will GPU enter into any dealer-manager arrangement. GPU proposes, however, to utilize the services of security dealers in soliciting the exercise of the warrants and in disposing of shares covered by rights purchased by GPU or not exercised by the holders prior to the expiration date. The compensation per share to be paid by GPU to the participating dealers will be specified by amendment.

During the subscription period or until such date not later than ten days thereafter as GPU may determine, participating dealers may purchase from GPU all or any part of such shares as GPU shall make available for sale with respect to rights purchased by GPU or not exercised by the holders. The purchase price to be paid to GPU by participating dealers shall be announced by GPU on the day of such purchase, and shall not be (a) in excess of the last quoted price asked for shares of GPU common stock on the New York Stock Exchange plus an amount per share to be specified by amendment, or (b) less than the higher of the last previous bid price for such stock or the subscription price. In the event any shares thus made available to participating dealers are not purchased by them within 24 hours after notice of availability, GPU may sell such shares to other persons at the price then applicable to sales by participating dealers as determined and announced by GPU on the day of such sale.

GPU states that it may, during the subscription period and for not more than ten days thereafter, effect transactions designed to stabilize the market for the rights and shares, but that in no event will it acquire, as a result of such transactions, a net long position in excess of 53,195 shares.

GPU requests that the Commission grant an exemption from the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50 to the extent that such rule may be applicable to the sale of the additional common stock to participating dealers or others, and that the Commission's order herein be made effective upon issuance.

Of the net proceeds from the sale of the additional common stock, GPU states that it will use $4,000,000 to repay its bank loans incurred for the purpose of making an additional investment in the common stock of its subsidiary Metropolitan Edison Company, $5,000,000 as a capital contribution to Associated Electric Company for use by it in purchasing additional common stock of its subsidiary, Pennsylvania Electric Company, and the balance to purchase additional common stock of other domestic subsidiaries and for other general corporate purposes.

Due notice having been given of the filing of the said application-declaration as amended, and a hearing not having been requested of or ordered by the Commission; and

The Commission finding that the requirements of the applicable provisions of the Act and Rules thereunder are satisfied and that no adverse findings are necessary, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interests of investors and consumers that said application-declaration as amended be granted and permitted to become effective:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that said application-declaration as amended be, and the same hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the provisions of Rule U-24 and to the following terms and conditions:

(1) That the proposed issuance and sale by GPU of the additional common stock shall not be consummated until a further amendment is filed herein setting forth (a) the subscription price at which the rights to subscribe for such stock may be exercised; (b) the price at which GPU will sell to the successful bidder the fractional interest shares (estimated at 25,000 full shares), and the reoffering price of such shares; (c) the price to be paid to record holders who sell their rights to GPU; (d) the fixed amount per share which is to be added to the last previous quoted asked price of GPU common stock in order to determine the upper limit at which the additional common stock not taken up by subscription, and the common stock acquired by GPU for stabilization purposes, may be acquired and sold by the participating dealers or others; and (e) the compensation to be paid for soliciting the exercise of subscription warrants, for acquiring shares of additional common stock not taken up by subscription, and for purchasing shares acquired for stabilization purposes; nor shall the proposed issuance and sale of said stock be consummated until a further order shall have been entered by this Commission in the light of the record so completed, which order shall contain such further terms and conditions, if any, as may then be deemed appropriate;

(2) That jurisdiction be, and the same hereby is, further reserved with respect to the fees and expenses incurred or to be incurred in connection with the consummation of the proposed transactions.

It is further ordered, That the request for exemption from the provisions of Rule U-50 to the extent such rule is applicable to the proposed transactions be, and the same hereby is, granted.

By the Commission.

The provision of an immigration quota for any quota area is designed solely for the purposes of the Immigration and Nationality Act and shall not constitute recognition by the United States of the political transfer of territory from one country to another, or recognition of a government not recognized by the United States.

The following proclamations regarding immigration quotas are hereby revoked. Proclamation 2283 of April 28, 1938; Proclamation 2603 of February 8, 1944; Proclamation 2666 of September 28, 1945; Proclamation 2696 of July 4, 1946; Proclamation 2846 of July 27, 1949; and Proclamation 2911 of October 31, 1950.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 30th day of June, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and [SEAL] fifty-two, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and seventy-sixth.

HARRY S. TRUMAN

By the President:

DAVID BRUCE,
Acting Secretary of State.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter III—Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, Department of Agriculture

PART 301—DOMESTIC QUARANTINE NOTICES

WHITE-FRINGED BEETLE

REGULATED AREAS

On May 14, 1952, there was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (17 F. R. 4388) a notice of proposed amendment of § 301.72-2 of the regulations supplemental to the quarantine relating to white-fringed beetles (7 CFR Supp., 301.72-2, as amended). After due consideration of all relevant matters presented and pursuant to the authority conferred upon me by section 8 of the Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 161), § 301.72-2 is hereby amended in the following respects:

1. All references to Evans and Telfair Counties, Georgia; Bladen County, North Carolina; and Richland County, South Carolina are deleted from the regulated areas designated therein.

2. To the regulated areas in Baldwin, Dallas, Escambia, Mobile, and Monroe Counties, Alabama; Escambia County, Florida; Washington Parish, Louisiana; and Covington, Jones, Perry, Rankin, and Simpson Counties, Mississippi, designated in § 301.72–2, there are added additional townships, sections, and towns, or parts thereof; and there are added to the regulated areas designated therein certain sections and towns located in Lauderdale County, Mississippi, and Tipton County, Tennessee, so that the regulated areas in such counties and parish read as follows:

ALABAMA

Baldwin County: All of T. 7 S., R. 6 E.; S⅔ T. 7 S., Rs. 4 and 5 E., including all of the town of Foley; secs. 6 and 7, T. 8 S., R. 4 E.; secs. 1, 2, 11, and 12, T. 8 S., R. 3 E.; secs. 35 and 36, T. 7 S., R. 3 E.; secs. 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, and 33, T. 5 S., R. 4 E.; secs. 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9, T. 6 S., R. 4 E.; N½ T. 6 S., R. 3 E., except secs. 6 and 7; S½ T. 5 S., R. 3 E., except secs. 30 and 31; secs. 1, 2, and 3, T. 5 S., R. 2 E.; secs. 25, 26, 27, 34, 35, and 36, T. 4 S., R. 2 E.

Dallas County: That area included within a boundary beginning on the Southern Railroad where it crosses Boguechitto Creek; thence SW along the Southern Railroad to Cain Creek; thence SE along Cain Creek to its intersection with Boguechitto Creek; thence northward along Boguechitto Creek to where it intersects the south line of sec. 5, T. 15 N., R. 8 E.; thence east along the section line to the SE corner, sec. 5, T. 15 N., R. 9 E.; thence north to NE corner sec. 20, T. 16 N., R. 9 E.; thence west to NW corner sec. 24, T. 16 N., R. 8 E.; thence south to SW corner sec. 25, T. 16 N., R. 8 E.; thence west along the section line to its intersection with Boguechitto Creek; thence upstream along Boguechitto Creek to the point of beginning; Tps. 13 and 14 N., R. 11 E.; E½ T. 14 N., R. 10 E., and that area included within a boundary beginning at a point where the south line of sec. 14, T. 16 N., R. 10 E., intersects the Alabama River; thence east to a point where the south line of sec. 14, T. 16 N., R. 11 E., intersects the Alabama River; and thence downstream along the Alabama River to the point of beginning.

Escambia County: Secs. 1, 2, 11, 12, 13, 14, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 32, 33, 34, 35, and 36, T. 1 N., R. 8 E.; secs. 33, 34, 35, and 36, T. 1 N., R. 10 E., and area south thereof to the Alabama-Florida State line; secs. 20, 21, 22, 23, 26, 27, 28, 29, 32, 33, 34, and 35, T. 1 N., R. 7 E.; and N½ T. 3 N., Rs. 6 and 7 E.

Mobile County: All that area south of township line which separates T. 1 S. from T. 2 S.

Monroe County: S½ and secs. 1, 2, 11, 12, 13, and 14, T. 5 N., R. 6 E.; E½ T. 6 N., R. 6 E.; T. 6 N., and E½ Tps. 7, 8, 9, and SE¼ T. 10 N., R. 7 E.; Tps. 7, 8, 9, and S½ T. 10 N., R. 8 E.; T. 9 N., and S½ T. 10 N., R. 9 E.; and those parts of Tps. 3 and 4 N., R. 6 E., Tps. 4 and 5 N., R. 7 E., Tps. 5 and 6 N., R. 8 E., Tps. 6, 7, and 8 N., R. 9 E., in Monroe County.

Rankin County: E½ and secs. 4, 5, and 6, T. 3 N., R. 2 E.; T. 3 N., R. 3 E.; secs. 19, 20, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, and 34, T. 4 N., R. 2 E.; sec. 31, T. 6 N., R. 2 E.; sec. 36, T. 6 N., R. 1 E.; secs. 6, 7, 18, and 19, T. 5 N., R. 2 E.; and that portion of E½ of N½ of T. 5 N., R. 1 E., east of Pearl River.

Simpson County: E½ T. 2 N., R. 3 E.; T. 2 N., R. 4 E.; T. 1 N., Rs. 4 and 5 E.; E½ T. 10 N., R. 19 W.; secs. 1, 2, 3, and those parts of secs. 10, 11, and 12, T. 9 N., R. 19 W., in Simpson County; secs. 29, 30, 31, and 32, T. 1 N., R. 6 E.; secs. 1 and 12, T. 10 N., R. 18 W.; T. 10 N., R. 17 W., except secs. 1, 2, 3, 10, 11, 12, 18, 19, 30, and 31; and that portion of T. 9 N., R. 17 W., except sec. 6, in Simpson County.

TENNESSEE

Tipton County: That area within the corporate limits of the town of Mason.

This amendment makes minor additions to the regulated areas in the respective counties and parish listed in Alabama, Florida, Louisiana, and Mississippi, and includes within the regulated area for the first time portions of Lauderdale County, Mississippi, and Tipton County, Tennessee.

In addition, there are removed from the regulated areas those sections of Evans and Telfair Counties, Georgia; Bladen County, North Carolina; and Richland County, South Carolina, previously under regulation. There is now no pest risk involved in the movement of regulated articles from these counties, except possibly in the case of extensive movement of soil. Such soil generally moves only locally and in any event is subject to State quarantine regulation if it is to move to or through any nonregulated area.

Prompt action is necessary with respect to the newly regulated areas in order to control the movement therefrom of articles which might spread the white-fringed beetle. Therefore, good cause is found, in accordance with section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003 (c)) for making the foregoing amendment effective less than 30 days after its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 8, 37 Stat. 318, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 161)

This amendment shall be effective July 5, 1952.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 1st day of July 1952.

[SEAL] C. J. MCCORMICK,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

PART 725—BURLEY AND FLUE-CURED TOBACCO

PROCLAMATION OF NATIONAL MARKETING QUOTA FOR FLUE-CURED TOBACCO FOR 1953–54 MARKETING YEAR

§ 725.401 Basis and purpose. (a) Sections 725.401 and 725.402 are issued to announce the reserve supply level and the total supply of flue-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning July 1, 1952, and to establish the amount of the national marketing quota for flue-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning July 1, 1953. The findings and determinations by the Secretary contained in § 725.402 have been made on the basis of the latest available statistics of the Federal Government, and after due consideration of data, views, and recommendations received from flue-cured tobacco producers and others as provided in a notice (17 F. R. 4824) given in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003).

(b) Since the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, requires the holding of a referendum of tobacco producers within 30 days after the issuance of the proclamation of the national marketing quota to determine whether such producers favor marketing quotas and requires, insofar as practicable, the mailing of notices of farm acreage allotments to farm operators prior to the date of the referendum, it is hereby found that compliance with the 30-day effective date provision of the Administrative Procedure Act is impractical and contrary to the public interest. Therefore, the proclamation of the quota contained herein shall become effective upon the the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 725.402 Findings and determinations with respect to the national marketing quota for flue-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning July 1, 1953[1]—(a) Reserve supply level. The reserve supply level for flue-cured tobacco is 3,072 million pounds, calculated, as provided in the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, from a normal year's domestic consumption of 800 million pounds and a normal year's exports of 440 million pounds.

(b) Total supply. The total supply of flu-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning July 1, 1952, is 3,175 million pounds consisting of carry-over of 1,750 million pounds and estimated 1952 production of 1,425 million pounds.

[1] Rounded to the nearest million pounds.

(c) Carry-over. The estimated carryover of flu-cured tobacco at the beginning of the marketing year for such tobacco beginning July 1, 1953, is 1,950 million pounds calculated by subtracting the estimated disappearance for the marketing year beginning July 1, 1952, of 1,225 million pounds from the total supply of such tobacco.

(d) National marketing quota. The amount of flu-cured tobacco which will make available during the marketing year beginning July 1, 1953, a supply of flu-cured tobacco equal to the reserve supply level of such tobacco is 1,122 million pounds, and a national marketing quota of such amount is hereby proclaimed. It is determined, however, that a national marketing quota in the amount of 1,122 million pounds would result in undue restriction of marketings during the 1953–54 marketing year and such amount is hereby increased by 10 percent. Therefore, the amount of the national marketing quota for flu-cured tobacco in terms of the total quantity of such tobacco which may be marketed during the marketing year beginning July 1, 1953 is 1,234 million pounds.

Chapter IX—Production and Marketing Administration (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Lemon Reg. 441, Amdt. 1]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

Findings. 1. Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

2. It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice and engage in public rule making procedure (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient, and this amendment relieves restriction on the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona.

Order, as amended. The provisions in paragraph (b) (1) (ii) of § 953.548 (Lemon Regulation 441, 17 F. R. 5809) are hereby amended to read as follows:

(ii) District 2, 750 carloads.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup. 608c)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 2d day of July 1952.

[Lemon Reg. 442]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 953.549 Lemon Regulation 442—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953; 14 F. R. 3612), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions of this section effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of lemons, grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, are currently subject to regulation pursuant to said amended marketing agreement and order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified in this section was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Lemon Administrative Committee on July 1, 1952; such meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof to consider recommendations for regulation, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time thereof.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 6, 1952, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 13, 1952, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: Unlimited movement;

(ii) District 2: 600 carloads;

(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) The prorate base of each handler who has made application therefor, as provided in the said amended marketing agreement and order, is hereby fixed in accordance with the prorate base schedule which is attached to Lemon Regulation 441 (17 F. R. 5809) and made a part hereof by this reference.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "carloads," "prorate base," "District 1," "District 2," and "District 3," shall have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and order.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup. 608c)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 2d day of July 1952.

Acting Director, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration.

[Colorado Reg. 1, Modification]

PART 958—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN COLORADO

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

Findings. 1. Pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 97 and Order No. 58 (7 CFR Part 958) regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the State of Colorado, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of recommendations and information submitted by the Colorado Potato Committee, established under said marketing agreement and order, and other available information, it is hereby found that the modification of Colorado Regulation No. 1, hereinafter set forth, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

2. It is hereby found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that (i) the time intervening between the date when information upon which this modification is based became available and the time when this modification must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient and (ii) this modification relieves restrictions on the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the aforesaid production area.

Order, as amended. During the period July 7, 1952 to May 31, 1953, both dates inclusive the provisions of paragraph (b) of § 958.301, Colorado Regulation No. 1 (7 CFR 958.301; 14 F. R. 3979) are modified to read as follows:

(b) Order. (1) During the period July 7, 1952 to May 31, 1953, both dates inclusive, no handler shall ship potatoes subject to the provisions of said Order No. 58 which do not meet the requirements of (i) U. S. No. 1, or better grade, size B, or larger, or (ii) Colorado No. 3, or better grade, as such grade is defined herein, 1⅞ inches or larger diameter.

(2) As used in this section the term "Colorado No. 3 Grade" means potatoes which meet the requirements of U. S. No. 2 grade except that the diameter of each potato shall be not less than 1⅞ inches, and except that the potatoes shall be free from very serious damage caused by dirt or other foreign matter, second growth, growth cracks, air cracks, hollow heart, internal discoloration, cuts, shriveling, scab, other diseases (except late blight), wire-worm, other insects, mechanical or other means: Provided, That, in order to allow for variations other than size incident to proper grading and handling, not more than six percent of the potatoes in any container may be below the requirements of the grade, but not to exceed one-sixth of this amount or one percent shall be allowed for potatoes affected by soft rot or wet breakdown, and not more than five percent may be very seriously damaged by hollow heart and internal discoloration.

(i) "Very serious damage" means any injury or defect which very seriously injures the appearance of the individual potato or the general appearance of the potatoes in the container, or which cannot be removed without a loss of more than 25 percent of the total weight of the potato including peel covering defective area. Any one of the following defects or any combination of defects, the seriousness of which exceeds the maximum allowed for any one defect, shall be considered as very serious damage;

(ii) "Dirt." When the general appearance of the potatoes in the containers is very seriously affected by tubers badly caked with dirt, or other foreign matter which very seriously affects the appearance of the potatoes;

(iii) Fairly smooth cuts when more than an estimated one-half of the potato is cut away, or when the remaining portion of the clipped potato weighs less than four ounces. Irregular types of cuts which very seriously affect the appearance of the individual potato, or which cannot be removed without a loss of more than 25 percent of the total weight of the potato including peel covering the defective area.

(3) All other terms used in this section shall have the same meaning as when used in Order No. 58, and the U. S. grades and sizes, including the tolerances therefor, shall have the same meanings assigned to such terms in the U. S. Standards for Potatoes (7 CFR 51.366).

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup., 608c)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 2d day of July 1952, to become effective July 7, 1952.

PART 608—DANGER AREAS

ALTERATION

The danger area alteration appearing hereinafter has been coordinated with the civil operators involved, the Army, the Navy, and the Air Force, through the Air Coordinating Committee, Airspace Subcommittee, and is adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety of the flying public. Since a military function of the United States is involved, compliance with the notice, procedures, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is not required.

Part 608 is amended as follows:

In § 608.55, the Port Angeles, Washington, area, published on May 20, 1952 (17 F. R. 4558), is amended by changing the "Description by Geographical Coordinates" column to read:

That portion of the following described area lying within the territorial limits of the United States: A sector of a circle of 12.5 statute mile radius centered on lat. 48°23'12" N, long. 123°28'37" W, and limited by the radii drawn from the center through the Race Rocks Lighthouse at lat. 48°17'53" N, long. 123°31'48" W, and drawn from the center through the Trial Island Lighthouse at lat. 48°23'42" N, long. 123°18'12" W, excluding that portion in conflict with Blue civil airway No. 32.

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interprets or applies sec. 601, 52 Stat. 1007, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 551)

This amendment shall become effective on July 3, 1952.

Subpart—Advertising falsely or misleadingly: § 3.170 Qualities or properties of product or service. I. In connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution of the Dobbs Truss, or any product or device of substantially similar construction or design or possessing similar properties, whether sold under the same name or any other name, and on the part of respondent The Dobbs Truss Company, Inc., its officers, etc., and on the part of three individual respondents, both individually and as officers of said corporation, and on the part of their representatives, etc., and on the part of four other individuals, and respondent Dobbs Truss Company of New York, Inc., distributors for said first named respondent, and certain individuals as officers of said Dobbs Truss Company of New York, and on the part of their respective representatives, etc., disseminating, etc., any advertisements by means of the United States mails, or in commerce, or by any means to induce, etc., directly or indirectly, the purchase in commerce, etc., of said device, which advertisements represent, directly or by implication, that said device will cure, or has cured, any rupture or hernia; and, II, in the aforesaid connection and on the part of respondent Dobbs Truss Company, Inc., its officers, etc., and on the part of three individuals, individually and as officers thereof, and on the part of their respective respondents, etc., disseminating, etc., as above set forth, any advertisements which represent, directly or by implication, that said device will keep a rupture tightly closed at all times; and, III, in said connection, and on the part of said Dobbs Truss Company, Inc., its officers, etc., respondent individuals as officers thereof, and their representatives, etc., and on the part of ten individuals, distributors of said first named corporation (trading as Dobbs Truss and Appliance Co., etc., as the case might be), and their respective representatives, etc., disseminating, etc., any advertisements which represent, directly or by implication, (a) that said device does not hinder circulation of the blood, does away with all constricting pressure or will help nature help the wearer; or (b) that said device may be worn with security and comfort, does away with all chafing, binding, rubbing, irritation or slipping or is of any value for rupture treatment, unless such representation be expressly limited to reducible hernia or rupture; and IV, in said connection, and on the part of respondent Dobbs Truss Company, Inc., its officers, etc., three individuals, individually and as officers thereof, and their representatives, etc., and on the part of nine individuals, and respondent Dobbs Truss Company of New York, Inc., distributors for said first named respondent, and on the part of the representatives, etc., of said various distributors, and on the part of three individuals, individually and as officers of said Dobbs Truss Company of New York, and their representatives, etc., disseminating, etc., any advertisements which represent, directly or by implication, that said device does not spread muscles, that it does not strut or enlarge the rupture or that it will give relief to the wearer, unless such representation be expressly limited to reducible hernia or rupture; and, V, in the aforesaid connection and on the part of respondent Vic L. Brandon, his representatives, etc., disseminating, etc., any advertisements which represent, directly or by implication, that said device holds the abdominal muscles together; and, VI, in the aforesaid connection and on the part of respondent Lemuel S. Dobbs, trading as Dobbs Truss Company, or under any other trade name, and his representatives, etc., disseminating, etc., any advertisements which represent, directly or by implication, (a) that the Dobbs Truss will free the wearer of his rupture completely and permanently, that it will not slow up the circulation of the blood, that it exerts no constricting pressure, that it will correct a hernia, or that it will restore the muscles to their original state; or (b) will control a hernia, will not enlarge a rupture, will permit complete freedom of bodily movement without displacement of the truss pad, or will do away with all chafing or binding, unless such representations be expressly limited to reducible hernia or rupture; and, VII, in said connection and on the part of respondent Edward Nolin, trading as Dobbs Truss Company, or under any other trade name, and on the part of his representatives, etc., disseminating, etc., any advertisements which represent, directly or by implication, that said device keeps the rupture tightly closed at all times or that it holds the muscles together; and, VIII, in said connection, and on the part of respondent Irvin O. Taylor, trading as The Dobbs Truss, or under any other trade name, and his representatives, etc., disseminating, etc., any advertisements which represent, directly or by implication, that said device draws the opening of the rupture together or that it gives nature a chance to repair the rupture; and, IX, in said connection, and on the part of respondent John C. Dobbs, trading as Dobbs Truss Company, and as Dobbs Truss Sales Company of the Western States, or under any other trade name or names, and on the part of his representatives, etc., disseminating, etc., any advertisements which represent, directly or by implication, (a) that said device holds muscles together or keeps the rupture tightly closed at all times; or, (b) does not spread muscles, unless such representation be expressly limited to reducible hernia or rupture; and, X, in said connection, and on the part of respondent George R. Gardner, trading as Dobbs Truss Co., or under any other trade name, and on the part of his representatives, etc., disseminating, etc., any advertisements which represent, directly or by implication, that said device (a) helps nature strengthen muscles and tissues; or, (b) will control a hernia, unless expressly limited to reducible hernia or rupture; prohibited.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interprets or applies sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 45) [Cease and desist order, The Dobbs Truss Company, Inc., et al., Birmingham, Ala., Docket 5808, April 3, 1952]

In the Matter of The Dobbs Truss Company, Inc., a Corporation, Homer C. Dobbs, J. Wood Dobbs, and Gladys W. Clark, Individually and as Officers of The Dobbs Truss Company, Inc., Ellie H. Vines, Sr., an Individual Trading as Dobbs Truss and Appliance Company, Clarence L. Clark, an Individual Trading as Dobbs Truss Appliance Company, Vic L. Brandon, an Individual, Lemuel S. Dobbs, an Individual Trading as Dobbs Truss Company, Scott C. McClelland, an Individual Trading as Dobbs Truss Distributing Company, Dobbs Truss Company of New York, Inc., a Corporation, Edward Nolin, Rose Nolin, and Rosamond Nolin, Individually and as Officers of Dobbs Truss Company of New York, Inc., Edward Nolin, an Individual Trading as Dobbs Truss Company, Irvin O. Taylor, an Individual Trading as The Dobbs Truss, William L. Powell, and Ed. F. Hill, Copartners Trading as The Dobbs Truss Distributing Company, John C. Dobbs, an Individual Trading as Dobbs Truss Company, and as Dobbs Truss Sales Company of The Western States, George R. Gardner, an Individual Trading as Dobbs Truss Co., and Henry J. Watkins, Jr., an Individual Trading as The Dobbs Truss Distributing Company

Pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act, the Federal Trade Commission on September 11, 1950, issued and subsequently served its complaint in this proceeding upon the respondents named in the caption hereof, charging them with unfair and deceptive acts and practices in commerce through the dissemination of false and misleading advertisements of a device, in violation of the provisions of said act. After the issuance of said complaint and the filing of an answer thereto on behalf of all respondents, hearings were held at which testimony and other evidence in support of and in opposition to the allegations of said complaint were introduced before a hearing examiner theretofore duly designated by the Commission, and said testimony and other evidence were duly recorded and filed in the office of the Commission. On November 1, 1950, O. C. Dobbs, Jr., individually and as an officer of The Dobbs Truss Company, Inc., and on February 8, 1951, Dobbs Truss Sales Company, Inc., a corporation, were added as respondents in this matter by order of the Commission, with the consent of all parties. The answer of all respondents filed October 9, 1950, was adopted by respondent O. C. Dobbs, Jr., as his answer. A separate answer on behalf of Dobbs Truss Sales Company, Inc., was filed on February 14, 1951. It was agreed by all parties that these respondents would be regarded as having been party respondents to this proceeding from its inception. Thereafter, the proceeding regularly came on for final consideration by said hearing examiner on the complaint, the answer thereto, testimony and other evidence, and proposed findings of fact and conclusions presented by counsel, and said hearing examiner on March 12, 1951, filed his initial decision.

Within the time permitted by the Commission's rules of practice, respondents filed with the Commission an appeal from said initial decision, and thereafter this proceeding regularly came on for final consideration by the Commission upon said appeal and the briefs in support of and in opposition thereto; and the Commission, having issued its order granting said appeal in part and denying it in part, and being now fully advised in the premises, finds that this proceeding is in the interest of the public and makes this its findings as to the facts,[1] conclusions drawn therefrom[1] and order, the same to be in lieu of the initial decision of the hearing examiner.

I. It is ordered, That respondents The Dobbs Truss Company, Inc., a corporation, its officers, representatives, agents and employees; Homer C. Dobbs, J. Wood Dobbs, Gladys W. Clark and O. C. Dobbs, Jr., individually and as officers of said corporation, their representatives, agents and employees; Ellie H. Vines, Sr., trading as Dobbs Truss and Appliance Company, or under any other trade name, his representatives, agents and employees; Vic L. Brandon, his representatives, agents and employees; Scott C. McClelland, trading as Dobbs Truss Distributing Company, or under any other trade name, his representatives, agents and employees; Dobbs Truss Company of New York, Inc., a corporation, its officers, representatives, agents and employees; Edward Nolin, Rose Nolin and Rosamond Nolin, individually and as officers of Dobbs Truss Company of New York, Inc., their representatives, agents and employees; Edward Nolin, trading as Dobbs Truss Company, or under any other trade name, his representatives, agents and employees; and Irvin O. Taylor, trading as The Dobbs Truss, or under any other trade name, his representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution of the Dobbs Truss, or any product or device of substantially similar construction or design or possessing substantially similar properties, whether sold under the same name or any other name, do forthwith cease and desist from directly or indirectly:

1. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated, by means of the United States mails, or by any means in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, any advertisement which represents, directly or by implication, that said device will cure, or has cured, any rupture or hernia.

2. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated, by any means, for the purpose of inducing, or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of said device, any advertisement which contains the representation prohibited in Paragraph 1 of Subdivision I of this order.

II. It is further ordered, That respondents The Dobbs Truss Company, Inc., a corporation, its officers, representatives, agents and employees; Homer C. Dobbs, J. Wood Dobbs, Gladys W. Clark and O. C. Dobbs, Jr., individually and as officers of said corporation, their representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution of the Dobbs Truss, or any product or device of substantially similar construction or design or possessing substantially similar properties, whether sold under that name or any other name, do forthwith cease and desist from directly or indirectly:

1. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated, by means of the United States mails, or by any means in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, any advertisement which represents, directly or by implication, that said device will keep a rupture tightly closed at all times.

2. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated, by any means, for the purpose of inducing or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of said device, any advertisement which contains the representation prohibited in Paragraph 1 of Subdivision II of this order.

III. It is further ordered, That respondents The Dobbs Truss Company, Inc., a corporation, its officers, representatives, agents and employees; Homer C. Dobbs, J. Wood Dobbs, Gladys W. Hill, individually and as copartners, trading as The Dobbs Truss Distributing Company, or under any other trade name, their representatives, agents and employees; George R. Gardner, trading as Dobbs Truss Co., or under any other trade name, his representatives, agents and employees; Henry J. Watkins, Jr., trading as The Dobbs Truss Distributing Company, or under any other trade name, his representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution of the Dobbs Truss, or any product or device of substantially similar construction or design or possessing substantially similar properties, whether sold under the same or any other name, do forthwith cease and desist from directly or indirectly:

1. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated, by means of the United States mails, or by any means in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, any advertisement which represents, directly or by implication, that said device does not hinder circulation of the blood, does away with all constricting pressure or will help nature help the wearer.

2. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated, by means of the United States mails, or by any means in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, any advertisement which represents, directly or by implication, that said device may be worn with security and comfort, does away with all chafing, binding, rubbing, irritation or slipping or is of any value for rupture treatment, unless such representation be expressly limited to reducible hernia or rupture.

3. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated, by any means, for the purpose of inducing, or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of said device, any advertisement which contains any of the representations prohibited in Paragraphs 1 and 2 of Subdivision III of this order.

IV. It is further ordered, That respondents The Dobbs Truss Company, Inc., a corporation, its officers, representatives and employees; Homer C. Dobbs, J. Wood Dobbs, Gladys W. Clark and O. C. Dobbs, Jr., individually and as officers of said corporation, their representatives, agents and employees; Ellie H. Vines, Sr., trading as Dobbs Truss and Appliance Company, or under any other trade name, his representatives, agents and employees; Clarence L. McClelland, trading as Dobbs Truss Distributing Company, or under any other trade name, his representatives, agents and employees; Edward Nolin, trading as Dobbs Truss Company, or under any other trade name, his representatives, agents and employees; Dobbs Truss Company of New York, Inc., a corporation, its officers, representatives, agents and employees; Edward Nolin, Rose Nolin and Rosamond Nolin, individually and as officers of Dobbs Truss Company of New York, Inc., their representatives, agents and employees; Edward Nolin, trading as Dobbs Truss Company, or under any other trade name, his representatives, agents and employees; Irvin O. Taylor, trading as The Dobbs Truss, or under any other trade name, his representatives, agents and employees; George R. Gardner, trading as Dobbs Truss Co., or under any other trade name, his representatives, agents and employees; and Henry J. Watkins, Jr., trading as The Dobbs Truss Distributing Company, or under any other trade name, his representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution of the Dobbs Truss, or any product or device of substantially similar construction or design or possessing substantially similar properties, whether sold under the same or any other name, do forthwith cease and desist from directly or indirectly:

1. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated, by means of the United States mails, or by any means in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, any advertisement which represents, directly or by implication, that said device does not spread muscles, that it does not strut or enlarge the rupture or that it will give relief to the wearer, unless such representation be expressly limited to reducible hernia or rupture.

2. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated, by any means, for the purpose of inducing or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of said device, any advertisement which contains any of the representations prohibited in Paragraph 1 of Subdivision IV of this order.

V. It is further ordered, That respondent Vic L. Brandon, his representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution of the Dobbs Truss, or any product or device of substantially similar design or construction or possessing substantially similar properties, whether sold under the same or any other name, do forthwith cease and desist from directly or indirectly:

1. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated, by means of the United States mails, or by any means in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, any advertisement which represents, directly or by implication, that said device holds the abdominal muscles together.

2. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated, by any means, for the purpose of inducing, or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission

Act, of said device, any advertisement which contains the representation prohibited in Paragraph 1 of Subdivision V of this order.

VI. It is further ordered, That respondent Lemuel S. Dobbs, trading as Dobbs Truss Company, or under any other trade name, his representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution of the Dobbs Truss, or any product or device of substantially similar design or construction or possessing substantially similar properties, whether sold under the same or any other name, do forthwith cease and desist from directly or indirectly:

1. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated, by means of the United States mails, or by any means in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, any advertisement which represents, directly or by implication, that the Dobbs Truss will free the wearer of his rupture completely and permanently, that it will not slow up the circulation of the blood, that it exerts no constricting pressure, that it will correct a hernia, or that it will restore the muscles to their original state.

2. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated, by means of the United States mails, or by any means in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, any advertisement which represents, directly or by implication, that said device will control a hernia, will not enlarge a rupture, will permit complete freedom of bodily movement without displacement of the truss pad, or will do away with all chafing or binding, unless such representations be expressly limited to reducible hernia or rupture.

3. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated, by any means, for the purpose of inducing or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of said device, any advertisement which contains any of the representations prohibited by Paragraphs 1 and 2 of Subdivision VI of this order.

VII. It is further ordered, That respondent Edward Nolin, trading as Dobbs Truss Company, or under any other trade name, his representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution of the Dobbs Truss, or any product or device of substantially similar construction or design or possessing substantially similar properties, whether sold under the same or any other name, do forthwith cease and desist from directly or indirectly:

1. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated, by means of the United States mails, or by any means in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, any advertisement which represents, directly or by implication, that said device does not spread muscles, unless such representation be expressly limited to reducible hernia or rupture.

2. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated, by any means, for the purpose of inducing, or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of said device, any advertisement which contains any of the representations prohibited in Paragraph 1 of Subdivision VII of this order.

VIII. It is further ordered, That respondent Irvin O. Taylor, trading as The Dobbs Truss, or under any other trade name, his representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution of the Dobbs Truss, or any product or device of substantially similar construction or design or possessing substantially similar properties, whether sold under the same or any other name, do forthwith cease and desist from directly or indirectly:

1. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated, by means of the United States mails, or by any means in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, any advertisement which represents, directly or by implication, that said device draws the opening of the rupture together or that it gives nature a chance to repair the rupture.

2. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated, by any means, for the purpose of inducing or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of said device, any advertisement which contains any of the representations prohibited in Paragraph 1 of Subdivision VIII of this order.

IX. It is further ordered, That respondent John C. Dobbs, trading as Dobbs Truss Company and as Dobbs Truss Sales Company of the Western States, or under any other trade name or names, his representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution of the Dobbs Truss, or any product or device of substantially similar construction or design or possessing substantially similar properties, whether sold under the same or any other name, do forthwith cease and desist from directly or indirectly:

1. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated, by means of the United States mails, or by any means in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, any advertisement which represents, directly or by implication, that said device holds muscles together or keeps the rupture tightly closed at all times.

2. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated, by means of the United States mails, or by any means in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, any advertisement which represents, directly or by implication, that said device does not spread muscles, unless such representation be expressly limited to reducible hernia or rupture.

3. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated, by any means, for the purpose of inducing, or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of said device, any advertisement which contains any of the representations prohibited in Paragraphs 1 and 2 of Subdivision IX of this order.

X. It is further ordered, That respondent George R. Gardner, trading as Dobbs Truss Co., or under any other trade name, his representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution of the Dobbs Truss, or any product or device of substantially similar construction or design or possessing substantially similar properties, whether sold under the same or any other name, do forthwith cease and desist from directly or indirectly:

1. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated, by means of the United States mails, or by any means in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, any advertisement which represents, directly or by implication, that said device helps nature strengthen muscles and tissues.

2. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated, by means of the United States mails, or by any means in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, any advertisement which represents, directly or by implication, that said device will control a hernia, unless such representation be expressly limited to reducible hernia or rupture.

3. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated, by any means, for the purpose of inducing, or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of said device, any advertisement which contains any of the representations prohibited in Paragraphs 1 and 2 of Subdivision X of this order.

XI. It is further ordered, That the complaint herein be, and the same hereby is, dismissed as to respondent, Dobbs Truss Sales Company, Inc.

XII. It is further ordered, That the respondents, with the exception of the Dobbs Truss Sales Company, Inc., shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report, in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

Issued: April 3, 1952.

In the Matter of Grand Academy Sportswear, Inc., a Corporation, and Jack Herbst and Robert Coffield, Individually and as Officers of the Grand Academy Sportswear, Inc., a Corporation

This proceeding was heard by James A. Purcell, Hearing Examiner, upon the complaint of the Commission, and respondents' answer, in which respondents specifically admitted the misbranding of their product, but alleged that the labeling was performed by factory employees who used rubber stamps which showed the fiber content of the various cloths, and that use of the stamp misbranding the goods as to fiber content was inadvertent and without intent to misbrand or deceive, and that the officers and employees would prevent such a repetition of errors in the future.

Thereafter the proceeding regularly came on for final consideration by said Examiner, theretofore duly designated by the Commission, upon said complaint, respondents' answer, and proposed findings and conclusions submitted by the attorney in support of the complaint, none having been filed by the respondents, and said Examiner, having duly considered the record in the matter, and having found that the proceeding was in the interest of the public, made his initial decision comprising certain findings as to the facts,[1] conclusions drawn therefrom,[1] and order to cease and desist.

No appeal having been filed from said initial decision of said Hearing Examiner as provided for in Rule XXII, nor any other action taken as thereby provided to prevent said initial decision becoming the decision of the Commission thirty days from service thereof upon the parties, said initial decision, including said order to cease and desist, accordingly, under the provisions of said Rule XXII became the decision of the Commission on April 3, 1952.

The said order is as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondents, Grand Academy Sportswear, Inc., a corporation, and Jack Herbst and Robert Coffield as officers of said Grand Academy Sportswear, Inc., a corporation and also in their individual capacities, their respective representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the introduction or manufacture for introduction into commerce, or the sale, transportation or distribution in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the aforesaid acts, of ladies' skirts or other wool products, as such products are defined in and subject to the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939, which products contain, purport to contain or in any way are represented as containing "wool," "reprocessed wool" or "reused wool," as those terms are defined in said act, do forthwith cease and desist from misbranding such products:

1. By falsely and deceptively stamping, tagging, labeling or otherwise identifying such products;

2. By failing to securely affix to or place on such products a stamp, tag, label or other means of identification showing in a clear and conspicuous manner:

(a) The percentage of the total fiber weight of such wool products, exclusive of ornamentation not exceeding five percentum of said total fiber weight, of (1) wool, (2) reprocessed wool, (3) reused wool, (4) each fiber other than wool where said percentage by weight of such fiber is five percentum or more, and, (5) the aggregate of all other fibers.

(b) The maximum percentage of the total weight of such wool products of any non-fibrous loading, filling, or adulterating matter.

(c) The name of the registered identification number of the manufacturer of such wool products or one or more persons engaged in introducing such wool products into commerce, or in the offering for sale, sale, transportation, or distribution thereof in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act and in the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939.

Provided, That the foregoing provisions concerning misbranding shall not be construed to prohibit acts permitted by paragraphs (a) and (b) of section 3 of the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939: And provided further, That nothing contained in this order shall be construed as limiting any applicable provisions of said act or the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

It is further ordered, That the charge of substitution of tags and labels by respondents, contained in Paragraph Five of the complaint is dismissed, such acts, under the circumstances and conditions of the instant matter, not being properly chargeable as a violation of the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939, or of the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, nor of the Federal Trade Commission Act.

By "Decision of the Commission and order to file report of compliance", Docket 5860, April 3, 1952, which announced and decreed fruition of said initial decision on April 3, 1952, report of compliance with the said order was required as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondents herein shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: April 3, 1952.

TITLE 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs, Department of the Treasury

[T. D. 53035]

PART 69—IMPORTATION OF ARTICLES IN CONNECTION WITH THE WASHINGTON STATE-FAR EAST INTERNATIONAL TRADE FAIR AT SEATTLE, WASHINGTON, UNDER PUBLIC LAW NO. 351, 82D CONGRESS[1]

ENTRY OF ARTICLES

The following regulations under Public Law No. 351, 82d Congress, approved May 21, 1952, relate to the entry of articles in connection with the Washington State-Far East International Trade Fair to be held at Seattle, Washington, September 6 to September 14, 1952.

[1] All articles which shall be imported from foreign countries for the purpose of exhibition at the Washington State-Far East International Trade Fair, to be held at Seattle, Washington, from September 6 to September 14, 1952, inclusive, by the Washington State-Far East International Trade Fair, Incorporated, a corporation, or for use in constructing, installing, or maintaining foreign exhibits at the said trade fair, upon which articles there shall be a tariff or customs duty, shall be admitted without payment of such tariff, customs duty, fees, or charges under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe; but it shall be lawful at any time during or within three months after the close of the said trade fair to sell within the area of the trade fair any articles provided for herein, subject to such regulations for the security of the revenue and for the collection of import duties as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe: Provided, That all such articles, when withdrawn for consumption or use in the United States, shall be subject to the duties, if any, imposed upon such articles by the revenue laws in force at the date of their withdrawal; and on such articles which shall have suffered diminution or deterioration from incidental handling or exposure, the duties, if payable, shall be assessed according to the appraised value at the time of withdrawal from entry hereunder for consumption or entry under the general tariff law: Provided further, That imported articles provided for herein shall not be subject to any marking requirements of the general tariff laws, except when such articles are withdrawn for consumption or use in the United States, in which case they shall not be released from customs custody until properly marked, but no additional duty shall be assessed because such articles were not sufficiently marked when imported into the United States: Provided further, That at any time during or within three months after the close of the trade fair, any article entered hereunder may be abandoned to the Government or destroyed under customs supervision, whereupon any duties on such article shall be remitted: Provided further, That articles which have been admitted without payment of duty for exhibition under any tariff law and which have remained in continuous customs custody or under a customs exhibition bond and imported articles in bonded warehouses under the general tariff law may be accorded the privilege of transfer to and entry for exhibition at the said trade fair under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe: And provided further, That the Washington State-Far East International Trade Fair, Incorporated, a corporation, shall be deemed, for customs purposes only, to be the sole consignee of all merchandise imported under the provisions of this act, and that the actual and necessary customs charges for labor, services, and other expenses in connection with the entry, examination, appraisement, release, or custody, together with the necessary charges for salaries of customs officers and employees in connection with the supervision, custody of, and accounting for, articles imported under the provisions of this act, shall be reimbursed by the Washington State-Far East International Trade Fair, Incorporated, a corporation, to the Government of the United States under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, and that receipts from such reimbursements shall be deposited as refunds to the appropriation from which paid, in the manner provided for in section 524, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (U. S. C. 1946 edition, title 19, sec. 1524).

Sec.
69.1 Invoices; marking; bond.
69.2 Entry; appraisement; procedure.
69.3 Compliance, provisions of Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, and Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act of June 25, 1938.
69.4 Detail of customs officers to protect revenue; expenses.
69.5 Withdrawal of articles from exhibition for exportation, abandonment, destruction, or for consumption or entry under the general tariff law; involuntary abandonment.

AUTHORITY: §§ 69.1 to 69.5 issued under Pub. Law No. 351, 82d Cong.

§ 69.1 Invoices; marking; bond. (a) Articles intended for exhibition under the provisions of Public Law No. 351, 82d Congress, and valued at more than $100, are subject to the usual certified invoice requirements if of a class for which such invoices are required under the Tariff Act of 1930 and the regulations issued thereunder. The certified invoices shall be on foreign service Form 138 (Invoice of Merchandise) and shall contain the information prescribed under section 481 of the Tariff Act of 1930. (19 U. S. C. 1481.)

(b) The marking requirements of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, and the regulations promulgated thereunder will not apply to articles imported under the regulations in this part except when such articles are withdrawn for consumption or use in the United States, in which case they shall be released from customs custody only upon a full compliance with the marking requirements of the tariff act, as amended, and the regulations promulgated thereunder.

(c) The International Trade Fair, Incorporated, shall give to the collector of customs at Seattle, Washington, a bond in an amount to be determined by the collector and containing such conditions for compliance with Public Law No. 351, 82d Congress, and the regulations in this part, as shall be approved by the Bureau of Customs.

§ 69.2 Entry; appraisement; procedure. (a) All entries under the regulations in this part shall be made at the port of Seattle, Washington, in the name of the International Trade Fair, Incorporated, which shall be deemed for customs purposes the sole consignee of the merchandise entered under the act and which shall be held responsible to the Government for all duties and charges due the United States on account of such entries; but, in the case of merchandise withdrawn from entry under these regulations, an entry under the general tariff law in the name of any person duly authorized in writing by the International Trade Fair, Incorporated, to make such entry, may be accepted by the collector.

(b) Articles to be entered under the regulations in this part which arrive at ports other than Seattle shall be entered for immediate transportation without appraisement to the latter port in the manner prescribed by the general customs regulations.

(c) Upon the arrival at the port of Seattle of articles to be entered under the regulations in this part, they shall be entered on a special form of entry to read substantially as follows:

ENTRY FOR EXHIBITION

Entry No. ----

Entry at the port of Seattle of articles consigned or transferred to the International Trade Fair, Incorporated, under ----------
I. T. No. ------ ex S. S. ---------- from ----------
---------- on the ------ day of ---------- 19----, for exhibition purposes under Public Law No. 351 of the 82d Congress, approved May 21, 1952.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE FAIR, INC.,
By ----------

(d) Upon such entry being made, the collector shall issue a special permit for the transfer of the articles covered thereby to the buildings in which they are to be exhibited or used, or, in the discretion of the collector, to the appraiser's stores for examination and subsequent transfer to the buildings in which they are to be exhibited or used. The articles shall be tentatively appraised prior to their exhibition or use. All imported exhibits entered under this part shall be kept segregated from domestic articles and imported duty-paid articles and shall not be removed from the exhibition building except in accordance with § 69.5 (a).

(e) If for any reason articles imported for entry under the regulations in this part are not upon their arrival to be delivered immediately at an exhibition building, the importer should so indicate to the collector in writing, who will cause such articles to be placed in a bonded warehouse under a "general order permit" at the importer's risk and expense, and such articles may be entered at any time within 1 year from the date of importation for exhibition, as herein provided for, or under the general tariff law, or for exportation. If not so entered within such period, they will be regarded as abandoned to the Government.

(f) Articles which have been admitted without payment of duty for exhibition under any customs law and which have remained in continuous customs custody or under a customs exhibition bond may be transferred to entry for exhibition at the fair in the manner prescribed in § 10.49 (c) of the Customs Regulations of 1943 (19 CFR 10.49 (c)), except that in each case an entry under paragraph (c) of this section shall be filed, which shall supersede any previous entry, and no new bond other than that specified in § 69.1 (c) shall be required. Imported articles in bonded warehouses under the general tariff law may be transferred to entry for exhibition at the fair in the manner prescribed in § 8.33 of the Customs Regulations of 1943 (19 CFR 8.33).

§ 69.3 Compliance, provisions of Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, and Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act of June 25, 1938. The entry of plant material subject to restriction under the Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 151 to 164a, inclusive, 167), shall not be permitted except under permits issued therefor by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, Department of Agriculture, and in accordance with the plant quarantine regulations. The entry of food products shall conform to the requirements of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (52 Stat. 1040 et seq.; 21 U. S. C. 301 et seq.) and regulations issued thereunder.

§ 69.4 Detail of customs officers to protect revenue; expenses. (a) The collector of customs at Seattle, Washington, shall detail an officer to act as his representative at the fair and shall station inside the exhibition buildings as many additional customs officers and employees as may be necessary properly to protect the revenue.

(b) All actual and necessary customs charges for labor, services, and other expenses in connection with the entry, examination, appraisement, release, or custody of imported articles, together with the necessary charges for salaries of customs officers and employees in connection with the supervision and custody of, and accounting for, articles imported for exhibition at the fair or transferred thereto for exhibition, shall be reimbursed by the International Trade Fair, Incorporated, to the Government, payment to be made monthly to the collector of customs, Seattle, Washington, for deposit to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States as a refund to the appropriation "Collecting the Revenue from Customs."

§ 69.5 Withdrawal of articles from exhibition for exportation, abandonment, destruction, or for consumption or entry under the general tariff law, involuntary abandonment. (a) Any articles entered under the regulations of this part may be withdrawn for exportation, for abandonment to the Government, for destruction under customs supervision, or for consumption or entry under the general tariff law, but not otherwise, at any time prior to the opening of the fair or at any time during or within three months after the close of the fair. Upon the withdrawal of such articles for consumption or for entry under the general tariff law, or at the expiration of three months after the close of the fair in the case of articles not previously so withdrawn, they shall be appraised with due allowance made for diminution or deterioration from incidental handling or exposure. Such appraisal shall be final in the absence of an appeal to reappraisement, as provided in section 501 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U. S. C. 1501). In the case of such articles withdrawn for entry under the general tariff law under a warehouse bond or a bond conditioned upon exportation, the statutory period of the bond and any extension thereof shall be computed from the date of withdrawal from entry under the provisions of Public Law No. 351 of the 82d Congress.

(b) At any time prior to the opening of the fair, or at any time during or within three months after the close of the fair, any article entered hereunder may be abandoned to the Government or destroyed under customs supervision, as provided in § 15.4 of the Customs Regulations of 1943 (19 CFR 15.4).

(c) Any articles entered under the regulations in this part which have not been withdrawn for consumption, entry under the general tariff law, or exportation, or which have not been abandoned to the Government or destroyed under customs supervision, before the expiration of three months after the close of the fair, shall be regarded as abandoned to the Government.

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Amendment 1 to Supplementary Regulation 4 to Ceiling Price Regulation 9, Revision 1, is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

Supplementary Regulation 4 to Ceiling Price Regulation 9, Revision 1, which was issued effective June 13, 1952, provided relief for sellers of food products in the Territory of Hawaii who, because of the maritime strike on the west coast of the United States necessarily incurred increased shipping costs because some food products covered by CPR 9, Revision 1, have to be shipped from ports in the continental United States other than the west coast ports. That supplementary regulation permitted the sellers to pass through any increase in overland or ocean freight charges incurred by the transportation of such shipments.

Inasmuch as retail as well as wholesale sales were covered, compliance by retailers has been difficult because no provision was made for the wholesaler to separately state such increased freight charges on his invoice to the retailer. This amendment provides that wholesalers must separately state on their invoices for each item sold, the amount of additional freight charges added to their ceiling price by authority of Supplementary Regulation 4 to CPR 9, Revision 1.

Because of the nature of this amendment, consultation with industry affected has not been practicable.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

1. Section 1 of Supplementary Regulation 4 to Ceiling Price Regulation 9, Revision 1, is amended by adding after the first paragraph the following new paragraph:

If you sell at wholesale a commodity covered by this supplementary regulation, you must separately state on the invoice for each item sold, the amount you have added to your ceiling price as authorized in this section.

(Sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup., 2154)

Effective date. This Amendment 1 to Supplementary Regulation 4 to Ceiling Price Regulation 9, Revision 1, is effective July 2, 1952.

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Amendment 1 to Supplementary Regulation 1 to Ceiling Price Regulation 69, Revision 1, is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

Supplementary Regulation 1 to Ceiling Price Regulation 69, Revision 1, which was issued effective June 13, 1952, provided relief for sellers of food products in the Territory of Hawaii who, because of the maritime strike on the west coast of the United States necessarily incurred increased shipping costs because some food products covered by CPR 69, Revision 1, have to be shipped from ports in the continental United States other than the west coast ports. That supplementary regulation permitted the sellers to pass through any increase in overland or ocean freight charges incurred by the transportation of such shipments.

Inasmuch as retail as well as wholesale sales were covered, compliance by retailers has been difficult because no provision was made for the wholesaler to separately state such increased freight charges on his invoice to the retailer. This amendment provides that wholesalers must separately state on their invoices for each item sold, the amount of additional freight charges added to their ceiling price by authority of Supplementary Regulation 1 to CPR 69, Revision 1.

Because of the nature of this amendment, consultation with industry affected has not been practicable.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

1. Section 1 of Supplementary Regulation 1 to Ceiling Price Regulation 69, Revision 1, is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

If you sell a commodity covered by this supplementary regulation for which a ceiling price is established by Article II of Ceiling Price Regulation 69, Revision 1, you must separately state on the invoice, for each item sold, the amount you have added to your ceiling price as authorized in this section.

(Sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup., 2154)

Effective date. This Amendment 1 to Supplementary Regulation 1 to Ceiling Price Regulation 69, Revision 1, is effective July 2, 1952.

Director of Price Stabilization.

[General Ceiling Price Regulation, Supplementary Regulation 43, Revision 1]

GCPR, SR 43—BOTTLED SOFT DRINKS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Revision 1 of Supplemeneary Regulation 43 to the General Ceiling Price Regulation is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This revision of Supplementary Regulation (SR) 43 to the General Ceiling Price Regulation (GCPR) clarifies the manner in which retailers of soft drinks may adjust their ceiling prices to reflect higher costs of soft drinks. It also specifies the information which bottlers of soft drinks who sell new bottle sizes after January 25, 1951, have to report to the Office of Price Stabilization. Provision is also made for sales of soft drinks by wagon retailers. Finally, this revision allows a retailer whose supplier raised his prices during GCPR base period to reflect this increase under certain circumstances and makes certain editorial changes designed further to clarify the regulation.

The statements of considerations accompanying SR 43 and the amendments thereto are incorporated herein by reference. This statement of considerations will discuss only the changes in SR 43 made by this revision.

Tables to help in computing retail prices. Since the issuance of Amendment 2 to SR 43 to the GCPR, inquiries from the trade and from the press have indicated that there has been some confusion as to the effect of section 11 (c) of the GCPR on retail sales of soft drinks. Generally, section 11 (c) authorizes retailers to pass on the exact dollars-and-cents increases in their costs of commodities processed from agricultural commodities. In addition, section 22 of the GCPR requires the rounding of fractional parts of a cent. To dispel the confusion that has arisen in computation of these prices, section 4 (a) of this revision sets out in Table I the exact price which may be charged by those retailers of soft drinks whose ceiling price was 5 cents a bottle or less or 25 cents for six bottles prior to July 28, 1951, the effective date of SR 43. This table provides adjusted prices which have been calculated by applying section 11 (c) of the GCPR to retail sales prices of soft drinks. Fractions of a cent resulting from such an application have been rounded to the nearest cent. Retailers whose ceiling price for an individual bottle, prior to July 28, 1951, was more than five cents or whose ceiling price for six bottles was more than 25 cents or whose ceiling price for 24 bottles was more than one dollar prior to that date, may increase these ceiling prices only in accordance with Table II provided in section 4 (b). That table translates the cost increase for sales of an individual bottle, six bottles and 24 bottles in the same manner as is provided for the other retailers by Table I. Since the tabular adjustments provided for retailers in this regulation are based on section 11 (c) of the GCPR, retailers will no longer be permitted to adjust their soft drink ceiling prices under that section but, instead, will use the tables herein provided. This revision allows retailers whose net invoice cost per case of 24 bottles is at least 96 cents to charge 6 cents for the sale of a single bottle. As was pointed out in the Statement of Considerations to SR 43, the 96 cents cost is the one at which retailers have traditionally increased their prices for the sale of a single bottle from 5 to 6 cents and the Director has determined that this customary practice should be continued.

Bottlers who sell at retail and wagon retailers. As originally written, SR 43 made no provision for price increases by bottlers who sell at retail. As a result, many of these sellers have 5 cent prices for their sales of a single bottle at retail while retailers who buy from them may charge 6 cents. This revision permits bottlers to increase their prices by the same amount as may the retailers who buy from them.

This revision also makes provision for the few sellers who sell soft drinks at retail from their own trucks. In many cases the ceiling prices established by these sellers under the General Ceiling Price Regulation reflected ceilings no more than, and in some cases lower than, those established for other retail sellers, despite the fact that delivery costs make this method of distribution more expensive. In order that these sellers may be afforded relief they are allowed to take as their ceiling price the highest of (1) their GCPR price as determined under sections 3, 6, or 7 of that regulation, (2) their ceiling price as determined under section 4 of this regulation or (3) their net invoice cost per case of the soft drinks they are pricing plus 40 cents—a margin no greater than the prevailing level of margins in the trade and the lowest which will permit these sellers to stay in business.

Applications by retailers. Finally, this revision allows a retailer whose supplier raised prices during the GCPR base period and who did not in turn raise his prices to consumers, despite the fact that other customers of that supplier generally raised their prices, to apply to OPS for permission to increase his ceiling prices for flavors bought from that supplier to the level of ceiling prices generally established for other retail customers of that supplier.

FINDINGS OF THE DIRECTOR

In formulating this revision, the Director of Price Stabilization has consulted extensively with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and has given full consideration to their recommendations. In his judgment, the ceiling prices established by this revision are generally fair and equitable, are necessary to effectuate the purpose of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, and comply with all the applicable standards of that act.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 11 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply Title IV, 64 Stat. 803, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2101-2110. E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.

SECTION 1. What this regulation does. This revised supplementary regulation permits wholesale sellers of soft drinks (see section 11, Definitions) whose ceiling prices prior to July 28, 1951, were below 96 cents for a case of 24 bottles to increase their prices 16 cents up to 96 cents a case. Moreover, this revision prescribes the method for determining the ceiling prices of bottle sizes of soft drinks not sold from December 19, 1950 through January 25, 1951, controls the manner in which retailers of soft drinks may reflect their increased costs of soft drinks, permits retailers to apply for adjustment under certain circumstances, authorizes the charging of bottle deposits not to exceed replacement costs, and, finally, prescribes ceiling prices for sales by wagon retailers.

SEC. 2. Where this regulation applies. This regulation applies in the 48 States of the United States, its Territories and possessions and the District of Columbia.

SEC. 3. Sales to wholesalers or retailers. (a) If you sell soft drinks to wholesalers or retailers and have, pursuant to the General Ceiling Price Regulation, a ceiling price per case for sales to wholesalers or retailers below 96 cents for a case of 24 bottles, you may increase that price by adding to it 16 cents so long as your new ceiling price is not higher than 96 cents a case. You may not, however, increase that price until you send a notice by registered mail to the Soft Drink Section, Grocery Products Branch, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C., of your old ceiling price and your new ceiling price and the bottle sizes which you are pricing. If you have previously sent a notice to the Director of Price Stabilization as formerly required by section 6 (renumbered 5 by Amendment 2) of SR 43, that notice will satisfy the requirements of this section 3 (a).

For example: If your ceiling price is 75 cents a case, you may increase your ceiling price to 91 cents. But if your ceiling price is 84 cents, you may increase it only to 96 cents.

(b) This paragraph applies to you only if you bottle a soft drink.

(1) If, after January 25, 1951, you change the size of the bottle in which you sold a soft drink during the GCPR base period (Dec. 19, 1950–Jan. 25, 1951) and either discontinue selling the old size or continue to sell the old size and the new size, you will determine your ceiling price for the new bottle size by applying to your current unit direct cost of the new size the percentage markup you are currently receiving on the old bottle size. Your current unit direct cost for the bottle size being priced and for the old bottle size shall consist of the total unit direct labor and direct material cost for each. To determine your ceiling price you ascertain the percentage markup for the old bottle size by dividing its ceiling price, adjusted pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, by its current unit direct cost. You determine your ceiling price on the new bottle size by multiplying your current unit direct cost for the new bottle size by this percentage markup. The ceiling price so determined remains your ceiling price on all subsequent sales, and you may not adjust that ceiling price pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section.

(2) You may not sell a soft drink priced under this paragraph after August 1, 1952, unless and until you place in the mail a registered letter, addressed to the Soft Drink Section, Grocery Products Branch, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C., containing the following information:

(i) Your ceiling price per case (adjusted pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section) for the old bottle size.

(ii) The total direct material cost per case of the old bottle size.

(iii) The total direct labor cost per case of the old bottle size.

(iv) The total direct material cost per case of the bottle size you are pricing.

(v) The total direct labor cost per case of the bottle size you are pricing.

(vi) Your ceiling price per case for the bottle size you are pricing.

(c) You may, if you wish, simultaneously sell any flavor of soft drink in a bottle size priced under paragraph (a) of this section and a bottle size priced under paragraph (b) of this section.

SEC. 4. Sales by retailers—(a) When retailer's ceiling prices were prior to July 28, 1951, 5¢ for a single bottle, 25¢ for 6 bottles, or $1 for a case of 24 bottles. (1) If you sell soft drinks at retail and your ceiling price prior to July 28, 1951, was five cents for a single bottle of 6 to 12 ounces, your ceiling price per such bottle is the price shown in the following Table I in column 2 on the line which states the increase after July 27, 1951, in your net invoice cost per case for that soft drink. Regardless of the amount of increase in your current net invoice cost, you may charge 6 cents for the sale of a single bottle of 6 to 12 ounces when your net invoice cost per case of 24 such bottles is 96 cents.

(2) If your ceiling price prior to July 28, 1951, was 25 cents for 6, 6 to 12 ounce bottles, your ceiling price for 6 such bottles is the price shown in column 3 of Table I on the line which lists the increase after July 27, 1951 in your net invoice cost per case for that soft drink.

(3) If your ceiling price prior to July 28, 1951, was $1.00 for 24, 6 to 12 ounce bottles, your ceiling price for 24 such bottles is the price shown in column 4 of Table I on the line which lists the increase after July 27, 1951, in your net invoice cost per case of that soft drink.

(4) If you manufacture soft drinks and sell them both at retail and to persons who buy them for resale and if your ceiling price at retail prior to July 28, 1951, was five cents for a single bottle of 6 to 12 ounces, 25 cents for 6 such bottles, or $1.00 for 24 such bottles, as the case may be, your ceiling price for each of these quantities of that soft drink shall be as computed pursuant to the subparagraphs (1), (2) or (3), of this paragraph whichever is applicable. For the purpose of this computation, the weighted average increase in your prices after July 27, 1951, which you charge your customers who purchase cases of 24 such bottles for resale shall be considered the "increase after July 27, 1951 in your current net invoice cost" as stated in the heading of column 1 of Table I and shall determine the appropriate line in column 1 which shows your retail ceiling price for each of the quantities mentioned. Regardless of the amount of increase in the current net invoice cost to your customers who purchase for resale, you may charge 6 cents for the retail sale of a single bottle of 6 to 12 ounces when the weighted average net invoice cost per case of 24 bottles of that soft drink to your customers who purchase for resale is 96 cents.

TABLE I

Increase after July 27, 1951, in your current net invoice cost per case of 24, 6 to 12 ounce bottles	Your retail ceiling prices are as follows:
	Per bottle of 6 to 12 ounces (when less than 6 bottles sold)	Per 6, 6 to 12 ounce bottles	Per 24, 6 to 12 ounce bottles

(b) When retailer's ceiling prices were prior to July 28, 1951, more than 5¢ for a single bottle, 25¢ for 6 bottles, or $1 for a case of 24 bottles. (1) If you sell soft drinks at retail and your ceiling price prior to July 28, 1951, was more than five cents for a single bottle of 6 to 12 ounces, the amount which you may increase your pre-July 28, 1951, ceiling price per bottle of 6 to 12 ounces is the amount shown in the following Table II in column 2 on the line which lists the increase after July 27, 1951, in your current net invoice cost per case.

(2) If your ceiling price prior to July 28, 1951, for sales of 6, 6 to 12 ounce bottles was more than 25 cents, the amount by which you may increase your pre-July 28, 1951 ceiling price per 6 such bottles is the amount shown in the column 3 of the following Table II on the line which lists the increase after July 27, 1951, in your current net invoice cost per case.

(3) If your ceiling price prior to July 28, 1951, per 24, 6 to 12 ounce bottles was more than $1.00, the amount by which you may increase your pre-July 28, 1951 ceiling prices per 24 such bottles is the amount shown in column 4 of the following Table II on the line which lists the increase after July 27, 1951, in your current net invoice cost per case.

(4) If you manufacture soft drinks and sell them both at retail and to persons who buy them for resale and if your ceiling price at retail prior to July 28, 1951, was more than five cents for a single bottle of 6 to 12 ounces, more than 25 cents for 6 such bottles, or more than $1.00 for 24 such bottles, as the case may be, the amount by which you may increase your pre-July 28, 1951, ceiling price for each of these quantities of that soft drink shall be as computed pursuant to the subparagraphs (1), (2), or (3) of this paragraph whichever is applicable. For the purpose of this computation, the weighted average increase in your prices after July 27, 1951, which you charge your customers who purchase cases of 24 such bottles for resale shall be considered the "increase after July 27, 1951, in your current net invoice cost" as stated in the heading of column 1 of Table II and shall determine the appropriate line in column 1 which shows your retail ceiling price for each of the quantities mentioned.

TABLE II

Increase after July 27, 1951, in your current net invoice cost per case of 24, 6 to 12 ounce bottles	Your retail ceiling prices prior to July 28, 1951, are increased by the following amounts:

(c) Sale of more than 6 and less than 24 bottles. Your ceiling price to one buyer at one time of 12 or 18, 6 to 12 ounce bottles, is your ceiling price for 6 bottles, multiplied by two or three, respectively. Your ceiling price for sales to one buyer at one time of other quantities between 6 and 24 bottles is your ceiling price for 6, 12, or 18 such bottles, respectively, plus your ceiling price for the number you are selling in excess of 6, 12, or 18 such bottles, respectively.

SEC. 5. Modification of proposed ceiling prices by Director of Price Stabilization. The Director of Price Stabilization may at any time disapprove or revise upward or downward ceiling prices reported or proposed under this supplementary regulation so as to bring them into line with the level of ceiling prices otherwise established by this regulation.

SEC. 6. Bottle deposit charges. (a) If you are a manufacturer of soft drinks in bottles of any size, you may increase your deposit charges to an amount equal to, but not more than, your average current replacement cost for the type of bottle involved. You may, however, round off to the nearest higher cent a fraction of one-half cent or more in any deposit charge increased under this section.

(b) If you are a seller of soft drinks and your supplier has, pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, increased his bottle deposit charge to you, you may increase your deposit charge to your purchasers in the same dollars-and-cents amount as your supplier has increased his charge to you.

SEC. 7. How to take account of taxes. If your ceiling price otherwise established under the General Ceiling Price Regulation includes any State or local excise, sales or other tax which attaches to soft drinks or to their individual sale, you may for purposes of determining whether you are entitled to one of the ceiling prices authorized under section 3 or 4 of this supplementary regulation, ignore the amount of the tax. You may, however, then re-add the amount of the tax to your new ceiling price if you are entitled to one. Whenever such a tax is decreased, you must from the effective date of the decrease, reduce your ceiling price by the amount of the decrease. The provisions of this section are in addition to those contained in section 20 of the General Ceiling Price Regulation.

SEC. 8. Sales by wagon retailers. If you sell soft drinks as a wagon retailer (see section 11, Definitions), your ceiling price per case of 24 bottles of the soft drink you sell and deliver to the homes of consumers will be the highest of the following prices:

(1) Your net invoice cost per case of the soft drink you sell plus 40 cents.

(2) Your ceiling price as determined under sections 3, 6, or 7 of the General Ceiling Price Regulation.

(3) Your ceiling price as determined under section 4 of this regulation.

SEC. 9. Application by retailers for adjustment. (a) If you sell soft drinks at retail; your supplier increased his price to retailers during the GCPR base period (December 19, 1950, through January 25, 1951); you paid that increased price during the GCPR base period and did not then increase your price for that soft drink for your sales at retail; and other competitive retailers who purchased from that supplier generally increased their prices for that soft drink prior to January 26, 1951, you may apply to the Soft Drink Section, Grocery Products Branch, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C., for permission to increase your ceiling price for that soft drink to the level of the ceiling prices of your competitors. You may not increase your ceiling price under this section until you receive the approval of the Office of Price Stabilization in writing. However, if you do not receive disapproval of your application or a request for further information from the Office of Price Stabilization within 30 days after sending by registered mail, return receipt requested, the information required by this section, you may assume that your application has been approved and may charge the increased ceiling price, unless and until you are advised otherwise or you are asked to furnish additional information. Your application must contain the following information:

(1) The name and address of your firm.

(2) The name and address of your supplier.

(3) The brand name, flavor, and bottle size of the soft drink for which you request an increased ceiling price.

(4) Your present ceiling price for that brand, flavor and bottle size of soft drink.

(5) The names and addresses of six other retailers who compete with you in the sale of that brand, flavor, and bottle size.

(6) Their and your prices for that soft drink during the GCPR base period (December 19, 1950, to January 25, 1951) and their current ceiling prices.

(7) The date during the GCPR base period on which your supplier raised his price for that brand, flavor and bottle size, his price before and after that increase, and his present price.

(8) Your proposed ceiling price for that brand, flavor, and bottle size of soft drink.

SEC. 10. Continued applicability of General Ceiling Price Regulation. All provisions of the General Ceiling Price Regulation, except as modified by this supplementary regulation, continue to apply to you even though you may be one of the sellers who are affected by this supplementary regulation.

SEC. 11. Definitions. (a) Soft drinks. (1) For purposes of this regulation, except sections 6, 7, 8, and 9 "soft drinks" means non-alcoholic beverages in bottles of 6 to 12 ounces, inclusive, whether flavored or unflavored, carbonated or uncarbonated. The term does not include, however, bottled water which is neither flavored nor carbonated, fresh milk drinks, or drinks consisting of fruit juices or vegetable juices where at least 85 percent by weight of the drink is fruit juice or vegetable juice or a mixture of both.

(2) For purposes of sections 6, 7, 8, and 9 of this regulation, "soft drinks" means soft drink as defined in the preceding paragraph (a), except that soft drinks in bottles of all sizes are included.

(b) Wagon retailer. A "wagon retailer" is a retailer whose sales are made to consumers at their homes from a truck. No retailer will be considered a wagon retailer for the purpose of this regulation unless at least 50 percent of his total dollar annual sales of all commodities consist of soft drinks or malt beverages or both.

Effective date. This revised regulation is effective July 2, 1952.

NOTE: The reporting requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

CPR 107—CEILING PRICES FOR PULPWOOD AND EXCELSIOR BOLTS PRODUCED IN MICHIGAN, MINNESOTA AND WISCONSIN

CORRECTIONS

Several typographical errors occurred in connection with the issuance of Amendment 1. Accordingly, the following corrections are made:

1. The first sentence in paragraph 6 of the Statement of Considerations is corrected by changing the section reference for the definition of a trader from 16 (a) (15) to 16 (a) (18) so that this sentence reads as follows:

The definitions of a dealer in section 16 (a) (4) and of a trader in section 16 (a) (18) are amended to eliminate present requirements which specify that they must sell and deliver at least 5,000 and 500 cords respectively of pulpwood and excelsior bolts to which they have title during each operating season.

2. Section 2 (a) (3) is corrected to read as follows:

(3) Pulpwood or excelsior bolts stored at railway landing by the seller at his option. When you deliver pulpwood or excelsior bolts by truck or other conveyance to a buyer at your expense at a railway landing and put it in storage there at your option instead of loading it directly onto railroad cars, you shall deduct a per cord amount sufficient to cover the buyer's estimated cost of subsequently loading this wood on railroad cars, but in no event shall you deduct an amount less than 50 cents per cord from the ceiling price set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 154]

CPR 154—CEILING PRICES FOR CHARCOAL SOLD IN THE VIRGIN ISLANDS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Ceiling Price Regulation 154 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This regulation establishes dollar and cent ceiling prices for charcoal sold in the Virgin Islands of the United States.

Charcoal is the most important domestic fuel in the Virgin Islands. It is extensively used by the low-income group for cooking and for heating irons for ironing laundry, because of its relatively low cost. The islands of St. Croix and St. John produce sufficient charcoal to satisfy their needs. The island of St. Thomas, which is a deficit center, receives the bulk of its supply of this fuel from the neighboring British island of Tortola.

The price of charcoal in the Virgin Islands is governed principally by current wage rates paid for agricultural labor. This is explained by the fact that labor normally engaged in the production of charcoal, at least on a part-time basis, is during the harvesting season, attracted to more lucrative employment in sugarcane cultivation and harvesting due to the higher wages paid for this work. Consultation with members of the industry and with representatives of the Virgin Islands Corporation has disclosed that, although wages for agricultural workers have changed little for several years past, an appreciable increase was granted workers engaged in sugarcane cultivation during the spring of 1951. As a consequence, charcoal burners have appealed for an upward revision in the base period price of this fuel in order to guarantee its continued supply. The principal expenses involved in producing charcoal are labor, repair and maintenance of kiln, costs of transportation and bagging of the commodity. Labor and transportation are the two largest items in the expense of producing and delivering the commodity.

Charcoal prices on the island of St. Thomas have also advanced. This is due in part to the dislocation of normal wharfage facilities occasioned by improvements to the St. Thomas waterfront. Boats now discharging charcoal are obliged to unload at an out-of-town wharf, which is a considerable distance from the former landing terminal. As a consequence, truckage of the commodity for delivery to consumers within the city has advanced. These rates vary from $0.10 to $0.25 per whole bag, depending upon the distance to be traversed, and under the provisions of Ceiling Price Regulation 9, these cost increases may be passed on to the consumer.

Because of increased labor costs and the marginal nature of the industry, which make absorption difficult, practically all producers in the Virgin Islands have indicated a reluctance to continue in the production of charcoal under ceiling prices established by the General Ceiling Price Regulation. This regulation provides relief by allowing charcoal burners a pass-through of increased labor and transportation costs. It is believed that this will encourage the free flow of charcoal, which is an essential cost-of-living commodity in this territory.

During the base period of the General Ceiling Price Regulation, charcoal prices in St. Croix were $1.40 per whole bag and $0.70 per half bag for the grinding season, which usually lasts from January to July. During the off season, prices were $1.30 per whole bag and $0.65 per half bag. It has been determined that an increase of $0.10 per whole bag and $0.05 per half bag is necessary in order to adapt ceiling prices and price differentials to recent costs and market conditions.

Retail ceilings for St. Croix recognize customary seasonal price differences. Prices per whole bag are 10 cents higher during the harvesting season than during the off season, and prices per half bag are 5 cents higher.

The undelivered ceiling prices for charcoal sold on the island of St. Thomas are the same as the ceiling prices established by the General Ceiling Price Regulation. The delivery ceiling prices have been established according to zones in order to reflect increased transportation costs.

Retail ceiling prices for St. John are the same as the ceiling prices established by the General Ceiling Price Regulation. This island has a simple economy with no major industries. Hence, the wage scale has been stable for several years.

The establishment of dollar and cent ceilings for charcoal will give guidance to the consuming public; will facilitate enforcement of the regulation; and will accord equal treatment to all types of sellers.

In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization, the ceiling prices established by this regulation are generally fair and equitable, and are necessary to effectuate the purpose of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

In the formulation of this regulation, there has been consultation with large segments of the industry, including trade association representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations. Every effort has been made to conform this regulation to existing business practices, cost practices or methods, and means or aids to distribution. Insofar as any provision of this regulation may operate to compel changes in the business practices or methods or means or aids to distribution, such provisions are found by the Director of Price Stabilization to be necessary to prevent circumvention or evasion of this regulation.

SECTION 1. What this regulation does. This regulation establishes retail dollar and cent ceiling prices for charcoal sold in the Virgin Islands of the United States.

SEC. 2. Geographical applicability. The provisions of this regulation shall apply only in the Virgin Islands of the United States.

SEC. 3. Ceiling prices. Retail ceiling prices for charcoal are established as follows, for the unit of measurement specified:

ISLAND OF ST. CROIX

Unit	Harvesting season		Nonharvesting season
	Not delivered	Delivered	Not delivered	Delivered
Bag (or barrel)	$1.40	$1.50	$1.30	$1.40
Half bag	.70	.75	.65	.70
5-gallon kerosene tin	.30	.30	.30	.30
"Klim" tin (5 pounds net)	.08	.08	.08	.08
"La Pura" oleomargarine tin	.07	.07	.07	.07
Heap

ISLAND OF ST. THOMAS

Unit	Not delivered	Delivered
		Zone 1	Zone 2	Zone 3
Bag (or barrel)	$1.40	$1.50	$1.55	$1.60
Half bag	.70	.75	.80	.85
5-gallon kerosene tin	.30	.30	.30	.30
"Klim" tin (5 pounds net)	.08	.08	.08	.08
"La Pura" oleomargarine tin	.07	.07	.07	.07
Heap

ISLAND OF ST. JOHN

Unit	Not delivered	Delivered
Bag (or barrel)	$1.30	$1.40
Half bag	.60	.70
5-gallon kerosene tin	.25	.25
"Klim" tin (5 pounds net)	.06	.06
"La Pura" oleomargarine tin	.07	.07
Heap

The ceiling price of a heap shall be computed by applying proportionately the ceiling price of a 5-gallon kerosene tin to the size of the heap. "Harvesting season" commonly known as the "crop" season, covers the period from the beginning to the end of the sugarcane cutting operations for the sugar factory. The harvesting season varies depending upon the ripeness of the cane and the readiness of the factory to grind the cane and manufacture raw sugar. For the purpose of this regulation, the beginning and end of the "harvesting season" shall be determined by order of the Director of Region XIV of the Office of Price Stabilization by publication in the Federal Register. The current "harvesting season" shall be deemed to have begun on January 15, 1952.

SEC. 4. Petitions for amendment. If you wish to have this regulation amended, you may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Price Procedural Regulation 1, Revision 2.

SEC. 5. Adjustable pricing. Nothing in this regulation shall be construed to prohibit any person making a contract or offer to sell a product covered by this regulation at (a) the ceiling price in effect at the time of delivery or (b) the lower of a fixed price or the ceiling price in effect at the time of delivery. No person, however, may deliver or agree to deliver such product at a price to be adjusted upward in accordance with any increase in a ceiling price after delivery.

SEC. 6. Posting. On and after the effective date of this regulation, you must post in your establishment in a place and manner clearly visible to and understandable by your customers, the ceiling prices established for charcoal by this regulation.

SEC. 7. Interpretations. If you want an official interpretation of this regulation, you should write to the Territorial Counsel of the Office of Price Stabilization office in the Virgin Islands. Any action taken by you in reliance upon and in conformity with a written official interpretation will constitute action in good faith pursuant to this regulation.

SEC. 8. Prohibitions. On and after the effective date of this regulation, regardless of any contract or other obligation, you shall not sell or deliver, and no person shall buy or receive in the course of trade or business, any charcoal covered by this regulation at prices higher than the ceiling prices fixed by this regulation, and no person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do anything prohibited in this section.

SEC. 9. Evasions. Any means or device which results in obtaining indirectly a higher price than is permitted by this regulation is a violation of this regulation. This prohibition includes, but is not limited to, means or devices making use of commissions, services, cross sales, transportation arrangements, premiums, discounts, special privileges, upgrading, tie-in agreements and trade understandings.

SEC. 10. Supplementary regulations. The Director of Price Stabilization may issue supplementary regulations modifying or supplementing this regulation as he deems appropriate.

SEC. 11. Deposit charges. The maximum deposit for a bag (container) that may be required of a purchaser at retail by a seller is ten cents ($0.10). This deposit charge is to be refunded by the seller upon the presentation of the same or a similar bag by the purchaser.

SEC. 12. Definitions. (a) "Charcoal" means the carbonaceous residue of wood subjected to smothering combustion.

(b) "Delivered" means the physical delivery of charcoal by, or at the expense of the seller, to a place different from the location of the seller's business establishment and to a place from which the purchaser customarily receives delivery.

(c) "Harvesting season" is defined in section 3.

(d) "Sale at retail" means a sale or selling to an ultimate consumer, including hospitals, religious, educational or charitable institutions, whether by a producer or non-producer of charcoal.

(e) "Units of measurement" means the following:

Container	U. S. dry quarts	Capacity
		Bushels	Number of kerosene tins
Bag (or barrel)	103.2	3.20	6.00
Half bag	51.6	1.60	3.00
Kerosene tin (5 liquid gallons)	17.2	.540	1.00
"Klim" powdered milk tin (5 pounds net)	3.4	.11	.20
"La Pura" oleomargarine tin (5 pounds net)	2.4	.08	.14

The dry measure of a 5-gallon kerosene tin is accurately defined. The specifications of other units are approximately proportionate. A "heap" varies in size as a fractional part of the capacity of a kerosene tin. The specifications of a "heap" may not be fixed exactly.

The term "5 liquid gallons" refers to the designated capacity of the container for kerosene.

The term "5 lbs net" refers to the capacity of the container designated for the product originally contained therein.

(f) "Zone" as used in section 3 of this regulation means the following specific part of the Island of St. Thomas: (1) Zone 1 includes the area from the West Indian Company Dock to Hospital Ground and all streets within King's Quarter; (2) Zone 2 includes the area from the United States Post Office westward to George Washington School; (3) Zone 3 includes the area from Altona to Bourne Field.

Effective date. This Ceiling Price Regulation 154 is effective July 8, 1952.

ELLIS ARNALL,
Director of Price Stabilization.

JULY 3, 1952.

Chapter VI—National Production Authority, Department of Commerce

[NPA Order M-43, as Amended July 3, 1952]

M-43—CONSTRUCTION MACHINERY: DISTRIBUTION

This amended order is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended. In the formulation of this amended order, there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations. However, consultation with representatives of all trades and industries affected, in advance of the issuance of this amended order, has been rendered impracticable by the fact that the order affects a substantial number of different trades and industries.

Section 5 is modified so as to change the limitation for acceptance of rated orders. A new section 6 is added limiting the types of rating which may be used to obtain construction machinery and providing a procedure whereby persons who cannot obtain construction machinery at the time needed without a rating may apply for authority to use a rating. Sections 6 through 12 are redesignated 7 through 13 respectively. Sections 9, 10, and 12, as redesignated, are changed to conform to comparable provisions in other NPA orders and regulations. List A is amended to bring it up to date. A new List B is added showing the claimant agencies and outlining their respective programs.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 13 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, Pub. Law 429, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply sec. 101, 64 Stat. 799, Pub. Law 429, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2071; sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.; sec. 2, E. O. 10200, Jan. 3, 1951, 16 F. R. 61; 3 CFR, 1951 Supp.; secs. 402, 405, E. O. 10281, Aug. 28, 1951, 16 F. R. 8789; 3 CFR, 1951 Supp.

SECTION 1. What this order does. This order applies particularly to producers of construction machinery and equipment, as hereinafter defined, and provides rules for placing, accepting, and scheduling rated orders for such machinery and equipment. The purpose of this order is to provide for equitable distribution of such rated orders among producers, in order to reduce to a minimum the disruption of normal distribution. This order affects NPA Reg. 2 in various respects as hereinafter set out.

SEC. 2. Definitions. As used in this order:

(a) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, and includes any agency of the United States Government or any other government.

(b) "Construction machinery" means any type of construction machinery and equipment as listed and described in List A of this order, and includes parts of such machinery or equipment.

(c) "Producer" means a person engaged in the business of manufacturing construction machinery for sale as such.

(d) "Claimant agency" is a Government agency or NPA division shown in List B of this order.

(e) "NPA" means the National Production Authority.

SEC. 3. Required delivery dates. A rated order for construction machinery must specify delivery on a particular date or during a particular month, which in no case may be earlier than required by the person placing the order. The producer shall schedule the order for delivery within the requested month as close to the requested delivery date as is practicable considering the need for maximum production.

SEC. 4. Rejection of rated orders. A producer need not accept a rated order which he receives less than 45 days prior to the first day of the month in which delivery is requested unless specifically directed to accept the order by NPA.

SEC. 5. Limitation for acceptance of rated orders. Unless specifically directed by NPA, no producer shall be required to accept rated orders for delivery in any one month for any one model of any type of construction machinery including parts, in excess of (a) 50 percent of his production schedule of that model for that month or (b) 50 percent of his average monthly shipments of that model during the 6-month period from January 1, 1950, through June 30, 1950, whichever is greater.

SEC. 6. Limitation on use of ratings. (a) On and after the effective date of this amended order, no person shall apply or extend a rating to obtain any item of construction machinery, except parts, unless the rating bears a program identification consisting of the letters A, B, C, or E, and one digit, or the program identification Z–1 or Z–2.

(b) Any person unable to obtain any item of construction machinery at the time he requires it and who is not authorized to use an A, B, C, E, or Z–2 rating for the purpose, may apply to NPA in accordance with this paragraph for the right to use a Z–1 rating. He shall apply to NPA through the appropriate claimant agency as shown in List B of this order or, if he is unable to determine the appropriate claimant agency, he may apply directly to NPA which will route the application to the appropriate claimant agency. Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, application shall be made on Form NPAF–138C. Applicants whose appropriate claimant agency is the Canadian Division of NPA shall file on Canadian Department of Defence Production Form 57–3. Applicants whose appropriate claimant agency is the Office of International Trade or the Mutual Security Agency shall file on Form IT–835. Each application shall state the amounts, makes, models, sizes, and values of the machinery required, the end use to which the machinery will be put, the name of the prospective supplier, and the justification showing why the use of a rating is in the public interest, or in the interest of the national defense, and what efforts, if any, have been made to obtain the machinery without a rating.

(c) No applicant shall, within 1 year of his acquisition of any construction machinery obtained pursuant to an application granted in accordance with this section, sell or otherwise dispose of that machinery without written approval of NPA or of the claimant agency through which application was made: Provided, however, That the provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to machinery acquired as the result of any application filed on Form IT–835.

(d) No producer of construction machinery shall treat as a rated order any order received by him after the effective date of this amendment for any item of construction machinery, except parts, unless it bears a rating permitted by this section.

SEC. 7. Effect of this order on NPA Reg. 2. To the extent that the provisions of this order, and particularly the provisions of sections 4 and 5 hereof, are in conflict with the provisions of NPA Reg. 2, the provisions of this order shall prevail. Otherwise, the provisions of NPA Reg. 2 shall continue to apply to the construction machinery industry.

SEC. 8. NPA assistance in placing rated orders. Any person who is unable to place a rated order for construction machinery due to the limitations imposed by section 5 of this order should apply to NPA, Ref.: M–43, specifying the producers who refused to accept the order. NPA will arrange to assist him in locating sources of supply.

SEC. 9. Scheduled programs. NPA may from time to time approve scheduled programs calling for the production and delivery of one or more types of construction machinery over specified periods of time. Upon approval of any such program, a supplement or supplements to this order will be issued, describing the program and specifying the manner in which it shall be carried out by persons affected thereby.

SEC. 10. Request for adjustment or exception. Any person affected by any provision of this order may file a request for adjustment or exception upon the ground that such provision works an undue or exceptional hardship upon him not suffered generally by others in the same trade or industry, or that its enforcement against him would not be in the interest of the national defense or in the public interest. In examining requests for adjustment or exception claiming that the public interest is prejudiced by the application of any provision of this order, consideration will be given to the requirements of the public health and safety, civilian defense, and dislocation of labor and resulting unemployment that would impair the defense program. Each request shall be in writing, by letter in triplicate, and shall set forth all pertinent facts, the nature of the relief sought, and the justification therefor.

SEC. 11. Records and reports. (a) Each person participating in any transaction covered by this order shall make and preserve, for at least 3 years thereafter, accurate and complete records of receipts, deliveries, inventories, production, and use, in sufficient detail to permit the determination, after audit, whether each transaction complies with the provisions of this order. This order does not specify any particular accounting method and does not require alteration of the system of records customarily used, provided such records supply an adequate basis for audit. Records may be retained in the form of microfilm or other photographic copies instead of the originals by those persons who, at the time such microfilm or other photographic records are made, maintain such copies of records in the regular and usual course of business.

(b) All records required by this order shall be made available for inspection and audit by duly authorized representatives of the National Production Authority, at the usual place of business where maintained.

(c) Persons subject to this order shall make such records and submit such reports to the National Production Authority as it shall require, subject to the terms of the Federal Reports Act of 1942 (5 U. S. C. 139–139F).

SEC. 12. Communications. All communications concerning this order shall be addressed to the National Production Authority, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: NPA Order M–43.

SEC. 13. Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or any other order or regulation of NPA, or who wilfully furnishes false information or conceals any material fact in the course of operation under this order, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, administrative action may be taken against any such person to suspend his privilege of making or receiving further deliveries of materials or using facilities under priority or allocation control and to deprive him of further priorities assistance.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This order as amended shall take effect July 3, 1952.

[NPA Order M–1, as Amended July 3, 1952]

M–1—IRON AND STEEL

This order, as amended, is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended. In the formulation of this order as originally issued and in the formulation of certain of its amendments, there was consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and consideration was given to their recommendations. In the formulation of this order as amended July 3, 1952, consultation with industry representatives has not been practicable.

This order, as hereby amended, affects NPA Order M–1, dated February 1, 1952, as follows:

Various sections of the order are amended to delete the word "controlled" from the phrase "controlled steel mill products," where appropriate, in order to conform the language of these sections to Table I; a new definition (c) is added to section 2; a new paragraph (b) is added to section 3; paragraph (e) of section 8 is deleted; Table I is amended; and other editorial changes are made throughout the order to conform the language to Table I as herein amended.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 17 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, Pub. Law 429, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply sec. 101, 64 Stat. 799, Pub. Law 429, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2071; sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.; sec. 2, E. O. 10200, Jan. 3, 1951, 16 F. R. 61, 3 CFR, 1951 Supp.; secs. 402, 405, E. O. 10281, Aug. 28, 1951, 16 F. R. 8789; 3 CFR, 1951 Supp.

SECTION 1. What this order does. This order requires producers of steel mill products to file monthly data and suggestions as to future production. It requires authorization of production by the National Production Authority, and contemplates such authorization of production for shipments for further conversion, but makes provision for such shipments pending issuance of allocation directives for further conversion. It requires separate reports to be filed in connection with the production of steel castings (which are a controlled material). It contains certain provisions with respect to the acceptance of orders by producers and permits producers to deliver controlled steel mill products to other producers for resale without further conversion. It also provides for lead times and minimum orders.

SEC. 2. Definitions. As used in this order: (a) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, and includes any agency of the United States Government or any other government.

(b) "Products" means those iron or steel products listed under column A of Table I of this order. This term includes clad and coated products when clad or coated by a producer.

(c) "Steel mill products" means those steel products listed under parts A–I and A–II of Table I of this order.

(d) "Controlled steel mill products" means those steel products listed under part A–I of Table I of this order and which are listed in Schedule I of CMP Regulation No. 1. The term as used in this order does not include steel castings.

(e) "Producer" means a person who produces one or more products, as defined in paragraph (b) of this section. This term shall not include further converters, as defined in paragraph (n) of this section, located in the Dominion of Canada or any province thereof.

(f) "Carbon steel (including wrought iron)" means any steel customarily so classified and also includes: (1) All grades of electrical sheet and strip; (2) low-alloy, high-strength steels; and (3) clad and coated carbon steels not included with alloy steels, e. g., galvanized, tin, terne, copper (excluding copper wire mill products) or aluminum clad and/or coated carbon steels. "Low-alloy, high-strength steels" means only the proprietary grades promoted and sold for this purpose, and Navy high-tensile steel grade HT Specification Mil–S–16113 (Ships).

(g) "Alloy steel" means steel containing 50 percent or more of iron or steel and any one or more of the following elements in the following amounts: Manganese, maximum of range in excess of 1.65 percent; silicon, maximum of range in excess of 0.60 percent (excepting electrical sheet and strip); copper, maximum of range in excess of 0.60 percent; aluminum, boron, chromium, cobalt, columbium, molybdenum, nickel, tantalum, titanium, tungsten, vanadium, zirconium, or any other alloying elements in any amount specified or known to have been added to obtain a desired alloying effect. Clad steels which have an alloy-steel base or carbon steel for which nickel and/or chromium is contained in the coating or cladding material (e. g., inconel, monel, or stainless) are alloy steels.

(h) "Stainless steel" means heat- and corrosion-resisting steel containing 50 percent or more of iron or steel and 10 percent or more of chromium whether with or without nickel, molybdenum, or other elements.

(i) "Non-nickel-bearing stainless steel" means a stainless steel containing less than one percent of nickel.

(j) "Steel castings" means any steel, except ingots, which retains its shape by having the molten metal poured into a mold.

(k) "Stainless steel castings" means any steel casting which is heat-, corrosion-, or abrasion-resistant, containing 50 percent or more of iron and 8 percent or more of chromium with or without nickel, molybdenum, or other alloying elements.

(l) "Production directive" means a directive issued by NPA to a producer approving, or authorizing, the production by him of the tonnages of products mentioned therein.

(m) "Suggested production directive," as applied to steel mill products in Form NPAF–100, means the tonnages of steel mill products suggested to be shipped commencing with a given month, a statement of which is contained in column (n) of Form NPAF–100.

(n) "Further conversion" means the further processing of one steel mill product into another steel mill product for resale. This term does not include conversion steel handled pursuant to Direction 8 of CMP Regulation No. 1.

(o) "Further converter" means a producer who receives a steel mill product from a producer supplier for further conversion and who, by further processing, converts such steel mill product into another steel mill product for resale. This term shall include any further converter domiciled in, or incorporated under the laws of, the Dominion of Canada or any province thereof.

(p) "Producer supplier" means a producer of a steel mill product who ships the same to a further converter for further conversion.

(q) "Base period" means the period commencing January 1, 1950, and ending September 30, 1950.

(r) "Base tonnage" means the average monthly shipments of any one steel mill product made by any one producer supplier during the base period to any one further converter customer.

(s) "NPA" means the National Production Authority.

SEC. 3. Authorized production. (a) Producers shall produce controlled steel mill products for shipment only in accordance with (1) an NPA production directive, or (2) an authorized production schedule on an approved Form CMP–4B application.

(b) (1) Each producer shall comply with production directives or further converter allocation directives as originally issued, or as from time to time amended by NPA.

(2) In any case where a producer is of the opinion that the filling of an order which he is required to accept pursuant to this order would substantially reduce his over-all production owing to the large or small size of the order, unusual specifications, or otherwise, he shall notify the Iron and Steel Division setting forth the pertinent facts. NPA may direct that the order be placed with another producer or take other appropriate action.

(3) In any case where NPA determines that the filling of an order, or particular classes of orders, accepted by a producer for shipment in a specific month, would substantially interfere with that producer's maximum utilization of his production facilities to meet required defense and defense-supporting orders, NPA may direct that any such order, or classes of orders, be deferred, and further direct, if the customer and producer consent, that any such order or classes of orders be placed with one or more other producers.

SEC. 4. How producers apply for a production directive or a production schedule. (a) Not later than the fifteenth day of each calendar month, each producer of a steel mill product (except those producers specifically instructed by NPA to file Form CMP–4B applications) is hereby required to file with NPA a Steel Producer's Monthly Production Directive Report on Form NPAF–100. NPA may make such changes, modifications, deletions, or additions in the tonnage specified by any suggested production directive heretofore or hereafter filed on Form NPAF–100 as in its discretion may seem necessary, advisable, or appropriate. February 1952 is the production month for reports on Form NPAF–100 filed by December 15, 1951. Each producer will receive a production directive from NPA on or before the fifth day of the month preceding the production month.

(b) Certain producers of steel mill products, whose principal business is other than that of a steel mill, may be instructed by NPA to apply for steel, to be used for further conversion, on a Form CMP–4B, instead of on a Form NPAF–100. In any such case NPA will issue an authorized production schedule and a related allotment bearing the prefix symbol "FC," based on such Form CMP–4B. A producer who receives an allotment on Form CMP–4B shall not be considered to be a further converter for the purposes of sections 5 and 6 of this order.

(c) Not later than the fifteenth day of each calendar month, each producer of a steel mill product is hereby also required to file with NPA a Steel Producer's Monthly Report of Shipments and Past Due Orders on Form NPAF–17 in the manner prescribed in that form.

SEC. 5. Applications by further converters. Any further converter who has heretofore filed Form NPAF–100, and who continues to file that form by the fifteenth day of each calendar month, will be deemed to have filed an application with NPA for an allocation of steel mill products required by him for further conversion. NPA may make such changes, modifications, or deletions in the tonnage applied for by such further converter as in its discretion may seem necessary, advisable, or appropriate. Upon completion of the review of the further converter's application, NPA may transmit a further converter allocation directive by mail or telegram to the producer supplier of the steel mill products applied for and transmit a copy thereof to the further converter. The further converter allocation directive will require a producer supplier to make shipment to the further converter of the steel mill products applied for and approved by NPA. Any producer supplier who receives a further converter allocation directive requiring him to allocate tonnage to any one or more further converters shall make allocations pursuant to such further converter allocation directive and shall cease to make shipments to such further converter pursuant to section 6 of this order. Any producer supplier who fails to receive a further converter allocation directive requiring him to allocate tonnage to any one or more further converter customers by the tenth day of the month preceding the production month shall continue to make shipments to such further converter customers under section 6 of this order. When allocations are made to all of his further converter customers by a producer supplier pursuant to further converter allocation directives, section 6 of this order will be no longer applicable to such producer supplier.

SEC. 6. Shipments to further converters. (a) Each producer supplier who is not subject to the provisions of section 5 of this order is hereby required to accept purchase orders from his further converter customers for shipments of steel mill products to the extent provided in this section. Each producer supplier must accept purchase orders calling for shipments in any one month of any one or more of the steel mill products, which were shipped by him to each further converter customer during the base period, up to a minimum of not less than:

(1) 100 percent of the base tonnage of steel mill products required for the production of cold-finished carbon steel bars;

(2) 90 percent of the base tonnage of steel mill products required for the production of each of the other carbon steel mill products (except carbon plates for line pipe);

(3) 85 percent of the base tonnage of steel mill products required for the production of stainless tubing (of which percentage a minimum of 80 percent shall be in the nickel grades, irrespective of the percentage of nickel grades of such tubing shipped during the base period);

(4) 85 percent of the base tonnage of steel mill products required for the production of each other stainless product (of which percentage a minimum of 15 percent shall be in the nickel grades, irrespective of the percentage of nickel grades of such products shipped during the base period);

(5) 100 percent of the base tonnage of steel mill products required for the production of alloy cold-drawn bars (of which percentage a minimum of 25 percent shall be in the nickel grades, irrespective of the percentage of nickel grades of cold-drawn bars shipped during the base period); and

(6) 100 percent of the base tonnage of steel mill products required for the production of each other alloy product (of which percentage a minimum of 20 percent shall be in the nickel grades, irrespective of the percentage of nickel grades of such products shipped during the base period).

(b) All orders placed by a further converter with a producer supplier must be for substantially the same product as was supplied to each further converter customer during the base period, except for minor variations in size and design. In determining the amount of the monthly allotments, adjustments may be made subject to NPA approval by a producer supplier, with the consent of the further converter customer involved, to provide for any abnormal situations which affect any products

SEC. 7. Steel castings. (a) Not later than the tenth day of each calendar month, each producer of steel castings is hereby required to file with NPA a report on Form NPAF–118 in the manner prescribed in that form.

(b) Not later than the fifth day of each calendar month, each producer of armor castings is hereby also required to file with NPA a report of Shipments of Armor Castings on Form NPAF–141.

SEC. 8. Acceptance or rejection of orders by producers. (a) Each producer shall accept only the following classes of purchase orders for controlled steel mill products (including steel mill products for rerolling or redrawing purposes) and steel castings:

1. Orders pursuant to NPA directives;
2. Steel distributor orders under or in accordance with the provisions of NPA Order M–6A;
3. Further converter orders in accordance with the provisions of this order; and
4. Authorized controlled material orders.

Each producer shall accept the purchase orders mentioned in the preceding sentence for each product until his order books are filled for that product for a particular month, and pursuant to and in accordance with appropriate NPA orders or regulations. However, with respect to authorized controlled material orders, each producer shall have the option (subject to the provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph) of determining which authorized controlled material orders or portions thereof he will accept and schedule for shipment without regard to dates of receipt of such orders: Provided, however, That no producer shall reject any authorized controlled material orders bearing allotment symbol A, B, C, or E, and a digit, or Z–2, unless his order books for a particular product are filled for that product for a particular month.

(1) Within the 15-day period immediately preceding the expiration of lead times, a producer shall accept and schedule for production all authorized controlled material orders offered to him until his order books for a particular product are filled for that product. During such 15-day period such orders shall be scheduled for production with precedence given to the orders received first.

(2) Each producer shall, within applicable lead times, accept orders for shipment of each controlled steel mill product in any month until such orders, together with all authorized controlled material orders already on hand for shipment during such month and all orders carried over from preceding months, plus (i) such orders as he has been directed by the NPA to ship, (ii) tonnages set aside for shipment to warehouses, and (iii) tonnages set aside for shipment to further converters, total not less than 110 percent nor more than 115 percent of the tonnage of such product to be produced pursuant to his production directive. When a producer has complied with the provisions of this paragraph, his books shall be deemed filled for a particular month for the product involved. Each producer shall promptly notify NPA, Iron and Steel Division, by telegram if, at the expiration of lead times, he has not received and accepted orders for at least 110 percent of his authorized production of any controlled steel mill product. Such notification shall include the amount of tonnage open for each such product.

(b) Each producer shall, after receipt of purchase orders tendered to him, promptly accept or reject all such orders. Receipt of an order shall not be deemed to have occurred until the order is received at the place where the steel producer usually processes such order. Upon such acceptance or rejection, he shall immediately notify, in writing or by telegram, the person who tendered the order of such acceptance or rejection. For the purpose of the first sentence of this paragraph, the word "promptly" shall be deemed to mean as quickly as possible, but in no event later than 13 consecutive calendar days after receipt, unless circumstances beyond the control of the steel producer shall render it impracticable to give notice as aforesaid, in which event the notice shall be given as quickly as possible thereafter. This paragraph is intended to give those persons whose orders have been rejected an opportunity to place their orders with other producers or distributors.

(c) Each producer shall open his order books for the acceptance of purchase orders for controlled steel mill products and steel castings for each calendar quarter not later than the number of days prior to the first day of the quarter as shown in the following schedule:

For products with a lead time of (days) (see Table I of this order):	Books opened prior to first day of quarter, not later than (days)
60	105
75	120
90	135
105	150
120	165

(d) A producer may open his order books for the purpose of accepting purchase orders for any calendar quarter as long in advance of such quarter as he may choose, but after his order books are opened he shall accept orders as provided for in this section.

SEC. 9. NPA assistance in placing orders. Any person who is unable to place an authorized controlled material order due to the provisions of section 8 of this order should apply to NPA on Form NPAF–148. NPA will arrange to assist him in locating other sources of supply.

SEC. 10. Lead times. A producer of products, as defined in section 2 (b) of this order shall not be required to accept an authorized controlled material order for controlled steel mill products or steel castings or a DO rated order for forgings or iron products which is not received by him prior to the expiration of the lead time set out under column B of Table I of this order opposite each such product. The lead time for any product is the number of days in advance of the first day of the month of shipment prior to which such purchase order must be placed with a producer.

SEC. 11. Minimum orders. No producer shall be required to accept a purchase order for a smaller amount of any item of a product for shipment at any one time to any one destination than the amount indicated in column C of Table I of this order opposite each such product.

SEC. 12. Producer's shipments to other producers. (a) A producer may ship a controlled steel mill product to another producer for resale provided such product is sold by the producer to whom it is shipped in the form and shape received, and without being further converted or processed.

(b) Any delivery order placed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section shall bear the symbol X–5 and shall contain a certification in the following form:

X–5—Certified under NPA Order M–1

This certification shall be signed as provided in section 8 of NPA Reg. 2 and shall constitute a representation to the producer and to NPA that the person placing the order is duly authorized to place the order under the provisions of this section and to obtain the product covered thereby.

(c) A producer with whom an X–5 order is placed may reject the same, but shall not discriminate between regular customers in so doing. Such orders shall not constitute authorized controlled material orders unless and until accepted by the producer, but if accepted by him such orders are hereby specifically designated as authorized controlled material orders pursuant to section 2 (q) of CMP Regulation No. 1.

(d) The resale of controlled steel mill products purchased pursuant to this section shall be subject to all applicable NPA regulations and orders.

SEC. 13. Relation to other NPA orders and regulations. (a) All provisions of any NPA regulation or order are superseded to the extent that they are inconsistent with this order, but in all other respects the provisions of such regulations and orders shall remain in full force and effect.

(b) Products covered by this order are subject to the inventory provisions of CMP Regulation No. 2 in the case of controlled materials, and of NPA Reg. 1 for other products.

SEC. 14. Request for adjustment or exception. Any person affected by any provision of this order may file a request for adjustment or exception upon the ground that his business operation was commenced during or after the base period, that any provision otherwise works an undue or exceptional hardship upon him not suffered generally by others in the same trade or industry, or that its enforcement against him would not be in the interest of the national defense or in the public interest. In examining requests for adjustment or exception claiming that the public interest is prejudiced by the application of any provision of this order, consideration will be given to the requirements of the public health and safety, civilian defense, and dislocation of labor and resulting unemployment that would impair the defense program. Each request shall be in writing, by letter in triplicate, and shall set forth all pertinent facts, the nature of the relief sought, and the justification therefor.

SEC. 15. Records and reports. (a) Each person participating in any transaction covered by this order shall make and preserve, for at least 3 years thereafter, accurate and complete records of receipts, deliveries, inventories, production, and use, in sufficient detail to permit the determination, after audit, whether each transaction complies with the provisions of this order. This order does not specify any particular accounting method and does not require alteration of the system of records customarily used, provided such records supply an adequate basis for audit. Records may be retained in the form of microfilm or other photographic copies instead of the originals by those persons who, at the time such microfilm or other photographic records are made, maintain such copies of records in the regular and usual course of business.

(b) All records required by this order shall be made available for inspection and audit by duly authorized representatives of the National Production Authority, at the usual place of business where maintained.

(c) Persons subject to this order shall make such records and submit such reports as are required by the provisions of this order, and such other reports, to the National Production Authority as it shall require, subject to the terms of the Federal Reports Act of 1942 (5 U. S. C. 139–139F).

SEC. 16. Communications. All communications concerning this order shall be addressed to the National Production Authority, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: NPA Order M–1.

SEC. 17. Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or any other order or regulation of NPA, or who wilfully furnishes false information or conceals any material fact in the course of operation under this order, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, administrative action may be taken against any such person to suspend his privilege of making or receiving further deliveries of materials or using facilities under priority or allocation control and to deprive him of further priorities assistance.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This order shall take effect July 3, 1952.

NATIONAL PRODUCTION AUTHORITY,
By JOHN B. OLVERSON,
Recording Secretary.

Barbed and twisted wire	45	----	----	----	5 net tons [13]
Wire fence, woven and welded (farm and poultry)	45	----	----	----	5 net tons [13]
Bale ties	45	----	----	----	5 net tons [13]
Coiled automatic baler wire	45	----	----	----	5 net tons [13]

[1] All stainless steel is by direct negotiation.
[2] Does not include non-nickel-bearing stainless steel.
[3] If annealed or heat-treated, add an additional 15 days.
[4] By negotiation between mill and its customer. If no acceptable arrangements are worked out, NPA should be notified.
[5] Round bars up to and including 3 inches, and squares, hexagons, half rounds, ovals, etc., of approximately equivalent section area—5 net tons. Round and square bars over 3 inches to, but not including, 5 inches—15 net tons. Bar size shapes (angles, tees, channels, and zees under 3 inches)—2 net tons.
[6] For electrical sheet and strip, use this table:

Grade	Lead time	Definition
Low	45	AISI M50, M43, M36.
Medium	45	AISI M27, M22, M19.
High	60	AISI M17, M15, M14 and oriented.

[7] Applies to special rolled shapes, including angles and channels.
[8] For operations commencing with Jan. 1, 1953, refers only to pipe, tubing, not exceeding 36" O. D.
[9] Published carload minimum (mixed sizes and grades).
[10] For welded tubing, 75 days.
[11] By negotiation, excepting seamless cold-drawn, for which use this table (O. D. in inches):

Up to ¾ inclusive	1,000 feet.
Over ¾ to 1¼ inclusive	800 feet.
Over 1¼ to 3 inclusive	600 feet.
Over 3 to 6 inclusive	400 feet.
Over 6	250 feet.

[12] Low carbon—1 net ton.
High carbon (0.40 carbon and higher):

Under 0.021 inch	500 pounds.
From 0.021 inch to 0.0475 inch	1,000 pounds.
0.0475 inch and heavier	1 net ton.

[13] Quantity refers to any assortment of wire merchant trade products.

[NPA Order M-83 as Amended July 3, 1952]

M-83—MECHANICAL, HYDRAULIC, AIR, AND ELECTRICALLY OPERATED JACKS

This amended order is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the authority of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended. In the formulation of this amended order, there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations.

NPA Order M-83 of August 31, 1951 (Effective Oct. 1, 1951), is affected by these amendments by rephrasing the records and reports provision, the requests for adjustment or exception provision, and the violations provision to conform to corresponding provisions in more recent NPA orders and regulations, and by revising Schedules A and B. As amended, NPA Order M-83 reads as follows:

Sec.
1. What this order does.
2. Definitions.
3. Standardization and simplification.
4. Request for adjustment or exception.
5. Records and reports.
6. Communications.
7. Violations.

O. 10281, Aug. 28, 1951, 16 F. R. 8789; 3 CFR, 1951 Supp.

SECTION 1. What this order does. The purpose of this order is to conserve by standardization and simplification the use of controlled materials, including carbon and alloy steel in such primary shapes and forms as cold-rolled bars, plates, tubing, and castings, required for the national defense. It applies particularly to producers of mechanical, hydraulic, air, and electrically operated jacks. The order prohibits the manufacture or assembly of all jacks not specifically listed in either one of the two annexed schedules, and it requires that certain of the jacks so listed conform to stated specifications and other standards. The limitations contained in the order do not apply to the manufacture of repair parts.

SEC. 2. Definitions. As used in this order:

(a) "Producer" means any person engaged in the manufacture or assembly of mechanical, hydraulic, air, or electrically operated jacks.

(b) "Jack" means any lifting, supporting, pulling, pushing, or bending device listed in Schedules A and B of this order, or any other device commonly known in the trade as a jack.

(c) "Capacity" means load-raising ability of the jacks, measured at the head or cap, through the entire working range from minimum to maximum height. This definition does not apply to wheel-type service or shop jacks or transmission jacks.

(d) "Defense agency" means the Department of Defense, the Atomic Energy Commission, or the United States Coast Guard of the United States Government.

(e) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, and includes any agency of the United States or any other government.

(f) "NPA" means the National Production Authority.

SEC. 3. Standardization and simplification. (a) After September 30, 1951, no producer shall manufacture or assemble any jack not designated or described in Schedules A or B of this order.

(b) No producer shall manufacture or assemble any jack designated in Schedule A after September 30, 1951, unless it conforms to the specifications and other requirements set forth therein. The provisions of this paragraph do not apply to jacks listed in Schedule B.

(c) The provisions of this section shall not apply to jacks manufactured under contracts or orders for delivery to or for the account of a defense agency.

SEC. 4. Request for adjustment or exception. Any person affected by any provision of this order may file a request for adjustment or exception upon the ground that such provision works an undue or exceptional hardship upon him not suffered generally by others in the same trade or industry, or that its enforcement against him would not be in the interest of the national defense or in the public interest. In examining requests for adjustment or exception claiming that the public interest is prejudiced by the application of any provision of this order, consideration will be given to the requirements of the public health and safety, civilian defense, and dislocation of labor and resulting unemployment that would impair the defense program. Each request shall be in writing, by letter in triplicate, and shall set forth all pertinent facts, the nature of the relief sought, and the justification therefor.

SEC. 5. Records and reports. (a) Each person participating in any transaction covered by this order shall make and preserve, for at least 3 years thereafter, accurate and complete records of receipts, deliveries, inventories, production, and use, in sufficient detail to permit the determination, after audit, whether each transaction complies with the provisions of this order. This order does not specify any particular accounting method and does not require alteration of the system of records customarily used, provided such records supply an adequate basis for audit. Records may be retained in the form of microfilm or other photographic copies instead of the originals by those persons who, at the time such microfilm or other photographic records are made, maintain such copies of records in the regular and usual course of business.

(b) All records required by this order shall be made available for inspection and audit by duly authorized representatives of the National Production Authority, at the usual place of business where maintained.

(c) Persons subject to this order shall make such records and submit such reports to the National Production Authority as it shall require, subject to the terms of the Federal Reports Act of 1942 (5 U. S. C. 139–139F).

SEC. 6. Communications. All communications concerning this order shall be addressed to the National Production Authority, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: NPA Order M-83.

SEC. 7. Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or any other order or regulation of NPA, or who wilfully furnishes false information or conceals any material fact in the course of operation under this order, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, administrative action may be taken against any such person to suspend his privilege of making or receiving further deliveries of materials or using facilities under priority or allocation control and to deprive him of further priorities assistance.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This order as amended shall take effect July 3, 1952.

NATIONAL PRODUCTION AUTHORITY,
By JOHN B. OLVERSON,
Recording Secretary.

SCHEDULE B OF NPA ORDER M-83

The following types and models of mechanical and hydraulic jacks are not subject to standardization and simplification and may be manufactured or assembled without regard to Schedule A of this order.

Adapters and attachments.
Adjustable mine roof jacks.
Aircraft jacks, all types.
Anchor or hold down jacks.
Bolt pulling and/or forcing jacks.
Bumper jacks, hydraulic or mechanical.
Cable and wire extension jacks.
Farm utility jacks.
Independent pumps and rams.
Jacks: Designed as an integral part of eyecial military equipment, vehicle or vessel, or for specific uses in connection with a part of a product and included in the sale price of that product as original equipment.
Leveling jacks.
Mine post puller jacks.
Mine timber jacks.
Oil well circle jacks.
One end high lift jacks—extended heights not less than 32 inches.
Pipe bending jacks.
Pipe pulling and pushing jacks.
Pit jacks (6-ton or over), hydraulic or mechanical.
Planer or machinist jacks.
Puller jacks, hydraulic jenny.
Push-pull jacks.
Rail bending jacks.
Remote control hydraulic units.
Steamboat ratchets.
Toe lift jacks, hydraulic.
Transmission jacks.
Traversing bases only.
Screw casing jacks.
Scissor jacks.
Screw jacks, 1-ton and 1½-ton.

TITLE 36—PARKS, FORESTS, AND MEMORIALS

Chapter I—National Park Service, Department of the Interior

PART 1—GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

PART 2—GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS; NATIONAL RECREATIONAL AREAS

PART 23—LAKE MEAD RECREATIONAL AREA; OPERATION OF PRIVATELY OWNED BOATS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Basis and purposes. Section 3 of the act of August 25, 1916 (39 Stat. 535; 16 U. S. C., 1946 ed., sec. 3), establishing the National Park Service, authorizes and directs the Secretary of the Interior to make and publish such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary or proper for the use and management of the parks, monuments, and reservations under the jurisdiction of the National Park Service.

Under funds appropriated to it for that purpose pursuant to authority contained in the act of August 7, 1946 (60 Stat. 885; 16 U. S. C., sec. 17j-2), and subject to the terms of cooperative agreements with other agencies of the Department of the Interior, the National Park Service administers the recreational uses of the areas known and designated as the Lake Mead National Recreational Area, Arizona and Nevada; the Millerton Lake National Recreational Area, California; and the Coulee Dam National Recreational Area, Washington.

For the past several years the Lake Mead National Recreational Area has been administered under regulations which are applicable generally to the national parks and monuments. No regulations have been promulgated to govern the Millerton Lake and Coulee Dam National Recreational Areas. In view of the many and varied uses permitted in the national recreational areas, many of which are incompatible with the administration of the national parks and monuments, it is deemed essential that regulations especially adaptable to recreational areas should be issued.

The first seven amendments are designed to eliminate all references to Lake Mead National Recreational Area from the general rules and regulations of the National Park Service. The eighth amendment will revoke existing special boating regulations applicable to that area. The ninth amendment will add a new Part 2 to Chapter I of the National Park Service regulations, which will be applicable only to the three national recreational areas now administered by that Service.

By a notice of proposed rule making published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of May 19, 1951 (16 F. R. 4724), the public was invited to participate in the preparation of these amendments by submitting their views, data, or arguments, in writing, to the Director, National Park Service, Department of the Interior, Washington 25, D. C., within 30 days from the date of publication of the notice. In addition, meetings were held locally with members of sportsmen's associations and other interested persons and organizations to discuss the proposed regulations. After due consideration of all written and oral comments and suggestions received, the proposed regulations have been revised and it has been determined that they should be issued at this time as so revised. Accordingly, the following action is taken under the authority contained in section 3 of the act of August 25, 1916.

1. Section 1.0 General provisions is amended to delete the words "the Lake Mead Recreational Area."

2. Paragraph (e), § 1.1 Definitions is amended to delete the words "Lake Mead Recreational Area."

3. Section 1.4 Fishing is amended as follows:

a. Paragraph (a) is amended to delete the words "the Lake Mead Recreational Area."

b. Paragraph (m) is revoked.

c. Paragraph (n) is redesignated paragraph (m).

4. Paragraph (f), § 1.9 Protection of wildlife is revoked.

5. Section 1.27 Prospecting and mining is amended to delete the second sentence thereof reading as follows: "Mineral lands within the Lake Mead Recreational Area may, in the discretion of the Secretary, be opened to location, entry, and patent under the general mining laws, under the provisions of the act of April 23, 1932 (47 Stat. 136; 43 U. S. C., 1946 ed., sec. 154)."

6. Paragraph (a), § 1.36 Commercial automobiles and busses is amended to delete the words "Lake Mead Recreational Area (except the Kingman-Las Vegas Highway)."

7. Paragraph (a), § 1.61 Aircraft is amended as follows:

a. Subparagraph (5) Lake Mead Recreational Area, Arizona and Nevada is revoked.

b. Subparagraph (6) Katmai National Monument, Alaska is redesignated subparagraph (5).

(39 Stat. 535; 16 U. S. C. 3)

8. Part 23, Lake Mead Recreational Area; Operation of Privately Owned Boats, is revoked in its entirety.

9. Part 2, reading as follows, is added to Chapter I:

AUTHORITY: §§ 2.1 to 2.28 issued under 39 Stat. 535; 16 U. S. C. 3.

§ 2.1 General provisions. (a) The regulations in this part shall be applicable to the following National Recreational Areas:

(1) Lake Mead National Recreational Area, Arizona and Nevada, administered by the National Park Service, Department of the Interior, in cooperation with the Bureau of Reclamation and the Bureau of Indian Affairs, Department of the Interior, pursuant to a memorandum of agreement between the National Park Service and the Bureau of Reclamation, approved October 13, 1936, as amended by supplemental agreement between said two agencies, approved July 18, 1947, and as further detailed in a cooperative agreement between the National Park Service and the Bureau of Indian Affairs approved November 11, 1937.

(2) Millerton Lake National Recreational Area, California, administered by the National Park Service, Department of the Interior, in cooperation with the Bureau of Reclamation, Department of the Interior, as detailed in a memorandum of agreement between the two agencies, approved May 22, 1945.

(3) Coulee Dam National Recreational Area, Washington, administered by the National Park Service, Department of the Interior, in cooperation with the Bureau of Reclamation and the Bureau of Indian Affairs, Department of the Interior, as detailed in a memorandum of agreement among the three agencies, approved December 18, 1946.

(b) This part, however, shall not be applicable to any of the activities of the Bureau of Reclamation, its officers, employees, agents, or contractors in connection with the construction or operation and maintenance of the works of the respective reclamation projects directly associated with any of the areas mentioned in this section.

(c) This part shall not apply to or on any of the trust or restricted Indian Lands, either tribally or individually owned, within any of the above-described areas.

(d) Wherever in this part the Superintendent is authorized to prohibit or restrict certain actions by the public in an area designated by him, he shall inform the public of the prohibited or restricted action by posting official signs and shall indicate the limits of the restricted area on a map which shall be available for public inspection in the office of the Superintendent. The posting of official signs shall be accomplished by placing them conspicuously at appropriate intervals in such manner as to afford the public full notice of all restrictions and of the limits of restricted areas.

§ 2.2 Definitions. As used in the regulations in this part, unless otherwise indicated:

(a) The term "Secretary" means the Secretary of the Interior.

(b) The term "Director" means the Director of the National Park Service.

(c) The term "Regional Director" means the administrative officer in charge of a region of the National Park Service.

(d) The term "Superintendent" means the administrative officer in charge of a national recreational area to which the regulations in this part are applicable, or his authorized representative.

(e) The term "areas" means the national recreational areas to which the regulations in this part are applicable.

(f) (1) The term "Lake Mead National Recreational Area" means the property owned by the United States, including the water surface of Lake Mead and Lake Mohave, within that portion of the Boulder Canyon Project which is administered by the National Park Service, shown outlined in green on a map thereof (Drawing by Thomas 8-3-49, Division of Landscape Architecture, Region Three, National Park Service, Department of the Interior), a copy [1] of which shall be filed with the regulations in this part with the Division of the Federal Register, and a copy of which shall be kept in the office of the Superintendent for public inspection.

(2) The term "Millerton Lake National Recreational Area" means the property owned by the United States, including the water surface of Millerton Lake, within that portion of the Friant Division of the Central Valley Project which is administered by the National Park Service, shown outlined in green on a map thereof (Drawing No. F 1062B, dated April 3, 1942, Rev. 10-7-43 of Friant Division), a copy [1] of which shall be filed with the regulations in this part with the Division of the Federal Register, and a copy of which shall be kept in the office of the Superintendent for public inspection.

(3) The term "Coulee Dam National Recreational Area" means the property owned by the United States, including the water surface of Roosevelt Lake, within that portion of the Columbia Basin Project which is administered by the National Park Service, shown outlined in green on the set of maps comprising 4 sheets numbered RA-CD-7001, 2, 3, and 4, dated April 15, 1946, a copy [1] of which shall be filed with the regulations in this part with the Division of the Federal Register, and a copy of which shall be kept in the office of the Superintendent for public inspection. Nothing contained in this part, however, shall be construed as, in any way, conflicting with the paramount rights of the Indians of the Spokane and Colville Reservations to use for hunting, fishing, and boating purposes, the areas set aside by the Secretary of the Interior pursuant to the act of June 29, 1940 (54 Stat. 703), which areas are designated on the above-mentioned maps as the Spokane Indian Zone and the Colville Indian Zone, respectively.

[1] Filed as part of the original document.

(g) The term "commercial boat" shall include any barge, raft, canoe, rowboat, motorboat, motor vessel, or other craft kept or used for rental or for carrying passengers for hire or used in transporting movable property for a fee or profit, either as a direct charge to a second party, or as an incident to other services provided to the second party, or in connection with any business.

(h) The term "private boat" shall include any raft, canoe, rowboat, motorboat, motor vessel, or other craft which may be placed on or operated upon the waters of the areas for the private recreational use of the owner or operator, and for which no fee or other charge is made by any person, firm, or corporation in connection with the use thereof on the waters of the areas.

(i) The term "water-borne craft" shall include private and commercial boats as defined herein.

§ 2.3 Camping. (a) Camping is permitted in the areas except in parts where the Superintendent has posted conspicuous signs stating that they are closed to camping.

(b) The Superintendent may establish limitations on the time allowed for camping in any public camping ground, and upon the posting of such limitation no person shall camp for a period longer than that specified for the particular campground. Notice of such limitation shall be posted in a conspicuous place at the campground.

(c) Overnight camping is prohibited in picnic grounds.

§ 2.4 Picnicking. Picnicking is permitted in the areas. The Superintendent may, however, prohibit picnicking within designated portions of the areas and may establish reasonable limitations on the length of time any person or group of persons may use any picnicking facility when, in his judgment, such limitations are necessary for the accommodation of the visiting public.

§ 2.5 Hunting and trapping. (a) Hunting and trapping will be permitted in accordance with all applicable Federal, State, and local laws for the protection of wildlife, except in developed and/or concentrated public use areas designated by the Superintendent: Portions of the areas in which hunting and trapping are not permitted will be marked on the ground and designated on a map of the area which will be available for inspection in the office of the Superintendent.

(b) Millerton Lake National Recreational Area, in the interest of public safety, is closed to hunting.

§ 2.6 Fishing. Fishing is permitted within the areas in accordance with all applicable Federal, State, and local laws for the protection of fish and other aquatic life, except that in Lake Mead National Recreational Area fishing is prohibited in Black Canyon within limits posted by appropriate official signs or markers adjacent to Hoover Dam and within limits similarly posted adjacent to Davis Dam.

§ 2.7 Swimming and bathing. Swimming and bathing are permitted, except in waters designated by the Superintendent as waters in which such activities are prohibited in the interest of public health and safety.

§ 2.8 Firearms and explosives. The carrying of loaded firearms or explosives in developed and/or concentrated public use areas designated by the Superintendent is prohibited. In all other areas firearms or explosives shall not be used in a manner so as to endanger persons or property.

§ 2.9 Fires. (a) Due diligence shall be exercised in building and putting out fires to prevent damage to trees and vegetation and to prevent forest and grass fires. In areas provided with such facilities, the fireplaces constructed for the convenience of visitors must be used. The building of fires on any lands within the areas may be prohibited or limited by the Superintendent by the posting of adequate official signs when the hazard makes such action necessary.

(b) Permission to burn on any cleanup operation within the area must first be obtained, in writing, from the Superintendent, and in such cases as it is deemed advisable, such burning will be under Government supervision. All costs of suppression and all damages caused by reason of loss of control of such burning operations shall be paid by the person or persons to whom such permit has been granted.

§ 2.10 Public property; miscellaneous provisions. (a) The willful destruction, injury, defacement, or removal of public property is prohibited.

(b) The Superintendent may permit the collection or removal of natural objects.

(c) The Superintendent or other officer having authority to grant such authorization may, upon such terms and conditions as are deemed by him to be adequate to protect the interests of the United States, grant permits for the removal of sand, gravel, or building materials, and make reasonable charges therefor.

§ 2.11 Sanitation. (a) No garbage or rubbish of any kind shall be thrown or dumped in the waters of the areas or along the roads, in picnicking or camping sites, or on any other lands of the areas, but shall be burned or buried, or disposed of at points or places designated for the disposal thereof.

(b) Contamination of watersheds or of any water used for drinking purposes is prohibited.

(c) All comfort stations shall be used in a clean and sanitary manner.

(d) Saddle, pack, or draft animals shall not be kept in, or within 300 feet of any camp grounds.

(e) Toilets on water-borne craft must not be emptied in the waters of the areas when such craft are at dock or when within one mile of public ports or public beach areas.

§ 2.12 Disorderly conduct. (a) Persons who render themselves obnoxious by disorderly conduct, bad behavior, or indecent exposure shall be subject to the penalties prescribed by law for violation of this part and in addition thereto, or in lieu thereof, may be summarily removed from the areas by the Superintendent.

(b) No person who is under the influence of intoxicating liquors or narcotic drugs shall operate a water-borne craft, aircraft, or motor vehicle of any kind within the areas.

§ 2.13 Pets. Dogs, cats, and other pets must be under physical restrictive control at all times when in developed and/or concentrated public use areas designated by the Superintendent. Such pets shall not be permitted in public eating places or on swimming beaches at any time.

§ 2.14 Aircraft. (a) No person shall land aircraft on any water or land surface within the areas, other than at one of the following designated landing sites:

(1) Lake Mead National Recreational Area, Arizona and Nevada. (i) Boulder City Municipal Field located in Sections 8, 9, 16, and 17, Township 23 South, Range 64 East, Mount Diablo Meridian, Nevada.

(ii) The entire surface of Lake Mead, except that no aircraft shall be permitted to land or take off within 500 feet of public bathing beaches, boat docks, floats, piers, ramps, or water control structures.

(iii) Temple Bar landing strip located at approximate latitude 36 degrees north, approximate longitude 114 degrees 19 minutes west.

(iv) Pierce's Ferry landing strip located at approximate latitude 36 degrees 03 minutes north, approximate longitude 114 degrees 05 minutes west.

(v) Davis Dam landing strip located in Sections 30 and 31, Township 21 North, Range 21 West, Gila and Salt River Meridians, Arizona.

(vi) Entire surface of Lake Mohave, except that no aircraft shall be permitted to land or take off within 500 feet of public bathing beaches, boat docks, floats, piers, ramps, or water control structures or within 10 miles of Hoover Dam.

(vii) Searchlight Ferry landing strip, located at approximate latitude 35 degrees 27 minutes north, approximate longitude 114 degrees 30 minutes west.

(2) Coulee Dam National Recreational Area, Washington. The entire surface of Roosevelt Lake, except that no aircraft shall be permitted to land or take off within 500 feet of public bathing beaches, boat docks, floats, piers, ramps, or water control structures.

(b) The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to aircraft (1) engaged on official business of the Federal Government, (2) used in emergency rescue in accordance with the directions of the officer in charge of the area, or (3) forced to land due to unforeseeable circumstances beyond the control of the operator.

§ 2.15 Accidents. Accidents required to be reported by the applicable State statutes and regulations shall be reported to the Superintendent, or his field representative, by the person or persons involved in the accident.

§ 2.16 Grazing and agricultural use. The running at large, herding, driving across, or grazing of livestock of any kind on the Government lands in the areas, or the use of such lands for agricultural purposes, is prohibited, except where written authority therefor has been granted by the Superintendent or under a valid lease from the United States.

§ 2.17 Private and commercial uses. (a) No person, other than employees of the National Park Service, shall reside permanently in the areas, except in accordance with the provisions of a permit or other written agreement with the United States authorizing such use.

(b) No person, firm, or corporation, or their representatives, shall engage in or solicit any business in the areas, except in accordance with the provisions of a permit, contract, or other written agreement with the United States.

(c) No person, firm, or corporation shall erect, construct, or attempt to erect or construct a building, boat dock, road, trail, path, or other way, telephone line, telegraph line, power line, or other private or public utility, upon, across, over, through, or under any federally owned lands within the areas, except in accordance with the provisions of a valid permit, contract, or other written agreement with the United States.

§ 2.18 Advertisements. Private notices or advertisements shall not be posted, distributed, or displayed in the areas, except such as the Superintendent may deem necessary for the convenience and guidance of the public.

§ 2.19 Closing of area. The Superintendent, in his discretion, may close to public use any part of the areas during any period of emergency endangering life or property.

§ 2.20 Vehicles. (a) Subject to the limiting provisions of this section and such special regulations as may be issued to govern a particular area, motor vehicles, trailers, and other vehicles entering the areas shall be operated in accordance with the applicable State laws and regulations then current within the particular section of the area in which the vehicle is being operated.

(b) Drivers of all vehicles operated within the areas shall comply with the directions of all official traffic signs posted in an area.

(c) Load and weight limitations shall be those prescribed and posted from time to time by the Superintendent, and such limitations shall be complied with by the operators of all vehicles using the roads of the areas. Schedules showing load and weight limitations for the different roads within the areas may be seen at the office of the Superintendent and at ranger stations at entrances to the areas.

§ 2.21 Houseboats. No waterborne craft may be used for permanent living accommodations except under permit from the Superintendent.

§ 2.22 Boats, private. Operators of private boats on the waters of the areas may register such boats with the Superintendent and secure a registration number and certificate which will aid in the recovery of lost or stolen boats.

§ 2.23 Boats, commercial. No commercial boat shall be launched or docked at any point on the federally owned shorelands surrounding the waters of the areas or make use of any launching or docking facility within the areas, except as authorized by permit, contract, or other written agreement with the United States.

§ 2.24 Restricted waters. (a) Except to effect rescue or unless otherwise specifically authorized, no water-borne craft shall be operated within any waters zoned and marked as migratory bird rest waters or for related wildlife uses, including waters zoned and marked for fish culture purposes.

(b) No motorboat, motor vessel, or other motor-operated craft shall be permitted to approach within 200 feet of any designated beaches, except to effect rescue.

(c) No water-borne craft shall approach within 200 feet of any dam or other restricted engineering works within the areas, except to effect rescue: Provided, That in Lake Mead National Recreational Area no motorboat craft shall approach Hoover or Davis Dams closer than the limits posted by appropriate official signs or markers.

(d) The Superintendent, in his discretion, may exclude the operation of water-borne craft within any designated waters when such action is necessary to protect life and property. Such restricted areas shall be defined by booms or markers and shall be designated on a map of the restricted portions, copies of which shall be posted at all public docks for convenient inspection.

(e) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any boats operated for official use by any agency of the United States, or of the States in which the waters within a particular area are situated.

§ 2.25 Speed of water-borne craft. The speed of water-borne craft shall be restricted to speeds reasonable for the time, place, and surrounding conditions, i. e., no such craft shall be operated in a reckless or negligent manner so as to endanger the life, limb, or property of any person.

§ 2.26 Obstructions. Unless otherwise specifically authorized, no log boom, pier, fence, pile, anchorage, or other obstruction shall be installed in the waters of the areas without a permit therefor issued by the Superintendent designating the place and manner of its installation.

§ 2.27 Compliance with Federal laws and regulations. Nothing contained in the regulations in this part shall relieve any water-borne craft, the owner, or the operator thereof, from the obligation to comply with the applicable laws of the United States and the rules and regulations of the United States Coast Guard or other Federal agencies operative within the areas.

§ 2.28 Discrimination in furnishing public accommodations. The proprietor, owner, or operator and the employees of any hotel, inn, lodge, or other public accommodations within the areas are prohibited from (a) publicizing such facilities in any manner that would directly or inferentially reflect upon or question the acceptability of the patronage of any person or persons because of race, creed, color, or national origin; and (b) discriminating against any person or persons because of race, creed, color, or national origin by refusing to furnish such person or persons any accommodations, facilities, or privileges, offered to or enjoyed by the general public.

Issued this 27th day of June 1952.

Chapter I—Coast Guard, Department of the Treasury

Subchapter O—Regulations Applicable to Certain Vessels During Emergency

[CGFR 52-35]

PART 154—WAIVERS OF NAVIGATION AND VESSEL INSPECTION LAWS AND REGULATIONS[1]

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR VESSELS OPERATED BY PACIFIC MICRONESIAN LINES, INC.

Pursuant to the provisions of section 1 of Public Law 891, 81st Congress, approved December 27, 1950 (64 Stat. 1120), the Deputy Secretary of Defense by letters dated June 12 and June 24, 1952, requested a general waiver of all the navigation and vessel inspection laws administered by the United States Coast Guard, as well as the regulations issued thereunder and published in 33 CFR Chapter I or in this chapter to the extent necessary to permit the operation of certain vessels which are the property of the Department of the Interior and operated under contract by the Pacific Micronesian Lines, Inc., to furnish transportation in the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, as well as between the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands and all the ports of the United States, including the territories and possessions, and foreign ports.

The purpose of the following waiver order designated § 154.35, as well as 33 CFR 19.35, is to waive the navigation and vessel inspection laws and regulations issued pursuant thereto which are administered by the United States Coast Guard to the extent necessary to permit the operation of the U. S. S. "Chicot" (AKL 170), U. S. S. "Camano" (AKL 1), U. S. S. "Elba" (AKL 3), U. S. S. "Errol" (AKL 4), U. S. S. "Metomkin" (AKL 7), U. S. S. "Roque" (AKL 8), and U. S. S. "Torry" (AKL 11), as well as the Schooner "Frela" and the Schooner "Milleeta" or other vessels which may be used as substitutes for these vessels, of the Department of the Interior by the Pacific Micronesian Lines, Inc., to furnish transportation in the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, as well as between the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands and the United States, including its territories and possessions, and foreign ports until and including June 30, 1953, unless sooner terminated by proper authority. It is hereby found that compliance with the notice of proposed rule making, public rule making procedure thereon, and effective date requirements thereof of the Administrative Procedure Act is impracticable and contrary to the public interest.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Commandant, United States Coast Guard, by an order of the Acting Secretary of the Treasury, dated January 23, 1951, identified as CGFR 51-1, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER dated January 26, 1951 (16 F. R. 731), the following waiver order is promulgated and shall be in effect from July 1, 1952, to and including June 30, 1953, unless sooner terminated by proper authority:

§ 154.35 Department of the Interior vessels operated by the Pacific Micronesian Lines, Inc. Pursuant to the request of the Deputy Secretary of Defense, in letters dated June 12 and June 24, 1952, made under the provisions of section 1 of Public Law 891, 81st Congress (64 Stat. 1120), I hereby waive in the interest of national defense compliance with the provisions of the navigation and vessel inspection laws administered by the United States Coast Guard, as well as the regulations issued thereunder and published in 33 CFR Chapter I or in this chapter, to the extent necessary to permit the operation of the U. S. S. "Chicot" (AKL 170), U. S. S. "Camano" (AKL 1), U. S. S. "Elba" (AKL 3), U. S. S. "Errol" (AKL 4), U. S. S. "Metomkin" (AKL 7), U. S. S. "Roque" (AKL 8), and U. S. S. "Torry" (AKL 11), as well as the Schooner "Frela" and the Schooner "Milleeta" or other vessels which may be used as substitutes for such vessels, of the Department of the Interior and operated by the Pacific Micronesian Lines, Inc., in the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands or between the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands and the United States, including its territories and possessions, and foreign ports, and this waiver order shall be in effect from July 1, 1952, to and including June 30, 1953, unless sooner terminated by proper authority.

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

Subchapter B—Carriers by Motor Vehicle

PART 165a—CERTIFICATES AND PERMITS

MOTOR-CARRIER OPERATIONS INVOLVING TRAVERSAL STATES

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 5, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 30th day of June A. D. 1952.

It appearing, that on January 25, 1952, notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (17 F. R. 932) concerning adoption of interpretative rules relating to motor-carrier operations involving so-called "traversal states". The purpose of the proposed interpretative rules, as reflected by the referred-to notice, is to clarify the situation as relates to certificates and permits heretofore issued by this Commission to motor carriers authorizing operations over irregular routes which necessitate that the carriers, in performing their authorized service, pass through states other than those in which they are authorized to receive or discharge passengers or freight, and to establish a policy to effect uniformity in the future concerning such matter;

It further appearing, that by order of the Commission, Division 5, dated April 14, 1952, effective date postponed to July 1, 1952, the referred-to rules were adopted subject to that order's becoming effective and until the further order of the Commission;

And it further appearing, that written data, views, and arguments have been submitted to the Commission in favor of or against the proposed rules which warrant modification thereof, and adoption of such rules as modified having been found to be justified: It is ordered, That:

SUBPART A—MOTOR-CARRIER OPERATION INVOLVING TRAVERSAL STATES

Sec.
165a.1 Interpretation of outstanding certificates and permits.
165a.2 Policy to be observed in the future.
165a.3 Requirements to be met.

AUTHORITY: §§ 165a.1 to 165a.3 issued under 49 Stat. 546, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 304.

SUBPART A—MOTOR-CARRIER OPERATIONS INVOLVING TRAVERSAL STATES

§ 165a.1 Interpretation of outstanding certificates and permits. All certificates and permits heretofore issued to motor carriers authorizing operations over irregular routes which necessitate that the carriers, in performing their authorized services, pass through states other than those in which they are authorized to receive or discharge passengers or freight, are interpreted as follows:

(a) Where no "traversal states" are named. Carriers may operate through any state which affords a reasonably direct or logical route between the points authorized to be served.

(b) Where "traversal states" are named. Whether all or only a portion of such states are named, the carriers may operate not only through the "traversal states" named but also through any other state or states which afford a reasonably direct or logical route between the points authorized to be served, unless the language clearly and unmistakably shows that "traversal states" were named as a specific restriction or prohibition against operating in any state other than those specified.

§ 165a.2 Policy to be observed in the future. On and after the effective date of this part "traversal states" will not be named in a certificate or permit except when the record discloses that such should be done as a definite restriction and on a showing of public convenience and necessity, in the case of a common carrier, or consistency with the public interest and the national transportation policy, in the case of a contract carrier; otherwise, operations may be performed as indicated in § 165a.1 (a).

§ 165a.3 Requirements to be met. Before instituting any operations, pursuant to this part, through a state or states not named in its certificate or permit, the carrier shall (a) give notice in writing, accompanied by a copy of its operating authority, to the state regulatory body or bodies of such state or states, (b) designate a process agent for each such state, as required by section 221 (c) of the Interstate Commerce Act, and (c) comply with the provisions of Rule VIII of the Commission's insurance regulations regarding the filing of insurance by a company licensed to do business in each such state (49 CFR 174.8).

It is further ordered, That this order shall supersede the order entered herein on April 14, 1952, which is hereby vacated and set aside.

And it is further ordered, That notice of this order shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy thereof in the Office of the Secretary of the Commission, Washington, D. C., and by filing a copy thereof with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

By the Commission, Division 5.

PART 193—DRIVING OF MOTOR VEHICLES

QUALIFICATIONS AND MAXIMUM HOURS OF SERVICE OF EMPLOYEES OF MOTOR CARRIERS AND SAFETY OF OPERATION AND EQUIPMENT

In the matter of request for postponement of the effective date of order with respect to § 193.75.

Upon consideration of the record in the above-entitled proceedings, of the pendency in the U. S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan of a suit to set aside § 193.75 in the above docket and of a request of the Judge of the U. S. District Court for postponement of the effective date of the order with respect to § 193.75 for a period of 30 days:

It is ordered, That the order in the above-entitled proceeding entered on April 14, 1952, to become effective July 1, 1952, be modified so that the provisions of § 193.75 of the prescribed regulations shall not apply to the transportation in truckaway service of motor vehicles until August 1, 1952 (17 F. R. 4443).

Dated at Washington, D. C., this 1st day of July A. D. 1952.

By the Commission.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Production and Marketing Administration

[7 CFR Part 976]

HANDLING OF MILK IN FORT SMITH, ARKANSAS, MARKETING AREA

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND PROPOSED ORDER

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was conducted at Fort Smith, Arkansas, on January 7-10, inclusive, 1952, pursuant to notice thereof which was issued on December 7, 1951 (16 F. R. 12360).

Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof the Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, on May 1, 1952, filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, his recommended decision. This decision and notice of opportunity to file written exceptions thereto was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 7, 1952 (17 F. R. 4209).

The material issues, findings, and conclusions, and general findings of the aforesaid recommended decision are hereby adopted as the issues, findings and conclusions, and general findings of this decision as if set forth in full herein, subject to the following modifications described with reference to Federal Register Doc. 52-5117, 17 F. R. 4209:

1. Delete the second paragraph beginning in the second column of 17 F. R. 4210 and substitute therefor the following:

The record indicates that early in 1949 prices to producers supplying Fayetteville were approximately equal to or slightly higher than those to producers supplying Fort Smith. From mid-1949 to late in 1951 Fayetteville prices were constantly 50 or 60 cents per hundredweight less than those of Fort Smith. The recent activity of a Dallas handler in securing supplies of milk at premium prices in the Fayetteville area resulted in the largest handler in Fayetteville paying 25 cents per hundredweight more than the Fort Smith price for December 1951 with other Fayetteville handlers paying prices equal to the Fort Smith price. During the period of more than two years for which this 50-60 cent difference between Fayetteville and Fort Smith prices prevailed, milk from the Fayetteville area was sold to the St. Louis market, Springfield handlers were selling milk to Fayetteville, and Fayetteville lacked personnel for enforcing its milk ordinance. The record does not indicate the extent to which each of these factors may have influenced the pattern of prices at Fayetteville, nor does it indicate what the influence of Dallas prices will be when premium pricing in that market is discontinued. The difference that prevailed during this period is more than that which could be attributed to differences in costs of hauling milk from farms to plants. The inclusion of Fayetteville in the defined marketing area at this time would raise some problems with respect to price relationships within different segments of the marketing area for which this record does not provide an adequate basis for conclusion. Since the record fails to show such close competition for supplies and sales of milk as to require the conclusion that Fort Smith and Fayetteville are a single market, or to provide a basis for the price determinations necessary for their inclusion under a single regulation, it is concluded that the Fort Smith marketing area should not be so defined at this time as to include Fayetteville.

2. Insert the following paragraph between the first and second paragraphs beginning in the second column of 17 F. R. 4214:

By exception the Springfield handler agrees that the 45 cents is a reasonable allowance but requests that payments be computed under these provisions on an annual basis because there is a probability that in some months the Fort Smith price less 45 cents will be more than the Springfield price while in other months the reverse may be true. This probability arises through differences in the seasonal changes of Class I prices in the two orders. The difference in total payments resulting from the annual method would appear to be minor and to adopt it would be in conflict with the principle of monthly accountability maintained in all milk orders. A comparison of Class I prices of the Springfield order with those that have prevailed at Fort Smith without regulation indicate that there have been times at which the costs of the Springfield handler have been substantially in excess of those of his Fort Smith competitors.

Ruling on exceptions. Within the period reserved therefor, exceptions were filed to certain of the findings, conclusions and actions recommended by the Assistant Administrator. In arriving at the findings, conclusions and regulatory provisions of this decision, such exceptions were carefully and fully considered in conjunction with the record evidence pertaining thereto. To the extent that the findings, conclusions and actions decided upon herein are at variance with any of the exceptions, such exceptions are overruled.

Determination of representative period. The month of May 1952 is hereby determined to be the representative period for the purpose of ascertaining whether the issuance of an order to regulate the handling of milk in the Fort Smith, Arkansas, marketing area in the manner set forth in the attached order is approved or favored by producers, who during such period, were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the marketing area specified in such marketing order.

Marketing agreement and order. Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled respectively "Marketing Agreement Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Fort Smith, Arkansas, Marketing Area," and "Order Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Fort Smith, Arkansas, Marketing Area," which have been decided upon as the detailed and appropriate means of effectuating the foregoing conclusions. These documents shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders have been met.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision, except the attached marketing agreement be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the attached order which will be published with this decision.

This decision filed at Washington, D. C., this 1st day of July 1952.

AUTHORITY: §§ 976.0 to 976.111 issued under sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup. 608c.

§ 976.0 Findings and determinations—(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order regulating the handling of milk in the Fort Smith, Arkansas, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk produced for sale in the said marketing area as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds and other economic conditions which affect market supplies of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest;

(3) The said order regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held;

(4) All milk and milk products handled by handlers, as defined in this order, are in the current of interstate commerce or directly burden, obstruct, or affect interstate commerce in milk or its products; and

(5) It is hereby found that the necessary expenses of the market administrator for the maintenance and functioning of such agency will require the payment by each handler, as his pro rata share of such expense, 4 cents per hundredweight or such amount not exceeding 4 cents per hundredweight as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to all receipts within the months of (i) other source milk which is classified as Class I milk, and (ii) milk from producers including such handler's own production.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered that on and after the effective date hereof the handling of milk in the Fort Smith, Arkansas, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the following terms and conditions as set forth below:

DEFINITIONS

§ 976.1 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended, and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

§ 976.2 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture or other officer or employee of the United States authorized to exercise the powers or to perform the duties of the said Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 976.3 Department. "Department" means the United States Department of Agriculture or other Federal agency authorized to perform the price reporting functions specified in this subpart.

§ 976.4 Person. "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business unit.

§ 976.5 Cooperative association. "Cooperative association" means any cooperative marketing association of producers which the Secretary determines (a) to be qualified under the provisions of the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act," (b) to have full authority in the sale of milk of its members, and (c) to be engaged in making collective sales or marketing milk or its products for its members.

§ 976.6 Fort Smith, Arkansas, Marketing Area. "Fort Smith, Arkansas, Marketing Area", hereinafter called the marketing area, means all territory within the corporate limits of Fort Smith, Arkansas, and Van Buren, Arkansas, and within the boundaries of the Camp Chaffee military reservation.

§ 976.7 Approved plant. "Approved plant" means any milk plant approved by any health authority having jurisdiction in the marketing area from which milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, flavored milk drinks, or cream are disposed of for fluid consumption in the marketing area on wholesale or retail routes (including plant stores).

§ 976.8 Unapproved plant. "Unapproved plant" means any milk processing or distributing plant other than an approved plant.

§ 976.9 Handler. "Handler" means (a) any person in his capacity as the operator of an approved plant; or (b) any cooperative association with respect to the milk of any producer which it causes to be diverted to an unapproved plant for the account of such cooperative association.

§ 976.10 Producer. "Producer" means any person, other than a producer-handler, who produces milk which is received at an approved plant: Provided, That such milk is produced under a dairy farm inspection permit or inspection rating issued by any health authority having jurisdiction in the marketing area for the production of milk to be disposed of for consumption as fluid milk. "Producer" shall include any such person whose milk is caused to be diverted by a handler to an unapproved plant, and milk so diverted shall be deemed to have been received at an approved plant by the handler who causes it to be diverted. "Producer" shall not include a person with respect to milk produced by him which is received at a plant operated by a handler who is subject to another Federal marketing order and who is partially exempt from the provisions of this subpart pursuant to § 976.61.

§ 976.11 Producer milk. "Producer milk" means all skim milk and butterfat in milk produced by a producer which is received by a handler either directly from producers or from other handlers.

§ 976.12 Other source milk. "Other source milk" means all skim milk and butterfat other than that contained in producer milk.

§ 976.13 Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means any person who produces milk and operates an approved plant, but who receives no milk from producers.

§ 976.14 Base milk. "Base milk" means milk received from a producer by a handler during any of the months of April through June which is not in excess of such producer's daily average base computed pursuant to § 976.90 multiplied by the number of days in such month for which the handler received milk from the producer.

§ 976.15 Excess milk. "Excess milk" means milk received from a producer by a handler during any of the months of April through June which is in excess of base milk received from such producer during such month, and shall include all milk received during such month from any producer for whom no daily average base has been established pursuant to § 976.90.

MARKET ADMINISTRATOR

§ 976.20 Designation. The agency for the administration of this subpart shall be a market administrator, selected by the Secretary, who shall be entitled to such compensation as may be determined by, and shall be subject to removal at the discretion of, the Secretary.

§ 976.21 Powers. The market administrator shall have the following powers with respect to this subpart.

(a) To administer its terms and provisions;

(b) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations;

(c) To make rules and regulations to effectuate its terms and provisions; and

(d) To recommend amendments to the Secretary.

§ 976.22 Duties. The market administrator shall perform all duties necessary to administer the terms and provisions of this subpart, including but not limited to the following:

(a) Within 30 days following the date on which he enters upon his duties, or such lesser period as may be prescribed by the Secretary, execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond effective as of the date on which he enters upon such duties and conditioned upon the faithful performance of such duties, in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary;

(b) Employ and fix the compensation of such persons as may be necessary to enable him to administer its terms and provisions;

(c) Obtain a bond in reasonable amount and with reasonable surety thereon covering each employee who handles funds entrusted to the market administrator;

(d) Pay out of funds provided by § 976.87 the cost of his bond and of the bonds of his employees, his own compensation, and all other expenses (except those incurred under § 976.86) necessarily incurred by him in the maintenance and functioning of his office and in the performance of his duties;

(e) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for in this subpart, and upon request by the secretary, surrender the same to such other person as the Secretary may designate;

(f) Submit his books and records to examination by the Secretary and furnish such information and reports as may be requested by the Secretary;

(g) Audit all reports and payments by each handler by inspection of such handler's records and of the records of any other handler or person upon whose utilization the classification of skim milk or butterfat for such handler depends;

(h) Publicly announce, at his discretion, by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, the name of any person who, within 10 days after the day upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not:

(1) Made reports pursuant to §§ 976.30 through 976.32;

(2) Maintained adequate records and facilities pursuant to § 976.33; or

(3) Made payments pursuant to §§ 976.80 through 976.87;

(i) On or before the 12th day after the end of each month, report to each cooperative association which so requests the amount and class utilization of milk received by each handler from producers who are members of such cooperative association. For the purpose of this report, the milk received shall be prorated to each class in the proportion that the total receipts of producer milk by such handler were used in each class;

(j) Publicly announce by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate the prices determined for each month as follows:

(1) On or before the 5th day of each month the minimum prices for Class I milk pursuant to § 976.51 (a) and the Class I butterfat differential pursuant to § 976.52 (a), both for the current month; and the minimum price for Class II milk pursuant to § 976.51 (b) and the Class II butterfat differential pursuant to § 976.52 (b), both for the preceding month; and

(2) On or before the 12th day of each month, the uniform price(s) computed pursuant to § 976.71 or § 976.72, as applicable, and the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 976.81, both applicable to milk delivered during the preceding month; and

(k) Prepare and disseminate to the public such statistics and other information as he deems advisable and as do not reveal confidential information.

REPORTS, RECORDS, AND FACILITIES

§ 976.30 Reports of receipts and utilization. On or before the 7th day after the end of each month, each handler, except a producer-handler, shall report to the market administrator in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator, as follows:

(a) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in milk received from producers, and, for the months of April through June, the aggregate quantities of base milk and excess milk;

(b) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in (or used in the production of) receipts from other handlers;

(c) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in receipts of other source milk (except Class II products disposed of in the form in which received without further processing or packaging by the handler);

(d) The utilization of all skim milk and butterfat required to be reported pursuant to this section;

(e) The disposition of Class I products on route(s) wholly outside the marketing area; and

(f) Such other information with respect to receipts and utilization as the market administrator may prescribe.

§ 976.31 Reports of payments to producers. On or before the 20th day of each month, each handler shall submit to the market administrator his producer payroll for deliveries of the preceding month which shall show:

(a) The total pounds of milk received from each producer and cooperative association, the total pounds of butterfat contained in such milk and the number of days on which milk was received from such producers, including for the months of April through June such producer's deliveries of base and excess milk;

(b) The amount of payment to each producer or cooperative association; and

(c) The nature and amount of any deductions or charges involved in such payments.

§ 976.32 Other reports. (a) Each producer-handler shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may prescribe.

(b) Each handler who causes milk to be diverted to an unapproved plant shall, prior to such diversion, report to the market administrator and to the cooperative association of which such producer is a member, of his intention to divert such milk, the proposed date or dates of such diversion, and the plant to which such milk is to be diverted.

§ 976.33 Records and facilities. Each handler shall maintain and make available to the market administrator or to his representative during the usual hours of business such accounts and records of his operations and such facilities as are necessary for the market administrator to verify or establish the correct data with respect to:

(a) The receipts and utilization of all receipts of producer milk and other source milk;

(b) The weights and tests for butterfat and other content of all milk, skim milk, cream and milk products handled;

(c) Payments to producers and cooperative associations; and

(d) The pounds of skim milk and butterfat contained in or represented by all milk, skim milk, cream and milk products on hand at the beginning and end of each month.

§ 976.34 Retention of records. All books and records required under this subpart to be made available to the market administrator shall be retained by the handler for a period of three years to begin at the end of the month to which such books and records pertain: Provided, That is, within such three-year period, the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that the retention of such books and records, or of specified books and records, is necessary in connection with a proceeding under section 8c (15) (A) of the act or a court action specified in such notice, the handler shall retain such books and records, or specified books and records, until further written notification from the market administrator. In either case, the market administrator shall give further written notification to the handler promptly, upon the termination of the litigation or when the records are no longer necessary in connection therewith.

CLASSIFICATION

§ 976.40 Basis of classification. All skim milk and butterfat received within the month by a handler and which is required to be reported pursuant to § 976.30 shall be classified by the market administrator pursuant to the provisions of §§ 976.41 through 976.46.

§ 976.41 Classes of utilization. Subject to the conditions set forth in §§ 976.43 and 976.44, the classes of utilization shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk shall be all skim milk (including reconstituted skim milk) and butterfat disposed of in fluid form as milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, flavored milk drinks, cream, cultured sour cream and any mixture of cream and milk or skim milk (except bulk ice cream mix), and all skim milk and butterfat not specifically accounted for under paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat:

(1) Used to produce any product other than those specified in paragraph (a) of this section; (2) disposed of for livestock feed; (3) in shrinkage allocated to receipts of milk from producers, but not in excess of 2 percent of such receipts of skim milk and butterfat respectively, (4) in shrinkage allocated to receipts of other source milk; and (5) in inventory variations of milk, skim milk, cream or any Class I product.

§ 976.42 Shrinkage. The market administrator shall allocate shrinkage over a handler's receipts as follows:

(a) Compute the total shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat for each handler; and

(b) Prorate the resulting amounts between the receipts of skim milk and butterfat in producer milk and in other source milk.

§ 976.43 Responsibility of handlers and reclassification of milk. (a) All skim milk and butterfat shall be Class I milk unless the handler who first receives such skim milk or butterfat can prove to the market administrator that such skim milk or butterfat should be classified otherwise.

(b) Any skim milk or butterfat classified in one class (except that transferred to a producer-handler) shall be reclassified if used or reused by such handler or by another handler in another class.

§ 976.44 Transfers. Skim milk or butterfat disposed of by a handler either by transfer or diversion shall be classified:

(a) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted in the form of milk, skim milk or cream to the approved plant of another handler (except a producer-handler) unless utilization in Class II is mutually indicated in writing to the market administrator by both handlers on or before the 7th day after the end of the month within which such transaction occurred: Provided, That the skim milk or butterfat so assigned to Class II shall be limited to the amount thereof remaining in Class II in the plant of the transferee-handler after the subtraction of other source milk pursuant to § 976.46, and any additional amounts of such skim milk or butterfat shall be assigned to Class I: And provided further, That if either or both handlers have received other source milk, the skim milk or butterfat so transferred or diverted shall be classified at both plants so as to allocate the greatest possible Class I utilization to producer milk.

(b) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted in the form of milk, skim milk or cream to a producer-handler.

(c) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted in the form of milk or skim milk to an unapproved plant located more than 185 miles from the approved plant by the shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator.

(d) As Class I milk if transferred in the form of cream under Grade A certification to an unapproved plant located more than 185 miles from an approved plant by the shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator, and as Class II milk if so transferred without Grade A certification.

(e) As Class I milk, if transferred or diverted in the form of milk, skim milk or cream to an unapproved plant located not more than 185 miles from the approved plant, and from which fluid milk is disposed of on wholesale or retail routes unless the market administrator is permitted to audit the records of receipts and utilization at such unapproved plant, in which case the classification of all skim milk and butterfat received at such unapproved plant shall be determined and the skim milk and butterfat transferred or diverted from the approved plant shall be allocated to the highest use remaining after subtracting, in series beginning with Class I milk, receipts of skim milk and butterfat at such unapproved plant directly from dairy farmers who the market administrator determines constitute the regular source of supply for fluid usage of such unapproved plant in markets supplied by such plant.

(f) As Class II milk if transferred or diverted in the form of milk, skim milk, or cream to an unapproved plant located not more than 185 miles from the approved plant and from which fluid milk is not disposed of on wholesale or retail routes.

§ 976.45 Computation of the skim milk and butterfat in each class. For each month, the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and for other obvious errors the monthly report submitted by each handler and shall compute the pounds of skim milk and butterfat in Class I milk and Class II milk for such handler.

§ 976.46 Allocation of skim milk and butterfat classified. After making the computations pursuant to § 976.45, the market administrator shall determine the classification of milk received by each handler from producers as follows:

(a) Skim milk shall be allocated in the following manner:

(1) Subtract from the total pounds of skim milk in Class II the pounds of skim milk determined pursuant to § 976.41 (b) (3);

(2) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each class the skim milk received from other handlers in a form other than milk, skim milk or cream according to its classification pursuant to § 976.41;

(3) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II the pounds of skim milk in other source milk: Provided, That if the receipts of skim milk in other source milk are greater than the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II, an amount equal to the difference shall be subtracted from the pounds of skim milk in Class I;

(4) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each class the skim milk received from other handlers in the form of milk, skim milk or cream according to its classification as determined pursuant to § 976.44 (a).

(5) Add to the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II the pounds of skim milk subtracted pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph; and

(6) If the remaining pounds of skim milk in both classes exceed the pounds of skim milk received from producers, subtract such excess from the remaining pounds of skim milk in series beginning with Class II milk. Any amount so subtracted shall be called "overage."

(b) Butterfat shall be allocated in accordance with the same procedure outlined for skim milk in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Determine the weighted average butterfat content of Class I and Class II milk computed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

MINIMUM PRICES

§ 976.50 Basic formula price. The basic formula price to be used in determining the price per hundredweight of Class I milk shall be the highest of the prices computed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section and § 976.51 (b) for the preceding month.

(a) The average of the basic or field prices per hundredweight reported to have been paid or to be paid for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the month at the following plants or places for which prices have been reported to the market administrator or to the Department, divided by 3.5 and multiplied by 4.0:

Present Operator and Location

Borden Co., Mount Pleasant, Mich.
Carnation Co., Sparta, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Hudson, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Wayland, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Coopersville, Mich.
Borden Co., Greenville, Wis.
Borden Co., Black Creek, Wis.
Borden Co., Oxfordville, Wis.
Borden Co., New London, Wis.
Carnation Co., Chilton, Wis.
Carnation Co., Berlin, Wis.
Carnation Co., Richland Center, Wis.
Carnation Co., Oconomowoc, Wis.
Carnation Co., Jefferson, Wis.

Pet Milk Co., New Glarus, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., Belleville, Wis.
White House Milk Co., Manitowoc, Wis.
White House Milk Co., West Bend, Wis.

(b) The price per hundredweight computed by adding together the plus values pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph:

(1) From the simple average as computed by the market administrator of the daily wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) per pound of Grade A (92-score) bulk creamery butter per pound at Chicago, as reported by the Department during the month, subtract 3 cents, add 20 percent thereof, and multiply by 4.0.

(2) From the simple average as computed by the market administrator of the weighted averages of carlot prices per pound for nonfat dry milk solids, spray and roller process, respectively, for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area as published for the period from the 26th day of the preceding month through the 25th day of the current month by the Department, deduct 5.5 cents, multiply by 8.5 and then multiply by 0.96.

§ 976.51 Class prices. Subject to the provisions of § 976.52 the minimum prices per hundredweight to be paid by each handler for milk received at his plant from producers during the month shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk. The price for Class I milk shall be the basic formula price plus $1.45 for the months of April, May, and June, and plus $1.85 for all other months: Provided, That for each of the months of October, November, and December, such price shall not be less than that for the preceding month, and that for each of the months of April, May, and June, such price shall not be more than that for the preceding month.

(b) Class II milk. The price for Class II milk shall be the average of the basic or field prices reported to have been paid or to be paid for ungraded milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the month at the following plants or places for which prices have been reported to the market administrator or to the Department:

Present Operator and Location

Carnation Co., Mount Vernon, Mo.
Pet Milk Co., Neosho, Mo.
Pet Milk Co., Siloam Springs, Ark.
Sugar Creek Creamery, Russellville, Ark.

Provided, That such price shall not be less than the price computed pursuant to § 976.50 (b) for the month, less 26 cents during April, May, June, or July and less 16 cents during all other months.

§ 976.52 Butterfat differentials to handlers. If the average butterfat content of the milk of any handler allocated to any class pursuant to § 976.46 is more or less than 4.0 percent, there shall be added to the respective class price, computed pursuant to § 976.51, for each one-tenth of 1 percent that the average butterfat content of such milk is above 4.0 percent or subtracted for each one-tenth of 1 percent that such average butterfat content is below 4.0 percent an amount equal to the butterfat differential computed by multiplying the simple average, as computed by the market administrator, of the daily wholesale selling price per pound (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade A (92-score) bulk creamery butter at Chicago as reported by the Department during the month specified below by the applicable factor listed and dividing the result by 10:

(a) Class I milk. Multiply such price for the preceding month by 1.25:

(b) Class II milk. Multiply such price for the current month by 1.20.

APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS

§ 976.60 Producer-handlers. Sections 976.40 through 976.46, 976.50 through 976.52, 976.70 through 976.72, 976.80 through 976.87, 976.90 and 976.91, shall not apply to a producer-handler.

§ 976.61 Milk priced under other Federal orders. In the case of any handler who the Secretary determines disposes of a greater portion of his milk as Class I milk in another marketing area regulated by a milk marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the act, the provisions of this order shall not apply except as follows:

(a) The handler shall, with respect to his total receipts of skim milk and butterfat make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may require and allow verification of such reports by the market administrator.

(b) If the price which such handler is required to pay under the other Federal order to which he is subject for skim milk and butterfat which would be classified as Class I milk under this subpart is less than the price provided by this order, such handler shall pay to the market administrator for deposit into the producer-settlement fund (with respect to all skim milk and butterfat disposed of as Class I milk within the marketing area) an amount equal to the difference between the value of such skim milk or butterfat as computed pursuant to this order (subject to a deduction of 45 cents per hundredweight if the approved plant of such handler is subject to Federal Order No. 21) and its value as determined pursuant to the other order to which he is subject.

DETERMINATION OF UNIFORM PRICE

§ 976.70 Computation of value of milk. The value of milk received during each month by each handler from producers shall be a sum of money computed by the market administrator by multiplying the pounds of such milk in each class by the applicable class prices, adding together the resulting amounts and adding an amount computed by multiplying the pounds of any overage deducted from each class pursuant to § 976.46 by the applicable class prices.

§ 976.71 Computation of uniform prices. For each of the months of July through March the market administrator shall compute the uniform prices per hundredweight for milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content received from producers as follows:

(a) Combine into one total the values computed pursuant to § 976.70 for all handlers who made the reports prescribed in § 976.30 and who made the payments pursuant to §§ 976.80 and 976.83 for the preceding month;

(b) Add not less than one-half of the cash balance on hand in the producer-settlement fund less the total amount of the contingent obligations to handlers pursuant to § 976.84.

(c) Subtract, if the average butterfat content of the milk included in these computations is greater than 4.0 percent, or add, if such average butterfat content is less than 4.0 percent, an amount computed by multiplying the amount by which the average butterfat content of such milk varies from 4.0 percent by the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 976.81 and multiplying the resulting figure by the total hundredweight of such milk;

(d) Divide the resulting amount by the total hundredweight of milk included in these computations; and

(e) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents from the amount computed pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section. The resulting figure shall be the uniform price for milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content received from producers.

§ 976.72 Computation of uniform prices for base milk and excess milk. For each of the months of April through June the market administrator shall compute the uniform prices per hundredweight for base milk and for excess milk, each of 4.0 percent butterfat content, as follows:

(a) Combine into one total the values computed pursuant to § 976.70 for all handlers who made the reports prescribed in § 976.30 and who made the payments pursuant to §§ 976.80 and 976.83 for the preceding month;

(b) Add not less than one-half of the cash balance in the producer-settlement fund less the total amount of the contingent obligations to handlers pursuant to § 976.84;

(c) Subtract if the average butterfat content of the milk included in these computations is greater than 4.0 percent, or add if such average butterfat content is less than 4.0 percent, an amount computed by multiplying the amount by which the average butterfat content of such milk varies from 4.0 percent by the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 976.81 and multiplying the resulting figure by the total hundredweight of such milk;

(d) Compute the total value on a 4.0 percent butterfat basis of excess milk included in these computations by multiplying the hundredweight of such milk not in excess of the total quantity of Class II milk included in these computations by the price for Class II milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content, multiplying the hundredweight of such milk in excess of the total hundredweight of such Class II milk by the price for Class I milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content, and adding together the resulting amounts;

(e) Divide the total value of excess milk obtained in paragraph (d) of this section by the total hundredweight of such milk, and adjust to the nearest cent. The resulting figure shall be the uniform price for excess milk of 4.0 percent butterfat received from producers.

(f) Subtract the value of excess milk obtained in paragraph (d) of this section from the value of all milk obtained pursuant to paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this section and adjust by any amount involved in adjusting the uniform price of excess milk to the nearest cent;

(g) Divide the amount obtained in paragraph (f) of this section by the total hundredweight of base milk included in these computations; and

(h) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents from the amount computed pursuant to paragraph (g) of this section. The resulting figure shall be the uniform price for base milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content received from producers.

PAYMENTS

§ 976.80 Time and method of payment. Each handler shall make payment to producers as follows:

(a) On or before the 15th day after the end of the month during which the milk was received, to each producer except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, (1) at not less than the uniform price computed pursuant to § 976.71 for all milk received from such producer if such preceding month was any of the months of July through March, or (2) at not less than the uniform price for base milk computed pursuant to § 976.72 (h), with respect to base milk received from such producer, and at not less than the uniform price for excess milk computed pursuant to § 976.72 (e) with respect to excess milk received from such producer, if such preceding month was any of the months of April through June, in each case adjusted by the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 976.81 and less the amount of the payment made pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section: Provided, That if such handler has not received full payment for such month pursuant to § 976.84, he may reduce his total payments to all producers uniformly by not more than the amount of the reduction in payments from the market administrator; and the handler shall after receipt of such payment from the market administrator complete the payments to those producers not later than the date for making payments pursuant to this paragraph next following after receipt of the balance from the market administrator.

(b) On or before the last day of each month, each handler shall make payment for milk received from producers during the first 15 days of the month to each producer, except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, at not less than the Class II price for the preceding month.

(c) On or before the 13th and the third from the last day of each month, in lieu of payments pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) respectively of this section, each handler shall make payment to a cooperative association which so request, with respect to producers for which such cooperative association is authorized to collect payment, in an amount equal to the sum of the individual payments otherwise payable to such producers.

§ 976.81 Producer butterfat differential. In making payments pursuant to § 976.80, there shall be added to or subtracted from the uniform price for each one-tenth of 1 percent that the average butterfat content of the milk received from the producer is above or below 4.0 percent, an amount computed by multiplying by 1.2 the simple average as computed by the market administrator of the daily wholesale selling prices per pound (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade A (92-score) bulk creamery butter at Chicago as reported by the Department during the month, dividing the resulting sum by 10, and rounding to the nearest one-tenth of a cent.

§ 976.82 Producer-settlement fund. The market administrator shall establish and maintain a separate fund known as the "producer-settlement fund," into which he shall deposit all payments made by handlers pursuant to §§ 976.61 (b), 976.83 and 976.85, and out of which he shall make all payment to handlers pursuant to §§ 976.84 and 976.85.

§ 976.83 Payments to the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 13th day after the end of the month during which the milk was received, each handler, including a cooperative association which is a handler, shall pay to the market administrator (a) the amount, if any, by which the value of the milk received by such handler from producers as determined pursuant to § 976.70 is greater than the amount required to be paid producers by such handler pursuant to § 976.80, and (b) any amount required pursuant to § 976.61 (b).

§ 976.84 Payments out of the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 14th day after the end of the month during which the milk was received, the market administrator shall pay to each handler, including a cooperative association which is a handler, the amount, if any, by which the value of the milk received by such handler from producers during the month as determined pursuant to § 976.70 is less than the amount required to be paid producers by such handler pursuant to § 976.80: Provided, That if the balance in the producer-settlement fund is insufficient to make all payments pursuant to this paragraph, the market administrator shall reduce uniformly such payments and shall complete such payments as soon as the necessary funds are available.

§ 976.85 Adjustment of accounts. Whenever audit by the market administrator of any handler's reports, books, records, or accounts discloses errors resulting in moneys due (a) the market administrator from such handler; (b) such handler from the market administrator; or (c) any producer or cooperative association from such handler, the market administrator shall promptly notify such handler of any amount so due and payment thereof shall be made on or before the next date for making payments set forth in the provisions under which error occurred.

§ 976.86 Marketing services. (a) Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, each handler, in making payments to producers (other than himself) pursuant to § 976.80, shall deduct 5 cents per hundredweight or such amount not exceeding 5 cents per hundredweight as may be prescribed by the Secretary, and shall pay such deductions to the market administrator on or before the 15th day after the end of each month. Such moneys shall be used by the market administrator to sample, test, and check the weights of milk received and to provide producers with market information.

(b) In the case of producers for whom a cooperative association is actually performing the services set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, each handler shall make, in lieu of the deduction specified in paragraph (a) of this section, such deductions from the payments to be made to such producers as may be authorized by the membership agreement or marketing contract between such cooperative association and such producers on or before the 15th day after the end of each month and pay such deduction to the cooperative association of which such producers are members, furnishing a statement showing the amount of any such deductions, and the amount and average butterfat test of milk for which such deduction was computed for each producer. In lieu of such statement a handler may authorize the market administrator to furnish such cooperative association the information with respect to such producers reported pursuant to § 976.31.

§ 976.87 Expenses of administration. As his pro rata share of the expense of administration of this subpart, each handler shall pay to the administrator on or before the 15th day after the end of the month, 4 cents per hundredweight, or such amount not exceeding 4 cents per hundredweight as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to all receipts within the month of (a) other source milk which is classified as Class I milk, and (b) milk from producers including such handler's own production.

§ 976.88 Termination of obligation. The provisions of this section shall apply to any obligations under this subpart for the payment of money.

(a) The obligation of any handler to pay money required to be paid under the terms of paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, terminates two years after the last day of the calendar month during which the market administrator receives the handler's utilization report on the milk involved in such obligation, unless within such two-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that such money is due and payable. Service of such notice shall be complete upon mailing to the handler's last known address, and it shall contain but need not be limited to, the following information:

(1) The amount of the obligation;

(2) The month(s) during which the milk, with respect to which the obligation exists, was received or handled; and

(3) If the obligation is payable to one or more producers or to an association of producers, the name of such producer(s) or association of producers, or if the obligation is payable to the market administrator, the account for which it is to be paid.

(b) If a handler fails or refuses, with respect to any obligation under this subpart, to make available to the market administrator or his representative all books and records required by this subpart to be made available, the market administrator may, within the 2-year period provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, notify the handler in writing of such failure or refusal. If the market administrator so notifies a handler, the said 2-year period with respect to such obligation shall not begin to run until the first day of the calendar month following the month during which all such books and records pertaining to such obligation are made available to the market administrator or his representatives.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a handler's obligation under this subpart to pay money shall not be terminated with respect to any transaction involving fraud or willful concealment of a fact material to the obligation, on the part of the handler against whom the obligation is sought to be imposed.

(d) Any obligation on the part of the market administrator to pay a handler any money which such handler claims to be due him under the terms of this subpart shall terminate two years after the end of the calendar month during which the milk involved in the claim was received if an underpayment is claimed, or two years after the end of the calendar month during which the payment (including deduction or set-off by the market administrator) was made by the handler if a refund on such payment is claimed, unless such handler, within the applicable period of time, files, pursuant to section 8c (15) (A) of the act, a petition claiming such money.

DETERMINATION OF BASE

§ 976.90 Computation of daily average base for each producer. For the months of April through June of each year the market administrator shall compute a daily average base for each producer as follows, subject to the rules set forth in § 976.91:

(a) Divide the total pounds of milk received by a handler(s) from such producer during the months of October through January immediately preceding by the number of days, not to be less than ninety, of such producer's delivery in such period.

§ 976.91 Base rules. (a) A base shall apply to deliveries of milk by the producer for whose account that milk was delivered during the base forming period;

(b) Bases may be transferred by notifying the market administrator in writing on or before the last day of any applicable base paying month that such base is to be transferred to the person named in such notice only as follows:

(1) In the event of the death, retirement, or entry into military service of a producer the entire base may be transferred to a member(s) of such producer's immediate family who carriers on the dairy herd operations.

(2) If a base is held jointly and such joint holding is terminated, the entire base may be transferred to one of the joint holders.

(c) A producer who ceases to deliver milk to a handler for more than 45 consecutive days shall forfeit his base.

EFFECTIVE TIME, SUSPENSION OR TERMINATION

§ 976.100 Effective time. The provisions of this subpart or any amendment to this subpart shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated pursuant to § 976.101.

§ 976.101 Suspension or termination. The Secretary may suspend or terminate this subpart or any provision of this subpart whenever he finds this subpart or any provisions of this subpart obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. This subpart shall terminate in any event whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

§ 976.102 Continuing power and duty of the market administrator. If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this subpart, there are any obligations thereunder, the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any person (including the market administrator), such further acts shall be performed notwithstanding such suspension or termination.

§ 976.103 Liquidation. Upon the suspension or termination of the provisions of this subpart, except this section, the market administrator, or such other liquidating agent as the Secretary may designate, shall if so directed by the Secretary liquidate the business of the market administrator's office, dispose of all property in his possession or control, including accounts receivable, and execute and deliver all assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate any such disposition. If a liquidating agent is so designated, all assets, books and records of the market administrator shall be transferred promptly to such liquidating agent. If, upon such liquidation, the funds on hand exceed the amounts required to pay outstanding obligations of the office of the market administrator and to pay necessary expenses of liquidation and distribution, such excess shall be distributed to contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 976.110 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this subpart.

§ 976.111 Separability of provisions. If any provision of this subpart, or its application to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the application of such provision and the remaining provisions of this subpart to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby.

Order of the Secretary Directing That a Referendum Be Conducted Among the Producers Supplying Milk to the Fort Smith, Arkansas, Marketing Area, and Designation of an Agent To Conduct Such Referendum

Pursuant to section 8c (19) of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 608c (19)), it is hereby directed that a referendum be conducted among the producers (as defined in the proposed order regulating the handling of milk in the Fort Smith, Arkansas, marketing area) who, during the month of May 1952 were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the marketing area specified in the aforesaid order to determine whether such producers favor the issuance of the order which is a part of the decision of the Secretary of Agriculture filed simultaneously herewith.

The month of May 1952 is hereby determined to be the representative period for the conduct of such referendum.

Hobart E. Crone is hereby designated agent of the Secretary to conduct such referendum in accordance with the procedure for the conduct of referenda to determine producer approval of milk marketing orders as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 10, 1950 (15 F. R. 5177), such referendum to be completed on or before the 25th day from the date this referendum order is issued.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 1st day of July 1952.

COMMODITY EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[17 CFR Part 150]

[Hearing Docket CE-P 8]

LIMITS ON POSITION AND DAILY TRADING IN COTTONSEED OIL, SOYBEAN OIL, AND LARD FOR FUTURE DELIVERY

NOTICE OF HEARING

Whereas, section 4a of the Commodity Exchange Act (7 U. S. C. 6a), directs that, for the purpose of diminishing, eliminating, or preventing excessive speculation causing sudden, unreasonable, or unwarranted price changes in any commodity named in the act, the Commodity Exchange Commission shall, from time to time, after due notice and opportunity for hearing, proclaim and fix such limits on the amount of trading which may be done by any person, under contracts of sale of such commodity for future delivery on or subject to the rules of any contract market, as the Commission finds is necessary for such purpose;

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that a hearing will be held beginning at 10 o'clock a. m., e. d. t., on July 28, 1952, in Room 149-W Administration Building, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., for the presentation of evidence as to (1) what limits should be fixed on the maximum amount of cottonseed oil, soybean oil, and lard, respectively, which any person directly or indirectly may buy or sell, or agree to buy or sell, under contracts of sale for future delivery on or subject to the rules of any contract market, on any one business day, and (2) what limits should be fixed on the maximum net long or net short position in cottonseed oil, soybean oil, and lard, respectively, which any person may hold or control under contracts of sale for future delivery on or subject to the rules of any contract market.

Section 4a of the Commodity Exchange Act provides that such limits shall not apply to transactions which are shown to be bona fide hedging transactions as refined in section 4a (3) of the Commodity Exchange Act (7 U. S. C. 6a (3)).

Written statements with reference to the subject matter of this hearing may be submitted by any interested person and may be in addition to or in lieu of testimony at such hearing. Such statements should be prepared in quintuplicate and mailed to the Presiding Officer, Hearing Docket CE–P8, Commodity Exchange Authority, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., prior to the time of hearing, or delivered to the Presiding Officer at the time of hearing.

Issued this 30th day of June 1952.

COMMODITY EXCHANGE COMMISSION,
[SEAL] CHARLES F. BRANNAN,
Chairman,
Secretary of Agriculture.
JACK GARRETT SCOTT,
Acting Secretary of Commerce.

CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILWAY CO. AND PERE MARQUETTE RAILWAY CO.

REGISTRATION OF FUNNEL MARKS AND CANCELLATION OF REGISTRATION OF HOUSE FLAG

JUNE 27, 1952.

The Commissioner of Customs, by virtue of the authority vested in him by law and in accordance with § 3.81 (a), Customs Regulations of 1943 (19 CFR 3.81 (a)), has registered three funnel marks in the name of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company as described below:

(a) The first funnel mark is to appear and be used on vessels having one stack. The funnel on which this mark will be used is 16 feet in diameter athwartship and 27 feet in diameter in a fore-and-aft direction. The funnel is painted a dark blue and is 25 feet 6 inches in over-all height. Centered in a fore-and-aft direction on either side of the funnel is a Federal yellow disc 12 feet in diameter, the top of which is placed 7 feet 6 inches from the top of the funnel. Superimposed on the yellow disc in dark blue, are the letters "C" and "O," each of which is 4 feet 6 inches in height. The letter "C" is placed in the upper left portion of the circle, connecting with and overlapping in part the letter "O," which is placed in the lower right portion of the circle. Centered vertically on the letter "C" and to the right of it, also in dark blue, is the word "AND" in letters 6 inches in height. Somewhat below the center point and to the left of the letter "O" is the word "FOR" in dark blue letters of 6 inches in height and below that word and the letter "O" is the word "Progress" in dark blue letters 9 inches in height. Running horizontally from the lowermost right-hand point of the letter "R" is the word "For" is a line which passes through the lower portion of the letter "O" and intersects on the opposite side with a line running vertically upward from the uppermost right-hand point of the last letter of the word "Progress." The line is dark blue where it crosses the disc and yellow where it crosses the letter "O."

(b) The second funnel mark is to appear and be used on vessels having two funnels, one on the port and the other on the starboard side of the vessel. Each funnel is surrounded by a funnel casing and both the funnel and its casing are painted a dark blue. The funnel itself is 5 feet in diameter athwartship and 9 feet 3 inches in diameter on a fore-and-aft line; the funnel casing is of a diameter of 5 feet athwartship and 26 feet on a fore-and-aft line; the funnel is of an over-all height of 40 feet; and the funnel casing is of an over-all height of 18 feet. The insignia to appear on the funnel is identical with that to be used on the funnel described in paragraph (a) above except that the top of the Federal yellow disc will be placed 24 feet from the top of the funnel and will be centered in a fore-and-aft direction on the outboard side of the funnel casing.

(c) The third funnel mark is similar to the first except for the fact that it will be used only on vessels having four stacks, two in tandem on the port side of the vessel and two on the starboard side, also in tandem, each pair of stacks on either side being surrounded by a funnel casing. Each of the funnels in this case is 2 feet by 5 feet in diameter and each funnel casing is 3 feet by 16 feet in diameter. The height of the funnel is 30 feet over-all and the height of the funnel casing is 18 feet. The size, lettering, and coloring of the disc is the same as in the case of the mark registered first above, and it is similarly placed on the funnel casing except that the top of the disc in this case is 14 feet from the top of the funnel.

Colored scale replica drawings of the funnel marks described above are on file with the Federal Register Division.[1]

The registrations of certain funnel marks in the name of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company under dates of March 1, 1950 (T. D. 52422; 15 F. R. 1223), and December 11, 1951 (T. D. 52882; 16 F. R. 12622), are hereby cancelled. The registration of house flag for the Pere Marquette Railway Company of Ludington, Michigan, on August 6, 1940, by the Director of the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation, Department of Commerce, published in the Bulletin of that Bureau for August 1940 is hereby rescinded in accordance with the application of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, successor in interest.

CRESCENT TOWING & SALVAGE CO., INC.

REGISTRATION OF HOUSE FLAG

JUNE 27, 1952.

The Commissioner of Customs, by virtue of the authority vested in him by law and in accordance with § 3.81 (a), Customs Regulations of 1943 (19 CFR 3.81 (a)), has registered the house flag of the Crescent Towing & Salvage Company, Inc., a Louisiana corporation, described below:

The house flag is rectangular in shape. The hoist is 3 feet in height, the fly 5 feet. The field of the flag is light green. Superimposed on the light-green flag is a white crescent. The convex line of the crescent consists of an arc of 270 degrees of a circle having a radius of 9 inches, beginning at a point 9 inches directly above the center point of the flag and passing counterclockwise through three quadrants. The concave line of the crescent consists of an arc having a radius of 7½ inches, beginning and ending at the same points as those of the convex line.

A colored scale replica drawing of the house flag described above is on file with the Federal Register Division.[1]

The authority delegated to the Secretary of the Interior by the Administrator of General Services on June 4, 1952, to negotiate without advertising, a contract with Motorola, Incorporated, for the purchase of four 60-Watt FM Transmitter and Receiver, mobile units, complete with roof-type antennas, control heads, hang-up brackets, microphone and cables, for two-frequency operations; transmitters, 164.475 mc. and 164.725 mc.; receivers 164.725 mc. (Model FMTRU-140–DC2 (DW) (1a)), at a total cost of not in excess of $2,500, in accord with section 302 (c) (12) of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, hereinafter called the act, is redelegated to the Finance Officer of the National Park Service.

2. This authority shall be exercised strictly in accordance with the act, particularly section 307 requiring written findings, the preservation of data, and report to the General Accounting Office.

3. This authority is redelegated to the Finance Officer of the National Park Service within the limitations of section 307 (b) of the act.

Issued this 27th day of June 1952.

R. D. SEARLES,
Under Secretary of the Interior.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Production and Marketing Administration

FLUE-CURED TOBACCO MARKETING QUOTA REFERENDUM

The Secretary of Agriculture has duly proclaimed, pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, a national marketing quota for flue-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning July 1, 1953.[1] A referendum of farmers who were engaged in the production of the 1952 crop of flue-cured tobacco will be held pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, and applicable regulations, to determine whether such farmers are in favor of or opposed to such quota and to determine whether such farmers are in favor of or opposed to flue-cured tobacco marketing quotas for the 3-year period beginning July 1, 1953.

Registration. The operator on each farm on which flue-cured tobacco was produced in 1952 should inform a county or community committeeman of the names and addresses of all persons sharing in the proceeds of such crop in order that their names may be listed on the register of eligible voters. The eligibility to vote of any person may be challenged if his name is not recorded on the registration list.

Eligibility to vote. All persons engaged in the production of the 1952 crop of flue-cured tobacco are eligible to vote in the referendum. Any person who shares in the proceeds of the 1952 crop of flue-cured tobacco as owner (other than a landlord of a standing-rent or fixed-rent tenant), tenant, or share cropper, is considered as engaged in the production of such crop of tobacco in 1952.

2. If several members of the same family participate in the production of the 1952 crop of flue-cured tobacco on a farm, the only member or members of such family who shall be eligible to vote shall be the member or members of the family who have an independent bona fide status as operator, share tenant, or share cropper, and are entitled as such to share in the proceeds of the 1952 crop.

3. No person shall be eligible to vote in any community other than the community in which he resides except as follows:

(a) Any person who resides in a community in which there is no polling place shall be eligible to vote at the polling place designated for the community nearest to the community in which he was engaged in the production of flue-cured tobacco in 1952.

(b) Any person who does not reside in or who will not be present in the county in which he engaged in the production of flue-cured tobacco in 1952 may obtain a ballot at the most conveniently located county committee office and may cast his ballot by signing his name thereto and mailing it so that the ballot reaches the county committee for the county in which he engaged in the production of tobacco in 1952 not later than the closing hour on the date of the referendum.

4. There shall be no voting by mail (except as provided in paragraph 3 above), by proxy, or by agent, but a duly authorized officer of a corporation, association, or other legal entity or a duly authorized member of a partnership, may cast its vote.

5. Persons who planted tobacco in the field in 1952 but did not harvest any tobacco on such acreage for any reason except neglect to farm the planted acreage shall be regarded as engaged in the production of tobacco in 1952 and therefore eligible to vote in the referendum. Any farmer who did not plant tobacco in the field shall not be eligible to vote.

6. No person (whether an individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal entity) shall be entitled to more than one vote in the referendum even though he may have been engaged in the production of tobacco on several farms in the same or in two or more communities, counties, or States in 1952.

7. In the event two or more persons were engaged in producing tobacco in 1952 not as members of a partnership but as tenants in common or joint tenants or as owners of community property, each such person shall be eligible to vote.

8. The referendum will be held on Saturday, July 19, 1952. The place of voting and the hours which the polls will be open for voting in each community will be announced by the County PMA Committee.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 1st day of July 1952. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

Secretary of Agriculture.

NOTICE OF FINAL DECISION

JUNE 30, 1952.

Notice is hereby given that the Presiding Examiner's Decision, issuing a certificate of public convenience and necessity in the above-designated matter, was issued and served upon all parties on May 26, 1952. No exceptions thereto having been filed or review initiated by the Commission, in conformity with the Commission's rules of practice and procedure said decision became effective on June 26, 1952, as the final decision and order of the Commission.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 70-2690]

HEVI DUTY ELECTRIC CO.

ORDER PERMITTING ISSUANCE OF SIX-MONTH BANK LOAN NOTE

JUNE 30, 1952.

Hevi Duty Electric Company ("Hevi Duty"), a non-utility company which is a subsidiary of the North American Company, a registered holding company, has filed a declaration or application and an amendment thereto pursuant to sections 6 and 7 of the act with respect to the following proposed transaction:

The company is engaged in the business of manufacturing and selling electric furnaces and certain other electrical equipment. The increasing amount of the company's operations as a prime contractor or subcontractor on projects related to the national defense effort has resulted in expanding the company's manufacturing and sales activities to the point where additional working funds are presently required. Accordingly, the company proposes to enter into an agreement with the Chemical Bank & Trust Company of New York for a bank loan of $300,000, such bank loan to be evidenced by an unsecured promissory note to extend for a period of six months with the privilege on the part of the company for renewal for an additional six months period, and to bear interest at the rate of 3 percent per annum. No fees, commissions or other remuneration are to be paid to any third person in connection with negotiating the proposed transaction.

The company states that no regulatory commission other than this Commission has jurisdiction over the proposed transaction and has requested that the Commission's order herein become effective upon issuance.

While the company apparently has submitted the above filing as a declaration pursuant to sections 6 (a) and 7 of the act, it appears that the filing should be treated as an application pursuant to section 6 (b) seeking an exemption from sections 6 (a) and 7 of the act.

Due notice having been given of the filing of the application, as amended, and a hearing not having been requested of or ordered by the Commission, and the Commission finding that the applicable provisions of the act and the rules promulgated thereunder are satisfied and that no adverse findings are necessary, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that said application, as amended, be granted:

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that said application, as amended, be, and the same hereby is, granted forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24 and to the further condition that the aforesaid note shall not be renewed except pursuant to further order of the Commission.

By the Commission.

Assistant Secretary.

UNITED STATES TARIFF COMMISSION

TUNA FISH

NOTICE OF INVESTIGATION

By direction of the Committee on Finance of the United States Senate on June 26, 1952, the United States Tariff Commission, on the 30th day of June 1952, instituted a general investigation under the provisions of section 332 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, of the domestic tuna industry, including the effect of imports of fresh or frozen tuna fish on the livelihood of American fishermen.

The purpose of the investigation is to determine the facts relative to the production, trade, and consumption of tuna fish in the United States, taking into account all relevant factors affecting the domestic economy, including the interests of consumers, processors, and producers. Upon completion of the investigation the Commission will submit a report of the results thereof to the Senate Finance Committee. Such report will include a statement of findings as to the effect upon the competitive position of the domestic tuna fishing industry of the present duty-free entry of fresh and frozen tuna.

A public hearing at which all interested parties will be given opportunity to express their views will be held in connection with this investigation. The time and place of such hearing will be announced at a future date.

I hereby certify that the above investigation was instituted by the United States Tariff Commission on the 30th day of June 1952.

Office of Price Stabilization

[Ceiling Price Regulation 30, Section 3 (d), Special Order 1]

HUDSON MOTOR CAR CO.

APPROVAL OF LIST PRICE AND DISCOUNT STRUCTURES THAT WERE IN PROCESS OF REVISION ON JUNE 24, 1950

Statement of considerations. A schedule of suggested list prices and discounts for resellers of replacement parts manufactured by the Hudson Motor Car Company published October 1, 1950 is approved by this Special Order pursuant to section 3 (d) of Ceiling Price Regulation 30. Section 3 (d) of Ceiling Price Regulation 30 authorizes the Director of Price Stabilization to approve manufacturers revised published price lists if such lists were revised before June 24, 1950 and incidentally, in connection therewith, revised discount structures, provided the manufacturer actually issued and made effective these new published list prices and discount structures on or before January 24, 1951.

On the basis of the statements made in the application of the Hudson Motor Car Company and the facts submitted by it, it appears that the Hudson Motor Car Company was in the process of revising its published list price and discount structures for replacement parts prior to June 24, 1950 and that it issued and put these new published list price and discount structures into effect before January 25, 1951.

Special provisions. For the reasons set forth in the Statement of Considerations and pursuant to section 3 (d) of Ceiling Price Regulation 30, this Special Order is hereby issued.

1. The revised published price list and discount structure for replacement parts published by the Hudson Motor Car Company, Detroit 14, Michigan on October 1, 1950 is hereby approved.

2. The Hudson Motor Company, Detroit 14, Michigan shall certify to its resellers of replacement parts who use such price list that its revised price list and discount structures published October 1, 1950 have been approved by the Director of Price Stabilization.

3. All provisions of Ceiling Price Regulation 30 not inconsistent with this order, remain in effect so far as the Hudson Motor Car Company, Detroit 14, Michigan is concerned.

4. This Special Order or any provision thereof, may be amended, modified or revoked by the Director of Price Stabilization at any time.

Effective date. This Special Order is effective June 30, 1952.

ELLIS ARNALL,
Director of Price Stabilization.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 67, Supplementary Regulation 2, Special Order 1]

FORD MOTOR CO.

MANUFACTURERS SUGGESTED RESALE PRICES

Statement of considerations. A schedule of suggested list prices and discounts for resellers of automotive parts and accessories manufactured by the Ford Motor Company is established by this Special Order pursuant to section 2 of Supplementary Regulation 2 of Ceiling Price Regulation 67. Supplementary Regulation 2 to Ceiling Price Regulation 67 authorizes the Director of Price Stabilization to approve manufacturers' new published price lists provided the manufacturers' net ceiling price per item will not be affected by the new price lists, and that the weighted average margins of resellers using the proposed price list will not exceed the weighted average margins of resellers using the price list in effect in the period April 1, 1950, to June 24, 1950.

On the basis of the statements made in the application of the Ford Motor Company and the facts submitted by it, it appears that the Ford Motor Company is proposing a change in its published price list for automotive parts and accessories, and that its own net ceiling price per item will not be affected by the change. It further appears that on the basis of resellers' volume of sales during the 1950 fiscal year and other data submitted by the Ford Motor Company, the weighted average margin of resellers using the proposed price list will be no greater than the weighted average margin of resellers using the price list in effect in the period April 1, 1950, to June 24, 1950.

Special provisions. For the reasons set forth in the Statement of Considerations and pursuant to section 2 of Supplementary Regulation 2 to Ceiling Price Regulation 67, this Special Order is hereby issued.

1. The revised published price lists of the Ford Motor Company, Dearborn, Michigan, for its automotive parts and accessories as described in its application of June 4, 1952, are hereby approved.

2. Discount schedules for commodities subsequently added to the price lists shall follow the same pattern and incorporate the same general methods as those approved in paragraph 1 of this Special Order.

3. This Special Order or any provision thereof may be revoked, suspended, or amended by the Director of Price Stabilization at any time.

Effective date. This Special Order is effective June 30, 1952.

ELLIS ARNALL,
Director of Price Stabilization.

GENERAL TIME CORP.

CEILING PRICES AT RETAIL AND WHOLESALE

Statement of considerations. Special Order 7 under SR 3 to CPR 9 established uniform prices for the sale of "Westclox" branded items in the Territory of Hawaii. The General Time Corporation now wishes to add another clock, the "Sphinx", to its line of Westclox timepieces. This amendment, therefore, incorporates the price list for that clock into the Special Order.

Amendatory provisions. Special Order 7 under SR 3 to CPR 9 is amended by changing paragraph number 1 to read as follows:

1. The ceiling prices for the sale by any retailer or wholesaler in the Territory of Hawaii of watches and clocks manufactured by Westclox, Division of General Time Corporation, LaSalle, Illinois, bearing the brand name "Westclox", are the retail and wholesale prices listed in the application of the General Time Corporation dated November 21, 1951, as amended by a supplementary application dated April 11, 1952, and as further amended by a supplementary application dated April 30, 1952, filed with Region XIV of the Office of Price Stabilization. A list of such ceiling prices will be filed by the Region XIV office of the Office of Price Stabilization with the Federal Register as an appendix to this special order as soon as possible. On and after the date of a receipt of a copy of this special order, with notice of prices annexed, but in no event later than May 15, 1952, or in the case of the supplementary application dated April 30, 1952, no later than July 7, 1952, no seller at retail or wholesale may offer or sell any article covered by this special order at a price higher than the ceiling price established by this special order. Sales may, of course, be made at less than ceiling prices.

Effective date. This Amendment 1 to Special Order 7 shall become effective on June 27, 1952.

PARIS FIELD, GREEN TOWNSHIP OF MECOSTA COUNTY, MICHIGAN

CRUDE PETROLEUM CEILING PRICES ADJUSTED ON AN IN-LINE BASIS

Statement of considerations. This special order adjusts the ceiling price for the purchase of crude petroleum produced from the Paris Field, Green Township of Mecosta County, Michigan.

The Office of Price Stabilization has been requested to eliminate the differentials heretofore imposed upon Traverse Type crude petroleum produced from the Paris Field, Green Township of Mecosta County, Michigan. During the base period there was a lack of competitive factors and as a result, the crude petroleum produced from this field was sold at a lower price than is being and has been paid for crude petroleum of comparable quality produced in this same general area. It appears that this condition has now been eliminated and these differentials should no longer be imposed.

From the information available to this office, it appears that the adjusted price will be in line with the ceiling price of comparable crude petroleum produced in this same area. This price is $2.80 per barrel.

Special provisions. For the reasons set forth in the Statement of Considerations and pursuant to the provisions of section 3 of Supplementary Regulation 2 to Ceiling Price Regulation 32, It is ordered:

1. That the ceiling price at the lease receiving tank for Traverse Type crude petroleum produced from the Paris Field, Green Township of Mecosta County, Michigan shall be: $2.80 per barrel.

2. All provisions of Ceiling Price Regulation 32, except as inconsistent with the provisions of this order, shall remain in full force and effect as to the commodities covered by this order.

3. This order may be amended, modified or revoked by the Director of Price Stabilization at any time.

Effective date. This special order shall become effective on June 30, 1952.

Director of Price Stabilization.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 34, Supplementary Regulation 16, Special Order 1]

GENERAL MOTORS CORP.

CEILING PRICES FOR WHOLESALE LABOR WARRANTY SERVICES FOR CERTAIN NEW PRODUCTS

Statement of considerations. This Special Order 1, isued upon application of General Motors Corporation, 3044 West Grand Boulevard, Detroit, Michigan, pursuant to section 3 of Supplementary Regulation 16 to Ceiling Price Regulation 34, establishes ceiling prices for wholesale labor warranty services rendered to General Motors Corporation, or to its authorized distributors or dealers, on Model CMO-1 Ice Cube Maker and Model FFOR-8-X Frozen Food Display Case, by dealers who have not sold the commodities to be serviced, or by central service firms.

Section 3 of Supplementary Regulation 16 to Ceiling Price Regulation 34 provides that a manufacturer who is offering for sale a new commodity, and who has customarily set or proposed uniform prices that have been adopted throughout the United States for wholesale labor warranty services sold by its dealers, or by central service firms, to it or its distributor organization, as an incident of the sale of commodities, may apply to the Office of Price Stabilization, Service Trades Branch, Washington 25, D. C., for a ceiling price for each new wholesale labor warranty service.

Model CMO-1 Ice Cube Maker and Model FFOR-8-X Frozen Food Display Case are new products manufactured by General Motors Corporation which has customarily set or proposed uniform prices that have been adopted throughout the United States for wholesale labor warranty services sold by its dealers or by central service firms to it, or its distributor organization, as an incident of the sale of such new commodities.

The contracts General Motors Corporation has with its authorized dealers require the dealers to provide labor warranty services to customers to whom they sell commodities, without any charge to anyone other than their mark-up on the commodity. If the dealer who sells the commodity, however, has no service department, or if one dealer sells in another dealer's service area, or if the customer moves from one service area to another, and in some other circumstances, the dealer who sells the commodity is not required to provide such warranty services, but he is required to pay a uniform price, set by General Motors Corporation to his distributor who in turn will pay that price to another dealer, or to a central service firm, to provide such labor warranty services. When the commodity to be serviced is located in the service area of a different distributor, the distributor whose dealer sold the commodity pays the price for the labor warranty service to General Motors Corporation which in turn pays it to the distributor in whose service area the commodity is located, who in turn pays it to a dealer or central service firm to provide labor warranty services.

The ceiling prices established by this Special Order are based upon anticipated direct labor and material costs of rendering the wholesale labor warranty service described above, and are in line with ceiling prices for comparable wholesale labor warranty services furnished to General Motors Corporation and to other manufacturers on similar commodities by their respective dealers or by central service firms.

This Special Order applies only to wholesale labor warranty services furnished to General Motors Corporation, or to its distributors or dealers, by dealers who have not sold the commodities to be furnished, or by central service firms.

Special provisions. For the reasons set forth in the Statement of Considerations and pursuant to section 3 of Supplementary Regulation 16 to Ceiling Price Regulation 34, this Special Order is hereby issued.

1. The ceiling prices which General Motors Corporation, 3044 West Grand Boulevard, Detroit, Michigan, may pay for first-year wholesale labor warranty services, on the commodities listed below, to central service firms or dealers who have not sold the commodities, and which such central service firms or dealers may charge General Motors Corporation or its distributors or dealers for such services, are as follows:

Commodity	Ceiling price for first-year wholesale labor warranty services
Model CMO-1 Ice Cube Maker	$33.85
Model FFOR-8-X Frozen Food Display Case	17.75

2. Section 18 (c) of Ceiling Price Regulation 34 does not apply to services covered by this Special Order. All other provisions of Ceiling Price Regulation 34 except as changed by this Special Order remain in effect as to such services.

3. This Special Order, or any provision thereof, may be revoked, suspended, or amended by the Director of Price Stabilization at any time.

Effective date. This Special Order 1 shall become effective June 30, 1952.

ELLIS ARNALL,
Director of Price Stabilization.

JULY 1, 1952.

The Commission is in receipt of the above-entitled and numbered application for relief from the long-and-short-haul provision of section 4 (1) of the Interstate Commerce Act.

Filed by: The Great Northern Railway Company.

Commodities involved: Crude oil in its natural state, or crude petroleum oil which has been subject to natural weathering etc., in tankcar loads.

From: Watford City, N. Dak.

To: St. Paul, Minn., Minnesota Transfer and Duluth, Minn., and Superior, Wis.

Grounds for relief: Competition with rail carriers, competition with motor carriers, market competition.

Schedules filed containing proposed rates: Great Northern Railway ICC No. A-8163, sup. 59.

Any interested person desiring the Commission to hold a hearing upon such application shall request the Commission in writing so to do within 15 days from the date of this notice. As provided by the general rules of practice of the Commission, Rule 73, persons other than applicants should fairly disclose their interest, and the position they intend to take at the hearing with respect to the application. Otherwise the Commission, in its discretion, may proceed to investigate and determine the matters involved in such application without further or formal hearing. If because of an emergency a grant of temporary relief is found to be necessary before the expiration of the 15-day period, a hearing, upon a request filed within that period, may be held subsequently.

By the Commission, Division 2.

PART 22—APPEALS OF PREFERENCE ELIGIBLES UNDER THE VETERANS' PREFERENCE ACT OF 1944

APPLICABILITY OF REGULATIONS; TIME LIMIT FOR APPEALS TO THE COMMISSION

1. Section 22.1 (d) is amended to read as follows:

§ 22.1 Applicability of regulations.

* * *

(d) Notice of reduction in rank or compensation resulting from Commission's position classification decisions. Preference eligible employees who are to be reduced in grade or rank as a result of the Commission's position classification decisions shall be given at least thirty (30) days' advance written notice, stating any and all reasons, specifically and in detail, for such proposed action.

2. Section 22.4 is amended to read as follows:

§ 22.4 Appeals to the Commission; time limit. The Commission will not entertain an appeal for consideration or review of any action under section 14 of the Veterans' Preference Act of 1944 prior to an adverse decision making effective the discharge, suspension for more than thirty (30) days, furlough without pay, or reduction in rank or compensation. Ten (10) days after the effective date of the adverse decision shall be considered as a reasonable time to prepare and submit an appeal under this section: Provided, That in a reduction in rank (grade) resulting from a classification decision of an employing agency, where there is a right to appeal the position classification to the agency under its established administrative procedures, the time limit on the appeal to the Commission shall be either ten (10) days after the effective date of the adverse decision or ten (10) days after the decision by the agency on the administrative position classification appeal, at the election of the employee. The time limit may be extended in the discretion of the Commission upon a showing by the employee that he was not notified of his right to appeal as provided in § 22.3 and was unaware of his right in this respect or that circumstances beyond his control prevented him from filing an appeal within the prescribed ten (10) days.

MISCELLANEOUS

725.426 Determination of acreage allotments and normal yields for farms returned to agricultural production.
725.427 Approval of determinations made under §§ 725.411 to 725.426.
725.428 Application for review.

AUTHORITY: §§ 725.411 to 725.428 issued under sec. 375, 52 Stat. 66, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1375. Interpret or apply secs. 301, 313, 363, 52 Stat. 38, 47, 63, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1301, 1313, 1363.

GENERAL

§ 725.411 Basis and purposes. The regulations contained in §§ 725.411 to 725.428, are issued pursuant to the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, and govern the establishment of 1953 farm acreage allotments and normal yields for Burley and flue-cured tobacco. The purpose of the regulations in §§ 725.411 to 725.428 is to provide the procedure for allocating, on an acreage basis, the national marketing quota for

Burley and flue-cured tobacco for the 1953–54 marketing year among farms and for determining normal yields. Prior to preparing the regulations in §§ 725.411 to 725.428, public notice (17 F. R. 4896) was given in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003). The data, views, and recommendations pertaining to the regulations in §§ 725.411 to 725.428, which were submitted have been duly considered within the limits permitted by the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended. The Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, requires the holding of a referendum of tobacco producers within 30 days after the issuance of the proclamation of a national marketing quota to determine whether producers favor marketing quotas. Such a proclamation will be issued for flue-cured tobacco on July 1, 1952, or shortly thereafter. Since the act requires, insofar as practicable, the mailing of notices of farm acreage allotments to farm operators prior to the date of the referendum, it is hereby found that compliance with the 30-day effective date provision of the Administrative Procedure Act is impractical and contrary to the public interest. Therefore, the regulations contained in §§ 745.411 to 735.428 shall become effective upon the date of filing with the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 725.412 Definitions. As used in §§ 725.411 to 725.428, and in all instructions, forms, and documents in connection therewith the words and phrases defined in this section shall have the meanings herein assigned to them unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires.

(a) Committees. (1) "Community committee" means the group of persons elected within a community as the community committee of the Production and Marketing Administration to assist in administering the Production and Marketing Administration programs within the community.

(2) "County committee" means the group of persons elected within a county as the county committee of the Production and Marketing Administration to assist in administering the Production and Marketing Administration programs within the county.

(3) "State committee" means the group of persons designated as the State committee of the Production and Marketing Administration, charged with the responsibility of administering Production and Marketing Administration programs within the State.

(b) Farm. "Farm" means all adjacent or nearby farm land under the same ownership which is operated by one person, including also:

(1) Any other adjacent or nearby farm land which the county committee, in accordance with instructions issued by the Assistant Administrator for Production, Production and Marketing Administration, determines is operated by the same person as part of the same unit with respect to the rotation of crops and with workstock, farm machinery, and labor substantially separate from that for any other lands; and

(2) Any field-rented tract (whether operated by the same or another person) which, together with any other land included in the farm, constitutes a unit with respect to the rotation of crops. A farm shall be regarded as located in the county in which the principal dwelling is situated, or if there is no dwelling thereon it shall be regarded as located in the county in which the major portion of the farm is located.

(c) New farm. "New farm" means a farm on which tobacco will be produced in 1953 for the first time since 1947.

(d) Old farm. "Old farm" means a farm on which tobacco was produced in one or more of the five years 1948 through 1952.

(e) Cropland. "Cropland" means farm land which in 1952 was tilled or was in regular crop rotation, excluding (1) bearing orchards and vineyards (except the acreage of cropland therein), (2) plowable noncrop open pasture, and (3) any land which constitutes or will constitute, if tillage is continued, a wind erosion hazard to the community.

(f) Community cropland factor. "Community cropland factor" means that percentage determined by dividing the total cropland for all old farms in the community in 1952 into the total of the 1952 tobacco acreage allotment for such old farms: Provided, That (1) if it is determined that the cropland factors for all communities in the county are substantially the same, the county committee, with the approval of the State committee, may consider the entire county as one community, and (2) if there is only one farm in the county on which tobacco is grown, the community cropland factor of the nearest community in which tobacco is grown shall be used in determining the acreage indicated by cropland.

(g) Acreage indicated by cropland. "Acreage indicated by cropland" means that acreage determined by multiplying the number of acres of cropland in the farm by the community cropland factor.

(h) Operator. "Operator" means the person who is in charge of the supervision and conduct of the farming operations on the entire farm.

(i) Person. "Person" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, estate or trust or other business enterprise or other legal entity, and whenever applicable, a State, a political subdivision of a State, or any agency thereof.

(j) Tobacco. (1) "Tobacco" means Burley tobacco, type 31, or flue-cured tobacco types 11, 12, 13, and 14, as classified in Service and Regulatory Announcement No. 118 (7 CFR Part 30) of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture, or both, as indicated by the context.

(2) Any tobacco that has the same characteristics, and corresponding qualities, colors, and lengths as either Burley or flue-cured tobacco shall be considered respectively either Burley or flue-cured tobacco regardless of any factors of historical or geographical nature which cannot be determined by examination of the tobacco.

§ 725.413 Extent of calculations and rules of fractions. All acreage allotments shall be rounded to the nearest one-tenth acre. Fractions of fifty-one thousandths of an acre or more shall be rounded upward, and fractions of five-hundredths of an acre or less shall be dropped. For example 1.051 would be 1.1 and 1.050 would be 1.0.

§ 725.414 Instructions and forms. The Director, Tobacco Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, shall cause to be prepared and issued such forms as are necessary, and shall cause to be prepared such instructions as are necessary for carrying out the regulations in this part. The forms and instructions shall be approved by, and the instructions shall be issued by, the Assistant Administrator for Production, Production and Marketing Administration.

§ 725.415 Applicability of §§ 725.411 to 725.428. Sections 725.411 to 725.428 shall govern the establishment of farm acreage allotments and normal yields for tobacco in connection with farm marketing quotas for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1953, in the case of Burley tobacco, and July 1, 1953, in the case of flue-cured tobacco. The applicability of §§ 725.411 to 725.428 is contingent upon the proclamation of national marketing quotas for tobacco by the Secretary and the approval thereof by growers voting in referenda pursuant to section 312 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended.

ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS AND NORMAL YIELDS FOR OLD FARMS

§ 725.416 Determination of 1953 preliminary acreage allotments for old farms. The preliminary acreage allotment for an old farm shall be the 1952 allotment with the following exceptions:

(a) If the acreage of tobacco harvested on the farm in each of the three years 1950–52 was less than 75 percent of the farm acreage allotment for each of such years, the preliminary allotment shall be the larger of (1) the largest acreage of tobacco harvested on the farm in any one of such three years, or (2) the average acreage of tobacco harvested on the farm in the five years 1948–52: Provided, That any such preliminary allotment shall not exceed the 1952 allotment for such farm or be less than 0.1 acre.

(b) If the county committee determines that failure to harvest as much as 75 percent of the acreage allotted to the farm during any one of the three years 1950–52 was due to (1) service in the armed forces on the part of labor regularly engaged in producing tobacco on the farm prior to entry into the armed forces, or (2) black shank infestation on the farm the preliminary allotment for the farm shall be the 1952 allotment.

(c) If no 1952 allotment was established for the farm, the preliminary allotment shall be the smaller of (1) the average acreage of tobacco harvested on the farm in the five years 1948–52, or (2) the acreage obtained by multiplying the farm's average acreage for the five years 1948–52 by the ratio of the farm's actual yield to the 1951 county average yield: Provided, That such preliminary allotment shall not be less than 0.1 acre.

(d) If the acreage of tobacco harvested on the farm in 1952 exceeded the 1952 allotment by more than 10 percent, the preliminary allotment shall be the 1952 allotment plus the smaller of (1) one-fifth of the excess acreage, or (2) the acreage obtained by multiplying one-fifth of the excess acreage by the ratio of the farm's actual yield to the 1951 county average yield.

(e) The preliminary allotments determined under paragraph (c) or (d) of this section shall not exceed the smallest of (1) the acreage indicated by cropland (2) 20 percent of the acreage of cropland on the farm in the case of flue-cured tobacco, or (3) the acreage capacity of curing barns located on the farm and suitable for curing tobacco, which in the case of flue-cured tobacco shall be 3.5 acres per barn: Provided, That no preliminary allotment shall be reduced below the 1952 allotment because of these factors or be less than 0.1 acre.

(f) The preliminary allotment shall not exceed 80 percent of the acreage of cropland on the farm.

§ 725.417 1953 old farm tobacco acreage allotment. The preliminary allotments calculated for all old farms in the State pursuant to § 725.416 shall be adjusted uniformly so that the total of such allotments plus the acreage available for adjusting acreage allotments for old farms pursuant to § 725.418 shall not exceed the State acreage allotment: Provided, That in the case of Burley tobacco, the farm acreage allotment (a) for any farm having a Burley tobacco acreage allotment in 1942 shall not be less than one-half acre; and (b) for any farm having a Burley tobacco acreage allotment in 1943 shall not be less than the smaller of (1) one acre or (2) 25 percent of the cropland in the farm.

§ 725.418 Adjustment of acreage allotments for old farms. Notwithstanding the limitations contained in § 725.416, except paragraph (f) thereof, the farm acreage allotment for an old farm may be increased if the community and county committees find that such increase is necessary to establish an allotment for such farm which is fair and equitable in relation to the allotments for other old farms in the community, on the basis of the past acreage of tobacco, making due allowances for drought, flood, hail, other abnormal weather conditions, plant bed, and other diseases; land, labor, and equipment available for the production of tobacco; crop rotation practices; and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco. The acreage available for increasing allotments under this section shall not exceed one-half of one percent of the total acreage allotted to all tobacco farms in the State for the 1952–53 marketing year.

§ 725.419 Reduction of acreage allotment for violation of the marketing quota regulations for a prior marketing year. (a) If tobacco was marketed or was permitted to be marketed in any marketing year as having been produced on the acreage allotment for any farm which in fact was produced on a different farm, the acreage allotments established for both such farms for 1953 shall be reduced, as hereinafter provided, except that such reduction for any such farm shall not be made if the county committee determines that no person connected with such farm caused, aided, or acquiesced in such marketing.

(b) The operator of the farm shall furnish complete and accurate proof of the disposition of all tobacco produced on the farm at such time and in such manner as will insure payment of the penalty due at the time the tobacco is marketed and, in the event of failure for any reason to furnish such proof, the acreage allotment for the farm shall be reduced, except that if the farm operator establishes to the satisfaction of the county and State committees that failure to furnish such proof of disposition was unintentional on his part and that he could not reasonably have been expected to furnish accurate proof of disposition, reduction of the allotment will not be required if the failure to furnish proof of disposition is corrected and payment of all additional penalty is made.

(c) Any such reduction shall be made with respect to the 1953 farm acreage allotment, provided it can be made at least 30 days prior to the beginning of the normal planting season for the county in which the farm is located as determined by the State committee. If the reduction cannot be so made effective with respect to the 1953 allotment, such reduction shall be made with respect to the farm acreage allotment next established for the farm where the reduction can be made within the time specified above. This section shall not apply if the allotment for any prior year was reduced on account of the same violation.

(d) The amount of reduction in the 1953 allotment shall be that percentage which the amount of tobacco involved in the violation is of the respective farm marketing quota for the farm for the year in which the violation occurred. Where the amount of such tobacco involved in the violation equals or exceeds the amount of the farm marketing quota the amount of reduction shall be 100 percent. The amount of tobacco determined by the county committee to have been falsely identified or for which satisfactory proof of disposition has not been furnished shall be considered the amount of tobacco involved in the violation. If the actual production of tobacco on the farm is not known, the county committee shall estimate such actual production, taking into consideration the condition of the tobacco crop during production, if known, and the actual yield per acre of tobacco on other farms in the locality on which the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco are similar: Provided, That the estimate of such actual production of tobacco on the farm shall not exceed the harvested acreage of tobacco on the farm multiplied by the average actual yield on farms in the locality on which the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco are similar. The actual yield of tobacco on the farm as so estimated by the county committee multiplied by the farm acreage allotment shall be considered the farm marketing quota for the purposes of this section. In determining the amount of tobacco for which satisfactory proof of disposition has not been shown in case the actual production of tobacco on the farm is not known, the amount of tobacco involved in the violation shall be deemed to be the actual production of tobacco on the farm, estimated as above, less the amount of tobacco for which satisfactory proof of disposition has been shown.

(e) If the farm involved in the violation is combined with another farm prior to the reduction, the reduction shall be applied to that portion of the allotment for which a reduction is required under paragraph (a) or (b) of this section.

(f) If the farm involved in the violation has been divided prior to the reduction, the reduction shall be applied to the allotments for the divided farms as required under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

§ 725.420 Reallocation of allotments released from farms removed from agricultural production. (a) The allotment determined or which would have been determined for any land which is removed from agricultural production for any purpose because of acquisition by any Federal, State, or other agency having a right of eminent domain shall be placed in a State pool and shall be available to the State committee for use in providing equitable allotments for farms owned or purchased by owners displaced because of acquisition of their farms by such agencies. Upon application to the county committee, within five years from the date of such acquisition of the farm, any owner so displaced shall be entitled to have an allotment for any other farm owned or purchased by him equal to an allotment which would have been determined for such other farm plus the allotment which would have been determined for the farm so acquired: Provided, That such allotment shall not exceed 20 percent of the acreage of cropland on the farm in the case of Burley tobacco and 50 percent of the acreage of cropland on the farm in the case of flue-cured tobacco.

(b) The provisions of this section shall not be applicable if (1) there is any marketing quota penalty due with respect to the marketing of tobacco from the farm or by the owner of the farm at the time of its acquisition by the Federal, State, or other agency; (2) any tobacco produced on such farm has not been accounted for as required by the Secretary; or (3) the allotment next to be established for the farm acquired by the Federal, State, or other agency would have been reduced because of false or improper identification of tobacco produced on or marketed from such farm.

§ 725.421 Farms divided or combined. (a) If land operated as a single farm in 1952 will be operated in 1953 as two or more farms, the 1953 tobacco acreage allotment determined or which otherwise would have been determined for the entire farm shall be apportioned among the tracts in the same proportion as the acreage of cropland available for the production of tobacco in each such tract in such year bore to the total number of acres of cropland available for the production of tobacco on the entire farm in such year, except that the tobacco acreage allotment determined or which otherwise would have been determined for the entire farm shall, if the farm to be divided for 1953 consists of two or more tracts which were separate and distinct farms before being combined within the past five years (1948–52), be apportioned among the tracts in the same proportion that each contributed to the farm acreage allotment: Provided, That with the recommendation of the county committee and approval of the State committee and with the written agreement of all interested persons, the tobacco acreage allotment determined for a tract under the provisions of this paragraph may be increased or decreased by not more than the larger of one-tenth acre or 10 percent of the 1953 acreage allotment determined for the entire farm with corresponding increases or decreases made in the acreage allotment apportioned to the other tract or tracts.

(b) If two or more farms operated separately in 1952 are combined and operated in 1953 as a single farm, the 1953 allotment shall be the sum of the 1953 allotments determined for each of the farms comprising the combination or, in the case of Burley tobacco, if smaller, the allotment determined or which would have been determined for the farm as constituted in 1953.

(c) If a farm is to be divided in 1953 in settling an estate, the allotment may be divided among the various tracts in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section or on such other basis as the State committee determines will result in equitable allotments.

§ 725.422 Determination of normal yields. The normal yield for any old farm shall be that yield which the county committee determines is normal for the farm taking into consideration (a) the yields obtained on the farm during the five years 1947–51, (b) the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco on the farm, and (c) the yields obtained on other farms in the locality which are similar with respect to such factors.

ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS AND NORMAL YIELDS FOR NEW FARMS

§ 725.423 Determination of acreage allotments for new farms. (a) The acreage allotment, other than an allotment made under § 725.420, for a new farm shall be that acreage which the county committee determines is fair and reasonable for the farm taking into consideration the past tobacco experience of the farm operator; the land, labor, and equipment available for the production of tobacco; crop-rotation practices; and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco: Provided, That the acreage allotment so determined shall not exceed in the case of Burley tobacco 50 percent of the allotments for old Burley farms which are similar with respect to land, labor and equipment available for the production of tobacco, crop-rotation practices, and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco; and in the case of flue-cured tobacco, the smaller of (1) 15 percent of the cropland in the farm including land from which a cultivated crop was harvested in 1952 or (2) 75 percent of the allotment for old flue-cured tobacco farms which are similar with respect to land, labor, and equipment available for the production of tobacco, crop-rotation practices, and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section a tobacco acreage allotment shall not be established for any new farm unless each of the following conditions has been met:

(1) The farm operator shall have had experience in growing the kind of tobacco for which an allotment is requested either as a share cropper, tenant, or as a farm operator during two of the past five years: Provided, That a farm operator who was in the armed services after September 16, 1940, shall be deemed to have met the requirements of this subparagraph if he has had such experience during one year either within the five years immediately prior to his entry into the armed services or within the five years immediately following his discharge from the armed services and if he files an application for an allotment within five crop years from date of discharge.

(2) The farm operator shall live on and be largely dependent for his livelihood on the farm covered by the application.

(3) The farm covered by the application shall be the only farm owned or operated by the owner or farm operator for which a Burley or flue-cured tobacco allotment is established for the 1953–54 marketing year.

(c) The acreage allotments established as provided in this section shall be subject to such downward adjustment as is necessary to bring such allotments in line with the total acreage available for allotment to all new farms. One-half of one percent of the 1953 national marketing quota shall, when converted to an acreage allotment by the use of the national average yield, be available for establishing allotments for new farms. The national average yield shall be the average of the several State yields used in converting the State marketing quotas into State acreage allotments.

§ 725.424 Time for filing application. An application for a new farm allotment shall be filed with the county committee prior to February 1, 1953, unless the farm operator was discharged from the armed services subsequent to December 31, 1952, in which case such application shall be filed within a reasonable period prior to planting tobacco on the farm.

§ 725.425 Determination of normal yields. The normal yield for a new farm shall be that yield per acre which the county committee determines is normal for the farm as compared with yields for other farms in the locality on which the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco are similar.

MISCELLANEOUS

§ 725.426 Determination of acreage allotments and normal yields for farms returned to agricultural production. (a) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of §§ 725.411 to 725.425, the acreage allotment for any farm which was acquired by any Federal, State, or other agency having the right of eminent domain, for any purpose and which is returned to agricultural production in 1953 or which was returned to agricultural production in 1952 too late for the 1952 allotment to be established, shall be determined by one of the following methods:

(1) If the land is acquired by the original owner, any part of the acreage allotment which was or could have been established for such farm prior to its retirement from agricultural production which remains in the State pool (adjusted to reflect the uniform increases and decreases in comparable old farm allotments since the farm was acquired) may be established as the 1953 allotment for such farm by transfer from the pool, and if any part of the allotment for such land was transferred by the original owner through the State pool to another farm now owned by him, such owner may elect to transfer all or any part of such allotment (as adjusted) to the farm which is returned to agricultural production.

(2) If the land is acquired by a person other than the original owner, or if all of the allotment was transferred through the State pools to another farm and the original owner does not now own the farm to which the allotment was transferred, the farm returned to agricultural production shall be regarded as a new farm.

(b) The normal yield for any such farm shall be that yield per acre which the county committee determines is reasonable for the farm as compared with yields for other farms in the locality on which the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco are similar.

§ 725.427 Approval of determinations made under §§ 725.411 to 725.426. The State committee will review all allotments and yields and may correct or require correction of any determinations made under §§ 725.411 to 725.426. All acreage allotments and yields shall be approved by the State committee and no official notice of acreage allotment shall be mailed to a grower until such allotment has been approved by the State committee.

§ 725.428 Application for review. Any producer who is dissatisfied with the farm acreage allotment and marketing quota established for his farm, may, within fifteen days after mailing of the official notice of the farm acreage allotment and marketing quota, file application with the county committee to have such allotment reviewed by a review committee. The procedures governing the review of farm acreage allotments and marketing quotas are contained in the regulations issued by the Secretary (7 CFR Part 711) which are available at the office of the county committee.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 2d day of July 1952. Witness my hand and seal of the Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] CHARLES F. BRANNAN,
Secretary of Agriculture.

TITLE 6—AGRICULTURAL CREDIT

Chapter IV—Production and Marketing Administration and Commodity Credit Corporation, Department of Agriculture

Subchapter C—Loans, Purchases, and Other Operations

[1952 C. C. C. Grain Price Support Bulletin 1, Supplement 2, Wheat]

PART 601—GRAINS AND RELATED COMMODITIES

SUBPART—1952-CROP WHEAT LOAN AND PURCHASE AGREEMENT PROGRAM

SUPPORT RATES

The 1952 C. C. C. Grain Price Support Bulletin 1, 17 F. R. 3521 issued by the Commodity Credit Corporation and containing the general requirements with respect to price support operations for grains and related commodities produced in 1952 was supplemented by 1952 C. C. C. Grain Price Support Bulletin 1, Supplement 1, Wheat as amended, 17 F. R. 3693, 4103, 4834, and 5785 containing the specific requirements applicable to price support operations on wheat of the 1952 crop. These regulations are further supplemented as follows:

§ 601.1711 Support rates. Basic support rates for wheat placed under loan or delivered under a purchase agreement are as set forth in this section.

(a) Basic support rates at designated terminal markets. Basic support rates per bushel for No. 1 dark hard winter, No. 1 hard winter, No. 1 yellow hard winter, No. 1 red winter, No. 1 western red, No. 1 soft white, No. 1 white club, No. 1 western white, No. 1 hard white, No. 1 heavy dark northern spring, No. 1 heavy northern spring, No. 1 heavy red spring, No. 1 hard amber durum, No. 1 amber durum, and No. 1 durum, stored in approved warehouses at the terminal markets listed below are as follows:

The applicable rate on a lot of wheat in Jefferson, Lewis and Clark, Madison, and Silver Bow counties shall be determined as follows:

1. Subtract all applicable discounts from the rate based on Minneapolis and from the rate based on Portland shown above.

2. If the lot of wheat contains 10 percent or more protein, and the applicable Minneapolis protein premium, if any, shown in the schedule of protein premiums to the rate based on Minneapolis, then add the applicable Portland protein premium from the same schedule to the rate based on Portland.

3. The applicable rate on the lot of wheat will be the highest as determined above.

The last sentence of § 362.2, Application for registry; form; fee, is amended by deleting the word "three" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "two".

PART 364—PHOTOGRAPHS

1. Section 364.1 is amended to read as follows:

§ 364.1 Description of required photographs. Every applicant required under this subchapter to furnish photographs of himself, except as otherwise provided in § 317.2 (c) of this subchapter, shall furnish two identical photographs 2 by 2 inches in size, which shall be unmounted, printed on a thin paper, have a light background, clearly show a full front view of the features of the applicant (with head bare, unless the applicant is wearing a headdress as required by a religious order of which he is a member), with the distance from the top of the head to point of chin approximately 1¼ inches, and which shall have been taken within 30 days of the date they are furnished. The applicant, except in the case of a child or other person physically incapable of signing his name, shall sign each copy of the photograph with his full true name in such manner as not to obscure the features. The signature shall be by mark if the applicant is unable to write. The photographs shall be signed when submitted with an application if the instructions accompanying the application so require. If the instructions do not so require, the photographs shall be submitted without being signed and shall be signed at such later time during the processing of the application as may be appropriate. Snapshot, group or full-length portraits will not be accepted.

2. The last sentence of § 364.2, Naturalization and citizenship papers requiring photographs; manner of attachment, is deleted.

TITLE 16—COMMERCIAL PRACTICES

Chapter I—Federal Trade Commission

Subchapter C—Regulations Under Specific Acts of Congress

[File No. 204-4]

PART 301—RULES AND REGULATIONS UNDER FUR PRODUCTS LABELLING ACT

On April 29, 1952, a notice of proposed rule-making was issued by the Commission and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 3, 1952. Such notice stated that the Commission would on June 3, 1952, at 10:00 a. m., d. s. t., hold a public hearing on proposed rules and regulations under the Fur Products Labeling Act. A draft of the proposed rules and regulations was made a part of the notice.

Pursuant to such notice public hearing was held in due course, and interested persons were afforded the opportunity of participating in the rule-making procedure by submitting orally or in writing on the date of the hearing, or in writing before such date, their views, arguments, or other pertinent data with respect thereto. Those wishing to submit in writing further views, argument or data in response to that submitted on or before the date of hearing, were afforded the opportunity of doing so within fifteen days after such hearing was closed. All data and information presented pursuant to the hearing has been made a part of the record.

After due consideration of the proposed rules and regulations, and suggested amendments and additions thereto, together with all views, arguments and other data submitted in connection with the public hearing thereon, the following rules and regulations under the Fur Products Labeling Act are hereby promulgated and made effective as of August 9, 1952.

AUTHORITY: §§ 301.1 to 301.49 issued under sec. 8, 65 Stat. 179; 15 U. S. C. Sup. 69f.

§ 301.1 Terms defined. (a) As used in this part, unless the context otherwise specifically requires:

(1) The term "act" means the "Fur Products Labeling Act" (approved Aug. 8, 1951, Pub. Law 110, 82d Cong., 1st Sess.; 15 U. S. C. A. sec. 69; 65 Stat. 179).

(2) The terms "rule", "rules", "regulations," and "rules and regulations", mean the rules and regulations prescribed by the Commission pursuant to section 8 (b) of the act.

(3) The definitions of terms contained in section 2 of the act shall be applicable also to such terms when used in rules promulgated under the act.

(4) The terms "Fur Products Name Guide" and "Name Guide" mean the register of names of hair, fleece and fur bearing animals issued by the Commission on February 8, 1952, pursuant to the provisions of section 7 (a) of the act.

(5) The terms "required information" and "information required" mean the information required to be disclosed on labels, invoices and in advertising under the act and rules and regulations, and such further information as may be permitted by the regulations, when and if used.

(b) The term "wearing apparel" as used in the definition of "fur product" in section 2 (d) of the act means any article of clothing, or covering for any part of the body, which is ready for wear without further manufacture.

§ 301.2 General requirements. (a) Each and every fur product, except those exempted under § 301.39, shall be labeled and invoiced in conformity with the requirements of the act and rules and regulations.

(b) Each and every fur shall be invoiced in conformity with the requirements of the act and rules and regulations.

(c) Any advertising of fur products or furs shall be in conformity with the requirements of the act and rules and regulations.

§ 301.3 English language requirement. All information required under the act and rules and regulations to appear on labels, invoices, and in advertising, shall be set out in the English language. If labels, invoices or advertising matter contain any of the required information in a language other than English, all of the required information shall appear also in the English language. The provisions of this section shall not apply to advertisements in foreign language newspapers or periodicals, but such advertising shall in all other respects comply with the act and regulations.

§ 301.4 Abbreviations or ditto marks prohibited. In disclosing required information in labeling and advertising, words or terms shall not be abbreviated or designated by the use of ditto marks but shall be spelled out fully, and in invoicing the required information shall not be abbreviated but shall be spelled out fully.

§ 301.5 Use of Fur Products Name Guide. (a) The Fur Products Name Guide (16 CFR 301.0) is set up in four columns under the headings of Name, Order, Family and Genus-Species. The applicable animal name appearing in the column headed "Name" shall be used in the required information in labeling, invoicing and advertising of fur products and furs. The scientific names appearing under the columns headed Order, Family, and Genus-Species are furnished for animal identification purposes and shall not be used.

(b) Where the name of the animal appearing in the Name Guide consists of two separate words the second word shall precede the first in designating the name of the animal in the required information; as for example: "Fox, Black" shall be disclosed as "Black Fox."

§ 301.6 Animals not listed in Fur Products Name Guide. (a) All furs are subject to the act and regulations regardless of whether the name of the animal producing the fur appears in the Fur Products Name Guide.

(b) Where fur is obtained from an animal not listed in the Fur Products Name Guide it shall be designated in the required information by the true English name of the animal or in the absence of a true English name, by the name which properly identifies such animal in the United States.

§ 301.7 Describing furs by certain breed names prohibited. If the fur of an animal is described in any manner by its breed, species, strain or coloring, irrespective of former usage, such descriptive matter shall not contain the name of another animal either in the adjective form or otherwise nor shall such description (subject to any exception contained in this part or animal names appearing in the Fur Products Name Guide) contain a name in an adjective form or otherwise which connotes a false geographic origin of the animal. For example, such designations as "Sable Mink," Chinchilla Rabbit," and "Aleutian Mink" shall not be used.

§ 301.8 Use of terms "Persian Lamb," "Broadtail Lamb," and "Persian-broadtail Lamb" permitted. (a) The term "Persian Lamb" may be used to describe the skin of the young lamb of the Karakul breed of sheep or top-cross breed of such sheep, having hair formed in knuckled curls.

(b) The term "Broadtail Lamb" may be used to describe the skin of the prematurely born, stillborn, or very young lamb of the Karakul breed of sheep or top-cross breed of such sheep, having flat light-weight fur with a moire pattern.

(c) The term "Persian-broadtail Lamb" may be used to describe the skin of the very young lamb of the Karakul breed of sheep or top-cross breed of such sheep, having hair formed in flattened knuckled curls with a moire pattern.

(d) The terms "Persian Lamb", "Broadtail Lamb", or "Persian-broadtail Lamb" shall not be used to describe: (1) The so-called Krimmer, Bessarabian, Rumanian, Shiraz, Salzfelle, Metis, Dubar, Mouched, Caracul, Iranian, Iraqi, Chinese, Mongolian, Chekiang, or Indian lamb skins, unless such lamb skins conform with the requirements set out in paragraphs (a), (b), or (c), of this section respectively; or (2) any other lamb skins having hair in a wavy or open curl pattern.

§ 301.9 Use of terms "Mouton-processed Lamb" and "Shearling Lamb" permitted. (a) The term "Mouton-processed Lamb" may be used to describe the skin of a lamb which has been sheared, the hair straightened, chemically treated, and thermally set to produce a moisture repellent finish; as for example:

Dyed Mouton-processed Lamb

(b) The term "Shearling Lamb" may be used to describe the skin of a lamb which has been sheared and combed.

§ 301.10 Use of term "Broadtail-processed Lamb" permitted. The term "Broadtail-processed Lamb" may be used to describe the skin of a lamb which has been sheared, leaving a moire hair pattern on the pelt having the appearance of the true fur pattern of "Broadtail Lamb"; as for example:

Dyed Broadtail-processed Lamb
Fur origin: Argentina

§ 301.11 Fictitious or non-existing animal designations prohibited. No trade names, coined names, nor other names or words descriptive of a fur as being the fur of an animal which is in fact fictitious or non-existent shall be used in labeling, invoicing or advertising of a fur or fur product.

§ 301.12 Country of origin of imported furs. (a) (1) In the case of furs imported into the United States from a foreign country, the country of origin of such furs shall be set forth as a part of the information required by the act in invoicing and advertising.

(2) In the case of fur products imported into the United States from a foreign country, or fur products made from furs imported into the United States from a foreign country, the country of origin of the furs contained in such products shall be set forth as a part of the information required by the act in labeling, invoicing and advertising.

(b) The term "country" means the political entity known as a nation. Colonies, possessions or protectorates outside the boundaries of the mother country shall be considered separate countries and the name thereof shall be deemed acceptable in designating the "country of origin" unless the Commission shall otherwise direct.

(c) The country in which the animal producing the fur was raised, or if in a feral state, was taken, shall be considered the "country of origin."

(d) When furs are taken within the territorial waters of a country, such country shall be considered the "country of origin." Furs taken outside such territorial waters, or on the high seas, shall have as their country of origin the country having the nearest mainland.

(e) (1) The English name of the country of origin shall be used and such name shall not be abbreviated.

(2) The name of the country of origin, when used as a part of the required information in labeling shall not be used in the adjective form but shall be preceded by the term "fur origin"; as for example:

Dyed Muskrat
Fur origin: Russia

or

Dyed China Mink
Fur origin: China

(f) Nothing in this section shall be construed as limiting in any way the information required to be disclosed on labels under the provisions of any Tariff Act of the United States or regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

§ 301.13 Fur products having furs with different countries of origin. When a fur product is composed of furs with different countries of origin the names of such countries shall be set forth in the required information in the order of predominance by surface areas of the furs in the fur product.

§ 301.14 Country of origin of used furs. When the country of origin of used furs is unknown, and no representations are made directly or by implication with respect thereto, this fact shall be set out as a part of the required information in lieu of the country of origin as "Fur origin: Unknown."

§ 301.15 Designation of section producing domestic furs permitted. In the case of furs produced in the United States the name of the section or area producing the furs used in the fur product may be set out in connection with the name of the animal; as for example:

Dyed Fur Seal
Fur origin: Alaska

or

Dyed Muskrat
Fur origin: Minnesota

§ 301.16 Disclosure of origin of certain furs raised or taken in United States. If the name of any animal set out in the Fur Products Name Guide or term permitted by the regulations to be used in connection therewith connotes foreign origin and such animal is raised or taken in the United States, furs obtained therefrom shall be described in disclosing the required information as having the United States as the country of origin; as for example:

Dyed Persian Lamb
Fur origin: United States

or

Mexican Raccoon
Fur origin: United States

§ 301.17 Misrepresentation of origin of furs. No misleading nor deceptive statements as to the geographical or zoological origin of the animal producing a fur shall be used directly or indirectly in labeling, invoicing or advertising furs or fur products.

§ 301.18 Passing off domestic furs as imported furs prohibited. No domestic furs nor fur products shall be labeled, invoiced or advertised in such a manner as to represent directly or by implication that they have been imported.

§ 301.19 Pointing, dyeing and bleaching. (a) Where a fur or fur product is pointed or contains or is composed of bleached, dyed or otherwise artificially colored fur, such facts shall be disclosed as a part of the required information in labeling, invoicing and advertising.

(b) The term "pointing" means the process of inserting separate hairs into furs or fur products for the purpose of adding guard hairs, either to repair damaged areas or to simulate other furs.

(c) The term "bleaching" means the process for producing a lighter shade of a fur, or removing off-color spots and stains by a bleaching agent.

(d) The term "dyeing" (which includes the processes known in the trade of tipping the hair or fur, feathering, and beautifying) means the process of applying dyestuffs to the hair or fur, either by immersion in a dye bath or by application of the dye by brush, feather, spray, or otherwise, for the purpose of changing the color of the fur or hair, or to accentuate its natural color. When dyestuff is applied only to the ends of the hair or fur, by feather or otherwise, it may be described as "tip-dyed." The application of dyestuff to the leather or the skin (known in the trade as "tipping", as distinguished from tip-dyeing the hair or fur as described in this paragraph) and which does not effect a change of, nor accentuate the natural color of the hair or fur, shall not be considered as "dyeing."

(e) The term "blended" shall not be used as a part of the required information to describe the pointing, bleaching, dyeing or tip-dyeing of furs.

(f) Where a fur or fur product is not pointed, bleached, dyed, tip-dyed or otherwise artificially colored it may be described as "natural".

§ 301.20 Fur products composed of pieces. (a) Where fur products, or fur mats and plates, are composed in whole or in substantial part of paws, tails, bellies, sides, flanks, gills, ears, throats, heads, scrap pieces, or waste fur, such fact shall be disclosed as a part of the required information in labeling, invoicing and advertising. Where a fur product is made of the backs of skins such fact may be set out in labels, invoices and advertising.

(b) Where fur products, or fur mats and plates, are composed wholly or substantially of two or more of the parts set out in paragraph (a) of this section or one or more of such parts and other fur, disclosure in respect thereto shall be made by naming such parts or other fur in order of predominance by surface area.

(c) The terms "substantial part" and "substantially" mean ten per centum (10 percent) or more in surface area.

(d) The term "assembled" shall not be used in lieu of the terms set forth in paragraph (a) of this section to describe fur products or fur mats and plates composed of such parts.

§ 301.21 Disclosure of used furs. (a) When fur in any form has been worn or used by an ultimate consumer it shall be designated "used fur" as a part of the required information in invoicing and advertising.

(b) When fur products or fur mats and plates are composed in whole or in part of used fur, such fact shall be disclosed as a part of the required information in labeling, invoicing and advertising; as for example:

Leopard
Used Fur

or

Dyed Muskrat
Contains Used Fur

§ 301.22 Disclosure of damaged furs. (a) The term "damaged fur," as used in this part, means a fur, which, because of a known or patent defect resulting from natural causes or from processing, is of such a nature that its use in a fur product would decrease the normal life and durability of such product.

(b) When damaged furs are used in a fur product, full disclosure of such fact shall be made as a part of the required information in labeling, invoicing, or advertising such product; as for example:

Mink
Fur origin: Canada
Contains Damaged Fur

§ 301.23 Second-hand fur products. When a fur product has been used or worn by an ultimate consumer and is subsequently marketed in its original, reconditioned, or rebuilt form with or without the addition of any furs or used furs, the requirements of the act and regulations in respect to labeling, invoicing and advertising of such product shall be applicable thereto, subject, however, to the provisions of § 301.14 as to country of origin requirement, and in addition, as a part of the required information such product shall be designated "Second-hand", "Reconditioned-Second-hand", or "Rebuilt-Second-hand", as the case may be.

§ 301.24 Repairing, restyling and remodeling fur products for consumer. When fur products owned by and to be returned to the ultimate-consumer are repaired, restyled or remodeled and used fur or fur is added thereto, labeling of the fur product shall not be required. However, the person adding such used fur or fur to the fur product, or who is responsible therefor, shall give to the owner an invoice disclosing the information required under the act and regulations respecting the used fur or fur added to the fur product, subject, however, to the provisions of § 301.14 as to country of origin requirement.

§ 301.25 Name required to appear on labels and invoices. The name required by the act to be used on labels and invoices shall be the full name under which the person is doing business, and no trade-mark, trade name nor other name which does not constitute such full name shall be used in lieu thereof.

§ 301.26 Registered identification number. (a) Registered numbers for use as the required identification in lieu of the name on fur product labels as provided in section 4 (2) (E) of the act will be issued by the Commission to qualified persons residing in the United States upon receipt of an application duly executed in the form set out in paragraph (d) of this section.

(b) (1) Registered identification numbers shall be used only by the person or concern to whom they are issued, and such numbers are not transferable or assignable.

(2) Any change in name, business address, or legal business status of a person to whom a registered identification number has been assigned shall be reported promptly to the Federal Trade Commission.

(3) Registered identification numbers shall be subject to cancellation whenever any such number was procured or has been used improperly or contrary to the requirements of the act and regulations, or when otherwise deemed necessary in the public interest.

(c) Where a fur product is subject also to the Wool Products Labeling Act and the label affixed thereto sets forth all of the information required under each act, as provided in § 301.32, a registered identification number issued under the rules and regulations relating to the Wool Products Labeling Act may be used thereon as the required identification.

(d) Form of application for registered identification number (printed forms are available upon request at the offices of the Commission):

§ 301.27 Label and method of affixing. At all times during the marketing of a fur product the required label shall have a minimum dimension of one and three-fourths (1¾) inches by two and three fourths (2¾) inches. Such label shall be of a material of sufficient durability and shall be conspicuously affixed to the product in a secure manner and with sufficient permanency to remain thereon throughout the sale, resale, distribution and handling incident thereto, and shall remain on or be firmly affixed to the respective product when sold and delivered to the purchaser and purchaser-consumer thereof.

§ 301.28 Labels to be avoided. Labels which are insecurely or inconspicuously attached, or which in the course of offering the fur product for sale, selling, transporting, marketing, or handling incident thereto, are likely to become detached, indistinct, obliterated, illegible, mutilated, inaccessible or inconspicuous shall not be used.

§ 301.29 Requirements in respect to disclosure on label. (a) The required information shall be set out on the label in a legible manner and in not smaller than pica or twelve (12) point type, and all parts of the required information shall be set out in letters of equal size and conspicuousness. All of the required information with respect to the fur product shall be set out on one side of the label and no other information shall appear on such side except the lot or style number and size. The other side of the label may be used to set out any non-required information which is true and non-deceptive and which is not prohibited by the act and regulations, but in all cases the animal name used shall be that set out in the Name Guide.

(b) The required information may be set out in hand printing provided it conforms to the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section, and is set out in indelible ink in a clear, distinct, legible and conspicuous manner. Handwriting shall not be used in setting out any of the required information on the label.

§ 301.30 Arrangement of required information on label. (a) The applicable parts of the information required with respect to the fur to appear on labels affixed to fur products shall be set out in the following sequence:

(1) That the fur product contains or is composed of pointed, bleached, dyed, or tip-dyed fur when such is the fact;

(2) The name or names (as set forth in the Fur Products Name Guide) of the animal or animals that produced the fur;

(3) That the fur product is composed in whole or in substantial part of paws, tails, bellies, sides, flanks, gills, ears, throats, heads, scrap pieces, or waste fur, when such is the fact;

(4) The name of the country of origin of any imported furs used in the fur product;

(5) Any other information required or permitted by the act and regulations with respect to the fur.

(b) That part of the required information with respect to the name or registered identification number of the manufacturer or dealer may precede or follow the required information set out in paragraph (a) of this section.

§ 301.31 Labeling of fur products consisting of two or more units. (a) The label shall be attached to and appear upon each garment or separate article of wearing apparel subject to the act irrespective of whether two or more garments or articles may be sold or marketed together or in combination with each other.

(b) In the case of fur products manufactured for use in pairs or groups, only one label will be required if all units in the pair or group are of the same fur and have the same country of origin, and are firmly attached to each other when marketed and delivered in the channels of trade and to the purchaser-consumer and the information set out on the label is clearly applicable to each unit in the pair or group and supplies the information required under the act and rules and regulations.

§ 301.32 Fur product containing material other than fur. (a) Where a fur product contains a material other than fur the content of which is required to be disclosed on labels under other statutes administered by the Commission, such information may be set out on the same side of the label and in immediate conjunction with the information required under this act; as for example:

100% Wool
Interlining—100% Reused Wool
Trim—Dyed Muskrat
Fur origin: Canada

(b) Information which may be desirable or necessary to fully inform the purchaser or other material content of a fur product may be set out on the same side of the label as used for disclosing the information required under the act and rules and regulations; as for example:

Body—Cotton
Lining—Nylon Pile
Collar—Dyed Mouton-processed Lamb
Fur origin: Argentina

§ 301.33 Labeling of samples. Where samples of furs or fur products subject to the act are used to promote or effect sales of fur products, said samples, as well as the fur products purchased therefrom, shall be labeled to show the information required under the act and regulations.

§ 301.34 Label or invoice incomplete or inaccurate. (a) If a person subject to section 3 of the act with respect to a fur product finds or has reasonable cause to believe the label affixed thereto is incorrect or does not contain all the information required by the act and the rules and regulations, he shall correct such label or replace same with a substitute containing the required information.

(b) If a person subject to section 3 of the act with respect to a fur or fur product finds or has reasonable cause to believe that the invoice issued to him in relation to such fur or fur product is incorrect or does not contain all the information required by the act and regulations, he shall, in connection with any invoice issued by him in relation to such fur or fur product correctly set forth all of the information required by the act and regulations in relation to such fur or fur product.

§ 301.35 Substitution of labels. (a) Persons authorized under the provisions of section 3 (e) of the act to substitute labels affixed to fur products may do so, provided the substitute label is complete and carries all the information required under the act and rules and regulations in the same form and manner as required in respect to the original label. The substitute label need not, however, show the name or registered number appearing on the original label if the name or registered number of the person who affixes the substitute appears thereon.

(b) The original label may be used as a substitute label provided the name or registered number of the person making the substitution, together with the item number or mark assigned by such person to said fur product for record purposes is inserted thereon without interfering with or obscuring in any manner other required information. In connection with such substitution the name or registered number as well as any record numbers appearing on the original label may be removed.

(c) Persons substituting labels under the provision of this section shall maintain the records required under § 301.41.

§ 301.36 Sectional fur products. (a) Where a fur product is composed of two or more sections containing different aminal furs the required information with respect to each section shall be separately set forth in labeling, invoicing or advertising; as for example:

Dyed Rabbit
Fur origin: France
Trimming: Dyed Mouton-processed Lamb
Fur origin: Argentina

or

Body: Dyed Kolinsky
Fur origin: Russia
Tail: Dyed Mink
Fur origin: Canada

(b) The provisions of this section shall not be interpreted so as to require the disclosure of very small amounts of different animal furs added to complete a fur product or skin such as the ears, snoot, or under part of the jaw.

§ 301.37 Manner of invoicing furs and fur products. (a) In the invoicing of furs and fur products, all of the required information shall be set out in a clear, legible, distinct and conspicuous manner. The invoice shall be issued at the time of the sale or other transaction involving furs or fur products, but the required information need not be repeated in subsequent periodic statements of account respecting the same furs or fur products.

(b) Non-required information or representations appearing in the invoicing of furs and fur products shall in no way be false or deceptive nor include any names, terms or representations prohibited by the act and regulations. Nor shall such information or representations be set forth or used in such manner as to interfere with the required information.

§ 301.38 Advertising of furs and fur products. (a) (1) In advertising furs or fur products, all parts of the required information shall be stated in close proximity with each other and, if printed, in legible and conspicuous type of equal size.

(2) Non-required information or representations appearing in the advertising of furs and fur products shall in no way be false or deceptive nor include any names, terms or representations prohibited by the act and regulations. Nor shall such information or representations be set forth or used in such manner as to interfere with the required information.

(b) (1) In general advertising of a group of fur products composed in whole or in part of imported furs having various countries of origin, the disclosure of such countries of origin may, by reference, be made through the use of the following statement in the advertisement in a clear and conspicuous manner:

Fur products labeled to show country of origin of imported furs

(2) The provisions of this paragraph shall not be applicable in the case of catalogue, mail order, or other types of advertising which solicit the purchase of fur products in such a manner that the purchaser or prospective purchaser would not have the opportunity of viewing the product and attached label prior to delivery thereof.

(c) In advertising of an institutional type referring only to the general nature or kind of business conducted or to the general classification of the types or kinds of furs or fur products manufactured or handled, and which advertising is not intended to aid, promote, or assist directly or indirectly in the sale or offering for sale of any specific fur products or furs, the required information need not be set forth: Provided, however, That if reference is made in the advertisement to a color of the fur which was caused by dyeing, bleaching or other artificial coloring, such facts shall be disclosed in the advertising, and provided further, that when animal names are used in such advertising, such names shall be those set forth in the Fur Products Name Guide. For example, the kind of advertising contemplated by this paragraph is as follows:

X Fur Company
Famous for its Black Dyed Persian Lamb
Since 1900

or

X Company
Manufacturers of Fine Muskrat Coats,
Capes and Stoles

§ 301.39 Exempted fur products. (a) Where the cost of any manufactured fur or furs contained in a fur product, exclusive of any costs incident to its incorporation therein, does not exceed five dollars ($5.00), or where a manufacturer's selling price of a fur product does not exceed five dollars ($5.00), and no express or implied representation is made concerning the fur contained in such product and the provisions of paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section are met, the fur product shall be exempt from the requirements of the act and regulations: Provided, however, That if the fur product is made of or contains any used fur, or if the fur product itself is or purports to be the whole skin of an animal with the head, ears, paws, and tail, such as a choker or scarf, the fur product is to be labeled, invoiced and advertised in accordance with the requirements of the act and regulations regardless of cost of the fur used in the fur product, or manufacturer's selling price.

(b) Where a fur product is exempt under this section from the requirements of the act and regulations, the manufacturer thereof shall maintain, in addition to the other records required under the act and regulations, adequate records showing the cost of the fur used in such fur product, or copies of invoices showing the manufacturer's selling price of the fur product, provided such price is used as the basis for exemption. Such records shall be preserved for at least three years.

(c) Where a fur product is exempt under this section and the manufacturer's selling price exceeds five dollars ($5.00) the manufacturer's or wholesaler's invoice shall carry information indicating such fur product is exempt from the provisions of the act and regulations; as for example: "FPL Exempt".

§ 301.40 Item number or mark to be assigned to each fur product. (a) For the purpose of identification, each fur product shall be assigned a separate item number or mark by the manufacturer thereof: Provided, however, That where all of the furs used in a group of fur products are obtained through the same purchase and from the same source and all of the required information with respect to such furs is identical, then a single item number or mark may be assigned to identify all of the fur products in such group. Each number or mark so assigned shall appear on the required label and invoice pertaining to such product and used for the identification thereof in the records required by § 301.41.

(b) Any subsequent dealer in fur products may assign to each fur product handled a different item number or mark to be used on the required label and invoice pertaining to such product, in lieu of that of the manufacturer or other supplier, and for the identification of such fur product in the records required by § 301.41.

§ 301.41 Maintenance of records. (a) Pursuant to section 3 (e) and section 8 (d) (1), of the act, each manufacturer or dealer in fur products or furs, irrespective of whether any guaranty has been given or received, shall maintain records showing all of the required information relative to such fur products or furs in such manner as will readily identify each fur or fur product manufactured or handled.

(b) The records to be maintained under this section shall include copies of all purchase orders, sales contracts, and invoices; business correspondence; manufacturing records, advertising matter, and all other data showing:

(1) The purchase and receipt of all fur products and furs handled;

(2) The respective item number or mark assigned to each fur product by the manufacturer or supplier thereof as required by § 301.40;

(3) The item number or mark which may be assigned to any particular fur product by a subsequent dealer in lieu of that assigned by the manufacturer or supplier thereof, as permitted by § 301.40;

(4) That the fur product manufactured or handled is "second hand", when such is the fact;

(5) That the fur handled or the fur product manufactured or handled contains or is composed of pointed, bleached, dyed, or tip-dyed fur, when such is the fact;

(6) The name or names (as set forth in the Fur Products Name Guide) of the animal or animals that produced the fur handled or the fur contained in each fur product manufactured or handled;

(7) That the fur product or fur mats or plates manufactured or handled are composed in whole or in substantial part of paws, tails, bellies, sides, flanks, gills, ears, throats, heads, scrap pieces, or waste fur, when such is the fact;

(8) That the fur handled is used or the fur product manufactured or handled contains or is composed of used or damaged furs, when such is the fact;

(9) The name or names of the countries of origin of all imported furs handled or imported furs contained in each fur product manufactured or handled;

(10) All of the required information including the required item number or mark appearing on any label affixed to a fur product which is removed for the purpose of substitution;

(11) The sale of each fur handled and fur product manufactured or handled.

§ 301.42 Deception as to nature of business. When necessary to avoid deception, the name of any person other than the manufacturer of the fur product appearing on the label or invoice shall be accompanied by appropriate words showing that the fur product was not manufactured by such person; as for example:

Distributed by ----------
or
---------- Wholesalers

§ 301.43 Use of deceptive trade or corporate names, trade-marks or graphic representations prohibited. No person shall use in labeling, invoicing or advertising any fur or fur product a trade name, corporate name, trade-mark or other trade designation or graphic representation which misleads or deceives or has the capacity or tendency to mislead or deceive purchasers, prospective purchasers or the consuming public as to:

(a) The character of the product including method of construction;

(b) The name of the animal producing the fur;

(c) The method or manner of distribution; or

(d) The geographical or zoological origin of the fur.

§ 301.44 Misrepresentation of prices. (a) No person shall, with respect to a fur or fur product, advertise such fur or fur product at alleged wholesale prices or at alleged manufacturers cost or less, unless such representations are true in fact; nor shall any person advertise a fur or fur product at prices purported to be reduced from what are in fact fictitious prices, nor at a purported reduction in price when such purported reduction is in fact fictitious.

(b) No person shall, with respect to a fur or fur product, advertise such fur or fur product with comparative prices and percentage savings claims except on the basis of current market values or unless the time of such compared price is given.

(c) No person shall, with respect to a fur or fur product, advertise such fur or fur product as being "made to sell for", being "worth" or "valued at" a certain price, or by similar statements, unless such claim or representation is true in fact.

(d) No person shall, with respect to a fur or fur product, advertise such fur or fur product as being of a certain value or quality unless such claims or representations are true in fact.

(e) Persons making pricing claims or representations of the types described in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of this section shall maintain full and adequate records disclosing the facts upon which such claims or representations are based.

(f) No person shall, with respect to a fur or fur product, advertise such fur or fur product by the use of an illustration which shows such fur or fur product to be a higher priced product than the one so advertised.

(g) No person shall, with respect to a fur or fur product, advertise such fur or fur product as being "bankrupt stock", "samples", "show room models", "Hollywood Models", "Paris Models", "French Models", "Parisian Creations", "Furs Worn by Society Women", "Clearance Stock", "Auction Stock", "Stock of a business in a state of liquidation", or similar statements, unless such representations or claims are true in fact.

§ 301.45 Representations as to construction of fur products. (a) No misleading nor deceptive statements as to the construction of fur products shall be used directly or indirectly in labeling, invoicing or advertising such products. (For example, a fur product made by the skin-on-skin method should not be represented as having been made by the let-out method.)

(b) Where a fur product is made by the method known in the trade as letting-out, or is made of fur which has been sheared or plucked, such facts may be set out in labels, invoices and advertising.

§ 301.46 Reference to guaranty by Government prohibited. No representation nor suggestion that a fur or fur product is guaranteed under the act by the Government, or any branch thereof, shall be made in the labeling, invoicing or advertising in connection therewith.

§ 301.47 Form of separate guaranty. The following is a suggested form of separate guaranty under section 10 of the act which may be used by a guarantor residing in the United States, on and as part of an invoice in which the merchandise covered is listed and specified and which shows the date of such document, the date of shipment of the merchandise and the signature and address of the guarantor:

We guarantee that the fur products or furs specified herein are not misbranded nor falsely nor deceptively advertised or invoiced under the provisions of the Fur Products Labeling Act and rules and regulations thereunder.

§ 301.48 Continuing guaranties. (a) Under section 10 of the act any person residing in the United States and handling furs or fur products may file a continuing guaranty with the Federal Trade Commission. When filed with the Commission a continuing guaranty shall be fully executed in duplicate and execution of each copy shall be acknowledged before a notary public. Forms for use in preparing continuing guaranties will be supplied by the Commission upon request.

(b) Continuing guaranties filed with the Commission shall be renewable annually and at such other times as any change occurs in legal business status of the person filing the continuing guaranty. The guarantor shall promptly report any such change to the Commission and advise the Commission of any change in the address of its principal office and place of business.

(c) The following is the prescribed form of continuing guaranty:

TITLE 22—FOREIGN RELATIONS

Chapter I—Department of State

Subchapter A—The Department

[Dept. Reg. 108.156]

PART 96—PARCEL POST SHIPMENTS OF INDIVIDUAL RELIEF PACKAGES

JUNE 30, 1952.

Preamble. Pursuant to section 535 of Public Law 400, 82d Congress, and Executive Order No. 10368 of June 30, 1952, the authority to pay ocean freight charges on shipments of relief supplies and packages under section 117 (c) of the Economic Cooperation Act of 1948, as amended, has been placed in the Department of State.

The regulations in this part, which have been approved by the Postmaster General, supersede Part 202 of Chapter II of this title.[1]

Sec.
96.1 Scope of the regulations in this part.
96.2 Definition of relief package.
96.3 Manner of payment of ocean freight charges.
96.4 Limitations of contents of relief packages.
96.5 Weight and size limitations.
96.6 Identification.
96.7 Postal regulations.
96.8 Import regulations.
96.9 Saving clause.

AUTHORITY: § 96.1 to 96.9 issued under sec. 104, 62 Stat. 136, as amended; 22 U. S. C. Sup. 1503. Interpret or apply sec. 117, 62 Stat. 153, as amended, sec. 535, Public Law 400, 82d Cong.; 22 U. S. C. Sup. 1515, E. O. 10368; 17 F. R. 5929.

§ 96.1 Scope of the regulations in this part. This part provides the rules under which the Secretary of State will pay ocean freight charges from a United States port to initial foreign ports of entry on relief packages originating in the United States (including its territories and insular possessions) and consigned by an individual by parcel post to an individual residing in Austria, Italy, or the zones of Trieste occupied by the United States and the United Kingdom, and those areas of China which the Secretary may deem to be eligible for assistance.

§ 96.2 Definition of relief package. A "relief package" is defined as a gift parcel, containing articles permitted by § 96.4 to be sent by an individual free of cost to the person receiving it for the personal use of himself or his immediate family.

§ 96.3 Manner of payment of ocean freight charges. The Secretary of State will reimburse the Post Office Department for the ocean freight charges on relief packages sent by parcel post by an individual to an individual in any of the countries listed above, to the extent that the international parcel post rate paid by the sender has been reduced pursuant to regulations of the Post Office Department. (Part II United States Official Postal Guide, edition of July 1, 1951, pp. 90, 133, 236 and 365.)

§ 96.4 Limitations of contents of relief packages. (a) The contents of relief packages shall be limited to nonperishable food; clothing and clothes-making materials; shoes and shoemaking materials; mailable medical and health supplies; household supplies and utensils; and vegetable seeds; if permitted under existing United States postal regulations. (Part II United States Official Postal Guide, edition of July 1, 1951, pp. 90, 133, 236 and 365.)

(b) Relief packages shipped hereunder are subject to regulations prescribed by the Office of International Trade of the Department of Commerce.

(c) The combined total domestic retail value of vegetable seeds must not exceed $5.00.

§ 96.5 Weight and size limitations. The maximum weight and dimensions of each relief package sent by parcel post must conform to the limitations established by the Post Office Department for the particular country of destination.

§ 96.6 Identification. When a relief package is presented to a post office for mailing under the regulations in this part, the words "U. S. A. Gift Parcel" shall be endorsed conspicuously by the sender on the addressee side of the package and also entered on the customs declaration. The use of the words "U. S. A. Gift Parcel" is a certification by the individual mailing the relief package that the provisions of the regulations in this part have been met.

§ 96.7 Postal regulations. Information concerning the Post Office regulations should be obtained from the local post offices with respect to size and weight limitations, customs declaration (Form 2966), dispatch note (Form 2972), and the postage rate applicable for such shipments.

§ 96.8 Import regulations. Senders of relief packages are reminded that each receiving country has import and customs regulations, and that certain items may be subject to import restrictions or duties. Information regarding such regulations may be ascertained either from the proposed recipient, from the Office of International Trade, Department of Commerce, Washington 25, D. C., or any of the district offices of the Department of Commerce.

§ 96.9 Saving clause. The Secretary of State may waive, withdraw, or amend at any time or from time to time any or all of the provisions of the regulations in this part.

Effective date. These regulations shall become effective July 1, 1952.

WILLARD L. THORP,
Assistant Secretary of State.

[Dept. Reg. 108.157]

PART 97—OCEAN SHIPMENTS OF SUPPLIES BY VOLUNTARY NONPROFIT RELIEF AGENCIES

JUNE 30, 1952.

Preamble. Pursuant to section 535 of Public Law 400, 82d Congress, and Executive Order No. 10368 of June 30, 1952, the authority to pay ocean freight charges on shipments of relief supplies and packages under section 117 (c) of the Economic Cooperation Act of 1948, as amended, has been placed in the Department of State.

The regulations in this part supersede Part 203 of Chapter II of this title.[1]

Sec.
97.1 Definition of terms.
97.2 Scope of the regulations in this part.
97.3 Agencies within scope of the regulations in this part.
97.4 Manner of payment of ocean freight charges.
97.5 Refund by agencies.
97.6 Saving clause.

AUTHORITY: § 97.1 to 97.6 issued under sec. 104, 62 Stat. 138, as amended; 22 U. S. C. Sup. 1503. Interpret or apply sec. 117, 62 Stat. 153, as amended, sec. 535, Public Law 400, 82d Cong.; 22 U. S. C. Sup. 1515, E. O. 10368; 17 F. R. 5929.

§ 97.1 Definition of terms. For the purposes of this part:

(a) "The Secretary" shall mean the Secretary of State.

(b) "The Committee" shall mean the Advisory Committee on Voluntary Foreign Aid of the Department of State.

(c) "Supplies" shall include goods shipped in bulk and relief packages.

§ 97.2 Scope of the regulations in this part. This part provides the rules under which the Secretary, in order to further the efficient use of United States voluntary contributions for relief in countries or zones hereinafter designated, will pay ocean freight charges from United States ports to initial foreign ports of entry of such designated countries or zones on supplies donated to, or purchased by, United States voluntary nonprofit relief agencies registered with the Committee, for distribution in Austria, those areas of China which the Secretary may deem to be eligible for assistance, the Federal Republic of Germany, Greece, France, Italy, the zones of Trieste occupied by the United States and the United Kingdom, and, when the Secretary determines it necessary and expedient, in any country eligible for economic or technical assistance under the Mutual Security

[1] Revoked, 17 F. R. 5934.

Act of 1952 (P. L. 400, 82d Cong., 2d Sess.).

§ 97.3 Agencies within scope of the regulations in this part. Any United States voluntary nonprofit relief agency may make application for reimbursement of ocean freight charges on shipments of supplies donated to or purchased by it for distribution within the foreign countries and zones listed in § 97.2, Provided:

(a) An agreement for duty-free entry and defrayment of inland transportation costs of relief supplies within the scope of the regulations in this part has been concluded between the United States and the recipient country.

(b) The general program and projects by countries of operation of the agency, and the supplies in support thereof, have been approved by the recipient country in accordance with the agreement referred to in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) The agency is registered with the Committee, and therefore has met all the requirements of registration as set forth in the regulations "Registration of Agencies for Voluntary Foreign Aid." (Part 98 of this subchapter.)

§ 97.4 Manner of payment of ocean freight charges. By means of an equitable apportionment of the funds available for this purpose the Secretary will reimburse agencies qualified under § 97.2 and § 97.3 to the extent of ocean freight charges paid by them for shipments made in conformity with the regulations in this part: Provided, That application for such reimbursement is submitted to the Secretary of State, Attention: Advisory Committee on Voluntary Foreign Aid, Department of State, Washington 25, D. C., within forty-five days of date of shipment, together with receipted invoices for such charges, supported by ocean bills of lading, showing that such charges are limited to the actual cost of transportation of the supplies from end of ship's tackle at the United States port of loading to end of ship's tackle at port of discharge, correctly assessed at the time of loading by the carrier for freight on a weight, measurement, or unit basis, and free of any other charges.

§ 97.5 Refund by agencies. Any agency reimbursed hereunder will refund promptly to the Secretary upon demand the entire amount, or any lesser amount specified, of ocean freight charges reimbursed, and to the recipient country upon demand the entire amount, or any lesser amount specified, of inland transportation costs reimbursed, whenever the Secretary determines that the reimbursements were improper as being in violation of any of the provisions of Public Law 400, 82d Congress, any acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, any relevant appropriation acts, or any rules, regulations or procedures of the Department of State.

§ 97.6 Saving clause. The Secretary may waive, withdraw, or amend at any time or from time to time any or all of the provisions of the regulations in this part.

Effective date. These regulations shall become effective July 1, 1952.

WILLARD L. THORP,
Assistant Secretary of State.

[Dept. Reg. 108.158]

PART 98—REGISTRATION OF AGENCIES FOR VOLUNTARY FOREIGN AID

JUNE 30, 1952.

Sec.
98.1 A register of voluntary foreign aid agencies and of their activities.
98.2 Application for registration.
98.3 Requirements for registration.
98.4 Validation of registration.
98.5 Amendments to registration.
98.6 Validation of programs and projects.
98.7 Representation of registrants.
98.8 Acceptance and termination of registration.
98.9 Saving clause.

AUTHORITY: §§ 98.1 to 98.9 issued under sec. 4, 63 Stat. 111; 5 U. S. C. 151c.

§ 98.1 A register of voluntary foreign aid agencies and of their activities. To foster the public interest in the field of voluntary foreign aid and the activities of nongovernmental organizations which serve the public interest therein, the Advisory Committee on Voluntary Foreign Aid of the Department of State (referred to in this part as the Committee) is hereby authorized and directed to establish and to maintain, pursuant to the rules set forth in this part, a register of such nongovernmental organizations qualified for and voluntarily accepting registration; such register (a) to serve as a repository of information, including currently recording therein the organization, purposes, programs, finances and other pertinent activities of the registrants for public guidance; (b) to enable the Committee to facilitate the programs and projects of the registrants through the exercise of its good offices and the provision of facilities authorized by the laws, regulations and procedures related to voluntary foreign aid as administered by the Committee, other United States agencies, or by international governmental agencies supported by the United States; and (c) to provide information and advice, and perform such other functions, as may be necessary in furtherance of the purposes of this section.

§ 98.2 Application for registration. Any person or nongovernmental organization or agency carrying on any nonprofit activities in the United States for the purpose of furthering or engaging in voluntary aid in areas outside the United States, including, but not limited to, projects and services of relief, rehabilitation, reconstruction and welfare in the fields of health, education, agriculture and industry, emigration and resettlement, may voluntarily make application for registration to the Chairman, Advisory Committee on Voluntary Foreign Aid, Department of State, Washington 25, D. C. Any person, organization, or agency whose application for registration is accepted under this part shall be referred to in this part as a registrant.

§ 98.3 Requirements for registration. To establish that the primary purpose to be served is the provision of voluntary foreign aid, an applicant for registration shall submit evidence by its charter, articles of incorporation, constitution, bylaws, and other relevant documents, and a statement upon forms to be provided by the Committee or otherwise as may be required that:

(a) It maintains its principal place of business in the United States;

(b) It is controlled by an active and responsible body composed principally of United States citizens, who serve without compensation, who have accepted the responsibility to carry out the activities of the agency to be reported to the Committee, and who will exercise satisfactory controls to assure that its services and resources are administered competently in the public interest;

(c) It has been authorized by the Bureau of Internal Revenue to inform donors that their contributions may be deducted for Federal income tax purposes;

(d) It is not engaged, or will not be engaged, in any activities or enterprises inconsistent with the fulfillment of the purposes and objectives as set forth in the application, or which may be recorded in the registration, or in any programs or projects thereunder;

(e) The funds and resources of the registrant will be obtained, expended, and distributed in ways which conform to accepted ethical standards without unreasonable cost for promotion, publicity, fund raising and administration at home and abroad;

(f) The committee will be informed of any plans, including projected publicity, for popular drives for funds or other forms of support to permit the committee to offer suggestions and where appropriate to lend its good offices. Such popular drives will be timed in so far as practicable, to avoid conflict with national appeals for public support during the limited periods of the countrywide campaigns of the American National Red Cross, the Community Chests, Savings Bond drives of the United States Treasury, or similar campaigns of accepted general national interest;

(g) It will refer to the Committee for appropriate consideration any proposed programs, procedures or agreements affecting other Federal agencies or international governmental agencies but which also affect the action responsibilities of the Committee before formal steps are concluded with such agencies, and in order that the Committee may lend its good offices and that coordination may be assured pursuant to the President's Directive of May 14, 1946 and Departmental Announcement 33 of February 13, 1950 of the Department of State;

(h) Such current and periodic reports and information will be provided as the Committee may require from time to time pertaining to the registrant's organization, programs, projects, and finances, including audits by a certified public accountant, or other pertinent activities. All records pertaining to responsibilities as a registrant and related to activities as such shall be made available for official inspection. Information on registration, organization, periodic reports on programs and finances shall be available for public inspection.

§ 98.4 Validation of registration. Certificates of registration will be issued by the Committee to applicants which fulfill the requirements set forth in § 98.3 and upon the finding of the Committee that the general purposes to be served are of a character and fulfill a need that justify appeals for voluntary support, warrant the cooperation of the United States Government, and otherwise are deemed to serve the public interest. Such certificates may be withheld, in the discretion of the Committee, until an initial program has been recorded under the terms set forth in § 98.6. Certificates will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 98.5 Amendments to registration. A registrant's certificate of registration shall be amended whenever a material change is made in the registrant's organization, its purposes or governing personnel. The application for amendment shall be supported by a resolution of the controlling body or other evidence certified by an authorized official. Amended certificates will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 98.6 Validation of programs and projects. (a) Registrants, to carry out and fulfill the purposes and objectives of their organization and to obtain appropriate official United States support and facilities, will submit applications upon forms provided by the Committee or otherwise as may be required, for the recording of specific country programs or specific projects of relief, rehabilitation, reconstruction and welfare as these are developed in the fields of health, education, agriculture, industry, emigration and resettlement. Notices of acceptance will be issued by the Committee as supplements to certificates of registration: Provided, That:

(1) The specific program or specific project is within the scope of any agreement that has been concluded between the United States Government and the government of the country of interest in furtherance of the operations of registrants acceptable to such governments;

(2) In the absence of such an agreement as set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph satisfactory assurances are:

(i) Obtained from the government of the country in question that appropriate facilities are or will be afforded for the necessary and economical operations of the program or project including (a) acceptance of the specific program or specific project; (b) the supplies approved in support of the program or project are free of customs duties, other duties, tolls, and taxes; (c) treatment of supplies as a supplementary resource and not as a substitute for public rations; (d) the identification of the supplies, to the extent practicable, as to their United States origin and their free provision by the donor agency; and (e) in so far as practicable the reception, unloading, warehousing and transport of the supplies free of cost to points of distribution.

(ii) Provided by the registrant that (a) shipments will be made only to consignees reported to the Committee and full responsibility is assumed by such consignees for the noncommercial distribution of the supplies free of cost to the persons ultimately receiving them; and (b) distribution is under the supervision of United States citizens specifically charged with the responsibility for the program or project, or by nationals, upon notification to the Committee in justification of their selection on account of the character and economy of the operation, and the degree of cooperation and acceptance of responsibility of the indigenous agency.

(b) Programs and projects which involve the contractual support of United States or international governmental agencies and acceptance of measures of responsibility by the Committee will be recorded following an understanding between the Committee and the contracting official agency to assure correlation in the attainment of common objectives, and pursuant to the President's Directive of May 14, 1946 and Departmental Announcement 33 of February 13, 1950 of the Department of State.

§ 98.7 Representation of registrants. The Committee, in appropriate cases, may exercise its good offices or recommend to and appear before United States agencies or international agencies supported by the United States Government, to facilitate the recorded programs of any registrant or committees of such registrants, and to further the provision of facilities authorized by laws, regulations, and procedures in support of voluntary foreign aid.

§ 98.8 Acceptance and termination of registration. (a) Registrations shall remain in force until relinquished voluntarily by the registrant upon written notice to the Committee or formal notice from the Committee is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER stating that they are:

(1) Amended in accordance with § 98.5; or

(2) Suspended or terminated.

(b) Acceptance of a notice of relinquishment of registration shall be subject to submittal of final reports to the Committee, including the plans for disposition of the registrant's residual assets acquired in support of its registered programs.

§ 98.9 Saving clause. The Secretary of State may waive, withdraw, or amend from time to time any or all of the provisions of the regulations in this part.

Effective date. The regulations in this part shall become effective as of the date of their publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER and shall supersede as of their effective date "Conditions of Agency Registration" of September 1, 1948, promulgated by the Advisory Committee on Voluntary Foreign Aid.

Certificates of registration and amendments thereto heretofore issued by the Advisory Committee on Voluntary Foreign Aid, and which are valid as of the effective date of the regulations in this part, shall continue in force and effect.

WILLARD L. THORP,
Assistant Secretary of State.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter XIV—The Renegotiation Board

Subchapter B—Renegotiation Board Regulations Under the 1951 Act

PART 1452—PRIME CONTRACTS AND SUBCONTRACTS WITHIN THE SCOPE OF THE ACT

PART 1453—MANDATORY EXEMPTIONS FROM RENEGOTIATION

PART 1454—PARTIAL MANDATORY EXEMPTION OF SUBCONTRACTS FOR NEW DURABLE PRODUCTIVE EQUIPMENT

PART 1455—PERMISSIVE EXEMPTIONS FROM RENEGOTIATION

PART 1456—METHODS OF SEGREGATING RENEGOTIABLE AND NONRENEGOTIABLE SALES

PART 1458—RECEIPTS OR ACCRUALS UNDER STATUTORY MINIMUM

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. Section 1452.7 Brokers, manufacturers' agents, and dealers is amended by deleting the heading and inserting in lieu thereof the following: Brokers and manufacturers' agents.

2. Section 1452.5 (b) Exemptions is amended by deleting subparagraph (12) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

(12) Corps of Engineers. All contracts to the extent that they obligate funds appropriated for the civil functions of the Corps of Engineers, Department of the Army, except contracts entered into after June 30, 1950 (i) for the construction of facilities directly or indirectly related to the generation or distribution of hydroelectric energy, and (ii) for materials required for the construction of facilities directly or indirectly related to the generation or distribution of hydroelectric energy.

3. Section 1454.8 Subcontracts related to subcontracts for new durable productive equipment is amended to read as follows:

§ 1454.8 Subcontracts related to subcontracts for new durable productive equipment. The extent to which the act applies to receipts or accruals from subcontracts for new durable productive equipment which is incorporated in another item of such equipment will be determined by reference to the average useful life of the equipment in question and not by reference to the life of the equipment of which it becomes a part. Subcontracts for equipment or other materials which are not new durable productive equipment are not covered by the exemption set forth in this part even though the equipment or other materials are incorporated in new durable productive equipment. The extent to which the act applies to receipts or accruals from such subcontracts will be determined according to the provisions of § 1456.5 of this subchapter.

4. Section 1455.3 (b) Exemptions is amended by deleting subparagraph (4) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

(4) Perishable subsistence supplies. Prime contracts and subcontracts for perishable subsistence supplies.

(i) Application of exemption. For the purposes of this exemption, the term "perishable subsistence supplies" includes all foods in such a state that they require storage under controlled refrigeration and humidity for preservation or, to avoid waste or spoilage, customarily require distribution and consumption within a short period. This category includes (but is not limited to) all fresh, smoked, frozen or refrigerated food products, meats and meat products, dairy and poultry products, waterfoods, fruits, vegetables, fruit juices and concentrates.

(ii) Perishable subsistence supplies exemption list. The Board has determined that the items shown on the following list are "perishable subsistence supplies" when such items are in a state described in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph. A prime contract or subcontract for an item listed will not, however, be deemed exempt when such item is packed or processed so that it is not in such a state. For example, although tomatoes are listed, canned tomatoes will not be deemed perishable subsistence supplies.

TITLE 32A—NATIONAL DEFENSE, APPENDIX

Chapter III—Office of Price Stabilization, Economic Stabilization Agency

[Ceiling Price Regulation 12, Amdt. 2]

CPR 12—MILLED RICE

CEILING PRICE FOR FORTIFIED OR ENRICHED RICE

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this amendment to Ceiling Price Regulation 12 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This amendment to Ceiling Price Regulation 12 fixes the ceiling price for fortified on enriched rice at $.40 per cwt. above the ceiling price for the particular variety, class, grade and quality of milled rice which is fortified or enriched.

Puerto Rico recently enacted legislation requiring that all rice sold there meet specified standards as to nutrient content. This legislation, designed to correct various nutritional deficiencies in the diet of the Puerto Rican people, specifies that fortified rice contain minimum amounts of thiamine, niacin and iron.

Over 90 percent of the rice received in Puerto Rico from outside sources is produced in the United States. During the 1950–51 crop year, approximately 1,913,000 hundredweight of California rice and 912,000 hundredweight of Southern rice (Arkansas, Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi) were sold to Puerto Rico. From August 1951, through March of 1952, Puerto Rico received about 1,439,000 hundredweight of rice from California and about 716,000 hundredweight from the South. This represents approximately 30 percent of the total quantity of milled rice sold by domestic millers for consumption outside the United States in the 1950–51 crop year and about 17 percent for the first six months of the crop year 1951–52. Although these figures represent rice of all types sold to Puerto Rico during these periods, the great bulk of the rice bought by Puerto Rico from the United States is polished white rice from which the natural vitamins have been removed in the milling process and which must be fortified to comply with Puerto Rican law. Fortified rice produced in the United States is also being sold to Hawaii, Guam and Cuba, although fortification is not required by law.

Ceiling prices for milled rice, as set by CPR 12, do not cover the costs of fortification. To avoid disruption of the flow of rice into these important trade channels and to prevent impairment of the increasing production of fortified rice, it is necessary to permit millers to reflect these costs in their ceiling prices.

Since fortified rice is a relatively new product, at the present time no defined standards exist for it except those set forth in Puerto Rican law which were patterned after those of the United States Food and Drug Administration for enriched flour. The rinsing test required by Puerto Rico was adapted from that of the U. S. Food and Drug Administration for enriched corn grits. In view of the lack of other satisfactory definition, the standards used by Puerto Rico and the U. S. Food and Drug Administration have been adopted for the purpose of setting a ceiling price. On the basis of information submitted by persons closely connected with the development of this product and by various members of the industry, the Director finds that these standards are reasonable and appropriate both for sales to Puerto Rico and in other world markets. No practicable alternative to these standards exists for securing effective price control of this type of rice and these standards comply with the requirements of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

In the formulation of this amendment there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, to the extent practicable, and consideration has been given to their recommendations.

In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization, the provisions of this amendment are generally fair and equitable, are necessary to effectuate the purposes of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, and comply with all the applicable provisions of that Act.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Section 4 (a) is amended by adding a new subparagraph (3) to read as follows:

(3) Fortified or enriched rice. Your ceiling price, per hundred pounds, for fortified or enriched rice is your ceiling price, per hundred pounds, for the particular variety, class, grade and quality of milled rice which is fortified or enriched, plus 40 cents.

(i) Fortified or enriched rice means polished white rice to which is added thiamine, niacin, and iron so as to contain not less than 2.0 milligrams of thiamine, 16.0 milligrams of niacin and 13.0 milligrams of iron per pound, and which, when subjected to the following rinsing test, retains at least 85 percent of the above prescribed minimum amount of each substance.

(a) Rinsing test. Transfer 100 grams of fortified rice to a 2-liter Erlenmeyer flask containing 1 liter of water at 25° C. Stopper the flask and rotate it for exactly one-half minute so that the grains are kept in motion. Allow the grains to settle for exactly one-half minute, and then pour off 850 cubic centimeters of the water along with any floating or suspended matter. Determine the amounts of thiamine, niacin and iron in the wet grains and water remaining in the flask. From these results calculate the number of milligrams of each substance remaining per pound of the rice before rinsing.

Effective date. This amendment shall become effective July 8, 1952.

Director of Price Stabilization.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 22, Amdt. 49]

CPR 22—MANUFACTURERS' GENERAL CEILING PRICE REGULATION

ROUNDING OF CEILING PRICES BY MANUFACTURERS WHO HAVE ESTABLISHED UNIFORM CEILING PRICES FOR RESELLERS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2 (16 F. R. 738), this Amendment 49 to Ceiling Price Regulation 22 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This amendment to Ceiling Price Regulation 22 eliminates certain difficulties which have resulted from differences between the rounding provisions contained in Section 25, CPR 22 and Section 3 (c), SR 4 to CPR 7.

SR 4 to CPR 7 enables manufacturers and wholesalers whose branded merchandise has historically been resold at uniform prices, to obtain authorization for uniform ceiling prices for sales by resellers. Section 3 (c) of SR 4 permits rounding of computed retail ceiling prices to the nearest customary retail "price point", provided that such rounding does not exceed 4 percent of the otherwise computed ceiling price.

Most manufacturers who have established uniform ceiling prices for resellers have computed their own ceiling prices under CPR 22. Section 25 of CPR 22 allows manufacturers to round their ceiling prices so that they will be expressed in the nearest cents or fraction of a cent normally employed. Such rounding, however, may not in any case exceed 1 percent of the ceiling price prior to rounding.

The variance between the 4 percent tolerance allowed by Section 3 (c) of SR 4, CPR 7 and the 1 percent tolerance allowed by Section 25 of CPR 22 has on occasion created difficulty. This has occurred in cases where, pursuant to the 4 percent tolerance allowed by SR 4, CPR 7, a ceiling price for retailers is established at such a level that application of customary trade discounts yields manufacturers' prices exceeding the 1 percent tolerance permitted by Section 25 of CPR 22. For example, suppose a manufacturer has a computed CPR 22 ceiling price of 61 cents and the computed retail ceiling price is $1.22. This computed retail ceiling price may be rounded to $1.25 if a 25 cent price point is customary. Although the customary discount for manufacturers' sales to retailers in such case is 50 percent, the manufacturer cannot sell the commodity at 62½ cents ($1.25×50 percent), because he cannot round his ceiling price beyond 61.6 cents under Section 25, CPR 22.

This amendment corrects this type of difficulty by permitting manufacturers who have established uniform ceiling prices for retailers under SR 4, CPR 7, to round their own ceiling prices to the extent necessary to preserve their resellers' customary mark-ups, without regard to the 1 percent limitation hitherto in effect under Section 25, CPR 22. Any manufacturer who uses this amendment to round any of his ceiling prices, must round his ceiling prices for all his commodities for which uniform retailers' ceiling prices have been established under SR 4, to reflect decreases as well as increases.

In view of the corrective nature of this amendment, consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, has been found to be unnecessary and impracticable. However, several individual manufacturers have informally requested action in the nature of this amendment.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Section 25 of Ceiling Price Regulation 22 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 25. Rounding ceiling prices. (a) You may round your ceiling prices determined under this regulation so that they will be expressed in the nearest cents or fraction of cent you normally employ. If you elect to do so you must similarly round the ceiling prices for all your commodities normally priced by you upon the same basis, to reflect decreases as well as increases. Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, the increase may in no event be greater than 1 percent of your ceiling price prior to rounding. For example, if you normally quote to the nearest quarter of a cent and your ceiling price for commodity A is 21.20 cents, you may round that ceiling price to 21¼ cents. However, if your ceiling price for commodity B is 27.30 cents you must round its ceiling price to 27¼ cents.

(b) You may round your ceiling prices for commodities which are listed in Appendix B of Ceiling Price Regulation 7 and for which uniform retailers' ceiling prices have been authorized under Supplementary Regulation 4 to Ceiling Price Regulation 7 to the extent necessary to preserve the same percentage mark-ups which the various classes of resellers had during the calendar year 1950. If you elect to do so you must similarly round the ceiling prices for all your commodities for which uniform retailers' ceiling prices have been authorized under Supplementary Regulation 4 to Ceiling Price Regulation 7, to reflect decreases as well as increases.

Effective date. This amendment 49 to Ceiling Price Regulation 22 is effective July 12, 1952.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 123, Supplementary Regulation 1]

CPR 123—CEILING PRICES FOR UNTREATED EASTERN RAILROAD TIES

SR 1—SUSPENSION FROM CEILING PRICES OF PRODUCERS' SALES FOR EXPORT OF UNTREATED SOUTHERN PINE CROSS TIES

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Supplementary Regulation No. 1 to Ceiling Price Regulation 123, is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This supplementary regulation to Ceiling Price Regulation 123 suspends from the provisions of CPR 123 producers' sales for export of untreated Southern Pine cross ties.

Southern Pine cross ties are used primarily by domestic railroads and domestic industrial concerns; they are normally not exported. Producers' ceiling prices for untreated Southern Pine cross ties established by CPR 123 are based upon prices that prevailed during the period from December 19, 1950 to January 25, 1951, the base period of the General Ceiling Price Regulation. During that period there were few, if any, producers' sales for export of untreated Southern Pine cross ties. As a result, ceiling prices established by CPR 123 for untreated Southern Pine cross ties, while adequate to induce enough production to satisfy domestic needs, are inadequate to stimulate enough production to meet increased demands for Southern Pine cross ties for use in foreign countries. An immediate need, vital to the defense effort of the United States, has arisen for Southern Pine cross ties to be used in South America.

Pricing data is not available to enable the Office of Price Stabilization to determine appropriate ceiling prices for producers' sales for export of untreated Southern Pines cross ties. This action, suspending the ceilings on this commodity, is taken in order to remove any price impediment to an adequate production for export.

FINDINGS OF THE DIRECTOR OF PRICE STABILIZATION

In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization the provisions of Supplementary Regulation 1 to CPR 123 are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to effectuate the purposes of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

So far as practicable, the Director of Price Stabilization has given due consideration to the national effort to achieve maximum production and the furtherance of the objectives of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended. In formulating this supplementary regulation, the Director has consulted with representatives of industry to the extent practicable under the circumstances, and has given consideration to their recommendations.

1. What this supplementary regulation does.
2. Suspension.
3. Records.
4. Definition.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 4 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply Title IV, 64 Stat. 803, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2101-2110, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.

SECTION 1. What this supplementary regulation does. The purpose of this supplementary regulation is to suspend from the provisions of Ceiling Price Regulation 123, hereinafter referred to as CPR 123, producers' sales for export of untreated Southern Pine cross ties.

SEC. 2. Suspension. On and after July 7, 1952, the provisions of CPR 123 are suspended with respect to producers' sales for export of untreated Southern Pine cross ties. This suspension will continue unless and until the Director of Price Stabilization terminates or modifies it. The suspension effected by this supplementary regulation does not operate to place producers' sales for export of untreated Southern Pine cross ties under the General Ceiling Price Regulation, under Ceiling Price Regulation 61, or under any other ceiling price regulation.

SEC. 3. Records. During the period of suspension, on sales covered by this supplementary regulation, you, and buyers from you, shall make and keep, for the period indicated in section 17 of CPR 123, the records that you are required to make and keep under the provisions of section 17 of CPR 123, and such records must separately identify all sales and purchases made under this supplementary regulation. You, and buyers from you, shall also continue to preserve for the period indicated in section 17 of CPR 123 all records which you, and buyers from you, made and kept under the provisions of section 17 of CPR 123.

SEC. 4. Definition. When used in this supplementary regulation the term "sale for export" means a sale, to a buyer located in the continental United States, of untreated Southern Pine cross ties destined for export and subsequent reshipment to any place outside the continental United States or a territory or possession of the United States.

Effective date. This supplementary regulation shall become effective July 7, 1952.

NOTE: The record-keeping requirements of this supplementary regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

ELLIS ARNALL,
Director of Price Stabilization.

JULY 7, 1952.

[F. R. Doc. 52-7538; Filed, July 7, 1952; 11:59 a. m.]

[Ceiling Price Regulation 139, Supplementary Regulation 1]

CPR 139—REBUILT AND USED AUTOMOTIVE PARTS

SR 1—CATALOG PRICING FOR CERTAIN LONG-TERM MAIL ORDER SELLERS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161 and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Supplementary Regulation to Ceiling Price Regulation 139 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This supplementary regulation is issued for the same reasons and accomplishes the same results as Supplementary Regulation 1 to Ceiling Price Regulation 67 (Resellers' Ceiling Prices for Machinery and Related Manufactured Goods). Accordingly, the Statement of Considerations involved in the issuance of that supplementary regulation is equally applicable to this supplementary regulation.

In the opinion of the Director of Price Stabilization the provisions of this supplementary regulation are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to effectuate the purposes of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

In view of the wide coverage of this supplementary regulation, special circumstances have rendered consultation with industry representatives including trade association representatives, impracticable.

Every effort has been made to conform this supplementary regulation to existing business practices, cost practices or methods, or means or aids to distribution. Insofar as any of its provisions may operate to compel changes in the business practices, cost practices or methods, or means or aids to distribution, such provisions are found by the Director of Price Stabilization to be necessary to prevent circumvention or evasion of this supplementary regulation.

REGULATORY PROVISIONS

Sec.
1. What this supplementary regulation does.
2. Applications for catalog price determining methods.
3. Invoicing.
4. Applicability of CPR 139.
5. Definitions.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 5 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply Title IV, 64 Stat. 803, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2101-2110, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.

SECTION 1. What this supplementary regulation does. This supplementary regulation provides that long term mail order sellers covered by CPR 139 may upon application, be permitted to follow their historic practices in determining ceiling prices for items included in their catalogs. The meaning of the term "long term mail order seller" is explained in section 5 (Definitions). This section is descriptive only. The following sections control.

SEC. 2. Applications for catalog price determining methods.—(a) Who may apply. If you are covered by CPR 139 and if you are a long term mail order seller you may apply to the Office of Price Stabilization for approval of a method of determining ceiling prices for commodities under CPR 139 which are included in your catalogs. Such a proposed method must provide that prices of items included in your catalogs will not be increased during the life of the catalogs; the method must show the period during which you determine prices of items included in your catalog and what catalogs you propose to use to determine your customary markups. The method must also provide that if you issue intermediate or flyer catalogs during the life of a general catalog the prices in such intermediate or flyer catalogs will reflect any decrease in the cost of the items included in the flyer or intermediate catalog that have occurred between the time you determine the price of items included in the general catalog and the time you determine the prices of items included in the intermediate or flyer catalog. The life of a general catalog shall not exceed eight calendar months, and the life of an intermediate or flyer catalog shall not exceed four calendar months. A more complete explanation of the terms "general catalog" and "intermediate or flyer catalog" is found in section 5 (Definitions).

(b) Contents of application. Your application must be filed by registered mail with the Industrial Materials and Manufactured Goods Division, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C., and must contain the following information:

(1) Your business name and address.

(2) A specific reference to this supplementary regulation.

(3) A statement of the geographic area served by you.

(4) A statement of the year in which you started in the long term catalog mail order business.

(5) A general description of the catalogs you issue, or propose to issue each year, including the effective period or proposed effective period for each catalog.

(6) Your proposed method or methods for determining ceiling prices of CPR 139 items included in these catalogs, a statement of the periods during which catalog prices are determined, and identification of the catalogs used to determine customary markups.

(c) Action on your application. After receipt of your application the Director may approve or disapprove your proposed ceiling price determining method, establish a different ceiling price determining method, or request further information. If, thirty days after receipt of your application by the Office of Price Stabilization as shown by your return receipt, none of the actions just listed has been taken, you may use your proposed ceiling price determining method until such time as the Office of Price Stabilization shall notify you that this method has been disapproved. However, the Director may at any time disapprove, revoke, or modify your proposed ceiling price determining method by order. This disapproval, revocation or modification will not be retroactive as to any sales made before the date of such disapproval, revocation or modification.

SEC. 3 Invoicing—(a) Requirements of CPR 139. Section 56 of CPR 139 requires that an invoice containing certain information be furnished to every purchaser to whom you make a sale of $5.00 or more, of commodities covered by CPR 139. If you apply under this supplementary regulation and your application is approved you may use the provisions of this section, with respect to invoicing, instead of section 56 of CPR 139.

(b) Returned order in lieu of an invoice. If you use this section instead of section 56 of CPR 139 you must return to every purchaser to whom you make a sale of an item, or items, covered by CPR 139 included in your catalog, a copy of the complete order form sent to you by the purchaser indicating thereon that the order has been filled or partially filled, as the case may be.

SEC. 4. Applicability of CPR 139. All of the provisions of CPR 139 which are not inconsistent with this supplementary regulation remain applicable to you.

SEC. 5. Definitions—(a) Definitions for this supplementary regulation—(1) Long-term mail order seller. This term means a person who issues at least one general catalog each year, and who regularly makes deliveries by mail, express or freight to ultimate consumers in response to orders received from them by mail or otherwise for commodities selected from general catalogs or other printed price lists issued by this person.
